THE

COMPILED STATUTES

OF THE

UNITED STATES

SUPPLEMENT 1911

TITLE I.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

CHAPTER ONE.

Definitions.

Sec. 1.

Definitions.

The provisions of Rev. St. §§ 1–5 apply to and govern the construction of the provisions of the Judicial Code, by section 293 thereof, post, under Title XII B, "The Judicial Code," c. 13.

CHAPTER TWO.

Form [and Enactment] of Statutes and Effect of Repeals.

Sec. 7.

Enacting clause.

All laws passed by the Philippine Commission shall have an enacting clause, as follows: "By authority of the United States be it enacted by the Philippine Commission"—by a provision of an act temporarily to provide for the administration of the affairs of civil government in the Philippine Islands, and for other purposes, Act July 1, 1902, c. 1369, § 1, 32 Stat. 691.

Sec. 11.

Title of appropriation acts.

No act of Congress is to be construed to make an appropriation out of the Treasury of the United States unless such act, in specific terms, declares an appropriation to be made for the specified purpose or purposes, by provisions of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1351, and Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 9, set forth post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations."

The committees of Congress in reporting general appropriation bills are required, as far as practicable, to follow the general order and arrangement of the respective appropriation acts for the year preceding, by a provision of Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 4, set forth post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations."

ACT MARCH 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1.

Engrossing and enrolling of bills and joint resolutions.

Besides the provisions for the printing of bills and joint resolutions set forth in the note to the provision of Act March 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 6, the printing of bills and resolutions was provided for by Act Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 55, Comp. St. 1901, p. 2554, which is amended by Act Jan. 20, 1905, c. 50, to read as set forth in that act, post, under Title XLV, "Public Printing, Advertisements, and Public Documents."

TITLE II.

THE CONGRESS.

CHAPTER ONE.

Election of Senators

Sec. 14.

When Senators to be elected.

The election of two Senators from the State of Oklahoma by the State legislature when organized was provided for by the enabling act for the admission of the State into the Union, Act June 16, 1906, c. 3335, § 21, 34 Stat. 277.

The election of two Senators from the State of New Mexico and two Senators from the State of Arizona by the legislature of each of those States when organized was provided for by the enabling act for the admission of the States into the Union, Act June 20, 1910, c. 310, §§ 16, 34, 36 Stat. 567, 578.

CHAPTER TWO.

Apportionment and Election of Representatives.

Act Aug. 8, 1911, c. 5, § 1, 37 Stat. 13.

Representatives from Arizona and New Mexico, when admitted as States.

Sec. 2. That if the Territories of Arizona and New Mexico shall become States in the Union before the apportionment of Representatives under the next decennial census they shall have one Representative each, and if one of such Territories shall so become a State, such State shall have one Representative, which Representative or Representatives shall be in addition to the number four hundred and thirty-three, as provided in section one of this Act, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this section are to that extent hereby repealed.

Act Aug. 8, 1911, c. 5, § 2, 37 Stat. 14.

Previous provisions for Representatives from New Mexico and Arizona were made by the enabling act for the admission of those States, Act June 20, 1910, c. 310, §§ 5, 23, 36 Stat. 561, 571.

Election by districts.

Sec. 3. That in each State entitled under this apportionment to more than one Representative, the Representatives to the Sixty-third and each subsequent Congress shall be elected by districts composed of a contiguous and compact territory, and containing as nearly as practicable an equal number of inhabitants. The said districts shall be equal to the number of Representatives to which such State may be entitled in Congress, no district electing more than one Representative.

Act Aug. 8, 1911, c. 5, § 3, 37 Stat. 14.

Election of additional Representatives at large in cases of increase in number.

Sec. 4. That in case of an increase in the number of Representatives in any State under this apportionment such additional Representative or Representatives shall be elected by the State at large and the other Representatives by the districts now prescribed by law until such State shall be redistricted in the manner provided by the laws thereof and in accordance with the rules enumerated in section three of this Act; and if there be no change in the number of Representatives from a State, the Representatives thereof shall be elected from the districts now prescribed by law until such State shall be redistricted as herein prescribed.

Act Aug. 8, 1911, c. 5, § 4, 37 Stat. 14.

Nominations of candidates for Representatives to be elected at large.

Sec. 5. That candidates for Representative or Representatives to be elected at large in any State shall be nominated in the same manner as candidates for governor, unless otherwise provided by the laws of such State.

Act Aug. 8, 1911, c. 5, § 5, 37 Stat. 15.

Sec. 27.

ACT JUNE 25, 1910, c. 392. [H. R. 2250.] [As amended 1911. H. R. 2958.]

An Act Providing for Publicity of Contributions Made for the Purpose of Influencing Elections at which Representatives in Congress are Elected. (36 Stat. 822.)

Term "political committee" defined.

Be it enacted, &c., That the term "political committee" under the provisions of this Act shall include the national committees of all political parties and the national congressional campaign committees of all political parties and all committees, associations, or organizations which shall in two or more States influence the result or attempt to influence the result of an election at which Representatives in Congress are to be elected.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 1, 36 Stat. 822.

Political committee to have chairman and treasurer; treasurer to keep account of moneys received, etc., and of expenditures, etc.

Sec. 2. That every political committee as defined in this Act shall have a chairman and a treasurer. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to keep a detailed and exact account of all money or its equivalent received by or promised to such committee or any member thereof, or by or to any person acting under its authority or in its behalf, and the name of every person, firm, association, or committee from whom received, and of all expenditures, disbursements, and promises of payment or disbursement made by the committee or any member thereof, or by any person acting under its authority or in its behalf, and to whom paid, distributed, or disbursed. No officer or member of such committee, or other person acting under its authority or in its behalf, shall receive any money or its equivalent, or expend or promise to expend any money on behalf of such committee, until after a chairman and treasurer of such committee shall have been chosen.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 2, 36 Stat. 823.

Receipts for payments, etc., by political committee; preservation thereof.

Sec. 3. That every payment or disbursement made by a political committee exceeding ten dollars in amount be evidenced by a receipted bill stating the particulars of expense, and every such record, voucher, receipt, or account shall be preserved for fifteen months after the election to which it relates.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 3, 36 Stat. 823.

Detailed account to treasurer of contributions, etc.; record thereof.

Sec. 4. That whoever, acting under the authority or in behalf of such political committee, whether as a member thereof or otherwise, receives any contribution, payment, loan, gift, advance, deposit, or promise of money or its equivalent shall, on demand, and in any event within five days after the receipt of such contribution, payment, loan, gift, advance, deposit, or promise, render to the treasurer of such political committee a detailed account of the same, together with the name and address from whom received, and said treasurer shall forthwith enter the same in a ledger or record to be kept by him for that purpose.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 4, 36 Stat. 823.

Statements by treasurer to be filed with Clerk of House of Representatives before election and after election; preservation and inspection thereof.

Sec. 5. That the treasurer of every such political committee shall, not more than fifteen days and not less than ten days next before an election at which Representatives in Congress are to be elected in two or more States, file in the office of the Clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington, District of Columbia, with said Clerk, an itemized detailed statement; and on each sixth day thereafter until such election said treasurer shall file with said Clerk a supplemental itemized detailed statement. Each of said statements shall conform to the requirements of the following section of this Act, except that the supplemental statement herein required need not contain any item of which publicity is given in a previous statement. Each of said statements shall be full and complete, and shall be signed and sworn to by said treasurer.

It shall also be the duty of said treasurer to file a similar statement with said Clerk within thirty days after such election, such final statement also to be signed and sworn to by said treasurer and to conform to the requirements of the following section of this Act. The statements so filed with the Clerk of the House shall be preserved by him for fifteen months and shall be a part of the public records of his office and shall be open to public inspection.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 5, 36 Stat. 823. Act Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 1, 37 Stat. 25.

The amendment of this section by Act Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 1, cited above, consists chiefly in the insertion of the requirement of statements before election as well as after.

Details of statements.

Sec. 6. That the statements required by the preceding section of this Act shall state:

Contributions, etc., of $100 or more.

First. The name and address of each person, firm, association, or committee who or which has contributed, promised, loaned, or advanced to such political committee, or any officer, member, or agent thereof, either in one or more items, money or its equivalent of the aggregate amount or value of one hundred dollars or more, and the amount or sum contributed, promised, loaned, or advanced by each.

Aggregate of contributions, etc., of less than $100.

Second. The aggregate sum contributed, promised, loaned, or advanced to such political committee, or to any officer, member, or agent thereof, in amounts of less than one hundred dollars.

Total of contributions, etc.

Third. The total sum of all contributions, promises, loans, and advances received by such political committee or any officer, member, or agent thereof.

Disbursements, etc., of $10 or more.

Fourth. The name and address of each person, firm, association, or committee to whom such political committee, or any officer, member, or agent thereof, has distributed, disbursed, contributed, loaned, advanced, or promised any sum of money or its equivalent of the amount or value of ten dollars or more, stating the amount or sum distributed, disbursed, contributed, loaned, advanced, or promised to each, and the purpose thereof.

Aggregate of disbursements, etc., of less than $10.

Fifth. The aggregate sum distributed, disbursed, contributed, loaned, advanced, or promised by such political committee, or any officer, member, or agent thereof, where the amount or value of such distribution, disbursement, loan, advance, or promise to any one person, firm, association, or committee in one or more items is less than ten dollars.

Total of disbursements, etc.

Sixth. The total sum disbursed, distributed, contributed, loaned, advanced, or promised by such political committee, or any officer, member, or agent thereof.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 6, 36 Stat. 823. Act Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 1, 37 Stat. 25.

Statements by others than political committees of expenditures, etc., of $50 or more.

Sec. 7. That every person, firm, association, or committee, except political committees as hereinbefore defined, that shall expend or promise any sum of money or other thing of value amounting to fifty dollars or more for the purpose of influencing or controlling, in two or more States, the result of an election at which Representatives to the Congress of the United States are elected, unless he or it shall contribute the same to a political committee as hereinbefore defined, shall file the statements of the same under oath, as required by section six of this Act, in the office of the Clerk of the House of Representatives, at Washington, District of Columbia, which statements shall be held by said Clerk in all respects as required by section five of this Act.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 7, 36 Stat. 824.

Term "candidate" defined.

Sec. 8. The word "candidate" as used in this section shall include all persons whose names are presented for nomination for Representative or Senator in the Congress of the United States at any primary election or nominating convention, or for indorsement or election at any general or special election held in connection with the nomination or election of a person to fill such office, whether or not such persons are actually nominated, indorsed, or elected.

Statements by candidates for nomination or election as Representatives to be filed with Clerk of House of Representatives, before election, of moneys, etc., received and expended, etc.

Every person who shall be a candidate for nomination at any primary election or nominating convention, or for election at any general or special election, as Representative in the Congress of the United States, shall, not less than ten nor more than fifteen days before the day for holding such primary election or nominating convention, and not less than ten nor more than fifteen days before the day of the general or special election at which candidates for Representatives are to be elected, file with the Clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington, District of Columbia, a full, correct, and itemized statement of all moneys and things of value received by him or by anyone for him with his knowledge and consent, from any source, in aid or support of his candidacy, together with the names of all those who have furnished the same in whole or in part; and such statement shall contain a true and itemized account of all moneys and things of value given, contributed, expended, used, or promised by such candidate, or by his agent, representative, or other person for and in his behalf with his knowledge and consent, together with the names of all those to whom any and all such gifts, contributions, payments, or promises were made, for the purpose of procuring his nomination or election.

Statements by candidates for nomination or election as Senators to be filed with Secretary of Senate, before election, of moneys, etc., received and expended, etc.

Every person who shall be a candidate for nomination at any primary election or nominating convention, or for indorsement at any general or special election, or election by the legislature of any State, as Senator in the Congress of the United States, shall, not less than ten nor more than fifteen days before the day for holding such primary election or nominating convention, and not less than ten nor more than fifteen days before the day of the general or special election at which he is seeking indorsement, and not less than five nor more than ten days before the day upon which the first vote is to be taken in the two houses of the legislature before which he is a candidate for election as Senator, file with the Secretary of the Senate at Washington, District of Columbia, a full, correct, and itemized statement of all moneys and things of value received by him or by anyone for him with his knowledge and consent, from any source, in aid or support of his candidacy, together with the names of all those who have furnished the same in whole or in part; and such statement shall contain a true and itemized account of all moneys and things of value given, contributed, expended, used, or promised by such candidate, or by his agent, representative, or other person for and in his behalf with his knowledge and consent, together with the names of all those to whom any and all such gifts, contributions, payments, or promises were made for the purpose of procuring his nomination or election.

Statements by candidates to be filed after election of moneys, etc., received and expended, etc.

Every such candidate for nomination at any primary election or nominating convention, or for indorsement or election at any general or special election, or for election by the legislature of any State, shall, within fifteen days after such primary election or nominating convention, and within thirty days after any such general or special election, and within thirty days after the day upon which the legislature shall have elected a Senator, file with the Clerk of the House of Representatives or with the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be, a full, correct, and itemized statement of all moneys and things of value received by him or by anyone for him with his knowledge and consent, from any source, in aid or support of his candidacy, together with the names of all those who have furnished the same in whole or in part; and such statement shall contain a true and itemized account of all moneys and things of value given, contributed, expended, used, or promised by such candidate, or by his agent, representative, or other person for and in his behalf with his knowledge and consent, up to, on, and after the day of such primary election, nominating convention, general or special election, or election by the legislature, together with the names of all those to whom any and all such gifts, contributions, payments, or promises were made for the purpose of procuring his nomination, indorsement, or election.

Statements by candidates to include statement of promises, etc., made relative to appointment, etc., or that no such promise, etc., has been made.

Every such candidate shall include therein a statement of every promise or pledge made by him, or by any one for him with his knowledge and consent or to whom he has given authority to make any such promise or pledge, before the completion of any such primary election or nominating convention or general or special election or election by the legislature, relative to the appointment or recommendation for appointment of any person to any position of trust, honor, or profit, either in the county, State, or Nation, or in any political subdivision thereof, or in any private or corporate employment, for the purpose of procuring the support of such person or of any person in his candidacy, and if any such promise or pledge shall have been made the name or names, the address or addresses, and the occupation or occupations, of the person or persons to whom such promise or pledge shall have been made, shall be stated, together with a description of the position relating to which such promise or pledge has been made. In the event that no such promise or pledge has been made by such candidate, that fact shall be distinctly stated.

Candidates forbidden to promise office, etc.; candidates for Senator forbidden to contribute, etc., to nomination or election of candidate for legislature of State; contributions to political committees permitted.

No candidate for Representative in Congress or for Senator of the United States shall promise any office or position to any person, or to use his influence or to give his support to any person for any office or position for the purpose of procuring the support of such person, or of any person, in his candidacy; nor shall any candidate for Senator of the United States give, contribute, expend, use, or promise any money or thing of value to assist in procuring the nomination or election of any particular candidate for the legislature of the State in which he resides, but such candidate may, within the limitations and restrictions and subject to the requirements of this act, contribute to political committees having charge of the disbursement of campaign funds.

Contributions or expenditures, etc., by candidates not to exceed amount allowed under laws of State; limit of aggregate for candidates for Representative and for Senator; assessments, etc., under laws of State, and certain personal expenses, not within this section.

No candidate for Representative in Congress or for Senator of the United States shall give, contribute, expend, use, or promise, or cause to be given, contributed, expended, used, or promised, in procuring his nomination and election, any sum, in the aggregate, in excess of the amount which he may lawfully give, contribute, expend, or promise under the laws of the State in which he resides: Provided, That no candidate for Representative in Congress shall give, contribute, expend, use, or promise any sum, in the aggregate, exceeding five thousand dollars in any campaign for his nomination and election; and no candidate for Senator of the United States shall give, contribute, expend, use, or promise any sum, in the aggregate, exceeding ten thousand dollars in any campaign for his nomination and election: Provided further, That money expended by any such candidate to meet and discharge any assessment, fee, or charge made or levied upon candidates by the laws of the State in which he resides, or for his necessary personal expenses, incurred for himself alone, for travel and subsistence, stationery and postage, writing or printing (other than in newspapers), and distributing letters, circulars, and posters, and for telegraph and telephone service, shall not be regarded as an expenditure within the meaning of this section, and shall not be considered any part of the sum herein fixed as the limit of expense and need not be shown in the statements herein required to be filed.

Details in successive statements.

The statements herein required to be made and filed before the general election, or the election by the legislature at which such candidate seeks election, need not contain items of which publicity is given in a previous statement, but the statement required to be made and filed after said general election or election by the legislature shall, in addition to an itemized statement of all expenses not theretofore given publicity, contain a summary of all preceding statements.

Person contributing, etc., to nomination or election of member of legislature, and thereafter a candidate for or elected Senator, required to comply with this section; details of statements.

Any person, not then a candidate for Senator of the United States, who shall have given, contributed, expended, used, or promised any money or thing of value to aid or assist in the nomination or election of any particular member of the legislature of the State in which he resides, shall, if he thereafter becomes a candidate for such office, or if he shall thereafter be elected to such office without becoming a candidate therefor, comply with all of the provisions of this section relating to candidates for such office, so far as the same may be applicable; and the statement herein required to be made, verified, and filed after such election shall contain a full, true, and itemized account of each and every gift, contribution, expenditure, and promise whenever made, in any wise relating to the nomination or election of members of the legislature of said State, or in any wise connected with or pertaining to his nomination and election of which publicity is not given in a previous statement.

Verification of statements; officers before whom to be made; filing statements by registered mail.

Every statement herein required shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the candidate, taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths under the laws of the State in which he is a candidate, and shall be sworn to or affirmed by the candidate in the district in which he is a candidate for Representative, or the State in which he is a candidate for Senator in the Congress of the United States: Provided, That if at the time of such primary election, nominating convention, general or special election, or election by the State legislature said candidate shall be in attendance upon either House of Congress as a Member thereof, he may at his election verify such statements before any officer authorized to administer oaths in the District of Columbia: Provided further, That the depositing of any such statement in a regular post office, directed to the Clerk of the House of Representatives or to the Secretary of the Senate, as the case may be, duly stamped and registered within the time required herein shall be deemed a sufficient filing of any such statement under any of the provisions of this Act.

Effect of act on laws of State.

This Act shall not be construed to annul or vitiate the laws of any State, not directly in conflict herewith, relating to the nomination or election of candidates for the offices herein named, or to exempt any such candidate from complying with such State laws.

Act Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, 37 Stat. 26.

This section was inserted as a new section after section 7 of Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, by section 2 of the amendatory act of Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, cited above.

Personal traveling, etc., expenses, for influencing results of election of Representatives, not subject to provisions of act.

Sec. 9. That any person may in connection with such election incur and pay from his own private funds for the purpose of influencing or controlling, in two or more States, the results of an election at which Representatives to the Congress of the United States are elected, all necessary personal expenses for his traveling, for stationery, and postage, and for telegraph and telephone service without being subject to the provisions of this Act.

This section, which was section 8 of Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, was amended and it and sections 9 and 10 of said act were renumbered as sections 9, 10, and 11, by Act Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, cited above.

Legal expenses in election contests not limited or affected by act.

Sec. 10. That nothing contained in this Act shall limit or affect the right of any person to spend money for proper legal expenses in maintaining or contesting the results of any election.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 392, § 9, 36 Stat. 824. Act Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, § 2, 37 Stat. 26.

See note under preceding section.

Punishment for violation of act.

Sec. 11. That every person willfully violating any of the foregoing provisions of this Act shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

See note under section 9 of this act.

CHAPTER FOUR.

Compensation of Members.

Sec. 35.

Salaries of members of Congress.

The repeal, by Act Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 16, of so much of Act March 3, 1873, c. 226, § 1, incorporated in part in Rev. St. § 35, and other sections of this chapter, as provided "for the increase of the compensation of public officers and employés, whether members of Congress, delegates, or others, except the President of the United States and the justices of the Supreme Court," and the further provision of Act Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, that "the salaries, compensation, and allowances of all said persons, except as aforesaid, shall be as fixed by the laws in force at the time of the passage of said act" of March 3, 1873, c. 226, § 1, operated as a repeal of so much of Rev. St. § 35, as fixed the amount of the salary of each Senator, Representative, and Delegate at $7,500, and restored, as the law previously in force on the subject, the provisions of Act July 28, 1866, c. 296, § 17, set forth below.

The compensation of Senators, Representatives, Delegates and Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico is at the rate of $7,500 per annum each, on and after March 4, 1907, by Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, also set forth below.

ACT JULY 28, 1866, c. 296, § 17.

Pay and mileage of Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress.

And be it further enacted, That the compensation of each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress shall be five thousand dollars per annum, to be computed from the first day of the present Congress, and in addition thereto mileage at the rate of twenty cents per mile, to be estimated by the nearest route usually travelled in going to and returning from each regular session; but nothing herein contained shall affect mileage accounts already accrued under existing laws: Provided, That hereafter mileage accounts of Senators shall be certified by the President of the Senate, and those of Representatives and Delegates by the Speaker of the House of Representatives: And provided further, That the pay of the Speaker shall be eight thousand dollars per annum.

Act July 28, 1866, c. 296, § 17, 14 Stat. 323.

This section is part of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1867. It was superseded by the provisions of Act March 3, 1873, c. 226, § 1, for increased compensation, which were incorporated into the Revised Statutes; but on the repeal of those provisions, by Act Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, Comp. St. 1901, p. 16, this section was revived, by express provision of said repealing act, as part of "the laws in force at the time of the passage of said act" so repealed. The rate of annual compensation was increased to $7,500 by Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4. [H. R. 21574.]

Compensation of Speaker of the House, Vice-President of the United States, heads of Executive Departments, and of Senators, Representatives, Delegates, and Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico.

That on and after March fourth, nineteen hundred and seven, the compensation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Vice-President of the United States and the heads of Executive Departments who are members of the President's Cabinet shall be at the rate of twelve thousand dollars per annum each, and the compensation of Senators, Representatives in Congress, Delegates from Territories, and Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico shall be at the rate of seven thousand five hundred dollars per annum each.

Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, 34 Stat. 993.

This section is part of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908. It supersedes the provisions relating to the annual compensation of the members of Congress and officers named, contained in Act July 28, 1866, c. 296, § 17, set forth above, and in Rev. St. §§ 37, 154, 160, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 16, 75, 79.

This section was repealed, in so far as it related to the annual compensation of the Secretary of State, and his annual compensation was to be at the rate of $8,000, by Act Feb. 17, 1909, c. 137, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 160, Title IV, "Provisions Applicable to All the Executive Departments." Appropriations of $8,000 therefor were made for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1910, and June 30, 1911; but the sum of $12,000 was appropriated for the Secretary of State for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1186.

The election of a Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico was authorized by Act April 12, 1900, c. 191, § 39, 31 Stat. 86, which provided that the salary should be at the rate of $5,000 per annum.

The election of two Resident Commissioners from the Philippine Islands was authorized by Act July 1, 1902, c. 1369, § 8, 32 Stat. 694, which provided that they should be entitled to a salary at the rate of $5,000 per annum, and $2,000 additional to cover all expenses. But by a provision of Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 188, the salary of each is to be the same as that of the Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico. And by subsequent acts, providing for quadrennial election of such Resident Commissioners, to hold office for the term of four years, each of them is to be allowed the same sum for stationery and for the pay of necessary clerk hire as is allowed to Representatives, and the franking privilege enjoyed by Representatives. Act June 14, 1910, c. 291, § 2, 36 Stat. 467. Act Feb. 15, 1911, c. 81, § 2, 36 Stat. 910.

Sec. 37.

Salary of Speaker of the House.

The repeal, by Act Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 16, of that part of the provisions of Act March 3, 1873, c. 226, § 1, which was incorporated in Rev. St. § 37, and the further provision of said Act Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, as stated in the above note under Rev. St. § 35, operated as a repeal of so much of Rev. St. § 37, as fixed the amount of the salary of the Speaker at $10,000, and restored, as the law previously in force on the subject, the provision of Act July 28, 1866, c. 296, § 17, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 35, which fixed his salary at $8,000.

The compensation of the Speaker is at the rate of $12,000 per annum, on and after March 4, 1907, by Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 35.

Sec. 43.

Newspapers.

The usual annual appropriation "for stationery and newspapers for Senators and the President of the Senate," mentioned in the note under this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 18, is repeated in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1174.

Sec. 45.

Salary in lieu of all allowances, except traveling.

The repeal, by Act Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 16, of so much of Act March 3, 1873, c. 226, § 1, incorporated in part in Rev. St. §§ 35, 45, and in other sections of this chapter, as provided for the increase of the compensation of Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress, and the further provision of Act Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, that their salaries, compensation, and allowances should be as fixed by the laws in force at the time of the passage of said act of March 3, 1873, c. 226, § 1, operated as a repeal of so much of Rev. St. § 45, as provided for the payment to Senators, Representatives, and Delegates of "actual individual traveling expenses from their homes to the seat of government and return, by the most direct route of usual travel, once for each session of the House to which such Senator, Representative, or Delegate belongs," and restored, as the law previously in force on the subject, the provision of Act July 28, 1866, c. 296, § 17, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 35, which fixed the compensation of each Senator, Representative, and Delegate at $5,000 per annum, "and in addition thereto mileage at the rate of twenty cents per mile, to be estimated by the nearest route usually travelled in going to and returning from each regular session."

The rate of compensation per annum was increased to $7,500 by Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 35.

Sec. 47.

Certificate of salary and accounts.

By a proviso annexed to Act July 28, 1866, c. 296, § 17, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 35, which was incorporated into Rev. St. § 47, and was restored to force by Act Jan. 20, 1874, c. 11, as stated in the above note under Rev. St. § 45, "mileage accounts of Senators shall be certified by the President of the Senate, and those of Representatives and Delegates by the Speaker of the House of Representatives."

The Speaker is authorized to designate a substitute to sign for him all certificates required by Rev. St. § 47, by a provision of Res. Nov. 12, 1903, No. 1, set forth below.

RES. NOV. 12, 1903, No. 1. [H. J. R. 14.]

Joint Resolution Making Immediately Available the Appropriations for Mileage of Senators and Members of the House of Representatives, and for Other Purposes. (33 Stat. 1.)

Substitute for Speaker to sign certificates for salary and accounts.

Resolved, &c., * * [Part of resolution omitted makes immediately available appropriations for mileage.]

Resolved, That the Speaker is authorized to designate from time to time some one from among those appointed by him and appropriated for and employed in his office, whose duty it shall be under the direction of the Speaker to sign in his name and for him all certificates required by section forty-seven of the Revised Statutes for salary and accounts for traveling expenses in going to and returning from Congress of Representatives and Delegates.

Resolved, * * [Remainder of resolution makes immediately available appropriations for compensation of session employees of the Senate and House of Representatives.]

Res. Nov. 12, 1903, No. 1, 33 Stat. 1.

Sec. 51.

ACT MARCH 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1.

Clerks to Senators.

The usual annual appropriation for clerks to Senators who are not chairmen of committees, mentioned in the note under the provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 21, is repeated in the legislative, executive, and judicial apppropriation acts for each subsequent fiscal year. Such appropriations for the year ending June 30, 1912, are for 35 annual clerks to such Senators, at $2,000 each, and for 22 stenographers to Senators who are not chairmen of committees and three stenographers to the chairmen of the three junior minority committees, at $1,200 each, by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1174.

Appropriations for the same fiscal year, for compensation of five clerks to Senators who are not chairmen of committees, at $2,000, and for ten stenographers to such Senators, at $1,200 each, are made by the deficiency appropriation act of March 4, 1911, c. 240, § 1, 36 Stat. 1315.

ACT JULY 7, 1898, c. 571, § 1.

Clerks to Representatives.

The usual annual appropriation for clerk hire to Members of the House of Representatives and Delegates, mentioned in the note under the provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 22, is repeated in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for each subsequent fiscal year, down to the year ending June 30, 1912. The recent acts, instead of the appropriation "to pay Members and Delegates the amounts which they certify they have paid or agree to pay for clerk hire," etc., as in previous acts, make an appropriation to pay each Member and Delegate for clerk hire a stated sum, or so much thereof as necessary. The provision for the year ending June 30, 1912, is as follows:

"Clerk hire, Members and Delegates: To pay each Member, Delegate, and Resident Commissioner, for clerk hire, necessarily employed by him in the discharge of his official and representative duties, one thousand five hundred dollars per annum, in monthly installments, five hundred and ninety-eight thousand five hundred dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary; and Representatives and Delegates elect to Congress whose credentials in due form of law have been duly filed with the Clerk of the House of Representatives, in accordance with the provisions of section thirty-one of the Revised Statutes of the United States, shall be entitled to payment under this appropriation." Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1180.

CHAPTER FIVE.

Officers and Persons in the Employ of the Senate and House of Representatives.

Sec. 52.

Officers and employés of Senate.

The appropriations for the officers, clerks, and employés in the service of the Senate for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act of March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1170–1175.

An Assistant Secretary of the Senate is authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 20, 1874, c. 328, § 1.

Limit of compensation of Sergeant-at-Arms of Senate.

The usual annual appropriation for the Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate, increased to $6,500, and an additional sum for horse and wagon for his use, is repeated in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1173.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1. [H. R. 19150.]

Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

There shall be employed in the office of the Secretary of the Senate an Assistant Secretary of the Senate (Henry M. Rose), at an annual salary of five thousand dollars, and the sum of six thousand six hundred and twenty-five dollars is hereby appropriated for the balance of the present fiscal year and for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six.

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1, 33 Stat. 1245.

This is a provision of the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. The appropriation is continued in the subsequent legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts. The appropriation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1170.

RES. AUG. 8, 1911, No. 4. [H. J. Res. 130.]

Chief clerk of the post office, and messenger at the card door.

The offices of assistant postmaster and mail carrier, at two thousand and eighty-eight dollars, and clerk, at one thousand six hundred dollars, as provided for in the Act making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the Government for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and twelve, and for other purposes, approved March fourth, nineteen hundred and eleven, be, and the same are hereby, abolished, and the following offices are hereby created in lieu thereof, to take effect July fourteenth, nineteen hundred and eleven, namely: Chief clerk of the post office, at one thousand eight hundred dollars; and messenger at the card door, at one thousand six hundred dollars.

Res. Aug. 8, 1911, No. 4, 37 Stat. 37.

This paragraph is part of a joint resolution making appropriations for certain expenses incident to the first session of the sixty-second Congress, and for other purposes, cited above.

The appropriation mentioned therein was made by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1174.

Sec. 53.

Officers and employés of House of Representatives.

The appropriations for the officers, clerks, and employés in the service of the House of Representatives for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act of March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1175–1181.

ACT JUNE 20, 1874, c. 328, § 1.

Limit of compensation of Sergeant-at-Arms of House.

The usual annual appropriation for the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House, increased to $6,500, is repeated in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1178.

Sec. 54.

ACT JUNE 22, 1874, c. 388, § 1.

Pay of official reporters.

The usual annual appropriations for reporting the debates and proceedings of each house, the Senate, $30,000, the House of Representatives, $32,500, are repeated in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1175, 1180.

Sec. 59.

ACT OCT. 1, 1890, c. 1256, § 8.

Employés in office of Sergeant-at-Arms of House.

The appropriation for the office of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is contained in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act of March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1178.

Sec. 64.

Statements of appropriations and offices.

An appropriation for the preparation of the statement required by this section and the subsequent provisions set forth under it is made by the sundry civil appropriation act for each year. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1443.

Sec. 76.

Payments from contingent fund.

Further restrictions on expenditure of appropriations for contingent expenses of either House of Congress, besides those contained in Rev. St. § 3680, Comp. St. 1901, p. 2455, are imposed by a provision of Act Feb. 14, 1902, c. 17, post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations."

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 240. [H. R. 32957.]

Vouchers for payments from contingent fund of House of Representatives, approved by Committee on Accounts, conclusive.

Hereafter the payments made from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives upon vouchers approved by the Committee on Accounts shall be deemed, held, and taken, and are hereby declared to be conclusive upon all the departments and officers of the Government.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 240, 36 Stat. 1318.

This is a provision of the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year 1911, cited above.

CHAPTER SIX.

The Library of Congress.

Sec. 82.

Joint Committee on Library.

The number of members of each house constituting the committee is increased by Res. Feb. 7, 1902, No. 5, set forth below.

RES. FEB. 7, 1902, No. 5.

Joint Resolution Increasing the Membership of the Joint Committee of Congress upon the Library. (32 Stat. 735.)

Joint Committee on Library increased.

Resolved, &c., That the Joint Committee of Congress upon the Library, authorized by section eighty-two of the Revised Statutes, shall hereafter consist of five members of the Senate and five members of the House of Representatives.

Res. Feb. 7, 1902, No. 5, 32 Stat. 735.

Secs. 88-91.

ACT FEB. 19, 1897, c. 265, § 1.

Librarian of Congress, officers and employés, and Superintendent of Library building and grounds.

The provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 49, relating to the Register of Copyrights, are superseded by those relating to that officer and to the Copyright Office, contained in Act March 4, 1909, c. 320, §§ 48-61, set forth post, under Title LX, "Patents, Trade-Marks, and Copyrights," c. 3.

The appropriations for the Library, and for the custody, care, and maintenance of the Library building and grounds, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act of March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1181-1184.

Sec. 94.

Persons specially privileged to use Library.

The sale to the public of copies of the card indexes and other publications of the Library is authorized by a provision of Act June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1.

Sale of copies of card indexes and other publications.

The Librarian of Congress is hereby authorized to furnish to such institutions or individuals as may desire to buy them, such copies of the card indexes and other publications of the Library as may not be required for its ordinary transactions, and charge for the same a price which will cover their cost and ten per centum added, and all moneys received by him shall be deposited in the Treasury.

Act June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 480.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

Sec. 98.

Deposit in Library of journals of Senate and House.

The transfer to the Library of books, etc., from executive departments, bureaus, or commissions, is authorized by Res. Feb. 21, 1902, No. 6, and by a provision of Act Feb. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1, set forth below.

RES. FEB. 21, 1902, No. 6.

Joint Resolution Authorizing the Transfer to the Library of Congress of the Library of State Reports, and so forth. (32 Stat. 736.)

Transfer to Library of books and papers of Industrial Commission.

Resolved, &c., That all volumes and pamphlets published by the several States and Territories and collected by the Industrial Commission, also official minutes of the Commission and files of correspondence, are hereby directed to be turned over by the Industrial Commission to the Librarian of Congress, subject to the further orders of Congress.

Res. Feb. 21, 1902, No. 6, 32 Stat. 736.

The official minutes and files of correspondence of the Industrial Commission deposited with the Librarian of Congress by this resolution, and volumes and pamphlets constituting the library of the Industrial Commission, not needed for the uses of the Library of Congress, were transferred to the Department of Commerce and Labor, by Res. March 4, 1907, No. 26, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1.

Transfer to Library of books, etc., from departments, bureaus, or commissions.

The head of any Executive department or bureau or any commission of the Government is hereby authorized from time to time to turn over to the Librarian of Congress, for the use of the Library of Congress, any books, maps, or other material in the library of the department, bureau, or commission no longer needed for its use, and in the judgment of the Librarian of Congress appropriate to the uses of the Library of Congress.

Any books of a miscellaneous character no longer required for the use of such department, bureau, or commission, and not deemed an advisable addition to the Library of Congress, shall, if appropriate to the uses of the Free Public Library of the District of Columbia, be turned over to that library for general use as a part thereof.

Act Feb. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1, 32 Stat. 865.

These are provisions of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

RES. MARCH 4, 1907, No. 26. [H. J. R. 211.]

Joint Resolution Authorizing the Transfer of the Files, Books, and Pamphlets of the Industrial Commission. (34 Stat. 1425.)

Transfer to Department of Commerce and Labor of minutes and files of correspondence and books of Industrial Commission.

Resolved, &c., That all official minutes and files of correspondence of the Industrial Commission deposited with the Librarian of Congress by the joint resolution of February twenty-first, nineteen hundred and two, be transferred to the Department of Commerce and Labor, to become the property of said Department. The Librarian of Congress is hereby authorized to select from the volumes and pamphlets constituting the library of the Industrial Commission such publications as may be needed for the uses of the Library of Congress, which books shall become the property of the Library of Congress, and to turn over the residue of such volumes and pamphlets to the Department of Commerce and Labor, to become the property of the said Department.

Res. March 4, 1907, No. 26, 34 Stat. 1425.

The transfer to the Library of Congress of the minutes, etc., and books mentioned in this resolution was directed by Res. Feb. 21, 1902, No. 6, set forth above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1. [H. R. 23464.]

Transfer to other libraries of books and material, and disposition of useless material.

The Librarian of Congress may from time to time transfer to other governmental libraries within the District of Columbia, including the Public Library, books and material in the possession of the Library of Congress in his judgment no longer necessary to its uses, but in the judgment of the custodians of such other collections likely to be useful to them, and may dispose of or destroy such material as has become useless.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, 35 Stat. 858.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

TITLE III.

THE PRESIDENT.

CHAPTER TWO.

Office and Compensation of the President.

Sec. 153.

President's salary.

The compensation of the President, after March 3, 1909, is $75,000 per annum, by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, set forth below.

The payment of the traveling expenses of the President, not exceeding $25,000 per annum, is provided for by Act June 23, 1906, c. 3523, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 23, 1906, c. 3523. [H. R. 20321.]

An Act To Provide for the Traveling Expenses of the President of the United States. (34 Stat. 454.)

President's traveling expenses.

Be it enacted, &c., That hereafter there may be expended for or on account of the traveling expenses of the President of the United States such sum as Congress may from time to time appropriate, not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars per annum, such sum when appropriated to be expended in the discretion of the President and accounted for on his certificate solely.

There is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes authorized by this Act for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and seven, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

Act June 23, 1906, c. 3523, 34 Stat. 454.

This appropriation is repeated in subsequent sundry civil appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1404.

ACT MARCH 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1. [H. R. 23464.]

President's compensation.

For compensation of the President of the United States, seventy-five thousand dollars, and after the third of March, nineteen hundred and nine, the compensation of the President of the United States shall be seventy-five thousand dollars per annum; a sufficient sum to pay the increase in the compensation of the President herein authorized from March fourth to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and nine, inclusive, is hereby appropriated.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, 35 Stat. 859.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Sec. 154.

Vice-President's salary.

The compensation of the Vice-President is at the rate of $12,000 per annum, on and after March 4, 1907, by Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 35.

Sec. 155.

Officers of the President's household.

The usual annual appropriations for the Secretary to the President, executive clerk and other clerks, etc., in the office of the President, and for contingent expenses of the Executive Office, are made by the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1184.

The appointment of an officer of the Signal Corps as chief of the telegraph and cipher bureau of the Executive Office is authorized by a provision of Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

The detail of employés of the Executive Departments and other Government establishments to the office of the President for temporary assistance is authorized by a provision of Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1, set forth below.

The usual annual appropriations for care, repair, and refurnishing of the Executive Mansion, and for horses and vehicles for official purposes, for care, etc. of greenhouses, for fuel, and for lighting, are made by the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1404.

Accommodations for the horses, carriages, and other vehicles of the President and of the Executive Office are to be provided by the Quartermaster General of the Army, by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, set forth below.

Provisions for the custody of the plate, furniture, and public property in the Executive Mansion, and for an annual inventory thereof, are contained in Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 9, set forth post, under Rev. St. §§ 156, 157.

ACT FEB. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1. [H. R. 15895.]

Detail of employés of Executive Departments and other Government establishments to the office of the President.

* * That employees of the Executive Departments and other establishments of the executive branch of the Government may be detailed from time to time to the office of the President of the United States, for such temporary assistance as may be necessary.

Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1, 33 Stat. 642.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for officers, clerks, and employés in the office of the President, in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above. It is repeated in the similar acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1185.

Accommodations for horses, carriages, etc., to be provided by Quartermaster General of the Army.

The Quartermaster General of the Army shall provide suitable accommodations for the horses, carriages, and other vehicles of the President and of the Executive Office, in the stables maintained in the District of Columbia by and for the use of his department.

Act March 4. 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1404.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Secs. 156, 157.

[Superseded. Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 9.]

The provisions of these sections and of Act April 17, 1900, c. 192, § 1, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 76, 77, for the custody of the other public property in and belonging to the Executive Mansion, and for an annual inventory thereof, are superseded by Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 9, set forth below.

Custody and annual inventory of public property in and belonging to Executive Mansion.

Sec. 9. Hereafter the steward, housekeeper, or such other employee of the Executive Mansion as the President may designate, shall, under the direction of the President, have the charge and custody of and be responsible for the plate, furniture, and public property therein, and shall, before entering upon the duties of the office, give bond for the faithful discharge thereof, said bond to be in the sum of ten thousand dollars, and be approved by the Secretary of War. And hereafter a complete inventory, in proper books, shall be made annually in the month of June, under the direction of the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, of all the public property in and belonging to the Executive Mansion, showing when purchased, its cost, condition, and final disposition. This inventory shall be submitted to the President for his approval, and shall then be kept for reference in the Office of Public Buildings and Grounds, which shall furnish a copy thereof to the steward, housekeeper, or other employee responsible for the property.

This section is part of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above. It supersedes previous similar provisions of Rev. St. §§ 156, 157, and Act April 17, 1900, c. 192, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 76, 77.

Other previous requirements of an annual statement and an inventory of such property with other public property are contained in Rev. St. §§ 1832, 1833, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1247.

TITLE IV.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS.

Sec. 158.

Application of provisions of this Title.

This section is amended to include the Department of Commerce and Labor, and the provisions of this Title of the Revised Statutes, including all amendments thereto, are made applicable to said Department, by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 1, post, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

Sec. 159.

Word "Department."

The Department of Commerce and Labor is included in this definition by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 1, post, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

Sec. 160.

Salaries of heads of Departments.

The compensation of the heads of Executive Departments who are members of the President's Cabinet is at the rate of $12,000 per annum each, by Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, set forth ante, under Title II, "The Congress," c. 4. That section was repealed, in so far as it related to the annual compensation of the Secretary of State, which was fixed at $8,000, by Act Feb. 17, 1909, c. 137, and Act March 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, set forth post, under Title V, "The Department of State." But the sum of $12,000 is appropriated for the Secretary of State for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1186.

Sec. 161.

Departmental regulations.

The application of this section to the Post Office Department is not to be affected by anything contained in the postal service appropriation act of April 28, 1904, c. 1759, § 1, by a provision of that act set forth below.

Appropriations "to enable the President, by the employment of accountants and experts from official and private life, to more effectively inquire into the methods of transacting the public business of the Government in the several executive departments and other government establishments, with the view of inaugurating new or changing old methods of transacting such public business so as to attain greater efficiency and economy therein, and to ascertain and recommend to Congress what changes in law may be necessary to carry into effect such results of his inquiry as can not be carried into effect by executive action alone," were made by the sundry civil appropriation acts for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1911, and June 30, 1912, Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 703, and Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1363.

Departmental regulations not affected by provisions of act.

* * That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to repeal or in any manner modify section one hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes of the United States in its application to the Post-Office Department.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1759, § 1, 33 Stat. 439.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriations for the free delivery service in the postal service appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

Sec. 162.

ACT MARCH 3, 1893, c. 211, § 5.

Hours of labor and leaves of absence of clerks and other employés.

In addition to the provisions for leaves of absence to various officers referred to in the note to this section, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 81, such leaves to employés of certain bureaus of the Department of Agriculture, outside of the city of Washington, are authorized by various provisions set forth post, under Title XII, "The Department of Agriculture."

Sec. 167.

Salaries of persons employed in the Departments.

The rates of pay of various classes of employés provided for in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for recent fiscal years were fixed by similar provisions of section 2 of each of said acts. The provisions for the year ending June 30, 1912, in Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 2, are set forth post, under Title XIX, "Provisions Applicable to Several Classes of Officers."

Rules for division of time and computation of pay for services rendered, where the compensation of any person in the service of the United States is annual or monthly, are prescribed by Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 6, set forth post, under Title XIX, "Provisions Applicable to Several Classes of Officers."

The appropriations made for the officers, clerks, and persons employed in the public service are not to be available for the compensation of any persons incapacitated, otherwise than temporarily, for performing such service, by a provision repeated in each annual legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 3, set forth post, under Title XIX, "Provisions Applicable to Several Classes of Officers."

Sec. 169.

ACT AUG. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 4.

Officers, clerks, and other employés as specifically provided for each year.

The employment in the Department of State of personal services other than those specifically authorized or appropriated for is forbidden by a provision of Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, set forth post, under Title V, "The Department of State."

A General Staff Corps of the Army, to be composed of officers detailed from the Army at large, is established by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1. Subsequent provisions forbidding the detail to or assignment to duty with any office or bureau of the War Department of clerks or other employés at headquarters of divisions, departments, or the office of the Chief of Staff, or such detail from the Department to the office of the General Staff, contained in Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, and Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, are also set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

In connection with the establishment of a department of the Army, to be known as the Military Secretary's Department, constituted of the officers of the Adjutant-General's Department, except the Adjutant-General, and the officers of the [illegible] Office, by provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1, other accompanying provisions of the same act, also set forth under said Title and chapter, constitute the Adjutant-General's Office and the Record and Pension Office, previously bureaus of the War Department, a consolidated bureau to be known as the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department. Subsequent provisions relating to the bureaus so consolidated, contained in Act April 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1, are set forth below. The Military Secretary's Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Office, by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

The superintendent of the State, War, and Navy building is also to act as [illegible] of certain annex buildings, by a provision of Act May 22, 1906, c. 186, § 1, set forth below.

ACT AUG. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1.

Skilled draftsmen, civil engineers, and other employés in office of Chief of Engineers.

The provision of this act and of subsequent annual appropriation acts, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 112, is repeated, in the same language, omitting, after the word "surveys," the words "for military defenses," in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for subsequent fiscal years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, is set forth below.

In the similar act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, 33 Stat. 115, an appropriation was made for services of skilled draftsmen and others in the office of the Chief of Ordnance, and in Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, 34 Stat. 419, an appropriation was made for such services in the Signal Office; and both provisions are repeated in the similar acts for subsequent years. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, in Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, are set forth below.

Similar provisions of the same acts for employment of draftsmen, etc., in certain bureaus in the Navy Department, are referred to post, under Title X, "The Department of the Navy."

A provision for the employment of professional and other assistants in the office of the Chief of Engineers in the performance of the duties imposed by the river and harbor improvement acts, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 264, § 14, 35 Stat. 836, was repealed by a provision of Act June 17, 1910, c. 297, § 1, 36 Stat. 503.

ACT MAY 9, 1892, c. 62.

Record and Pension Office.

Provisions for the compilation, by the chief of the Record and Pension office, of a complete roster of the Union and Confederate armies, are contained in Act Feb. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 217.

The officers of the Record and Pension Office, with the officers of the Adjutant-General's Department of the Army, are constituted one department of the Army to be known as the Military Secretary's Department, and the Adjutant-General's Office and the Record and Pension Office, previously constituting bureaus of the War Department, are constituted a consolidated bureau to be known as the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department, by provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1. Subsequent provisions relating to the bureaus so consolidated, contained in Act April 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1, are set forth below. The Military Secretary's Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Office, by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

Provisions relating to vacancies in the office of Assistant Chief of the Record and Pension Office, and to changes of the titles of that officer and other officers, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, and Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, are set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1369, § 87.

Bureau of Insular Affairs.

That the Division of Insular Affairs of the War Department, organized by the Secretary of War, is hereby continued until otherwise provided, and shall hereafter be known as the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department. The business assigned to said Bureau shall embrace all matters pertaining to civil government in the island possessions of the United States subject to the jurisdiction of the War Department; and the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to detail an officer of the Army whom he may consider especially well qualified, to act under the authority of the Secretary of War as the chief of said Bureau; and said officer while acting under said detail shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a colonel.

This section is a part of the act to provide temporarily for the civil government of the Philippine Islands, cited above.

So much of this section as authorizes the detail of an officer of the Army to act as chief of the Bureau is superseded by the provisions for the appointment of a Chief of the Bureau, by Act June 25, 1906, c. 3528, and for the detail of officers of the Army to act as assistants to the Chief of the Bureau, by Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, and Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth below.

Consolidation of Adjutant General's Office and Record and Pension Office in Military Secretary's Office; appropriations made available; employés transferred to consolidated bureau.

That whenever the office of the Adjutant-General and the Record and Pension Office shall be consolidated by operation of law, any appropriation available at the time of such consolidation, or that may thereafter become available, for the support of either of those offices shall be equally available for the support of the bureau formed by the consolidation, and all employees provided by law for either of said offices, except such employees as were transferred by the Secretary of War to the Military Information Division of the General Staff prior to April first, nineteen hundred and four, shall be regarded as employees of the consolidated bureau and shall be exclusively engaged upon the work of that bureau as required in the case of the employees of the Record and Pension Office by the Acts making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the Government for the fiscal years nineteen hundred and four and nineteen hundred and five.

Act April 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1, 33 Stat. 401.

This is a provision, under the head "War Department," in the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above. The consolidation of the Adjutant-General's Office and the Record and Pension Office, previously bureaus of the War Department, into the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department, mentioned in this provision, was authorized, in connection with the establishment of a department of the Army, to be known as the Military Secretary's Department, constituted of the officers of the Adjutant-General's Department, except the Adjutant-General, and the officers of the Record and Pension Office, by provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1. The Military Secretary's Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Office, by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, also set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

The requirements of the appropriation acts for the fiscal years 1904 and 1905, mentioned in this provision, are contained in Act Feb. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1, 32 Stat. 884, and Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, 33 Stat. 114. A similar requirement as to employés provided for by the appropriation for the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, is contained in that act, Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1, 33 Stat. 659.

Provisions relating to vacancies in the office of Assistant Chief of the Record and Pension Office, and to changes of the titles of that officer and other officers, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, and Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, are set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

An Act to Increase the Efficiency of the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department. (34 Stat. 456.)

Chief of Bureau of Insular Affairs.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department shall hereafter be appointed by the President for the period of four years, unless sooner relieved, with the advice and consent of the Senate, and while holding that office he shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a brigadier-general.

Act June 25, 1906, c. 3528, 34 Stat. 456.

Before this act, an officer of the Army was to be detailed as chief of the Bureau, with the rank, pay, and allowances of a colonel, under Act July 1, 1902, c. 1369, § 87, set forth above.

The detail of officers of the Army, to act as assistants to the Chief of the Bureau, is authorized by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, and Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth below.

Assistant to Chief of Bureau of Insular Affairs.

* * That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to detail an officer of the Army, whom he may consider especially well qualified, to act as principal assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department, and said principal assistant while acting under said detail shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a major: And provided further, That the provisions of section twenty-seven of the Act of February second, nineteen hundred and one, with reference to the transfer of officers of the line to the departments of the staff for tours of service, shall apply to the vacancy created by this Act and to the return of the officer so detailed to the line of the Army.

This is a provision following appropriations for officers of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 27, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 800.

The appointment of an additional officer of the Army as assistant to the Chief of the Bureau is authorized by a provision of Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth below.

ACT MAY 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1. [H. R. 16882.]

Duties of superintendent of State, War, and Navy building extended to annex buildings.

The superintendent of the State, War, and Navy building shall also act as superintendent of the Navy Department Annex, or Mills Building, and the State Department Annex building.

Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 218.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

ACT MARCH 23, 1910, c. 115. [H. R. 15384.]

Additional assistant to Chief of Bureau of Insular Affairs.

The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to detail one additional officer of the army as assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, under the same provisions of law in regard to the vacancy in the line thus created and return to the line as govern in the case of the assistant authorized by the Act of March second, nineteen hundred and seven; and the assistant herein authorized while serving in this capacity shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of colonel; and both officers detailed in the Bureau of Insular Affairs shall hereafter be designated, while on this duty, as assistants to the chief of the bureau.

Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 248.

This is a provision following appropriations for pay of the staff corps, etc., in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

The provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, mentioned in this section, is set forth above.

Skilled draftsmen and other employés in Signal Office.

The services of skilled draftsmen and such other services as the Secretary of War may deem necessary may be employed only in the Signal Office to carry into effect the various appropriations for fortifications and other works of defense, to be paid from such appropriations, in addition to the foregoing employees appropriated for in the Signal Office: Provided, That the entire expenditures for this purpose for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twelve, shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars, and that the Secretary of War shall each year in the annual estimates report to Congress the number of persons so employed, their duties, and the amount paid to each.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1204.

This is a provision following an appropriation for the Signal Office in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. A similar provision was made in the similar acts for preceding years.

Skilled draftsmen and other employés in office of Chief of Ordnance.

The services of skilled draftsmen and such other services, not clerical, as the Secretary of War may deem necessary, may be employed in the office of the Chief of Ordnance to carry into effect the various appropriations for the armament of fortifications, and for the arming and equipping of the organized militia, to be paid from such appropriations, in addition to the amount specifically appropriated for draftsmen in the Army Ordnance Bureau: Provided, That the entire expenditures for this purpose for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twelve, shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars, and that the Secretary of War shall each year in the annual estimates report to Congress the number of persons so employed, their duties, and the amount paid to each.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1205.

This is a further provision, following an appropriation for the office of the Chief of Ordnance, in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

A similar provision was made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, by Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, 33 Stat. 115, and was repeated in the subsequent similar acts for each year. The words "and for the arming and equipping of the organized militia," and the words "their duties," near the end of the proviso, were inserted in Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, 34 Stat. 420, and in the subsequent acts.

Skilled draftsmen, civil engineers, and other employés in office of Chief of Engineers.

And the services of skilled draftsmen, civil engineers, and such other services as the Secretary of War may deem necessary, may be employed only in the office of the Chief of Engineers, to carry into effect the various appropriations for rivers and harbors, fortifications, and surveys to be paid from such appropriations: Provided, That the expenditures on this account for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and twelve, shall not exceed forty-two thousand dollars; and that the Secretary of War shall each year, in the annual estimates, report to Congress the number of persons so employed, their duties, and the amount paid to each.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1205.

This is a further provision, following an appropriation for the office of the Chief of Engineers, in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

A similar provision was made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1883, by Act Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 112, and was repeated in the subsequent similar acts for each year. The limit of the amount to be expended was fixed at $10,000, and the words "their duties," near the end of the proviso, were first inserted in Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, 34 Stat. 420.

Sec. 217.

Custody of the departmental records and property.

The compilation from the records of a complete roster of the Union and Confederate armies is authorized by a provision of Act Feb. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1, set forth below.

The transfer of military rolls and records of wars prior to the civil war, from other Departments to the War Department, is provided for by Res. April 28, 1904, No. 35, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1.

Roster of Union and Confederate armies.

* * That under the direction of the Secretary of War the Chief of the Record and Pension Office shall compile, from such official records as are in the possession of the United States and from such other authentic records as may be obtained by loan from the various States and other official sources, a complete roster of the officers and enlisted men of the Union and Confederate armies.

Act Feb. 25, 1903, c. 755, § 1, 32 Stat. 884.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for the Record and Pension Office in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

The Record and Pension Office, mentioned in this provision, is consolidated with the Adjutant-General's Office, as bureaus of the War Department, to constitute a consolidated bureau, to be known as the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department, by provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1. And the Military Secretary's Office is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Office, by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth post, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

RES. APRIL 28, 1904, No. 35. [H. J. R. 29.]

Joint Resolution Providing for the Transfer of Certain Military Rolls and Records from the Interior and Other Departments to the War Department. (33 Stat. 591.)

Military rolls and records of wars prior to civil war.

Resolved, &c., That the military rolls and records of the Indian wars or any other wars prior to the civil war, now preserved in the Interior or other Departments, be transferred to the War Department, to be preserved in the Record and Pension Office of that Department, and that they shall be properly indexed and arranged for use.

Res. April 28, 1904, No. 35, 33 Stat. 591.

A similar provision for the transfer to the Navy Department of naval records, rolls, etc., of wars, down to the War of the Rebellion, contained in Act April 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1, is set forth post, under Title X, "The Department of the Navy."

Sec. 218.

Collecting flags, etc.

Provisions for the disposition of certain Union and Confederate battle flags, in the custody of the Department, are contained in Res. Feb. 28, 1905, No. 22, and Res. June 29, 1906, No. 43, set forth below.

RES. FEB. 28, 1905, No. 22. [H. J. R. 217.]

Joint Resolution to Return to the Proper Authorities Certain Union and Confederate Battle Flags. (33 Stat. 1284.)

Return of Union and Confederate battle flags to State authorities.

Resolved, &c., That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized to deliver to the proper authorities of the respective States in which the regiments which bore these colors were organized certain Union and Confederate battle flags now in the custody of the War Department, for such final disposition as the aforesaid proper authorities may determine.

Res. Feb. 28, 1905, No. 22, 33 Stat. 1284.

RES. JUNE 29, 1906, No. 43. [H. J. R. 92.]

Joint Resolution Authorizing the Secretary of War to Deliver to the Southern Historical Society Certain Unidentified Battle Flags. (34 Stat. 837.)

Disposition of unidentified Confederate battle flags.

Resolved, &c., That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized to deliver to the Confederate Memorial Literary Society of Richmond, Virginia, all of the Confederate battle flags now in the custody of the War Department which it has been found impossible, after thorough investigation, to trace to the former ownership or custody of the troops of any particular State.

Res. June 29, 1906, No. 43, 34 Stat. 837.

Sec. 224.

Loss of certificate of discharge.

Further provisions for the issue of a certificate in lieu of a lost certificate, to any officer or enlisted man honorably discharged from the military service, as well as to those who served in the War of the Rebellion, as provided by this section, are made by Act July 1, 1902, c. 1353, set forth below.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1353.

An Act to Authorize the Secretary of War to Furnish Certificates in Lieu of Lost or Destroyed Discharges. (32 Stat. 629.)

Certificate in lieu of lost certificate of discharge.

Be it enacted, &c., That whenever satisfactory proof shall be furnished to the War Department that any officer or enlisted man who has been or shall hereafter be honorably discharged from the military service of the United States has lost his certificate of discharge, or the same has been destroyed without his privity or procurement, the Secretary of War shall be authorized to furnish to such officer or enlisted man, or to the widow of such officer or enlisted man, a certificate of such discharge, to be indelibly marked, so that it may be known as a certificate in lieu of a lost or destroyed discharge: Provided, That such certificate shall not be accepted as a voucher for the payment of any claim against the United States for pay, bounty, or other allowance, or as evidence in any other case.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1353, 32 Stat. 629.

Sec. 227.

Surplus maps and publications of Signal Office.

The sale by the Secretary of Agriculture of any surplus maps or publications of the Weather Bureau, the money received to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States, notwithstanding this section, is authorized by a provision of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, set forth post, under Title XII, "The Department of Agriculture," c. B.

Sec. 229.

Annual statement of [expenditure of contingent funds].

The Secretary is directed to submit to Congress annually a report of expenditures made by him in the execution of the requirements as to issue of arms, etc., to the militia, of Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 13, as amended by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 8, by a proviso annexed to that section as so amended, set forth post, under Title XVI, "The Militia."

Sec. 231.

Report of examinations of river and harbor improvements.

Provisions directing the Secretary of War to superintend and control all property formerly under the control of the Missouri River Commission created by Act July 5, 1884, c. 229, § 1, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 3530, and to expend the unexpended balances of the appropriations for such commission, are contained in Act June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 1, post, under Title LXIII, "Rivers and Harbors," subchapter "Mississippi and Missouri River Commissions."

Provisions authorizing the Secretary of War to sell land or other property acquired for river and harbor improvements when no longer needed or when no longer serviceable are contained in Act June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 5, post, under Title LXIII, "Rivers and Harbors," subchapter "Improvement of Rivers and Harbors."

Provisions authorizing the Secretary of War to complete works for river and harbor improvements by contract or otherwise are contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2509, § 1, post, under Title LXIII, "Rivers and Harbors," subchapter "Improvement of Rivers and Harbors."

Sec. 232.

[Repealed. Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 25.]

This section is expressly repealed by the act to promote the efficiency of the militia, and for other purposes, mentioned above, which act contains more comprehensive provisions of the same nature. Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, §§ 12, 25, post, under Title XVI, "The Militia."

TITLE VII.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY.

CHAPTER ONE.

The Department.

Sec. 235.

ACT MARCH 3, 1875, c. 130, § 2.

Organization of Department, offices, and salaries.

The appropriations for the officers, clerks, and employés in the Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act of March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1187–1194.

The chief clerk is made the chief executive officer of the department, and may be designated to sign official papers and documents during the temporary absence of the Secretary and the assistant secretaries, by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, set forth below.

The position of deputy auditor in the offices of the six Auditors is abolished, by a further provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, set forth post, under chapter 4 of this Title, "The Auditors."

The appropriations for Deputy Commissioners in the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are, Deputy Commissioner, $4,000; Deputy Commissioner, $3,600. Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1193.

ACT AUG. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1.

Skilled draftsmen, civil engineers, and other employés in office of Supervising Architect.

The provision of this act and of subsequent annual appropriation acts, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 127, was repeated, in substantially the language of the appropriation for the year ending June 30, 1902, as given in the note under that provision, in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts and the deficiency appropriation acts down to Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 201, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909. The deficiency appropriation act of May 30, 1908, c. 227, § 1, 35 Stat. 490, contained a further authorization of the employment of such services, during the same fiscal year, with provisos annexed thereto that the services authorized by that act and the previous act for that year should be paid from and charged against appropriations for construction of public buildings made in whole or in part prior to July 1, 1907.

Subsequent appropriations for such services for each fiscal year are made by the sundry civil appropriation acts, under the head "General Expenses of Public Buildings," to give effect to the provisions relating to appropriations for public buildings of the public buildings act of May 30, 1908, c. 228, § 6, set forth post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations." The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1386.

Provisions for employment of draftsmen, etc., in certain offices of the War Department, are set forth or referred to ante, under Title VI, "The Department of War," and in certain bureaus of the Navy Department, post, under Title X, "The Department of the Navy."

ACT JULY 31, 1894, c. 174, § 10.

Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to change the methods of bookkeeping in the Department, and to install a double entry system of bookkeeping, and an appropriation is made to pay for services of such of the force of the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants as may be needed to carry the change into effect, by a provision of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2919, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 4, 1907, c. 2919, § 1. [H. R. 25851.]

Change in methods of bookkeeping in Department; appropriation.

To enable the Secretary of the Treasury to effect a change in the methods of bookkeeping in the Treasury Department, and to install a double-entry system of bookkeeping, five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, to remain available until expended; said sum to be used by the Secretary of the Treasury, as he shall determine, in payment for services of such of the force of the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants of the Treasury Department as may be needed to carry the change into effect, notwithstanding the provisions of sections one hundred and seventy, seventeen hundred and sixty-three, seventeen hundred and sixty-four, and seventeen hundred and sixty-five of the Revised Statutes.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Sec. 241.

Accounts of expenditure for furniture and repairs.

The provisions of this section, as well as Rev. St. § 240, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 131, 132, are applicable to the officer or officers under whom the control and expenditure of appropriations for contingent expenses of the department may be placed, by a provision of Act June 25, 1910, c. 385, set forth above, under Rev. St. § 240.

ACT JULY 16, 1894, c. 137, § 4.

Destruction of money-order statements and paid money orders in office of Auditor for Post-Office Department.

The provisions of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 132, are superseded by similar and further provisions relating to the same subject, contained in Act May 27, 1908, c. 206, § 1, set forth below.

Destruction of money-order statements, lists, etc., and paid money orders; payment of money orders unpaid after three years.

The Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster-General shall cause to be destroyed, in such manner as they may deem best, all money-order statements rendered by postmasters and all paid money orders accompanying the same, as well as all descriptive lists of international money orders certified to or by the exchange offices designated for conducting money-order transactions with foreign countries, and all coupons of issued international money orders now filed in the office of the Auditor for the Post-Office Department, or which may hereafter be filed therein, after three years shall have elapsed from the expiration of the period covered by such statements and lists: Provided, That the Postmaster-General, upon evidence satisfactory to him, and under such special regulations as he shall prescribe, may cause payment to be made in the manner prescribed in sections four and eleven of the Act approved January twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, of the amount of any domestic money order remaining unpaid after the lapse of three years from the date of its issue. And it shall hereafter be the duty of the Auditor for the Post-Office Department to maintain a complete and permanent record of all unpaid money orders issued by postmasters in the United States, or such of its insular possessions as are amenable to the authority of the Postmaster-General for payment within its own territory, such record to serve as a basis for adjudicating claims for payment by warrant of the amounts of said orders.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 206, § 1, 35 Stat. 415.

These are provisions of the postal service appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. They superseded the provisions of Act July 16, 1894, c. 137, § 4, as amended by Act March 3, 1897, c. 385, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 132.

Act Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, §§ 4, 11, mentioned in the above proviso, amended Act March 3, 1883, c. 123, § 5, and Rev. St. § 4040, and are respectively incorporated therein, as set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 2744, 2749.

CHAPTER TWO.

The Secretary of the Treasury.

Sec. 246.

[Amended. Act March 2, 1910, c. 71, § 1.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 136, is amended by Act March 2, 1910, c. 71, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1910, c. 71. [H. R. 18586.]

An Act Amending Sections Two hundred and forty-six and Two hundred and forty-seven, Revised Statutes. (36 Stat. 231.)

Amendment of Rev. St. § 246; signing warrants.

Be it enacted, &c., That section two hundred and forty-six of the Revised Statutes be so amended as to read as follows: "The Secretary of the Treasury may, by an appointment under his hand and official seal, delegate authority to the Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury to sign in his stead, and he may in like manner delegate such authority to a clerk in his office to sign in his name, all warrants for the payment of money into the Public Treasury and all warrants for the disbursement from the Public Treasury of money certified by the proper accounting officers of the Treasury to be due upon accounts duly audited and settled by them; also all accountable warrants placing money in the Treasury to the credit of disbursing and other fiscal officers, and all appropriations, repay, and transfer warrants. The warrants so signed by either of the Assistant Secretaries of the Treasury or by the designated clerk shall be in all cases of the same validity as if they had been signed by the Secretary of the Treasury himself."

Repeal of Rev. St. § 247.

Sec. 2. That section two hundred and forty-seven of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

Act March 2, 1910, c. 71, § 2, 36 Stat. 231.

Sec. 247.

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 136, is repealed by Act March 2, 1910, c. 71, § 2, set forth above, the provision contained in it being incorporated in the amendment of Rev. St. § 246, by section 1 of the same act, above.

Sec. 248.

General duties of the Secretary.

The duties, powers, etc., of the head of the Department in and over the bureaus, offices, etc., transferred to the Department of Commerce and Labor, by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, are vested in the head of that Department, and the duties, powers, etc., of the Secretary of the Treasury as to shipping, seamen, etc., are transferred to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 10, post, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

The Secretary of the Treasury is directed to prepare regulations governing enlistments in the Revenue-Cutter Service, and for the general government of the service, and various powers in regard to punishment of offenses against the discipline of the service are conferred on him, by Act May 26, 1906, c. 2556, set forth post, under Title XXXIV, "Collection of Duties upon Imports," c. 3.

The Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, are directed to make regulations for carrying out the provisions of the pure food act, Act June 30, 1906, c. 3915, by section 3 of that act, and also for carrying out the provisions of the insecticide act, Act April 26, 1910, c. 191, by section 3 of said act, both which are set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

Further provisions for the enforcement by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Agriculture, of the provisions of the pure food act and of the insecticide act as to imported articles are contained in section 11 of each of said acts, also set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

The Secretary of the Treasury, on request of the Governor of Alaska or the Secretary of Agriculture, is to aid in carrying out the provisions of Act June 7, 1902, c. 1037, 32 Stat. 327, as amended by Act May 11, 1908, c. 162, 35 Stat. 102, by section 7 of said amended act.

The Secretary of the Treasury is to obtain and furnish to the national banks information as to the securities to be accepted for additional circulating notes, authorized by Act May 30, 1908, c. 229, by section 8 of said act, and the acts and orders of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Treasurer under the act are to have the approval of the Secretary, and he is to make regulations and control the organization and management of national currency associations to carry out the purposes of the act, by section 13 of said act, set forth post, under Title LXII, "National Banks," c. 2.

Sec. 254.

ACT MARCH 14, 1900, c. 41, § 6.

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 141, was amended by Act May 26, 1906, c. 2558, 34 Stat. 202, by changing, in the first proviso, the words "one hundred" to "fifty," and by adding to that proviso a clause directing the Secretary of the Treasury to coin all gold bullion held in the reserve fund in excess of $50,000,000.

The section was again amended, by reducing the limit of the denominations of the gold certificates mentioned in the first sentence thereof from twenty dollars to ten dollars, and by re-enacting the first proviso in its original form as set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 141, with the addition, after the words "gold coin," of the words "and bullion," by Act March 4, 1907, c. 2913, § 1, 34 Stat. 1289.

The section is further amended by Act March 2, 1911, c. 190, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1911, c. 190. [S. 10457.]

An Act to Amend Section Six of the Currency Act of March Fourteenth, Nineteen hundred, as Amended by the Act Approved March Fourth, Nineteen hundred and seven. (36 Stat. 964.)

Amendment of Act March 14, 1900, c. 41, § 6.

Be it enacted, &c., That section six of an Act to define and fix the standard of value, to maintain the parity of all forms of money issued or coined by the United States, to refund the public debt, and for other purposes, approved March fourteenth, nineteen hundred, as amended by the Act approved March fourth, nineteen hundred and seven, be, and the same is hereby, further amended so as to read as follows:

Deposits of gold coin; gold certificates.

"Sec. 6. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to receive deposits of gold coin with the Treasurer, or any assistant treasurer of the United States in sums of not less than twenty dollars, and to issue gold certificates therefor in denominations of not less than ten dollars, and the coin so deposited shall be retained in the Treasury and held for the payment of such certificates on demand, and used for no other purpose. Such certificates shall be receivable for customs, taxes, and all public dues, and when so received may be reissued, and when held by any national banking association may be counted as a part of its lawful reserve: Provided, That whenever and so long as the gold coin and bullion held in the reserve fund in the Treasury for the redemption of United States notes and Treasury notes shall fall and remain below one hundred million dollars the authority to issue certificates as herein provided shall be suspended: And provided further, That whenever and so long as the aggregate amount of United States notes and silver certificates in the general fund of the Treasury shall exceed sixty million dollars the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, suspend the issue of the certificates herein provided for: And provided further, That of the amount of such outstanding certificates one-fourth at least shall be in denominations of fifty dollars or less: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, issue such certificates in denominations of ten thousand dollars, payable to order: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, receive, with the assistant treasurer in New York and the assistant treasurer in San Francisco, deposits of foreign gold coin at their bullion value in amounts of not less than one thousand dollars in value and issue gold certificates therefor of the description herein authorized: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, receive, with the Treasurer or any assistant treasurer of the United States, deposits of gold bullion bearing the stamp of the coinage mints of the United States, or the assay office in New York, certifying their weight, fineness, and value, in amounts of not less than one thousand dollars in value, and issue gold certificates therefor of the description herein authorized. But the amount of gold bullion and foreign coin so held shall not at any time exceed one-third of the total amount of gold certificates at such time outstanding. And section fifty-one hundred and ninety-three of the Revised Statutes of the United States is hereby repealed."

Act March 2, 1911, c. 190, 36 Stat. 964.

Act March 14, 1900, c. 41, § 6, amended by this act, is set forth, as originally enacted, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 141. It was previously amended by Act May 26, 1906, c. 2558, and by Act March 4, 1907, c. 2913, § 1, as stated in the note thereto, under Rev. St. § 254, above. The further amendment by this act consists in the insertion in the section, as amended by Act March 4, 1907, c. 2913, § 1, of the last two provisos, as set forth above, preceding the clause repealing Rev. St. § 5193, which was contained in the section as originally enacted.

Sec. 257.

Reports of the Secretary.

The requirement of the first subdivision of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 142, that the report mentioned therein shall contain estimates of the public revenue and the public expenditures for the fiscal year then current, is re-enacted and extended to such estimates for the fiscal year next ensuing, by a provision of Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 1, set forth below.

ACT JULY 31, 1894, c. 174, § 15.

Reports of receipts and expenditures of all public moneys.

Besides the provision of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 144, a further requirement, that the Secretary of the Treasury shall prepare and submit, in his annual report, a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Government for the preceding fiscal year is contained in a provision of Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 1, set forth below.

Report to include estimates of revenue and expenditures, and statement of receipts and expenditures.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall each year prepare and submit in his annual report to Congress estimates of the public revenue and the public expenditures for the fiscal year current, and also for the fiscal year next ensuing at the time said report is submitted, together with a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Government for the preceding completed fiscal year.

Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 1, 34 Stat. 949.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Previous provisions as to similar reports and statements were contained in Rev. St. § 257, subd. 1, and in Act July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 15, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 142, 144.

Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1, 33 Stat. 647.

This is a provision following an appropriation for the office of the Auditor for the War Department in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1. [H. R. 25745.]

Time for transmission of accounts of marshals and other disbursing officers of Department of Justice to Auditor.

The time prescribed by law for the transmission of accounts of United States marshals and other disbursing officers of the Department of Justice to the Auditor for the State and other Departments is hereby extended from sixty to eighty days after the date of their receipt in the Department of Justice at Washington, District of Columbia.

Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1360.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

The time for the transmission of accounts to the Auditors for settlement is prescribed by Act July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 12, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 164.

Sec. 278.

Settlement of accounts of Army officers.

The settlement of accounts of deceased officers and enlisted men of the Army, and allowance of the amount found due, without administration, to the decedent's widow or heirs, are authorized by a provision of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, set forth below.

The mode of stating balances to be certified for arrears of pay or for bounty to volunteers, and for commutation of rations to prisoners of war and to soldiers on furlough, is prescribed by a provision of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, set forth below.

Settlement of accounts of deceased officers or enlisted men of Army; allowance to widow or heirs without administration.

Hereafter, in the settlement of the accounts of deceased officers or enlisted men of the Army, where the amount due the decedent's estate is less than five hundred dollars and no demand is presented by a duly appointed legal representative of the estate, the accounting officers may allow the amount found due to the decedent's widow or legal heirs in the following order of precedence: First, to the widow; second, if decedent left no widow, or the widow be dead at time of settlement, then to the children or their issue, per stirpes; third, if no widow or descendants, then to the father and mother in equal parts, provided the father has not abandoned the support of his family, in which case to the mother alone; fourth, if either the father or mother be dead then to the one surviving; fifth, if there be no widow, child, father, or mother at the date of settlement, then to the brothers and sisters and children of deceased brothers and sisters, per stirpes: Provided, That this Act shall not be so construed as to prevent payment from the amount due the decedent's estate of funeral expenses, provided a claim therefor is presented by the person or persons who actually paid the same before settlement by the accounting officers.

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 750.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1. [H. R. 25745.]

Stating balances to be certified for arrears of pay or for bounty of volunteers, and for commutation of rations to prisoners of war and soldiers on furlough.

Back pay and bounty: For payment of amounts for arrears of pay of two and three year volunteers, for bounty to volunteers and their widows and legal heirs, for bounty under the Act of July twenty-eight, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and for amounts for commutation of rations to prisoners of war in rebel States, and to soldiers on furlough, that may be certified to be due by the accounting officers of the Treasury during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and eight, two hundred thousand dollars: Provided, That in all cases hereafter so certified the said accounting officers shall, in stating balances, follow the decisions of the United States Supreme Court or of the Court of Claims of the United States after the time for appeal has expired, if no appeal be taken, without regard to former settlements or adjudications by their predecessors.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Sec. 291.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1221–1223.

Further appropriations for salaries, with additional per diem allowances when traveling, and for official expenses, for assistant superintendents, special agents, inspectors, etc., in the various branches of the postal service, are made by the postal service appropriation acts. Such appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 241, § 1, 36 Stat. 1327–1339.

Provisions relating to the salaries and per diem allowances for traveling expenses, etc., of post-office inspectors, and of division superintendents and assistant division superintendents of railway mail service, are set forth or referred to under Title XLVI, "The Postal Service," c. 12.

Assistant superintendents of free delivery; traveling expenses.

The postal service appropriation acts for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1903, and June 30, 1904, in lieu of provisions for "assistant superintendents of free-delivery," as in previous acts, contained appropriations for "assistant superintendents city delivery service." The similar acts for subsequent fiscal years make no such appropriation; instead thereof, similar appropriations for officers under slightly different titles are made by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for those years, as stated in the above note under Act June 23, 1874, c. 456, § 1.

The annual postal service appropriation acts contain appropriations for assistant superintendents and other officers in the various branches of the service. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1327, with those relating to the salaries and per diem allowances for traveling expenses, etc., of post-office inspectors, and of division superintendents, assistant division superintendents, and assistant superintendents of railway mail service, are set forth or referred to under Title XLVI, "The Postal Service," c. 12.

For stationery, furniture, newspapers, plans, drawings, drawing materials, horses and wagons to be used only for official purposes, freight, expressage, postage, and other absolutely necessary expenses of the Navy Department and its various bureaus and offices, fourteen thousand dollars.

For additional amount for the objects mentioned in the foregoing paragraph and in lieu of expenditures heretofore made therefor from general appropriations for the naval establishment, twenty-six thousand dollars; and hereafter it shall not be lawful to expend, for any of the offices or bureaus of the Navy Department at Washington, any sum out of appropriations made for the naval establishment for any of the purposes mentioned or authorized in the said foregoing paragraph.

Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, 34 Stat. 427.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. A similar appropriation, for the same purposes, of a single sum of $40,000, with a like restriction annexed, is made by the similar act for each subsequent year. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1213.

Sec. 431.

Hydrographic Office.

The annual appropriations for the Hydrographic Office for several years past are accompanied by a provision restricting expenditures to specific appropriations. The provision in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is as follows:

"No expenditure shall be incurred or authorized for personal services or otherwise under the Hydrographic Office at Washington, District of Columbia, during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and twelve except as herein authorized by appropriations under the Navy Department or under appropriations that may be made for printing and binding." Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1210.

Sec. 432.

Maps, charts, etc.

The annual appropriations for the Hydrographic Office provide for the preparation and publication of the Pilot Charts and supplements, and for the expenses of collecting information therefor; and, by a separate appropriation, for a monthly Pilot Chart of the North Pacific Ocean. The appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1210.

TITLE XI.

THE DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

CHAPTER ONE.

The Department.

Sec. 438.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

The legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for each of the recent fiscal years appropriate for the First Assistant Secretary, $5,000, and Assistant Secretary, $4,500. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1213.

Sec. 440.

Clerks and employés.

The appropriations for the officers, clerks, and employés in the Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act of March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1213–1218.

That act provides, in the office of the Secretary, besides the compensation of the Secretary and of the Assistant Secretaries mentioned above, for a "chief clerk, including five hundred dollars as superintendent of buildings, who shall be chief executive officer of the department and who may be designated by the Secretary of the Interior to sign official papers and documents during the temporary absence of the Secretary and the Assistant Secretaries of the department," $4,000; assistant to the Secretary, $2,750; assistant attorney, $2,500, one of the two previously provided for at that rate being transferred to the office of the Assistant Attorney-General; "two special inspectors, whose employment shall be limited to the inspection of offices and the work in the several offices under the control of the Department," at $2,500 each; six inspectors, at $2,500 each; chief disbursing clerk, $2,250; clerk in charge of supplies, $2,250; clerk in charge of mails, files, and archives, $2,250; clerk in charge of publications, $2,250; four clerks, at $2,000 each; private secretary to the Secretary of the Interior, $2,500; and other clerks of the various classes and employés, particularly a "female clerk, to be designated by the President, to sign land patents," $1,200, and a "clerk, to sign, under the direction of the Secretary, in his name and for him, his approval of all tribal deeds to allottees and deeds for town lots made and executed according to law for any of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians in the Indian Territory," $1,200. A provision for the designation by the Secretary of an employé or employés to sign his approval of such tribal deeds, etc., contained in Act March 3, 1911, c. 210, § 17, is set forth in Chapter 4 of this Title, "The Commissioner of Indian Affairs," under Rev. St. § 463.

That act also provides, in the office of the Assistant Attorney-General, for an assistant attorney, $3,000; two assistant attorneys, at $2,750 each; four assistant attorneys, at $2,500 each (one transferred from Secretary's office); seven assistant attorneys, at $2,250 each (four transferred from Secretary's office); eleven assistant attorneys, at $2,000 each (two transferred from Board of Pension Appeals); medical expert, $2,000 (transferred from Board of Pension Appeals); besides clerks.

A further provision of the act for the transfer of the duties of the Board of Pension Appeals to the office of the Assistant Attorney-General for the Department, is set forth below.

Further appropriations are made for per diem, for two special inspectors, in lieu of subsistence, while traveling on duty, and for actual, necessary expenses of transportation, and for incidental expenditures, and for traveling expenses and incidental expenses of six inspectors when actually employed on duty in the field; and, under the head of "General Land Office," for per diem in lieu of subsistence of examiners and of clerks detailed to investigate fraudulent land entries, trespasses on the public lands, and cases of official misconduct, while traveling on duty, and for actual necessary expenses of transportation, including incidental expenses. Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1214, 1215.

Board of Pension Appeals; vacancies not to be filled.

* * That no vacancy hereafter occurring upon the Board of Pension Appeals, as now constituted, shall be filled by original appointment, transfer, or otherwise; * *

Act June 17, 1910, c. 297, § 1, 36 Stat. 511.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for the Board of Pension Appeals in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

A previous provision authorizing the transfer of persons employed as additional members of the Board of Pension Appeals to places in the classified service of the Department was contained in Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 224.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1. [H. R. 29360.]

Duties of Board of Pension Appeals transferred to office of Assistant Attorney-General for the department.

On and after July first, nineteen hundred and eleven, the duties theretofore performed by the Board of Pension Appeals shall be transferred to, and be performed by, the office of the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1214.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

ACT APRIL 17, 1900, c. 192, § 1.

Librarian for General Land Office.

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 252, is repeated in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for each year down to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912. The appropriation in subsequent years is for "clerk and librarian," $1,000.

CHAPTER TWO.

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sec. 441.

Duties of Secretary.

The Census Office, "and all that pertains to the same," is transferred to the Department of Commerce and Labor, by the act establishing that Department, Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 4, post, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

Powers and duties in connection with the execution of Act June 17, 1902, c. 1093, providing for the construction of irrigation works for the reclamation of arid lands, are conferred and imposed on the Secretary of the Interior by various sections of that act, set forth post, under Title

XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 11, subchapter "Irrigation in Arid Regions; Grants of Desert Lands to States for Reclamation."

The execution of all laws affecting public lands reserved as forest reserves, after such lands have been so reserved, excepting such laws as affect the surveying, etc., entering, etc., or patenting of any of such lands, is transferred from the Secretary of the Interior to the Secretary of Agriculture, by Act Feb. 1, 1905, c. 288, § 1, set forth post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 11, subchapter "National Forests."

On the termination of the office of Commissioner of Railroads, on June 30, 1904, the duties of the Commissioner were transferred to the Secretary of the Interior, with the records and files of the office, by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, set forth post, under chapter 9 A of this Title.

The work of completing the unfinished business, if any, of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians, is devolved upon the Secretary of the Interior, and all the powers granted to that Commission are conferred upon the Secretary, on and after July 1, 1905, by a proviso annexed to an appropriation for completing the work of the Commission, in the Indian appropriation act of March 3, 1905, c. 1479, § 1, 33 Stat. 1060.

The Secretary of the Interior is required to cause to be stated annual accounts between the United States and each tribe of Indians arising under appropriations which are required to be reimbursed to the United States, and to pay, out of funds belonging to such tribes, all balances of accounts due to the United States, by a provision of Act April 4, 1910, c. 140, § 1, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 445.

Tribal contracts necessary to the administration of the affairs of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Tribes of Indians may be made by the Secretary of the Interior, Provided, that contracts for professional legal services of attorneys may be made by the tribes, not to be for more than one year in duration and $5,000 per annum in amount, such contracts for legal services not to be valid until approved by the President, by a provision of the Indian appropriation act of March 3, 1911, c. 210, § 17, 36 Stat. 1070.

The net receipts from the sales of surplus and unallotted lands and other tribal property belonging to any of the Five Civilized Tribes may be deposited in national or State banks in the State of Oklahoma in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, such depositories to be designated by him under such rules and regulations governing the rate of interest thereon, the time of deposit and withdrawal thereof, and the security therefor, as he may prescribe, by a further provision of said Act March 3, 1911, c. 210, § 17, 36 Stat. 1070.

Sec. 443.

Supervision of census.

The powers of the Secretary of the Interior under this section are vested in the head of the Department of Commerce and Labor, on the transfer of the Census Office to that Department under the act establishing it, by provisions of that act that duties, powers, etc., possessed or exercised by the head of any executive department in and over any bureau, office, etc., so transferred, "whether of an appellate or revisory character or otherwise," shall be vested in and exercised by the head of the Department of Commerce and Labor. Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 10, post, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

Sec. 445.

Annual reports to Congress.

The Secretary of the Interior is required to transmit to Congress annually a cost account of all survey and allotment work on Indian reservations, by a provision of Act April 4, 1910, c. 140, § 1, set forth below.

Further provisions requiring reports by the Secretary of the Interior of the expenditure of appropriations for Indians, and of the fiscal affairs of Indian tribes, contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 210, are set forth below.

[Repealed. Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 20.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 254, which required a statement by the Secretary of the Interior each year of the items paid out of appropriations for the Indian department, is repealed, with other provisions relating to reports by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, by Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 20, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 4, 1910, c. 140, § 1. [H. R. 19028.]

Statements of accounts between United States and Indian tribes under reimbursable appropriations; payment of balances; account of cost of survey and allotment work on Indian reservations.

Hereafter the Secretary of the Interior shall cause to be stated annual accounts between the United States and each tribe of Indians arising under appropriations heretofore, herein, or hereafter to be made, which by law are required to be reimbursed to the United States, crediting in said accounts the sums so reimbursed, if any; and the Secretary of the Interior shall pay, out of any fund or funds belonging to such tribe or tribes of Indians applicable thereto and held by the United States in trust or otherwise, all balances of accounts due to the United States and not already reimbursed to the Treasury, and deposit such sums in the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts; and such accounts shall be received and examined by the proper auditor of the Treasury Department and the balances arising thereon certified to the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That hereafter the Secretary of the Interior shall transmit to Congress annually on the first Monday in December a cost account for the preceding fiscal year of all survey and allotment work on Indian reservations.

Act April 4, 1910, c. 140, § 1, 36 Stat. 270.

This is a provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

ACT JUNE 25, 1910, c. 431, § 20. [H. R. 24992.]

Repeal of Act March 3, 1875, c. 132, § 8; Act March 2, 1895, c. 188, § 8; Act March 3, 1901, c. 832, § 8; and Act May 27, 1902, c. 888, § 6.

Sec. 20. That the following sections in the following Acts making appropriations for the current and contingent expenses of the Indian service, to wit: Section eight of the Act of March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-five; section eight of the Act of March second, eighteen hundred and ninety-five; section eight of the Act of March third, nineteen hundred and one; and section six of the Act of May twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and two, be, and they are hereby, repealed.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 20, 36 Stat. 861.

This section is part of an act for determining the heirs of deceased Indians, etc., cited above.

Subsequent provisions for reports of the expenditure of appropriations for Indians contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 210, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 210, §§ 1, 27. [H. R. 28406.]

Appropriations for Indian school and agency buildings, etc.; report of expenditure.

For construction, lease, purchase, repairs, and improvements of school and agency buildings, and for sewerage, water supply, and lighting plants, and for purchase of school sites, four hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior shall report annually to Congress the amount expended at each school and agency for the purposes herein authorized: * *

Act March 3, 1911, c. 210, § 1, 36 Stat. 1060.

This is a provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. It is followed by a further provision requiring a report on the first Monday in December, 1911, in respect to school and agency properties entitled to share in appropriations made in this act.

Appropriations for agricultural experiments on Indian school or agency farms; cost account.

To conduct experiments on Indian school or agency farms designed to test the possibilities of soil and climate in the cultivation of trees, grains, vegetables, and fruits, for the purposes of preserving living and growing timber on Indian reservations and allotments, and to advise the Indians as to the proper care of forests: * * Provided still further, That hereafter the Secretary of the Interior shall transmit to Congress annually on the first Monday in December a cost account for the preceding fiscal year relating to the use of appropriations made for the purposes herein provided for.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 210, § 1, 36 Stat. 1060.

This is a further provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Fund for encouragement of farming industry among Indians; repayments to and reuse of fund; report of use.

There is hereby appropriated the sum of thirty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be immediately available, for the purpose of encouraging industry among Indians, and to aid them to engage in the culture of fruits, grains, and other crops. The said sum may be used for the purchase of animals, machinery, tools, implements, and other agricultural equipment: Provided, That the sum hereby appropriated shall be expended subject to the conditions to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior for its repayment to the United States, on or before June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and all repayments to this fund made on or before June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and seventeen are hereby appropriated for the same purpose as the original fund, and the entire fund, including such repayments, shall remain available until June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and seventeen, and all repayments to the fund hereby created which shall be made subsequent to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and seventeen, shall be covered into the Treasury and shall not be withdrawn or applied except in consequence of a subsequent appropriation made by law: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior shall submit to Congress annually on the first Monday in December a detailed report of the use of this fund: * *

This is a further provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Annual statements of fiscal affairs of Indian tribes for whose benefit expenditures are made by officers, clerks, etc., of the department.

Sec. 27. Annually, on the first Monday in December, the Secretary of the Interior shall transmit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives a statement of the fiscal affairs of all Indian tribes for whose benefit expenditures from either public or tribal funds shall have been made by any officer, clerk, or employee in the Interior Department during the preceding fiscal year; and such statement shall show (1) the total amount of all moneys, from whatever source derived, standing to the credit of each tribe of Indians, in trust or otherwise, at the close of such fiscal year; (2) an analysis of such credits, by funds, showing how and when they were created, whether by treaty stipulation, agreement, or otherwise; (3) the total amount of disbursements from public or trust funds made on account of each tribe of Indians for such fiscal year; and (4) an analysis of such disbursements showing the amounts disbursed (a) for per capita payments in money to Indians, (b) for salaries or compensation of officers and employees, (c) for compensation of counsel and attorney's fees, and (d) for support and civilization.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 210, § 27, 36 Stat. 1077.

This section is part of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

CHAPTER THREE.

The General Land-Office.

Sec. 446.

Commissioner of the General Land-Office.

The appropriation for compensation of the Commissioner by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is $5,000. Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1214.

ACT JULY 11, 1890, c. 667, § 1.

Assistant Commissioner of the General Land-Office.

The provision of this act for the Assistant Commissioner, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 256, is repeated in the same language in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for each of the fiscal years following, to the year 1911. But the similar act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, contains merely the appropriation for "assistant commissioner," $3,500. Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1214.

The designation of an officer or employé to act temporarily as Assistant Commissioner is authorized by a provision of Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MAY 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1. [H. R. 16882.]

Depositary, as receiver of public moneys.

General Land Office: * * one depositary acting for the Commissioner as receiver of public moneys, two thousand dollars; * *

Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 225.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. It is repeated in the similar acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1915.

Designation of temporary Assistant Commissioner.

That hereafter the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized to designate an officer or employee of the General Land Office to act temporarily as Assistant Commissioner of that Office during the absence of the Assistant Commissioner, or in case of a vacancy in the office of such Assistant Commissioner, or when such Assistant Commissioner is acting as Commissioner, and all acts performed by any officer or employee while acting under such designation shall have the same force and effect as if performed by said Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner.

Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 225.

This is a further provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Sec. 447.

Recorder of General Land-Office.

The designation of an officer or employé to perform temporarily the duties of the Recorder is authorized by a provision of Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MAY 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1. [H. R. 16882.]

Designation of temporary Recorder.

That hereafter the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized to designate an officer or employee of the General Land Office to perform temporarily the duties of the Recorder of that office in the absence of that officer and in the case of a vacancy in the office of such Recorder, and the acts of any person so designated shall have all the force and effect of an act performed by the Recorder.

Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 225.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Before this provision the duties of the office of Recorder, in case of a vacancy, or of his sickness or absence, were to be performed by the Assistant Commissioner, by provisions of Rev. St. § 459, and Act March 2, 1895, c. 177, § 3, Comp. St. 1901, 259, 260.

Sec. 450.

ACT JUNE 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1.

Executive clerk to sign land patents.

An appropriation for a "female clerk, to be designated by the President, to sign land patents," $1,200, is made by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for recent years; that for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1213.

An appropriation is also made by the recent similar acts for per diem in lieu of subsistence of clerks detailed to investigate fraudulent land entries, trespasses on the public lands, and cases of official misconduct, while traveling on duty, and for actual necessary expenses of transportation, etc. That for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1215.

Sec. 453. [As amended 1875.]

Duties of Commissioner.

The Court of Private Land Claims having ceased on June 30, 1904, pursuant to the amendment of section 19 of the act by which it was established, by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1144, all the powers exercised by that court in the approval of surveys executed under its decrees of confirmation were conferred upon the Commissioner of the General Land Office from and after that date, by a provision of Act April 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1. [H. R. 14416.]

Powers of Court of Private Land Claims in approval of surveys conferred on Commissioner of General Land Office.

That all the powers now exercised by the Court of Private Land Claims in the approval of surveys executed under its decrees of confirmation shall be conferred upon and exercised by the Commissioner of the General Land Office from and after the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and four.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1, 33 Stat. 485.

This is a provision, following an appropriation for survey of private land claims confirmed by the court, in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. The court ceased on June 30, 1904, pursuant to the provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1144.

Sec. 454.

Custody of seal, books, records, etc.

Original papers on file in the General Land Office, on which a patent to land was issued, may be transmitted and authenticated for use as evidence in the courts, by Act April 19, 1904, c. 1398, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 19, 1904, c. 1398. [H. R. 10007.]

An Act to Authorize the Commissioner of the General Land Office to Transmit Original Papers to be used as Evidence. (33 Stat. 186.)

Transmission, authentication, and use as evidence of original papers on file.

Be it enacted, &c., That whenever the register of any United States land office shall be served with a subpœna duces tecum or other valid legal process requiring him to produce, in any United States court or in any court of record of any State, the original application for entry of public lands or the final proof of residence and cultivation or any other original papers on file in the General Land Office of the United States on which a patent to land has been issued or which furnish the basis for such patent, it shall be the duty of such register to at once notify the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the service of such process, specifying the particular papers he is required to produce, and upon receipt of such notice from any register of a United States land office the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall at once transmit to such register the original papers specified in such notice, and which such register is required to produce, and to attach to such papers a certificate, under seal of his office, properly authenticating them as the original papers upon which patent was issued; and such papers so authenticated shall be received in evidence in all courts of the United States and in the several State courts of the States of the Union: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior shall make rules and regulations to secure the return of such documents to the General Land Office, after use in evidence, without cost to the United States.

Act April 19, 1904, c. 1398, 33 Stat. 186.

Copies of patents or other papers in the General Land Office, authenticated by the seal and certified by the Recorder of the office, are evidence, equally with the originals, as when certified by the Commissioner, by Act April 19, 1904, c. 1396, set forth post, under Title XIII, "The Judiciary," c. 17.

Sec. 459.

Duties of Recorder.

Copies of patents or other papers in the General Land Office, authenticated by the seal of the office and certified by the Recorder, are evidence, equally with the originals, as when certified by the Commissioner, by Act April 19, 1904, c. 1396, post, under Title XIII, "The Judiciary," c. 17.

ACT MARCH 2, 1895, c. 177, § 3.

Performance of duties of Recorder in case of vacancy in office, etc.

The provision of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 260, that the duties of the office of Recorder, in case of vacancy in the office, or of his sickness or absence, should be performed by the Assistant Commissioner, is superseded by the provision for the designation of an officer or employé to perform such duties temporarily, contained in Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 447.

Sec. 460.

Copies of papers filed in the Department.

The Commissioner is required to cause to be prepared, and to certify, under the seal of the office, such copies of records, books, and papers on file in his office, as may be applied for, to be used as evidence in courts of justice, by Rev. St. § 2469, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1557. And such copies, so authenticated and certified, are made evidence, equally with the originals thereof, by Rev. St. § 891, Comp. St. 1901, p. 672.

Copies of patents, records, books, or papers in the office, authenticated by the seal and certified by the Recorder, are made evidence equally with the originals thereof, as when certified by the Commissioner, by Act April 19, 1904, c. 1396, set forth post, under Title XIII, "The Judiciary," c. 17.

Registers and receivers of land offices are authorized to make transcripts of records in their offices for individuals, and such transcripts when duly certified are made admissible in evidence, by Act March 22, 1904, c. 748, set forth post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 2.

The Commissioner is authorized to transmit and authenticate for use as evidence in the courts original papers on file in the office, on which any patent to land has been issued, by Act April 19, 1904, c. 1398, set forth above, under Rev. St. § 454.

Sec. 461. [As amended 1888.]

[Amended. Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 15.]

This section, set forth, as amended by Act April 2, 1888, c. 54, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 260, is further amended by Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 15, set forth below.

ACT MAY 29, 1908, c. 220, § 15. [S. 6190.]

Amendment of Rev. St. § 461.

That section four hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes of the United States, as amended by the Act approved April second, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Fees for exemplifications of patents, etc.

"Sec. 461. All exemplications of patents or papers on file or of record in the General Land Office which may be required by parties interested shall be furnished by the Commissioner upon payment by such parties at the rate of fifteen cents per hundred words, and thirty cents each for photolithographic copies of township plats or diagrams unverified, not to exceed ten copies to any one person, and twenty-five cents each for all copies in excess of ten, with an additional sum of one dollar for the Commissioner's certificate of verification, with the General Land Office seal; and the amount so received shall, under the direction of the Commissioner, be paid into the Treasury; but fees shall not be demanded for such authenticated copies as may be required by the officers of any branch of the Government, nor for such unverified copies as the Commissioner, in his discretion, may deem proper to furnish; but said Commissioner may, if he deem it advisable, make such charge for unverified copies as will, in his judgment, cover the cost of the preparation thereof."

Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 15, 35 Stat. 469.

This section is part of an act authorizing a resurvey of certain townships in the state of Wyoming, and for other purposes, cited above.

CHAPTER FOUR.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Sec. 462.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

The appropriation, for compensation of the Commissioner, of $5,000, made by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts of previous years, is repeated in the similar act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912. Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1215.

Sec. 463.

ACT JULY 31, 1886, c. 827, § 1.

Assistant Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

The provision of this act for an Assistant Commissioner, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 262, was repeated, in the same language, in subsequent similar acts down to the act for the fiscal year 1907. Appropriations were made for the three years following for "Assistant Commissioner," $3,000, and for "chief clerk," $2,250. For the fiscal year 1911, appropriations for "Assistant Commissioner" and for "Second Assistant Commissioner, who shall also perform the duties of chief clerk," were made by Act June 17, 1910, c. 297, § 1, 36 Stat. 513, and repeated in the act for the fiscal year 1912.

An appropriation for a private secretary in the office of the Commissioner is made by a provision of Act Feb. 27, 1906, c. 510, § 1, set forth below, and repeated in subsequent acts.

ACT FEB. 27, 1906, c. 510, § 1. [H. R. 12320.]

Private secretary in office of Commissioner.

For salary of private secretary, now appropriated for as confidential clerk in office of Commissioner of Indian Affairs at the rate of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum, * *

Act Feb. 27, 1906, c. 510, § 1, 34 Stat. 36.

This is a provision of the urgent deficiency act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above. Appropriations for the salary of the private secretary at the same rate are made by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1215.

Agent to negotiate with Indians for commutation of perpetual annuities.

That the Commissioner of Indian Affairs is hereby authorized to send a special Indian agent, or other representative of his office, to visit any Indian tribe for the purpose of negotiating and entering into a written agreement with such tribe for the commutation of the perpetual annuities due under treaty stipulations, to be subject to the approval of Congress; and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall transmit to Congress said agreements with such recommendations as he may deem proper.

Act April 30, 1908, c. 153, 35 Stat. 73.

This is a provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 263. [H. R. 26916.]

Designation of employee to sign letters for Commissioner or Assistant Commissioner.

That hereafter the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, may designate an employee of the Indian Office to sign letters of that office requiring the signature of the commissioner or assistant commissioner, and all signatures of such employee while acting under such designation shall have the same force and effect as if made by said commissioner or assistant commissioner.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 263, § 1, 35 Stat. 783.

This is a provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 210, § 17. [H. R. 28406.]

Designation of employé or employés of department to sign approval of Secretary of tribal deeds, etc., of any of Five Civilized Tribes of Indians.

That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized to designate an employee or employees of the Department of the Interior to sign, under the direction of the Secretary, in his name and for him, his approval of tribal deeds to allottees, to purchasers of town lots, to purchasers of unallotted lands, to persons, corporations, or organizations for lands reserved to them under the law for their use and benefit, and to any tribal deeds made and executed according to law for any of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians in Oklahoma.

This is a provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Sec. 464.

Disbursing officers' bonds.

Hereafter when the Secretary of the Interior deems a new bond necessary he may, in his discretion, require any disbursing officer under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to execute a new bond, with approved sureties, in such amount as he may deem necessary, and when accepted and approved by the Secretary of the Interior the new bond shall be valid and the surety or sureties of the prior bond shall be released from liability for all acts or defaults of the principal which may be done or committed from and after the day on which the new bond was approved.

Act April 30, 1908, c. 153, 35 Stat. 71.

This is a provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

The expense of procuring the official bond of any disbursing officer of the Indian service is to be paid by the United States, by a further provision of this act, set forth below.

Supervision by Commissioner of expenditures for school purposes; limitation of per capita expenditure.

That all expenditure of money herein or hereafter appropriated for school purposes among the Indians, shall be at all times under the supervision and direction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and in all respects in conformity with such conditions, rules, and regulations as to the character and methods of instruction and expenditure of money as may be from time to time prescribed by him, subject to the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That, except for pay of superintendents, not more than one hundred and sixty-seven dollars shall be expended for the annual support and education of any one pupil in any school herein specifically provided for, except when, by reason of epidemic, accident, or other sufficient cause, the attendance is so reduced or cost of maintenance so high that a larger expenditure is absolutely necessary, when the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, may allow a larger per capita expenditure: Provided further, That the total amount appropriated for the support of such school shall not be exceeded: Provided further, That the number of pupils in any school entitled to the per capita allowance hereby provided for shall be determined by taking the average enrollment for the entire fiscal year and not any fractional part thereof.

Act April 30, 1908, c. 153, § 1, 35 Stat. 72.

This is a further provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. Similar provisions were contained in the similar acts for previous years, applicable to the appropriations made by the particular act.

Deposits by disbursing agents of Indian moneys in national banks.

That hereafter any United States Indian agent, superintendent, or other disbursing agent of the Indian Service may deposit Indian moneys, individual or tribal, coming into his hands as custodian, in such national bank or banks as he may select: Provided, That the bank or banks so selected by him shall first execute to said disbursing agent a bond, with approved surety, in such an amount as will properly safeguard the funds to be deposited. Such bond shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

Act April 30, 1908, c. 153, § 1, 35 Stat. 73.

This is a further provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Payment of expense of procuring official bonds of agents, etc.

* * That hereafter the expense of procuring the official bond of any agent, superintendent, or other disbursing officer of the Indian Service shall be paid by the United States.

Act April 30, 1908, c. 153, § 1, 35 Stat. 75.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for contingencies of the Indian service in the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Secs. 468, 469.

[Repealed. Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 19.]

These sections, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 265, relating to the annual reports to Congress of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, with Rev. St. § 2091, are repealed by Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 19, set forth below.

ACT AUG. 15, 1876, c. 289, § 3.

Statement of bids or proposals for services, supplies, etc.

So much of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 266, as required the Commissioner to embody in his annual report a statement of all bids and proposals received for services, supplies, and annuity goods for the Indian service, is repealed by a provision of Act June 21, 1906, c. 3504, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 8, 1892, c. 12.

Report of employés of Indian Bureau.

The provision of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 266, appears to have been intended to be repealed by the provision of Act June 21, 1906, c. 3504, set forth below, for the repeal of so much of the act of "March second," 1892, as requires the Commissioner to report annually the names of all employés in the Indian service.

ACT JULY 13, 1892, c. 164, § 9.

Report of employés at schools.

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 266, was re-enacted in each of the annual Indian appropriation acts, down to Act March 3, 1903, c. 994, § 6, 32 Stat. 1007. Provisions similar thereto, except in requiring a report to each Congress, at the first regular session, instead of annually, were contained in Act April 21, 1904, § 6, set forth below, and were not repeated in subsequent acts, and so much of said Act April 21, 1904, as required the Commissioner to report annually the names of all employés in the Indian service, was repealed by a provision of Act June 21, 1906, c. 3504, also set forth below.

Thereafter the sections in which the original Act July 13, 1892, c. 164, § 9, was re-enacted in three subsequent Indian appropriation acts, Act March 2, 1895, c. 188, § 8, 28 Stat. 908, Act March 3, 1901, c. 832, § 8, 31 Stat. 1085, and Act May 27, 1902, c. 888, § 6, 32 Stat. 274, were repealed by Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 20, set forth ante, in Chapter 2 of this Title, under Rev. St. § 445. Such repeal may be regarded as intended to repeal all such provisions mentioned in this note.

Report of employés at schools.

That the Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall report to each Congress, at the first regular session thereof, specifically showing the number of employees at each agency, industrial and boarding school, which are supported in whole or in part out of the appropriations in this Act, giving name, when employed, in what capacity employed, male or female, whether white or Indian, amount of compensation paid, and out of what item or fund of the appropriation paid, and whether, in the opinion of such Commissioner, any of such employees are unnecessary.

Act April 21, 1904, c. 1402, § 6, 33 Stat. 217.

This section is part of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. It supersedes the provisions of Act July 13, 1892, c. 164, § 9, and of subsequent acts referred to under that section, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 266, 267, which required such a report annually. Three of such successive provisions, Act March 2, 1895, c. 188, § 8, 28 Stat. 908, Act March 3, 1901, c. 832, § 8, 31 Stat. 1085, and Act May 27, 1902, c. 888, § 6, 32 Stat. 274, were repealed by Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 20, set forth ante, in Chapter 2 of this Title, under Rev. St. § 445. And so much of this act as requires the Commissioner to report "annually" the names of all employés in the Indian service was repealed by a provision of Act June 21, 1906, c. 3504, set forth below.

Repeal of provisions of Act Aug. 15, 1876, § 3, Act March 2, 1892, and Act April 21, 1904.

That so much of the section three of the Act of August fifteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, as required the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to embody in his annual report a detailed and tabular statement of all bids and proposals received for any services, supplies, and annuity goods for the Indian service, together with a detailed statement of all awards of contracts made for any such services, supplies, and annuity goods for which said bids or proposals were received, is hereby repealed, and hereafter he shall embody in his annual report only a detailed statement of the awards of contracts made for any services, supplies, and annuity goods for the Indian service; and that so much of the Acts of March second, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and April twenty-first, nineteen hundred and four, which require the Commissioner to report annually the names of all employees in the Indian service is hereby also repealed.

Act June 21, 1906, c. 3504, 34 Stat. 328.

This is a provision of the Indian appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. Act Aug. 15, 1876, c. 289, § 3, mentioned and repealed in part therein, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 266. The further reference to and repeal of a provision of an act of "March second," 1892, appears to be intended for the provision of Act March 8, 1892, c. 12, also set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 266. The provision of Act April 21, 1904, c. 1402, § 6, also mentioned as repealed in this provision, is set forth above; but it required a report as to employés, not "annually," but "to each Congress, at the first regular session thereof," differing in that respect from previous provisions otherwise to the same effect, but requiring the report to be made annually.

Repeal of Rev. St. §§ 468, 469, and 2091.

Sec. 19. That sections four hundred and sixty-eight, four hundred and sixty-nine, and two thousand and ninety-one of the Revised Statutes of the United States be, and they are hereby, repealed.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 19, 36 Stat. 860.

This section is part of an act to provide for determining the heirs of deceased Indians, etc., cited above.

The sections of the Revised Statutes repealed by this section relate to reports required to be made by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Other provisions relating to such reports are repealed by section 20 of the same act, set forth ante, in Chapter 2 of this Title, under Rev. St. § 445.

CHAPTER FIVE.

The Commissioner of Pensions.

Sec. 470.

Commissioner of Pensions.

The appropriation for compensation of the Commissioner by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is $5,000. Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1216.

A private secretary to the Commissioner is authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 472.

Sec. 472.

Deputy Commissioner.

The appropriations for compensation of the Deputy Commissioners by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are: First Deputy Commissioner, $3,600; Second Deputy Commissioner, $3,600. Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1216.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1. [H. R. 19150.]

Private Secretary to Commissioner.

Pension Office: For private secretary to be selected and appointed by the Commissioner of Pensions at the rate of two thousand dollars per annum from March fourth, nineteen hundred and five, to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six, both inclusive, two thousand six hundred and fifty dollars.

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1, 33 Stat. 1233.

This is a provision of the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. The appropriation is continued at the same rate by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1216.

Sec. 474.

Investigation of attempts at fraud.

Provisions of recent appropriation acts for additional compensation to special examiners or other persons employed in the Bureau of Pensions, detailed to make special investigations, are referred to post, under Title LVII, "Pensions," in connection with the provisions on the subject of Rev. St. § 4744, as amended by Act July 25, 1882, c. 349, and of subsequent acts, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 3276–3278.

CHAPTER SIX.

The Patent-Office.

Sec. 476.

Officers and employés.

Appropriations for the Commissioner of Patents and a First Assistant Commissioner and an Assistant Commissioner, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are made by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1. [H. R. 29360.]

Commissioner of Patents, Assistant Commissioners, etc., and examiners in chief.

Patent Office: Commissioner of Patents, five thousand dollars; first assistant commissioner, who shall perform such duties pertaining to the office of commissioner as may be assigned to him by the commissioner, four thousand five hundred dollars; assistant commissioner, who shall perform such duties pertaining to the office of commissioner as may be assigned to him by the commissioner, three thousand five hundred dollars; chief clerk, who shall be qualified to act as principal examiner, three thousand dollars; two law examiners, at two thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars each; three examiners in chief, at three thousand five hundred dollars each; * *

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1216.

This is part of a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above, the remainder of which makes appropriations for other examiners, officers, clerks, and employés in the Patent Office; among them, for a "financial clerk, who shall give bonds in such amount as the Secretary of the Interior may determine," $2,250, a "private secretary, to be selected and appointed by the Commissioner of Patents," $1,800; and a "translater of languages," $1,800.

Sec. 477.

Salaries.

The appropriations for salaries of the Commissioner and the Assistant Commissioners for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, set forth ante, under section 476.

Sec. 481.

ACT JULY 11, 1890, c. 667, § 1.

Duties of Assistant Commissioner.

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 272, is repeated in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for subsequent years, down to and including the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911. Similar provisions relating to the First Assistant Commissioner and the Assistant Commissioner for whom appropriations are made by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, are contained in said appropriations, set forth ante, under section 476.

Sec. 484.

Arrangement and exhibition of models, etc.

All models of the Patent Office are to be retained until provision is made for their care by Congress, by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 298, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 4, 1909, c. 298, § 1. [H. R. 28736.]

All models to be retained.

That all models of the Patent Office be retained by the Interior Department until provision is made for their care by Congress.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 298, § 1, 35 Stat. 924.

This is a provision of the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

This provision appears to supersede a previous provision relating to the disposition of such models, contained in Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 229, which was as follows:

"That a commission, which is hereby created, to consist of the Secretary of the Interior, the Commissioner of Patents, and the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, shall determine which of the models of the Patent Office may be of possible benefit to patentees or of historical value, such models thus selected to be cared for in the new National Museum building, the remainder of said models shall before January first, nineteen hundred and nine, be disposed of by sale, gift, or otherwise as the Commissioner of Patents, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, shall determine."

Sec. 490.

Printing specifications and drawings.

The patent department of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburg, Pa., is made the place of deposit for the patent specifications and drawings referred to in this section, instead of the clerk's office of the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, by Res. June 28, 1902, No. 35, 32 Stat. 746.

CHAPTER NINE.

The Office of Education.

Sec. 517.

Commissioner of Education.

The appropriation for compensation of the Commissioner, by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is $5,000. Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1217.

Sec. 518.

Duties of Commissioner.

Appropriations in the recent annual sundry civil appropriation acts for the education and support of the natives of Alaska provide that all expenditures of money appropriated therein for school purposes shall be under the supervision and direction of the Commissioner of Education and in conformity with such conditions, rules, and regulations as to conduct and methods of instruction and expenditure of money as may from time to time be recommended by him and approved by the Secretary of the Interior. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1420.

Sec. 519.

RES. MARCH 21, 1906, No. 10. [H. J. R. 97.]

Joint Resolution Authorizing Assignment of Pay of Teachers and Other Employees of the Bureau of Education in Alaska. (34 Stat. 824.)

Assignment of pay by teachers and other employés of Bureau in Alaska; reimbursement of teachers for expenses.

Resolved, &c., That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized to permit teachers and other employees of the United States Bureau of Education employed in Alaska to make assignments of their pay, under such regulations as he may prescribe, during such time as they may be in the employ of the Bureau of Education in Alaska; and the Secretary of the Interior is further authorized, in his discretion, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to reimburse school-teachers in Alaska for expenses incurred by them in the discharge of their duties and paid from their personal funds.

Res. March 21, 1906, No. 10, 34 Stat. 824.

[CHAPTER NINE A.]

[The Office of the Commissioner of Railroads.]

ACT MARCH 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1.

[Superseded.]

The proviso of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 283, is superseded by a similar proviso in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, that the office should terminate on that date. Act June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 456. And this is superseded by a similar proviso in the next similar appropriation act, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1.

Termination of office.

* * That the office of Commissioner of Railroads is hereby continued until the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and four, when the same shall terminate, and the duties of the Commissioner shall be transferred to the Secretary of the Interior together with the records and files of the office.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1119.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for salaries in the office of Commissioner of Railroads in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

[CHAPTER NINE B.]

[The Bureau of Mines.]

ACT MAY 16, 1910, c. 240. [H. R. 13915.]

An Act to Establish in the Department of the Interior a Bureau of Mines. (36 Stat. 369.)

Establishment of Bureau; Director, his qualifications, appointment, and salary; experts and other employés.

Be it enacted, &c., That there is hereby established in the Department of the Interior a bureau, to be called the Bureau of Mines, and a director of said bureau, who shall be thoroughly equipped for the duties of said office by technical education and experience and who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall receive a salary of six thousand dollars per annum; and there shall also be in the said bureau such experts and other employees as may from time to time be authorized by Congress.

Act May 16, 1910, c. 240, § 1, 36 Stat. 369.

Duties of Bureau and Director.

Sec. 2. That it shall be the province and duty of said bureau and its director, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, to make diligent investigation of the methods of mining, especially in relation to the safety of miners, and the appliances best adapted to prevent accidents, the possible improvement of conditions under which mining operations are carried on, the treatment of ores and other mineral substances, the use of explosives and electricity, the prevention of accidents, and other inquiries and technologic investigations pertinent to said industries, and from time to time make such public reports of the work, investigations, and information obtained as the Secretary of said department may direct, with the recommendations of such bureau.

Act May 16, 1910, c. 240, § 2, 36 Stat. 370.

Offices, supplies, assistants, clerks, etc.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of the Interior shall provide the said bureau with furnished offices in the city of Washington, with such books, records, stationery, and appliances, and such assistants, clerks, stenographers, typewriters, and other employees as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties imposed by this Act upon such bureau, fixing the compensation of such clerks and employees within appropriations made for that purpose.

Act May 16, 1910, c. 240, § 3, 36 Stat. 370.

Appropriations for the Bureau are made by the subsequent sundry civil appropriation acts. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1418.

Transfer to Bureau from Geological Survey of certain investigations and appropriations therefor, experts, employés, etc.

Sec. 4. That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to transfer to the Bureau of Mines from the United States Geological Survey the supervision of the investigations of structural materials and the analyzing and testing of coals, lignites, and other mineral fuel substances and the investigation as to the causes of mine explosions; and the appropriations made for such investigations may be expended under the supervision of the Director of the Bureau of Mines in manner as if the same were so directed in the appropriations Acts; and such investigations shall hereafter be within the province of the Bureau of Mines, and shall cease and determine under the organization of the United States Geological Survey; and such experts, employees, property and equipment as are now employed or used by the Geological Survey in connection with the subjects herewith transferred to the Bureau of Mines are directed to be transferred to said bureau.

Act May 16, 1910, c. 240, § 4, 36 Stat. 370.

So much of this act as transfers to the Bureau the supervision of the investigations of structural material and equipment therefor is repealed by a provision of Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, set forth below.

Act not to be construed as granting authority over mines, etc., in States.

Sec. 5. That nothing in this Act shall be construed as in any way granting to any officer or employee of the Bureau of Mines any right or authority in connection with the inspection or supervision of mines or metallurgical plants in any State.

Act May 16, 1910, c. 240, § 5, 36 Stat. 370.

Time of taking effect of act.

Sec. 6. This Act shall take effect and be in force on and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and ten.

Act May 16, 1910, c. 240, § 6, 36 Stat. 370.

ACT JUNE 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1. [H. R. 25552.]

Repeal in part of Act May 16, 1910, c. 240; transfer to Bureau of investigations of structural materials.

So much of the Act establishing a Bureau of Mines, approved May sixteenth, nineteen hundred and ten, as transfers to said Bureau the supervision of the investigations of structural materials and equipment therefor is repealed;

Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 743.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

TITLE XII.

THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

[CHAPTER A.]

[The Department and the Secretary of Agriculture.]

Sec. 520.

Establishment of the Department of Agriculture.

The execution of all laws affecting public lands reserved as forest reserves, after such lands have been so reserved, with certain exceptions, having been placed under the Secretary of Agriculture, by Act Feb. 1, 1905, c. 288, § 1, set forth post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 11, subchapter "National Forests," the appropriations previously made for the Bureau of Forestry are made under the head "Forest Service" in the agricultural appropriation acts for subsequent fiscal years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912 is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1244.

Sec. 521.

ACT FEB. 9, 1889, c. 122, §§ 2, 3.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

The Assistant Secretary is authorized to perform such duties in the conduct of the Department as may be assigned by the Secretary, by a provision of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3913, set forth below.

Salaries.

The salary of the Assistant Secretary for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is $5,000, by the appropriation therefor by Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1235.

ACT JUNE 30, 1906, c. 3913. [H. R. 18537.]

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture; duties.

Office of the Secretary: * * Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, * * dollars; and the Assistant Secretary is hereby authorized to perform such duties in the conduct of the business of the Department of Agriculture as may be assigned by the Secretary of Agriculture; * *

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 Stat. 670.

This is a provision accompanying an appropriation for the compensation of the Assistant Secretary, in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. The amount appropriated, as in previous years, was $4,500. It is increased to $5,000 in the similar appropriations for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1235.

Sec. 522.

Clerks and employés.

The agricultural appropriation act of March 3, 1905, c. 1405, 33 Stat. 861, made appropriations for clerks and other employés in various bureaus of the Department who were previously paid as laborers from the lump sums appropriated; and similar appropriations are made by the subsequent agricultural appropriation acts. The appropriations for the officers, clerks, and employés in the Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1235-1265.

That act provides, in the office of the Secretary, besides salaries for the Secretary and Assistant Secretary, compensation for the solicitor, $5.000; chief clerk, $2,500, and $500 additional as custodian of buildings; private secretary to the Secretary of Agriculture, $2,500; stenographer and executive clerk to the Secretary of Agriculture, $2,250; private secretary to the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, $1,600; stenographer to the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, $1,400; one appointment clerk, $2,000; one chief of supply division, $2,000; one inspector, $2,500; one law clerk, $2,500; ten law clerks, at $2,000 each; seven law clerks, at $1,800 each; three law clerks, at $1,600 each; with a proviso that the law clerks may be detailed for service in or out of Washington.

Said act further provides for salaries, in the division of accounts and disbursements, for one chief of division and disbursing clerk, who shall be administrative officer of the fiscal affairs of the department, $3,750; one assistant chief of division, $2,500; one chief of office of accounts and fiscal agent, who may be detailed to the Forest Service for duty in or out of the city of Washington, $2,500; seven district fiscal agents, at $2,000 each, who may be detailed to the Forest Service for duty in or out of the city of Washington; one supervising auditor, $2,250; one auditor, $2,000; one cashier and chief clerk, $2,000; one deputy disbursing clerk, $2,000; one supervising book keeper, $1,800; with clerks of different classes and other employés.

A further provision of said act relating to the authority, bond, and liabilities of the deputy disbursing clerk therein provided for, is set forth post, under Rev. St. § 523.

The several separate bureaus established in the Department, in addition to the Weather Bureau and the Bureau of Animal Industry, as stated in the note under this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 287, are recognized, and existing statutes are made applicable thereto, by a provision of Act June 3, 1902, c. 985, set forth below.

Provisions for examinations, in or under the direction and supervision of the Bureau of Chemistry, of specimens of foods and drugs, for the purpose of determining whether such articles are adulterated or misbranded, etc., contained in Act June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 4, are set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

ACT JUNE 3, 1902, c. 985.

Establishment of Bureaus of Soils, of Forestry, of Chemistry, and of Plant Industry.

* * That all existing statutes relating to the Division of Soils, reorganized into the Bureau of Soils; the Division of Forestry, reorganized into the Bureau of Forestry; the Division of Chemistry, reorganized into the Bureau of Chemistry; and the Division of Botany, the Division of Pomology, the Division of Vegetable Physiology and Pathology, the Division of Agrostology and Experimental Gardens and Grounds, reorganized into the Bureau of Plant Industry, not otherwise repealed, shall remain in effect as applying to the respective bureaus into which the divisions named have been reorganized:

Act June 3, 1902, c. 985, 32 Stat. 303.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for silk investigations in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

The execution of all laws affecting public lands reserved as forest reserves, after such lands have been so reserved, excepting such laws as affect the surveying, etc., entering, etc., or patenting of any of such lands, is placed under the Secretary of Agriculture, by Act Feb. 1, 1905, c. 288, § 1, set forth post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 11, subchapter "National Forests."

Sec. 523.

Officers and employés.

The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make appointments, promotions, and changes in salaries to be paid out of the lump funds of the several bureaus, divisions, and offices of the Department, subject to certain limitations, by provisions of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, set forth below.

The classified laborers transferred from the lump funds to the statutory rolls by Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, 33 Stat. 861, were placed in the classified service, without further examination, by a further provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, set forth below, and they are made eligible for promotion, without further examination, by a provision of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3913, also set forth below.

The legal work of the department is to be performed under supervision and direction of the solicitor by a provision of Act May 26, 1910, c. 256, set forth below.

The law clerks may be detailed for service in or out of Washington, by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, set forth below.

Leaves of absence for employés, outside of the city of Washington, are authorized by a provision of Act May 23, 1908, c. 192, set forth below.

Assignments of pay by employés, under regulations to be prescribed, are authorized by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 301, set forth below.

Advances from the appropriations for the Department are to be made only to such chiefs of field parties, agricultural explorers, special agents, etc., as shall have given bonds, by a provision of Act June 3, 1902, c. 985, post, under Title XL, "The Public Moneys."

Laborers placed in classified service.

All classified laborers whose positions are transferred from the lump funds to the statutory rolls are hereby placed in the classified service without further examination in the grades and at the rates of compensation herein provided.

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, 33 Stat. 883.

This is a provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above. Previous provisions of the act made appropriations for clerks and other employés previously paid as laborers from the lump sums appropriated.

The laborers so transferred are made eligible for promotion, without further examination, by a provision of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3913, set forth below.

Laborers transferred to classified service eligible for promotion.

* * That all classified laborers whose positions were transferred from the lump funds to the statutory rolls by the Act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture approved March third, nineteen hundred and five, and who were by the last clause of that Act placed in the classified service without further examination in the grades and at the rates of compensation provided in said Act, are hereby made eligible for promotion without further examination.

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 Stat. 695.

This is a proviso, annexed, in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above, to provisions contained in that act, which, as repeated and made permanent in Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, are set forth below.

The last clause of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, mentioned in this provision as having placed in the classified service the laborers in question, is set forth above.

Appointments, promotions, and changes in salaries to be paid out of lump funds; details of employees.

And hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to make such appointments, promotions, and changes in salaries, to be paid out of the lump funds of the several bureaus, divisions, and offices of the Department as may be for the best interests of the service: Provided, That the maximum salary of any classified scientific investigator in the city of Washington, or other employee engaged in scientific work, shall not exceed three thousand five hundred dollars per annum. And the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized and directed to pay the salary of each employee from the roll of the bureau, independent division, or office in which the employee is working, and no other: Provided, however, That details may be made from the office of the Secretary when necessary and the services of the person whom it is proposed to detail are not required in that office; * *

This is a provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above. A provision in the same words, except the word "hereafter," following the word "And" at the beginning of the paragraph, and the words "three thousand" instead of "three thousand five hundred" in the first proviso, was contained in the similar appropriation act for the preceding year, Act June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 S. ... 695.

A further clause of the last proviso set forth here, directing the Secretary "to submit to Congress each year a statement covering all appointments, promotions, or other changes made in the salaries paid from lump funds," etc., is repealed, with other provisions of this act, by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, set forth post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations," under Rev. St. § 3668.

Leaves of absence to employees outside of city of Washington.

Leave of absence: The employees of the Department of Agriculture, outside of the city of Washington, may hereafter, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, be granted leave of absence not to exceed fifteen days in any one year, which leave may in exceptional and meritorious cases where such an employee is ill, be extended, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, not to exceed fifteen days additional in any one year.

Act May 23, 1908, c. 192, § 1, 35 Stat. 267.

This is a provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. Previous similar provisions, relating to the employés of particular bureaus, etc., in the Department, were contained in the similar acts for preceding years.

ACT MARCH 4, 1909, c. 301. [H. R. 27053.]

Assignment of pay by employees.

And hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to permit employees of the Department of Agriculture to make assignments of their pay, under such regulations as he may prescribe, during such time as they may be in the employ of the said department.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 301, § 1, 35 Stat. 1057.

This is a provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

ACT MAY 26, 1910, c. 256. [H. R. 18162.]

Solicitor.

Office of the Secretary: * * solicitor, * * dollars, and hereafter the legal work of the Department of Agriculture shall be performed under the supervision and direction of the solicitor; * *

Act May 26, 1910, c. 256, 36 Stat. 416.

This is a provision, accompanying an appropriation for compensation of the solicitor, in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911. The amount appropriated, as in the previous year, was $4,500. It is increased to $5,000 in the appropriation for the subsequent fiscal year, by Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1235.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 238. [H. R. 31596.]

* * That hereafter the law clerks may be detailed by the Secretary of Agriculture for service in or out of Washington; * *

Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1236.

This is a proviso following appropriations for officers, clerks, etc., including law clerks, in the office of the Secretary, in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. A provision in the same language, except the word "hereafter," was contained in the similar act for the preceding year.

Disbursing clerk, administrative officer of fiscal affairs of department; deputy disbursing clerk, his authority, bond, and liabilities.

Salaries, Division of Accounts and Disbursements: One chief of division and disbursing clerk, who shall be administrative officer of the fiscal affairs of the department, * * dollars; * * one deputy disbursing clerk, * * dollars; * *

The deputy disbursing clerk herein provided for shall hereafter have authority to sign checks in the name of the disbursing clerk; he shall give bond to the United States in such sum as the Secretary of the Treasury may require, and when so acting for the disbursing clerk shall be subject to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct in like cases of the disbursing clerk for whom he acts, and the official bond of the disbursing clerk executed shall also be made to cover and apply to the acts of the deputy disbursing clerk.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1258.

These are further provisions of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. Salaries for that year for other fiscal officers, agents, etc., are also appropriated.

Details of employees from and to library and bureaus and offices of the department.

* * That hereafter employees of the Library may be temporarily detailed by the Secretary of Agriculture for library service in the bureaus and offices of the department, and employees of the bureaus and offices of the department engaged in library work may also be temporarily detailed to the Library.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1261.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for "general expenses, library," in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Traveling expenses, etc., of officers and employees transferred from one official station to another.

That hereafter officers and employees of the Department of Agriculture transferred from one official station to another for permanent duty, when authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture, may be allowed actual traveling expenses, including charges for the transfer of their effects and personal property used in official work, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1265.

This is a further provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Sec. 524.

Bonds.

A provision of Act March 3, 1887, c. 351, § 2, 24 Stat. 499, "that the bond of the Commissioner of Agriculture shall be in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars," may be regarded as superseded by the change of the Department into an executive department, under a Secretary of Agriculture, by Act Feb. 9, 1889, c. 122, Comp. St. 1901, p. 285.

Sec. 526.

Duties [of Secretary].

In addition to the powers conferred on the Secretary in regard to the preservation, etc., of game birds, by Act May 25, 1900, c. 553, § 1, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 290, he is empowered to authorize and regulate the importation of eggs of such birds for propagation, by Act June 3, 1902, c. 983, set forth below.

The Secretary is directed to test for adulterations samples of seeds of grass, clover, or alfalfa, obtained in the open market, by a provision of Act April 28, 1904, c. 1486, set forth below.

The Secretary is authorized to establish and maintain laboratories for examining samples, etc., of seed or grain and to report upon them, such reports to serve as a basis for fixing grades and for the issuance of certificates of inspection, by a further provision of Act May 23, 1908, c. 192, also set forth below.

The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to continue investigations of the cost of food supplies and to disseminate the results, by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, set forth below.

The Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, are directed to make regulations for carrying out the provisions of the pure food act, Act June 30, 1906, c. 3915, by section 3 of that act, and also for carrying out the provisions of the insecticide act, Act April 26, 1910, c. 191, by section 3 of said act, both which are set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

Further provisions for the enforcement, by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Agriculture, of the provisions of the pure food act and of the insecticide act as to imported articles are contained in section 11 of each of said acts, also set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

Provisions for the regulation of the exportation and transportation of live stock and the suppression of diseases among such stock, by the Secretary of Agriculture, are contained in Act Feb. 2, 1903, c. 349, set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to use any part of certain appropriations for general expenses of the Bureau of Animal Industry, in the collection of information and dissemination of knowledge concerning live stock, dairy and other products, in preventing the spread of contagious, etc., diseases of animals, and in establishing and maintaining quarantine stations, etc., by provisions of Act March 4, 1907,

c. 2907, set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to cause to be made, by inspectors appointed for the purpose, the inspection of cattle, etc., carcasses, etc., thereof, and meat and meat food products, provided for by Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, and to make regulations for the execution of that act, by various provisions of said Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, relating to such inspections, etc., set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

The Secretary of Agriculture is charged with the proper administration of Act March 16, 1906, c. 951, providing for an increased annual appropriation for agricultural experiment stations, by section 4 of that act, and specific requirements in regard thereto are contained in that and other sections of said Act March 16, 1906, c. 951, set forth post, under Title LVI D, "Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations."

The Secretary of Agriculture is made one of the members of the National Forest Reservation Commission, and varions powers and duties are imposed on him in regard to the acquisition, etc., of lands necessary for regulation of flow of navigable streams, by Act March 1, 1911, c. 186, §§ 4–11, set forth post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 11, subc. "National Forests."

ACT JUNE 3, 1902, c. 983.

An Act to Regulate the Introduction of Eggs of Game Birds for Propagation. (32 Stat. 285.)

Importation of eggs of game birds for propagation.

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this Act the Secretary of Agriculture shall have the power to authorize the importation of eggs of game birds for purposes of propagation, and he shall prescribe all necessary rules and regulations governing the importation of eggs of said birds for such purposes.

Act June 3, 1902, c. 983, 32 Stat. 285.

ACT APRIL 28, 1904, c. 1486. [H. R. 11825.]

Tests of seeds of grass, etc., for adulterations.

* * The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby directed to obtain in the open market, samples of seeds of grass, clover, or alfalfa, test the same, and if any such seeds are found to be adulterated or misbranded, or any seeds of Canada blue grass (Poa compressa) are obtained under any other name than Canada blue grass or Poa compressa, to publish the results of the tests, together with the names of the persons by whom the seeds were offered for sale.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1486, 33 Stat. 283.

This is a provision accompanying appropriations for expenses of the Bureau of Plant Industry in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. Provisions for the same purpose are made in the subsequent similar acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is an appropriation "for studying and testing commercial seeds, including the testing of samples of seeds of grasses, clover, or alfalfa secured in the open market, and where such samples are found to be adulterated or misbranded the results of the tests shall be published, together with the names of the persons by whom the seeds were offered for sale." ACT MAY 23, 1908, c. 192. [H. R. 19158.]

Establishing standards for grades of cotton.

To enable the Secretary of Agriculture to establish a standard for the different grades of cotton, calling to his assistance for that purpose expert cotton classifiers, by fixing a standard of middling cotton and, using the same as a basis, establishing a standard of nine different grades to be designated middling fair, strict good middling, good middling, strict middling, middling, strict low middling, low middling, strict good ordinary, and good ordinary, which shall be the official standard of cotton classifications. And the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to prepare in practical form the standard of said grades and furnish the same upon request to any person, the cost thereof to be paid, when delivered, by the person requesting the same, and certified under the signature of the said Secretary and the seal of his Department.

Act May 23, 1908, c. 192, 35 Stat. 256.

This is a provision accompanying appropriations for expenses of the Bureau of Plant Industry in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. Provisions for the same purpose are made in the subsequent similar acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is "for investigating the ginning, handling, grading, baling, and wrapping of cotton, and the establishment of standards for the different grades thereof, and for carrying into effect the provisions of law relating thereto." Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1242.

Examinations of and reports on samples of seed or grain; fixing of grades; certificates of inspection.

To enable the Secretary of Agriculture to establish and maintain, at such points as he may deem expedient, laboratories for the purpose of examining and reporting upon the nature, quality, and condition of any sample, parcel, or consignment of seed or grain, including rent and the employment of labor in the city of Washington and elsewhere; and the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to report upon such samples, parcels, or consignments, from time to time, and the reports so made shall serve as a basis for the fixing of definite grades, and also for the issuance of certificates of inspection when requested by the consignor or consignee of any grain entering into foreign commerce.

Act May 23, 1908, c. 192, 35 Stat. 257.

This is a further provision accompanying appropriations for expenses of the Bureau of Plant Industry in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. Provisions for the same purpose are made in the subsequent similar acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is "for investigating the handling, grading, and transportation of grain, and the fixing of definite grades thereof." Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1242.

Investigations on cost of food.

And the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to continue investigations on the cost of food supplies at the farm and to the consumer, and to disseminate the results of such investigations in whatever manner he may deem best.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1264.

This is a provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Sec. 527. [As amended 1896.]

Purchase and distribution of seeds, plants, etc.

Provisions relating to the distribution of seeds, plants, etc., accompanying the annual appropriations for the purchase, etc., thereof, are set forth below.

[Superseded. Act March 4, 1909, c. 301.]

The provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 291, are re-enacted, with some alterations and additions, in the similar appropriation acts for the years subsequent to the acts referred to in the note in Comp. St. 1901, p. 291. The provisions of Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 238. [H. R. 31596.]

Allotment of seeds, etc., to members of Congress for distribution.

Purchase and distribution of valuable seeds: For purchase, propagation, testing, and distribution of valuable seeds, bulbs, trees, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants; all necessary office fixtures and supplies, fuel, transportation, paper, twine, gum, postal cards, gas, electric current, official traveling expenses, and all necessary material and repairs for putting up and distributing the same; for rent and repairs and the employment of local and special agents, clerks, assistants, and other labor required, in the city of Washington and elsewhere, two hundred and eighty-nine thousand six hundred and eighty dollars, of which amount not less than two hundred and thirty-seven thousand one hundred and sixty dollars shall be allotted for congressional distribution. And the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby directed to expend the said sum, as nearly as practicable, in the purchase, testing, and distribution of such valuable seeds, bulbs, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants, the best he can obtain at public or private sale, and such as shall be suitable for the respective localities to which the same are to be apportioned, and in which same are to be distributed as hereinafter stated, and such seeds so purchased shall include a variety of vegetable and flower seeds suitable for planting and culture in the various sections of the United States. An equal proportion of five-sixths of all seeds, bulbs, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants, shall, upon their request, after due notification by the Secretary of Agriculture that the allotment to their respective districts is ready for distribution, be supplied to Senators, Representatives, and Delegates to Congress for distribution among their constituents, or mailed by the Department upon the receipt of their addressed franks, in packages of such weight as the Secretary of Agriculture and the Postmaster-General may jointly determine: Provided, however, That upon each envelope or wrapper containing packages of seeds the contents thereof shall be plainly indicated, and the Secretary shall not distribute to any Senator, Representative, or Delegate seeds entirely unfit for the climate and locality he represents, but shall distribute the same so that each member may have seeds of equal value, as near as may be, and the best adapted to the locality he represents: Provided, also, That the seeds allotted to Senators and Representatives for distribution in the districts embraced within the twenty-fifth and thirty-fourth parallels of latitude shall be ready for delivery not later than the tenth day of January: Provided also, That any portion of the allotments to Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress remaining uncalled for on the first day of April shall be distributed by the Secretary of Agriculture, giving preference to those persons whose names and addresses have been furnished by Senators and Representatives in Congress, and who have not before during the same season been supplied by the Department: And provided also,

That the Secretary shall report, as provided in this Act, the place, quantity, and price of seeds purchased, and the date of purchase; but nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the Secretary of Agriculture from sending seeds to those who apply for the same. And the amount herein appropriated shall not be diverted or used for any other purpose but for the purchase, testing, propagation, and distribution of valuable seeds, bulbs, mulberry and other rare and valuable trees, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants: Provided further, That fifty-two thousand five hundred and twenty dollars of which sum, or so much thereof as the Secretary of Agriculture shall direct, may be used to collect, purchase, test, propagate, and distribute rare and valuable seeds, bulbs, trees, shrubs, vines, cuttings, and plants from foreign countries or from our possessions for experiments with reference to their introduction into and cultivation in this country, and same shall not be distributed generally, but shall be used for experimental tests, to be carried on with the coöperation of the agricultural experiment stations.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1243.

These provisions, contained in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above, are re-enactments of those contained in the agricultural appropriation acts of 1880 and subsequent years, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 291, with alterations and additions.

Provisions for the printing annually by the Public Printer of franks required for sending out seeds on Congressional orders are contained in Res. May 19, 1902, No. 23, post, under Title XLV, "Public Printing, Advertisements, and Public Documents."

Sec. 529.

Annual report of expenditures.

Special provisions relating to the annual estimates of appropriations for the Department, contained in Act June 3, 1902, c. 985, are set forth post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations."

A statement to Congress each year covering all appointments, promotions, or other changes in salaries paid from lump funds, is required, in connection with authority to make such appointments, promotions, and changes, by provisions of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 523.

The Secretary is required to submit to Congress, on or before Jan. 1 of each year, classified and detailed reports of all receipts by the Forest Service and classified and detailed estimates of all expenditures intended for that service for the next fiscal year and detailed reports of all expenditures under any appropriation for such service during the preceding fiscal year, by provisions of said Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, set forth post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 11, subchapter "National Forests."

ACT JULY 5, 1892, c. 147.

Monthly crop report.

The provision of this act and of subsequent similar acts set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 294, is repeated, with some changes and additions, in the agricultural appropriation acts for subsequent years. In the later acts, a further proviso relating to condition reports of the cotton crop is added. Permanent provisions contained in Act March 4, 1909, c. 301, are set forth below.

ACT AUG. 8, 1894, c. 238.

Farmers' bulletins; allotment to members of Congress for distribution.

The provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 294, are re-enacted, with some alterations, in the similar appropriation acts of subsequent years down to and including the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, Act June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 Stat. 960. For the subsequent fiscal years a provision substantially similar, but without the provisos previously included, is made by the sundry civil appropriation act for each year. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, is set forth below.

Sale of prints and lantern slides from photographic negatives.

And hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to furnish, upon application, prints and lantern slides from negatives in the possession of the Department and to charge for the same a price to cover the cost of preparation, such price to be determined and established by the Secretary of Agriculture, and the money received from such sales to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States.

Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1281.

This is a provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above. A provision in the same language, without the word "hereafter," was contained in the similar appropriation act for the preceding year, Act June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 Stat. 683.

The sale of photographic prints, lantern slides, etc., forest maps, and condemned property or materials of the Forest Service, is authorized by other provisions of this act, relating to that service, set forth post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 11, subchapter "National Forests."

Sale of waste paper; accumulations of Department files; obsolete or worthless documents or publications.

And hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to sell as waste waste paper, or otherwise to dispose of the accumulation of Department files which do not constitute permanent records, and all other documents and publications which have become obsolete or worthless.

Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1281.

This is a further provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

Provisions, applicable to all the Departments, for the disposition of accumulations of useless papers, are contained in Act Feb. 16, 1889, c. 171, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 98.

Purchase of mileage and mileage books from appropriations for traveling expenses.

And hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to purchase from appropriations made for traveling expenses for employees of the Department of Agriculture, mileage and mileage books, at commercial rates, in the manner in which such mileage or mileage books are usually purchased.

Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1281.

This is a further provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

ACT MAY 23, 1908, c. 192. [H. R. 19158.]

Sale of copies of card index of publications of Department.

* * And hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture may furnish to such institutions or individuals as may care to buy them, copies of the card index of the publications of the Department and of other agricultural literature prepared by the library, and charge for the same a price covering the additional expense involved in the preparation of these copies.

Act May 23, 1908, c. 192, 35 Stat. 264.

This is a provision accompanying appropriations for the library of the Department in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. The same provision, without the word "hereafter," was contained in the similar appropriation acts for previous years.

Sale of copies of card index of agricultural literature prepared by Office of Experiment Stations.

* * And the Secretary of Agriculture hereafter may furnish to such institutions or individuals as may care to buy them copies of the card index of agricultural literature prepared by the Office of Experiment Stations, and charge for the same a price covering the additional expense involved in the preparation of these copies, the money received from such sales to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts; * *

Act May 23, 1908, c. 192, § 1, 35 Stat. 265.

This is a provision accompanying appropriations for agricultural experiment stations in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1909, c. 301. [H. R. 27053.]

Monthly crop reports.

* * That hereafter the monthly crop reports, which shall be gathered as far as practicable from practical farmers, and which shall be issued on or before the tenth of each month, shall embrace statements of the conditions of crops by States, in the United States, with such explanations, comparisons, and information as may be useful for illustrating the above matter, and that it shall be submitted to and officially approved by the Secretary of Agriculture before being issued or published: Provided further, That hereafter the condition reports of the cotton crop shall be issued on the same day in October each year as the first ginners' report of actual cotton ginned, * *

Act March 4, 1909, c. 301, 35 Stat. 1053.

These are provisos annexed to the appropriations for expenses of the Bureau of Statistics in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. Provisos in nearly the same language, without the word "hereafter," were contained in the agricultural appropriation acts for previous years.

Previous similar provisions, relating to a monthly crop report issued on the tenth day of each month, are set forth or referred to in Comp. St. 1901, p. 294.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1. [H. R. 32909.]

Printing and binding; farmers' bulletins; distribution.

For the Department of Agriculture, including not to exceed forty-seven thousand dollars for the Weather Bureau, and including the Annual Report of the Secretary of Agriculture, as required by the Act approved January twelfth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, and in pursuance of the provisions of Public Resolution Numbered Thirteen of the first session Fifty-Ninth Congress, and also including not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars for farmers' bulletins, which shall be adapted to the interests of the people of the different sections of the country, an equal proportion of four-fifths of which shall be delivered to or sent out under the addressed franks furnished by Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress, as they shall direct, four hundred and seventy thousand dollars.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1447.

This is a provision, under the head "Public Printing and Binding," in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. It re-enacts, substantially, a provision of Act Aug. 8, 1894, c. 238, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 294, which was repeated in subsequent agricultural appropriation acts previous to this act.

The requirement of Act Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, relating to the annual report of the Secretary of Agriculture, mentioned in this provision is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 2561.

Res. March 30, 1906, No. 13, relating to the public printing, also mentioned in this provision, is set forth post, under Title XLV, "Public Printing, Advertisements, and Public Documents."

[CHAPTER B.]

[The Weather Bureau.]

ACT OCT. 1, 1890, c. 1266, § 4.

Employés.

The appropriations for salaries in the Bureau, by the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, include, for the Chief of Bureau, $6,000; one Assistant Chief of Bureau, $3,000; and numerous other officers, clerks and employés. Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1236.

ACT AUG. 8, 1894, c. 238.

The provision of this act and of Act March 2, 1895, c. 169, and Act April 25, 1896, c. 140, which is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 298, is incorporated in the act to codify, etc., the penal laws, Act March 4, 1909, [illegible] in chapter 4, § 61, thereof, and is expressly repealed by chapter 15, § 341, of said act, taking effect January 1, 1910. Said act is set forth post, under Title LXIX A, "The Criminal Code."

Previous to such repeal a provision in the same language, with an additional clause inserted making it likewise punishable to molest or interfere with any weather or storm flag or weather map or bulletin displayed or issued by the Weather Bureau, was enacted by Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, 33 Stat. 864, as follows:

"Any person who shall knowingly issue or publish any counterfeit weather forecasts or warnings of weather conditions, falsely representing such forecasts or warnings to have been issued or published by the Weather Bureau, or other branch of the Government service, or shall molest or interfere with any weather or storm flag or weather map or bulletin displayed or issued by the United States Weather Bureau, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, for each offense, be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not to exceed ninety days, or be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court."

This provision is not included among those mentioned as expressly repealed in said repealing section 341 of the Criminal Code, but a reference to it is noted in the margin of said section 61 thereof, in which the original provision is incorporated. It may be questioned, therefore, whether said additional provision first enacted in Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, is, within the meaning of the last clause of section 341 of the Criminal Code, "embraced within and superseded by" said Code, so as to be repealed thereby, or whether it is one of "the remaining portions" of prior acts, which are to "remain in force."

[Superseded. Act May 23, 1908, c. 192.]

The provisions of this and subsequent acts, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 298, are superseded by the more comprehensive provisions relating to the same subject contained in more recent appropriation acts. The general provision for leaves of absence to employés of the Department, outside the city of Washington, contained in Act May 23, 1908, c. 192, is set forth ante, under Chapter A of this Title.

ACT MARCH 4, 1907, c. 2907. [H. R. 24815.]

Sale of surplus maps or publications.

* * and hereafter the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to sell any surplus maps or publications of the Weather Bureau, and the money received from such sales shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States, section two hundred and twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes notwithstanding; * *

Act March 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1258.

This is a provision of the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Rev. St. § 227, mentioned in this provision, authorizing the sale of surplus maps or publications of the Signal Office, under the War Department, the money received therefor to be applied toward the expenses of the signal service, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 119.

[CHAPTER C.]

[The Bureau of Animal Industry.]

ACT MAY 29, 1884, c. 60, §§ 1, 3.

Establishment of the Bureau.

The appropriations for salaries in the Bureau, in the agricultural appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, include, for the Chief of Bureau, $5,000; one chief clerk, $2,500; and numerous other officers, clerks, and employés. Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1238.

Regulations for suppression of diseases; co-operation of States and Territories.

The agricultural appropriation acts make appropriations annually to carry out the provisions of this act and of subsequent acts relating to the same subjects. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1239.

Further provisions for the regulation of the exportation and transportation of live stock and the suppression of disease among such stock by the Secretary of Agriculture are contained in Act Feb. 2, 1903, c. 349, set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

Provisions relating to exportation and transportation of cattle and other live stock to foreign countries, transportation thereof among the states, etc., the investigation and suppression of contagious, etc., diseases of such animals, the establishment and maintenance of quarantine of any state, etc., or portion thereof where cattle or other live stock are affected with any contagious disease, subsequent to the provisions of Act May 29, 1884, c. 60, §§ 4–9, and later statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 3183–3193, are contained in Act Feb. 2, 1903, c. 349, Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, and Act March 3, 1905, c. 1496, set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

Provisions for inspection of live cattle, etc., and carcasses and products thereof, including dairy products, which are intended for exportation to any foreign country, or are subjects of interstate commerce, subsequent to the provisions therefor set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 3183-3193, are contained in Act July 1, 1902, c. 1357, and Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

Forcibly assaulting, resisting, etc., any officer or employé of the Bureau of Animal Industry in the execution of his duties, and discharging any deadly weapon at such officer or employé; or using any dangerous or deadly weapon in resisting him in the execution of his duties, with intent to commit a bodily injury upon him or to deter or prevent him from discharging his duties, or on account of the performance of his duties, are made punishable, by Act March 3, 1905, c. 1496, § 5, 33 Stat. 1265, which is incorporated in the act to codify, etc., the penal laws, Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, in c. 4, § 62 thereof, set forth post, under Title LXIX A, "The Criminal Code."

[Superseded. Act May 23, 1908, c. 192.]

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 301, repeated, as stated in the note thereto, in the similar act of 1901, is superseded by the more comprehensive provisions relating to the same subject contained in more recent appropriation acts. The general provision for leaves of absence to employés of the Department, outside the city of Washington, contained in Act May 23, 1908, c. 192, is set forth ante, under Chapter A of this Title.

[TITLE XII A.]

[THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND LABOR.]

In the Compiled Statutes of 1901, the provisions relating to the Department of Labor, established by Act June 13, 1888, c. 389, are placed under Title XII A, "The Department of Labor." That Department having been placed under the jurisdiction and made part of the Department of Commerce and Labor, established by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, set forth below, the scope of this title is extended to include the provisions establishing and relating to that Department.

ACT FEB. 14, 1903, c. 552.

An Act to Establish the Department of Commerce and Labor. (32 Stat. 825.)

Establishment of the Department; Secretary of Commerce and Labor; seal.

Be it enacted, &c., That there shall be at the seat of government an executive department to be known as the Department of Commerce and Labor, and a Secretary of Commerce and Labor, who shall be the head thereof, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall receive a salary of eight thousand dollars per annum, and whose term and tenure of office shall be like that of the heads of the other Executive Departments; and section one hundred and fifty-eight of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended to include such Department, and the provisions of title four of the Revised Statutes, including all amendments thereto, are hereby made applicable to said Department. The said Secretary shall cause a seal of office to be made for the said Department of such device as the President shall approve, and judicial notice shall be taken of the said seal.

Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 1, 32 Stat. 825.

Rev. St. § 158, amended by this section, defines the Executive Departments to which Title IV, relating to all the Executive Departments, shall apply.

The compensation of the heads of Executive Departments who are members of the President's Cabinet is at the rate of $12,000 per annum, by a provision of Act Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1635, § 4, set forth ante, under Title II, "The Congress," c. 4.

Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor; clerks; settlement of accounts of salaries and expenses.

Sec. 2. That there shall be in said Department an Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor, to be appointed by the President, who shall receive a salary of five thousand dollars a year. He shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the Secretary or required by law. There shall also be one chief clerk and a disbursing clerk and such other clerical assistants as may from time to time be authorized by Congress; and the Auditor for the State and other Departments shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, and of all bureaus and offices under his direction, all accounts relating to the Light-House Board, Steamboat-Inspection Service, Immigration, Navigation, Alaskan fur-seal fisheries, the National Bureau of Standards, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Census, Department of Labor, Fish Commission and to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of Commerce and Labor, and certify the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants and send forthwith a copy of each certificate to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 2, 32 Stat. 826.

Appropriations for compensation of the officers, clerks, and employés of the Department, including clerks and employés in addition to the chief clerk and disbursing clerk mentioned in this section, and for expenses of the Department, are made by the annual legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1226–1232.

Estimates in detail, for all personal services, and for all general and miscellaneous expenses for the Department, are to be submitted annually, by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1006, post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations."

A solicitor of the Department of Commerce and Labor, in the Department of Justice, is authorized by a provision of Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, set forth ante, under Title VIII, "The Department of Justice."

Powers and duties of Department; appropriations made applicable.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the province and duty of said Department to foster, promote, and develop the foreign and domestic commerce, the mining, manufacturing, shipping, and fishery industries, the labor interests, and the transportation facilities of the United States; and to this end it shall be vested with jurisdiction and control of the departments, bureaus, offices, and branches of the public service hereinafter specified, and with such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by law. All unexpended appropriations, which shall be available at the time when this Act takes effect, in relation to the various offices, bureaus, divisions, and other branches of the public service, which shall, by this Act, be transferred to or included in the Department of Commerce and Labor, or which may hereafter, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, be so transferred, shall become available, from the time of such transfer, for expenditure in and by the Department of Commerce and Labor and shall be treated the same as though said branches of the public service had been directly named in the laws making said appropriations as parts of the Department of Commerce and Labor, under the direction of the Secretary of said Department.

Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 3, 32 Stat. 826.

Besides the departments, bureaus, offices, etc., specified in section 4 and subsequent sections of this act, set forth below, as transferred to and included in the Department, which is vested with jurisdiction and control thereof by this section, other offices, bureaus, etc., engaged in statistical or scientific work, may be transferred by the President to the Department from certain other Departments, by section 12 of this act, also set forth below.

Transfer of existing offices, bureaus, etc., to Department.

Sec. 4. That the following-named offices, bureaus, divisions, and branches of the public service, now and heretofore under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Treasury, and all that pertains to the same, known as the Light-House Board, the Light-House Establishment, the Steamboat-Inspection Service, the Bureau of Navigation, the United States Shipping Commissioners, the National Bureau of Standards, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Commissioner-General of Immigration, the commissioners of immigration, the Bureau of Immigration, the immigration service at large, and the Bureau of Statistics, be, and the same hereby are, transferred from the Department of the Treasury to the Department of Commerce and Labor, and the same shall hereafter remain under the jurisdiction and supervision of the last-named Department; and that the Census Office, and all that pertains to the same, be, and the same hereby is, transferred from the Department of the Interior to the Department of Commerce and Labor, to remain henceforth under the jurisdiction of the latter; that the Department of Labor, the Fish Commission, and the Office of Commissioner of Fish and Fisheries, and all that pertains to the same, be, and the same hereby are, placed under the jurisdiction and made a part of the Department of Commerce and Labor; that the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, now in the Department of State, be, and the same hereby is, transferred to the Department of Commerce and Labor and consolidated with and made a part of the Bureau of Statistics, hereinbefore transferred from the Department of the Treasury to the Department of Commerce and Labor, and the two shall constitute one bureau, to be called the Bureau of Statistics, with a chief of the bureau; and that the Secretary of Commerce and Labor shall have control of the work of gathering and distributing statistical information naturally relating to the subjects confided to his Department; and the Secretary of Commerce and Labor is hereby given the power and authority to rearrange the statistical work of the bureaus and offices confided to said Department, and to consolidate any of the statistical bureaus and offices transferred to said Department; and said Secretary shall also have authority to call upon other Departments of the Government for statistical data and results obtained by them; and said Secretary of Commerce and Labor may collate, arrange, and publish such statistical information so obtained in such manner as to him may seem wise.

That the official records and papers now on file in and pertaining exclusively to the business of any bureau, office, department, or branch of the public service in this Act transferred to the Department of Commerce and Labor, together with the furniture now in use in such bureau, office, department, or branch of the public service, shall be, and hereby are, transferred to the Department of Commerce and Labor.

Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 4, 32 Stat. 826.

These provisions for the transfer of existing offices, bureaus, etc., to the Department, take effect July 1, 1903, by section 13 of this act, set forth below.

The powers, duties, etc., of the heads of executive departments in or over the bureaus, offices, officers, etc., transferred to the Department, are vested in the head of the Department, by section 10 of this act, set forth below.

The powers, duties, etc., of the Secretary of the Treasury in regard to shipping, seamen, etc., are transferred to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor by section 10 of this act, set forth below.

Provisions for the transfer to the Department of officers, clerks, and employés in the offices, bureaus, etc., transferred under this act, are contained in section 9 of this act, set forth below.

The Secretary of Commerce and Labor has charge of the furniture, records, etc., pertaining to the Department, by section 9 of this act, set forth below.

The papers, records, and files of the Immigration Commission, provided for in Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 39, set forth post, under Title XXIX, "Immigration," remaining on the expiration of the existence of said commission, are to be turned over to and become a part of the files of the Department, by a provision of Act June 25, 1910, c. 385, set forth below.

Previous provisions relating to each of the various offices, bureaus, etc., transferred to the Department by this section, are the following:

The Light-House Board and the Light-House Establishment. Title LV, "Lights and Buoys," Comp. St. 1901, pp. 3140–3148.

The Steamboat Inspection Service, Title LII, "Regulation of Steam-Vessels," c. 1, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 3014–3044.

The Bureau of Navigation, Title VII, "The Department of the Treasury," c. 11 A, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 198–200.

The United States Shipping Commissioners, Title LIII, "Merchant Seamen," c. 1, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 3061–3067.

The National Bureau of Standards, Act March 3, 1901, c. 872, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 2383–2385.

An assistant chief of bureau is authorized by a provision of Act Feb. 27, 1906, c. 510, § 1, set forth below.

Bureau of Corporations; investigation of and information concerning corporations.

Sec. 6. That there shall be in the Department of Commerce and Labor a bureau to be called the Bureau of Corporations, and a Commissioner of Corporations who shall be the head of said bureau, to be appointed by the President, who shall receive a salary of five thousand dollars per annum. There shall also be in said bureau a deputy commissioner who shall receive a salary of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum, and who shall in the absence of the Commissioner act as, and perform the duties of, the Commissioner of Corporations, and who shall also perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor or by the said Commissioner. There shall also be in the said bureau a chief clerk and such special agents, clerks, and other employees as may be authorized by law.

The said Commissioner shall have power and authority to make, under the direction and control of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, diligent investigation into the organization, conduct, and management of the business of any corporation, joint stock company or corporate combination engaged in commerce among the several States and with foreign nations excepting common carriers subject to "An Act to regulate commerce," approved February fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and to gather such information and data as will enable the President of the United States to make recommendations to Congress for legislation for the regulation of such commerce, and to report such data to the President from time to time as he shall require; and the information so obtained or as much thereof as the President may direct shall be made public.

In order to accomplish the purposes declared in the foregoing part of this section, the said Commissioner shall have and exercise the same power and authority in respect to corporations, joint stock companies and combinations subject to the provisions hereof, as is conferred on the Interstate Commerce Commission in said "Act to regulate commerce" and the amendments thereto in respect to common carriers so far as the same may be applicable, including the right to subpœna and compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence and to administer oaths. All the requirements, obligations, liabilities, and immunities imposed or conferred by said "Act to regulate commerce" and by "An Act in relation to testimony before the Interstate Commerce Commission," and so forth, approved February eleventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, supplemental to said "Act to regulate commerce," shall also apply to all persons who may be subpœnaed to testify as witnesses or to produce documentary evidence in pursuance of the authority conferred by this section.

It shall also be the province and duty of said bureau, under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, to gather, compile, publish, and supply useful information concerning corporations doing business within the limits of the United States as shall engage in interstate commerce or in commerce between the United States and any foreign country, including corporations engaged in insurance, and to attend to such other duties as may be hereafter provided by law.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for compensation of commercial agents in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Bureau of Light-Houses; Commissioner of Light-Houses; deputy commissioner, chief clerk, inspectors, etc.; chief constructing engineer and superintendent of naval construction; annual report; adjustment of claims for damages from collisions.

Sec. 4. That hereafter there shall be in the Department of Commerce and Labor a bureau of light-houses and a commissioner of light-houses, who shall be the head of said bureau, to be appointed by the President, who shall receive a salary of five thousand dollars per annum. There shall also be in the bureau a deputy commissioner, to be appointed by the President, who shall receive a salary of four thousand dollars per annum, and a chief clerk, who shall perform the duties of chief clerk and such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor or by the commissioner. There shall also be in the bureau such inspectors, clerical assistants, and other employees as may from time to time be authorized by Congress, and there shall also be employed one chief constructing engineer at a salary of four thousand dollars per annum and one superintendent of naval construction at a salary of three thousand dollars per annum, both to be appointed by the President. The commissioner of light-houses shall make an annual report to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, who shall transmit the same to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof; and such commissioner, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, is hereby authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust, and determine all claims for damages, where the amount of the claim does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, hereafter occasioned by collisions, for which collisions vessels of the Light-House Service shall be found to be responsible, and report the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due the claimants to Congress at each session thereof through the Treasury Department for payment as legal claims out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor.

Act June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 4, 36 Stat. 537.

This section is part of an act to authorize additional aids to navigation in the Light House Establishment, and to provide for a Bureau of Light-Houses in the Department of Commerce and Labor, etc., other sections of which are set forth post, under Title LV, "Lights and Buoys."

ACT JUNE 25, 1910, c. 385. [H. R. 26730.]

Immigration Commission; papers, records, and files to become part of files of Department, on expiration of Commission.

The papers, records, and files then remaining of the commission commonly known as the Immigration Commission provided for in section thirty-nine of the Act of February twentieth, nineteen hundred and seven, shall be turned over to and become a part of the files of the Department of Commerce and Labor on the expiration of the existence of said commission, as now provided for by law.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 385, 36 Stat. 800.

This is a provision of the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year 1910, cited above.

The Immigration Commission created by Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 39, 34 Stat. 909, mentioned in this provision, ceased on the first Monday of December, 1910, by a provision of Act Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 215.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1. [H. R. 29360.]

Commercial agents to investigate trade conditions.

For compensation at not more than ten dollars per day and actual necessary traveling expenses of commercial agents to investigate trade conditions abroad and in the United States, including the insular possessions, with the object of promoting the foreign commerce of the United States, sixty thousand dollars; and the results of such investigations shall be reported to Congress.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1226.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. A provision similar to some extent was contained in the appropriation acts for previous years.

Bureau of Standards; designation of officer to perform duties of Director during his absence.

Hereafter in the case of the absence of the Director of the Bureau of Standards the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may designate some officer of said bureau to perform the duties of the director during his absence.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1231.

This is a further provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Under this Title is included the Judicial Code, as enacted by Act March 3, 1911, c. 231. In chapter 5 thereof, which contains provisions applicable to particular States, the two sections of Act June 20, 1910, c. 310, the enabling act for the admission into the Union of New Mexico and Arizona, which relate to the judicial districts to be constituted by those States when admitted, are inserted, each in its place in the alphabetical arrangement of the names of the States, and designated by the number of the preceding section of the Code with an added letter.

Many sections of Title XIII of the Revised Statutes, "The Judiciary," and subsequent acts and parts of acts relating to the subjects thereof, are incorporated in the Judicial Code and repealed or superseded thereby. Such repeals, etc., are indicated specifically, post, under the several chapters of said Title XIII affected thereby.

Acts and parts of acts subsequent to the Compiled Statutes of 1901, relating to subjects included in Title XIII of the Revised Statutes, but not within the scope of the Judicial Code, are set forth, post, under the several chapters of said Title XIII.

An Act to Codify, Revise, and Amend the Laws Relating to the Judiciary. (36 Stat. 1087.)

Be it enacted, &c., That the laws relating to the judiciary be, and they hereby are, codified, revised, and amended, with title, chapters, head-notes, and sections, entitled, numbered, and to read as follows:

TITLE.

THE JUDICIARY.

Salaries of district judges.

Sec. 2. Each of the district judges shall receive a salary of six thousand dollars a year, to be paid in monthly installments.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 2, 36 Stat. 1087.

See Act Feb. 12, 1903, c. 547, 32 Stat. 825.

Clerks.

Sec. 3. A clerk shall be appointed for each district court by the judge thereof, except in cases otherwise provided for by law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 3, 36 Stat. 1087.
See Rev. St. § 555, Comp. St. 1901, p. 451.

Deputy clerks.

Sec. 4. Except as otherwise specially provided by law, the clerk of the district court for each district may, with the approval of the district judge thereof, appoint such number of deputy clerks as may be deemed necessary by such judge, who may be designated to reside and maintain offices at such places of holding court as the judge may determine. Such deputies may be removed at the pleasure of the clerk appointing them, with the concurrence of the district judge. In case of the death of the clerk, his deputy or deputies shall, unless removed, continue in office and perform the duties of the clerk, in his name, until a clerk is appointed and qualified; and for the default or misfeasances in office of any such deputy, whether in the lifetime of the clerk or after his death, the clerk and his estate and the sureties on his official bond shall be liable; and his executor or administrator shall have such remedy for any such default or misfeasances committed after his death as the clerk would be entitled to if the same had occurred in his lifetime.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 4, 36 Stat. 1087.
See Rev. St. § 588, Comp. St. 1901, p. 452.

Criers and bailiffs.

Sec. 5. The district court for each district may appoint a crier for the court; and the marshal may appoint such number of persons, not exceeding five, as the judge may determine, to wait upon the grand and other juries, and for other necessary purposes.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 5, 36 Stat. 1088.
See Rev. St. § 715, Comp. St. 1901, p. 579.

Records; where kept.

Sec. 6. The records of a district court shall be kept at the place where the court is held. When it is held at more than one place in any district and the place of keeping the records is not specially provided by law, they shall be kept at either of the places of holding the court which may be designated by the district judge.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 6, 36 Stat. 1088.
See Rev. St. § 562, Comp. St. 1901, p. 454.

Effect of altering terms.

Sec. 7. No action, suit, proceeding, or process in any district court shall abate or be rendered invalid by reason of any act changing the time of holding such court, but the same shall be deemed to be returnable to, pending, and triable in the terms established next after the return day thereof.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 7, 36 Stat. 1088.
See Rev. St. § 573, Comp. St. 1901, p. 475.

Trials not discontinued by new term.

Sec. 8. When the trial or hearing of any cause, civil or criminal, in a district court has been commenced and is in progress before a jury or the court, it shall not be stayed or discontinued by the arrival of the time fixed by law for another session of said court; but the court may proceed therein and bring it to a conclusion in the same manner and with the same effect as if another stated term of the court had not intervened.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 8, 36 Stat. 1088.
See Rev. St. § 746, Comp. St. 1901, p. 590.

Courts always open as courts of admiralty and equity.

Sec. 9. The district courts, as courts of admiralty and as courts of equity, shall be deemed always open for the purpose of filing any pleading, of issuing and returning mesne and final process, and of making and directing all interlocutory motions, orders, rules, and other proceedings preparatory to the hearing, upon their merits, of all causes pending therein. Any district judge may, upon reasonable notice to the parties, make, direct, and award, at chambers or in the clerk's office, and in vacation as well as in term, all such process, commissions, orders, rules, and other proceedings, whenever the same are not grantable of course, according to the rules and practice of the court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 9, 36 Stat. 1088.
See Rev. St. § 574, Comp. St. 1901, p. 475.

Monthly adjournments for trial of criminal causes.

Sec. 10. District courts shall hold monthly adjournments of their regular terms, for the trial of criminal causes, when their business requires it to be done, in order to prevent undue expenses and delays in such cases.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 10, 36 Stat. 1088.
See Rev. St. § 578, Comp. St. 1901, p. 476.

Special terms.

Sec. 11. A special term of any district court may be held at the same place where any regular term is held, or at such other place in the district as the nature of the business may require, and at such time and upon such notice as may be ordered by the district judge. Any business may be transacted at such special term which might be transacted at a regular term.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 11, 36 Stat. 1088.
See Rev. St. § 581, Comp. St. 1901, p. 477.

Adjournment in case of nonattendance of judge.

Sec. 12. If the judge of any district court is unable to attend at the commencement of any regular, adjourned, or special term, or any time during such term, the court may be adjourned by the marshal, or clerk, by virtue of a written order directed to him by the judge, to the next regular term, or to any earlier day, as the order may direct.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 12, 36 Stat. 1088.
See Rev. St. § 583, Comp. St. 1901, p. 478.

Designation of another judge in case of disability of judge.

Sec. 13. When any district judge is prevented, by any disability, from holding any stated or appointed term of his district court, and that fact is made to appear by the certificate of the clerk, under the seal of the court, to any circuit judge of the circuit in which the district lies, or, in the absence of all the circuit judges, to the circuit justice of the circuit in which the district lies, any such circuit judge or justice may, if in his judgment the public interests so require, designate and appoint the judge of any other district in the same circuit to hold said court, and to discharge all the judicial duties of the judge so disabled, during such disability. Whenever it shall be certified by any such circuit judge or, in his absence, by the circuit justice of the circuit in which the district lies, that for any sufficient reason it is impracticable to designate and appoint a judge of another district within the circuit to perform the duties of such disabled judge, the chief justice may, if in his judgment the public interests so require, designate and appoint the judge of any district in another circuit to hold said court and to discharge all the judicial duties of the judge so disabled, during such disability. Such appointment shall be filed in the clerk's office, and entered on the minutes of the said district court, and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the court, shall be transmitted by the clerk to the judge so designated and appointed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 13, 36 Stat. 1089.
See Rev. St. § 591, Comp. St. 1901, p. 480; Act March 4, 1907, c. 2940, 34 Stat. 1417.

Designation of another judge in case of an accumulation of business.

Sec. 14. When, from the accumulation or urgency of business in any district court, the public interests require the designation and appointment hereinafter provided, and the fact is made to appear, by the certificate of the clerk, under the seal of the court, to any circuit judge of the circuit in which the district lies, or, in the absence of all the circuit judges, to the circuit justice of the circuit in which the district lies, such circuit judge or justice may designate and appoint the judge of any other district in the same circuit to have and exercise within the district first named the same powers that are vested in the judge thereof. Each of the said district judges may, in case of such appointment, hold separately at the same time a district court in such district, and discharge all the judicial duties of the district judge therein.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 14, 36 Stat. 1089.
See Rev. St. § 592, Comp. St. 1901, p. 481.

When designation to be made by Chief Justice.

Sec. 15. If all the circuit judges and the circuit justice are absent from the circuit, or are unable to execute the provisions of either of the two preceding sections, or if the district judge so designated is disabled or neglects to hold the court and transact the business for which he is designated, the clerk of the district court shall certify the fact to the Chief Justice of the United States, who may thereupon designate and appoint in the manner aforesaid the judge of any district within such circuit or within any other circuit; and said appointment shall be transmitted to the clerk and be acted upon by him as directed in the preceding section.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 15, 36 Stat. 1089.
See Rev. St. § 593, Comp. St. 1901, p. 481.

New appointment and revocation.

Sec. 16. Any such circuit judge, or circuit justice, or the Chief Justice, as the case may be, may, from time to time, if in his judgment the public interests so require, make a new designation and appointment of any other district judge, in the manner, for the duties, and with the powers mentioned in the three preceding sections, and revoke any previous designation and appointment.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 16, 36 Stat. 1089.
See Rev. St. § 594, Comp. St. 1901, p. 481.

Designation of district judge in aid of another judge.

Sec. 17. It shall be the duty of the senior circuit judge then present in the circuit, whenever in his judgment the public interest so requires, to designate and appoint, in the manner and with the powers provided in section fourteen, the district judge of any judicial district within his circuit to hold a district court in the place or in aid of any other district judge within the same circuit.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 17, 36 Stat. 1089.
See Rev. St. § 596, Comp. St. 1901, p. 482; Act March 3, 1881, c. 133, 21 Stat. 454.

When circuit judge may be designated to hold district court.

Sec. 18. Whenever, in the judgment of the senior circuit judge of the circuit in which the district lies, or of the circuit justice assigned to such circuit, or of the Chief Justice, the public interest shall require, the said judge, or associate justice, or Chief Justice, shall designate and appoint any circuit judge of the circuit to hold said district court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 18, 36 Stat. 1089.

Duty of district and circuit judge in such cases.

Sec. 19. It shall be the duty of the district or circuit judge who is designated and appointed under either of the six preceding sections, to discharge all the judicial duties for which he is so appointed, during the time for which he is so appointed; and all the acts and proceedings in the courts held by him, or by or before him, in pursuance of said provisions, shall have the same effect and validity as if done by or before the district judge of the said district.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 19, 36 Stat. 1090.
See Rev. St. § 595, Comp. St. 1901, p. 482.

When district judge is interested or related to parties.

Sec. 20. Whenever it appears that the judge of any district court is in any way concerned in interest in any suit pending therein, or has been of counsel or is a material witness for either party, or is so related to or connected with either party as to render it improper, in his opinion, for him to sit on the trial, it shall be his duty, on application by either party, to cause the fact to be entered on the records of the court; and also an order that an authenticated copy thereof shall be forthwith certified to the senior circuit judge for said circuit then present in the circuit; and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as are provided in section fourteen.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 20, 36 Stat. 1090.
See Rev. St. § 601, Comp. St. 1901, p. 484.

When affidavit of personal bias or prejudice of judge is filed.

Sec. 21. Whenever a party to any action or proceeding, civil or criminal, shall make and file an affidavit that the judge before whom the action or proceeding is to be tried or heard has a personal bias or prejudice either against him or in favor of any opposite party to the suit, such judge shall proceed no further therein, but another judge shall be designated in the manner prescribed in the section last preceding, or chosen in the manner prescribed in section twenty-three, to hear such matter. Every such affidavit shall state the facts and the reasons for the belief that such bias or prejudice exists, and shall be filed not less than ten days before the beginning of the term of the court, or good cause shall be shown for the failure to file it within such time. No party shall be entitled in any case to file more than one such affidavit; and no such affidavit shall be filed unless accompanied by a certificate of counsel of record that such affidavit and application are made in good faith. The same proceedings shall be had when the presiding judge shall file with the clerk of the court a certificate that he deems himself unable for any reason to preside with absolute impartiality in the pending suit or action.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 21, 36 Stat. 1090.

Continuance in case of vacancy in office.

Sec. 22. When the office of judge of any district court becomes vacant, all process, pleadings, and proceedings pending before such court shall, if necessary, be continued by the clerk thereof until such times as a judge shall be appointed, or designated to hold such court; and the judge so designated, while holding such court, shall possess the powers conferred by, and be subject to the provisions contained in, section nineteen.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 22, 36 Stat. 1090.
See Rev. St. §§ 602, 603. Comp. St. 1901, p. 484.

Districts having more than one judge; division of business.

Sec. 23. In districts having more than one district judge, the judges may agree upon the division of business and assignment of cases for trial in said district; but in case they do not so agree, the senior circuit judge of the circuit in which the district lies, shall make all necessary orders for the division of business and the assignment of cases for trial in said district.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 23, 36 Stat. 1090.

CHAPTER TWO.

District Courts—Jurisdiction.

Sec.
24. Original jurisdiction.
Par. 1. Where the United States are plaintiffs; and of civil suits at common law or in equity.
2. Of crimes and offenses.
3. Of admiralty causes, seizures, and prizes.
4. Of suits under any law relating to the slave trade.
5. Of cases under internal revenue, customs, and tonnage laws.
6. Of suits under postal laws.
7. Of suits under the patent, the copyright, and the trade-mark laws.
8. Of suits for violation of interstate commerce laws.
9. Of penalties and forfeitures.
10. Of suits on debentures.
11. Of suits for injuries on account of acts done under laws of the United States.

Sec.
Par. 12. Of suits concerning civil rights.
13. Of suits against persons having knowledge of conspiracy, etc.
14. Of suits to redress the deprivation, under color of law, of civil rights.
15. Of suits to recover certain offices.
16. Of suits against national-banking associations.
17. Of suits by aliens for torts.
18. Of suits against consuls and vice consuls.
19. Of suits and proceedings in bankruptcy.
20. Of suits against the United States.
Sec.
Par. 21. Of suits for the unlawful inclosure of public lands.

25. Appellate jurisdiction under Chinese-exclusion laws.
26. Appellate jurisdiction over Yellowstone National Park.
27. Jurisdiction of crimes on Indian reservations in South Dakota.

Original jurisdiction.

Sec. 24. The district courts shall have original jurisdiction as follows:

Where the United States are plaintiffs; and of civil suits at common law or in equity.

First. Of all suits of a civil nature, at common law or in equity, brought by the United States, or by any officer thereof authorized by law to sue, or between citizens of the same State claiming lands under grants from different States; or, where the matter in controversy exceeds, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum or value of three thousand dollars, and (a) arises under the Constitution or laws of the United States, or treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority, or (b) is between citizens of different States, or (c) is between citizens of a State and foreign States, citizens, or subjects. No district court shall have cognizance of any suit (except upon foreign bills of exchange) to recover upon any promissory note or other chose in action in favor of any assignee, or of any subsequent holder if such instrument be payable to bearer and be not made by any corporation, unless such suit might have been prosecuted in such court to recover upon said note or other chose in action if no assignment had been made: Provided, however, That the foregoing provision as to the sum or value of the matter in controversy shall not be construed to apply to any of the cases mentioned in the succeeding paragraphs of this section.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, 36 Stat. 1091.

See Act Feb. 2, 1903, c. 351, 32 Stat. 793; Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, § 329, 35 Stat. 1151.

CHAPTER THREE.

District Courts—Removal of Causes.

Sec.
28. Removal of suits from State to United States district courts.
29. Procedure for removal.
30. Suits under grants of land from different States.
31. Removal of causes against persons denied any civil rights, etc.
32. When petitioner is in actual custody of State court.
33. Suits and prosecutions against revenue officers, etc.
34. Removal of suits by aliens.
35. When copies of records are refused by clerk of State court.
36. Previous attachment bonds, orders, etc., remain valid.
37. Suits improperly in district court may be dismissed or remanded.
38. Proceedings in suits removed.
39. Time for filing record; return of record, how enforced.

Removal of suits from State to United States district courts.

Sec. 28. Any suit of a civil nature, at law or in equity, arising under the Constitution or laws of the United States, or treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority, of which the district courts of the United States are given original jurisdiction by this title, which may now be pending or which may hereafter be brought, in any State court, may be removed by the defendant or defendants therein to the district court of the United States for the proper district. Any other suit of a civil nature, at law or in equity, of which the district courts of the United States are given jurisdiction by this title, and which are now pending or which may hereafter be brought, in any State court, may be removed into the district court of the United States for the proper district by the defendant or defendants therein, being nonresidents of that State. And when in any suit mentioned in this section there shall be a controversy which is wholly between citizens of different States, and which can be fully determined as between them, then either one or more of the defendants actually interested in such controversy may remove said suit into the district court of the United States for the proper district. And where a suit is now pending, or may hereafter be brought, in any State court, in which there is a controversy between a citizen of the State in which the suit is brought and a citizen of another State, any defendant, being such citizen of another State, may remove such suit into the district court of the United States for the proper district, at any time before the trial thereof, when it shall be made to appear to said district court that from prejudice or local influence he will not be able to obtain justice in such State court, or in any other State court to which the said defendant may, under the laws of the State, have the right, on account of such prejudice or local influence, to remove said cause: Provided, That if it further appear that said suit can be fully and justly determined as to the other defendants in the State court, without being affected by such prejudice or local influence, and that no party to the suit will be prejudiced by a separation of the parties, said district court may direct the suit to be remanded, so far as relates to such other defendants, to the State court, to be proceeded with therein. At any time before the trial of any suit which is now pending in any district court, or may hereafter be entered therein, and which has been removed to said court from a State court on the affidavit of any party plaintiff that he had reason to believe and did believe that, from prejudice or local influence, he was unable to obtain justice in said State court, the district court shall, on application of the other party, examine into the truth of said affidavit and the grounds thereof, and, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of said court that said party will not be able to obtain justice in said State court, it shall cause the same to be remanded thereto. Whenever any cause shall be removed from any State court into any district court of the United States, and the district court shall decide that the cause was improperly removed, and order the same to be remanded to the State court from whence it came, such remand shall be immediately carried into execution, and no appeal or writ of error from the decision of the district court so remanding such cause shall be allowed: Provided, That no case arising under an Act entitled "An Act relating to the liability of common carriers by railroad to their employees in certain cases," approved April twenty-second, nineteen hundred and eight, or any amendment thereto, and brought in any State court of competent jurisdiction shall be removed to any court of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 28, 36 Stat. 1094.

See Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, § 2, 18 Stat. 470; Act March 3, 1887, c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Act Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, 25 Stat. 433, Comp. St. 1901, p. 509.

Procedure for removal.

Sec. 29. Whenever any party entitled to remove any suit mentioned in the last preceding section, except suits removable on the ground of prejudice or local influence, may desire to remove such suit from a State court to the district court of the United States, he may make and file a petition, duly verified, in such suit in such State court at the time, or any time before the defendant is required by the laws of the State or the rule of the State court in which such suit is brought to answer or plead to the declaration or complaint of the plaintiff, for the removal of such suit into the district court to be held in the district where such suit is pending, and shall make and file therewith a bond, with good and sufficient surety, for his or their entering in such district court, within thirty days from the date of filing said petition, a certified copy of the record in such suit, and for paying all costs that may be awarded by the said district court if said district court shall hold that such suit was wrongfully or improperly removed thereto, and also for their appearing and entering special bail in such suit if special bail was originally requisite therein. It shall then be the duty of the State court to accept said petition and bond and proceed no further in such suit. Written notice of said petition and bond for removal shall be given the adverse party or parties prior to filing the same. The said copy being entered within said thirty days as aforesaid in said district court of the United States, the parties so removing the said cause shall, within thirty days thereafter, plead, answer, or demur to the declaration or complaint in said cause, and the cause shall then proceed in the same manner as if it had been originally commenced in the said district court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 29, 36 Stat. 1095.

See Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, § 3, 18 Stat. 470; Act March 3, 1887, c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Act Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 1, 25 Stat. 433, Comp. St. 1901, p. 510.

Suits under grants of land from different States.

Sec. 30. If in any action commenced in a State court the title of land be concerned, and the parties are citizens of the same State and the matter in dispute exceeds the sum or value of three thousand dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum or value being made to appear, one or more of the plaintiffs or defendants, before the trial, may state to the court, and make affidavit if the court require it, that he or they claim, and shall rely upon, a right or title to the land under a grant from a State, and produce the original grant, or an exemplification of it, except where the loss of public records shall put it out of his or their power, and shall move that any one or more of the adverse party inform the court whether he or they claim a right or title to the land under a grant from some other State, the party or parties so required shall give such information, or otherwise not be allowed to plead such grant or give it in evidence upon the trial. If he or they inform the court that he or they do claim under such grant, any one or more of the party moving for such information may then, on petition and bond, as hereinbefore mentioned in this chapter, remove the cause for trial to the district court of the United States next to be holden in such district; and any one of either party removing the cause shall not be allowed to plead or give evidence of any other title than that by him or them stated as aforesaid as the ground of his or their claim.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 30, 36 Stat. 1096.
See Rev. St. § 647, Comp. St. 1901, p. 524; Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, § 3, 18 Stat. 470; Act March 3, 1887, c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Act Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 1, 25 Stat. 433, Comp. St. 1901, p. 510.

Removal of causes against persons denied any civil rights, etc.

Sec. 31. When any civil suit or criminal prosecution is commenced in any State court, for any cause whatsoever, against any person who is denied or can not enforce in the judicial tribunals of the State, or in the part of the State where such suit or prosecution is pending, any right secured to him by any law providing for the equal civil rights of citizens of the United States, or of all persons within the jurisdiction of the United States, or against any officer, civil or military, or other person, for any arrest or imprisonment or other trespasses or wrongs made or committed by virtue of or under color of authority derived from any law providing for equal rights as aforesaid, or for refusing to do any act on the ground that it would be inconsistent with such law, such suit or prosecution may, upon the petition of such defendant, filed in said State court at any time before the trial or final hearing of the cause, stating the facts and verified by oath, be removed for trial into the next district court to be held in the district where it is pending. Upon the filing of such petition all further proceedings in the State courts shall cease, and shall not be resumed except as hereinafter provided. But all bail and other security given in such suit or prosecution shall continue in like force and effect as if the same had proceeded to final judgment and execution in the State court. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the State court to furnish such defendant, petitioning for a removal, copies of said process against him, and of all pleadings, depositions, testimony, and other proceedings in the case. If such copies are filed by said petitioner in the district court on the first day of its session, the cause shall proceed therein in the same manner as if it had been brought there by original process; and if the said clerk refuses or neglects to furnish such copies, the petitioner may thereupon docket the case in the district court, and the said court shall then have jurisdiction therein, and may, upon proof of such refusal or neglect of said clerk, and upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, require the plaintiff to file a declaration, petition, or complaint in the cause; and, in case of his default, may order a nonsuit, and dismiss the case at the costs of the plaintiff, and such dismissal shall be a bar to any further suit touching the matter in controversy. But if, without such refusal or neglect of said clerk to furnish such copies and proof thereof, the petitioner for removal fails to file copies in the district court, as herein provided, a certificate, under the seal of the district court, stating such failure, shall be given, and upon the production thereof in said State court the cause shall proceed therein as if no petition for removal had been filed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 31, 36 Stat. 1096.
See Rev. St. § 641, Comp. St. 1901, p. 520.

When petitioner is in actual custody of State court.

Sec. 32. When all the acts necessary for the removal of any suit or prosecution, as provided in the preceding section, have been performed, and the defendant petitioning for such removal is in actual custody on process issued by said State court, it shall be the duty of the clerk of said district court to issue a writ of habeas corpus cum causa, and of the marshal, by virtue of said writ, to take the body of the defendant into his custody, to be dealt with in said district court according to law and the orders of said court, or, in vacation, of any judge thereof; and the marshal shall file with or deliver to the clerk of said State court a duplicate copy of said writ.

See Rev. St. § 642, Comp. St. 1901, p. 521.

Suits and prosecutions against revenue officers, etc.

Sec. 33. When any civil suit or criminal prosecution is commenced in any court of a State against any officer appointed under or acting by authority of any revenue law of the United States now or hereafter enacted, or against any person acting under or by authority of any such officer, on account of any act done under color of his office or of any such law, or on account of any right, title, or authority claimed by such officer or other person under any such law; or is commenced against any person holding property or estate by title derived from any such officer, and affects the validity of any such revenue law; or when any suit is commenced against any person for on account of anything done by him while an officer of either House of Congress in the discharge of his official duty, in executing any order of such House, the said suit or prosecution may, at any time before the trial or final hearing thereof, be removed for trial into the district court next to be holden in the district where the same is pending, upon the petition of such defendant to said district court, and in the following manner: Said petition shall set forth the nature of the suit or prosecution and be verified by affidavit, and, together with a certificate signed by an attorney or counselor at law of some court of record of the State where such suit or prosecution is commenced, or of the United States, stating that, as counsel for the petitioner, he has examined the proceedings against him and carefully inquired into all the matters set forth in the petition, and that he believes them to be true, shall be presented to the said district court, if in session, or if it be not, to the clerk thereof at his office, and shall be filed in said office. The cause shall thereupon be entered on the docket of the district court, and shall proceed as a cause originally commenced in that court; but all bail and other security given upon such suit or prosecution shall continue in like force and effect as if the same had proceeded to final judgment and execution in the State court. When the suit is commenced in the State court by summons, subpœna, petition, or other process except capias, the clerk of the district court shall issue a writ of certiorari to the State court, requiring it to send to the district court the record and proceedings in the cause. When it is commenced by capias or by any other similar form or proceeding by which a personal arrest is ordered, he shall issue a writ of habeas corpus cum causa, a duplicate of which shall be delivered to the clerk of the State court, or left at his office, by the marshal of the district or his deputy, or by some person duly authorized thereto; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the State court to stay all further proceedings in the cause, and the suit or prosecution, upon delivery of such process, or leaving the same as aforesaid, shall be held to be removed to the district court, and any further proceedings, trial, or judgment therein in the State court shall be void. If the defendant in the suit or prosecution be in actual custody on mesne process therein, it shall be the duty of the marshal, by virtue of the writ of habeas corpus cum causa, to take the body of the defendant into his custody, to be dealt with in the cause according to law and the order of the district court, or, in vacation, of any judge thereof; and if, upon the removal of such suit or prosecution, it is made to appear to the district court that no copy of the record and proceedings therein in the State court can be obtained, the district court may allow and require the plaintiff to proceed de novo and to file a declaration of his cause of action, and the parties may thereupon proceed as in actions originally brought in said district court. On failure of the plaintiff so to proceed, judgment of non prosequitur may be rendered against him, with costs for the defendant.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 33, 36 Stat. 1097.
See Rev. St. § 643; Act March 3, 1875, c. 130, § 8, 18 Stat. 401; Act Feb. 8, 1894, c. 25, § 1, 28 Stat. 36, Comp. St. 1901, p. 521.

Removal of suits by aliens.

Sec. 34. Whenever a personal action has been or shall be brought in any State court by an alien against any citizen of a State who is, or at the time the alleged action accrued was, a civil officer of the United States, being a non-resident of that State wherein jurisdiction is obtained by the State court, by personal service of process, such action may be removed into the district court of the United States in and for the district in which the defendant shall have been served with the process, in the same manner as now provided for the removal of an action brought in a State court by the provisions of the preceding section.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 34, 36 Stat. 1098.
See Rev. St. § 644, Comp. St. 1901, p. 523.

When copies of records are refused by clerk of State court.

Sec. 35. In any case where a party is entitled to copies of the records and proceedings in any suit or prosecution in a State court, to be used in any court of the United States, if the clerk of said State court, upon demand, and the payment or tender of the legal fees, refuses or neglects to deliver to him certified copies of such records and proceedings, the court of the United States in which such records and proceedings are needed may, on proof by affidavit that the clerk of said State court has refused or neglected to deliver copies thereof, on demand as aforesaid, direct such record to be supplied by affidavit or otherwise, as the circumstances of the case may require and allow; and thereupon such proceeding, trial, and judgment may be had in the said court of the United States, and all such processes awarded, as if certified copies of such records and proceedings had been regularly before the said court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 35, 36 Stat. 1098.
See Rev. St. § 645, Comp. St. 1901, p. 523.

Previous attachment bonds, orders, etc., remain valid.

Sec. 36. When any suit shall be removed from a State court to a district court of the United States, any attachment or sequestration of the goods or estate of the defendant had in such suit in the State court shall hold the goods or estate so attached or sequestered to answer the final judgment or decree in the same manner as by law they would have been held to answer final judgment or decree had it been rendered by the court in which said suit was commenced. All bonds, undertakings, or security given by either party in such suit prior to its removal shall remain valid and effectual notwithstanding said removal; and all injunctions, orders, and other proceedings had in such suit prior to its removal shall remain in full force and effect until dissolved or modified by the court to which such suit shall be removed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 36, 36 Stat. 1098.

See Rev. St. § 646, Comp. St. 1901, p. 523; Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, § 4, Comp. St. 1901, p. 511.

Suits improperly in district court may be dismissed or remanded.

Sec. 37. If in any suit commenced in a district court, or removed from a State court to a district court of the United States, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the said district court, at any time after such suit has been brought or removed thereto, that such suit does not really and substantially involve a dispute or controversy properly within the jurisdiction of said district court, or that the parties to said suit have been improperly or collusively made or joined, either as plaintiffs or defendants, for the purpose of creating a case cognizable or removable under this chapter, the said district court shall proceed no further therein, but shall dismiss the suit or remand it to the court from which it was removed, as justice may require, and shall make such order as to costs as shall be just.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 37, 36 Stat. 1098.

See Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, § 5, 18 Stat. 472; Act March 3, 1887, c. 373, § 6, 24 Stat. 555; Act Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 6, 25 Stat. 436, Comp. St. 1901, p. 511.

Proceedings in suits removed.

Sec. 38. The district court of the United States shall, in all suits removed under the provisions of this chapter, proceed therein as if the suit had been originally commenced in said district court, and the same proceedings had been taken in such suit in said district court as shall have been had therein in said State court prior to its removal.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 38, 36 Stat. 1098.

See Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, § 6, Comp. St. 1901, p. 512.

Time for filing record; return of record, how enforced.

Sec. 39. In all causes removable under this chapter, if the clerk of the State court in which any such cause shall be pending shall refuse to any one or more of the parties or persons applying to remove the same, a copy of the record therein, after tender of legal fees for such copy, said clerk so offending shall, on conviction thereof in the district court of the United States to which said action or proceeding was removed, be fined not more than one thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. The district court to which any cause shall be removable under this chapter shall have power to issue a writ of certiorari to said State court commanding said State court to make return of the record in any such cause removed as aforesaid, or in which any one or more of the plaintiffs or defendants have complied with the provisions of this chapter for the removal of the same, and enforce said writ according to law. If it shall be impossible for the parties or persons removing any cause under this chapter, or complying with the provisions for the removal thereof, to obtain such copy, for the reason that the clerk of said State court refuses to furnish a copy, on payment of legal fees, or for any other reason, the district court shall make an order requiring the prosecutor in any such action or proceeding to enforce forfeiture or recover penalty, as aforesaid, to file a copy of the paper or proceeding by which the same was commenced, within such time as the court may determine; and in default thereof the court shall dismiss the said action or proceeding; but if said order shall be complied with, then said district court shall require the other party to plead, and said action or proceeding shall proceed to final judgment. The said district court may make an order requiring the parties thereto to plead de novo; and the bond given, conditioned as aforesaid, shall be discharged so far as it requires copy of the record to be filed as aforesaid.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 39, 36 Stat. 1099.
See Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, § 7, Comp. St. 1901, p. 512.

Capital cases; where triable.

Sec. 40. The trial of offenses punishable with death shall be had in the county where the offense was committed, where that can be done without great inconvenience.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 40, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Rev. St. § 729, Comp. St. 1901, p. 585.

Offenses on the high seas, etc., where triable.

Sec. 41. The trial of all offenses committed upon the high seas, or elsewhere out of the jurisdiction of any particular State or district, shall be in the district where the offender is found, or into which he is first brought.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 41, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Rev. St. § 730, Comp. St. 1901, p. 585.

Offenses begun in one district and completed in another.

Sec. 42. When any offense against the United States is begun in one judicial district and completed in another, it shall be deemed to have been committed in either, and may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished in either district, in the same manner as if it had been actually and wholly committed therein.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 42, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Rev. St. § 731, Comp. St. 1901, p. 585.

Suits for penalties and forfeitures, where brought.

Sec. 43. All pecuniary penalties and forfeitures may be sued for and recovered either in the district where they accrue or in the district where the offender is found.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 43, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Rev. St. § 732, Comp. St. 1901, p. 585.

Suits for internal-revenue taxes, where brought.

Sec. 44. Taxes accruing under any law providing internal revenue may be sued for and recovered either in the district where the liability for such tax occurs or in the district where the delinquent resides.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 44, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Rev. St. § 733, Comp. St. 1901, p. 586.

Seizures, where cognizable.

Sec. 45. Proceedings on seizures made on the high seas, for forfeiture under any law of the United States, may be prosecuted in any district into which the property so seized is brought and proceedings instituted. Proceedings on such seizures made within any district shall be prosecuted in the district where the seizure is made, except in cases where it is otherwise provided.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 45, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Rev. St. § 734, Comp. St. 1901, p. 586.

Capture of insurrectionary property, where cognizable.

Sec. 46. Proceedings for the condemnation of any property captured, whether on the high seas or elsewhere out of the limits of any judicial district, or within any district, on account of its being purchased or acquired, sold or given, with intent to use or employ the same, or to suffer it to be used or employed, in aiding, abetting, or promoting any insurrection against the Government of the United States, or knowingly so used or employed by the owner thereof, or with his consent, may be prosecuted in any district where the same may be seized, or into which it may be taken and proceedings first instituted.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 46, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Rev. St. § 735, Comp. St. 1901, p. 586.

Certain seizures cognizable in any district into which the property is taken.

Sec. 47. Proceedings on seizures for forfeiture of any vessel or cargo entering any port of entry which has been closed by the President in pursuance of law, or of goods and chattels coming from a State or section declared by proclamation of the President to be in insurrection into other parts of the United States, or of any vessel or vehicle conveying such property, or conveying persons to or from such State or section, or of any vessel belonging, in whole or in part, to any inhabitant of such State or section, may be prosecuted in any district into which the property so seized may be taken and proceedings instituted; and the district court thereof shall have as full jurisdiction over such proceedings as if the seizure was made in that district.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 47, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Rev. St. § 564, Comp. St. 1901, p. 460.

Jurisdiction in patent cases.

Sec. 48. In suits brought for the infringement of letters patent the district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction, in law or in equity, in the district of which the defendant is an inhabitant, or in any district in which the defendant, whether a person, partnership, or corporation, shall have committed acts of infringement and have a regular and established place of business. If such suit is brought in a district of which the defendant is not an inhabitant, but in which such defendant has a regular and established place of business, service of process, summons, or subpœna upon the defendant may be made by service upon the agent or agents engaged in conducting such business in the district in which suit is brought.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 48, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Act March 3, 1897, c. 395, Comp. St. 1901, p. 588.

Proceedings to enjoin Comptroller of the Currency.

Sec. 49. All proceedings by any national banking association to enjoin the Comptroller of the Currency, under the provisions of any law relating to national banking associations, shall be had in the district where such association is located.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 49, 36 Stat. 1100.
See Rev. St. § 736, Comp. St. 1901, p. 586.

When a part of several defendants can not be served.

Sec. 50. When there are several defendants in any suit at law or in equity, and one or more of them are neither inhabitants of nor found within the district in which the suit is brought, and do not voluntarily appear, the court may entertain jurisdiction, and proceed to the trial and adjudication of the suit between the parties who are properly before it; but the judgment or decree rendered therein shall not conclude or prejudice other parties not regularly served with process nor voluntarily appearing to answer; and non-joinder of parties who are not inhabitants of nor found within the district, as aforesaid, shall not constitute matter of abatement or objection to the suit.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 50, 36 Stat. 1101.
See Rev. St. § 737, Comp. St. 1901, p. 587.

Civil suits; where to be brought.

Sec. 51. Except as provided in the five succeeding sections, no person shall be arrested in one district for trial in another, in any civil action before a district court; and, except as provided in the six succeeding sections, no civil suit shall be brought in any district court against any person by any original process or proceeding in any other district than that whereof he is an inhabitant; but where the jurisdiction is founded only on the fact that the action is between citizens of different States, suit shall be brought only in the district of the residence of either the plaintiff or the defendant.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 51, 36 Stat. 1101.
See Rev. St. § 739; Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, § 1, 18 Stat. 470; Act March 3, 1887, c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Act Aug. 13, 1888, c. 886, § 1, 25 Stat. 433, Comp. St. 1901, p. 508.

Suits in States containing more than one district.

Sec. 52. When a State contains more than one district, every suit not of a local nature, in the district court thereof, against a single defendant, inhabitant of such State, must be brought in the district where he resides; but if there are two or more defendants, residing in different districts of the State, it may be brought in either district, and a duplicate writ may be issued against the defendants, directed to the marshal of any other district in which any defendant resides. The clerk issuing the duplicate writ shall indorse thereon that it is a true copy of a writ sued out of the court of the proper district; and such original and duplicate writs, when executed and returned into the office from which they issue, shall constitute and be proceeded on as one suit; and upon any judgment or decree rendered therein, execution may be issued, directed to the marshal of any district in the same State.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 52, 36 Stat. 1101.
See Rev. St. § 740, Comp. St. 1901, p. 587.

Districts containing more than one division; where suit to be brought; transfer of criminal cases.

Sec. 53. When a district contains more than one division, every suit not of a local nature against a single defendant must be brought in the division where he resides; but if there are two or more defendants residing in different divisions of the district it may be brought in either division. All mesne and final process subject to the provisions of this section may be served and executed in any or all of the divisions of the district, or if the State contains more than one district, then in any of such districts, as provided in the preceding section. All prosecutions for crimes or offenses shall be had within the division of such districts where the same were committed, unless the court, or the judge thereof, upon the application of the defendant, shall order the cause to be transferred for prosecution to another division of the district. When a transfer is ordered by the court or judge, all the papers in the case, or certified copies thereof, shall be transmitted by the clerk, under the seal of the court, to the division to which the cause is so ordered transferred; and thereupon the cause shall be proceeded with in said division in the same manner as if the offense had been committed therein. In all cases of the removal of suits from the courts of a State to the district court of the United States such removal shall be to the United States district court in the division in which the county is situated from which the removal is made; and the time within which the removal shall be perfected, in so far as it refers to or is regulated by the terms of United States courts, shall be deemed to refer to the terms of the United States district court in such division.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 53, 36 Stat. 1101.
See Act June 2, 1906, c. 2569, § 2, 34 Stat. 207; Act March 5, 1910, c. 82, 36 Stat. 233.

Suits of a local nature, where to be brought.

Sec. 54. In suits of a local nature, where the defendant resides in a different district, in the same State, from that in which the suit is brought, the plaintiff may have original and final process against him, directed to the marshal of the district in which he resides.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 54, 36 Stat. 1102.
See Rev. St. § 741, Comp. St. 1901, p. 588.

When property lies in different districts in same State.

Sec. 55. Any suit of a local nature, at law or in equity, where the land or other subject-matter of a fixed character lies partly in one district and partly in another, within the same State, may be brought in the district court of either district; and the court in which it is brought shall have jurisdiction to hear and decide it, and to cause mesne or final process to be issued and executed, as fully as if the said subject-matter were wholly within the district for which such court is constituted.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 55, 36 Stat. 1102.
See Rev. St. § 742, Comp. St. 1901, p. 588.

When property lies in different States in same circuit; jurisdiction of receiver.

Sec. 56. Where in any suit in which a receiver shall be appointed the land or other property of a fixed character, the subject of the suit, lies within different States in the same judicial circuit, the receiver so appointed shall, upon giving bond as required by the court, immediately be vested with full jurisdiction and control over all the property, the subject of the suit, lying or being within such circuit; subject, however, to the disapproval of such order, within thirty days thereafter, by the circuit court of appeals for such circuit, or by a circuit judge thereof, after reasonable notice to adverse parties and an opportunity to be heard upon the motion for such disapproval; and subject, also, to the filing and entering in the district court for each district of the circuit in which any portion of the property may lie or be, within ten days thereafter, of a duly certified copy of the bill and of the order of appointment. The disapproval of such appointment within such thirty days, or the failure to file such certified copy of the bill and order of appointment within ten days, as herein required, shall divest such receiver of jurisdiction over all such property except that portion thereof lying or being within the State in which the suit is brought. In any case coming within the provisions of this section, in which a receiver shall be appointed, process may issue and be executed within any district of the circuit in the same manner and to the same extent as if the property were wholly within the same district; but orders affecting such property shall be entered of record in each district in which the property affected may lie or be.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 56, 36 Stat. 1102.

Absent defendants in suits to enforce liens, remove clouds on titles, etc.

Sec. 57. When in any suit commenced in any district court of the United States to enforce any legal or equitable lien upon or claim to, or to remove any incumbrance or lien or cloud upon the title to real or personal property within the district where such suit is brought, one or more of the defendants therein shall not be an inhabitant of or found within the said district, or shall not voluntarily appear thereto, it shall be lawful for the court to make an order directing such absent defendant or defendants to appear, plead, answer, or demur by a day certain to be designated, which order shall be served on such absent defendant or defendants, if practicable, wherever found, and also upon the person or persons in possession or charge of said property, if any there be; or where such personal service upon such absent defendant or defendants is not practicable, such order shall be published in such manner as the court may direct, not less than once a week for six consecutive weeks. In case such absent defendant shall not appear, plead, answer, or demur within the time so limited, or within some further time, to be allowed by the court, in its discretion, and upon proof of the service or publication of said order and of the performance of the directions contained in the same, it shall be lawful for the court to entertain jurisdiction, and proceed to the hearing and adjudication of such suit in the same manner as if such absent defendant had been served with process within the said district; but said adjudication shall, as regards said absent defendant or defendants without appearance, affect only the property which shall have been the subject of the suit and under the jurisdiction of the court therein, within such district; and when a part of the said real or personal property against which such proceedings shall be taken shall be within another district, but within the same State, such suit may be brought in either district in said State: Provided, however, That any defendant or defendants not actually personally notified as above provided may, at any time within one year after final judgment in any suit mentioned in this section, enter his appearance in said suit in said district court, and thereupon the said court shall make an order setting aside the judgment therein and permitting said defendant or defendants to plead therein on payment by him or them of such costs as the court shall deem just; and thereupon said suit shall be proceeded with to final judgment according to law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 57, 36 Stat. 1102.

See Rev. St. §§ 738, 742, Comp. St. 1901, p. 588; Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 513.

Civil causes may be transferred to another division of district by agreement.

Sec. 58. Any civil cause, at law or in equity, may, on written stipulation of the parties or of their attorneys of record signed and filed with the papers in the case, in vacation or in term, and on the written order of the judge signed and filed in the case in vacation or on the order of the court duly entered of record in term, be transferred to the court of any other division of the same district, without regard to the residence of the defendants, for trial. When a cause shall be ordered to be transferred to a court in any other division, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court from which the transfer is made to carefully transmit to the clerk of the court to which the transfer is made the entire file of papers in the cause and all documents and deposits in his court pertaining thereto, together with a certified transcript of the records of all orders, interlocutory decrees, or other entries in the cause; and he shall certify, under the seal of the court, that the papers sent are all which are on file in said court belonging to the cause; for the performance of which duties said clerk so transmitting and certifying shall receive the same fees as are now allowed by law for similar services, to be taxed in the bill of costs, and regularly collected with the other costs in the cause; and such transcript, when so certified and received, shall henceforth constitute a part of the record of the cause in the court to which the transfer shall be made. The clerk receiving such transcript and original papers shall file the same and the case shall then proceed to final disposition as other cases of a like nature.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 58, 36 Stat. 1103.

See Act Feb. 28, 1887, c. 271, § 4, 24 Stat. 425; Act June 6, 1906, c. 2569, § 1, 34 Stat. 206.

Upon creation of new district or division, where prosecution to be instituted or action brought.

Sec. 59. Whenever any new district or division has been or shall be established, or any county or territory has been or shall be transferred from one district or division to another district or division, prosecutions for crimes and offenses committed within such district, division, county, or territory prior to such transfer, shall be commenced and proceeded with the same as if such new district or division had not been created, or such county or territory had not been transferred, unless the court, upon the application of the defendant, shall order the cause to be removed to the new district or division for trial. Civil actions pending at the time of the creation of any such district or division, or the transfer of any such county or territory, and arising within the district or division so created or the county or territory so transferred, shall be tried in the district or division as it existed at the time of the institution of the action, or in the district or division so created, or to which the county or territory is or shall be so transferred, as may be agreed upon by the parties, or as the court shall direct. The transfer of such prosecutions and actions shall be made in the manner provided in the section last preceding.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 59, 36 Stat. 1103.

Creation of new district, or transfer of territory not to divest lien; how lien to be enforced.

Sec. 60. The creation of a new district or division, or the transfer of any county or territory from one district or division to another district or division, shall not affect or divest any lien theretofore acquired in the circuit or district court by virtue of a decree, judgment, execution, attachment, seizure, or otherwise, upon property situated or being within the district or division so created, or the county or territory so transferred. To enforce any such lien, the clerk of the court in which the same is acquired, upon the request and at the cost of the party desiring the same, shall make a true and certified copy of the record thereof, which, when so made and certified, and filed in the proper court of the district or division in which such property is situated or shall be, after such transfer, shall constitute the record of such lien in such court, and shall be evidence in all courts and places equally with the original thereof; and thereafter like proceedings shall be had thereon, and with the same effect, as though the cause or proceeding had been originally instituted in such court. The provisions of this section shall apply not only in all cases where a district or division is created, or a county or any territory is transferred by this or any future Act, but also in all cases where a district or division has been created, or a county or any territory has been transferred by any law heretofore enacted.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 60, 36 Stat. 1103.

See Act Aug. 5, 1886, c. 928, § 7, 24 Stat. 309; Act March 2, 1901, c. 801, § 7, 31 Stat. 881.

Commissioners to administer oaths to appraisers.

Sec. 61. Any district judge may appoint commissioners, before whom appraisers of vessels or goods and merchandise seized for breaches of any law of the United States, may be sworn; and such oaths, so taken, shall be as effectual as if taken before the judge in open court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 61, 36 Stat. 1104.

See Rev. St. § 570, Comp. St. 1901, p. 463.

Transfer of records to district court when a Territory becomes a State.

Sec. 62. When any Territory is admitted as a State, and a district court is established therein, all the records of the proceedings in the several cases pending in the highest court of said Territory at the time of such admission, and all records of the proceedings in the several cases in which judgments or decrees had been rendered in said territorial court before that time, and from which writs of error could have been sued out or appeals could have been taken, or from which writs of error had been sued out or appeals had been taken and prosecuted to the Supreme Court or to the circuit court of appeals, shall be transferred to and deposited in the district court for the said State.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 62, 36 Stat. 1104.

See Rev. St. § 567, Comp. St. 1901, p. 462.

District judge shall demand and compel delivery of records of territorial court.

Sec. 63. It shall be the duty of the district judge, in the case provided in the preceding section, to demand of the clerk, or other person having possession or custody of the records therein mentioned, the delivery thereof, to be deposited in said district court; and in case of the refusal of such clerk or person to comply with such demand, the said district judge shall compel the delivery of such records by attachment or otherwise, according to law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 63, 36 Stat. 1104.

See Rev. St. § 568, Comp. St. 1901, p. 462.

Jurisdiction of district courts in cases transferred from territorial courts.

Sec. 64. When any Territory is admitted as a State, and a district court is established therein, the said district court shall take cognizance of all cases which were pending and undetermined in the trial courts of such Territory, from the judgments or decrees to be rendered in which writs of error could have been sued out or appeals taken to the Supreme Court or to the circuit court of appeals, and shall proceed to hear and determine the same.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 64, 36 Stat. 1104.
See Rev. St. § 569, Comp. St. 1901, p. 462.

Receivers to manage property according to State laws.

Sec. 65. Whenever in any cause pending in any court of the United States there shall be a receiver or manager in possession of any property, such receiver or manager shall manage and operate such property according to the requirements of the valid laws of the State in which such property shall be situated, in the same manner that the owner or possessor thereof would be bound to do if in possession thereof. Any receiver or manager who shall willfully violate any provision of this section shall be fined not more than three thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 65, 36 Stat. 1104.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 373, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 582.

Suits against receiver.

Sec. 66. Every receiver or manager of any property appointed by any court of the United States may be sued in respect of any act or transaction of his in carrying on the business connected with such property, without the previous leave of the court in which such receiver or manager was appointed; but such suit shall be subject to the general equity jurisdiction of the court in which such manager or receiver was appointed so far as the same may be necessary to the ends of justice.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 66, 36 Stat. 1104.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 373, § 3, Comp. St. 1901, p. 582.

Certain persons not to be appointed or employed as officers of courts.

Sec. 67. No person shall be appointed to or employed in any office or duty in any court who is related by affinity or consanguinity within the degree of first cousin to the judge of such court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 67, 36 Stat. 1105.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 373, § 7, 24 Stat. 555; Act Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 7, 25 Stat. 437, Comp. St. 1901, p. 579.

Certain persons not to be masters or receivers.

Sec. 68. No clerk of a district court of the United States or his deputy shall be appointed a receiver or master in any case, except where the judge of said court shall determine that special reasons exist therefor, to be assigned in the order of appointment.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 68, 36 Stat. 1105.
See Act March 3, 1879, c. 183, Comp. St. 1901, p. 591.

[Arizona.]

Sec. [70a] 31. That the said State, when admitted as aforesaid, shall constitute one judicial district, and the circuit and district courts of said district shall be held at the capital of said State, and the said district shall, for judicial purposes, be attached to the ninth judicial circuit. There shall be appointed for said district one district judge, one United States attorney, and one United States marshal. The judge of said district shall receive a yearly salary the same as other similar judges of the United States, payable as provided for by law, and shall reside in the district to which he is appointed. There shall be appointed clerks of said courts, who shall keep their offices at the capital of said State. The regular terms of said courts shall be held on the first Monday in April and the first Monday in October of each year. The circuit and district courts for said district, and the judges thereof, respectively, shall possess the same powers and jurisdiction and perform the same duties required to be performed by the other circuit and district courts and judges of the United States, and shall be governed by the same laws and regulations. The marshal, district attorney, and the clerks of the circuit and district courts of said district, and all other officers and persons performing duties in the administration of justice therein, shall severally possess the powers and perform the duties lawfully possessed and required to be performed by similar officers in other districts of the United States, and shall, for the services they perform, receive the fees and compensation now allowed by law to officers performing similar services for the United States in the Territory of Arizona.

Act June 20, 1910, c. 310, § 31, 36 Stat. 576.

This section is part of the act to enable the people of New Mexico, and the people of Arizona, respectively, to form a constitution and state government and be admitted into the Union, cited above. Its provisions are not incorporated in and it is not specifically repealed by the Judicial Code.

Sections 32 and 33 of said act provide for the disposition and determination of cases pending in the courts at the time of the admission of the State, and for the prosecution of civil causes of action and criminal offenses arising or committed prior to such admission, and as to which no suit, action, or prosecution is then pending.

[New Mexico.]

Sec. [96a] 13. That the State, when admitted as aforesaid, shall constitute one judicial district, and the circuit and district courts of said district shall be held at the capital of said State, and the said district shall, for judicial purposes, be attached to the eighth judicial circuit. There shall be appointed for said district one district judge, one United States attorney, and one United States marshal. The judge of said district shall receive a yearly salary the same as other similar judges of the United States, payable as provided for by law, and shall reside in the district to which he is appointed. There shall be appointed clerks of said courts, who shall keep their offices at the capital of said State. The regular terms of said courts shall be held on the first Monday in April and the first Monday in October of each year. The circuit and district courts for said district, and the judges thereof, respectively, shall possess the same powers and jurisdiction and perform the same duties required to be performed by the other circuit and district courts and judges of the United States, and shall be governed by the same laws and regulations. The marshal, district attorney, and the clerks of the circuit and district courts of said district, and all other officers and persons performing duties in the administration of justice therein, shall severally possess the powers and perform the duties lawfully possessed and required to be performed by similar officers in other districts of the United States, and shall, for the services they may perform, receive the fees and compensation now allowed by law to officers performing similar services for the United States in the Territory of New Mexico.

Act June 20, 1910, c. 310, § 13, 36 Stat. 565.

This section is part of the act to enable the people of New Mexico, and the people of Arizona, respectively, to form a constitution and State government and be admitted to the Union, cited above. Its provisions are not incorporated in and it is not specifically repealed by the Judicial Code.

Sections 14 and 15 of said act provide for the disposition and determination of cases pending in the courts at the time of the admission of the State, and for the prosecution of civil causes of action and criminal offenses arising or committed prior to such admission, and as to which no suit, action, or prosecution is then pending.

New York.

Sec. 97. The State of New York is divided into four judicial districts, to be known as the northern, eastern, southern, and western districts of New York. The northern district shall include the territory embraced on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and ten, in the counties of Albany, Broome, Cayuga, Chenango, Clinton, Cortland, Delaware, Essex, Franklin, Fulton, Hamilton, Herkimer, Jefferson, Lewis, Madison, Montgomery, Oneida, Onondaga, Oswego, Otsego, Rensselaer, Saint Lawrence, Saratoga, Schenectady, Schoharie, Tioga, Tompkins, Warren, and Washington, with the waters thereof. Terms of the district court for said district shall be held at Milwaukee on the first Mondays in January and October; at Oshkosh on the second Tuesday in June; and at Green Bay on the first Tuesday in April. The western district shall include the territory embraced on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and ten, in the counties of Adams, Ashland, Barron, Bayfield, Buffalo, Burnett, Chippewa, Clark, Columbia, Crawford, Dane, Dunn, Douglas, Eau Claire, Grant, Green, Iowa, Iron, Jackson, Jefferson, Juneau, La Crosse, Lafayette, Lincoln, Marathon, Monroe, Oneida, Pepin, Pierce, Polk, Portage, Price, Richland, Rock, Rusk, Saint Croix, Sauk, Sawyer, Taylor, Trempealeau, Vernon, Vilas, Washburn, and Wood. Terms of the district court for said district shall be held at Madison on the first Tuesday in December; at Eau Claire on the first Tuesday in June; at La Crosse on the third Tuesday in September; and at Superior on the fourth Tuesday in January and the second Tuesday in July. The district court for each of said districts shall be open at all times for the purpose of hearing and deciding causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, so far as the same can be done without a jury. The clerk of the court for the western district shall maintain an office in charge of himself or a deputy at Madison, at La Crosse, and at Superior, which shall be kept open at all times for the transaction of the business of the court. The marshal for the western district shall appoint a deputy marshal who shall reside and keep his office at Superior. All writs and other process, except criminal warrants, issued at Superior, may be made returnable at Superior; and the clerk at that place shall keep in his office the original records of all actions, prosecutions, and special proceedings so commenced and pending therein. Criminal warrants may be returned at any place within the district where court is held. Whenever warrants issued at Superior shall be returned at any other place, the clerk of the court wherein the warrant is returned, shall certify the same, under the seal of the court, together with the plea and other proceedings had thereon, and the determination of the court upon such plea or proceedings, with all papers and orders filed in reference thereto, to the clerk of the court at Superior; and the clerk at Superior shall enter upon his records a minute of the proceedings had upon the return of said warrant, certified as aforesaid. All causes and proceedings instituted in the court at Superior, shall be tried therein, unless by consent of the parties, or upon the order of the court, they are transferred to another place for trial.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 114, 36 Stat. 1129.
See Rev. St. § 550, Comp. St. 1901, p. 443.

Wyoming.

Sec. 115. The State of Wyoming and the Yellowstone National Park shall constitute one judicial district, to be known as the district of Wyoming. Terms of the district court for said district shall be held at Cheyenne on the second Mondays in May and November; at Evanston on the second Tuesday in July; and at Lander on the first Monday in October; and the said court shall hold one session annually at Sheridan, and in said national park, on such dates as the court may order. The marshal and clerk of the said court shall each, respectively, appoint at least one deputy to reside at Evanston, and one to reside at Lander, unless he himself shall reside there, and shall also maintain an office at each of those places: Provided, That until a public building is provided at Lander, suitable accommodations for holding court in said town shall be furnished the Government at an expense not to exceed three hundred dollars annually. The marshal of the United States for the said district may appoint one or more deputy marshals for the Yellowstone National Park, who shall reside in said park.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 115, 36 Stat. 1130.
See Act July 10, 1890, c. 664, §§ 16–18, 26 Stat. 225.

125. Deputy clerks; appointment and removal.
126. Terms.
127. Rooms for court, how provided.
128. Jurisdiction; when judgment final.
129. Appeals in proceedings for injunctions and receivers.

Sec.
130. Appellate and supervisory jurisdiction under the bankrupt act.
131. Appeals from the United States court for China.
132. Allowance of appeals, etc.
133. Writs of error and appeals from the supreme courts of Arizona and New Mexico.
134. Writs of error and appeals from district court for Alaska to circuit court of appeals for ninth circuit; court may certify questions to the Supreme Court.
135. Appeals and writs of error from Alaska; where heard.

Circuits.

Sec. 116. There shall be nine judicial circuits of the United States, constituted as follows:

First. The first circuit shall include the districts of Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Maine.

Second. The second circuit shall include the districts of Vermont, Connecticut, and New York.

Third. The third circuit shall include the districts of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware.

Fourth. The fourth circuit shall include the districts of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina.

Fifth. The fifth circuit shall include the districts of Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas.

Sixth. The sixth circuit shall include the districts of Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

Seventh. The seventh circuit shall include the districts of Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin.

Eighth. The eighth circuit shall include the districts of Nebraska, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Colorado, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, and Oklahoma.

Ninth. The ninth circuit shall include the districts of California, Oregon, Nevada, Washington, Idaho, Montana, and Hawaii.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 116, 36 Stat. 1131.

The State of New Mexico, when admitted to the Union, is to constitute one judicial district, to be attached to the eighth circuit, and the State of Arizona, when admitted, is to constitute one judicial district, to be attached to the ninth circuit, by sections 13, 31, of Act June 20, 1910, c. 310, set forth ante, in chapter 5 of this Title, as sections 70a, 96a of that chapter.

Circuit courts of appeals.

Sec. 117. There shall be in each circuit a circuit court of appeals, which shall consist of three judges, of whom two shall constitute a quorum, and which shall be a court of record, with appellate jurisdiction, as hereinafter limited and established.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 117, 36 Stat. 1131.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, Comp. St. 1901, p. 547.

Circuit judges.

Sec. 118. There shall be in the second, seventh, and eighth circuits, respectively, four circuit judges, in the fourth circuit, two circuit judges, and in each of the other circuits, three circuit judges, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. They shall be entitled to receive a salary at the rate of seven thousand dollars a year, each, payable monthly. Each circuit judge shall reside within his circuit.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 118, 36 Stat. 1131.

Allotment of justices to the circuits.

Sec. 119. The Chief Justice and associate justices of the Supreme Court shall be allotted among the circuits by an order of the court, and a new allotment shall be made whenever it becomes necessary or convenient by reason of the alteration of any circuit, or of the new appointment of a Chief Justice or associate justice, or otherwise. If a new allotment becomes necessary at any other time than during a term, it shall be made by the Chief Justice, and shall be binding until the next term and until a new allotment by the court. Whenever, by reason of death or resignation, no justice is allotted to a circuit, the Chief Justice may, until a justice is regularly allotted thereto, temporarily assign a justice of another circuit to such circuit.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 119, 36 Stat. 1131.
See Rev. St. §§ 606, 618, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 487, 496.

Chief Justice and associate justices of Supreme Court, and district judges, may sit in circuit court of appeals.

Sec. 120. The Chief Justice and the associate justices of the Supreme Court assigned to each circuit, and the several district judges within each circuit, shall be competent to sit as judges of the circuit court of appeals within their respective circuits. In case the Chief Justice or an associate justice of the Supreme Court shall attend at any session of the circuit court of appeals, he shall preside. In the absence of such Chief Justice, or associate justice, the circuit judges in attendance upon the court shall preside in the order of the seniority of their respective commissions. In case the full court at any time shall not be made up by the attendance of the Chief Justice or the associate justice, and the circuit judges, one or more district judges within the circuit shall sit in the court according to such order or provision among the district judges as either by general or particular assignment shall be designated by the court: Provided, That no judge before whom a cause or question may have been tried or heard in a district court, or existing circuit court, shall sit on the trial or hearing of such cause or question in the circuit court of appeals.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 120, 36 Stat. 1132.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 3, Comp. St. 1901, p. 548.

Justices allotted to circuits, how designated.

Sec. 121. The words "circuit justice" and "justice of a circuit," when used in this title, shall be understood to designate the justice of the Supreme Court who is allotted to any circuit; but the word "judge," when applied generally to any circuit, shall be understood to include such justice.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 121, 36 Stat. 1132.
See Rev. St. § 605, Comp. St. 1901, p. 486.

Seals, forms of process, and rules.

Sec. 122. Each of said circuit courts of appeals shall prescribe the form and style of its seal, and the form of writs and other process and procedure as may be conformable to the exercise of its jurisdiction; and shall have power to establish all rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of the court within its jurisdiction as conferred by law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 122, 36 Stat. 1132.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 547.

Marshals.

Sec. 123. The United States marshals in and for the several districts of said courts shall be the marshals of said circuit courts of appeals, and shall exercise the same powers and perform the same duties, under the regulations of the court, as are exercised and performed by the marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, so far as the same may be applicable.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 123, 36 Stat. 1132.
See Act July 16, 1892, c. 196, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 555.

Clerks.

Sec. 124. Each court shall appoint a clerk, who shall exercise the same powers and perform the same duties in regard to all matters within its jurisdiction, as are exercised and performed by the clerk of the Supreme Court, so far as the same may be applicable.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 124, 36 Stat. 1132.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 547.

Deputy clerks; appointment and removal.

Sec. 125. The clerk of the circuit court of appeals for each circuit may, with the approval of the court, appoint such number of deputy clerks as the court may deem necessary. Such deputies may be removed at the pleasure of the clerk appointing them, with the approval of the court. In case of the death of the clerk his deputy or deputies shall, unless removed by the court, continue in office and perform the duties of the clerk in his name until a clerk is appointed and has qualified; and for the defaults or misfeasances in office of any such deputy, whether in the lifetime of the clerk or after his death, the clerk and his estate and the sureties on his official bond shall be liable, and his executor or administrator shall have such remedy for such defaults or misfeasances committed after his death as the clerk would be entitled to if the same had occurred in his lifetime.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 125, 36 Stat. 1132.
See Act Feb. 3, 1911, c. 33, 36 Stat. 895.

Terms.

Sec. 126. A term shall be held annually by the circuit courts of appeals in the several judicial circuits at the following places, and at such times as may be fixed by said courts, respectively: In the first circuit, in Boston; in the second circuit, in New York; in the third circuit, in Philadelphia; in the fourth circuit, in Richmond; in the fifth circuit, in New Orleans, Atlanta, Fort Worth, and Montgomery; in the sixth circuit, in Cincinnati; in the seventh circuit, in Chicago; in the eighth circuit, in Saint Louis, Denver or Cheyenne, and Saint Paul; in the ninth circuit, in San Francisco, and each year in two other places in said circuit to be designated by the judges of said court; and in each of the above circuits, terms may be held at such other times and in such other places as said courts, respectively, may from time to time designate: Provided, That terms shall be held in Atlanta on the first Monday in October, in Fort Worth on the first Monday in November, in Montgomery on the third Monday in October, in Denver or in Cheyenne on the first Monday in September, and in Saint Paul on the first Monday in May. All appeals, writs of error, and other appellate proceedings which may be taken or prosecuted from the district courts of the United States in the State of Georgia, in the State of Texas, and in the State of Alabama, to the circuit court of appeals for the fifth judicial circuit shall be heard and disposed of, respectively, by said court at the terms held in Atlanta, in Fort Worth, and in Montgomery, except that appeals or writs of error in cases of injunctions and in all other cases which, under the statutes and rules, or in the opinion of the court, are entitled to be brought to a speedy hearing may be heard and disposed of wherever said court may be sitting. All appeals, writs of errors, and other appellate proceedings which may hereafter be taken or prosecuted from the district court of the United States at Beaumont, Texas, to the circuit court of appeals for the fifth circuit, shall be heard and disposed of by the said circuit court of appeals at the terms of court held at New Orleans: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent the court from hearing appeals or writs of error wherever the said courts shall sit, in cases of injunctions and in all other cases which, under the statutes and the rules, or in the opinion of the court, are entitled to be brought to a speedy hearing. All appeals, writs of error, and other appellate proceedings which may be taken or prosecuted from the district courts of the United States in the States of Colorado, Utah, and Wyoming, and the supreme court of the Territory of New Mexico to the circuit court of appeals for the eighth judicial circuit, shall be heard and disposed of by said court at the terms held either in Denver or in Cheyenne, except that any case arising in any of said States or Territory may, by consent of all the parties, be heard and disposed of at a term of said court other than the one held in Denver or Cheyenne.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 126, 36 Stat. 1132.

See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 3, Comp. St. 1901, p. 548; Act June 9, 1902, c. 1071, 32 Stat. 329; Act June 30, 1902, c. 1333, 32 Stat. 548; Act Dec. 18, 1902, c. 4, 32 Stat. 756; Act Jan. 30, 1903, c. 335, 32 Stat. 784; Act March 4, 1904, c. 395, 33 Stat. 59; Act April 22, 1904, c. 1420, 33 Stat. 249.

Rooms for court, how provided.

Sec. 127. The marshals for the several districts in which said circuit courts of appeals may be held shall, under the direction of the Attorney General, and with his approval, provide such rooms in the public buildings of the United States as may be necessary for the business of said courts, and pay all incidental expenses of said court, including criers, bailiffs, and messengers: Provided, That in case proper rooms can not be provided in such buildings, then the marshals, with the approval of the Attorney General, may, from time to time, lease such rooms as may be necessary for such courts.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 127, 36 Stat. 1133.

See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, 39 Comp. St. 1901, p. 552.

Jurisdiction; when judgment final.

Sec. 128. The circuit courts of appeals shall exercise appellate jurisdiction to review by appeal or writ of error final decisions in the district courts, including the United States district court for Hawaii, in all cases other than those in which appeals and writs of error may be taken direct to the Supreme Court, as provided in section two hundred and thirty-eight, unless otherwise provided by law; and, except as provided in sections two hundred and thirty-nine and two hundred and forty, the judgments and decrees of the circuit courts of appeals shall be final in all cases in which the jurisdiction is dependent entirely upon the opposite parties to the suit or controversy being aliens and citizens of the United States, or citizens of different States; also in all cases arising under the patent laws, under the copyright laws, under the revenue laws, and under the criminal laws, and in admiralty cases.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 128, 36 Stat. 1133.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 6, Comp. St. 1901, p. 549.

Appeals in proceedings for injunctions and receivers.

Sec. 129. Where upon a hearing in equity in a district court, or by a judge thereof in vacation, an injunction shall be granted, continued, refused, or dissolved by an interlocutory order or decree, or an application to dissolve an injunction shall be refused, or an interlocutory order or decree shall be made appointing a receiver, an appeal may be taken from such interlocutory order or decree granting, continuing, refusing, dissolving, or refusing to dissolve, an injunction, or appointing a receiver, to the circuit court of appeals, notwithstanding an appeal in such case might, upon final decree under the statutes regulating the same, be taken directly to the Supreme Court: Provided, That the appeal must be taken within thirty days from the entry of such order or decree, and it shall take precedence in the appellate court; and the proceedings in other respects in the court below shall not be stayed unless otherwise ordered by that court, or the appellate court, or a judge thereof, during the pendency of such appeal: Provided, however, That the court below may, in its discretion, require as a condition of the appeal an additional bond.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 129, 36 Stat. 1134.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 7, 26 Stat. 828; Act Feb. 18, 1895, c. 96, 28 Stat. 666; Act June 6, 1900, c. 803, 31 Stat. 660, Comp. St. 1901, p. 550; Act April 14, 1906, c. 1627, 34 Stat. 116.

Appellate and supervisory jurisdiction under the bankrupt act.

Sec. 130. The circuit courts of appeals shall have the appellate and supervisory jurisdiction conferred upon them by the Act entitled "An Act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States," approved July first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and all laws amendatory thereof, and shall exercise the same in the manner therein prescribed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 130, 36 Stat. 1134.
See Act July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 24, Comp. St. 1901, p. 3431.

Appeals from the United States court for China.

Sec. 131. The circuit court of appeals for the ninth circuit is empowered to hear and determine writs of error and appeals from the United States court for China, as provided in the Act entitled "An Act creating a United States court for China and prescribing the jurisdiction thereof," approved June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 131, 36 Stat. 1134.
See Act June 30, 1904, c. 3934, § 3, 34 Stat. 815.

Allowance of appeals, etc.

Sec. 132. Any judge of a circuit court of appeals, in respect of cases brought or to be brought before that court, shall have the same powers and duties as to allowances of appeals and writs of error, and the conditions of such allowances, as by law belong to the justices or judges in respect of other courts of the United States, respectively.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 132, 36 Stat. 1134.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 11, Comp. St. 1901, p. 552.

Writs of error and appeals from the supreme courts of Arizona and New Mexico.

Sec. 133. The circuit courts of appeals, in cases in which their judgments and decrees are made final by this title, shall have appellate jurisdiction, by writ of error or appeal, to review the judgments, orders, and decrees of the supreme courts of Arizona and New Mexico, as by this title they may have to review the judgments, orders, and decrees of the district courts; and for that purpose said Territories shall, by orders of the Supreme Court of the United States, to be made from time to time, be assigned to particular circuits.

See Act March 3, 1911, c. 517, § 15, Comp. St. 1901, p. 554.
Each of the States of New Mexico and Arizona, when admitted to the Union, is to constitute one judicial district, the district of New Mexico to be attached to the eighth circuit and the district of Arizona to the ninth circuit by sections 13, 31, respectively, of Act June 20, 1910, c. 310, set forth ante, in chapter 5 of this Title, as sections 70a, 96a of that chapter.

Writs of error and appeals from district court for Alaska to circuit court of appeals for ninth circuit; court may certify questions to the Supreme Court.

Sec. 134. In all cases other than those in which a writ of error or appeal will lie direct to the Supreme Court of the United States as provided in section two hundred and forty-seven, in which the amount involved or the value of the subject-matter in controversy shall exceed five hundred dollars, and in all criminal cases, writs of error and appeals shall lie from the district court for Alaska or from any division thereof, to the circuit court of appeals for the ninth circuit, and the judgments, orders, and decrees of said court shall be final in all such cases. But whenever such circuit court of appeals may desire the instruction of the Supreme Court of the United States upon any question or proposition of law which shall have arisen in any such case, the court may certify such question or proposition to the Supreme Court, and thereupon the Supreme Court shall give its instruction upon the question or proposition certified to it, and its instructions shall be binding upon the circuit court of appeals.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 134, 36 Stat. 1134.
See Act March 3, 1899, c. 429, § 202, 30 Stat. 1307; Act June 6, 1900, c. 786, §§ 504, 505, 31 Stat. 414, 415.

Appeals and writs of error from Alaska; where heard.

Sec. 135. All appeals, and writs of error, and other cases, coming from the district court for the district of Alaska to the circuit court of appeals for the ninth circuit, shall be entered upon the docket and heard at San Francisco, California, or at Portland, Oregon, or at Seattle, Washington, as the trial court before whom the case was tried below shall fix and determine: Provided, That at any time before the hearing of any appeal, writ of error, or other case, the parties thereto, through their respective attorneys, may stipulate at which of the above-named places the same shall be heard, in which case the case shall be remitted to and entered upon the docket at the place so stipulated and shall be heard there.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 135, 36 Stat. 1135.
See Act Jan. 11, 1909, c. 15, 35 Stat. 585.

See Rev. St. § 1050, Comp. St. 1901, p. 729.

Session; quorum.

Sec. 138. The Court of Claims shall hold one annual session at the city of Washington, beginning on the first Monday in December and continuing as long as may be necessary for the prompt disposition of the business of the court. Any three of the judges of said court shall constitute a quorum, and may hold a court for the transaction of business: Provided, That the concurrence of three judges shall be necessary to the decision of any case.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 138, 36 Stat. 1136.
See Rev. St. § 1052, Comp. St. 1901, p. 730; Act June 23, 1874, c. 468, Comp. St. 1901, p. 730.

Officers of the court.

Sec. 139. The said court shall appoint a chief clerk, an assistant clerk, if deemed necessary, a bailiff, and a chief messenger. The clerks shall take an oath for the faithful discharge of their duties, and shall be under the direction of the court in the performance thereof; and for misconduct or incapacity they may be removed by it from office; but the court shall report such removals, with the cause thereof, to Congress, if in session, or if not, at the next session. The bailiff shall hold his office for a term of four years, unless sooner removed by the court for cause.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 139, 36 Stat. 1136.
See Rev. St. § 1053, Comp. St. 1901, p. 730.

Salaries of officers.

Sec. 140. The salary of the chief clerk shall be three thousand five hundred dollars a year; of the assistant clerk two thousand five hundred dollars a year; of the bailiff one thousand five hundred dollars a year, and of the chief messenger one thousand dollars a year, payable monthly from the Treasury.

See Rev. St. § 1054, Comp. St. 1901, p. 730.

Clerk's bond.

Sec. 141. The chief clerk shall give bond to the United States in such amount, in such form, and with such security as shall be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 141, 36 Stat. 1136.
See Rev. St. § 1055, Comp. St. 1901, p. 731.

Contingent fund.

Sec. 142. The said clerk shall have authority when he has given bond as provided in the preceding section, to disburse, under the di rection of the court, the contingent fund which may from time to time be appropriated for its use; and his accounts shall be settled by the proper accounting officers of the Treasury in the same way as the accounts of other disbursing agents of the Government are settled.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 142, 36 Stat. 1136.
See Rev. St. § 1056, Comp. St. 1901, p. 731.

Reports to Congress; copies for departments, etc.

Sec. 143. On the first day of every regular session of Congress, the clerk of the Court of Claims shall transmit to Congress a full and complete statement of all the judgments rendered by the court during the previous year, stating the amounts thereof and the parties in whose favor they were rendered, together with a brief synopsis of the nature of the claims upon which they were rendered. At the end of every term of the court he shall transmit a copy of its decisions to the heads of departments; to the Solicitor, the Comptroller, and the Auditors of the Treasury; to the Commissioner of the General Land Office and of Indian Affairs; to the chiefs of bureaus, and to other officers charged with the adjustment of claims against the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 143, 36 Stat. 1136.
See Rev. St. § 1057, Comp. St. 1901, p. 731.

Members of Congress not to practice in the court.

Sec. 144. Whoever, being elected or appointed a Senator, Member of, or Delegate to Congress, or a Resident Commissioner, shall, after his election or appointment, and either before or after he has qualified, and during his continuance in office, practice in the Court of Claims, shall be fined not more than ten thousand dollars and imprisoned not more than two years; and shall, moreover, thereafter be incapable of holding any office of honor, trust, or profit under the Government of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 144, 36 Stat. 1136.
See Rev. St. § 1058, Comp. St. 1901, p. 731.

Jurisdiction.

Sec. 145. The Court of Claims shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the following matters:

Claims against the United States.

First. All claims (except for pensions) founded upon the Constitution of the United States or any law of Congress, upon any regulation of an Executive Department, upon any contract, express or implied, with the Government of the United States, or for damages, liquidated or unliquidated, in cases not sounding in tort, in respect of which claims the party would be entitled to redress against the United States either in a court of law, equity, or admiralty if the United States were suable: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall be construed as giving to the said court jurisdiction to hear and determine claims growing out of the late civil war, and commonly known as "war claims," or to hear and determine other claims which, prior to March third, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, had been rejected or reported on adversely by any court, department, or commission authorized to hear and determine the same.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 145, 36 Stat. 1136.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, 31 Comp. St. 1901, p. 752.

Set-offs.

Second. All set-offs, counterclaims, claims for damages, whether liquidated or unliquidated, or other demands whatsoever on the part of the Government of the United States against any claimant against the Government in said court: Provided, That no suit against the Government of the United States, brought by any officer of the United States to recover fees for services alleged to have been performed for the United States, shall be allowed under this chapter until an account for said fees shall have been rendered and finally acted upon as required by law, unless the proper accounting officer of the Treasury fails to act finally thereon within six months after the account is received in said office.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 145, par. 2, 36 Stat. 1137.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, § 1, par. 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 752.

Disbursing officers.

Third. The claim of any paymaster, quartermaster, commissary of subsistence, or other disbursing officer of the United States, or of his administrators or executors, for relief from responsibility on account of loss by capture or otherwise, while in the line of his duty, of Government funds, vouchers, records, or papers in his charge, and for which such officer was and is held responsible.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 145, par. 3, 36 Stat. 1137.
See Rev. St. § 1059, par. 3, Comp. St. 1901, p. 736.

Judgments for set-off or counterclaims; how enforced.

Sec. 146. Upon the trial of any cause in which any set-off, counterclaim, claim for damages, or other demand is set up on the part of the Government against any person making claim against the Government in said court, the court shall hear and determine such claim or demand both for and against the Government and claimant; and if upon the whole case it finds that the claimant is indebted to the Government it shall render judgment to that effect, and such judgment shall be final, with the right of appeal, as in other cases provided for by law. Any transcript of such judgment, filed in the clerk's office of any district court, shall be entered upon the records thereof, and shall thereby become and be a judgment of such court and be enforced as other judgments in such court are enforced.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 146, 36 Stat. 1137.
See Rev. St. § 1061, Comp. St. 1901, p. 737.

Decree on accounts of disbursing officers.

Sec. 147. Whenever the Court of Claims ascertains the facts of any loss by any paymaster, quartermaster, commissary of subsistence, or other disbursing officer, in the cases hereinbefore provided, to have been without fault or negligence on the part of such officer, it shall make a decree setting forth the amount thereof, and upon such decree the proper accounting officers of the Treasury shall allow to such officer the amount so decreed as a credit in the settlement of his accounts.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 147, 36 Stat. 1137.
See Rev. St. § 1062, Comp. St. 1901, p. 737.

Claims referred by departments.

Sec. 148. When any claim or matter is pending in any of the executive departments which involves controverted questions of fact or law, the head of such department may transmit the same, with the vouchers, papers, documents and proofs pertaining thereto, to the Court of Claims and the same shall be there proceeded in under such rules as the court may adopt. When the facts and conclusions of law shall have been found, the court shall report its findings to the department by which it was transmitted for its guidance and action: Provided, however, That if it shall have been transmitted with the consent of the claimant, or if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court upon the facts established, that under existing laws or the provisions of this chapter it has jurisdiction to render judgment or decree thereon, it shall proceed to do so, in the latter case giving to either party such further opportunity for hearing as in its judgment justice shall require, and shall report its findings therein to the department by which the same was referred to said court. The Secretary of the Treasury may, upon the certificate of any auditor, or of the Comptroller of the Treasury, direct any claim or matter, of which, by reason of the subject matter or character, the said court might under existing laws, take jurisdiction on the voluntary action of the claimant, to be transmitted, with all the vouchers, papers, documents and proofs pertaining thereto, to the said court for trial and adjudication.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 148, 36 Stat. 1137.

See Rev. St. § 1063, Comp. St. 1901, p. 738; Act March 3, 1883, c. 116, Comp. St. 1901, p. 748; Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, §§ 12, 13, Comp. St. 1901, p. 756.

Procedure in cases transmitted by departments.

Sec. 149. All cases transmitted by the head of any department, or upon the certificate of any auditor, or of the Comptroller of the Treasury, according to the provisions of the preceding section, shall be proceeded in as other cases pending in the Court of Claims, and shall, in all respects, be subject to the same rules and regulations.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 149, 36 Stat. 1138.

See Rev. St. § 1064, Comp. St. 1901, p. 738.

Judgments in cases transmitted by departments; how paid.

Sec. 150. The amount of any final judgment or decree rendered in favor of the claimant, in any case transmitted to the Court of Claims under the two preceding sections, shall be paid out of any specific appropriation applicable to the case, if any such there be; and where no such appropriation exists, the judgment or decree shall be paid in the same manner as other judgments of the said court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 150, 36 Stat. 1138.

See Rev. St. § 1065, Comp. St. 1901, p. 739.

Either House of Congress may refer certain claims to court.

Sec. 151. Whenever any bill, except for a pension, is pending in either House of Congress providing for the payment of a claim against the United States, legal or equitable, or for a grant, gift, or bounty to any person, the House in which such bill is pending may, for the investigation and determination of facts, refer the same to the Court of Claims, which shall proceed with the same in accordance with such rules as it may adopt and report to such House the facts in the case and the amount, where the same can be liquidated, including any facts bearing upon the question whether there has been delay or laches in presenting such claim or applying for such grant, gift, or bounty, and any facts bearing upon the question whether the bar of any statute of limitation should be removed or which shall be claimed to excuse the claimant for not having resorted to any established legal remedy, together with such conclusions as shall be sufficient to inform Congress of the nature and character of the demand, either as a claim, legal or equitable, or as a gratuity against the United States, and the amount, if any, legally or equitably due from the United States to the claimant: Provided, however, That if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court upon the facts established, that under existing laws or the provisions of this chapter, the subject matter of the bill is such that it has jurisdiction to render judgment or decree thereon, it shall proceed to do so, giving to either party such further opportunity for hearing as in its judgment justice shall require, and it shall report its proceedings therein to the House of Congress by which the same was referred to said court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 151, 36 Stat. 1138.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, § 14, Comp. St. 1901, p. 757; Act June 25, 1910, c. 409, 36 Stat. 837.

Costs may be allowed prevailing party.

Sec. 152. If the Government of the United States shall put in issue the right of the plaintiff to recover, the court may, in its discretion, allow costs to the prevailing party from the time of joining such issue. Such costs, however, shall include only what is actually incurred for witnesses, and for summoning the same, and fees paid to the clerk of the court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 152, 36 Stat. 1138.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, § 15, Comp. St. 1901, p. 758.

Claims growing out of treaties not cognizable therein.

Sec. 153. The jurisdiction of the said court shall not extend to any claim against the Government not pending therein on December first, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, growing out of or dependent on any treaty stipulation entered into with foreign nations or with the Indian tribes.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 153, 36 Stat. 1138.
See Rev. St. § 1066, Comp. St. 1901, p. 739.

Claims pending in other courts.

Sec. 154. No person shall file or prosecute in the Court of Claims, or in the Supreme Court on appeal therefrom, any claim for or in respect to which he or any assignee of his has pending in any other court any suit or process against any person who, at the time when the cause of action alleged in such suit or process arose, was, in respect thereto, acting or professing to act, mediately or immediately, under the authority of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 154, 36 Stat. 1138.
See Rev. St. § 1067, Comp. St. 1901, p. 739.

Aliens.

Sec. 155. Aliens who are citizens or subjects of any government which accords to citizens of the United States the right to prosecute claims against such government in its courts, shall have the privilege of prosecuting claims against the United States in the Court of Claims, whereof such court, by reason of their subject matter and character, might take jurisdiction.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 155, 36 Stat. 1139.
See Rev. St. § 1068, Comp. St. 1901, p. 740.

All claims to be filed within six years; exceptions.

Sec. 156. Every claim against the United States cognizable by the Court of Claims, shall be forever barred unless the petition setting forth a statement thereof is filed in the court, or transmitted to it by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House of Representatives, as provided by law, within six years after the claim first accrues: Provided, That the claims of married women, first accrued during marriage, of persons under the age of twenty-one years, first accrued during minority, and of idiots, lunatics, insane persons, and persons beyond the seas at the time the claim accrued, entitled to the claim, shall not be barred if the petition be filed in the court or transmitted, as aforesaid, within three years after the disability has ceased; but no other disability than those enumerated shall prevent any claim from being barred, nor shall any of the said disabilities operate cumulatively.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 156, 36 Stat. 1139.
See Rev. St. § 1069, Comp. St. 1901, p. 740.

Rules of practice; may punish contempts.

Sec. 157. The said court shall have power to establish rules for its government and for the regulation of practice therein, and it may punish for contempt in the manner prescribed by the common law, may appoint commissioners, and may exercise such powers as are necessary to carry into effect the powers granted to it by law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 157, 36 Stat. 1139.
See Rev. St. § 1070, Comp. St. 1901, p. 740.

Oaths and acknowledgments.

Sec. 158. The judges and clerks of said court may administer oaths and affirmations, take acknowledgments of instruments in writing, and give certificates of the same.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 158, 36 Stat. 1139.
See Rev. St. § 1071, Comp. St. 1901, p. 741.

Petitions and verification.

Sec. 159. The claimant shall in all cases fully set forth in his petition the claim, the action thereon in Congress or by any of the departments, if such action has been had, what persons are owners thereof or interested therein, when and upon what consideration such persons became so interested; that no assignment or transfer of said claim or of any part thereof or interest therein has been made, except as stated in the petition; that said claimant is justly entitled to the amount therein claimed from the United States after allowing all just credits and offsets; that the claimant and, where the claim has been assigned, the original and every prior owner thereof, if a citizen, has at all times borne true allegiance to the Government of the United States, and, whether a citizen or not, has not in any way voluntarily aided, abetted, or given encouragement to rebellion against the said Government, and that he believes the facts as stated in the said petition to be true. The said petition shall be verified by the affidavit of the claimant, his agent or attorney.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 159, 36 Stat. 1139.
See Rev. St. § 1072, Comp. St. 1901, p. 741.

Petition dismissed, when.

Sec. 160. The said allegations as to true allegiance and voluntary aiding, abetting, or giving encouragement to rebellion against the Government may be traversed by the Government, and if on the trial such issues shall be decided against the claimant, his petition shall be dismissed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 160, 36 Stat. 1139.
See Rev. St. § 1073, Comp. St. 1901, p. 741.

Burden of proof and evidence as to loyalty.

Sec. 161. Whenever it is material in any claim to ascertain whether any person did or did not give any aid or comfort to forces or government of the late Confederate States during the Civil War, the claimant asserting the loyalty of any such person to the United States during such Civil War shall be required to prove affirmatively that such person did, during said Civil War, consistently adhere to the United States and did give no aid or comfort to persons engaged in said Confederate service in said Civil War.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 161, 36 Stat. 1139.
See Rev. St. § 1074, Comp. St. 1901, p. 742.

Claims for proceeds arising from sales of abandoned property.

Sec. 162. The Court of Claims shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the claims of those whose property was taken subsequent to June the first, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved March twelfth, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, entitled "An Act to provide for the collection of abandoned property and for the prevention of frauds in insurrectionary districts within the United States," and Acts amendatory thereof where the property so taken was sold and the net proceeds thereof were placed in the Treasury of the United States; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall return said net proceeds to the owners thereof, on the judgment of said court, and full jurisdiction is given to said court to adjudge said claims, any statutes of limitations to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 162, 36 Stat. 1139.
See Act March 12, 1863, c. 120, § 3, 12 Stat. 820.

Commissioners to take testimony.

Sec. 163. The Court of Claims shall have power to appoint commissioners to take testimony to be used in the investigation of claims which come before it, to prescribe the fees which they shall receive for their services, and to issue commissions for the taking of such testimony, whether taken at the instance of the claimant or of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 163, 36 Stat. 1140.
See Rev. St. § 1075, Comp. St. 1901, p. 742.

Power to call upon departments for information.

Sec. 164. The said court shall have power to call upon any of the departments for any information or papers it may deem necessary, and shall have the use of all recorded and printed reports made by the committees of each House of Congress, when deemed necessary in the prosecution of its business. But the head of any department may refuse and omit to comply with any call for information or papers when, in his opinion, such compliance would be injurious to the public interest.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 164, 36 Stat. 1140.
See Rev. St. § 1076, Comp. St. 1901, p. 742.

When testimony not to be taken.

Sec. 165. When it appears to the court in any case that the facts set forth in the petition of the claimant do not furnish any ground for relief, it shall not authorize the taking of any testimony therein.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 165, 36 Stat. 1140.
See Rev. St. § 1077, Comp. St. 1901, p. 742.

Examination of claimant.

Sec. 166. The court may, at the instance of the attorney or solicitor appearing in behalf of the United States, make an order in any case pending therein, directing any claimant in such case to appear, upon reasonable notice, before any commissioner of the court and be examined on oath touching any or all matters pertaining to said claim. Such examination shall be reduced to writing by the said commissioner, and be returned to and filed in the court, and may, at the discretion of the attorney or solicitor of the United States appearing in the case, be read and used as evidence on the trial thereof. And if any claimant, after such order is made and due and reasonable notice thereof is given to him, fails to appear, or refuses to testify or answer fully as to all matters within his knowledge material to the issue, the court may, in its discretion, order that the said cause shall not be brought forward for trial until he shall have fully complied with the order of the court in the premises.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 166, 36 Stat. 1140.
See Rev. St. § 1080, Comp. St. 1901, p. 743.

Testimony; where taken.

Sec. 167. The testimony in cases pending before the Court of Claims shall be taken in the county where the witness resides, when the same can be conveniently done.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 167, 36 Stat. 1140.
See Rev. St. § 1081, Comp. St. 1901, p. 743.

Witnesses before commissioners.

Sec. 168. The Court of Claims may issue subpœnas to require the attendance of witnesses in order to be examined before any person commissioned to take testimony therein. Such subpœnas shall have the same force as if issued from a district court, and compliance therewith shall be compelled under such rules and orders as the court shall establish.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 168, 36 Stat. 1140.
See Rev. St. § 1082, Comp. St. 1901, p. 744.

Cross-examinations.

Sec. 169. In taking testimony to be used in support of any claim, opportunity shall be given to the United States to file interrogatories, or by attorney to examine witnesses, under such regulations as said court shall prescribe; and like opportunity shall be afforded the claimant, in cases where testimony is taken on behalf of the United States, under like regulations.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 169, 36 Stat. 1140.
See Rev. St. § 1083, Comp. St. 1901, p. 744.

Witnesses; how sworn.

Sec. 170. The commissioner taking testimony to be used in the Court of Claims shall administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses brought before him for examination.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 170, 36 Stat. 1140.
See Rev. St. § 1084, Comp. St. 1901, p. 744.

Fees of commissioners, by whom paid.

Sec. 171. When testimony is taken for the claimant, the fees of the commissioner before whom it is taken, and the cost of the commission and notice, shall be paid by such claimant; and when it is taken at the instance of the Government, such fees shall be paid out of the contingent fund provided for the Court of Claims, or other appropriation made by Congress for that purpose.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 171, 36 Stat. 1141.
See Rev. St. § 1085, Comp. St. 1901, p. 744.

Claims forfeited for fraud.

Sec. 172. Any person who corruptly practices or attempts to practice any fraud against the United States in the proof, statement, establishment, or allowance of any claim or of any part of any claim against the United States shall, ipso facto, forfeit the same to the Government; and it shall be the duty of the Court of Claims, in such cases, to find specifically that such fraud was practiced or attempted to be practiced, and thereupon to give judgment that such claim is forfeited to the Government, and that the claimant be forever barred from prosecuting the same.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 172, 36 Stat. 1141.

Claims under act of June 16, 1874.

Sec. 173. No claim shall be allowed by the accounting officers under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June sixteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, or by the Court of Claims, or by Congress, to any person where such claimant, or those under whom he claims, shall willfully, knowingly, and with intent to defraud the United States, have claimed more than was justly due in respect of such claim, or presented any false evidence to Congress, or to any department or court, in support thereof.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 173, 36 Stat. 1141.
See Act June 16, 1874, c. 285, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 178; Act April 30, 1878, c. 77, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 178.

New trial on motion of claimant.

Sec. 174. When judgment is rendered against any claimant, the court may grant a new trial for any reason which, by the rules of common law or chancery in suits between individuals, would furnish sufficient ground for granting a new trial.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 174, 36 Stat. 1141.
See Rev. St. § 1088, Comp. St. 1901, p. 745.

New trial on motion of United States.

Sec. 175. The Court of Claims, at any time while any claim is pending before it, or on appeal from it, or within two years next after the final disposition of such claim, may, on motion, on behalf of the United States, grant a new trial and stay the payment of any judgment therein, upon such evidence, cumulative or otherwise, as shall satisfy the court that any fraud, wrong, or injustice in the premises has been done to the United States; but until an order is made staying the payment of a judgment, the same shall be payable and paid as now provided by law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 175, 36 Stat. 1141.
See Rev. St. § 1088, Comp. St. 1901, p. 745.

Cost of printing record.

Sec. 176. There shall be taxed against the losing party in each and every cause pending in the Court of Claims the cost of printing the record in such case, which shall be collected, except when the judgment is against the United States, by the clerk of said court and paid into the Treasury of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 176, 36 Stat. 1141.
See Act March 3, 1877, c. 105, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 705.

No interest on claims.

Sec. 177. No interest shall be allowed on any claim up to the time of the rendition of judgment thereon by the Court of Claims, unless upon a contract expressly stipulating for the payment of interest.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 177, 36 Stat. 1141.
See Rev. St. § 1091, Comp. St. 1901, p. 747.

Effect of payment of judgment.

Sec. 178. The payment of the amount due by any judgment of the Court of Claims, and of any interest thereon allowed by law, as provided by law, shall be a full discharge to the United States of all claim and demand touching any of the matters involved in the controversy.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 178, 36 Stat. 1141.
See Rev. St. § 1092, Comp. St. 1901, p. 747.

Final judgments a bar.

Sec. 179. Any final judgment against the claimant on any claim prosecuted as provided in this chapter shall forever bar any further claim or demand against the United States arising out of the matters involved in the controversy.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 179, 36 Stat. 1141.
See Rev. St. § 1093, Comp. St. 1901, p. 747.

Debtors to the United States may have amount due ascertained.

Sec. 180. Whenever any person shall present his petition to the Court of Claims alleging that he is or has been indebted to the United States as an officer or agent thereof, or by virtue of any contract therewith, or that he is the guarantor, or surety, or personal representative of any officer or agent or contractor so indebted, or that he or the person for whom he is such surety, guarantor, or personal representative has held any office or agency under the United States, or entered into any contract therewith, under which it may be or has been claimed that an indebtedness to the United States had arisen and exists, and that he or the person he represents has applied to the proper department of the Government requesting that the account of such office, agency, or indebtedness may be adjusted and settled, and that three years have elapsed from the date of such application, and said account still remains unsettled and unadjusted, and that no suit upon the same has been brought by the United States, said court shall, due notice first being given to the head of said department and to the Attorney General of the United States, proceed to hear the parties and to ascertain the amount, if any, due the United States on said account. The Attorney General shall represent the United States at the hearing of said cause. The court may postpone the same from time to time whenever justice shall require. The judgment of said court or of the Supreme Court of the United States, to which an appeal shall lie, as in other cases, as to the amount due, shall be binding and conclusive upon the parties. The payment of such amount so found due by the court shall discharge such obligation. An action shall accrue to the United States against such principal, or surety, or representative to recover the amount so found due, which may be brought at any time within three years after the final judgment of said court; and unless suit shall be brought within said time, such claim and the claim on the original indebtedness shall be forever barred. The provisions of section one hundred and sixty-six shall apply to cases under this section.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 180, 36 Stat. 1141.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, §§ 3, 8, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 754, 755.

Appeals.

Sec. 181. The plaintiff or the United States, in any suit brought under the provision of the section last preceding, shall have the same right of appeal as is conferred under sections two hundred and forty-two and two hundred and forty-three; and such right shall be exercised only within the time and in the manner therein prescribed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 181, 36 Stat. 1142.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, § 9, Comp. St. 1901, p. 756.

Appeals in Indian cases.

Sec. 182. In any case brought in the Court of Claims under any Act of Congress by which that court is authorized to render a judgment or decree against the United States, or against any Indian tribe or any Indians, or against any fund held in trust by the United States for any Indian tribe or for any Indians, the claimant, or the United States, or the tribe of Indians, or other party in interest shall have the same right of appeal as is conferred under sections two hundred and forty-two and two hundred and forty-three; and such right shall be exercised only within the time and in the manner therein prescribed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 182, 36 Stat. 1142.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 538, § 10, Comp. St. 1901, p. 763.

Attorney General's report to Congress.

Sec. 183. The Attorney General shall report to Congress, at the beginning of each regular session, the suits under section one hundred and eighty, in which a final judgment or decree has been rendered, giving the date of each and a statement of the costs taxed in each case.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 183, 36 Stat. 1142.
See Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, § 17, Comp. St. 1901, p. 756.

Loyalty a jurisdictional fact in certain cases.

Sec. 184. In any case of a claim for supplies or stores taken by or furnished to any part of the military or naval forces of the United States for their use during the late Civil War, the petition shall aver that the person who furnished such supplies or stores, or from whom such supplies or stores were taken, did not give any aid or comfort to said rebellion, but was throughout that war loyal to the Government of the United States, and the fact of such loyalty shall be a jurisdictional fact; and unless the said court shall, on a preliminary inquiry, find that the person who furnished such supplies or stores, or from whom the same were taken as aforesaid, was loyal to the Government of the United States throughout said war, the court shall not have jurisdiction of such cause, and the same shall, without further proceedings, be dismissed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 184, 36 Stat. 1142.
See Act March 3, 1883, c. 116, § 4, Comp. St. 1901, p. 749.

Attorney General to appear for the defense.

Sec. 185. The Attorney-General, or his assistants under his direction, shall appear for the defense and protection of the interests of the United States in all cases which may be transmitted to the Court of Claims under the provisions of this chapter, with the same power to interpose counter claims, offsets, defenses for fraud practiced or attempted to be practiced by claimants, and other defenses, in like manner as he is required to defend the United States in said court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 185, 36 Stat. 1142.
See Act March 3, 1883, c. 116, § 5, Comp. St. 1901, p. 749.

Persons not to be excluded as witnesses on account of color or because of interest; plaintiff may be witness for Government.

Sec. 186. No person shall be excluded as a witness in the Court of Claims on account of color, because he or she is a party to or interested in the cause or proceeding; and any plaintiff or party in interest may be examined as a witness on the part of the Government.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 186, 36 Stat. 1143.
See Rev. St. § 1078, Comp. St. 1901, p. 743; Act March 3, 1883, c. 116, § 6, Comp. St. 1901, p. 749; Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 755.

Reports of court to Congress.

Sec. 187. Reports of the Court of Claims to Congress, under sections one hundred and forty-eight and one hundred and fifty-one, if not finally acted upon during the session at which they are reported, shall be continued from session to session and from Congress to Congress until the same shall be finally acted upon.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 187, 36 Stat. 1143.
See Act March 3, 1883, c. 116, § 7, Comp. St. 1901, p. 750.

CHAPTER EIGHT.

The Court of Customs Appeals.

Sec.
188. Court of Customs Appeals; appointment and salary of judges; quorum; circuit and district judges may act in place of judge disqualified, etc.
189. Court to be always open for business; terms may be held in any circuit; when expenses of judges to be paid.

Sec.
190. Marshal of the court; appointment, salary, and duties.
191. Clerk of the court; appointment, salary, and duties.
192. Assistant clerk, stenographic clerks, and reporter; appointment, salary, and duties.
193. Rooms for holding court to be provided; bailiffs and messengers.
194. To be a court of record; to prescribe form and style of seal, and establish rules and regulations; may affirm, modify, or reverse and remand case, etc.
Sec.
195. Final decisions of Board of General Appraisers to be reviewed only by Customs Court.
196. Other courts deprived of jurisdiction in customs cases; pending cases excepted.
197. Transfer to Customs Court of pending cases; completion of testimony.
198. Appeals from Board of General Appraisers; time within which to be taken; record to be transmitted to Customs Court.
199. Records filed in Customs Court to be at once placed on calendar; calendar to be called every sixty days.

Court of Customs Appeals; appointment and salary of judges; quorum; circuit and district judges may act in place of judge disqualified, etc.

Sec. 188. There shall be a United States Court of Customs Appeals, which shall consist of a presiding judge and four associate judges, each of whom shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive a salary of seven thousand dollars a year. The presiding judge shall be so designated in the order of appointment and in the commission issued to him by the President; and the associate judges shall have precedence according to the date of their commissions. Any three members of said court shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of three members shall be necessary to any decision thereof. In case of a vacancy or of the temporary inability or disqualification, for any reason, of one or two of the judges of said court, the President may, upon the request of the presiding judge of said court, designate any qualified United States circuit or district judge or judges to act in his or their place; and such circuit or district judges shall be duly qualified to so act.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 188, 36 Stat. 1143.

See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Act Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 214.

Court to be always open for business; terms may be held in any circuit; when expenses of judges to be paid.

Sec. 189. The said Court of Customs Appeals shall always be open for the transaction of business, and sessions thereof may, in the discretion of the court, be held in the several judicial circuits, and at such places as said court may from time to time designate. Any judge who, in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter, shall attend a session of said court at any place other than the city of Washington, shall be paid, upon his written and itemized certificate, by the marshal of the district in which the court shall be held, his actual and necessary expenses incurred for travel and attendance, and the actual and necessary expenses of one stenographic clerk who may accompany him; and such payments shall be allowed the marshal in the settlement of his accounts with the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 189, 36 Stat. 1143.

See Act Aug. 7, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105.

Marshal of the court; appointment, salary, and duties.

Sec. 190. Said court shall have the services of a marshal, with the same duties and powers, under the regulations of the court, as are now provided for the marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, so far as the same may be applicable. Said services within the District of Columbia shall be performed by a marshal to be appointed by and to hold office during the pleasure of the court, who shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars per annum. Said services outside of the District of Columbia shall be performed by the United States marshals in and for the districts where sessions of said court may be held; and to this end said marshals shall be the marshals of said court. The marshal of said court, for the District of Columbia, is authorized to purchase, under the direction of the presiding judge, such books, periodicals, and stationery, as may be necessary for the use of said court; and such expenditures shall be allowed and paid by the Secretary of the Treasury upon claim duly made and approved by said presiding judge.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 190, 36 Stat. 1144.

See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Act Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 216.

Clerk of the court; appointment, salary, and duties.

Sec. 191. The court shall appoint a clerk, whose office shall be in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, and who shall perform and exercise the same duties and powers in regard to all matters within the jurisdiction of said court as are now exercised and performed by the clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, so far as the same may be applicable. The salary of the clerk shall be three thousand five hundred dollars per annum, which sum shall be in full payment for all service rendered by such clerk; and all fees of any kind whatever, and all costs shall be by him turned into the United States Treasury. Said clerk shall not be appointed by the court or any judge thereof as a commissioner, master, receiver, or referee. The costs and fees in the said court shall be fixed and established by said court in a table of fees to be adopted and approved by the Supreme Court of the United States within four months after the organization of said court: Provided, That the costs and fees so fixed shall not, with respect to any item, exceed the costs and fees charged in the Supreme Court of the United States; and the same shall be expended, accounted for, and paid over to the Treasury of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 191, 36 Stat. 1144.

See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Act Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 214.

Assistant clerk, stenographic clerks, and reporter; appointment, salary, and duties.

Sec. 192. In addition to the clerk, the court may appoint an assistant clerk at a salary of two thousand dollars per annum, five stenographic clerks at a salary of one thousand six hundred dollars per annum each, one stenographic reporter at a salary of two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, and a messenger at a salary of eight hundred and forty dollars per annum, all payable in equal monthly installments, and all of whom, including the clerk, shall hold office during the pleasure of and perform such duties as are assigned them by the court. Said reporter shall prepare and transmit to the Secretary of the Treasury once a week in time for publication in the Treasury Decisions copies of all decisions rendered to that date by said court, and prepare and transmit, under the direction of said court, at least once a year, reports of said decisions rendered to that date, constituting a volume, which shall be printed by the Treasury Department in such numbers and distributed or sold in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 192, 36 Stat. 1144.
See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Act Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 214.

Rooms for holding court to be provided; bailiffs and messengers.

Sec. 193. The marshal of said court for the District of Columbia and the marshals of the several districts in which said Court of Customs Appeals may be held shall, under the direction of the Attorney General, and with his approval, provide such rooms in the public buildings of the United States as may be necessary for said court: Provided, That in case proper rooms can not be provided in such buildings, then the said marshals, with the approval of the Attorney-General, may, from time to time, lease such rooms as may be necessary for said court. The bailiffs and messengers of said court shall be allowed the same compensation for their respective services as are allowed for similar services in the existing district courts. In no case shall said marshals secure other rooms than those regularly occupied by existing district courts, or other public officers, except where such can not, by reason of actual occupancy or use, be occupied or used by said Court of Customs Appeals.

See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105.

To be a court of record; to prescribe form and style of seal, and establish rules and regulations; may affirm, modify, or reverse and remand case, etc.

Sec. 194. The said Court of Customs Appeals shall be a court of record, with jurisdiction as in this chapter established and limited. It shall prescribe the form and style of its seal, and the form of its writs and other process and procedure, and exercise such powers conferred by law as may be conformable and necessary to the exercise of its jurisdiction. It shall have power to establish all rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of the court, and as may be needful for the uniformity of decisions within its jurisdiction as conferred by law. It shall have power to review any decision or matter within its jurisdiction, and may affirm, modify, or reverse the same and remand the case with such orders as may seem to it proper in the premises, which shall be executed accordingly.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 194, 36 Stat. 1145.
See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105.

Final decisions of Board of General Appraisers to be reviewed only by Customs Court.

Sec. 195. The Court of Customs Appeals established by this chapter shall exercise exclusive appellate jurisdiction to review by appeal, as herein provided, final decisions by a Board of General Appraisers in all cases as to the construction of the law and the facts respecting the classification of merchandise and the rate of duty imposed thereon under such classification, and the fees and charges connected therewith, and all appealable questions as to the jurisdiction of said board, and all appealable questions as to the laws and regulations governing the collection of the customs revenues; and the judgments and decrees of said Court of Customs Appeals shall be final in all such cases.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 195, 36 Stat. 1145.
See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105.

Other courts deprived of jurisdiction in customs cases; pending cases excepted.

Sec. 196. After the organization of said court, no appeal shall be taken or allowed from any Board of United States General Appraisers to any other court, and no appellate jurisdiction shall thereafter be exercised or allowed by any other courts in cases decided by said Board of United States General Appraisers; but all appeals allowed by law from such Board of General Appraisers shall be subject to review only in the Court of Customs Appeals hereby established, according to the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to deprive the Supreme Court of the United States of jurisdiction to hear and determine all customs cases which have heretofore been certified to said court from the United States circuit courts of appeals on applications for writs of certiorari or otherwise, nor to review by writ of certiorari any customs case heretofore decided or now pending and hereafter decided by any circuit court of appeals, provided application for said writ be made within six months after August fifth, nineteen hundred and nine: Provided further, That all customs cases decided by a circuit or district court of the United States or a court of a Territory of the United States prior to said date above mentioned, and which have not been removed from said courts by appeal or writ of error, and all such cases theretofore submitted for decision in said courts and remaining undecided may be reviewed on appeal at the instance of either party by the United States Court of Customs Appeals, provided such appeal be taken within one year from the date of the entry of the order, judgment, or decrees sought to be reviewed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 196, 36 Stat. 1145.
See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105.

Transfer to Customs Court of pending cases; completion of testimony.

Sec. 197. Immediately upon the organization of the Court of Customs Appeals, all cases within the jurisdiction of that court pending and not submitted for decision in any of the United States circuit courts of appeals, United States circuit, territorial or district courts, shall, with the record and samples therein, be certified by said courts to said Court of Customs Appeals for further proceedings in accordance herewith: Provided, That where orders for the taking of further testimony before a referee have been made in any of such cases, the taking of such testimony shall be completed before such certification.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 197, 36 Stat. 1145.
See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105.

Appeals from Board of General Appraisers; time within which to be taken; record to be transmitted to Customs Court.

Sec. 198. If the importer, owner, consignee, or agent of any imported merchandise, or the collector or Secretary of the Treasury, shall be dissatisfied with the decision of the Board of General Appraisers as to the construction of the law and the facts respecting the classification of such merchandise and the rate of duty imposed thereon under such classification, or with any other appealable decision of said board, they, or either of them, may, within sixty days next after the entry of such decree or judgment, and not afterwards, apply to the Court of Customs Appeals for a review of the questions of law and fact involved in such decision: Provided, That in Alaska and in the insular and other outside possessions of the United States ninety days shall be allowed for making such application to the Court of Customs Appeals. Such application shall be made by filing in the office of the clerk of said court a concise statement of errors of law and fact complained of; and a copy of such statement shall be served on the collector, or on the importer, owner, consignee, or agent, as the case may be. Thereupon the court shall immediately order the Board of General Appraisers to transmit to said court the record and evidence taken by them, together with the certified statement of the facts involved in the case and their decision thereon; and all the evidence taken by and before said board shall be competent evidence before said Court of Customs Appeals. The decision of said Court of Customs Appeals shall be final, and such cause shall be remanded to said Board of General Appraisers for further proceedings to be taken in pursuance of such determination.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 198, 36 Stat. 1146.
See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105.

Records filed in Customs Court to be at once placed on calendar; calendar to be called every sixty days.

Sec. 199. Immediately upon receipt of any record transmitted to said court for determination the clerk thereof shall place the same upon the calendar for hearing and submission; and such calendar shall be called and all cases thereupon submitted, except for good cause shown, at least once every sixty days: Provided, That such calendar need not be called during the months of July and August of any year.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 199, 36 Stat. 1146.
See Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105.

CHAPTER NINE.

The Commerce Court.

Sec.
200. Commerce Court created; judges of, appointment and designation; expense allowance to judges.
201. Additional circuit judges; appointment and assignment.
202. Officers of the court; clerk, marshal, etc.; salaries, etc.
203. Court to be always open for business; sessions of, to be held in Washington and elsewhere.
204. Marshals to provide rooms for holding court outside of Washington.
205. Assignment of judges to other duty; vacancies, how filled.
206. Powers of court and judges; writs, process, procedure, etc.
207. Jurisdiction of the court.
208. Suits to enjoin, etc., orders of Interstate Commerce Commission to be against United States; restraining orders, when granted without notice.
209. Jurisdiction of the court, how invoked; practice and procedure.

Sec.
210. Final judgments and decrees reviewable in Supreme Court.
211. Suits to be against United States; when United States may intervene.
212. Attorney General to control all cases; Interstate Commerce Commission may appear as of right; parties interested may intervene, etc.
213. Complainants may appear and be heard as parties to case.
214. Pending cases to be transferred to Commerce Court; exception; status of transferred cases.

Commerce Court created; judges of, appointment and designation; expense allowance to judges.

Sec. 200. There shall be a court of the United States, to be known as the Commerce Court, which shall be a court of record, and shall have a seal of such form and style as the court may prescribe. The said court shall be composed of five judges, to be from time to time designated and assigned thereto by the Chief Justice of the United States, from among the circuit judges of the United States, for the period of five years, except that in the first instance the court shall be composed of the five additional circuit judges referred to in the next succeeding section, who shall be designated by the President to serve for one, two, three, four, and five years, respectively, in order that the period of designation of one of the said judges shall expire in each year thereafter. In case of the death, resignation, or termination of assignment of any judge so designated, the Chief Justice shall designate a circuit judge to fill the vacancy so caused and to serve during the unexpired period for which the original designation was made. After the year nineteen hundred and fourteen no circuit judge shall be redesignated to serve in the Commerce Court until the expiration of at least one year after the expiration of the period of his last previous designation. The judge first designated for the five-year period shall be the presiding judge of said court, and thereafter the judge senior in designation shall be the presiding judge. The associate judges shall have precedence and shall succeed to the place and powers of the presiding judge whenever he may be absent or incapable of acting in the order of the date of their designations. Four of said judges shall constitute a quorum, and at least a majority of the court shall concur in all decisions. Each of the judges during the period of his service in the Commerce Court shall, on account of the regular sessions of the court being held in the city of Washington, receive in addition to his salary as circuit judge an expense allowance at the rate of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 200, 36 Stat. 1146.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539.

Additional circuit judges; appointment and assignment.

Sec. 201. The five additional circuit judges authorized by the Act to create a Commerce Court, and for other purposes, approved June eighteenth, nineteen hundred and ten, shall hold office during good behavior, and from time to time shall be designated and assigned by the Chief Justice of the United States for service in the district court of any district, or the circuit court of appeals for any circuit, or in the Commerce Court, and when so designated and assigned for service in a district court or circuit court of appeals shall have the powers and jurisdiction in this Act conferred upon a circuit judge in his circuit.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 201, 36 Stat. 1147.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539.

Officers of the court; clerk, marshal, etc.; salaries, etc.

Sec. 202. The court shall also have a clerk and a marshal, with the same duties and powers, so far as they may be appropriate and are not altered by rule of the court, as are now possessed by the clerk and marshal, respectively, of the Supreme Court of the United States. The offices of the clerk and marshal of the court shall be in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia. The judges of the court shall appoint the clerk and marshal, and may also appoint, if they find it necessary, a deputy clerk and deputy marshal; and such clerk, marshal, deputy clerk, and deputy marshal, shall hold office during the pleasure of the court. The salary of the clerk shall be four thousand dollars per annum; the salary of the marshal three thousand dollars per annum; the salary of the deputy clerk two thousand five hundred dollars per annum; and the salary of the deputy marshal two thousand five hundred dollars per annum. The said clerk and marshal may, with the approval of the court, employ all requisite assistance. The costs and fees in said court shall be established by the court in a table thereof, approved by the Supreme Court of the United States, within four months after the organization of the court; but such costs and fees shall in no case exceed those charged in the Supreme Court of the United States, and shall be accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 202, 36 Stat. 1147.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539.

Court to be always open for business; sessions of, to be held in Washington and elsewhere.

Sec. 203. The Commerce Court shall always be open for the transaction of business. Its regular sessions shall be held in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia; but the powers of the court or of any judge thereof, or of the clerk, marshal, deputy clerk, or deputy marshal, may be exercised anywhere in the United States; and for expedition of the work of the court and the avoidance of undue expense or inconvenience to suitors the court shall hold sessions in different parts of the United States as may be found desirable. The actual and necessary expenses of the judges, clerk, marshal, deputy clerk, and deputy marshal of the court incurred for travel and attendance elsewhere than in the city of Washington shall be paid upon the written and itemized certificate of such judge, clerk, marshal, deputy clerk, or deputy marshal, by the marshal of the court, and shall be allowed to him in the settlement of his accounts with the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 203, 36 Stat. 1147.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539.

Marshals to provide rooms for holding court outside of Washington.

Sec. 204. The United States marshals of the several districts outside of the city of Washington in which the Commerce Court may hold its sessions shall provide, under the direction and with the approval of the Attorney General, such rooms in the public buildings of the United States as may be necessary for the court's use; but in case proper rooms can not be provided in such public buildings, said marshals, with the approval of the Attorney General, may then lease from time to time other necessary rooms for the court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 204, 36 Stat. 1148.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539.

Assignment of judges to other duty; vacancies, how filled.

Sec. 205. If, at any time, the business of the Commerce Court does not require the services of all the judges, the Chief Justice of the United States may, by writing, signed by him and filed in the Department of Justice, terminate the assignment of any of the judges or temporarily assign him for service in any district court or circuit court of appeals. In case of illness or other disability of any judge assigned to the Commerce Court the Chief Justice of the United States may assign any other circuit judge of the United States to act in his place, and may terminate such assignment when the exigency therefor shall cease; and any circuit judge so assigned to act in place of such judge shall, during his assignment, exercise all the powers and perform all the functions of such judge.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 205, 36 Stat. 1148.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539.

Powers of court and judges; writs, process, procedure, etc.

Sec. 206. In all cases within its jurisdiction the Commerce Court, and each of the judges assigned thereto, shall, respectively, have and may exercise any and all of the powers of a district court of the United States and of the judges of said court, respectively, so far as the same may be appropriate to the effective exercise of the jurisdiction hereby conferred. The Commerce Court may issue all writs and process appropriate to the full exercise of its jurisdiction and powers and may prescribe the form thereof. It may also, from time to time, establish such rules and regulations concerning pleading, practice, or procedure in cases or matters within its jurisdiction as to the court shall seem wise and proper. Its orders, writs, and process may run, be served, and be returnable anywhere in the United States; and the marshal and deputy marshal of said court and also the United States marshals and deputy marshals in the several districts of the United States shall have like powers and be under like duties to act for and in behalf of said court as pertain to United States marshals and deputy marshals generally when acting under like conditions concerning suits or matters in the district courts of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 206, 36 Stat. 1148.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539.

Jurisdiction of the court.

Sec. 207. The Commerce Court shall have the jurisdiction possessed by circuit courts of the United States and the judges thereof immediately prior to June eighteenth, nineteen hundred and ten, over all cases of the following kinds:

First. All cases for the enforcement, otherwise than by adjudication and collection of a forfeiture or penalty or by infliction of criminal punishment, of any order of the Interstate Commerce Commission other than for the payment of money.

Second. Cases brought to enjoin, set aside, annul, or suspend in whole or in part any order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Third. Such cases as by section three of the Act entitled "An Act to further regulate commerce with foreign nations and among the States," approved February nineteenth, nineteen hundred and three, are authorized to be maintained in a circuit court of the United States.

Fourth. All such mandamus proceedings as under the provisions of section twenty or section twenty-three of the Act entitled "An Act to regulate commerce," approved February fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, as amended, are authorized to be maintained in a circuit court of the United States.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed as enlarging the jurisdiction now possessed by the circuit courts of the United States or the judges thereof, that is hereby transferred to and vested in the Commerce Court.

The jurisdiction of the Commerce Court over cases of the foregoing classes shall be exclusive; but this chapter shall not affect the jurisdiction possessed by any circuit or district court of the United States over cases or proceedings of a kind not within the above-enumerated classes.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 207, 36 Stat. 1148.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 539, § 1, 36 Stat. 539.

Suits to enjoin, etc., orders of Interstate Commerce Commission to be against United States; restraining orders, when granted without notice.

Sec. 208. Suits to enjoin, set aside, annul, or suspend any order of the Interstate Commerce Commission shall be brought in the Commerce Court against the United States. The pendency of such suit shall not of itself stay or suspend the operation of the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission; but the Commerce Court, in its discretion, may restrain or suspend, in whole or in part, the operation of the commission's order pending the final hearing and determination of the suit. No order or injunction so restraining or suspending an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission shall be made by the Commerce Court otherwise than upon notice and after hearing, except that in cases where irreparable damage would otherwise ensue to the petitioner, said court, or a judge thereof may, on hearing after not less than three days' notice to the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Attorney General, allow a temporary stay or suspension in whole or in part of the operation of the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission for not more than sixty days from the date of the order of such court or judge, pending application to the court for its order or injunction, in which case the said order shall contain a specific finding, based upon evidence submitted to the judge making the order and identified by reference thereto, that such irreparable damage would result to the petitioner and specifying the nature of the damage. The court may, at the time of hearing such application, upon a like finding, continue the temporary stay or suspension in whole or in part until its decision upon the application.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 208, 36 Stat. 1149.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 3, 36 Stat. 542.

Jurisdiction of the court, how invoked; practice and procedure.

Sec. 209. The jurisdiction of the Commerce Court shall be invoked by filing in the office of the clerk of the court a written petition setting forth briefly and succinctly the facts constituting the petitioner's cause of action, and specifying the relief sought. A copy of such petition shall be forthwith served by the marshal or a deputy marshal of the Commerce Court or by the proper United States marshal or deputy marshal upon every defendant therein named, and when the United States is a party defendant, the service shall be made by filing a copy of said petition in the office of the Secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission and in the Department of Justice. Within thirty days after the petition is served, unless that time is extended by order of the court or a judge thereof, an answer to the petition shall be filed in the clerk's office, and a copy thereof mailed to the petitioner's attorney, which answer shall briefly and categorically respond to the allegations of the petition. No replication need be filed to the answer, and objections to the sufficiency of the petition or answer as not setting forth a cause of action or defense must be taken at the final hearing or by motion to dismiss the petition based on said grounds, which motion may be made at any time before answer is filed. In case no answer shall be filed as provided herein the petitioner may apply to the court on notice for such relief as may be proper upon the facts alleged in the petition. The court may, by rule, prescribe the method of taking evidence in cases pending in said court; and may prescribe that the evidence be taken before a single judge of the court, with power to rule upon the admission of evidence. Except as may be otherwise provided in this chapter, or by rule of the court, the practice and procedure in the Commerce Court shall conform as nearly as may be to that in like cases in a district court of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 209, 36 Stat. 1149.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539.

Final judgments and decrees reviewable in Supreme Court.

Sec. 210. A final judgment or decree of the Commerce Court may be reviewed by the Supreme Court of the United States if appeal to the Supreme Court be taken by an aggrieved party within sixty days after the entry of said final judgment or decree. Such appeal may be taken in like manner as appeals from a district court of the United States to the Supreme Court, and the Commerce Court may direct the original record to be transmitted on appeal instead of a transcript thereof. The Supreme Court may affirm, reverse, or modify the final judgment or decree of the Commerce Court as the case may require. Appeal to the Supreme Court, however, shall in no case supersede or stay the judgment or decree of the Commerce Court appealed from, unless the Supreme Court or a justice thereof shall so direct; and appellant shall give bond in such form and of such amount as the Supreme Court, or the justice of that court allowing the stay, may require. An appeal may also be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States from an interlocutory order or decree of the Commerce Court granting or continuing an injunction restraining the enforcement of an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission, provided such appeal be taken within thirty days from the entry of such order or decree. Appeals to the Supreme Court under this section shall have priority in hearing and determination over all other causes except criminal causes in that court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 210, 36 Stat. 1150.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 2, 36 Stat. 542.

Suits to be against United States; when United States may intervene.

Sec. 211. All cases and proceedings in the Commerce Court which but for this chapter would be brought by or against the Interstate Commerce Commission, shall be brought by or against the United States, and the United States may intervene in any case or proceeding in the Commerce Court whenever, though it has not been made a party, public interests are involved.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 211, 36 Stat. 1150.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 4, 36 Stat. 542.

Attorney General to control all cases; Interstate Commerce Commission may appear as of right; parties interested may intervene, etc.

Sec. 212. The Attorney General shall have charge and control of the interests of the Government in all cases and proceedings in the Commerce Court, and in the Supreme Court of the United States upon appeal from the Commerce Court. If in his opinion the public interest requires it, he may retain and employ in the name of the United States, within the appropriations from time to time made by the Congress for such purposes, such special attorneys and counselors at law as he may think necessary to assist in the discharge of any of the duties incumbent upon him and his subordinate attorneys; and the Attorney General shall stipulate with such special attorneys and counsel the amount of their compensation, which shall not be in excess of the sums appropriated therefor by Congress for such purposes, and shall have supervision of their action: Provided, That the Interstate Commerce Commission and any party or parties in interest to the proceeding before the commission, in which an order or requirement is made, may appear as parties thereto of their own motion and as of right, and be represented by their counsel, in any suit wherein is involved the validity of such order or requirement or any part thereof, and the interest of such party; and the court wherein is pending such suit may make all such rules and orders as to such appearances and representations, the number of counsel, and all matters of procedure, and otherwise, as to subserve the ends of justice and speed the determination of such suits: Provided further, That communities, associations, corporations, firms, and individuals who are interested in the controversy or question before the Interstate Commerce Commission, or in any suit which may be brought by any one under the provisions of this chapter, or the Acts of which it is amendatory or which are amendatory of it, relating to action of the Interstate Commerce Commission, may intervene in said suit or proceedings at any time after the institution thereof; and the Attorney General shall not dispose of or discontinue said suit or proceeding over the objection of such party or intervenor aforesaid, but said intervenor or intervenors may prosecute, defend, or continue said suit or proceeding unaffected by the action or non-action of the Attorney General therein.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 212, 36 Stat. 1150.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 5, 36 Stat. 543.

Complainants may appear and be made parties to case.

Sec. 213. Complainants before the Interstate Commerce Commission interested in a case shall have the right to appear and be made parties to the case and be represented before the courts by counsel, under such regulations as are now permitted in similar circumstances under the rules and practice of equity courts of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 213, 36 Stat. 1151.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 5, 36 Stat. 543.

Pending cases to be transferred to Commerce Court; exception; status of transferred cases.

Sec. 214. Until the opening of the Commerce Court, all cases and proceedings of which from that time the Commerce Court is hereby given exclusive jurisdiction may be brought in the same courts and conducted in like manner and with like effect as is now provided by law; and if any such case or proceeding shall have gone to final judgment or decree before the opening of the Commerce Court, appeal may be taken from such final judgment or decree in like manner and with like effect as is now provided by law. Any such case or proceeding within the jurisdiction of the Commerce Court which may have been begun in any other court as hereby allowed, before the said date, shall be forthwith transferred to the Commerce Court, if it has not yet proceeded to final judgment or decree in such other court unless it has been finally submitted for the decision of such court, in which case the cause shall proceed in such court to final judgment or decree and further proceeding thereafter, and appeal may be taken direct to the Supreme Court; and if remanded, such cause may be sent back to the court from which the appeal was taken or to the Commerce Court for further proceeding as the Supreme Court shall direct. All previous proceedings in such transferred case shall stand and operate notwithstanding the transfer, subject to the same control over them by the Commerce Court and to the same right of subsequent action in the case or proceeding as if the transferred case or proceeding had been originally begun in the Commerce Court. The clerk of the court from which any case or proceeding is so transferred to the Commerce Court shall transmit to and file in the Commerce Court the originals of all papers filed in such case or proceeding and a certified transcript of all record entries in the case or proceeding up to the time of transfer.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 214, 36 Stat. 1151.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 6, 36 Stat. 544.

Number of justices.

Sec. 215. The Supreme Court of the United States shall consist of a Chief Justice of the United States and eight associate justices, any six of whom shall constitute a quorum.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 215, 36 Stat. 1152.
See Rev. St. § 673, Comp. St. 1901, p. 558.

Precedence of the associate justices.

Sec. 216. The associate justices shall have precedence according to the dates of their commissions, or, when the commissions of two or more of them bear the same date, according to their ages.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 216, 36 Stat. 1152.
See Rev. St. § 674, Comp. St. 1901, p. 558.

Vacancy in the office of Chief Justice.

Sec. 217. In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice, or of his inability to perform the duties and powers of his office, they shall devolve upon the associate justice who is first in precedence, until such disability is removed, or another Chief Justice is appointed and duly qualified. This provision shall apply to every associate justice who succeeds to the office of Chief Justice.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 217, 36 Stat. 1152.
See Rev. St. § 675, Comp. St. 1901, p. 558.

Clerk, marshal, and reporter.

Sec. 219. The Supreme Court shall have power to appoint a clerk and a marshal for said court, and a reporter of its decisions.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 219, 36 Stat. 1152.
See Rev. St. § 677, Comp. St. 1901, p. 559.

The clerk to give bond.

Sec. 220. The clerk of the Supreme Court shall, before he enters upon the execution of his office, give bond, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, to the United States, in the sum of not less than five thousand and not more than twenty thousand dollars, to be determined and regulated by the Attorney General, faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, and seasonably to record the decrees, judgments, and determinations of the court. The Supreme Court may at any time, upon the motion of the Attorney General, to be made upon thirty days' notice, require a new bond, or a bond for an increased amount within the limits above prescribed; and the failure of the clerk to execute the same shall vacate his office. All bonds given by the clerk shall, after approval, be recorded in his office, and copies thereof from the records, certified by the clerk under seal of the court, shall be competent evidence in any court. The original bonds shall be filed in the Department of Justice.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 220, 36 Stat. 1152.
See Act Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, § 3, Comp. St. 1901, p. 619.

Deputies of the clerk.

Sec. 221. One or more deputies of the clerk of the Supreme Court may be appointed by the court on the application of the clerk, and may be removed at the pleasure of the court. In case of the death of the clerk, his deputy or deputies shall, unless removed, continue in office and perform the duties of the clerk in his name until a clerk is appointed and qualified; and for the defaults or misfeasances in office of any such deputy, whether in the lifetime of the clerk or after his death, the clerk, and his estate, and the sureties on his official bond shall be liable; and his executor or administrator shall have such remedy for any such defaults or misfeasances committed after his death as the clerk would be entitled to if the same had occurred in his lifetime.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 221, 36 Stat. 1153.
See Rev. St. § 678, Comp. St. 1901, p. 559.

Records of the old court of appeals.

Sec. 222. The records and proceedings of the court of appeals, appointed previous to the adoption of the present Constitution, shall be kept in the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court, who shall give copies thereof to any person requiring and paying for them, in the manner provided by law for giving copies of the records and proceedings of the Supreme Court; and such copies shall have like faith and credit with all other proceedings of said court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 222, 36 Stat. 1153.
See Rev. St. § 679, Comp. St. 1901, p. 559.

Tables of fees.

Sec. 223. The Supreme Court is authorized and empowered to prepare the tables of fees to be charged by the clerk thereof.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 223, 36 Stat. 1153.
See Act March 3, 1883, c. 143, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 650.

Marshal of the Supreme Court.

Sec. 224. The marshal is entitled to receive a salary at the rate of four thousand five hundred dollars a year. He shall attend the court at its sessions; shall serve and execute all process and orders issuing from it, or made by the Chief Justice or an associate justice in pursuance of law; and shall take charge of all property of the United States used by the court or its members. With the approval of the Chief Justice he may appoint assistants and messengers to attend the court, with the compensation allowed to officers of the House of Representatives of similar grade.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 224, 36 Stat. 1153.
See Rev. St. § 680, Comp. St. 1901, p. 560.

Duties of the reporter.

Sec. 225. The reporter shall cause the decisions of the Supreme Court to be printed and published within eight months after they are made; and within the same time he shall deliver three hundred copies of the volumes of said reports to the Attorney General. The reporter shall, in any year when he is so directed by the court, cause to be printed and published a second volume of said decisions, of which he shall deliver a like number of copies in like manner and time.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 225, 36 Stat. 1153.
See Rev. St. § 681, Comp. St. 1901, p. 560.

Reporter's salary and allowances.

Sec. 226. The reporter shall be entitled to receive from the Treasury an annual salary of four thousand five hundred dollars when his report of said decisions constitutes one volume, and an additional sum of one thousand two hundred dollars when, by direction of the court, he causes to be printed and published in any year a second volume; and said reporter shall be annually entitled to clerk hire in the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars, and to office rent, stationery, and contingent expenses in the sum of six hundred dollars: Provided, That the volumes of the decisions of the court heretofore published shall be furnished by the reporter to the public at a sum not exceeding two dollars per volume, and those hereafter published at a sum not exceeding one dollar and seventy-five cents per volume; and the number of volumes now required to be delivered to the Attorney General shall be furnished by the reporter without any charge therefor. Said salary and compensation, respectively, shall be paid only when he causes such decisions to be printed, published, and delivered within the time and in the manner prescribed by law, and upon the condition that the volumes of said reports shall be sold by him to the public for a price not exceeding one dollar and seventy-five cents a volume.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 226, 36 Stat. 1153.
See Act Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 561.

Distribution of reports and digests.

Sec. 227. The Attorney General shall distribute copies of the Supreme Court reports, as follows: To the President, the justices of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Commerce Court, the judges of the Court of Customs Appeals, the judges of the circuit courts of appeals, the judges of the district courts, the judges of the Court of Claims, the judges of the Court of Appeals and of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, the judges of the several Territorial courts, the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of the Interior, the Postmaster General, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, the Solicitor General, the Assistant to the Attorney General, each Assistant Attorney General, each United States district attorney, each Assistant Secretary of each Executive Department, the Assistant Postmasters General, the Secretary of the Senate for the use of the Senate, the Clerk of the House of Representatives for the use of the House of Representatives, the Governors of the Territories, the Solicitor for the Department of State, the Treasurer of the United States, the Solicitor of the Treasury, the Register of the Treasury, the Comptroller of the Treasury, the Comptroller of the Currency, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the Director of the Mint, each of the six Auditors in the Treasury Department, the Judge Advocate General, War Department, the Paymaster General, War Department, the Judge Advocate General, Navy Department, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, the Commissioner of Pensions, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, the Commissioner of Patents, the Commissioner of Education, the Commissioner of Labor, the Commissioner of Navigation, the Commissioner of Corporations, the Commissioner General of Immigration, the Chief of the Bureau of Manufactures, the Director of the Geological Survey, the Director of the Census, the Forester, Department of Agriculture, the Purchasing Agent, Post Office Department, the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Attorney for the District of Columbia, the Naval Academy at Annapolis, the Military Academy at West Point, and the heads of such other executive offices as may be provided by law, of equal grade with any of said offices, each one copy; to the Law Library of the Supreme Court, twenty-five copies; to the Law Library of the Department of the Interior, two copies; to the Law Library of the Department of Justice, two copies; to the Secretary of the Senate for the use of the committees of the Senate, twenty-five copies; to the Clerk of the House of Representatives for the use of the committees of the House, thirty copies; to the Marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, as custodian of the public property used by the court, for the use of the justices thereof in the conference room, robing room, and court room, three copies; to the Secretary of War for the use of the proper courts and officers of the Philippine Islands and for the headquarters of military departments in the United States, twelve copies; and to each of the places where district courts of the United States are now holden, including Hawaii, and Porto Rico, one copy. He shall also distribute one complete set of said reports, and one set of the digests thereof, to such executive officers as are entitled to receive said reports under this section and have not already received them, to each United States judge and to each United States district attorney who has not received a set, to each of the places where district courts are now held to which said reports have not been distributed, and to each of the places at which a district court may hereafter be held, the edition of said reports and digests to be selected by the judge or officer receiving them. No distribution of reports and digests under this section shall be made to any place where the court is held in a building not owned by the United States, unless there be at such place a United States officer to whose responsible custody they can be committed. The clerks of said courts (except the Supreme Court) shall in all cases keep said reports and digest for the use of the courts and of the officers thereof. Such reports and digest shall remain the property of the United States, and shall be preserved by the officers above named and by them turned over to their successors in office.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 227, 36 Stat. 1154.

See Rev. St. § 683, Comp. St. 1901, p. 561; Act Feb. 12, 1889, c. 135, Comp. St. 1901, p. 562; Act July 1, 1902, c. 1355, 32 Stat. 630.

A subsequent provision for distribution of the Supreme Court Reports to the libraries of the circuit courts of appeals, contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, is set forth below.

The usual provision of the annual appropriation acts, mentioned in the note under Act Feb. 12, 1889, c. 135, in Comp. St., 1901, p. 563, that "the printing for the Supreme Court shall be done by the printer it may employ, unless it shall otherwise order," is repeated in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat.

[Distribution of reports to libraries of circuit courts of appeals.]

[Sec. 227a.] * * That the Secretary of the Interior shall hereafter distribute the Supreme Court Reports to the libraries of the United States circuit courts of appeals.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1419.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for payment to the publishers for certain volumes of the decisions of the Supreme Court, in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Under the provisions of the Judicial Code, ante, §§ 225–227, post, § 228, relating to the reports of the Supreme Court, the copies thereof required to be furnished are to be delivered to and distributed by the Attorney-General, instead of the Secretary of the Interior, as in this and other previous provisions.

Additional reports and digests; limitation upon cost; estimates to be submitted to Congress annually.

Sec. 228. The publishers of the decisions of the Supreme Court shall deliver to the Attorney General, in addition to the three hundred copies delivered by the Reporter, such number of copies of each report heretofore published, as the Attorney General may require, for which he shall pay not more than two dollars per volume, and such number of copies of each report hereafter published as he may require, for which he shall pay not more than one dollar and seventy-five cents per volume. The Attorney General shall include in his annual estimates submitted to Congress, an estimate for the current volumes of such reports, and also for the additional sets of reports and digests required for distribution under the section last preceding.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 228, 36 Stat. 1155.

See Act Feb. 12, 1889, c. 135, Comp. St. 1901, p. 562; Act July 1, 1902, c. 1355, 32 Stat. 630.

Distribution of Federal Reporter, etc., and Digests.

Sec. 229. The Attorney General is authorized to procure complete sets of the Federal Reporter or, in his discretion, other publication containing the decisions of the circuit courts of appeals, circuit courts, and district courts, and digests thereof, and also future volumes of the same as issued, and distribute a copy of each such reports and digests to each place where a circuit court of appeals, or a district court, is now or may hereafter regularly be held, and to the Supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims, the court of Customs Appeals, the Commerce Court, the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, the Attorney General, the Solicitor General, the Solicitor of the Treasury, the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior, the Commissioner of Patents, and the Interstate Commerce Commission; and to the Secretary of the Senate, for the use of the Senate, and to the Clerk of the House of Representatives, for the use of the House of Representatives, not more than three sets each. Whenever any such court room, office, or officer shall have a partial or complete set of any such reports, or digests, already purchased or owned by the United States, the Attorney General shall distribute to such court room, office, or officer, only sufficient volumes to make a complete set thereof. No distribution of reports or digests under this section shall be made to any place where the court is held in a building not owned by the United States, unless there be at such place a United States officer to whose responsible custody they can be committed. The clerks of the courts (except the Supreme Court) to which the reports and digests are distributed under this section, shall keep such reports and digests for the use of the courts and the officers thereof. All reports and digests distributed under the provisions of this section shall be and remain the property of the United States and, before distribution, shall be plainly marked on their covers with the words "The Property of the United States," and shall be transmitted by the officers receiving them to their successors in office. Not to exceed two dollars per volume shall be paid for the back and current volumes of the Federal Reporter or other publication purchased under the provisions of this section, and not to exceed five dollars per volume for the digest, the said money to be disbursed under the direction of the Attorney General; and the Attorney General shall include in his annual estimates submitted to Congress, an estimate for the back and current volumes of such reports and digests, the distribution of which is provided for in this section.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 229, 36 Stat. 1155.

Terms.

Sec. 230. The Supreme Court shall hold at the seat of government, one term annually, commencing on the second Monday in October, and such adjourned or special terms as it may find necessary for the dispatch of business.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 230, 36 Stat. 1156.
See Rev. St. § 684, Comp. St. 1901, p. 563.

Adjournment for want of a quorum.

Sec. 231. If, at any session of the Supreme Court, a quorum does not attend on the day appointed for holding it, the justices who do attend may adjourn the court from day to day for twenty days after said appointed time, unless there be sooner a quorum. If a quorum does not attend within said twenty days, the business of the court shall be continued over till the next appointed session; and if, during a term, after a quorum has assembled, less than that number attend on any day, the justices attending may adjourn the court from day to day until there is a quorum, or may adjourn without day.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 231, 36 Stat. 1156.
See Rev. St. § 685, Comp. St. 1901, p. 563.

Certain orders made by less than quorum.

Sec. 232. The justices attending at any term, when less than a quorum is present, may, within the twenty days mentioned in the preceding section, make all necessary orders touching any suit, proceeding, or process, depending in or returned to the court, preparatory to the hearing, trial, or decision thereof.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 232, 36 Stat. 1156.
See Rev. St. § 686, Comp. St. 1901, p. 564.

Original jurisdiction.

Sec. 233. The Supreme Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all controversies of a civil nature where a State is a party, except between a State and its citizens, or between a State and citizens of other States, or aliens, in which latter cases it shall have original, but not exclusive, jurisdiction. And it shall have exclusively all such jurisdiction of suits or proceedings against ambassadors or other public ministers, or their domestics or domestic servants, as a court of law can have consistently with the law of nations; and original, but not exclusive, jurisdiction, of all suits brought by ambassadors, or other public ministers, or in which a consul or vice consul is a party.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 233, 36 Stat. 1156.
See Rev. St. § 687, Comp. St. 1901, p. 565.

Writs of prohibition and mandamus.

Sec. 234. The Supreme Court shall have power to issue writs of prohibition to the district courts, when proceeding as courts of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; and writs of mandamus, in cases warranted by the principles and usages of law, to any courts appointed under the authority of the United States, or to persons holding office under the authority of the United States, where a State, or an ambassador, or other public minister, or a consul, or vice consul is a party.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 234, 36 Stat. 1156.
See Rev. St. § 688, Comp. St. 1901, p. 565.

Issues of fact.

Sec. 235. The trial of issues of fact in the Supreme Court, in all actions at law against citizens of the United States, shall be by jury.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 235, 36 Stat. 1156.
See Rev. St. § 689, Comp. St. 1901, p. 565.

Appellate jurisdiction.

Sec. 236. The Supreme Court shall have appellate jurisdiction in the cases hereinafter specially provided for.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 236, 36 Stat. 1156.
See Rev. St. § 690, Comp. St. 1901, p. 566.

Writs of error from judgments and decrees of State courts.

Sec. 237. A final judgment or decree in any suit in the highest court of a State in which a decision in the suit could be had, where is drawn in question the validity of a treaty or statute of, or an authority exercised under, the United States, and the decision is against their validity; or where is drawn in question the validity of a statute of, or an authority exercised under any State, on the ground of their being repugnant to the Constitution, treaties, or laws of the United States, and the decision is in favor of their validity; or where any title, right, privilege, or immunity is claimed under the Constitution, or any treaty or statute of, or commission held or authority exercised under, the United States, and the decision is against the title, right, privilege, or immunity especially set up or claimed, by either party, under such Constitution, treaty, statute, commission, or authority, may be reexamined and reversed or affirmed in the Supreme Court upon a writ of error. The writ shall have the same effect as if the judgment or decree complained of had been rendered or passed in a court of the United States. The Supreme Court may reverse, modify, or affirm the judgment or decree of such State court, and may, at their discretion, award execution or remand the same to the court from which it was removed by the writ.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 237, 36 Stat. 1156.
See Rev. St. § 709, Comp. St. 1901, p. 575.

Appeals and writs of error from United States district courts.

Sec. 238. Appeals and writs of error may be taken from the district courts, including the United States district court for Hawaii, direct to the Supreme Court in the following cases: In any case in which the jurisdiction of the court is in issue, in which case the question of jurisdiction alone shall be certified to the Supreme Court from the court below for decision; from the final sentences and decrees in prize causes; in any case that involves the construction or application of the Constitution of the United States; in any case in which the constitutionality of any law of the United States, or the validity or construction of any treaty made under its authority is drawn in question; and in any case in which the constitution or law of a State is claimed to be in contravention of the Constitution of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 238, 36 Stat. 1157.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 5, 26 Stat. 827; Act Jan. 20, 1897, c. 68, Comp. St. 1901, p. 549; Act April 30, 1900, c. 339, § 86, 31 Stat. 158; Act March 3, 1909, c. 269, § 1, 35 Stat. 838.

Circuit court of appeals may certify questions to Supreme Court for instructions.

Sec. 239. In any case within its appellate jurisdiction, as defined in section one hundred and twenty-eight, the circuit court of appeals at any time may certify to the Supreme Court of the United States any questions or propositions of law concerning which it desires the instruction of that court for its proper decision; and thereupon the Supreme Court may either give its instruction on the questions and propositions certified to it, which shall be binding upon the circuit court of appeals in such case, or it may require that the whole record and cause be sent up to it for its consideration, and thereupon shall decide the whole matter in controversy in the same manner as if it had been brought there for review by writ of error or appeal.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 239, 36 Stat. 1157.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 6, Comp. St. 1901, p. 549.

Certiorari to circuit court of appeals.

Sec. 240. In any case, civil or criminal, in which the judgment or decree of the circuit court of appeals is made final by the provisions of this Title, it shall be competent for the Supreme Court to require, by certiorari or otherwise, upon the petition of any party thereto, any such case to be certified to the Supreme Court for its review and determination, with the same power and authority in the case as if it had been carried by appeal or writ of error to the Supreme Court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 240, 36 Stat. 1157.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 6, Comp. St. 1901, p. 549.

Appeals and writs of error in other cases.

Sec. 241. In any case in which the judgment or decree of the circuit court of appeals is not made final by the provisions of this Title, there shall be of right an appeal or writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States where the matter in controversy shall exceed one thousand dollars, besides costs.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 241, 36 Stat. 1157.
See Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 6, Comp. St. 1901, p. 549.

Appeals from Court of Claims.

Sec. 242. An appeal to the Supreme Court shall be allowed on behalf of the United States, from all judgments of the Court of Claims adverse to the United States, and on behalf of the plaintiff in any case where the amount in controversy exceeds three thousand dollars, or where his claim is forfeited to the United States by the judgment of said court as provided in section one hundred and seventy-two.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 242, 36 Stat. 1157.
See Rev. St. § 707, Comp. St. 1901, p. 574.

Time and manner of appeals from the Court of Claims.

Sec. 243. All appeals from the Court of Claims shall be taken within ninety days after the judgment is rendered, and shall be allowed under such regulations as the Supreme Court may direct.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 243, 36 Stat. 1157.
See Rev. St. § 708, Comp. St. 1901, p. 575.

Writs of error and appeals from Supreme Court of and United States district court for Porto Rico.

Sec. 244. Writs of error and appeals from the final judgments and decrees of the supreme court of, and the United States district court for, Porto Rico, may be taken and prosecuted to the Supreme Court of the United States, in any case wherein is involved the validity of any copyright, or in which is drawn in question the validity of a treaty or statute of, or authority exercised under, the United States, or wherein the Constitution of the United States, or a treaty thereof, or an Act of Congress is brought in question and the right claimed thereunder is denied, without regard to the sum or value of the matter in dispute; and in all other cases in which the sum or value of the matter in dispute, exclusive of costs, to be ascertained by the oath of either party or of other competent witnesses, exceeds the sum or value of five thousand dollars. Such writs of error and appeals shall be taken within the same time, in the same manner, and under the same regulations as writs of error and appeals are taken to the Supreme Court of the United States from the district courts.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 244, 36 Stat. 1157.
See Act April 12, 1900, c. 191, § 35, 31 Stat. 85.

Writs of error and appeals from the Supreme Courts of Arizona and New Mexico.

Sec. 245. Writs of error and appeals from the final judgments and decrees of the supreme courts of the Territories of Arizona and New Mexico may be taken and prosecuted to the Supreme Court of the United States in any case wherein is involved the validity of any copyright, or in which is drawn in question the validity of a treaty or statute of, or authority exercised under, the United States, without regard to the sum or value of the matter in dispute; and in all other cases in which the sum or value of the matter in dispute, exclusive of costs, to be ascertained by the oath of either party or of other competent witnesses, exceeds the sum or value of five thousand dollars.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 245, 36 Stat. 1158.

Writs of error and appeals from the Supreme Court of Hawaii.

Sec. 246. Writs of error and appeals from the final judgments and decrees of the supreme court of the Territory of Hawaii may be taken and prosecuted to the Supreme Court of the United States, within the same time, in the same manner, under the same regulations, and in the same classes of cases, in which writs of error and appeals from the final judgments and decrees of the highest court of a State in which a decision in the suit could be had, may be taken and prosecuted to the Supreme Court of the United States under the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-seven; and also in all cases wherein the amount involved, exclusive of costs, to be ascertained by the oath of either party or of other competent witnesses, exceeds the sum or value of five thousand dollars.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 246, 36 Stat. 1158.

See Act April 30, 1900, c. 339, § 86, 31 Stat. 158; Act March 3, 1909, c. 269, § 1, 35 Stat. 838.

Appeals and writs of error from the district court for Alaska direct to Supreme Court in certain cases.

Sec. 247. Appeals and writs of error may be taken and prosecuted from final judgments and decrees of the district court for the district of Alaska or for any division thereof, direct to the Supreme Court of the United States, in the following cases: In prize cases; and in all cases which involve the construction or application of the Constitution of the United States, or in which the constitutionality of any law of the United States or the validity or construction of any treaty made under its authority is drawn in question, or in which the constitution or law of a State is claimed to be in contravention of the Constitution of the United States. Such writs of error and appeal shall be taken within the same time, in the same manner, and under the same regulations as writs of error and appeals are taken from the district courts to the Supreme Court.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 247, 36 Stat. 1158.

See Act June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 504, 31 Stat. 414.

Appeals and writs of error from the Supreme Court of the Philippine Islands.

Sec. 248. The Supreme Court of the United States shall have jurisdiction to review, revise, reverse, modify, or affirm the final judgments and decrees of the supreme court of the Philippine Islands in all actions, cases, causes, and proceedings now pending therein or hereafter determined thereby, in which the Constitution, or any statute, treaty, title, right, or privilege of the United States is involved, or in causes in which the value in controversy exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, or in which the title or possession of real estate exceeding in value the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, to be ascertained by the oath of either party or of other competent witnesses, is involved or brought in question; and such final judgments or decrees may and can be reviewed, revised, reversed, modified, or affirmed by said Supreme Court on appeal or writ of error by the party aggrieved, within the same time, in the same manner, under the same regulations, and by the same procedure, as far as applicable, as the final judgments and decrees of the district courts of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, 231, § 248, 36 Stat. 1158.
See Act July 1, 1902, c. 1369, § 10, 32 Stat. 695.

Appeals and writs of error when a Territory becomes a State.

Sec. 249. In all cases where the judgment or decree of any court of a Territory might be reviewed by the Supreme Court on writ of error or appeal, such writ of error or appeal may be taken, within the time and in the manner provided by law, notwithstanding such Territory has, after such judgment or decree, been admitted as a State; and the Supreme Court shall direct the mandate to such court as the nature of the writ of error or appeal requires.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 249, 36 Stat. 1158.
See Rev. St. § 703, Comp. St. 1901, p. 572.

Appeals and writs of error from the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia.

Sec. 250. Any final judgment or decree of the court of appeals of the District of Columbia may be reexamined and affirmed, reversed, or modified by the Supreme Court of the United States, upon writ of error or appeal, in the following cases:

First. In cases in which the jurisdiction of the trial court is in issue; but when any such case is not otherwise reviewable in said Supreme Court, then the question of jurisdiction alone shall be certified to said Supreme Court for decision.

Second. In prize cases.

Third. In cases involving the construction or application of the Constitution of the United States, or the constitutionality of any law of the United States, or the validity or construction of any treaty made under its authority.

Fourth. In cases in which the constitution, or any law of a State, is claimed to be in contravention of the Constitution of the United States.

Fifth. In cases in which the validity of any authority exercised under the United States, or the existence or scope of any power or duty of an officer of the United States is drawn in question.

Sixth. In cases in which the construction of any law of the United States is drawn in question by the defendant.

Except as provided in the next succeeding section, the judgments and decrees of said court of appeals shall be final in all cases arising under the patent laws, the copyright laws, the revenue laws, the criminal laws, and in admiralty cases; and, except as provided in the next succeeding section, the judgments and decrees of said court of appeals shall be final in all cases not reviewable as hereinbefore provided.

Writs of error and appeals shall be taken within the same time, in the same manner, and under the same regulations as writs of error and appeals are taken from the circuit courts of appeals to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 250, 36 Stat. 1159.
See Act Feb. 9, 1893, c. 74, § 8, 27 Stat. 436; Act March 3, 1901, c. 854, § 233, 31 Stat. 1227.

Certiorari to Court of Appeals, District of Columbia.

Sec. 251. In any case in which the judgment or decree of said court of appeals is made final by the section last preceding, it shall be competent for the Supreme Court of the United States to require, by certiorari or otherwise, any such case to be certified to it for its review and determination, with the same power and authority in the case as if it had been carried by writ of error or appeal to said Supreme Court. It shall also be competent for said court of appeals, in any case in which its judgment or decree is made final under the section last preceding, at any time to certify to the Supreme Court of the United States any questions or propositions of law concerning which it desires the instruction of that court for their proper decision; and thereupon the Supreme Court may either give its instruction on the questions and propositions certified to it, which shall be binding upon said court of appeals in such case, or it may require that the whole record and cause be sent up to it for its consideration, and thereupon shall decide the whole matter in controversy in the same manner as if it had been brought there for review by writ of error or appeal.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 251, 36 Stat. 1159.
See Act March 3, 1901, c. 854, § 234, 31 Stat. 1227.

Appellate jurisdiction under the bankruptcy act.

Sec. 252. The Supreme Court of the United States is hereby invested with appellate jurisdiction of controversies arising in bankruptcy proceedings, from the courts of bankruptcy, from which it has appellate jurisdiction in other cases; and shall exercise a like jurisdiction from courts of bankruptcy not within any organized circuit of the United States and from the supreme court of the District of Columbia.

An appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States from any final decision of a court of appeals allowing or rejecting a claim under the laws relating to bankruptcy, [illegible] such rules and within such time as may be prescribed by said Supreme Court, in the following cases and no other:

First. Where the amount in controversy exceeds the sum of two thousand dollars, and the question involved is one which might have been taken on appeal or writ of error from the highest court of a State to the Supreme Court of the United States; or Second. Where some justice of the Supreme Court shall certify that in his opinion the determination of the question involved in the allowance or rejection of such claim is essential to a uniform construction of the laws relating to bankruptcy throughout the United States.

Controversies may be certified to the Supreme Court of the United States from other courts of the United States, and the former court may exercise jurisdiction thereof, and may issue writs of certiorari pursuant to the provisions of the United States laws now in force or such as may be hereafter enacted.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 252, 36 Stat. 1159.
See Act July 1, 1898, c. 541, §§ 24, 25, Comp. St. 1901, p. 3431.

Precedence of writs of error to State courts.

Sec. 253. Cases on writ of error to revise the judgment of a State court in any criminal case shall have precedence on the docket of the Supreme Court, of all cases to which the Government of the United States is not a party, excepting only such cases as the court, in its discretion, may decide to be of public importance.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 253, 36 Stat. 1160.
See Rev. St. § 710, Comp. St. 1901, p. 576.

Cost of printing records.

Sec. 254. There shall be taxed against the losing party in each and every cause pending in the Supreme Court the cost of printing the record in such case, except when the judgment is against the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 254, 36 Stat. 1160.
See Act March 3, 1877, c. 105, § 1, 19 Stat. 344.

Women may be admitted to practice.

Sec. 255. Any woman who shall have been a member of the bar of the highest court of any State or Territory, or of the court of appeals of the District of Columbia, for the space of three years, and shall have maintained a good standing before such court, and who shall be a person of good moral character, shall, on motion, and the production of such record, be admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 255, 36 Stat. 1160.
See Act Feb. 15, 1879, c. 81, Comp. St. 1901, p. 590.

CHAPTER ELEVEN.

Provisions Common to More Than One Court.

Sec.
256. Cases in which jurisdiction of United States courts shall be exclusive of State courts.
257. Oath of United States judges.
258. Judges prohibited from practicing law.
259. Traveling expenses, etc., of circuit justices and circuit and district judges.
260. Salary of judges after resignation.
261. Writs of ne exeat.
262. Power to issue writs.
263. Temporary restraining orders.
264. Injunctions; in what cases judge may grant.
265. Injunctions to stay proceedings in State courts.
266. Injunctions based upon alleged unconstitutionality of State statutes; when and by whom may be granted.
267. When suits in equity may be maintained.
268. Power to administer oaths and punish contempts.
269. New trials.
270. Power to hold to security for the peace and good behavior.
271. Power to enforce awards of foreign consuls, etc., in certain cases.
272. Parties may manage their causes personally or by counsel.
273. Certain officers forbidden to act as attorneys.
274. Penalty for violating preceding section.

Cases in which jurisdiction of United States courts shall be exclusive of State courts.

Sec. 256. The jurisdiction vested in the courts of the United States in the cases and proceedings hereinafter mentioned, shall be exclusive

First. Of all crimes and offenses cognizable under the authority of the United States.

Second. Of all suits for penalties and forfeitures incurred under the laws of the United States.

Third. Of all civil causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; saving to suitors, in all cases, the right of a common-law remedy, where the common law is competent to give it.

Fourth. Of all seizures under the laws of the United States, on land or on waters not within admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; of all prizes brought into the United States; and of all proceedings for the condemnation of property taken as prize.

Fifth. Of all cases arising under the patent-right, or copyright laws of the United States.

Sixth. Of all matters and proceedings in bankruptcy.

Seventh. Of all controversies of a civil nature, where a State is a party, except between a State and its citizens, or between a State and citizens of other States, or aliens.

Eighth. Of all suits and proceedings against ambassadors, or other public ministers, or their domestics, or domestic servants, or against consuls or vice-consuls.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 256, 36 Stat. 1160.
See Rev. St. § 711, Comp. St. 1901, p. 577.

Oath of United States judges.

Sec. 257. The justices of the Supreme Court, the circuit judges, and the district judges, hereafter appointed, shall take the following oath before they proceed to perform the duties of their respective offices: "I, ——— ———, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will administer justice without respect to persons, and do equal right to the poor and to the rich, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as ——— according to the best of my abilities and understanding, agreeably to the Constitution and laws of the United States: So help me God."

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 257, 36 Stat. 1161.
See Rev. St. § 712, Comp. St. 1901, p. 578.

Judges prohibited from practicing law.

Sec. 258. It shall not be lawful for any judge appointed under the authority of the United States to exercise the profession or employment of counsel or attorney, or to be engaged in the practice of the law. Any person offending against the prohibition of this section shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 258, 36 Stat. 1161.
See Rev. St. § 713, Comp. St. 1901, p. 578.

Traveling expenses, etc., of circuit justices and circuit and district judges.

Sec. 259. The circuit justices, the circuit and district judges of the United States, and the judges of the district courts of the United States in Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico, shall each be allowed and paid his necessary expenses of travel, and his reasonable expenses (not to exceed ten dollars per day) actually incurred for maintenance, consequent upon his attending court or transacting other official business in pursuance of law at any place other than his official place of residence, said expenses to be paid by the marshal of the district in which such court is held or official business transacted, upon the written certificate of the justice or judge. The official place of residence of each justice and of each circuit judge while assigned to the Commerce Court shall be at Washington; and the official place of residence of each circuit and district judge, and of each judge of the district courts of the United States in Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico, shall be at that place nearest his actual residence at which either a circuit court of appeals or a district court is regularly held. Every such judge shall, upon his appointment, and from time to time thereafter whenever he may change his official residence, in writing notify the Department of Justice of his official place of residence.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 259, 36 Stat. 1161.

See Rev. St. §§ 596, 597, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 482, 483; Act March 3, 1881, c. 133, Comp. St. 1901, p. 482; Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 551.

Salary of judges after resignation.

Sec. 260. When any judge of any court of the United States appointed to hold his office during good behavior resigns his office, after having held a commission or commissions as judge of any such court or courts at least ten years continuously, and having attained the age of seventy years, he shall, during the residue of his natural life, receive the salary which is payable at the time of his retirement for the office that he held at the time of his resignation.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 260, 36 Stat. 1161.

See Rev. St. § 714, Comp. St. 1901, p. 576; Act Feb. 15, 1909, c. 127, 35 Stat. 619.

Writs of ne exeat.

Sec. 261. Writs of ne exeat may be granted by any justice of the Supreme Court, in cases where they might be granted by the Supreme Court; and by any district judge, in cases where they might be granted by the district court of which he is a judge. But no writ of ne exeat shall be granted unless a suit in equity is commenced, and satisfactory proof is made to the court or judge granting the same that the defendant designs quickly to depart from the United States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 261, 36 Stat. 1162.

See Rev. St. § 717, Comp. St. 1901, p. 580.

Power to issue writs.

Sec. 262. The Supreme Court and the district courts shall have power to issue writs of scire facias. The Supreme Court, the circuit courts of appeals, and the district courts shall have power to issue all writs not specifically provided for by statute, which may be necessary for the exercise of their respective jurisdictions, and agreeable to the usages and principles of law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 262, 36 Stat. 1162.

See Rev. St. § 716, Comp. St. 1901, p. 580.

Temporary restraining orders.

Sec. 263. Whenever notice is given of a motion for an injunction out of a district court, the court or judge thereof may, if there appears to be danger of irreparable injury from delay, grant an order restraining the act sought to be enjoined until the decision upon the motion; and such order may be granted with or without security, in the discretion of the court or judge.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 263, 36 Stat. 1162.

See Rev. St. § 718, Comp. St. 1901, p. 580.

Injunctions; in what cases judge may grant.

Sec. 264. Writs of injunction may be granted by any justice of the Supreme Court in cases where they might be granted by the Supreme Court; and by any judge of a district court in cases where they might be granted by such court. But no justice of the Supreme Court shall hear or allow any application for an injunction or restraining order in any cause pending in the circuit to which he is allotted, elsewhere than within such circuit, or at such place outside of the same as the parties may stipulate in writing, except when it can not be heard by the district judge of the district. In case of the absence from the district of the district judge, or of his disability, any circuit judge of the circuit in which the district is situated may grant an injunction or restraining order in any case pending in the district court, where the same might be granted by the district judge.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 264, 36 Stat. 1162.
See Rev. St. § 719, Comp. St. 1901, p. 581.

Injunctions to stay proceedings in State courts.

Sec. 265. The writ of injunction shall not be granted by any court of the United States to stay proceedings in any court of a State, except in cases where such injunction may be authorized by any law relating to proceedings in bankruptcy.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 265, 36 Stat. 1162.
See Rev. St. § 720, Comp. St. 1901, p. 581.

Injunctions based upon alleged unconstitutionality of State statutes; when and by whom may be granted.

Sec. 266. No interlocutory injunction suspending or restraining the enforcement, operation, or execution of any statute of a State by restraining the action of any officer of such State in the enforcement or execution of such statute, shall be issued or granted by any justice of the Supreme Court, or by any district court of the United States, or by any judge thereof, or by any circuit judge acting as district judge, upon the ground of the unconstitutionality of such statute, unless the application for the same shall be presented to a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, or to a circuit or district judge, and shall be heard and determined by three judges, of whom at least one shall be a justice of the Supreme Court, or a circuit judge, and the other two may be either circuit or district judges, and unless a majority of said three judges shall concur in granting such application. Whenever such application as aforesaid is presented to a justice of the Supreme Court, or to a judge, he shall immediately call to his assistance to hear and determine the application two other judges: Provided, however, That one of such three judges shall be a justice of the Supreme Court, or a circuit judge. Said application shall not be heard or determined before at least five days' notice of the hearing has been given to the governor and to the attorney general of the State, and to such other persons as may be defendants in the suit: Provided, That if of opinion that irreparable loss or damage would result to the complainant unless a temporary restraining order is granted, any justice of the Supreme Court, or any circuit or district judge, may grant such temporary restraining order at any time before such hearing and determination of the application for an interlocutory injunction, but such temporary restraining order shall remain in force only until the hearing and determination of the application for an interlocutory injunction upon notice as aforesaid. The hearing upon such application for an interlocutory injunction shall be given precedence and shall be in every way expedited and be assigned for a hearing at the earliest practicable day after the expiration of the notice hereinbefore provided for. An appeal may be taken direct to the Supreme Court of the United States from the order granting or denying, after notice and hearing, an interlocutory injunction in such case.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 266, 36 Stat. 1162.
See Act June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 17, 36 Stat. 557.

When suits in equity may be maintained.

Sec. 267. Suits in equity shall not be sustained in any court of the United States in any case where a plain, adequate, and complete remedy may be had at law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 267, 36 Stat. 1163.
See Rev. St. § 723, Comp. St. 1901, p. 583.

Power to administer oaths and punish contempts.

Sec. 268. The said courts shall have power to impose and administer all necessary oaths, and to punish, by fine or imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, contempts of their authority: Provided, That such power to punish contempts shall not be construed to extend to any cases except the misbehavior of any person in their presence, or so near thereto as to obstruct the administration of justice, the misbehavior of any of the officers of said courts in their official transactions, and the disobedience or resistance by any such officer, or by any party, juror, witness, or other person to any lawful writ, process, order, rule, decree, or command of the said courts.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 268, 36 Stat. 1163.
See Rev. St. § 725, Comp. St. 1901, p. 583.

New trials.

Sec. 269. All of the said courts shall have power to grant new trials, in cases where there has been a trial by jury, for reasons for which new trials have usually been granted in the courts of law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 269, 36 Stat. 1163.
See Rev. St. § 726, Comp. St. 1901, p. 584.

Power to hold to security for the peace and good behavior.

Sec. 270. The judges of the Supreme Court and of the circuit courts of appeals and district courts, United States commissioners, and the judges and other magistrates of the several States, who are or may be authorized by law to make arrests for offenses against the United States, shall have the like authority to hold to security of the peace and for good behavior, in cases arising under the Constitution and laws of the United States, as may be lawfully exercised by any judge or justice of the peace of the respective States, in cases cognizable before them.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 270, 36 Stat. 1163.
See Rev. St. § 727, Comp. St. 1901, p. 584.

Power to enforce awards of foreign consuls, etc., in certain cases.

Sec. 271. The district courts and the United States commissioners shall have power to carry into effect, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, the award or arbitration or decree of any consul, vice consul, or commercial agent of any foreign nation, made or rendered by virtue of authority conferred on him as such consul, vice consul, or commercial agent, to sit as judge or arbitrator in such differences as may arise between the captains and crews of the vessels belonging to the nation whose interests are committed to his charge, application for the exercise of such power being first made to such court or commissioner, by petition of such consul, vice consul, or commercial agent. And said courts and commissioners may issue all proper remedial process, mesne and final, to carry into full effect such award, arbitration, or decree, and to enforce obedience thereto by imprisonment in the jail or other place of confinement in the district in which the United States may lawfully imprison any person arrested under the authority of the United States, until such award, arbitration, or decree is complied with, or the parties are otherwise discharged therefrom, by the consent in writing of such consul, vice consul, or commercial agent, or his successor in office, or by the authority of the foreign government appointing such consul, vice consul, or commercial agent: Provided, however, That the expenses of the said imprisonment and maintenance of the prisoners, and the cost of the proceedings, shall be borne by such foreign government, or by its consul, vice consul, or commercial agent requiring such imprisonment. The marshals of the United States shall serve all such process, and do all other acts necessary and proper to carry into effect the premises, under the authority of the said courts and commissioners.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 271, 36 Stat. 1163.
See Rev. St. § 728, Comp. St. 1901, p. 584.

Parties may manage their causes personally or by counsel.

Sec. 272. In all the courts of the United States the parties may plead and manage their own causes personally, or by the assistance of such counsel or attorneys at law as, by the rules of the said courts, respectively, are permitted to manage and conduct causes therein.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 272, 36 Stat. 1164.
See Rev. St. § 747, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1164.

Certain officers forbidden to act as attorneys.

Sec. 273. No clerk, or assistant or deputy clerk, of any Territorial, district, or circuit court of appeals, or of the Court of Claims, or of the Supreme Court of the United States, or marshal or deputy marshal of the United States within the district for which he is appointed, shall act as a solicitor, proctor, attorney, or counsel in any cause depending in any of said courts, or in any district for which he is acting as such officer.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 273, 36 Stat. 1164.
See Rev. St. § 748, Comp. St. 1901, p. 590.

Penalty for violating preceding section.

Sec. 274. Whoever shall violate the provisions of the preceding section shall be stricken from the roll of attorneys by the court upon complaint, upon which the respondent shall have due notice and be heard in his defense; and in the case of a marshal or deputy marshal so acting, he shall be recommended by the court for dismissal from office.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 274, 36 Stat. 1164.
See Rev. St. § 749, Comp. St. 1901, p. 591.

CHAPTER TWELVE.

Juries.

Sec.
275. Qualifications and exemptions of jurors.
276. Jurors, how drawn.
277. Jurors, how to be apportioned in the district.
278. Race or color not to exclude.
279. Venire, how issued and served.
280. Talesmen for petit juries.
281. Special juries.
282. Number of grand jurors.
283. Foreman of grand jury.
284. Grand juries, when summoned.
285. Discharge of grand juries.
286. Jurors not to serve more than once a year.
287. Challenges.
288. Persons disqualified for service on jury in prosecutions for polygamy, etc.

Qualifications and exemptions of jurors.

Sec. 275. Jurors to serve in the courts of the United States, in each State respectively, shall have the same qualifications, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, and be entitled to the same exemptions, as jurors of the highest court of law in such State may have and be entitled to at the time when such jurors for service in the courts of the United States are summoned.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 275, 36 Stat. 1164.
See Rev. St. § 800, Comp. St. 1901, p. 623; Act June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 624.

Jurors, how drawn.

Sec. 276. All such jurors, grand and petit, including those summoned during the session of the court, shall be publicly drawn from a box containing, at the time of each drawing, the names of not less than three hundred persons, possessing the qualifications prescribed in the section last preceding, which names shall have been placed therein by the clerk of such court and a commissioner, to be appointed by the judge thereof, or by the judge senior in commission in districts having more than one judge, which commissioner shall be a citizen of good standing, residing in the district in which such court is held, and a well-known member of the principal political party in the district in which the court is held opposing that to which the clerk may belong, the clerk and said commissioner each to place one name in said box alternately, without reference to party affiliations until the whole number required shall be placed therein.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 276, 36 Stat. 1164.
See Act June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 624.

Jurors, how to be apportioned in the district.

Sec. 277. Jurors shall be returned from such parts of the district, from time to time, as the court shall direct, so as to be most favorable to an impartial trial, and so as not to incur an unnecessary expense, or unduly burden the citizens of any part of the district with such service.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 277, 36 Stat. 1164.
See Rev. St. § 802, Comp. St. 1901, p. 625.

Race or color not to exclude.

Sec. 278. No citizen possessing all other qualifications which are or may be prescribed by law shall be disqualified for service as grand or petit juror in any court of the United States on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 278, 36 Stat. 1165.
See Act June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 624.

Venire, how issued and served.

Sec. 279. Writs of venire facias, when directed by the court, shall issue from the clerk's office, and shall be served and returned by the marshal in person, or by his deputy; or, in case the marshal or his deputy is not an indifferent person, or is interested in the event of the cause, by such fit person as may be specially appointed for that purpose by the court, who shall administer to him an oath that he will truly and impartially serve and return the writ. Any person named in such writ who resides elsewhere than at the place at which the court is held, shall be served by the marshal mailing a copy thereof to such person commanding him to attend as a juror at a time and place designated therein, which copy shall be registered and deposited in the post office addressed to such person at his usual post-office address. And the receipt of the person so addressed for such registered copy shall be regarded as personal service of such writ upon such person, and no mileage shall be allowed for the service of such person. The postage and registry fee shall be paid by the marshal and allowed [illegible] settlement of his accounts.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 279, 36 Stat. 1165.
See Rev. St. § 803, Comp. St. 1901, p. 625.

Talesmen for petit juries.

Sec. 280. When, from challenges or otherwise, there is not a petit jury to determine any civil or criminal cause, the marshal or his deputy shall, by order of the court in which such defect of jurors happens, return jurymen from the bystanders sufficient to complete the panel; and when the marshal or his deputy is disqualified as aforesaid, jurors may be so returned by such disinterested person as the court may appoint, and such person shall be sworn, as provided in the preceding section.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 280, 36 Stat. 1165.
See Rev. St. § 804, Comp. St. 1901, p. 625.

Special juries.

Sec. 281. When special juries are ordered in any district court, they shall be returned by the marshal in the same manner and form as is required in such cases by the laws of the several States.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 281, 36 Stat. 1165.
See Rev. St. § 805, Comp. St. 1901, p. 626.

Number of grand jurors.

Sec. 282. Every grand jury impaneled before any district court shall consist of not less than sixteen nor more than twenty-three persons. If of the persons summoned less than sixteen attend, they shall be placed on the grand jury, and the court shall order the marshal to summon, either immediately or for a day fixed, from the body of the district, and not from the bystanders, a sufficient number of persons to complete the grand jury. And whenever a challenge to a grand juror is allowed, and there are not in attendance other jurors sufficient to complete the grand jury, the court shall make a like order to the marshal to summon a sufficient number of persons for that purpose.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 282, 36 Stat. 1165.
See Rev. St. § 808, Comp. St. 1901, p. 626.

Foreman of grand jury.

Sec. 283. From the persons summoned and accepted as grand jurors, the court shall appoint the foreman, who shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the grand jury.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 283, 36 Stat. 1165.
See Rev. St. § 809, Comp. St. 1901, p. 627.

Grand juries, when summoned.

Sec. 284. No grand jury shall be summoned to attend any district court unless the judge thereof, in his own discretion or upon a notification by the district attorney that such jury will be needed, orders a venire to issue therefor. If the United States attorney for any district which has a city or borough containing at least three hundred thousand inhabitants shall certify in writing to the district judge, or the senior district judge of the district, that the exigencies of the public service require it, the judge may, in his discretion, also order a venire to issue for a second grand jury. And said court may in term order a grand jury to be summoned at such time, and to serve such time as it may direct, whenever, in its judgment, it may be proper to do so. But nothing herein shall operate to extend beyond the time permitted by law the imprisonment before indictment found of a person accused of a crime or offense, or the time during which a person so accused may be held under recognizance before indictment found.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 284, 36 Stat. 1165.
See Rev. St. § 810, Comp. St. 1901, p. 627; Act March 28, 1910, c. 134, 36 Stat. 267.

Discharge of grand juries.

Sec. 285. The district courts, the district courts of the Territories, and the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia may discharge their grand juries whenever they deem a continuance of the sessions of such juries unnecessary.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 285, 36 Stat. 1166.
See Rev. St. § 811, Comp. St. 1901, p. 627.

Jurors not to serve more than once a year.

Sec. 286. No person shall serve as a petit juror in any district court more than one term in a year; and it shall be sufficient cause of challenge to any juror called to be sworn in any cause that he has been summoned and attended said court as a juror at any term of said court held within one year prior to the time of such challenge.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 286, 36 Stat. 1166.
See Rev. St. § 812, Comp. St. 1901, p. 627; Act June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 624.

Challenges.

Sec. 287. When the offense charged is treason or a capital offense, the defendant shall be entitled to twenty and the United States to six peremptory challenges. On the trial of any other felony, the defendant shall be entitled to ten and the United States to six peremptory challenges; and in all other cases, civil and criminal, each party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges; and in all cases where there are several defendants or several plaintiffs, the parties on each side shall be deemed a single party for the purposes of all challenges under this section. All challenges, whether to the array or panel, or to individual jurors for cause or favor, shall be tried by the court without the aid of triers.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 287, 36 Stat. 1166.
See Rev. St. § 819, Comp. St. 1901, p. 629.

Persons disqualified for service on jury in prosecutions for polygamy, etc.

Sec. 288. In any prosecution for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation, under any statute of the United States, it shall be sufficient cause of challenge to any person drawn or summoned as a juryman or talesman—

First, that he is or has been living in the practice of bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation with more than one woman, or that he is or has been guilty of an offense punishable either by sections one or three of an Act entitled "An Act to amend section fifty-three hundred and fifty-two of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in reference to bigamy, and for other purposes," approved March twenty-second, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, or by section fifty-three hundred and fifty-two of the Revised Statutes of the United States, or the Act of July first, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled "An Act to punish and prevent the practice of polygamy in the Territories of the United States and other places, and disapproving and annulling certain Acts of the legislative assembly of the territory of Utah"; or Second, that he believes it right for a man to have more than one living and undivorced wife at the same time, or to live in the practice of cohabiting with more than one woman.

Any person appearing or offered as a juror or talesman, and challenged on either of the foregoing grounds, may be questioned on his oath as to the existence of any such cause of challenge; and other evidence may be introduced bearing upon the question raised by such challenge; and this question shall be tried by the court.

But as to the first ground of challenge before mentioned, the person challenged shall not be bound to answer if he shall say upon his oath that he declines on the ground that his answer may tend to criminate himself; and if he shall answer as to said first ground, his answer shall not be given in evidence in any criminal prosecution against him for any offense above named; but if he declines to answer on any ground, he shall be rejected as incompetent.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 288, 36 Stat. 1166.
See Act March 22, 1882, c. 47, § 5, Comp. St. 1901, p. 3634.

292. References to laws revised in this act deemed to refer to sections of act.
293. Sections 1 to 5, Revised Statutes, to govern construction of this act.
294. Laws revised in this act to be construed as continuations of existing laws.
295. Inference of legislative construction not to be drawn by reason of arrangement of sections.
296. Act may be designated as "The Judicial Code."

Circuit courts abolished; records of to be transferred to district courts.

Sec. 289. The circuit courts of the United States, upon the taking effect of this Act, shall be, and hereby are, abolished; and thereupon, on said date, the clerks of said courts shall deliver to the clerks of the district courts of the United States for their respective districts all the journals, dockets, books, files, records, and other books and papers of or belonging to or in any manner connected with said circuit courts; and shall also on said date deliver to the clerks of said district courts all moneys, from whatever source received, then remaining in their hands or under their control as clerks of said circuit courts, or received by them by virtue of their said offices. The journals, dockets, books, files, records, and other books and papers so delivered to the clerks of the several district courts shall be and remain a part of the official records of said district courts, and copies thereof, when certified under the hand and seal of the clerk of the district court, shall be received as evidence equally with the originals thereof; and the clerks of the several district courts shall have the same authority to exercise all the powers and to perform all the duties with respect thereto as the clerks of the several circuit courts had prior to the taking effect of this Act.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167.

Suits pending in circuit courts to be disposed of in district courts.

Sec. 290. All suits and proceedings pending in said circuit courts on the date of the taking effect of this Act, whether originally brought therein or certified thereto from the district courts, shall thereupon and thereafter be proceeded with and disposed of in the district courts in the same manner and with the same effect as if originally begun therein, the record thereof being entered in the records of the circuit courts so transferred as above provided.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 290, 36 Stat. 1167.

Powers and duties of circuit courts imposed upon district courts.

Sec. 291. Wherever, in any law not embraced within this Act, any reference is made to, or any power or duty is conferred or imposed upon, the circuit courts, such reference shall, upon the taking effect of this Act, be deemed and held to refer to, and to confer such power and impose such duty upon, the district courts.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 291, 36 Stat. 1167.

References to laws revised in this act deemed to refer to sections of act.

Sec. 292. Wherever, in any law not contained within this Act, a reference is made to any law revised or embraced herein, such reference, upon the taking effect hereof, shall be construed to refer to the section of this Act into which has been carried or revised the provision of law to which reference is so made.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 292, 36 Stat. 1167.

Sections 1 to 5, Revised Statutes, to govern construction of this act.

Sec. 293. The provisions of sections one to five, both inclusive, of the Revised Statutes, shall apply to and govern the construction of the provisions of this Act. The words "this title," wherever they occur herein, shall be construed to mean this Act.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 293, 36 Stat. 1167.

Rev. St. §§ 1–5, mentioned in this section, containing definitions of certain terms, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 3.

Laws revised in this act to be construed as continuations of existing laws.

Sec. 294. The provisions of this Act, so far as they are substantially the same as existing statutes, shall be construed as continuations thereof, and not as new enactments, and there shall be no implication of a change of intent by reason of a change of words in such statute, unless such change of intent shall be clearly manifest.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 294, 36 Stat. 1167.

Inference of legislative construction not to be drawn by reason of arrangement of sections.

Sec. 295. The arrangement and classification of the several sections of this Act have been made for the purpose of a more convenient and orderly arrangement of the same, and therefore no inference or presumption of a legislative construction is to be drawn by reason of the chapter under which any particular section is placed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 295, 36 Stat. 1167.

Act may be designated as "The Judicial Code."

Sec. 296. This Act may be designated and cited as "The Judicial Code."

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 296, 36 Stat. 1168.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN.

Repealing Provisions.

Sec.
297. Sections, acts, and parts of acts repealed.
298. Repeal not to affect tenure of office, or salary, or compensation of incumbents, etc.
299. Accrued rights, etc., not affected.
300. Offenses committed, and penalties, forfeitures, and liabilities incurred, how to be prosecuted and enforced.
301. Date this act shall be effective.

Sections, acts, and parts of acts repealed.

Sec. 297. The following sections of the Revised Statutes and Acts and parts of Acts are hereby repealed:

Sections five hundred and thirty to five hundred and sixty, both inclusive; sections five hundred and sixty-two to five hundred and sixty-four, both inclusive; sections five hundred and sixty-seven to six hundred and twenty-seven, both inclusive; sections six hundred and twenty-nine to six hundred and forty-seven, both inclusive; sections six hundred and fifty to six hundred and ninety-seven, both inclusive; section six hundred and ninety-nine; sections seven hundred and two to seven hundred and fourteen, both inclusive; sections seven hundred and sixteen to seven hundred and twenty, both inclusive; section seven hundred and twenty-three; sections seven hundred and twenty-five to seven hundred and forty-nine, both inclusive; sections eight hundred to eight hundred and twenty-two, both inclusive; sections ten hundred and forty-nine to ten hundred and eighty-eight, both inclusive; sections ten hundred and ninety-one to ten hundred and ninety-three, both inclusive, of the Revised Statutes.

"An Act to determine the jurisdiction of circuit courts of the United States and to regulate the removal of causes from State courts, and for other purposes," approved March third, eighteen hundred and seventy-five.

Section five of an Act entitled "An Act to amend section fifty-three hundred and fifty-two of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in reference to bigamy, and for other purposes," approved March twenty-second, eighteen hundred and eighty-two; but sections six, seven, and eight of said Act, and sections one, two, and twenty-six of an Act entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to amend section fifty-three hundred and fifty-two of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in reference to bigamy, and for other purposes,' approved March twenty-second, eighteen hundred and eighty-two," approved March third, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, are hereby continued in force.

"An Act to afford assistance and relief to Congress and the executive departments in the investigation of claims and demands against the Government," approved March third, eighteen hundred and eighty-three.

"An Act regulating appeals from the supreme court of the District of Columbia and the supreme courts of the several Territories," approved March third, eighteen hundred and eighty-five.

All Acts and parts of Acts authorizing the appointment of United States circuit or district judges, or creating or changing judicial circuits, or judicial districts or divisions thereof, or fixing or changing the times or places of holding court therein, enacted prior to February first, nineteen hundred and eleven.

Sections one, two, three, four, five, the first paragraph of section six, and section seventeen of an Act entitled "An Act to create a commerce court, and to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to regulate commerce,' approved February fourth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, as heretofore amended, and for other purposes," approved June eighteenth, nineteen hundred and ten.

Also all other Acts and parts of Acts, in so far as they are embraced within and superseded by this Act, are hereby repealed; the remaining portions thereof to be and remain in force with the same effect and to the same extent as if this Act had not been passed.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 297, 36 Stat. 1168.

Repeal not to affect tenure of office, or salary, or compensation of incumbents, etc.

Sec. 298. The repeal of existing laws providing for the appointment of judges and other officers mentioned in this Act, or affecting the organization of the courts, shall not be construed to affect the tenure of office of the incumbents (except the office be abolished), but they shall continue to hold their respective offices during the terms for which appointed, unless removed as provided by law; nor (except the office be abolished) shall such repeal affect the salary or fees or compensation of any officer or person holding office or position by virtue of any law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 298, 36 Stat. 1169.

Accrued rights, etc., not affected.

Sec. 299. The repeal of existing laws, or the amendments thereof, embraced in this Act, shall not affect any act done, or any right accruing or accrued, or any suit or proceeding, including those pending on writ of error, appeal, certificate, or writ of certiorari, in any appellate court referred to or included within, the provisions of this Act, pending at the time of the taking effect of this Act, but all such suits and proceedings, and suits and proceedings for causes arising or acts done prior to such date, may be commenced and prosecuted within the same time, and with the same effect, as if said repeal or amendments had not been made.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 299, 36 Stat. 1169.

Offenses committed, and penalties, forfeitures, and liabilities incurred, how to be prosecuted and enforced.

Sec. 300. All offenses committed, and all penalties, forfeitures, or liabilities incurred prior to the taking effect hereof, under any law embraced in, amended, or repealed by this Act, may be prosecuted and punished, or sued for and recovered, in the district courts, in the same manner and with the same effect as if this Act had not been passed.

Act March 3. 1911, c. 231, § 300, 36 Stat. 1169.

Date this act shall be effective.

Sec. 301. This Act shall take effect and be in force on and after January first, nineteen hundred and twelve.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 301, 36 Stat. 1169.

TITLE XIII.

THE JUDICIARY.

Many sections of this Title of the Revised Statutes, and subsequent acts and parts of acts relating to the subjects thereof, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, ante, Title XII B, and are repealed or superseded thereby. Such repeals, etc., are indicated specifically under the several chapters of this Title.

Acts and parts of acts subsequent to the Compiled Statutes of 1901, relating to subjects included in this Title of the Revised Statutes, but not within the scope of the Judicial Code, are set forth post, under the several chapters of this Title.

CHAPTER ONE.

Judicial Districts.

Secs. 530-550.

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 316-443, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapter 5 thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

All acts and parts of acts creating or changing judicial districts or divisions thereof, or fixing or changing the times or places of holding court therein, enacted prior to Feb. 1, 1911, among them those subsequent to the Revised Statutes included with this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, are also incorporated in the Judicial Code, and are expressly repealed by said § 297 thereof.

CHAPTER TWO.

District Courts—Organization.

Secs. 551-560, 562.

[Repealed. Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 297.]

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 446-454, except section 561 of said chapter, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapter 1 thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Rev. St. § 553 was previously repealed by Act March 3, 1896, c. 52, 29 Stat. 55.

Rev. St. § 561, Comp. St. 1901, p. 454, relating to compensation of deputy clerks, not being within the scope of said Judicial Code, is not incorporated in or repealed by that act.

All acts and parts of acts authorizing the appointment of district judges, enacted prior to Feb. 1, 1911, among them those subsequent to the Revised Statutes included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 446–454, are also incorporated in the Judicial Code, and are expressly repealed by said § 297 thereof.

CHAPTER THREE.

District Courts—Jurisdiction.

Secs. 563, 564, 567-571.

[Repealed. Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 297.]

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 455–463, except sections 565, 566, of said chapter, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapter 2 thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title B, "The Judicial Code."

Rev. St. § 571 was previously repealed by Act Feb. 16, 1889, c. 113, § 5, 25 Stat. 656.

Rev. St. § 565, relating to proceedings in prize causes after appeal, and § 566, relating to trial of issues of fact, not being within the scope of said Judicial Code, are not incorporated in or repealed by that act.

CHAPTER FOUR.

District Courts—Sessions.

Secs. 572-603.

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 464–484, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapters 1, 4, 5, thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

All acts and parts of acts fixing or changing the times or places of holding court in judicial districts, enacted prior to Feb. 1, 1911, among them those subsequent to the Revised Statutes included or referred to in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 464–484, are also incorporated in the Judicial Code and expressly repealed by said § 297 thereof.

CHAPTER FIVE.

Judicial Circuits.

Sec. 604.

This section, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 485, is incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, in chapter 6 thereof, and is expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

CHAPTER SIX.

Circuit Courts—Organization.

Secs. 605-627.

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 486–501, except section 628 of said chapter, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapters 1, 4, 6, thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Rev. St. § 628, providing that no marshal or deputy marshal should hold or exercise the duties of commissioner of any of the courts, not being within the scope of said Judicial Code, is not incorporated in or repealed by that act. It was practically superseded by Act May 28, 1896. c. 252, § 20, Comp. St. 1901, p. 501.

All acts and parts of acts authorizing the appointment of circuit judges enacted prior to Feb. 1, 1911, among them those subsequent to the Revised Statutes included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 487–489, are also incorporated in the Judicial Code, and are expressly repealed by said § 297 thereof.

Sec. 627.

ACT MAY 28, 1896, c. 252, § 19. [As amended 1901.]

United States commissioners.

An official seal for each United States commissioner is provided for by Act June 28, 1906, c. 3573, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 28, 1906, c. 3573. [H. R. 7.]

An Act to Provide a Seal for United States Commissioners. (34 Stat. 546.)

United States commissioners; official seal.

Be it enacted, &c., That each United States commissioner shall provide himself with an official impression seal, to be prescribed by the Attorney-General, which said seal shall be affixed to each jurat or certificate of the official acts of said commissioner, but no increase of fees shall be allowed by reason thereof.

Act June 28, 1906, c. 3573, 34 Stat. 546.

CHAPTER SEVEN.

Circuit Courts—Jurisdiction.

Secs. 629-647, 650-657.

[Repealed. Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 297.]

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 501–529, except sections 648, 649, of said chapter, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapters 2, 3, thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Rev. St. §§ 648, 649, relating to the trial of issues of fact by a jury or by the court, not being within the scope of said Judicial Code, are not incorporated in or repealed by that act.

Act March 3, 1875, c. 137, amended by Act March 3, 1887, c. 373, the enrollment of which is corrected by Act Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, and sections 1–4, 6, 7, of said Act Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, included or referred to in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 507–515, are also incorporated in the Judicial Code and expressly repealed by § 297 thereof.

Act May 17, 1898, c. 339, § 1, included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 516, is incorporated in said Judicial Code, in chapter 2, § 24, par. 25 thereof, and is superseded thereby, although it is not included among the acts and parts of acts specifically repealed by § 297 of said Code; section 2 of the act not being incorporated in the Code.

CHAPTER EIGHT.

Circuit Courts—Sessions.

Secs. 658-672.

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 529–546, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapters 1, 4, 5, thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

All acts and parts of acts fixing or changing the times or places of holding court in particular districts, enacted prior to Feb. 1, 1911, among them those subsequent to the Revised Statutes included or referred to in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 530–541, are also incorporated in the Judicial Code and expressly repealed by said § 297 thereof.

[CHAPTER EIGHT A.]

[Circuit Courts of Appeals.]

ACT MARCH 3, 1891, c. 517, §§ 1-8, 12-15. [As amended 1895, 1897, 1900.]

This act, except the provision of section 9 relating to compensation of officers and sections 10 and 11, and all the acts amendatory thereof, and other acts and parts of acts relating to the circuit courts of appeals, included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 546–557, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapter 6 thereof, and are superseded thereby, although not included among the acts and parts of acts specifically repealed by § 297 thereof. Said Code is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Act April 14, 1906, c. 1627, 34 Stat. 116, amending section 7 of this act, is also incorporated in said Judicial Code, § 126, and is expressly repealed by § 297 thereof.

Subsequent acts and parts of acts fixing or changing the times or places of holding terms of the circuit courts of appeals, are also superseded by said Judicial Code, § 126.

ACT JAN. 20, 1897, c. 68.

[Repealed. Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 297.]

This act, included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 556, is incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, and is expressly repealed by § 297 thereof. Said Code is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

CHAPTER NINE.

Supreme Court—Organization.

Secs. 673-683.

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 557–562, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, in chapter 10 thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Act Feb. 12, 1889, c. 135, amending Rev. St. § 683, and included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 562, is also incorporated in said Judicial Code, and repealed by the express repeal of said amended section.

CHAPTER TEN.

Supreme Court—Sessions.

Secs. 684-686.

[Repealed. Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 297.]

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 563, 564, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, in chapter 10 thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

CHAPTER ELEVEN.

Supreme Court—Jurisdiction.

Secs. 687-697, 699, 702-710.

[Repealed. Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 297.]

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 564–576, except sections 698, 700, 701 of said chapter, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, in chapter 10 thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Rev. St. § 691 was previously repealed by Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 14, Comp. St. 1901, p. 553.

Rev. St. § 698, relating to transcripts of records on appeals, § 700, relating to the review of cases tried without a jury, and § 701, relating to the judgment or decree on review of judgments, etc., of inferior courts, not being within the scope of said Judicial Code, are not incorporated in or repealed by that act. Said section 701 is set forth below.

Act March 3, 1885, c. 355, included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 571, is also incorporated in the Judicial Code and expressly repealed by § 297 thereof.

Act Feb. 6, 1889, c. 113, § 6, Act Feb. 9, 1893, c. 74, § 8, and Act March 3, 1897, c. 390, also included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 569, 573, 574, are incorporated in said Judicial Code, and are superseded thereby, although they are not included among the acts and parts of acts specifically repealed by § 297 of said Code.

Sec. 701.

Judgment or decree on review.

The Supreme Court may affirm, modify, or reverse any judgment, decree, or order of a circuit court, or district court acting as a circuit court, or of a district court in prize causes, lawfully brought before it for review, or may direct such judgment, decree, or order to be rendered, or such further proceedings to be had by the inferior court, as the justice of the case may require. The Supreme Court shall not issue execution in a cause removed before it from such courts, but shall send a special mandate to the inferior court to award execution thereupon.

Act Sept. 24, 1789, c. 20, § 24, 1 Stat. 85. Act March 3, 1803, c. 40, § 2, 2 Stat. 244. Act June 30, 1864, c. 174, § 13, 13 Stat. 310. Act June 1, 1872, c. 255, § 2, 17 Stat. 196.

This section is superseded to a great extent by the provisions for remand of cases on determination on appeal, etc., by the Supreme Court or by a circuit court of appeals, contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 517, § 10, Comp. St. 1901, p. 552; but the last sentence of the section may be regarded as still in force, and applicable, by virtue of section 11 of said Act March 3, 1891, Comp. St. 1901, p. 552, to cases reviewed in the circuit courts of appeals, so as to require the issue by such a court of a special mandate to an inferior court to award execution.

CHAPTER TWELVE.

Provisions Common to More Than One Court or Judge.

Secs. 711-714, 716-720, 723, 725-749.

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 576–591, except sections 715, 721, 722, 724 of said chapter, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapters 4, 11, thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Rev. St. § 715, relating to criers of the courts and attendants on juries, etc., § 721, making the laws of the states rules of decision in trials at common law, § 722, relating to proceedings in vindication of civil rights, and § 724, authorizing the courts to require parties to produce books and writings in actions at law, not being within the scope of said Judicial Code, are not incorporated in or repealed by that act.

Act Feb. 15, 1879, c. 81, included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 590, which authorized the admission of women to practice before the Supreme Court, is incorporated in said Judicial Code, in section 255 thereof, and is superseded thereby.

The provisions of Act March 3, 1887, §§ 2, 3, included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 582, which relate to management of property by and suits against receivers, and of § 7 of that act, Comp. St. 1901, p. 579, which forbids the appointment or employment in the courts of relatives of judges thereof, are incorporated in said Judicial Code, in sections 65, 66, 67 thereof, and are superseded thereby.

Act March 3, 1897, c. 395, included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 589, prescribing the districts in which suits for infringement of patents may be brought, is incorporated in said Judicial Code, in section 48 thereof, and is superseded thereby.

The other acts and parts of acts included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, being Act June 1, 1874, c. 200, Act March 3, 1879, c. 183, Act March 2, 1895, c. 189, and Act July 1, 1898, c. 546, § 1, not being within the scope of said Judicial Code, are not incorporated in or repealed by that act.

Sec. 715.

Criers of the courts; attendants on juries.

The pay of persons employed in any court under this section is increased to three dollars a day by Act March 3, 1905, c. 1487, set forth below.

The provisions of Act March 2, 1895, c. 189, that all persons employed under this section shall be deemed to be in actual attendance when they attend upon the order of the courts, and that no such person shall be employed during vacation, set forth following this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 580, are repeated in the sundry civil appropriation acts for the subsequent years, and in several deficiency appropriation acts. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1427.

The appropriation in the recent acts to which these provisos are annexed is "for pay of bailiffs and criers, not exceeding three bailiffs and one crier in each court, except in the southern district of New York and the northern district of Illinois."

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1487. [S. 2207.]

An Act to Fix the Compensation of Criers and Bailiffs in the United States Courts. (33 Stat. 1259.)

Compensation of criers and attendants.

Be it enacted, &c., That on and after the passage of this Act the per diem pay of all persons employed in any court of the United States under section seven hundred and fifteen of the Revised Statutes, now fixed by law at two dollars a day, shall be three dollars a day.

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1487, 33 Stat. 1259.

Rev. St. § 715, mentioned in this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 579.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN.

Habeas Corpus.

Sec. 764. [As amended 1885.]

Appeals to Supreme Court.

The right of appeal to the Supreme Court in certain habeas corpus proceedings is restricted by Act March 10, 1908, c. 76, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 10, 1908, c. 76. [H. R. 4777.]

An Act Restricting in Certain Cases the Right of Appeal to the Supreme Court in Habeas Corpus Proceedings. (35 Stat. 40.)

Appeal to Supreme Court in proceedings where detention is under process of state court; probable cause for allowance of writ.

Be it enacted, &c., That from a final decision by a court of the United States in a proceeding in habeas corpus where the detention complained of is by virtue of process issued out of a State court no appeal to the Supreme Court shall be allowed unless the United States court by which the final decision was rendered or a justice of the Supreme Court shall be of opinion that there exists probable cause for an appeal, in which event, on allowing the same, the said court or justice shall certify that there is probable cause for such allowance.

Act March 10, 1908, c. 76, 35 Stat. 40.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN.

District Attorneys, Marshals, and Clerks.

Sec. 770.

Salaries of district attorneys.

The provision of this section relating to the salary of the district attorney for the southern district of New York, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 600, being the only portion of the section not superseded by Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 7, Comp. St. 1901, p. 611, is superseded by the provision for the salary of such district attorney of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, set forth with other provisions relating to salaries of district attorneys for particular districts, post, following Rev. St. § 793.

District attorneys, except in the District of Columbia, are not to receive fees of office in addition to salary, by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, set forth post, under chapter 16 of this Title.

An annual appropriation for fees of the district attorney for the District of Columbia is made by the sundry civil appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

The limitation of the compensation of assistant district attorneys to not exceeding $2,500 per annum, by Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 613, is not to apply to the first assistant district attorney for the northern district of Illinois, by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, set forth post, following Rev. St. § 793. Such limitation is also not to apply to the assistants of the United States district attorney for the southern district of New York, or for the District of Columbia, by a proviso annexed to section 24 of said Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 618. And all laws fixing the annual salaries of assistants in the office of the district attorney for the southern district of New York are made applicable as fixing the annual salaries of the assistants in the office of the district attorney for the northern district of Illinois, by a provision of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, set forth post, following Rev. St. § 793. The amounts which the district attorney for the District of Columbia shall pay to his deputies or assistants, and for other expenses, out of the fees of his office, are limited by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, set forth post, following Rev. St. § 793.

Annual appropriations for salaries of district attorneys and expenses of district attorneys and their regular assistants, and for payment of regular assistants to district attorneys, who are appointed by the Attorney General, at a fixed compensation, and also for assistants employed by the Attorney General to aid in special cases, are made separately by the sundry civil appropriation acts. These appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are made by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426. A special provision of that act accompanying the appropriation for assistants employed in special cases, making it available for foreign counsel, is set forth in the note to Rev. St. § 363, ante, under Title VIII, "The Department of Justice."

Provisions for allowance and payment of expenses of district attorneys and their assistants, when absent from their official residences on official business, contained in Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, are set forth post, under Rev. St. § 793.

Sec. 771.

Duties of district attorneys.

District attorneys are required to prosecute suits by the United States for penalties for violations of the provisions of Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, relating to importation of aliens under contract to labor, by section 5 of that act, post, under Title XXIX, "Immigration," subtitle "Regulation and Restriction of Immigration in General."

District attorneys are required to institute proceedings to cancel naturalization certificates fraudulently or illegally procured, by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 15, set forth post, under Title XXX, "Naturalization."

District attorneys are required to prosecute for the recovery of forfeitures provided for violations of the act to regulate commerce, Act Feb. 4, 1887, c. 104, as amended by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3591, by a provision of section 16 of said Act Feb. 4, 1887, c. 104, as amended by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3591, § 5, set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 1.

District attorneys are required to commence and prosecute proceedings for enforcement of penalties for violations of the pure food act, Act June 30, 1906, c. 3915, by section 5 of that act, set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 3.

District attorneys are required to prosecute persons violating the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War for the use of canals authorized by Act Aug. 18, 1894, c. 299, § 4, Comp. St. 1901, p. 3525, and by Act June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 11, post, under Title LXIII, "Rivers and Harbors," and the regulations prescribed for drawbridges authorized by Act Aug. 18, 1894, c. 299, § 5, Comp. St. 1901, p. 3538, by Act June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 6, post, under Title LXIII, "Rivers and Harbors."

Sec. 773.

[Amended. Act April 9, 1910, c. 152.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 603, is amended by Act April 9, 1910, to read as set forth below.

ACT APRIL 9, 1910, c. 152. [H. R. 19285.]

An Act to Amend Section Seven hundred and seventy-three of the Revised Statutes. (36 Stat. 294.)

Amendment of Rev. St. § 773.

Be it enacted, &c., That section seven hundred and seventy-three of the Revised Statutes be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Returns of district attorneys to Solicitor of the Treasury.

"Sec. 773. It shall be the duty of the United States district attorneys to make and forward to the Solicitor of the Treasury, for his information and the purposes of a permanent record, such reports relating to suits in which the United States is a party as may be required by the Solicitor of the Treasury with the approval of the Attorney-General."

Act April 9, 1910, c. 152, 36 Stat. 294.

Rev. St. § 773, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 603.

Sec. 775.

Reports by district attorney to Department of Justice.

District attorneys are required to report to the Attorney General the action taken by them against persons violating the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War for the use of canals, drawbridges, etc., by Act June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 6, post, under Title LXIII, "Rivers and Harbors."

Sec. 787.

Duties of marshal.

Certain services to the Court of Customs Appeals and to the Commerce Court, outside of the District of Columbia, are required to be rendered by the marshals of the several districts, by Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, §§ 190, 193, 204, 209, set forth ante, under Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

It is made the duty of all marshals and deputy marshals to assist in the enforcement of Act June 7, 1902, c. 1037, for the protection of game in Alaska, as amended by Act May 11, 1908, c. 162, and they are authorized to make arrests, seizures, etc., for violations thereof, by provisions of section 7 of said act as so amended, 35 Stat. 105.

Sec. 793.

ACT MAY 28, 1896, c. 252, §§ 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13.

Salaries of district attorneys; particular districts.

The salary of the district attorney for the southern district of New York, which was not fixed by section 7 of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 611, is $10,000 per annum, by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, set forth below; and this provision is made applicable as fixing the salary of the district attorney for the northern district of Illinois, by a provision of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, also set forth below.

The salaries of the district attorneys for the district of Idaho and the southern district of California, fixed at $3,000 and $3,500, respectively, by section 7 of this act, are fixed at $4,000, by a provision of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, set forth below.

The salary of the district attorney for the eastern district of Pennsylvania, fixed at $4,500 by section 7 of this act, is fixed at $6,000 by a provision of Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, set forth below.

Instead of the salary of $5,000 for the district attorney for the district of Oklahoma, provided by section 7 of this act, the salaries of the district attorneys for the eastern district and western district of Oklahoma are fixed at $4,000, by Act March 3, 1909, c. 269, § 21, set forth below.

Each district attorney of any Texas district after July 1, 1910, is to receive a salary of $4,000, by Act June 25, 1910, c. 397, set forth below.

The salary of the United States attorney for the district of New Jersey, fixed at $3,000 by section 7 of this act, is $5,000, beginning July 1, 1911, and the salary of the United States attorney for the district of Nevada, also fixed at $3,000 by said section, is $4,000, after the beginning of the fiscal year 1912, by provisions of Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, set forth below.

Assistant district attorneys; expenses of district attorney and assistants; official residence.

The provision of section 8 of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 613, limiting the compensation of assistant district attorneys to not exceeding $2,500 per annum, is not to apply to the first assistant district attorney for the northern district of Illinois, by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, set forth below. And all laws fixing the annual salaries of assistants in the office of the district attorney for the southern district of New York are made applicable as fixing the annual salaries of assistants in the office of the district attorney for the northern district of Illinois, by a provision of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, also set forth below. A provision relating to the salary of the first assistant to the district attorney for the eastern district of Pennsylvania, contained in Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, is also set forth below.

The amount which the district attorney for the District of Columbia shall pay to his deputies or assistants, out of the fees of his office, is limited by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, set forth below.

Annual appropriations for payment of regular assistants to district attorneys, who are appointed by the Attorney General, at a fixed annual compensation, and for their expenses, are made by the sundry civil appropriation acts. These appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are made by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

Further appropriations are also made by the same acts for payment of assistants to district attorneys employed by the Attorney General to aid in special cases, as is authorized by Rev. St. §§ 363–366, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 208, 209. See note to Rev. St. § 363, ante, under Title VIII, "The Department of Justice."

A proviso annexed to the appropriation, in each of the recent sundry civil appropriation acts, for [illegible]rict attorneys and expenses of district attorneys and their regular assistants, makes the appropriation available for the payment of the salaries of regularly appointed clerks to district attorneys for services rendered during vacancy in the office of district attorney. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

A further proviso, relating to the payment, from such appropriations, of clerks and messengers in the office of the district attorney for the southern district of New York, and of his office expenses, annexed to the appropriation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, by Act June 30, 1906, c. 3014, § 1, is set forth below. A provision for allowance and payment of expenses of the district attorney for the southern district of New York and his assistants while absent from their official residences on official business, in the same manner and from the same appropriation as similar expenses in other judicial districts, contained in Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, and a subsequent provision for allowance and payment of such expenses of district [illegible] their assistants in general, contained in Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, are also set forth below.

Salaries of marshals; particular districts.

The salary of the marshal for the district of Nebraska, fixed at $3,500 by section 9 of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 613, is $4,000, by Act Feb. 27, 1907, c. 2073, § 13, set forth below.

Instead of the salary of $5,000 for the marshal for the district of Oklahoma, provided by section 9 of this act, the salaries of the marshals for the eastern district and the western district of Oklahoma are fixed at $4,000, by Act March 3, 1909, c. 269, § 21, set forth below.

Each marshal of any Texas district, after July 1, 1910, is to receive a salary of $4,000, by Act June 25, 1910, c. 397, set forth below.

The salary of the marshal for the eastern district of Louisiana, fixed at $3,000 by section 9 of this act, is $4,000, by Act June 25, 1910, c. 411, set forth below.

Marshals; office deputies and clerks; expenses of deputies.

Section 10 of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 615, is expressly amended by Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 161, set forth below, by striking out, in the provision limiting the amount to be allowed for expenses of deputies to "not to exceed two dollars per day," the word "two," and inserting in place thereof the word "three."

Marshals' field deputies; expenses of deputies.

Section 11 of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 615, is expressly amended by Act March 4, 1911, c. 269, set forth below.

Expense accounts of district attorneys and their assistants, and of marshals and their deputies.

Subsequent provisions relating to accounts for expenses of district attorneys and assistant district attorneys, and the allowance and payment of such accounts, contained in Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, are set forth below.

Marshals and chief deputy marshals are authorized to administer oaths to deputies and others presenting claims and accounts, by Act Feb. 21, 1911, c. 144, set forth below.

Recent appropriations, in the sundry civil appropriation acts, for salaries, fees, and expenses of marshals and their deputies, are accompanied by a provision that advances to marshals may be made from the proper appropriations immediately upon the passage of the act, but that no disbursements shall be made prior to July 1st, beginning the fiscal year, from the funds thus advanced, or to liquidate expenses for preceding fiscal years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1.

Limitation of compensation not to apply to first assistant district attorney for northern district of Illinois.

* * That the provisions of section eight of the legislative appropriation Act approved May twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, limiting the compensation of United States assistant district attorney to not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, shall not apply to the first assistant district attorney for the northern district of Illinois.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1141.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for payment of assistants to district attorneys, in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

All laws fixing the annual salaries of assistants in the office of the district attorney for the southern district of New York are made applicable as fixing the annual salaries of assistants in the office of the district attorney for the northern district of Illinois, by a provision of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1. [H. R. 18969.]

Salary of district attorney for southern district of New York.

* * The District Attorney for the southern district of New York shall hereafter receive a salary of ten thousand dollars per annum.

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1207.

This is a provision accompanying appropriations for salaries and expenses of district attorneys in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above. It supersedes the provision for a salary of $6,000 to said district attorney contained in Rev. St. § 770, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 600.

All laws fixing the annual salary of the district attorney for the southern district of New York are made applicable as fixing the annual salary of the district attorney for the northern district of Illinois, by a provision of Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, set forth below.

Salaries of marshals for district of Idaho and southern district of California.

For payment of salaries, fees, and expenses of United States marshals and their deputies * * dollars, to include payment for services rendered in behalf of the United States or otherwise; and the annual salaries of the United States marshals for the district of Idaho and the southern district of California are hereby fixed at four thousand dollars, respectively. Advances to United States marshals, in accordance with existing law, may be made from the proper appropriations, as herein provided, immediately upon the passage of this Act; but no disbursements shall be made prior to July first, nineteen hundred and six, by said disbursing officers from the funds thus advanced, and no disbursements shall be made therefrom to liquidate expenses for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and six or prior years.

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 753.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

Salaries of district attorneys for district of Idaho and southern district of California; clerks and messengers in office of district attorney for southern district of New York.

For salaries of United States district attorneys and expenses of United States district attorneys and their regular assistants, * * dollars; and the annual salaries of the United States district attorneys for the district of Idaho and the southern district of California are hereby fixed at four thousand dollars, respectively: Provided, That this appropriation shall be available for the payment of the salaries of regularly appointed clerks to United States district attorneys for services rendered during vacancy in the offices of the United States district attorney: Provided further, That clerks and messengers in the office of the United States district attorney for the southern district of New York shall hereafter be paid from this appropriation and subsequent appropriations for salaries and expenses of district attorneys, by the disbursing clerk of the Department of Justice, in such number and at such salaries as may be fixed by the Attorney-General, and that such office expenses of said district attorney as may be approved by the Attorney-General shall also be paid in the same manner and from the same appropriations as similar expenses in other judicial districts, notwithstanding the provisions of section eight hundred and thirty-six, Revised Statutes.

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 753.

This is a further provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

The first proviso, as set forth here, relating to "this appropriation" only, is annexed to the similar appropriations in all the recent sundry civil appropriation acts. See, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

Rev. St. § 836, mentioned in the second proviso, relating to the payment of the office expenses of the district attorney for the southern district of New York, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 644.

ACT FEB. 27, 1907, c. 2073, § 13. [S. 2769.]

Salary of marshal for district of Nebraska.

That from and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and seven, the salary of the marshal for the district of Nebraska shall be four thousand dollars per annum.

Act Feb. 27, 1907, c. 2073, § 13, 34 Stat. 1000.

ACT MARCH 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1. [H. R. 25745.]

Salaries of district attorney for northern district of Illinois and assistants.

All laws fixing the annual salaries of the United States attorney for the southern district of New York, and of assistants in his office, shall hereafter apply in all respects to and be construed as fixing the annual salaries of the United States attorney for the northern district of Illinois, and of assistants in his office.

Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1360.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Traveling expenses of district attorney for southern district of New York and his assistants.

The necessary expenses for lodging and subsistence actually paid, not exceeding four dollars per day, and actual necessary traveling expenses of the district attorney for the southern district of New York and his assistants, while absent from their respective official residences and necessarily employed in going to, returning from, and attending before any United States court, commissioner, or other committing magistrate, and while otherwise necessarily absent from their respective official residences on official business, shall be allowed and paid in the same manner and from the same appropriation as similar expenses in other judicial districts.

Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1360.

This is a further provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

A subsequent general provision relating to the allowance and payment of expenses of district attorneys and their assistants, contained in Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, is set forth below.

ACT MAY 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1. [H. R. 21260.]

Salaries of district attorney for eastern district of Pennsylvania and his first assistant.

* * The annual salary of the United States attorney for the eastern district of Pennsylvania shall be, after the beginning of the fiscal year nineteen hundred and nine, six thousand dollars; and the annual salary of his first assistant shall be, after the beginning of the fiscal year nineteen hundred and nine, such sum as the Attorney General shall from time to time fix and determine, not to exceed four thousand dollars.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 375.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Traveling expenses of district attorneys and their assistants; accounts therefor, and allowance and payment thereof.

The necessary expenses for lodging and subsistence actually paid, not exceeding four dollars per day and actual and necessary traveling expenses of the United States district attorneys and their assistants, while absent from their respective official residences and necessarily employed in going to, returning from, and attending before any United States court, commissioner, or other committing magistrate, and while otherwise necessarily absent from their respective official residences on official business shall be allowed and paid in the following manner: That the accounts of the United States attorneys and assistant United States attorneys for expenses herein provided for shall be made out monthly in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Attorney-General. And when said expense accounts are made out, as hereinbefore provided, and verified on oath before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, they shall be submitted to and examined by one of the judges of the circuit court or district court of the district for which said United States attorney or assistant United States attorney was appointed, and when approved by said judge, may be allowed and paid by the United States marshal for said district, and the amount of such payments shall be included in said marshal's accounts with the United States, and audited and allowed as now provided by law.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 375.

This is a further provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

ACT FEB. 19, 1909, c. 161. [H. R. 16274.]

An Act to Amend Section Ten of Chapter Two Hundred and Fifty-Two, Volume Twenty-Nine, of Public Statutes at Large. (35 Stat. 640.)

Amendment of Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 10.

Be it enacted, &c., That section ten of chapter two hundred and fifty-two, volume twenty-nine, Public Statutes at Large, is hereby amended by striking out in the twelfth line of said section the word "two" and inserting in place thereof the word "three," so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

Marshals' office deputies and clerks; expenses of deputies.

"Sec. 10. That when in the opinion of the Attorney-General the public interest requires it, he may, on the recommendation of the marshal, which recommendation shall state the facts as distinguished from conclusions, showing necessity for the same, allow the marshals to employ necessary office deputies and clerical assistance, upon salaries to be fixed by the Attorney-General, from time to time, and paid as hereinafter provided. When any of such office deputies is engaged in the service of any writ, process, subpoena, or other order of the court, or when necessarily absent from the place of his regular employment, on official business, he shall be allowed his actual traveling expenses only, and his necessary and actual expenses for lodging and subsistence, not to exceed three dollars per day, and the necessary actual expenses in transporting prisoners, including necessary guard hire; and he shall make and render accounts thereof as hereinafter provided."

Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 161, 35 Stat. 640.

Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 10, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 615. The amendment consists in striking out, in the provision limiting the amount to be allowed for expenses of deputies, as originally enacted, to "not to exceed two dollars per day," the word "two," and inserting in place thereof the word "three," as set forth here.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 269, § 21. [H. R. 21896.]

Salaries of district attorneys and marshals for eastern district and western district of Oklahoma.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 269. [H. R. 25192.]

An Act to Amend Section Eleven, Act of May Twenty-eighth, Eighteen hundred and ninety-six. (36 Stat. 1355.)

Amendment of Act May 28, 1896, c. 292, § 11.

Be it enacted, &c., That section eleven of the Act making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, approved May twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Marshals' field deputies; expenses of deputies.

"Sec. 11. That at any time when, in the opinion of the marshal of any district, the public interest will thereby be promoted, he may appoint one or more deputy marshals for such district, who shall be known as field deputies, and, who, unless sooner removed by the district court as now provided by law, shall hold office during the pleasure of the marshal, except as hereinafter provided, and who shall each, as his compensation, receive the gross fees, including mileage, as provided by law, earned by him, not to exceed one thousand five hundred dollars per fiscal year, or at that rate for any part of a fiscal year; and in addition shall be allowed his actual necessary expenses, not exceeding two dollars a day, while endeavoring to arrest, under process, a person charged with or convicted of crime: Provided, That a field deputy may elect to receive actual expenses on any trip in lieu of mileage: Provided further, That in special cases, where in his judgment justice requires, the Attorney-General may make an additional allowance, not, however, in any case to make the aggregate annual compensation of any field deputy in excess of two thousand five hundred dollars nor more than the gross fees earned by such field deputy. The marshal, immediately after making any appointment or appointments under this section, shall report the same to the Attorney-General, stating the facts as distinguished from conclusions constituting the reason for such appointment, and the Attorney-General may at any time cancel any such appointment as the public interest may require."

Time of taking effect of act.

This Act to take effect from and after July first, nineteen hundred and eleven.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 269, 36 Stat. 1355.

Act May 28, 1896, c. 292, § 11, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 615.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1. [H. R. 32909.]

Salaries of district attorneys for district of New Jersey and district of Nevada.

* * That beginning July first, nineteen hundred and eleven, the salary of the United States attorney for the district of New Jersey shall be five thousand dollars per annum: And provided further, That the annual salary of the United States attorney for the district of Nevada shall be, after the beginning of the fiscal year nineteen hundred and twelve, four thousand dollars.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

These are provisos annexed to the appropriation for salaries, etc., of district attorneys, etc., in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Limitation of amounts of payments by district attorney for District of Columbia to deputies, etc., and for expenses, out of fees of office.

The United States district attorney for the District of Columbia shall hereafter pay to his deputies or assistants not exceeding in all twelve thousand dollars per annum; also his clerical and messenger hire, not exceeding eight thousand nine hundred and forty dollars; office rent, fuel, stationery, printing, and other incidental expenses, not exceeding two thousand dollars, out of the fees of his office: Provided, That no expenses other than those above specified shall be allowed.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

This is a further provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Sec. 798.

Account of payments and moneys in court to be stated by the clerk.

Besides the provisions of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 621, for accounts by clerks to the courts of moneys in court, the Attorney General is directed to require the clerks of the courts to report and account for all moneys received by them in their official capacity, and to prescribe the keeping of dockets by them for recording, reporting, and accounting for such moneys and for recording all fees and emoluments earned by them, by provisions of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, set forth below.

An annual appropriation for the investigation of official acts, records, and accounts of marshals, attorneys, clerks of the courts, and United States commissioners, and the examination for that purpose of their records and dockets by agents of the Attorney General, is made by the sundry civil appropriation acts, substantially as set forth in the note under Rev. St. § 846, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 648. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1424.

Reports and accounts by clerks for moneys received; dockets for recording moneys received and fees and emoluments.

That the Attorney-General shall hereafter, under rules and regulations prescribed by him, require the clerks of the United States circuit and district courts, clerks of the Territorial courts, clerks of the United States courts for the Indian Territory, and the clerks of the United States courts in Alaska to report and account for all moneys received by them on account of or as security for fees and costs, and to report and account for all amounts collected or received by them on behalf of the United States on account of judgments, fines, forfeitures, penalties, and costs. The Attorney-General shall also hereafter require such clerks to report and account for any other moneys received by them in their official capacity, whether on behalf of the United States or otherwise, and the Attorney-General shall hereafter prescribe such docket or dockets or other books as he may deem proper to be kept and used by such clerks in recording, reporting, and accounting for moneys mentioned above in this paragraph, and in recording all fees and emoluments earned by them, which dockets or other books shall be kept and used by said clerks in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Attorney-General.

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 754.

These are provisions, accompanying an appropriation for fees of clerks, in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN.

Juries.

Secs. 800-822.

[Repealed. Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, § 297.]

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 623–630, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, chiefly in chapter 12 thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect

Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Rev. St. § 801 was previously repealed by Act June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, 21 Stat. 43.

Rev. St. §§ 820, 821, were previously repealed by Act June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, 21 Stat. 43, and by Act May 13, 1884, c. 46, § 4, 23 Stat. 21.

The provisions of Act June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, also included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 624, are incorporated in said Judicial Code, and are superseded thereby, although they are not included among the acts and parts of acts specifically repealed by § 297 of said Code.

Act Aug. 8, 1888, c. 785, also included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 624, authorizing circuit and district courts to use interchangeably jurors in either court, is rendered inoperative by the abolition of the circuit courts by said Judicial Code, § 289.

Act March 22, 1882, c. 47, § 5, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 3634, relating to challenges to jurors in prosecutions for bigamy, polygamy, etc., is expressly repealed by § 297 of said Judicial Code.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN.

Fees.

FEES OF ATTORNEYS, SOLICITORS, AND PROCTORS.

Sec. 824.

Attorneys, solicitors, and proctors.

The application of Rev. St. §§ 824–827, and of other provisions relating to fees of attorneys, to the compensation of district attorneys, was superseded, except as to the southern district of New York and the District of Columbia, as stated in the note to Rev. St. § 824 in Comp. St. 1901, p. 633, by the provisions of Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, §§ 6–8, 14–18, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 611–613, 617. Such application is entirely abrogated, except as to the District of Columbia, by the provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, set forth below, that district attorneys shall not receive fees in addition to salary. A further provision of the same act increasing the salary of the district attorney for the southern district of New York is set forth ante, under chapter 14 of this Title.

An annual appropriation for fees of the district attorney for the District of Columbia is made by the sundry civil appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1. [H. R. 18969.]

District attorneys not to receive fees of office in addition to salary.

* * That in no case except in the District of Columbia shall United States District Attorneys hereafter receive fees of office in addition to the salary allowed them by law. * *

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1207.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for salaries of district attorneys and expenses of them and their regular assistants in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

Sec. 825.

Fees in revenue cases, and in suits on official bonds.

See note, ante, under Rev. St. § 824.

An annual appropriation for fees of the district attorney for the southern district of New York, under this section, was made by the sundry civil appropriation acts after the provisions of this section were superseded, as to other district attorneys, by those of Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, §§ 6–8, 14–18, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 611–613, 617. But that appropriation was not continued in the similar acts subsequent to Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, section 1 of which provided, as set forth above, that district attorneys shall not receive fees of office in addition to salary, and also increased the salary of the district attorney for the southern district of New York, by a provision set forth under chapter 14 of this Title.

CLERKS' FEES.

Sec. 828.

Clerks' fees.

No more than one dollar is to be received from any attorney in connection with his admission to practice in a circuit or district court, by a provision of Act June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 833.

The fees and compensation of clerks for services in naturalization proceedings are prescribed, and the accounting for and disposition of fees and other moneys received in such proceedings are regulated by provisions of Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, §§ 13, 20, 21, set forth post, under Title XXX, "Naturalization."

Annual appropriations for fees of clerks are made by the sundry civil appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

The salary of the clerk of the district court for the northern district of Illinois, authorized by a provision of Act July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 452, is fixed at $3,000 by that provision.

The fees and compensation of the clerk of the circuit and district courts for the district of Montana are to be computed on the same basis as like fees in the district of Oregon, by a provision of Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 840.

MARSHALS' FEES.

Sec. 829.

Marshals' fees.

Annual appropriations for payment of salaries, fees, and expenses of marshals and their deputies are made by the sundry civil appropriation acts, to include payment for services rendered in behalf of the United States or otherwise, and advances to marshals from such appropriations are authorized. The appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are made by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426.

Sec. 833.

Semi-annual returns of fees by district attorneys, marshals, and clerks.

The provisions of this section, so far as applicable to clerks of district courts and circuit courts, may be regarded as superseded by the similar provisions of Act June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, set forth below.

The clerks are to be required by the Attorney General to report and account for all moneys received by them on account of or as security for fees and costs, and other moneys received by them in their official capacity, by provisions of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, set forth ante, under chapter 14 of this Title.

Fees authorized to be paid to district attorneys and marshals are required, by Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 6, Comp. St. 1901, p. 611, to be paid to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction, and by him covered into the treasury of the United States. This requirement was not to apply to the office of the United States district attorney and his assistants for the southern district of New York or for the District of Columbia, by a proviso annexed to section 24 of said Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 618. By a subsequent provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, set forth above, district attorneys are in no case, except in the District of Columbia, to receive fees of office in addition to salary; the salary of the district attorney for the southern district of New York being fixed at $10,000 per annum, by a further provision of said Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, set forth ante, under chapter 14 of this Title.

An annual appropriation for the investigation of official acts, records, and accounts of marshals, attorneys, clerks of the courts, and United States commissioners, and the examination for that purpose of their records and dockets by agents of the Attorney General, is made by the sundry civil appropriation acts, substantially as set forth in the note under Rev. St. § 846, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 648. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1424.

ACT JUNE 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1.

Semi-annual returns of fees by clerks; naturalization fees; fees on admission of attorneys.

* * That each clerk of the district and circuit courts shall, on the first days of January and July of each year, or within thirty days thereafter, make to the Attorney-General, in such form as he may prescribe, written returns for the half year ending on said days, respectively, of all fees and emoluments of his office of every name and character, and of all necessary expenses of his office, including necessary clerk hire, together with the vouchers for the payment of the same for such last half year; and the word "emoluments" shall be understood as including all amounts received in connection with the admission of attorneys to practice in the court, all amounts received for services in naturalization proceedings, whether rendered as clerk, as commissioner, or in any other capacity, and all other amounts received for services in any way connected with the clerk's office: Provided further, That no amount in excess of one dollar shall be received from any attorney in connection with his admission to practice in a circuit or district court.

Act June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 475.

These are provisos annexed to an appropriation for clerks' fees in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. They may be regarded as superseding the provisions of Rev. St. § 833, in their application to clerks of the district and circuit courts.

Similar provisions for annual returns of fees and emoluments and for the rendering and settlement of accounts by the clerk of the Supreme Court and the clerks of the circuit courts of appeals, contained in previous statutes, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 651–652.

The Attorney General is directed to require the clerks of the circuit and district courts, the territorial courts, etc., to report and account for all moneys received by them on account of or as security for fees and costs, on account of judgments, etc., or otherwise in their official capacity, and to prescribe the keeping of dockets by them for recording, reporting, and accounting for such moneys, and for recording all fees and emoluments received by them, by provisions of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, set forth ante, under chapter 14 of this Title.

The application of this provision to "amounts received for services in naturalization proceedings," is superseded by subsequent provisions requiring accounting for and payment of all such fees and moneys, contained in Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, §§ 13, 20, set forth post, under Title XXX, "Naturalization."

Sec. 836.

Sum to be paid to district attorney of southern district of New York for office expenses.

The salary of the district attorney for the southern district of New York is increased from the rate of $6,000 a year, mentioned in this section, as set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 644, to $10,000, by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, set forth ante, under chapter 14 of this Title; and the reference in this section to "the costs and fees allowed him by law" is also affected by the provision of the same act, set forth above, that district attorneys are in no case, except in the District of Columbia, to receive fees of office in addition to salary. And clerks and messengers in the office of the district attorney for the southern district of New York are to be paid from the appropriations for salaries and expenses of district attorneys, and his office expenses are to be paid from the same appropriations as similar expenses in other districts, notwithstanding the provisions of Rev. St. § 836, by a provision of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, set forth ante, under chapter 14 of this Title.

Sec. 837.

District attorney and marshal in Oregon and Nevada.

The application of this section to the compensation of the district attorneys and marshals for the districts of Oregon and Nevada is superseded by the provisions for payment to them of salaries and other compensation, in lieu of the salaries, fees, per centums, and other compensation previously allowed, contained in Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, §§ 6–18, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 611–617. By section 7 of that act, the salary of the district attorney for the district of Nevada is $3,000, and for the district of Oregon $4,500; and by section 9 the salary of the marshal for the district of Nevada is $2,500, and for the district of Oregon $4,000. The salary of the district attorney for the district of Nevada, after the beginning of the fiscal year 1912, is $4,000, by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, set forth ante, under chapter 14 of this Title.

The provision of the section for double fees to the district attorneys and marshals named was extended to the territories of New Mexico and Arizona, and made applicable to the fees of all officers in those territories. A subsequent provision, of Act July 2, 1890, c. 650, 26 Stat. 212, allowed the district attorneys and marshals to retain of their fees and emoluments such sum as necessary to make their whole compensation including salary $6,000 per year each; but this was superseded by the provisions for payment to them of salaries, etc., contained in Act May 28, 1896, c. 252, §§ 6–18, mentioned above. By sections 7 and 9 of that act, the salary of the district attorney and of the marshal for each territory is $4,000.

Sec. 840.

Clerks in California, Oregon, and Nevada.

The fees and compensation of the clerk of the circuit and district courts for the district of Montana are to be computed on the same basis as like fees in the district of Oregon, by a provision of Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MAY 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1. [H. R. 21260.]

Clerk's fees in Montana.

* * That hereafter the fees and compensation of the clerk of the circuit and district court for the district of Montana shall be computed and allowed on the same basis as like fees are allowed, computed, and paid in the district of Oregon.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 376.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for fees of clerks in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, set forth above. The allowance of clerk's fees and compensation in Oregon, referred to in this provision, is provided for by Rev. St. § 840, Comp. St. 1901, p. 645.

Sec. 846. [As amended 1875.]

Accounts of district attorneys, etc., to be certified to by district judge.

The usual annual appropriation for investigation of official acts, records, and accounts of officers, mentioned in the note under this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 648, is repeated in the sundry civil appropriation acts for recent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1424.

ACT MARCH 15, 1898, c. 68, § 8.

Naturalization fees of clerks.

The proviso annexed to this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 651, relating to payment by clerks of fees received for naturalization, is superseded by the provisions relating to the same subject contained in Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, §§ 13, 20, set forth post, under Title XXX, "Naturalization."

WITNESSES' FEES.

Sec. 848.

Witnesses' fees.

Fees and mileage of witnesses on hearings before registers and receivers of land offices are provided for by Act Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, set forth post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 2.

ACT AUG. 3, 1892, c. 361.

[Superseded. Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1.]

This act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 655, is superseded by the provisions relating to fees as well as to mileage of jurors and witnesses in the states and territories mentioned, of Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MAY 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1. [H. R. 21260.]

Fees and mileage of jurors and witnesses in certain states and territories.

Jurors and witnesses in the United States courts in the States of Wyoming, Montana, Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Idaho, Colorado, and Utah, and in the Territories of New Mexico and Arizona shall be entitled to receive for actual attendance at any court or courts and for the time necessarily occupied in going to and returning from the same, three dollars a day, and fifteen cents for each mile necessarily traveled over any stage line, or by private conveyance, and five cents for each mile by any railway or steamship in going to and returning from said courts: Provided, That no constructive or double mileage fees shall be allowed by reason of any person being summoned as both a witness and juror, or as a witness in two or more cases pending in the same court and triable at the same term thereof.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 377.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. It supersedes the similar provisions, relating to mileage of jurors and witnesses in the states and territories mentioned, of Act Aug. 3, 1892, c. 361, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 655.

JURORS' FEES.

Sec. 852.

Fees of grand and petit jurors.

The per diem compensation of jurors is three dollars a day, by Act June 21, 1902, c. 1138, set forth below.

Provisions for fees of jurors and for mileage at a greater rate in certain states and territories, contained in Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, are set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 848.

ACT JUNE 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2.

[Superseded. Act June 21, 1902, c. 1138.]

This provision, fixing the per diem pay of jurors at two dollars, is superseded by Act June 21, 1902, c. 1138, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 21, 1902, c. 1138.

An Act to Fix the Fees of Jurors in the United States Courts. (32 Stat. 396.)

Per diem compensation of grand and petit jurors.

Be it enacted, &c., That on and after the passage of this Act the per diem pay of each juror, grand or petit, in any court of the United States, shall be three dollars a day instead of two dollars a day as now provided by law.

Act June 21, 1902, c. 1138, 32 Stat. 396.

The provision referred to in this act as fixing the per diem pay of jurors at two dollars is Act June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 656.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN.

Procedure.

Sec. 984.

ACT JULY 20, 1892, c. 209, § 1.

[Amended. Act June 25, 1910, c. 435.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 706, is amended by Act June 25, 1910, c. 435, to read as set forth below.

ACT JUNE 25, 1910, c. 435. [S. 5836.]

An Act to Amend Section One, Chapter Two hundred and nine, of the United States Statutes at Large, Volume Twenty-seven, Entitled "An Act Providing When Plaintiff May Sue as a Poor Person and When Counsel shall be Assigned by the Court," and to Provide for the Prosecution of Writs of Error and Appeals in Forma Pauperis, and for Other Purposes. (36 Stat. 866.)

Amendment of Act July 20, 1892, c. 209, § 1.

Be it enacted, &c., That section one of an Act entitled "An Act providing when plaintiff may sue as a poor person and when counsel shall be assigned by the court," approved July twentieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

Suits and writs of error and appeals by poor persons without prepayment of fees or costs; affidavit of poverty.

"That any citizen of the United States entitled to commence or defend any suit or action, civil or criminal, in any court of the United States, may, upon the order of the court, commence and prosecute or defend to conclusion any suit or action, or a writ of error, or an appeal to the circuit court of appeals, or to the Supreme Court in such suit or action, including all appellate proceedings, unless the trial court shall certify in writing that in the opinion of the court such appeal or writ of error is not taken in good faith, without being required to prepay fees or costs or for the printing of the record in the appellate court or give security therefor, before or after bringing suit or action, or upon suing out a writ of error or appealing, upon filing in said court a statement under oath in writing that because of his poverty he is unable to pay the costs of said suit or action or of such writ of error or appeal, or to give security for the same, and that he believes that he is entitled to the redress he seeks by such suit or action or writ of error or appeal, and setting forth briefly the nature of his alleged cause of action, or appeal."

Act June 25, 1910, c. 435, 36 Stat. 866.

Act July 20, 1892, c. 209, § 1, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 706.

Sec. 996. [As amended 1897.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 711, as amended by Act Feb. 19, 1897, c. 265, § 3, is further amended by Act March 3, 1911, c. 224, to read as set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 224. [H. R. 18014.]

An Act to Amend Section Nine hundred and ninety-six of the Revised Statutes of the United States as Amended by the Act of February Nineteenth, Eighteen hundred and ninety-seven. (36 Stat. 1083.)

Amendment of Rev. St. § 996.

Be it enacted, &c., That section nine hundred and ninety-six of the Revised Statutes of the United States as amended by the Act of February nineteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

How moneys deposited to be withdrawn; [moneys remaining unclaimed.]

"Sec. 996. No money deposited as aforesaid shall be withdrawn except by order of the judge or judges of said court, respectively, in term or in vacation, to be signed by such judge or judges, and to be entered and certified of record by the clerk; and every such order shall state the cause in or on account of which it is drawn.

In every case in which the right to withdraw money so deposited has been adjudicated or is not in dispute and such money has remained so deposited for at least five years unclaimed by the person entitled thereto, it shall be the duty of the judge or judges of said court, or its successor, to cause such money to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States, in the name and to the credit of the United States: Provided, That any person or persons or any corporation or company entitled to any such money may, on petition to the court from which the money was received, or its successor, and upon notice to the United States attorney and full proof of right thereto, obtain an order of court directing the payment of such money to the claimant, and the money deposited as aforesaid shall constitute and be a permanent appropriation for payments in obedience to such orders, and this Act is applicable to all money deposited in the Treasury of the United States in accordance with section nine hundred and ninety-six, Revised Statutes of the United States, as amended February nineteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven."

Act March 3, 1911, c. 224, 36 Stat. 1083.

Rev. St. § 996, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 711.

PROCEDURE ON ERROR AND APPEAL.

Sec. 1013.

ACT FEB. 13, 1911, c. 47. [S. 6386.]

An Act to Diminish the Expense of Proceedings on Appeal and Writ of Error or of Certiorari. (36 Stat. 901.)

Printed transcript of record on appeal to or writ of error from circuit court of appeals; original documents or other evidence; written transcript not required.

Be it enacted, &c., That in any cause or proceeding wherein the final judgment or decree is sought to be reviewed on appeal to, or by writ of error from, a United States circuit court of appeals the appellant or plaintiff in error shall cause to be printed under such rules as the lower court shall prescribe, and shall file in the office of the clerk of such circuit court of appeals at least twenty days before the case is called for argument therein, at least twenty-five printed transcripts of the record of the lower court, and of such part or abstract of the proofs as the rules of such circuit court of appeals may require, and in such form as the Supreme Court of the United States shall by rule prescribe, one of which printed transcripts shall be certified under the hand of the clerk of the lower court and under the seal thereof, and shall furnish three copies of such printed transcript to the adverse party at least twenty days before such argument: Provided, That either the court below or the circuit court of appeals may order any original document or other evidence to be sent up in addition to the printed copies of the record or in lieu of printed copies of a part thereof; and no written or typewritten transcript of the record shall be required.

Act Feb. 13, 1911, c. 47, § 1, 36 Stat. 901.

Printed record in court below as part of transcript on appeal to or writ of error or certiorari from Supreme Court; transmission and use of uncertified copies; fees; written transcript of part of record printed not required.

Sec. 2. That in any cause or proceeding wherein the final judgment or decree is sought to be reviewed on appeal to or by writ of error or of certiorari from the Supreme Court of the United States, in which the record has been printed and used upon the hearing in the court below and which substantially conforms to the printed record in said Supreme Court, if there have been at the time of filing the record in the court below twenty-five copies of said printed record, in addition to those provided in the preceding section, lodged with the clerk of the court below, one copy thereof shall be used by the clerk of the court below in the preparation and as a part of the transcript of the record of the court below; and no fee shall be allowed the clerk of the court below in the preparation of the transcript for such part thereof as is included in said printed record so lodged with him. And the clerk of the court below in transmitting the transcript of record to the Supreme Court of the United States for review shall at the same time transmit the remaining uncertified copies of the printed record so lodged with him, which shall be used in the preparation and as a part of the printed record in the Supreme Court of the United States, and the clerk's fee for preparing the record for the printer, indexing the same, supervising the printing and binding and distributing the copies shall be at such rate per folio thereof, exclusive of the printed record so furnished by the clerk of the court below, as the Supreme Court of the United States may from time to time by rule prescribe; and no written or typewritten transcript of so much of the record as shall have been printed as herein provided shall be required.

Act Feb. 13, 1911, c. 47, § 2, 36 Stat. 901.

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE.

Sec. 1014.

Offenders against the United States, how arrested and removed for trial.

The provisions of this section are to apply for the removal of fugitives charged with crime against the United States, to or from the Philippine Islands, by Act Feb. 9, 1903, c. 529, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 9, 1903, c. 529.

An Act to Provide for the Removal of Persons Accused of Crime to and from the Philippine Islands for Trial. (32 Stat. 806.)

Offenders against the United States, removal to or from Philippine Islands.

Be it enacted, &c., That the provisions of section ten hundred and fourteen of the Revised Statutes, so far as applicable, shall apply throughout the United States for the arrest and removal therefrom to the Philippine Islands of any fugitive from justice charged with the commission of any crime or offense against the United States within the Philippine Islands, and shall apply within the Philippine Islands for the arrest and removal therefrom to the United States of any fugitive from justice charged with the commission of any crime or offense against the United States. Such fugitive may, by any judge or magistrate of the Philippine Islands, and agreeably to the usual mode of process against offenders therein, be arrested and imprisoned, or bailed, as the case may be, pending the issuance of a warrant for his removal to the United States, which warrant it shall be the duty of a judge of the court of first instance seasonably to issue, and of the officer or agent of the United States designated for the purpose to execute. Such officer or agent, when engaged in executing such warrant without the Philippine Islands, shall have all the powers of a marshal of the United States so far as such powers are requisite for the prisoner's safe-keeping and the execution of the warrant.

Act Feb. 9, 1903, c. 529, 32 Stat. 806.

Rev. St. § 1014, mentioned in this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 716.

The provisions of Rev. St. §§ 5409, 5410, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 3658, 3659, which make punishable voluntarily suffering a prisoner, in custody by virtue of process under the laws of the United States, to escape, are made applicable to proceedings under this act by Act Feb. 6, 1905, c. 454, c. 2, set forth post, under Title LXVI, "Extradition."

Sec. 2. [Relates to application of Rev. St. §§ 5278, 5279, to Philippine Islands.]

This section makes the provisions of Rev. St. §§ 5278, 5279, which relate to extradition of fugitives from justice of a State or Territory, applicable to the Philippine Islands, which are to be deemed a Territory within the meaning of those provisions. It is set forth post, under Title LXVI, "Extradition."

CHAPTER NINETEEN.

Limitations.

Sec. 1044.

Offenses not capital.

No person is to be prosecuted for any crime arising under the provisions of Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, relating to naturalization of aliens, unless the indictment is found or the information is filed within five years after the commission of such crime, by section 24 of said act, set forth post, under Title XXX, "Naturalization."

CHAPTER TWENTY.

The Court of Claims—Organization and Sessions.

Secs. 1049-1058.

These sections, constituting the whole of this chapter of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 729–732, are incorporated in the Judicial Code, Act March 3, 1911, c. 231, in chapter 7 thereof, and are expressly repealed by § 297 of said act, taking effect Jan. 1, 1912. Said act is set forth ante, Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Act June 23, 1874, c. 468, also included in this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, p. 730, is incorporated in said Judicial Code, in § 138, and is superseded thereby.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE.

The Court of Claims—Jurisdiction, Powers, and Procedure.

Secs. 1059-1088, 1091-1093.

Rev. St. § 1079 was previously repealed by Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 755, which is repealed by said Judicial Code, § 297.

Rev. St. §§ 1089, 1090, relating to the payment of judgments of the Court of Claims, and to interest on such judgments, not being within the scope of said Judicial Code, are not incorporated in or repealed by that act.

Act March 3, 1883, c. 116, set forth at the end of this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 748–750, is also incorporated in said Judicial Code and expressly repealed by § 297 thereof.

Act March 3, 1887, c. 359, also set forth, as amended by Act June 27, 1898, c. 503, at the end of this chapter in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 752–758, except sections 4–7 and 10 thereof, is incorporated in said Judicial Code and, with said amendatory act, is expressly repealed by § 297 of said Code.

Sec. 1089.

Payment of judgments.

Payment of final judgments and awards rendered against the United States, under appropriations by Congress, are to be made on settlements by the Auditor for the Treasury, by a provision of Act Feb. 18, 1904, c. 160, § 1, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 18, 1904, c. 160, § 1. [H. R. 10954.]

Payment of judgments to be made on settlements by Auditors.

And hereafter in all cases of final judgments and awards rendered against the United States by the Court of Claims, and of final judgments rendered against the United States by the circuit and district courts of the United States, payment thereof under appropriations made by Congress shall be made on settlements by the auditor for the department or branch of the public service having jurisdiction over the subject-matter out of which the claims arose.

Act Feb. 18, 1904, c. 160, § 1, 33 Stat. 41.

This is a provision, following appropriations for payment of judgments of the Court of Claims, in the urgent deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

[FRENCH SPOLIATION CLAIMS.]

ACT MARCH 3, 1899, c. 426, § 1.

Awards to next of kin of persons adjudicated bankrupts; certificate by court that personal representative represents next of kin.

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 751, is repeated in the similar act for the year next following, Act May 27, 1902, c. 887, 32 Stat. 218.

[SUITS AGAINST THE UNITED STATES.]

ACT MARCH 3, 1887, c. 359, § 10.

Judgments adverse to United States.

Payment of final judgments rendered against the United States, under appropriations by Congress, are to be made on settlements by the Auditors of the Treasury, by a provision of Act Feb. 18, 1904, c. 160, § 1, set forth above.

[INDIAN DEPREDATION CLAIMS.]

ACT MARCH 3, 1891, c. 538, § 6.

Judgments to be charged against Indian tribes; payment.

Appropriations for payment of judgments rendered by the Court of Claims in Indian depredation cases are accompanied by provisions that said judgments are to be paid after the deductions required by this section "shall have been ascertained and duly certified by the Secretary of the Interior to the Secretary of the Treasury, which certification shall be made as soon as practicable after the passage of this Act, and such deductions shall be made according to the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, having due regard to the educational and other necessary requirements of the tribe or tribes affected; and the amounts paid shall be reimbursed to the United States at such times and in such proportions as the Secretary of the Interior may decide to be for the interests of the Indian Service." The provision in this language for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is made by the deficiency appropriation act for that year, Act March 4, 1911, c. 240, 36 Stat. 1320.

TITLE XIV.

THE ARMY.

CHAPTER ONE.

Organization.

Sec. 1094.

ACT FEB. 2, 1901, c. 192, §§ 1, 2, 3-9, 10, 12, 13, 16, 18, 19, 21, 22, 23, 24, 26, 28, 36, 37, 41.

Composition of the Army.

The corps of artillery, included in the composition of the Army by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 1, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 784, is reorganized, the coast artillery and the field artillery are separated, and the composition of each is prescribed, by Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, set forth below.

The detachment from the Army at large of enlisted men to perform duty at recruit depots and the military prison is authorized by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth below, and noncommissioned officers, etc., for recruit and prison companies are authorized by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, also set forth below.

The office of Lieutenant General, mentioned in said section, when it becomes vacant, shall not be filled, but shall cease and determine, by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth post, following Rev. St. §§ 1095, 1096.

In addition to the various staff departments and corps of the Army, as constituted by said Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 1, a General Staff Corps, composed of officers detailed from the Army at large, is established by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, set forth below.

The Adjutant-General's Department, included by said Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 1, in the composition of the Army, and the officers thereof, except the Adjutant-General, are consolidated with the Record and Pension Office and the officers thereof, to constitute a Military Secretary's Department of the Army and a Military Secretary's Office of the War Department, by provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below. But by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, also set forth below, the Military Secretary's Department of the Army is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Office.

The Medical Department is to consist of a Medical Corps and a Medical Reserve Corps, to be composed as provided, and the Hospital Corps, the Nurse Corps, and dental surgeons, as previously authorized, by Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, set forth below. A Dental Corps, composed of dental surgeons and acting dental surgeons, is attached to the Medical Department, by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, also set forth below.

The Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry, authorized by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 37, Comp. St. 1901, p. 804, is designated the Porto Rico Regiment of Infantry of the United States Army, by Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, set forth below.

Composition of cavalry regiment.

One of the "two farriers and blacksmiths" included by Act Feb. 2, 1891, c. 192, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 784, in each troop of cavalry, is to be designated as "horseshoer," and receive the pay of a sergeant of cavalry, and the other is to be designated as "farrier," and receive the pay of a corporal of cavalry, by a provision of Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth below.

Artillery Corps.

The provisions of Act Feb. 2, 1901, §§ 3–9, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 785, 787, relating to the Artillery Corps and the composition thereof, are to a great extent superseded by those of Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, set forth below, which reorganize the artillery and separate the coast artillery and the field artillery.

Composition of infantry regiment.

Recruit and prison companies are to have noncommissioned officers, musicians, artificers, and cooks of the number and grades allowed for companies of infantry, by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

Chaplains.

Provisions relating to promotions and rank of chaplains, previously provided for by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 12, Comp. St. 1901, p. 788, are contained in Act April 21, 1904, c. 1404, set forth below.

A chaplain for the Corps of Engineers is authorized by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth below.

In addition to the twelve chaplains authorized for the Artillery Corps by said Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 12, one chaplain for each regiment of field artillery and two for the coast artillery are authorized by Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 12, set forth below.

Adjutant-General's Department.

The Adjutant-General's Department, the organization of which was prescribed by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 13, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 789, and the officers thereof, except the Adjutant-General, are consolidated with the Record and Pension Office and the officers thereof, to constitute the Military Secretary's Department of the Army and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department, by provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below. By a proviso of said act, when the office of Adjutant-General should become vacant, the vacancy so created on the active list of the Army should not be filled; and by further provisions of that act and of Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, also set forth below, the titles of the offices of Assistant Adjutant-General and of Assistant Chief of the Record and Pension Office were changed to Military Secretary. But by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, also set forth below, the Military Secretary's Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, the senior in rank of the officers of that Department is to be designated as The Adjutant-General, the other officers of the Department are to be designated as Adjutant-General, and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Office.

Various other provisions relating to appointments, promotions, rank, details, etc., of officers in the consolidated department so constituted, and in the Military Secretary's Office, since designated the Adjutant-General's Office, as a bureau of the War Department, are contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, and Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

Quartermaster's Department.

Provisions for the increase of the Quartermaster's Department, the composition of which is prescribed by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 16, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 791, are contained in Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

The recent annual Army appropriation acts provide for 200 post quartermaster sergeants. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. p. 1039.

Medical Department.

The provisions of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 18, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 793, relating to the composition of the Medical Department, promotions therein, etc., are to a great extent superseded by those of Act

April 23, 1908, c. 150, set forth below, which provide that the Medical Department shall consist of a Medical Corps and a Medical Reserve Corps, to be composed as prescribed, and the Hospital Corps, the Nurse Corps, and dental surgeons. A Dental Corps, composed of dental surgeons and acting dental surgeons, is attached to the Medical Department, by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, also set forth below.

Further provisions relating to promotions in the Medical Corps, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, are set forth below.

Contract surgeons and contract dental surgeons, whose appointment is provided for by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 1485, § 18, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 793, are authorized to transfer or assign their pay accounts, by a provision of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth post, under chapter 3 of this Title.

Contract surgeons in charge of hospitals have the same authority as commissioned medical officers, by a further provision of said Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below.

The provisions of said Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 18, relating to contract dental surgeons, and a subsequent provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below, increasing the number of such surgeons, are superseded to some extent by provisions for the organization of a Dental Corps, attached to the Medical Department, composed of dental surgeons and acting dental surgeons, contained in Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, also set forth below. Under said provisions, acting dental surgeons have the same official status, pay, and allowances as the contract dental surgeons previously authorized.

Nurse Corps.

The provisions of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 19, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 795, relating to pay and allowances of the Superintendent and nurses of the Nurse Corps, are superseded by the provisions of Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth post, under chapter 3 of this Title, following Rev. St. § 1261.

Pay Department.

In connection with provisions relating to accounts of officers of the Pay Department, organized as prescribed by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 21, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 796, the assignment to duty in the office of the Paymaster-General of five paymasters' clerks is authorized by a provision of Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, set forth below.

Composition of Corps of Engineers.

Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 22, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 797, prescribing the composition of the Corps of Engineers, is amended by a provision of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below, to read as there set forth.

Provisions for the increase of the Corps of Engineers are contained in Act Feb. 27, 1911, c. 166, § 5, set forth below.

Ordnance Department.

So much of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 23, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 797, as prescribes the constitution of the Ordnance Department, is superseded, and details to the Department from the Army at large are regulated, by Act June 25, 1906, c. 3526, set forth below. And the rank in their respective grades of officers serving by detail in the Department is regulated by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, also set forth below.

Signal Corps.

To the Signal Corps, constituted as prescribed by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 24, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 798, there are added one lieutenant colonel, two majors, four captains, and four first lieutenants, by a provision of Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, set forth below.

The appointment by the President of an officer of the Signal Corps, as chief of the telegraph and cipher bureau of the Executive Office, is authorized by a provision of Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, set forth below.

Second-class privates of the Signal Corps are designated as privates, by a provision of Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, set forth below.

The enlisted force of the Signal Corps is enlarged by appropriations for increased numbers of noncommissioned officers and men, in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below, which are repeated, substantially, in subsequent Army appropriation acts.

Appointments, promotions, and vacancies in staff, and details thereto from line.

No officer detailed or appointed under Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 26, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 799, who has less than four years to serve from the date of his detail or appointment to the date of his retirement, shall serve under such detail or appointment beyond the date of his retirement, by a provision of Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, set forth below.

Details to the Ordnance Department, under this act, are regulated by Act June 25, 1906, c. 3526, § 2, set forth below.

A General Staff Corps, composed of officers detailed from the Army at large, is established by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, set forth below.

Provisions relating to promotions and rank of chaplains are contained in Act April 21, 1904, c. 1404, set forth below.

Provisions relating to appointments, promotions, rank, vacancies, etc., in the Adjutant-General's Department, are contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, and Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

Vacancies in grades of field officers and captain; appointment and rank of first and second lieutenants.

The same credit for prior commissioned service as is allowed to a lieutenant of volunteers appointed under Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 28, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 801, is to be allowed to a second lieutenant of the Marine Corps appointed second lieutenant of artillery since Feb. 2, 1901, by Act Dec. 20, 1904, c. 20, set forth post, in this chapter, under subchapter "General Provisions of Organization."

Provisions relating to vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant are contained in Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

Enlistment of natives of Philippine Islands; organization as scouts or as troops or companies; officers.

Annual appropriations for the Philippine scouts authorized by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 36, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 803, are made in Army appropriation acts. The appropriation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1044.

The office of captain in the Philippine scouts is created by Act May 16, 1908, c. 171, set forth below.

Provisional regiment for service in Porto Rico.

The provisions of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 37, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 804, for a provisional regiment for service in Porto Rico, and subsequent provisions relating to the composition of the regiment, contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 934, and Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below, are superseded by Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, also set forth below, which designates the regiment the Porto Rico Regiment of Infantry of the United States Army, and provides for its composition and for appointments and promotions of officers therein, etc.

The term of enlistments is prescribed and re-enlistments are provided for by provisions of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth below.

Badges of military societies.

Provisions similar to those of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 41, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 805, relating to badges adopted by military societies of men who served in the armies and navies of the United States during the Chinese relief expedition of 1900, are contained in Res. Jan. 12, 1903, No. 2, set forth below. And a similar provision relating to the distinctive badge adopted by the Army and Navy Union of the United States is contained in Res. March 2, 1907, No. 18, also set forth below.

ACT JUNE 30, 1902, c. 1328.

Signal Corps; designation of privates.

* * That hereafter second-class privates of the Signal Corps shall be designated as privates, with the same pay and allowances as now allowed by law to second-class privates: * *

Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, 32 Stat. 509.

This is a proviso annexed to appropriations for the Signal Corps in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. The composition of the Signal Corps is prescribed by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 24, Comp. St. 1901, p. 798.

Subsequent appropriations for a larger enlisted force than the numbers prescribed by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 24, Comp. St. 1901, p. 798, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, are set forth below.

Time of service of officers detailed or appointed to staff.

* * That no officer hereafter detailed or appointed under the provisions of section twenty-six of the Act of February second, nineteen hundred and one, who has less than four years to serve from the date of his detail or appointment to the date of his retirement shall serve under such detail or appointment or be paid as if on the active list beyond the date of his retirement.

Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, 32 Stat. 509.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of the staff in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 26, mentioned in this provision, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 799.

RES. JAN. 12, 1903, No. 2.

Joint Resolution Relating to Military Badges. (32 Stat. 1229.)

Badges of military societies of men who served during Chinese relief expedition.

Resolved, &c., That the distinctive badges adopted by military societies of men who served in the armies and navies of the United States during the Chinese relief expedition of nineteen hundred may be worn upon all occasions of ceremony by officers and men of the Army and Navy of the United States who are members of said organization in their own right.

Res. Jan. 12, 1903, No. 2, 32 Stat. 1229.

A previous similar provision relating to badges of societies of men who served during the Spanish-American War and the incident insurrection in the Philippines is contained in Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 41, Comp. St. 1901, p. 805.

A similar provision relating to the distinctive badge adopted by the Army and Navy Union is contained in Res. March 2, 1907, No. 18, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 14, 1903, c. 553. [As amended 1903.]

An Act to Increase the Efficiency of the Army. (32 Stat. 830.)

General Staff Corps established.

Be it enacted, &c., That there is hereby established a General Staff Corps, to be composed of officers detailed from the Army at large, under such rules as may be prescribed by the President.

Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, § 1, 32 Stat. 830.

Duties of General Staff Corps.

Sec. 2. That the duties of the General Staff Corps shall be to prepare plans for the national defense and for the mobilization of the military forces in time of war; to investigate and report upon all questions affecting the efficiency of the Army and its state of preparation for military operations; to render professional aid and assistance to the Secretary of War and to general officers and other superior commanders, and to act as their agents in informing and coordinating the action of all the different officers who are subject under the terms of this Act to the supervision of the Chief of Staff; and to perform such other military duties not otherwise assigned by law as may be from time to time prescribed by the President.

Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, § 2, 32 Stat. 831.

The duties of the Chief of Staff are prescribed by section 4 of this act, set forth below.

Composition of General Staff Corps.

Sec. 3. That the General Staff Corps shall consist of one Chief of Staff and two general officers, all to be detailed by the President from officers of the Army at large not below the grade of brigadier-general; four colonels, six lieutenant-colonels, and twelve majors, to be detailed from the corresponding grades in the Army at large, under such rules for selection as the President may prescribe; twenty captains, to be detailed from officers of the Army at large of the grades of captain or first lieutenant, who while so serving shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of captain mounted. All officers detailed in the General Staff Corps shall be detailed therein for periods of four years, unless sooner relieved. While serving in the General Staff Corps, officers may be temporarily assigned to duty with any branch of the Army. Upon being relieved from duty in the General Staff Corps, officers shall return to the branch of the Army in which they hold permanent commission, and no officer shall be eligible to a further detail in the General Staff Corps until he shall have served two years with the branch of the Army in which commissioned, except in case of emergency or in time of war.

Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, § 3, 32 Stat. 831.

The Chief of Artillery, who after July 1, 1908, is to be designated as the Chief of Coast Artillery, by Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 1, set forth below, is an additional member of the General Staff Corps, by section 5 of this act and section 2 of said Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, also set forth below.

Similar provisions for detail of officers from the line of the Army for service in the various staff corps and departments are contained in Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 26, Comp. St. 1901, p. 799.

Provisions relating to clerks and other civilian employés in the office of the General Staff, and forbidding details, etc., of clerks or other employés to or from the War Department, contained in Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, and Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, are set forth below.

Duties of Chief of Staff; acts authorizing aids-de-camp and military secretaries not to apply.

Sec. 4. That the Chief of Staff, under the direction of the President or of the Secretary of War, under the direction of the President, shall have supervision of all troops of the line and of the Adjutant-General's, Inspector-General's, Judge-Advocate's, Quartermaster's, Subsistence, Medical, Pay, and Ordnance departments, the Corps of Engineers, and the Signal Corps, and shall perform such other military duties not otherwise assigned by law as may be assigned to him by the President. Duties now prescribed by statute for the Commanding General of the Army as a member of the Board of Ordnance and Fortification and of the Board of Commissioners of the Soldiers' Home shall be performed by the Chief of Staff or other officer designated by the President. Acts and parts of Acts authorizing aids-de-camp and military secretaries shall not apply to general officers of the General Staff Corps.

Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, § 4, 32 Stat. 831.

The Adjutant-General's Department, placed by this section under the supervision of the Chief of Staff, with its officers, except the Adjutant-General, is consolidated with the Record and Pension Office and its officers to form the Military Secretary's Department of the Army and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department, by a provision of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below; and, by a proviso annexed thereto, the officers of the consolidated department are subject to the supervision of the Chief of Staff in matters prescribed therein. But the Military Secretary's Department of the Army is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Office, by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

The annual appropriations made in the Army appropriation acts for pay to clerks and messengers at department headquarters and at headquarters of the Army include, since the establishment of the General Staff Corps, appropriations for clerks, etc., at the office of the Chief of Staff. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1040.

Chief of Artillery an additional member of General Staff; number of colonels of Artillery; time of taking effect of act.

Sec. 5. That the Chief of Artillery shall hereafter serve as an additional member of the General Staff, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a brigadier-general, and when the next vacancy occurs in the office of colonel of artillery it shall not be filled, and thereafter the number of colonels of artillery shall not exceed thirteen; and the provisions of the foregoing sections of this Act shall take effect on August fifteenth, nineteen hundred and three.

Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, § 5, 32 Stat. 831. Act March 3, 1903, c. 995, 32 Stat. 1021.

This section, as originally enacted, contained provisions that "when the next vacancy occurs in the office of brigadier-general of the line, it shall not be filled, and thereafter the number of brigadier-generals of the line, exclusive of the Chief of Artillery, shall not exceed fourteen." It is amended by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 995, cited above, by substituting for the provisions quoted similar provisions relating to colonels of artillery, so as to read as set forth here.

The Chief of Artillery, after July 1, 1908, is to be designated as the Chief of Coast Artillery, and as such is to be an additional member of the General Staff Corps, by Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, §§ 1, 2, set forth below; and section 2 of that act contains provisions as to filling the vacancy caused by the appointment of an officer Chief of Artillery or Chief of Coast Artillery.

The limitation of the number of colonels of artillery contained in this section is superseded by the provisions prescribing the composition of the corps of coast artillery and of the regiments of field artillery contained in Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, §§ 5, 7, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1903, c. 975.

Signal Corps; additional officers; chief of telegraph and cipher bureau of Executive Office.

* * There shall be added to the Signal Corps of the Army, as now authorized by law, one lieutenant-colonel, two majors, four captains, and four first lieutenants: Provided further, That the vacancies thus created or caused shall be filled first by the promotion of officers of the Signal Corps, according to seniority, and thereafter by details from the line of the Army: Provided further, That the President be, and is hereby, authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an officer of the Signal Corps as chief of the telegraph and cipher bureau of the Executive Office, who shall have, while so serving, the rank, pay, and allowances of a major.

Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 932.

These are provisos annexed to appropriations for pay of officers of the Signal Corps in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above. The composition of the Signal Corps is prescribed by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 24, Comp. St. 1901, p. 798. An increased enlisted force is provided for by appropriations in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below.

Porto Rico provisional regiment; enlistment of citizens in Regular Army, and service of regiment outside Island.

* * That citizens of Porto Rico shall be eligible for enlistment in the Regular Army and the Porto Rico Regiment may be ordered for service outside of the island of Porto Rico: * *

Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 934.

This is a proviso annexed to appropriations for pay of the regiment in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

The regiment is designated the Porto Rico Regiment of Infantry of the United States Army, and its composition as such is provided for, by Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, set forth below.

The term of enlistments in the regiment is prescribed, and re-enlistments are provided for, by provisions of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 21, 1904, c. 1404. [S. 2424.]

An Act to Recognize and Promote the Efficiency of Army Chaplains. (33 Stat. 226.)

Chaplains; promotions and rank.

Be it enacted, &c., That hereafter the President may, from time to time, select from among the chaplains of the Army any chaplains having not less than ten years' service, in the grade of captain, who shall have been commended as worthy of special distinction for exceptional efficiency by the regimental or district commanders with whose commands they may be serving as chaplains, approved through regular military channels, and may, with the advice and consent of the Senate, promote such regimental or artillery chaplains to be chaplains with the grade, pay, and allowances of major; every such promotion being made with a view to active service until the statutory age for the compulsory relinquishment thereof, except in cases of physical disability incurred in the line of duty: Provided, That the total number in active service so promoted shall not at any time exceed fifteen, and that the remaining chaplains shall have the grade, pay, and allowances of captain, mounted, after they shall have completed seven years of service: And provided further, That all persons who may hereafter be appointed as chaplains shall have the grade, pay, and allowances of first lieutenant, mounted, until they shall have completed seven years of service.

Act April 21, 1904, c. 1404, § 1, 33 Stat. 226.

Previous provisions relating to chaplains are contained in Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 12, Comp. St. 1901, p. 788.

Official designation of chaplains.

Sec. 2. That all officers provided for in this Act shall have a uniform designation in official address as chaplains of their respective regiments or of the Artillery Corps.

Act April 21, 1904, c. 1404, § 2, 33 Stat. 226.

Effect of act as to existing chaplains.

Sec. 3. That nothing in this Act shall be construed as depriving any chaplain of his commission in the Army, or as interfering with existing law pertaining to regimental and corps assignments or transfers, and that nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to increase the number of chaplains, as now authorized by law, or to reduce the grade of any now serving.

Act April 21, 1904, c. 1404, § 3, 33 Stat. 226.

Repeal.

Sec. 4. That all laws and parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Act April 21, 1904, c. 1404, § 4, 33 Stat. 226.

ACT APRIL 23, 1904, c. 1485. [H. R. 10670.]

Signal corps; increase of enlisted men.

Signal Corps.

One hundred and thirty-two first-class sergeants, at five hundred and forty dollars each, seventy-one thousand two hundred and eighty dollars.

One hundred and forty-four sergeants, at four hundred and eight dollars each, fifty-eight thousand seven hundred and fifty-two dollars.

One hundred and fifty-six corporals, at two hundred and forty dollars each, thirty-seven thousand four hundred and forty dollars.

Five hundred and fifty-two first-class privates, at two hundred and four dollars each, one hundred and twelve thousand six hundred and eight dollars.

One hundred and sixty-eight privates, at one hundred and fifty-six dollars each, twenty-nine thousand three hundred and twenty-eight dollars.

Twenty-four cooks, at two hundred and forty dollars each, five thousand seven hundred and sixty dollars.

Thirty-six master signal electricians, at nine hundred dollars each, thirty-two thousand four hundred dollars: Provided, That the increase of enlisted men herein authorized shall take effect immediately.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 261.

These are appropriations, under the head "Signal Corps," in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above, which provide for a considerable increase of the enlisted force of the Signal Corps, as constituted by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 24, Comp. St. 1901, p. 798. Appropriations similar in substance are made by the subsequent Army appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1040.

Military Secretary's Department and Military Secretary's Office of War Department established by consolidation of Adjutant-General's Department and Record and Pension Office; appointments, promotions, rank, and titles of officers.

That the officers of the Adjutant-General's Department, except the Adjutant-General, and the officers of the Record and Pension Office shall hereafter constitute one department of the Army, to be known as the Military Secretary's Department; and the Adjutant-General's Office and the Record and Pension Office, heretofore constituting bureaus of the War Department, shall hereafter constitute a consolidated bureau to be known as the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department. The officers so consolidated shall be borne on one list in the order of rank held by them, and those of them who hold permanent appointments as officers of the Adjutant-General's Department or of the Record and Pension Office shall be entitled to promotion below the grade of brigadier-general, as now provided by law and in the order of their standing on said list. Except as otherwise provided herein, the laws now in force shall continue to govern the appointment, promotion, and detail of all officers of the consolidated department hereby created: Provided, That the officers of the said consolidated department shall be subject to the supervision of the Chief of Staff in all matters pertaining to the command, discipline, or administration of the existing military establishment: Provided further, That no appointments or details to the grade of assistant adjutant-general with the rank of major shall be made until the number of officers of that grade shall be reduced to less than ten, and thereafter the number of officers of said grade in the consolidated department shall be ten: Provided further, That of the officers consolidated as hereinbefore provided the senior in rank, who shall be chief of the consolidated department and the title of whose office is hereby changed to that of the military secretary, shall hereafter have the rank of major-general, and the second senior of said officers shall hereafter have the rank of brigadier-general: Provided further, That when the office of Military Secretary with the rank of major-general shall hereafter become vacant, it shall not be filled with said rank, and thereafter the chief of the Military Secretary's Department shall have the rank of a brigadier-general with the title of The Military Secretary, and there shall be only one officer above the rank of colonel in the said department. Except as hereinafter provided, the remaining offices of the consolidated department shall retain the titles that they now bear: Provided further, That when the office of Adjutant-General shall become vacant the vacancy so created on the active list of the Army shall not be filled, and thereafter the several officers now designated by the title assistant adjutant-general and by the title assistant chief of the Record and Pension Office shall be designated by the title Military Secretary: Provided further, That the chief of the Military Secretary's Department shall be a member of the Board of Commissioners of the United States Soldiers' Home.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 262.

These are further provisions, following appropriations for pay of officers in the Adjutant-General's Office, in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

The Adjutant-General's Department, the officers of which are consolidated by these provisions with the officers of the Record and Pension Office, to form the Military Secretary's Department, was constituted by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 13, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 789. The Record and Pension Office in the War Department was established by Act May 9, 1892, c. 62, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 113, and the officers thereof were included as part of the Army and their rank prescribed by subsequent provisions, re-enacted in Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, §§ 1, 25, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 784, 799.

The Military Secretary's Department of the Army is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, the senior in rank of the officers of that department is to be designated as The Adjutant-General and the other officers as Adjutant-General, and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Office, by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

A further provision of said Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, for filling a vacancy of lieutenant-colonel in the department, when it shall occur, is also set forth below.

Amendment of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 22.

That section twenty-two of the Act approved February second, nineteen hundred and one, entitled "An Act to increase the efficiency of the permanent military establishment of the United States," be, and the same is hereby, amended so that it shall read as follows:

Composition of Corps of Engineers.

"Sec. 22. That the Corps of Engineers shall consist of one Chief of Engineers with the rank of brigadier-general, of ten colonels, sixteen lieutenant-colonels, thirty-two majors, forty-three captains, forty-three first lieutenants, and forty-three second lieutenants. The enlisted force provided in section eleven of this Act, and the officers serving with the organized battalions thereof, shall constitute a part of the line of the Army: Provided, That the Chief of Engineers shall be appointed as now provided by law, and hereafter vacancies in the Corps of Engineers in all other grades above that of second lieutenant shall be filled by promotion, according to seniority, from the Corps of Engineers. Any vacancies occurring at any time in the grade of second lieutenant shall be left for future promotions from the corps of cadets at the United States Military Academy."

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 263.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 22, amended by this provision, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 797. The amendment changes the numbers of various officers of the corps, and omits a proviso, of a temporary nature, relating to filling vacancies in the grades of first and second lieutenant.

Provisions for the increase of the corps by additional officers of all grades, and for filling vacancies thereby created, are contained in Act Feb. 27, 1911, c. 166, § 5, set forth below.

Contract surgeons in charge of hospitals.

* * That when a contract surgeon is in charge of a hospital he shall have the same authority as a commissioned medical officer.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 266.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of contract surgeons in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

Porto Rico provisional regiment of infantry.

For Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry, composed of two battalions of four companies each, to include the enlisted men of the present regiment who may be in the service June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and four, and officers as herein provided. The field officers shall be detailed from the officers of the Regular Army of the same grade and shall receive the pay and emoluments of their grade. The present officers of the regiment below the grade of field officers who are mentally, morally, and physically qualified and have proved efficient in their respective positions may be reappointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate (and such officers shall be entitled to preference in such appointments) for a provisional term of four years. Officers so reappointed shall be eligible for promotion in the regiment up to and including the rank of captain, upon examination as to their fitness for such promotion. Vacancies then existing or thereafter occurring in the grade of second lieutenant may be filled by the President, in his discretion, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, by the appointment of citizens of Porto Rico for the provisional term of four years, whose qualifications for commissions shall be established by such examination as the President may prescribe, who shall also be eligible for promotion in the regiment up to and including the rank of captain, upon an examination as to their fitness. Vacancies not filled as hereinbefore provided by the reappointment or promotion of the present officers or by the appointment or promotion of citizens of Porto Rico, shall be filled by detail from the line of the infantry of the Army of the same grade with the vacancy to be filled. Men hereafter enlisted in the regiment shall be citizens of Porto Rico and shall be enlisted for a term of two years; and except in the case of noncommissioned officers shall not be reenlisted in time of peace. The names of all enlisted men who have served honorably in the regiment shall be kept at the headquarters of the regiment, and these men shall be regarded as a reserve, to be specially considered in time of war. The pay and allowances of officers and enlisted men of the regiment shall be the same as authorized for like grades in the Regular Army.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 266.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. The provisions thereof relating to the composition of the regiment, and to appointments and promotions of officers, etc., which superseded those of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 37, Comp. St. 1901, p. 804, and Act March 2, 1903, 32 Stat. 934, as to the same subjects, are themselves superseded by Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, set forth below. And the provisions thereof as to the term of enlistments and re-enlistments are superseded by those of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, as to those subjects, also set forth below.

Effect of act as to existing officers; repeal.

Nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to deprive any officer of his commission or to increase the total number of officers of the Army, except as herein specially provided, and all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 276.

This is the concluding provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above. Various provisions of the act of a permanent nature are set forth above, and others are set forth below under other sections of this and other chapters of this Title.

ACT MARCH 2, 1905, c. 1307. [H. R. 17473.]

Vacancies in office of Assistant Chief of Record and Pension Office; change of title of Assistant Chief of Record and Pension Office, and of Assistant Adjutant-General, to Military Secretary.

* * That any vacancy that shall occur in the office of the Assistant Chief of the Record and Pension Office previous to July first, nineteen hundred and five, shall be filled by the appointment of a captain of the line of the Army, and vacancies thereafter occurring shall not be filled, and the offices now designated by the title of Assistant Chief of the Record and Pension Office and by the title of Assistant Adjutant-General, shall hereafter be designated by the title of Military Secretary.

Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 830.

This is a proviso annexed to appropriations for pay of officers in the Military Secretary's Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

The office of Assistant Chief of the Record and Pension Office, mentioned in this provision, was authorized by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 25, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 799, and by previous acts referred to in the note under that section.

Previous provisions for the consolidation of the Record and Pension Office and the officers thereof with the Adjutant-General's Office and the officers thereof, to constitute the Military Secretary's Department of the Army and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department, including provisions for the change of the title Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Chief of the Record and Pension Office, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, are set forth above.

The Military Secretary's Department of the Army is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, the senior in rank of the officers of that department is to be designated as The Adjutant-General and the other officers of the department as Adjutant-General, and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Office, by provisions of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

Detachments at recruit depots and military prison.

* * That hereafter the Secretary of War shall be authorized to detach from the Army at large such number of enlisted men as may be necessary to perform duty at the various recruit depots and the United States military prison, and of the enlisted men so detached, and while performing such duty, there shall be allowed for each depot and the prison one who shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of battalion or squadron sergeant-major, and for each recruit and prison company one who shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of first sergeant, five the rank, pay, and allowances of sergeant, and six the rank, pay, and allowances of corporal, of the arm of the service to which they respectively belong.

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 242.

This is a proviso annexed to appropriations for pay of enlisted men in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

A subsequent provision relating to noncommissioned officers, etc., of recruit and prison companies, contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, and provisions for temporary appointment of sergeants and corporals and for organization of infantry bands at recruiting depots, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, are set forth below.

Chaplain for Corps of Engineers.

* * That in addition to the number of chaplains now authorized by law there shall hereafter be one for the Corps of Engineers.

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 256.

This is a proviso annexed to appropriations for the Engineer Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

ACT JUNE 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1. [H. R. 16472.]

Clerks and other civilian employés in office of General Staff; detail to or from War Department.

It shall not hereafter be lawful to detail clerks or other civilian employees authorized for the Office of the General Staff for duty, temporary or otherwise, in any office or bureau of the War Department at Washington, District of Columbia, or to detail clerks or other employees from the War Department for service in the Office of the General Staff.

Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, 34 Stat. 418.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. Provisions in the same language, except the word "hereafter," were contained in the similar appropriation acts for the two fiscal years immediately preceding.

The General Staff Corps is established by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, set forth above.

A similar provision forbidding the assignment to duty with any bureau in the War Department of clerks or other employés at the office of the Chief of Staff, contained in Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, is set forth below.

ACT JUNE 25, 1906, c. 3526. [S. 1540.]

An Act to Increase the Efficiency of the Ordnance Department of the United States Army. (34 Stat. 455.)

Ordnance Department.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Ordnance Department shall consist of one chief of ordnance with the rank of brigadier-general; six colonels, nine lieutenant-colonels, nineteen majors, twenty-five captains, twenty-five first lieutenants, and the enlisted men, including ordnance-sergeants, as now authorized by law.

Act June 25, 1906, c. 3526, § 1, 34 Stat. 455.

This section supersedes the provisions prescribing the composition of the Ordnance Department contained in Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 23, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 797.

Provisions relating to the enlisted men of the Ordnance Department, including ordnance-sergeants, are contained in Rev. St. § 1162, Comp. St. 1901, p. 832.

Details to Ordnance Department from Army at large.

Sec. 2. That details to the Ordnance Department under the provisions of the Act of February second, nineteen hundred and one, may be made from the Army at large from the grade in which the vacancy exists, or from the grade below: Provided, That no officer shall be so detailed except upon the recommendation of a board of ordnance officers, and after at least one examination, which shall be open to competition: And provided further, That officers so detailed in grades below that of major shall not be again eligible for such detail until after they shall have served for at least one year out of that department.

Act June 25, 1906, c. 3526, § 2, 34 Stat. 455.

The provisions of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 26, for details to the Ordnance Department, mentioned in this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 799. This section supersedes previous similar provisions, relating to such details to the grade of first lieutenant only, contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 33 Stat. 942.

The rank in their respective grades of officers serving by detail in the Department is regulated by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, set forth below.

ACT JAN. 25, 1907, c. 397. [S. 3923.]

An Act to Reorganize and to Increase the Efficiency of the Artillery of the United States Army. (34 Stat. 861.)

Organization of artillery as coast artillery and field artillery; Chief of Artillery to be Chief of Coast Artillery.

Be it enacted, &c., That the artillery of the United States Army shall consist of the Chief of Artillery, the coast artillery, and the field artillery. The coast artillery and the field artillery shall be organized as hereinafter specified, and the artillery shall belong to the line of the Army: Provided, That on and after July first, nineteen hundred and eight, the Chief of Artillery shall cease to exercise supervision over the field artillery and shall thereafter be designated as the Chief of Coast Artillery.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 1, 34 Stat. 861.

This act supersedes the provisions of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, §§ 3–9, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 785–787, which constituted the artillery arm of the Army the Artillery Corps, comprising two branches, the coast artillery and the field artillery, and prescribed the composition of the Artillery Corps and of each company of coast artillery and each battery of field artillery.

Chief of Artillery or Chief of Coast Artillery an additional member of General Staff Corps; other duties; appointment to vacancy in office, and promotion to position vacated.

Sec. 2. That the Chief of Artillery or Chief of Coast Artillery shall be an additional member of the General Staff Corps, and his other duties shall be prescribed by the Secretary of War.

When a vacancy occurs in the office of the Chief of Artillery or Chief of Coast Artillery the President may appoint to such vacancy, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an officer selected from the coast artillery, who shall serve for a period of four years unless reappointed for further periods of four years; and any officer who shall hereafter serve as Chief of Artillery or Chief of Coast Artillery shall, when retired, be retired with the rank, pay, and allowances authorized by law for a brigadier-general on the retired list. The position vacated by an officer appointed Chief of Artillery or Chief of Coast Artillery shall be filled by promotion in that arm according to existing law, but the officer thus appointed shall continue in the same lineal position in his arm which he would have held if he had not been so appointed, and shall be an additional number in the grade from which he was appointed or to which he may be promoted: Provided, That there shall not be at any time in the coast artillery more than one additional officer by reason of the appointment of a Chief of Artillery or Chief of Coast Artillery and the relief of an officer from such duty.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 2, 34 Stat. 861.

The Chief of Artillery was made an additional member of the General Staff by a provision of the act establishing the General Staff Corps, Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, § 5, set forth above.

Coast artillery defined.

Sec. 3. That the coast artillery is the artillery charged with the care and use of the fixed and movable elements of land and coast fortifications, including the submarine mine and torpedo defenses.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 3, 34 Stat. 861.

Field artillery defined.

Sec. 4. That the field artillery is the artillery which accompanies an army in the field, and includes light artillery, horse artillery, siege artillery, and mountain artillery.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 4, 34 Stat. 861.

Composition of corps of coast artillery.

Sec. 5. That the coast artillery shall constitute a corps, and shall consist of one Chief of Coast Artillery with the rank, pay, and allowances of a brigadier-general, as provided in section one of this Act; fourteen colonels; fourteen lieutenant-colonels; forty-two majors; two hundred and ten captains; two hundred and ten first lieutenants, and two hundred and ten second lieutenants; and the captains and lieutenants provided for in this section not required for duty with companies shall be available for duty as staff officers of the various coast artillery commands and for such other details as may be authorized by law and regulations; twenty-one sergeants-major with the rank, pay, and allowances of regimental sergeants-major of infantry; twenty-six master electricians; sixty engineers; seventy-four electrician-sergeants, first class; seventy-four electrician-sergeants, second class; forty-two sergeants-major with the rank, pay, and allowances of battalion sergeants-major of infantry; forty-two master gunners; sixty firemen; one hundred and seventy companies, and fourteen bands, organized as now provided for by law for artillery corps bands.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 5, 34 Stat. 861.

The provision of this section for master-electricians supersedes a previous provision for adding to the Artillery Corps 25 master electricians, contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 930.

Provisions relating to artillery corps bands, mentioned in this section, are contained in Act March 2, 1899, c. 352, § 3, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 808.

Composition of company of coast artillery.

Sec. 6. That each company of coast artillery shall consist of one captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant, one first sergeant, one quartermaster-sergeant, two cooks, two mechanics, two musicians, and such number of sergeants, corporals, and privates as may be fixed by the President in accordance with the requirements of the service to which it may be assigned: Provided, That the total number of sergeants and corporals in the coast artillery, so fixed, shall not exceed one thousand three hundred and sixty and two thousand and forty, respectively, and that the total enlisted strength of the coast artillery, as provided under this Act, shall not exceed nineteen thousand one hundred and forty-seven, exclusive of master electricians, electrician-sergeants, first class, and electrician-sergeants, second class.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 6, 34 Stat. 862.

Composition of regiments of field artillery.

Sec. 7. That the field artillery shall consist of six regiments, each organized as follows: One colonel, one lieutenant-colonel, two majors, eleven captains, thirteen first lieutenants, and thirteen second lieutenants; two veterinarians, one sergeant-major, one quartermaster-sergeant, one commissary-sergeant, two battalion sergeants-major, two battalion quartermaster-sergeants, two color-sergeants, one band, and six batteries organized into two battalions of three batteries each. Of the officers herein provided the captains and lieutenants not required for duty with batteries shall be available for detail as regimental and battalion staff officers, and for such other details as may be authorized by law and regulations. Battalion adjutants shall be detailed from the captains, and battalion quartermasters and commissaries from lieutenants. Each field artillery band shall be organized as provided by law for cavalry bands: Provided, That the President in his discretion may increase by nine mounted orderlies the regimental strength herein authorized.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 7, 34 Stat. 862.

Provisions relating to cavalry bands, mentioned in this section, are contained in Act March 2, 1899, c. 352, § 2, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 809.

Composition of battery of field artillery.

Sec. 8. That each battery of field artillery shall consist of one captain, two first lieutenants, two second lieutenants, one first sergeant, one quartermaster-sergeant, one stable sergeant, one chief mechanic, six sergeants, twelve corporals, four mechanics, three cooks, two musicians, and one hundred and two privates, the commissioned officers to be assigned from among those hereinbefore authorized for the regiment: Provided, That the President in his discretion may increase the number of sergeants in any battery of field artillery to eight, the number of corporals to sixteen, the number of mechanics to seven, the number of musicians to three, and the number of privates to one hundred and forty-nine: Provided further, That nothing contained in this Act shall increase the total number of enlisted men in the line of the Army, together with the native scouts, as authorized by section thirty-six of the Act of Congress approved February second, nineteen hundred and one, entitled "An Act to increase the efficiency of the permanent military establishment of the United States."

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 8, 34 Stat. 862.

Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 36, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 803.

One of the "mechanics" authorized for each battery of field artillery is to be designated as "horseshoer," and receive the pay of a sergeant of artillery, by a provision of Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth below.

Mode of effecting separation of coast artillery and field artillery.

Sec. 9. That on and after the approval of this Act the coast artillery and the field artillery shall be permanently separated, the separation to be effected as follows:

All officers in the present Artillery Corps shall remain on one list as regards promotion until sufficient promotions shall have been made, as far as the present number of officers permit, to provide in each grade, together with the officers remaining therein, the total number of officers of the grade provided for in this Act for the coast and field artillery combined. After such promotion they shall, in each grade be assigned by the President to the coast artillery or to the field artillery, according to special aptitude and qualifications and agreeably to individual preference, so far as may be practicable and for the good of the service, such assignments to be permanent; and all officers promoted or appointed in the artillery thereafter shall be commissioned as officers of the coast artillery or the field artillery, as the case may be, and shall be promoted by seniority in their own branch, subject to the provisions of the laws governing promotion in the Army at large.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 9, 34 Stat. 863.

Vacancies; promotions and appointments.

Sec. 10. That all vacancies created or caused by this Act which can be filled by promotion of officers now in the Artillery Corps shall be filled by promotion according to seniority, subject to examination as now prescribed by law. Of the vacancies created or caused by this Act which can not be filled by promotion of officers now in the Artillery Corps, one-fifth in each branch shall be filled in each fiscal year until the total number of officers herein provided for shall have been attained. The vacancies remaining in the grade of second lieutenant shall be filled by appointment in the following order: First, of graduates of the United States Military Academy; second, of enlisted men whose fitness for advancement shall have been determined by competitive examination; third, of candidates from civil life; and all such appointments shall be made in accordance with the provisions of existing law.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 10, 34 Stat. 863.

General provisions as to the order of filling vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant are contained in Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1215.

Pay and allowances of noncommissioned officers and other enlisted men; additional pay, and limitations thereof.

Sec. 11. That the regimental and battalion noncommissioned staff officers herein authorized for regiments of field artillery shall have the pay and allowances of corresponding grades in the cavalry; the battalion quartermaster-sergeant shall have the pay and allowances of sergeant-major, junior grade, of the Artillery Corps; the chief mechanic the pay and allowance of sergeant, and the mechanics of field artillery the pay and allowances of artificers of field artillery; engineer, sixty-five dollars a month and allowances of ordnance-sergeant; electrician-sergeant, first class, forty-five dollars a month and allowances of ordnance-sergeant; electrician-sergeant, second class, thirty-five dollars a month and allowances of ordnance-sergeant; master gunner, the pay and allowances of ordnance-sergeant; fireman, thirty dollars a month and allowances of ordnance-sergeant; and that the rates of pay of all other enlisted men of the coast and the field artillery shall be as now provided by law: Provided, That casemate electricians, observers, first class, and plotters shall receive nine dollars a month in addition to their pay; that chief planters, chief loaders, observers, second class, gun commanders, and gun pointers shall receive seven dollars a month in addition to their pay, and that first-class gunners shall receive two dollars a month and second-class gunners one dollar a month in addition to their pay: Provided further, That the number of casemate electricians shall not exceed forty-four; that the number of observers, first class, shall not exceed one hundred and seventy; that the number of plotters shall not exceed one hundred and seventy; that the number of chief planters shall not exceed forty-four; that the number of chief loaders shall not exceed forty-four; that the number of observers, second class, shall not exceed one hundred and seventy; that the number of gun commanders shall not exceed three hundred and seventy-eight, and that the number of gun pointers shall not exceed three hundred and seventy-eight: And provided further, That no enlisted man shall receive under this section more than one addition to his pay.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 11, 34 Stat. 863.

A previous provision for additions to pay of gunners of field artillery, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 260, was superseded by the similar provision of this section. But the provisions of this section as to rates of pay and additional pay are superseded by the general provisions relating thereto of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth post, under chapter 3 of this Title.

Additional chaplains for field artillery and coast artillery.

Sec. 12. That in addition to the chaplains now authorized for the Artillery Corps the President is authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and subject to the laws governing appointment of chaplains in the Army, one chaplain for each regiment of field artillery and two for the coast artillery, with the rank, pay, and allowances now authorized by law for chaplains in the Army.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 12, 34 Stat. 864.

Chaplains for the Artillery Corps, mentioned in this section, 12 in number, were authorized by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 12, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 788.

Repeal.

Sec. 13. That all laws and parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Act Jan. 25, 1907, c. 397, § 13, 34 Stat. 864.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Military Secretary's Department to be known as Adjutant-General's Department, and Military Secretary's Office of War Department, as Adjutant-General's Office; titles of officers of Department.

* * That hereafter the Military Secretary's Department of the Army shall be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, the senior in rank of the officers of said department shall be designated by the title of The Adjutant-General, the other officers of the Department shall be designated by the title of Adjutant-General, and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department shall be known as the Adjutant-General's Office.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1158.

This is a proviso, annexed to an appropriation for contingent expenses at headquarters of the military divisions and departments, in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

The Military Secretary's Department of the Army and the Military Secretary's Office of the War Department were established by provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth above; and provisions as to the titles of officers thereof, contained in said act and in Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, are also set forth above.

Recruit and prison companies; noncommissioned officers, etc.

* * That hereafter recruit and prison companies shall have noncommissioned officers, musicians, artificers and cooks of the number and grades allowed by law for companies of infantry.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1160.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of enlisted men in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

The detachment of enlisted men to perform duty at recruit depots and at the military prison, with certain noncommissioned officers, is authorized by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth above.

Provisions for temporary appointment of sergeants and corporals and for organization of infantry bands in companies at recruiting depots, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, are set forth below.

Adjutant-General's Department; promotion to fill vacancy of lieutenant-colonel.

* * That when a vacancy of lieutenant-colonel shall occur in the list of either permanent or detailed officers of that grade in The Military Secretary's Department, the officer now holding a permanent appointment with the rank of major in that department may be promoted to such vacancy.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1161.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of officers in the Military Secretary's Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above. The Military Secretary's Department is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, by a previous provision of this act, set forth above.

Dental surgeons; number; detail to Military Academy.

* * That hereafter the number of dental surgeons authorized by law shall be thirty-one, of which number one shall be detailed to the United States Military Academy.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1163.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of dental surgeons in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above. The employment of dental surgeons, not exceeding 30, was authorized by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 18, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 793.

The dental surgeons authorized by this provision were included in the Medical Department of the Army, as constituted by Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 1, set forth below.

Subsequent provisions for the organization of a Dental Corps, attached to the Medical Department, composed of dental surgeons and acting dental surgeons, are contained in Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

RES. MARCH 2, 1907, No. 18. [H. J. R. 31.]

Joint Resolution Authorizing the Wearing of the Distinctive Badge Adopted by the Army and Navy Union upon all Occasions of Ceremony. (34 Stat. 1423.)

Badge of Army and Navy Union.

Resolved, &c., That the distinctive badge adopted by the Army and Navy Union of the United States may be worn, in their own right, upon all public occasions of ceremony by officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy of the United States who are members of said organization.

Res. March 2, 1907, No. 18, 34 Stat. 1423.

Previous similar provisions relating to badges of military societies are contained in Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 41, Comp. St. 1901, p. 805, and in Res. Jan. 12, 1903, No. 2, set forth above.

ACT APRIL 23, 1908, c. 150. [S. 1424.]

An Act to Increase the Efficiency of the Medical Department of the United States Army. (35 Stat. 66.)

Medical Department.

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the approval of this Act the Medical Department of the United States Army shall consist of a Medical Corps and a Medical Reserve Corps, as hereinafter provided;

and the Hospital Corps, the nurse corps, and dental surgeons, as now authorized by law.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 1, 35 Stat. 66.

This act supersedes the previous provisions prescribing the organization of the Medical Department, Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 18, Comp. St. 1901, p. 793.

A Dental Corps, composed of dental surgeons and acting dental surgeons, is attached to the Medical Department, by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

Composition of Medical Corps.

Sec. 2. That the Medical Corps shall consist of one Surgeon-General, with rank of brigadier-general, who shall be chief of the Medical Department; fourteen colonels, twenty-four lieutenant-colonels, one hundred and five majors, and three hundred captains or first lieutenants, who shall have rank, pay, and allowances of officers of corresponding grades in the cavalry arm of the service. Immediately following the approval of this Act all officers of the Medical Department then in active service, other than the Surgeon-General, shall be recommissioned in the corresponding grades in the Medical Corps established by this Act in the order of their seniority and without loss of relative rank in the Army, as follows: Assistant surgeons-general, with the rank of colonel, as colonels; deputy surgeons-general, with rank of lieutenant-colonel, as lieutenant-colonels; surgeons, with the rank of major, as majors; assistant surgeons, who at the time of the approval of this Act shall have served three years or more, as captains; and assistant surgeons, with the rank of first lieutenant, who at the time of the approval of this Act shall have served less than three years as such, as first lieutenants; and hereafter first lieutenants shall be promoted to the grade of captain after three years' service in the Medical Corps.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 2, 35 Stat. 66.

Certain contract surgeons are eligible for appointment in the corps, by a proviso annexed to section 7 of this act, set forth below.

Vacancies in grades; promotions; appointments.

Sec. 3. That promotions in the Medical Corps to fill vacancies in the several grades created or caused by this Act, or hereafter occurring, shall be made according to seniority, but all such promotions and all appointments to the grade of first lieutenant in said corps shall be subject to examination as hereinafter provided: Provided, That the increase in grades of colonel, lieutenant-colonel, and major provided for in this Act shall be filled by promotion each calendar year of not exceeding two lieutenant-colonels to be colonels, three majors to be lieutenant-colonels, fourteen captains to be majors, and of the increase in the grade of first lieutenant not more than twenty-five per centum of the total of such increase shall be appointed in any one calendar year: Provided further, That those assistant surgeons who at the time of the approval of this Act shall have attained their captaincy by reason of service in the volunteer forces under the provisions of the Act of February second, nineteen hundred and one, section eighteen, or who will receive their captaincy upon the approval of this Act by virtue of such service, shall take rank among the officers in or subsequently promoted to that grade, according to date of entrance into the Medical Department of the Army as commissioned officers.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 3, 35 Stat. 67.

Further provisions relating to promotions in the Medical Corps, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, are set forth below.

Examination for appointment.

Sec. 4. That no person shall receive an appointment as first lieutenant in the Medical Corps unless he shall have been examined and approved by an army medical board consisting of not less than three officers of the Medical Corps designated by the Secretary of War.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 4, 35 Stat. 67.

Examination for promotion; retirement for physical disability or other disqualification.

Sec. 5. That no officer of the Medical Corps below the rank of lieutenant-colonel shall be promoted therein until he shall have successfully passed an examination before an army medical board consisting of not less than three officers of the Medical Corps, to be designated by the Secretary of War, such examination to be prescribed by the Secretary of War and to be held at such time anterior to the accruing of the right to promotion as may be for the best interests of the service: Provided, That should any officer of the Medical Corps fail in his physical examination and be found incapacitated for service by reason of physical disability contracted in the line of duty, he shall be retired with the rank to which his seniority entitled him to be promoted; but if he should be found disqualified for promotion for any other reason, a second examination shall not be allowed, but the Secretary of War shall appoint a board of review to consist of three officers of the Medical Corps superior in rank to the officer examined, none of whom shall have served as a member of the board which examined him. If the unfavorable finding of the examining board is concurred in by the board of review, the officer reported disqualified for promotion shall, if a first lieutenant or captain, be honorably discharged from the service with one year's pay; and, if a major, shall be debarred from promotion and the officer next in rank found qualified shall be promoted to the vacancy. If the action of the examining board is disapproved by the board of review, the officer shall be considered qualified and shall be promoted.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 5, 35 Stat. 67.

Provisions for suspension from promotion and re-examination of any major of the Medical Corps found disqualified for any reason other than physical disability incurred in the line of duty, and for promotion or retirement on such re-examination, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, are set forth below.

Effect of act as to existing officers.

Sec. 6. That nothing in this Act shall be construed to legislate out of the service any officer now in the Medical Department of the Army, nor to affect the relative rank or promotion of any medical officer now in the service, or who may hereafter be appointed therein, as determined by the date of his appointment or commission, except as herein otherwise provided in section three.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 6, 35 Stat. 68.

Medical Reserve Corps; appointment, authority, etc., and rank of officers; contract surgeons eligible.

Sec. 7. That for the purpose of securing a reserve corps of medical officers available for military service, the President of the United States is authorized to issue commissions as first lieutenants therein to such graduates of reputable schools of medicine, citizens of the United States, as shall from time to time, upon examination to be prescribed by the Secretary of War, be found physically, mentally, and morally qualified to hold such commissions, the persons so commissioned to constitute and be known as the Medical Reserve Corps. The commissions so given shall confer upon the holders all the authority, rights, and privileges of commissioned officers of the like grade in the Medical Corps of the United States Army, except promotions, but only when called into active duty, as hereinafter provided, and during the period of such active duty. Officers of the Medical Reserve Corps shall have rank in said corps according to date of their commissions therein, and when employed on active duty, as hereinafter provided, shall rank next below all other officers of like grade in the United States Army: Provided, That contract surgeons now in the military service who receive the favorable recommendation of the Surgeon-General of the Army shall be eligible for appointment in said reserve corps without further examination: Provided further, That any contract surgeon not over twenty-seven years of age at date of his appointment as contract surgeon shall be eligible to appointment in the regular corps.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 7, 35 Stat. 68.

Service of officers of Medical Reserve Corps on active duty; discharge from corps; applications for appointment in Medical Corps; forfeiture of commission on refusal of active duty.

Sec. 8. That in emergencies the Secretary of War may order officers of the Medical Reserve Corps to active duty in the service of the United States in such numbers as the public interests may require, and may relieve them from such duty when their services are no longer necessary: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall be construed as authorizing an officer of the Medical Reserve Corps to be ordered upon active duty as herein provided who is unwilling to accept such service, nor to prohibit an officer of the Medical Reserve Corps not designated for active duty from service with the militia, or with the volunteer troops of the United States, or in the service of the United States in any other capacity, but when so serving with the militia or with volunteer troops, or when employed in the service of the United States in any other capacity, an officer of the Medical Reserve Corps shall not be subject to call for duty under the terms of this section: And provided further, That the President is authorized to honorably discharge from the Medical Reserve Corps any officer thereof whose services are no longer required: And provided further, That officers of the Medical Reserve Corps who apply for appointment in the Medical Corps of the Army may, upon the recommendation of the Surgeon-General, be placed on active duty by the Secretary of War and ordered to the Army Medical School for instruction and further examination to determine their fitness for commission in the Medical Corps: And provided further, That any officer of the Medical Reserve Corps who is subject to call and who shall be ordered upon active duty as herein provided and who shall be unwilling and refuse to accept such service shall forfeit his commission.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 8, 35 Stat. 68.

Officers of Medical Reserve Corps on active duty subject to Army regulations; rights as to pay and allowances, retirement, and pension; appointment of medical officers of volunteers in time of war.

Sec. 9. That officers of the Medical Reserve Corps when called upon active duty in the service of the United States, as provided in section eight of this Act, shall be subject to the laws, regulations, and orders for the government of the Regular Army, and during the period of such service shall be entitled to the pay and allowances of first lieutenants of the Medical Corps with increase for length of service now allowed by law, said increase to be computed only for time of active duty: Provided, That no officer of the Medical Reserve Corps shall be entitled to retirement or retirement pay, nor shall he be entitled to pension except for physical disability incurred in the line of duty while in active duty: And provided further, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the appointment in time of war of medical officers of volunteers in such numbers and with such rank and pay as may be provided by law.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 9, 35 Stat. 68.

Repeal.

Sec. 10. That all Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 10, 35 Stat. 69.

ACT MAY 11, 1908, c. 163. [H. R. 17288.]

Porto Rico regiment of infantry; term of enlistment; re-enlistments.

* * That men hereafter enlisted in the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry shall be enlisted for a period of three years and may be reenlisted, such enlistments and reenlistments to be subject to the regulations governing the Army at large, with such modifications as to physical requirements as the President may prescribe.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 114.

This is a proviso annexed to appropriations for pay of enlisted men in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. It supersedes previous provisions as to enlistment and reenlistment, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth above.

The regiment is designated the Porto Rico Regiment of Infantry of the United States Army by Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MAY 16, 1908, c. 171. [S. 652.]

An Act to Create the Office of Captain in the Philippine Scouts. (35 Stat. 163.)

Philippine Scouts; captains; appointment.

Be it enacted, &c., That the office of captain in the Philippine Scouts is hereby created as a grade of rank in the military establishment. Such captains shall be selected from officers of the grade of first lieutenants in said scouts, and shall be given provisional appointments for periods of four years each, and no such appointments shall be continued for a second or subsequent period unless the officers' conduct shall have been satisfactory in every respect: Provided, That the number of officers provisionally appointed under the terms of this Act shall not at any time exceed the number of companies of said native troops which may be formed by the President from time to time for service in the Philippine Islands.

Act May 16, 1908, c. 171, 35 Stat. 163.

The Philippine Scouts are authorized and their organization prescribed by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 36, Comp. St. 1901, p. 803.

ACT MAY 27, 1908, c. 201. [H. R. 18618.]

An Act Fixing the Status of the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry. (35 Stat. 392.)

Porto Rico regiment of infantry; designation; composition.

Be it enacted, &c., That on and after the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and eight, the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry shall be designated the Porto Rico Regiment of Infantry of the United States Army. It shall be composed of the two existing battalions of the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, § 1, 35 Stat. 392.

Previous provisions relating to the organization of the regiment are Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 37, Comp. St. 1901, p. 804, and Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, and Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth above.

Field officers; detail.

Sec. 2. That the field officers of said regiment shall be one lieutenant-colonel and two majors, who shall be detailed for four years by the President from officers not below the rank of captain of the Army.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, § 2, 35 Stat. 392.

Captains and lieutenants.

Sec. 3. That the present captains and lieutenants of the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment of Infantry appointed or who were reappointed after a mental, physical, and professional examination, may be recommissioned as officers of the Porto Rico Regiment of Infantry.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, § 3, 35 Stat. 392.

Vacancies in grade of second lieutenant; appointment of citizens of Porto Rico.

Sec. 4. That vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant may be filled by the President in his discretion by the appointment of citizens of Porto Rico whose qualifications for commissions shall be established by examination.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, § 4, 35 Stat. 392.

Promotions; confirmation of appointments and promotions; rank, pay and allowances, and rights of officers; retirement.

Sec. 5. That promotions to the grade of first lieutenant and captain shall be according to seniority within the regiment, subject to the examination provided by law. All appointments and promotions herein provided for shall be made with the advice and consent of the Senate. Officers of the Porto Rico Regiment of Infantry shall have the same rank, pay, rights, and allowances provided by law for officers of similar rank in the Army of the United States, except as herein provided with regard to promotion. Any of the officers provided for by section three who may have become incapacitated for active service by reason of disability incident to the service shall be placed upon the retired list with the rank to which they would otherwise be entitled.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, § 5, 35 Stat. 392.

Repeal.

Sec. 6. That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 201, § 6, 35 Stat. 392.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 252. [H. R. 26915.]

School detachments at service schools.

* * That from the enlisted force of the army now provided by law the President may authorize the organization of school detachments at each of the service schools, and may authorize the appointment therein of such noncommissioned officers, mechanics, artificers, farriers, horseshoers, and cooks as may be necessary for the administration of such school: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed as to authorize an increase in the total number of enlisted men of the army now authorized by law.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 733.

These are provisos annexed to an appropriation under the heading "United States Service Schools" in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. Said appropriation is set forth below in the note under Act Jan. 29, 1887, c. 72, § 1, following Rev. St. § 1120.

Examination for promotion in Medical Corps; suspension from promotion of major found disqualified; re-examination; retirement.

* * That any major of the Medical Corps on the active list of the army who at his first examination for promotion to the grade of lieutenant-colonel in said corps, has been or shall hereafter be found disqualified for such promotion for any reason other than physical disability incurred in the line of duty shall be suspended from promotion and his right thereto shall pass successively to such officers next below him in rank in said corps as are or may become eligible to promotion under existing law during the period of his suspension; and any officer suspended from promotion, as hereinbefore provided, shall be reexamined as soon as practicable after the expiration of one year from the date of the completion of the examination that resulted in his suspension; and if on such reexamination he is found qualified for promotion, he shall again become eligible thereto; but if he is found disqualified by reason of physical disability incurred in line of duty, he shall be retired, with the rank to which his seniority entitles him to be promoted; and if he is not found disqualified by reason of such physical disability, but is found disqualified for promotion for any other reason, he shall be retired without promotion.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 737.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for pay of officers in the Medical Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Provisions for examination for promotion in the Medical Corps and for retirement for physical disability or other disqualification, are contained in Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 5, set forth above.

Temporary sergeants and corporals at recruiting depots.

* * That hereafter the Secretary of War may authorize the temporary appointment of such number of sergeants and corporals in the companies at the general recruiting depots as may be necessary for the proper control and instruction of the varying number of recruits attached to such companies; * *

Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 741.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for purchase of subsistence supplies in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Previous provisions for detachments at recruit depots, and for non-commissioned officers, etc., thereat, contained in Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, and Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, are set forth above.

Infantry bands at recruiting depots.

* * That hereafter one of the companies at each recruiting depot shall have the organization of an infantry band, to which recruits showing an aptitude for music may be attached for examination and instruction before assignment to organizations in the Army; * *

Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 745.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for transportation of the Army and its supplies in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Previous provisions for detachments at recruit depots, and for musicians, etc., thereat, contained in Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, and Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, are set forth above.

Ordnance Department; rank of officers.

Hereafter officers serving by detail in the Ordnance Department, under the Acts of February second, nineteen hundred and one, and June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and six, shall take rank in their respective grades from the dates of their rank under their original detail in said grades.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 751.

This is a provision under the head "Ordnance Department" in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. The provisions of Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 26, mentioned therein, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 799, and those of Act June 25, 1906, c. 3526, § 2, also mentioned therein, are set forth above.

ACT MARCH 23, 1910, c. 115. [H. R. 15384.]

Composition of troop of cavalry; horseshoer; farrier; composition of battery of field artillery; horseshoer.

* * That one of the two "blacksmiths and farriers" now authorized by law for each troop of cavalry shall hereafter be designated as "horseshoer" and receive the pay of a sergeant of cavalry, and the other shall hereafter be designated as "farrier" and receive the pay of a corporal of cavalry; and that one of the "mechanics" now authorized by law for each battery of field artillery shall hereafter be designated as "horseshoer" and receive the pay of a sergeant of artillery.

Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 245.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for pay of enlisted men in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

A previous provision that one of the two "blacksmiths and farriers" authorized for each troop of cavalry be designated "farrier," and the other "horseshoer" contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 735, is superseded by this provision.

Clerks and other civilian employés at headquarters of divisions, departments, posts commanded by general officers, and office of Chief of Staff; assignment to duty in War Department.

Pay to Clerks, Messengers, and Laborers at Headquarters of Divisions, and Departments, and posts commanded by general officers, and Office of the Chief of Staff.

* * And said clerks and messengers and laborers shall be employed and assigned by the Secretary of War to the offices and positions in which they are to serve: Provided, That no clerk, messenger, or laborer at headquarters of divisions, departments, posts commanded by general officers, or office of the Chief of Staff, shall be assigned to duty with any bureau in the War Department.

Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 246.

These are provisions accompanying appropriations for specified numbers of clerks, messengers, and laborers, in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above. Provisions similar to these, to a greater or less extent, accompanied the appropriations for the same purposes in previous years. These provisions are repeated in the same language in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1040.

A similar provision relating to the office of the General Staff, contained in Act June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, is set forth above.

ACT FEB. 27, 1911, c. 166, § 5. [H. R. 28632.]

Composition of Corps of Engineers; increase; additional officers; payment of officers from appropriations for river and harbor improvements; detail of assistant engineers employed by Engineer Bureau; filling vacancies; assignment of graduating cadets; appointments from civil life; examinations for appointment.

Sec. 5. That the Corps of Engineers of the United States Army is hereby increased by five colonels, six lieutenant colonels, nineteen majors, seventeen captains, and thirteen first lieutenants. The increase in each grade hereby provided for shall be extended over a period of five years as nearly as practicable, and the original vacancies hereby created in each grade shall be filled by promotion from the next lower grade in accordance with existing law: Provided, That officers of the Corps of Engineers, when on duty under the Chief of Engineers, connected solely with the work of river and harbor improvements may, while so employed, be paid their pay and commutation of quarters from the appropriations for the work or works upon which they are employed: Provided further, That whenever it shall be necessary, in order to properly prosecute works of river and harbor improvement, the Chief of Engineers is authorized to detail for duty in charge of river and harbor districts or as members of boards of engineers any assistant engineers in the employ of the Engineer Bureau of the War Department. Vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers shall hereafter be filled, as far as may be consistent with the interests of the military service, by promotions from the Corps of Cadets at the United States Military Academy: Provided, That vacancies remaining in any fiscal year after the assignment of cadets of the class graduating in that fiscal year may be filled from civil life as hereinafter provided: And provided further, That the proportion of any graduating class assigned to the Corps of Engineers shall not be less than the proportion which the total number of officers authorized at date of graduation for that corps bears to the total number of officers authorized at same date for all branches of the Army to which cadets are eligible for promotion upon graduation, except when such a proportionate number is more than the number of vacancies existing at date of graduation plus the number of retirements due to occur in the Corps of Engineers prior to the first day of the following January. To become eligible for examination and appointment, a civilian candidate for the appointment as second lieutenant must be an unmarried citizen of the United States between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-nine, who holds a diploma showing graduation in an engineering course from an approved technical school, and is eligible for appointment as a junior engineer under the Engineer Bureau of the War Department. Selection of eligible civilians for appointment, including term of probation, shall be made as the result of such competitive examination into the mental, moral, and physical qualifications, and under such rules and regulations as shall be recommended by the Chief of Engineers and approved by the Secretary of War.

Act Feb. 27, 1911, c. 166, § 5, 36 Stat. 957.

This section is part of the river and harbor appropriation act cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Composition of Quartermaster's Department; increase; additional officers.

* * That the Quartermaster's Department is hereby increased by two colonels, three lieutenant colonels, seven majors, and eighteen captains, the vacancies thus created to be filled by promotion and detail in accordance with section twenty-six of the Act approved February second, nineteen hundred and one.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1045.

This is a proviso of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Remount detachments at remount depots; noncommissioned officers, etc.

* * That hereafter from the enlisted force of the Army now provided by law the President may authorize the organization of remount detachments at each of the remount depots, and may authorize the appointment therein of such noncommissioned officers, mechanics, artificers, farriers, horseshoers, and cooks as may be necessary for the administration of such remount depots: Provided, That nothing herein shall be so construed as to authorize an increase in the total number of enlisted men of the Army now authorized by law.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1049.

These are further provisos annexed to the appropriation for horses in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Dental Corps attached to Medical Department; composition of corps; appointments and promotions; rank; right to command; pay and allowances; qualifications for appointment; examinations.

Hereafter there shall be attached to the Medical Department a dental corps, which shall be composed of dental surgeons and acting dental surgeons, the total number of which shall not exceed the proportion of one to each thousand of actual enlisted strength of the Army; the number of dental surgeons shall not exceed sixty, and the number of acting dental surgeons shall be such as may, from time to time, be authorized by law. All original appointments to the dental corps shall be as acting dental surgeons, who shall have the same official status, pay, and allowances as the contract dental surgeons now authorized by law. Acting dental surgeons who have served three years in a manner satisfactory to the Secretary of War shall be eligible for appointment as dental surgeons, and, after passing in a satisfactory manner an examination which may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, may be commissioned with the rank of first lieutenant in the dental corps to fill the vacancies existing therein. Officers of the dental corps shall have rank in such corps according to date of their commissions therein and shall rank next below officers of the Medical Reserve Corps. Their right to command shall be limited to the dental corps. The pay and allowances of dental surgeons shall be those of first lieutenants, including the right to retirement on account of age or disability, as in the case of other officers: Provided, That the time served by dental surgeons as acting dental or contract dental surgeons shall be reckoned in computing the increased service pay of such as are commissioned under this Act. The appointees as acting dental surgeons must be citizens of the United States between twenty-one and twenty-seven years of age, graduates of a standard dental college, of good moral character and good professional education, and they shall be required to pass the usual physical examination required for appointment in the Medical Corps, and a professional examination which shall include tests of skill in practical dentistry and of proficiency in the usual subjects of a standard dental college course: Provided, That the contract dental surgeons attached to the Medical Department at the time of the passage of this Act may be eligible for appointment as first lieutenants, dental corps, without limitation as to age: And provided further, That the professional examination for such appointment may be waived in the case of contract dental surgeons in the service at the time of the passage of this Act whose efficiency reports and entrance examinations are satisfactory. The Secretary of War is authorized to appoint boards of three examiners to conduct the examinations herein prescribed, one of whom shall be a surgeon in the Army and two of whom shall be selected by the Secretary of War from the commissioned dental surgeons.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1054.

These are provisions of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Previous provisions relating to contract dental surgeons were contained in Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 1485, § 18, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 793, and Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth above.

Secs. 1095, 1096.

RES. FEB. 5, 1895, No. 9.

Lieutenant-General; grade revived.

The office of Lieutenant-General, revived by this resolution, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 806, and included in the composition of the Army by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 784, is to cease when it shall become vacant, by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Lieutenant-General; vacancy not to be filled, and office to cease.

* * That when the office of Lieutenant-General shall become vacant it shall not thereafter be filled, but said office shall cease and determine: Provided further, That nothing in this provision shall affect the retired list.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1160.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of officers in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above. The grade of Lieutenant-General was revived by Res. Feb. 5, 1905, No. 9, Comp. St. 1901, p. 806, and was included in the composition of the Army by Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 784.

Sec. 1098.

Aids of major and brigadier generals.

Acts and parts of acts authorizing aids-de-camp and military secretaries do not apply to general officers of the General Staff Corps, by a provision of the act establishing the corps, Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, § 4, set forth above.

Sec. 1111. [As amended 1901.]

Band; [Military Academy.]

Rev. St. § 1111, as amended by Act March 2, 1901, c. 804, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 810, prescribing the composition of the Military Academy Band, is further amended by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, set forth below. Further provisions relating to the pay of enlisted men of the band and field musicians of the Military Academy, contained in Act May 28, 1908, c. 214, are also set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1404. [H. R. 17984.]

Amendment of Rev. St. § 1111.

Section eleven hundred and eleven of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

Band; Military Academy.

"Sec. 1111. The Military Academy band shall hereafter consist of one teacher of music, who shall be the leader of the band, one enlisted band sergeant and assistant leader, and of forty enlisted musicians. The teacher of music shall receive the pay of a second lieutenant, not mounted; the enlisted band sergeant and assistant leader shall receive six hundred dollars per year; and of the enlisted musicians of the band, twelve shall each receive thirty-four dollars per month, twelve shall each receive twenty-five dollars per month, and the remaining sixteen shall each receive seventeen dollars per month, and each of the aforesaid enlisted men shall also be entitled to the clothing, fuel, rations, and other allowances of musicians of cavalry; and the said teacher of music, the band sergeant and assistant leader, and the enlisted musicians of the band shall be entitled to the same benefits in respect to pay, emoluments, and retirement arising from longevity, re-enlistment, and length of service as are, or may hereafter become, applicable to other officers or enlisted men of the Army."

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, 33 Stat. 853.

This is a provision of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above. Rev. St. § 1111, amended by this provision, is set forth, as previously amended, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 810.

Further provisions relating to the pay of the band and field musicians of the Military Academy, contained in Act May 28, 1908, c. 214, are set forth below.

ACT MAY 28, 1908, c. 214. [H. R. 21875.]

Pay of band, field musicians, etc., Military Academy.

For pay of the Military Academy band, field musicians, general army service, cavalry and artillery detachment, and enlisted men on detached service, and extra pay for enlisted men on special duty:

For pay of military band, one band sergeant and assistant leader, nine hundred dollars;

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Application of funds received from transfer of military stores, etc., to Insular Department of Philippines.

Hereafter all funds received as the value of military stores transferred by the several staff departments of the Army to the Insular Department of the Philippines, or work done, shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States and remain available during the fiscal year in which the transaction occurred and the following year for the procurement of like military stores to replace those so transferred.

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 258.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. A similar provision, without the word "hereafter," and the words "or work done," was contained in previous Army appropriation acts.

ACT MARCH 23, 1910, c. 115. [H. R. 15384.]

Moneys from disposition of supplies or stores to remain available throughout following fiscal year.

Hereafter all moneys arising from disposition of serviceable quartermaster's supplies or stores, authorized by law and regulations, shall remain available throughout the fiscal year following that in which the disposition was effected, for the purposes of that appropriation from which such supplies were authorized to be supplied at the time of the disposition.

Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 257.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Surplus products, etc., of ice machines, steam laundries, and electric plants; sale or disposal thereof; use of proceeds.

* * For the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twelve, whenever the ice machines, steam laundries, and electric plants shall not come in competition with private enterprise for sale to the public, and in the opinion of the Secretary of War it becomes necessary to the economical use and administration of such ice machines, steam laundries, and electric plants as have been or may hereafter be established in pursuance of law, surplus ice may be disposed of, laundry work may be done for other branches of the Government, and surplus electric light and power may be sold on such terms and in accordance with such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War: Provided, That the funds received from such sales and in payment for such laundry work shall be used to defray the cost of operation of said ice, laundry, and electric plants; and the sales and expenditures herein provided for shall be accounted for in accordance with the methods prescribed by law, and any sums remaining, after such cost of maintenance and operation have been defrayed, shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the appropriation from which the cost of operation of such plant is paid, * *

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1048.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. Though in terms applicable only to the particular year, it is repeated in each of the recent annual Army appropriation acts.

Civilian employees in Quartermaster's Department; limitation of number and amount of salary.

* * That the number of and total sum paid for civilian employees in the Quartermaster General's Department, including those paid from the fund appropriated for regular supplies, incidental expenses, barracks and quarters, Army transportation, clothing, camp and garrison equipage, shall be limited to the actual requirements of the service, and that no employee paid therefrom shall receive a salary of more than one hundred and fifty dollars per month, except upon the approval of the Secretary of War. * *

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1049.

This is a proviso of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Sec. 1136. [As amended 1877.]

Permanent barracks.

The appropriation under the heading "Barracks and Quarters" in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is accompanied by a proviso "That no part of the moneys so appropriated shall be paid for commutation of fuel or quarters to officers or enlisted men," Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1049.

The appropriations in the recent sundry civil appropriation acts, for buildings at military posts, are accompanied by restrictions on the use of the money appropriated. In the act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, the provision is: "But no part of this sum shall be used for the purchase of land, for construction of buildings at coast artillery posts, nor for the establishment of any military prison." Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1398.

Sec. 1137.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for construction and repair of hospitals in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Sec. 1188.

Duties of paymasters.

Provisions relating to disbursements by and accounts of paymasters, in regard to the pay of the Army, contained in Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1905, c. 1307. [H. R. 17473.]

Disbursement of pay and accounts of officers of Pay Department; assignment of paymasters' clerks to duty in office of Paymaster-General.

All the money hereinbefore appropriated for pay of the Army and miscellaneous shall be disbursed and accounted for by officers of the Pay Department as pay of the Army, and for that purpose shall constitute one fund: Provided, That hereafter all the accounts of individual paymasters shall be analyzed under the several heads of the appropriation and recorded in detail by the Paymaster-General of the Army before said accounts are forwarded to the Treasury Department for final audit, and the Secretary of War may hereafter authorize the assignment to duty in the office of the Paymaster-General, not to exceed five paymasters' clerks, now authorized by law.

Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 832.

These are provisions, following the appropriations for pay of the Army and miscellaneous mentioned therein, in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

The provision for disbursement of and accounting for the pay of the Army as one fund is repeated from preceding Army appropriation acts, in which, as in this act, it in terms relates to "the money hereinbefore appropriated," and is therefore applicable only to the appropriations for the particular fiscal year. The provision is repeated in subsequent similar acts, with an exception of "the appropriation for mileage of officers and contract surgeons when authorized by law." The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1044.

A similar provision that the appropriation for pay of the Military Academy "shall be disbursed and accounted for by officers of the Pay Department as pay of the Military Academy, and for that purpose shall constitute one fund," is contained in the recent Military Academy appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1021.

Further provisions that no part of the sums appropriated for support of the Regular Army shall be used for the expenses of the organized militia while engaged in joint encampment, etc., of the Regular Army and militia, under Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 15, and that all payments to the militia under that section shall be made solely from the sums appropriated for such purpose, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, and Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, are set forth post, under Title XVI, "The Militia."

Sec. 1189.

Periods of payment.

The daily rate for computation of pay for fractional parts of a month is fixed by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth post, under chapter 3 of this Title.

Sec. 1190.

Paymasters' clerks.

The assignment to duty in the office of the Paymaster-General of "not to exceed five paymasters' clerks," who are provided for by Rev. St. § 1190, Comp. St. 1901, p. 843, is authorized by a provision of Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1094.

OF PROMOTIONS, BREVETS, AND CERTIFICATES OF MERIT.

Sec. 1204.

ACT OCT. 1, 1890, c. 1241, § 1. [As amended 1892.]

Promotions by seniority, subject to examination.

Line officers on the active list below the grade of colonel, who lost in lineal rank through the system of regimental promotion in force before Act Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1241, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 849, may be advanced to higher grades, up to the grade of colonel, by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

Provisions subsequent to those of Act Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1241, § 1, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 849, and to those referred to in the note under that section, relating to promotions and rank of chaplains, are contained in Act April 21, 1904, c. 1404, set forth above; and relating to appointments, promotions, rank, vacancies, etc., in the Military Secretary's Department of the Army, which by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth above, is to be known as the Adjutant-General's Department, in Act April 23, 1904, Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, and said Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, also set forth above.

Provisions relating to promotions in the Medical Department, as constituted by Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, are contained in sections 2, 3, and 5 of that act, set forth above, under Rev. St. § 1094.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Advancement to higher grades of officers who lost in lineal rank through former system of lineal promotion.

On and after the passage of this Act, every line officer on the active list below the grade of colonel who has lost in lineal rank through the system of regimental promotion in force prior to October first, eighteen hundred and ninety, may, in the discretion of the President, and subject to examination for promotion as prescribed by law, be advanced to higher grades in his arm up to and including the grade of colonel, in accordance with the rank he would have been entitled to hold had promotion been lineal throughout his arm or corps since the date of his entry into the arm or corps to which he permanently belongs: Provided, That officers advanced to higher grades under the provisions of this Act shall be additional officers in those grades: Provided further, That nothing in this Act shall operate to interfere with or retard the promotion to which any officer would be entitled under existing law: And provided further, That the officers advanced to higher grades under this Act shall be junior to the officers who now rank them under existing law, when these officers have reached the same grade.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1058.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

The former system of promotion, mentioned in this provision, was prescribed by Rev. St. § 1204, superseded by Act Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1241, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 849.

Sec. 1215.

ACT JUNE 18, 1878, c. 263, § 3.

Appointment of second lieutenants.

Provisions subsequent to those of this section and of Act July 30, 1892, c. 328, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 855, relating to the order of appointments to fill vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant, contained in Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Vacancies in grade of second lieutenant; order of appointment.

* * That hereafter vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant occurring in any fiscal year shall be filled by appointment in the following order, namely: First, of cadets graduated from the United States Military Academy during that fiscal year; second, of enlisted men whose fitness for promotion shall have been determined by competitive examination; third, of candidates from civil life between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-seven years. The President is authorized to make rules and regulations to carry these provisions into effect: * *

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1045.

This is a proviso of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Sec. 1216. [As amended 1891, 1892.]

Certificates of merit for privates.

Medals of honor, to be presented to officers, noncommissioned officers, and privates, for distinguished gallantry in action, and to replace such medals formerly issued, are authorized by provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below.

The issue of a duplicate of any medal, made and presented, under any act or resolution of Congress. to any officer or person in the United States on account of distinguished or meritorious services, which has been lost or destroyed through no fault of the beneficiary, is authorized by Res. April 15, 1904, No. 23, set forth below.

A national trophy and medals and other prizes to be contested for annually, said contest to be open to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and the National Guard or organized militia of the several States, Territories, and of the District of Columbia, are provided for by an appropriation, repeating similar previous appropriations, in Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

RES. APRIL 15, 1904, No. 23. [S. J. R. 9.]

Joint Resolution Authorizing the Issue of Duplicate Medals where the Originals have been Lost or Destroyed. (33 Stat. 588.)

Duplicates of medals presented for distinguished or meritorious services, and lost or destroyed.

Resolved, &c., That in any case where the President of the United States has heretofore, under any Act or resolution of Congress, caused any medal to be made and presented to any officer or person in the United States on account of distinguished or meritorious services, on a proper showing made by such person to the satisfaction of the President that such medal has been lost or destroyed through no fault of the beneficiary, and that diligent search has been made therefor, the President is hereby authorized to cause to be prepared and delivered to such person a duplicate of such medal, the cost of which shall be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Res. April 15, 1904, No. 23, 33 Stat. 588.

The issue of medals of honor to replace medals issued under Res. July 12, 1862, No. 52, 12 Stat. 623, and Act March 3, 1863, c. 79, § 6, 12 Stat. 751, is authorized by provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 23, 1904, c. 1485. [H. R. 10670.]

Medals of honor for distinguished gallantry in action.

For three thousand medals of honor to be prepared, with suitable emblematic devices, upon the design of the medal of honor heretofore issued, or upon an improved design, together with appropriate rosettes or other insignia to be worn in lieu of the medal, and to be presented by direction of the President, and in the name of Congress, to such officers, noncommissioned officers, and privates as have most distinguished, or may hereafter most distinguish, themselves by their gallantry in action, twelve thousand dollars: Provided, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to use so many of the medals and rosettes or other insignia provided for by this Act as may be necessary to replace the medals that have been issued under the joint resolution of Congress approved July twelfth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and section six of the Act of Congress approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-three: And provided further, That whenever it shall appear from official records in the War Department that any officer or enlisted man of the Army so distinguished himself in action as to entitle him to the award of the Congressional medal of honor under the provisions of the sixth section of the Act of Congress approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, entitled, "An Act making appropriations for the sundry civil expenses of the Government for the year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and for the year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, and for other purposes," the fact that the person who so distinguished himself has since become separated from the military service, or that the award of the medal to him was not specifically recommended or applied for while he was in the said service, shall not be held to prevent the award and presentation of the medal to such person under the provisions of the law hereinbefore cited.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 274.

Res. July 12, 1862, No. 52, 12 Stat. 623, mentioned in this provision, was as follows:

"Resolved," etc., "That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized to cause two thousand 'Medals of Honor' to be prepared with suitable emblematic devices, and to direct that the same be presented, in the name of Congress, to such noncommissioned officers and privates as shall most distinguish themselves by their gallantry in action, and other soldier-like qualities, during the present insurrection.

And that the sum of ten thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of carrying this resolution into effect."

Act March 3, 1863, c. 79, § 6, 12 Stat. 751, also mentioned in this provision, was as follows:

"And be it further enacted, That the President cause to be struck from the dies recently prepared at the United States mint for that purpose, 'Medals of Honor' additional to those authorized by the act [resolution] of July twelfth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and present the same to such officers, noncommissioned officers, and privates as have most distinguished or who may hereafter most distinguish themselves in action; and the sum of twenty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to defray the expenses of the same."

The provisions of the resolution and act set forth here, being temporary in their nature, were not incorporated into the Revised Statutes.

Further provisions relating to medals to be replaced under this act are contained in Res. Feb. 27, 1907, No. 17, set forth below.

Provisions for medals of honor, etc., to officers and men of the Navy, are contained in Res. May 4, 1898, No. 30, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1002, and in previous acts mentioned in that resolution and cited in the note thereunder, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1002.

RES. FEB. 27, 1907, No. 17. [H. J. R. 223.]

Joint Resolution Relating to the Holders of Medals of Honor. (34 Stat. 1422.)

Medals of honor replaced not required to be surrendered.

Resolved, &c., That the holders of medals of honor under the Act approved July twelfth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and section six of the Act approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, shall not be required to surrender such medals in case such medals are replaced, in pursuance of the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April twenty-third, nineteen hundred and four; and that wherever the holders of such medals of honor have surrendered them, in order to receive the medals provided for by said Act approved April twenty-third, nineteen hundred and four, such medals shall be returned to them: Provided, That no recipient of both medals shall wear both medals at the same time.

Res. Feb. 27, 1907, No. 17, 34 Stat. 1422.

The provisions of Res. July 12, 1862, No. 52, and of Act March 3, 1863, c. 79, § 6, mentioned in this resolution, are set forth in the note under the provision, also mentioned therein, of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

National trophy, medals, and prizes, for annual contest, open to Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and National Guard or organized militia of States, etc.

National trophy and medals for rifle contests: For the purpose of furnishing a national trophy and medals and other prizes to be provided and contested for annually, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, said contest to be open to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and the National Guard or organized militia of the several States, Territories, and of the District of Columbia, members of rifle clubs and civilians, and for the cost of the trophy, prizes, and medals herein provided for, and for the promotion of rifle practice throughout the United States, including the reimbursement of necessary expenses of members of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, to be expended for the purposes hereinbefore prescribed under the direction of the Secretary of War, ten thousand dollars.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1058.

This is a provision accompanying appropriations for the Ordnance Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Similar provisions were contained in several preceding annual Army appropriation acts.

Appropriations are also made in said acts for supplying meals or furnishing commutation of rations to enlisted men of the Regular Army and the organized militia who may be competitors in the national rifle match. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1058.

GENERAL PROVISIONS OF ORGANIZATION.

Sec. 1217.

Commissions now held not vacated.

Provisions similar to those of Rev. St. § 1217, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 857, as to the effect on existing commissions of acts making changes in the organization of the Army, are usually inserted in such acts, as in Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 39, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 805, relating to the composition and organization of the Army, and in Act April 21, 1904, c. 1404, § 3, set forth above, applying to chaplains, and in the concluding clause of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, also set forth above, applying to officers generally.

Sec. 1219.

Time of actual service considered in fixing rank.

In computing time of service as a commissioned officer to determine relative rank as provided by Rev. St. § 1219, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 858, persons appointed first or second lieutenants in the Regular Army who had served as volunteers subsequent to April 21, 1898, take rank in the respective grades according to seniority as determined by prior commissioned service, by provisions of the Act authorizing such appointments, Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 28, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 801.

The same credit for prior commissioned service is to be allowed a second lieutenant of the Marine Corps appointed second lieutenant of artillery since February 2, 1901, in determining his lineal and relative rank, as to a lieutenant of volunteers appointed under said Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 28, mentioned above, by Act Dec. 20, 1904, c. 20, set forth below.

ACT DEC. 20, 1904, c. 20. [S. 2114.]

An Act to Fix the Rank of Certain Officers in the Army. (33 Stat. 595.)

Credit for time of prior commissioned service in Marine Corps in determining rank.

Be it enacted, &c., That any second lieutenant of the United States Marine Corps who may have been appointed second lieutenant of artillery since the second day of February, nineteen hundred and one, and prior to the passage of this Act, shall, in determining his lineal and relative rank, be entitled to the same credit for prior commissioned service as a lieutenant of volunteers appointed under the Act entitled "An Act to increase the efficiency of the permanent military establishment of the United States," approved February second, nineteen hundred and one.

Act Dec. 20, 1904, c. 20, 33 Stat. 595.

Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 28, mentioned in this act, which provides for credit for prior commissioned service to persons appointed first or second lieutenant in the Regular Army, who served as volunteers subsequent to April 21, 1898, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 801.

Sec. 1225. [As amended 1888.]

Officers and arms for colleges [and other educational institutions].

The provisions of Rev. St. § 1225, as amended, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 861, and further amended by subsequent provisions set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 863-866, relating to the detail of officers of the Army and Navy to educational institutions, are further amended, so as to permit additional details of retired officers and noncommissioned officers of the Army and Navy, by Act April 21, 1904, c. 1403, set forth below.

ACT NOV. 3, 1893, c. 13.

[Amended. Act March 3, 1909, c. 252.]

This act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 863, is amended by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 26, 1901, c. 607, §§ 1, 2.

Retired officers detailed as instructors in military drill and tactics in schools.

In addition to the provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 865, for the detail of retired officers as instructors in schools, such detail of retired noncommissioned officers is authorized, and schools in the territories are included, by a further amendment of Rev. St. § 1225, by Act April 21, 1904, c. 1403, set forth below.

Compensation of officers detailed.

In addition to the provisions of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 865, for compensation of retired officers detailed as instructors in schools, compensation of noncommissioned officers authorized to be so detailed is provided for, by a further amendment of Rev. St. § 1225, by Act April 21, 1904, c. 1403, § 2, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 21, 1904, c. 1403. [S. 1399.]

An Act to Amend Section Twelve Hundred and Twenty-Five of Revised Statutes, so as to Provide for Detail of Retired Officers of the Army and Navy to Assist in Military Instruction in Schools. (33 Stat. 225.)

Retired officers and noncommissioned officers detailed as instructors in military drill and tactics in schools.

Be it enacted, &c., That section twelve hundred and twenty-five of the Revised Statutes, concerning the detail of officers of the Army and Navy to educational institutions, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to permit the President to detail under the provisions of that Act, and in addition to the detail of the officers of the Army and Navy now authorized to be detailed under the existing provisions of said Act, such retired officers and noncommissioned officers of the Army and Navy of the United States as in his judgment may be required for that purpose to act as instructors in military drill and tactics in schools in the United States and Territories where such instructions shall have been authorized by the educational authorities thereof, and where the services of such instructors shall have been applied for by said authorities.

Act April 21, 1904, c. 1403, § 1, 33 Stat. 225.

Previous provisions for the detail for the same purposes of "retired officers," not including noncommissioned officers, to "schools in the United States," not expressly mentioning schools in the territories, but otherwise identical with those of this section, are contained in Act Feb. 26, 1901, c. 607, § 1, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 865.

Compensation of officers and noncommissioned officers detailed.

Sec. 2. That no detail shall be made under this Act to any school unless it shall pay the cost of commutation of quarters of the retired officers or noncommissioned officers detailed thereto and the extra-duty pay to which they may be entitled by law to receive for the performance of special duty: Provided, That no detail shall be made under the provisions of this Act unless the officers and noncommissioned officers to be detailed are willing to accept such position: Provided further, That they shall receive no compensation from the Government other than their retired pay.

Act April 21, 1904, c. 1403, § 2, 33 Stat. 225.

Previous provisions for compensation of "retired officers" detailed for the same purposes are contained in Act Feb. 26, 1901, c. 607, § 2, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 865. By this section compensation is also provided for retired noncommissioned officers authorized by this act to be so detailed, and express provision is made that officers and noncommissioned officers detailed shall receive no compensation from the government other than their retired pay.

Issue of ordnance and ordnance stores to schools.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of War is authorized to issue at his discretion, and under proper regulations to be prescribed by him, out of ordnance and ordnance stores belonging to the Government, and which can be spared for that purpose, upon the approval of the governors of the respective States and Territories, such number of the same as may be required for military instruction and practice by such school, and the Secretary shall require a bond in each case, for double the value of the property, for the care and safe-keeping thereof and for the return of the same when required.

Act April 21, 1904, c. 1403, § 3, 33 Stat. 226.

Previous provisions identical with this section, except the words "and Territories," following the words "the respective States," are contained in Act Feb. 26, 1901, c. 607, § 3, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 865.

Time of taking effect of act.

Sec. 4. That this Act shall take effect immediately.

Act April 21, 1904, c. 1403, § 4, 33 Stat. 226.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 252. [H. R. 26915.]

Amendment of Act Nov. 3, 1893, c. 13; pay and allowances of retired officers detailed to educational institutions.

* * That the Act approved November third, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, authorizing the detail of officers of the army and navy to educational institutions, be amended so as to provide that retired officers, when so detailed, shall receive the full pay and allowances of their rank, except that the limitations on the pay of officers of the Army above the grade of major as provided in the Acts of March second, nineteen hundred and five, and June twelfth, nineteen hundred and six, shall remain in force.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 738.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for pay of retired officers in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. Act Nov. 3, 1893, c. 13, amended thereby, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 863. And the provisions of Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, and Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, mentioned as limiting the pay of officers above the grade of major, are set forth post, under chapter 2 of this Title.

ACT APRIL 19, 1910, c. 174. [H. R. 20579.]

Details of officers requested by governments of Cuba and Panama.

The consent of Congress is hereby granted to the acceptance by officers of the army, in the discretion of the President, of such military details under the Governments of Cuba and Panama as may be requested by the Presidents of these Republics: Provided, That such details shall not exceed five in number: And provided further, That no officer so detailed shall receive any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever from the Government of Cuba or Panama.

Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 324.

This is a provision of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Detail of officer of Medical Corps to American Red-Cross.

* * That hereafter the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to detail an officer of the Medical Corps to take charge of the first-aid department of the American Red Cross.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1041.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of the Medical Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Details of officers of active list as inspectors and instructors of organized militia; number and proportion of officers detached; filling vacancies in grade of second lieutenant.

Upon the request of the governors of the several States and Territories concerned, the President may detach officers of the active list of the Army from their proper commands for duty as inspectors and instructors of the Organized Militia, as follows, namely: Not to exceed one officer for each regiment and separate battalion of infantry, or its equivalent of other troops: Provided, That line officers detached for duty with the Organized Militia under the provisions hereof, together with those detached from their proper commands, under the provisions of law, for other duty the usual period of which exceeds one year, shall be subject to the provisions of section twenty-seven of the Act approved February second, nineteen hundred and one, with reference to details to the staff corps, but the total number of detached officers hereby made subject to these provisions shall not exceed two hundred: And provided further, That the number of such officers detached from each of the several branches of the line of the Army shall be in proportion to the authorized commissioned strength of that branch; they shall be of the grades first lieutenant to colonel, inclusive, and the number detached from each grade shall be in proportion to the number in that grade now provided by law for the whole Army. The vacancies hereby caused or created in the grade of second lieutenant shall be filled in accordance with existing law, one-half in each fiscal year until the total number of vacancies shall have been filled: * *

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1045.

These are provisions of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Act Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 27, mentioned in one of these provisions, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 800.

Sec. 1227.

Army corps badges.

Provisions authorizing the wearing of badges adopted by military societies of men who served in the armies and navies of the United States during the Chinese relief expedition of 1900 are contained in Res. Jan. 12, 1903, No. 2, set forth above.

Sec. 1229.

ACT JAN. 19, 1911, c. 22. [S. 7635.]

An Act Authorizing the President to Drop Officers from the Rolls of the Army under Certain Conditions. (36 Stat. 894.)

Officers dropped for absence without leave or confinement in prison after conviction by civil court.

Be it enacted, &c., That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to drop from the rolls of the army any officer who is absent from duty three months without leave, or who has been absent in confinement in a prison or penitentiary for more than three months after final conviction by a civil court of competent jurisdiction; and no officer so dropped shall be eligible for reappointment.

Act Jan. 19, 1911, c. 22, 36 Stat. 894.

Sec. 1230.

ACT APRIL 14, 1890, c. 80.

[Amended. Act June 25, 1910, c. 393.]

This act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 872, is amended by Act June 25, 1910, c. 393, to read as set forth below.

ACT JUNE 25, 1910, c. 393. [H. R. 4301.]

An Act for the Relief of Soldiers and Sailors who Enlisted or Served under Assumed Names, while Minors or Otherwise, in the Army or Navy, during the War of the Rebellion, the War with Spain, or the Philippine Insurrection. (36 Stat. 824.)

Amendment of Act April 14, 1890, c. 80.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Act entitled "An Act for the relief of soldiers and sailors who enlisted or served under assumed names, while minors or otherwise, in the army or navy, during the war of the rebellion," approved April fourteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Discharges, etc., of persons who enlisted or served under assumed names, in Army or Navy, during war of the rebellion, war with Spain, or Philippine insurrection.

That the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy be, and they are hereby, authorized and required to issue certificates of discharge or orders of acceptance of resignation, upon application and proof of identity, in the true name of such persons as enlisted or served under assumed names, while minors or otherwise, in the army and navy during the war of the rebellion, the war with Spain, or the Philippine insurrection, and were honorably discharged therefrom. Applications for said certificates of discharge or amended orders of acceptance of resignation may be made by, or on behalf of, persons entitled to them; but no such certificate or order shall be issued where a name was assumed to cover a crime or to avoid its consequence.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 393, § 1, 36 Stat. 824.

Act April 14, 1890, c. 80, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 872. The amendment consists in including, besides persons who served during the war of the rebellion, those who served in the war with Spain or the Philippine insurrection.

Amendment of title of act.

Sec. 2. That the title of said act be amended so as to read as follows: "An Act for the relief of soldiers and sailors who enlisted or served under assumed names, while minors or otherwise, in the army or navy, during the war of the rebellion, the war with Spain, or the Philippine insurrection."

Act June 25, 1910, c. 393, § 2, 36 Stat. 824.

Sec. 1233.

ACT JULY 7, 1898, c. 583.

Enlistment of cooks.

An appropriation for prizes for enlisted men who graduate from the Army schools for bakers and cooks is made by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Prizes for graduates from Army schools for bakers and cooks.

* * for providing prizes to be established by the Secretary of War for enlisted men of the Army who graduate from the Army schools for bakers and cooks, the total amount of such prizes at the various schools not to exceed nine hundred dollars per annum; * *

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1046.

This is a provision accompanying an appropriation for the Subsistence Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. A similar appropriation was made by the Army appropriation acts for preceding years.

Sec. 1240.

ACT JUNE 13, 1890, c. 423.

Expenditures at posts.

No military post within the United States is to be established without the express authority of Congress, by a provision of Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, set forth below.

The appropriations for construction and enlargement of buildings at military posts in the recent sundry civil appropriation acts are accompanied by restrictions on the purposes for which the sum appropriated is to be used, which are repeated from year to year, and by limitations of the amounts to be expended for quarters for officers, etc., which are made permanent in the provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, set forth below.

ACT JULY 16, 1892, c. 195.

Expenditures for post gardens or exchanges.

Appropriations for the construction, equipment, and maintenance of suitable buildings at military posts and stations for the conduct of the post exchange, school, library, reading, lunch, amusement rooms, and gymnasium, including repairs to buildings erected at private cost in the operation of the Act approved May 31, 1902, which is set forth below, to be expended in the discretion and under the direction of the Secretary of War, are contained in the Army appropriation acts for recent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1050.

ACT MAY 31, 1902, c. 943.

An Act for the Authorization of the Erection of Buildings by the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations on Military Reservations of the United States. (32 Stat. 382.)

Permission for erection on military reservations of buildings for work of Young Men's Christian Associations.

Be it enacted, &c., That authority is hereby given to the Secretary of War, in his discretion, to grant permission by revocable license to the International Committee of Young Men's Christian Associations of North America to erect and maintain, on the military reservations within the United States or its island possessions, such buildings as their work for the promotion of the social, physical, intellectual, and moral welfare of the garrisons may require, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may impose.

Act May 31, 1902, c. 943, 32 Stat. 282.

Repairs to buildings erected in the operation of this act are provided for in the recent Army appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1050.

ACT MARCH 2, 1905, c. 1307. [H. R. 17473.]

Military posts not to be established without express authority of Congress.

* * That hereafter no military post within the United States shall be established without the express authority of Congress.

Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 836.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for barracks and quarters in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

ACT JUNE 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1. [H. R. 25552.]

Military posts; limitation of expenditures for quarters for officers.

Military posts: For the construction and enlargement at military posts of such buildings as in the judgment of the Secretary of War may be necessary, including the installation therein of plumbing, and of heating and lighting apparatus; but no part of this sum shall be used for the purchase of land, for construction of buildings at coast artillery posts, nor for the establishment of any military prison, * * dollars: Provided, That hereafter no money appropriated for military posts shall be expended for the construction of quarters for officers of the army, or for barracks and quarters for the artillery the total cost of which, including the heating and plumbing apparatus, wiring and fixtures, shall exceed, in the case of quarters of a general officer, the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, of a colonel or an officer above the rank of captain, twelve thousand dollars, and of an officer of and below the rank of captain, nine thousand dollars.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 721.

These are provisions of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above. Similar provisions, without the word "hereafter" in the proviso, were annexed to the appropriation for the preceding year, in Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 363. In the appropriation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1398, these provisions are repeated, except the proviso, which became permanent by the use of the word "hereafter" in this act.

A proviso to the same effect, annexed to the appropriation in this act for "barracks and quarters, seacoast defenses," is not repeated in said appropriation for the fiscal year 1912.

A proviso similar to that in this act is annexed to the appropriations for "barracks and quarters, Philippine Islands," in recent Army appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1052.

CHAPTER TWO.

Retirement.

Sec. 1244.

ACT MARCH 3, 1883, c. 93, § 1.

Unlimited retirements.

Before retirement of an officer above the rank of colonel, except for disability or having reached the age of sixty-four years, service of at least one year in that rank is required by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Service before retirement of officer of rank above that of colonel.

* * That hereafter no officer holding a rank above that of colonel shall be retired except for disability or on account of having reached the age of sixty-four years until he shall have served at least one year in such rank.

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 245.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of officers on the retired list in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

ACT JUNE 22, 1910, c. 312. [S. 1021.] [As amended 1911. S. 9351.]

An Act Providing for the Retirement of Certain Medical Officers of the Army. (36 Stat. 580.)

Retirement of officers of Medical Reserve Corps.

Be it enacted, &c., That any officer of the Medical Reserve Corps who shall have reached the age of seventy years, and whose total active service in the Army of the United States, Regular or Volunteer, as such officer, and as contract or acting assistant surgeon, and as an enlisted man, shall equal forty years, may thereupon, in the discretion of the President, be placed upon the retired list of the Army with the rank, pay, and allowances of a first lieutenant.

Act June 22, 1910, c. 312, 36 Stat. 580. Act March 4, 1911, c. 252, 36 Stat. 1348.

As originally enacted, this act contained, after the words "enlisted man," the words "in the war of the rebellion," which were stricken out by amendment by Act March 4, 1911, c. 252, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Retirement of veterinarians.

* * That hereafter so much of section twenty, of the Act approved February second, nineteen hundred and one, as provides that veterinarians shall receive the pay and allowances of second lieutenants, mounted, shall be interpreted to authorize their retirement under the laws governing the retirement of second lieutenants.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1042.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of veterinarians in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Army paymasters' clerks are entitled to the same right of retirement with the same retired pay as Navy paymasters' clerks, by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth post, in chapter 3 of this title, following Rev. St. § 1261.

Sec. 1245.

For disability.

Provisions for retirement of officers of the Medical Department, for physical disability or other disqualification, on examination for promotion, contained in Act April 23, 1908, c. 150, § 3, and Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, are set forth ante, under Title 1 of this chapter.

Sec. 1254.

Retired rank.

Officers of certain grades, who served with credit during the civil war, and possessing other requirements prescribed, retired for certain specified causes, may be placed on the retired list with the rank and retired pay of one grade above that actually held at the time of retirement, as prescribed by Rev. St. § 1254, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 887, by a provision of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, and a further provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 23, 1904, c. 1485. [H. R. 10670.]

Rank and pay on retirement of officers who served with credit during the civil war.

* * That any officer of the Army below the grade of brigadier-general who served with credit as an officer or as an enlisted man in the regular or volunteer forces during the civil war prior to April ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, otherwise than as a cadet, and whose name is borne on the official register of the Army, and who has heretofore been, or may hereafter be, retired on account of wounds or disability incident to the service, or on account of age or after forty years' service, may, in the discretion of the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, be placed on the retired list of the Army with the rank and retired pay of one grade above that actually held by him at the time of retirement: Provided, That this Act shall not apply to any officer who received an advance of grade since the date of his retirement or who has been restored to the Army and placed on the retired list by virtue of the provisions of a special Act of Congress. * *

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 264.

This is a provision following an appropriation for pay of officers on the retired list in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

A further provision of the same act for assignment of retired officers to active duty of various kinds, with full pay and allowances, is set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1259.

A subsequent provision for retirement of officers holding the rank of brigadier-general, who served during the civil war, contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, is set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Rank and pay on retirement of officers who served with credit during the civil war.

* * That officers who served creditably in the regular or volunteer forces during the civil war prior to April ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and who now hold the rank of brigadier-general on the active list of the Army, having previously held that rank for three years or more, shall, when retired from active service, have the rank and retired pay of major-general.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1163.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of officers on the retired list in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 266. [H. R. 24256.]

An Act to Authorize Commissions to Issue in the Cases of Officers Retired or Advanced on the Retired List with Increased Rank. (36 Stat. 1354.)

Commissions to retired officers of Army, Navy, or Marine Corps advanced in rank.

Be it enacted, &c., That commissioned officers of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps on the retired list whose rank has been or shall hereafter be advanced by operation of or in accordance with law shall be entitled to and shall receive commissions in accordance with such advanced rank.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 266, 36 Stat. 1354.

A previous act, Act May 6, 1910, c. 200, 36 Stat. 347, containing a similar provision relating to officers of the Army only, is superseded by this act.

Sec. 1258.

Number on the retired list.

Nothing in the provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, that the office of Lieutenant-General shall cease, is to affect the retired list, by a further proviso annexed to said provision as set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title.

Sec. 1259.

Assignment to duty.

The detail of retired officers for service in connection with the organized militia in the States and Territories, and other duties not involving service with troops, is authorized by provisions of Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, and Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1903, c. 975.

Detail for service in connection with organized militia.

* * That in addition to the detail of retired officers now authorized by law, it shall hereafter be lawful for the Secretary of War to detail, whenever in his judgment the public interests require it, not exceeding twenty retired officers for service in connection with the organized militia in the States or Territories, upon the request of the governor thereof, and such retired officers shall be entitled, while so employed, to receive the full pay and allowances of their respective grades.

Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 932.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of officers on the retired list in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

More comprehensive provisions for assignment of retired officers, with their consent, to active duty of various kinds, not involving service with troops, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, are set forth below.

ACT APRIL 23, 1904, c. 1485. [H. R. 10670.]

Assignment to active duty not involving service with troops.

* * And the Secretary of War may assign retired officers of the Army, with their consent, to active duty in recruiting, for service in connection with the organized militia in the several States and Territories upon the request of the governor thereof, as military attachés, upon courts-martial, courts of inquiry and boards, and to staff duties not involving service with troops; and such officers while so assigned shall receive the full pay and allowances of their respective grades.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 264.

This is a provision accompanying an appropriation for pay of officers on the retired list in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

Previous provisions for the detail of retired officers for service in connection with the organized militia, contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, are set forth above.

The provisions of this act apply to retired officers assigned to active duty as members of the board of road commissioners for Alaska, under a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

The detail of officers of the Army to attend encampments of, and for duty in connection with, the organized militia, is provided for by Act Jan. 21, 1903, §§ 19, 20, post, under Title XVI, "The Militia"; and such detail of instructors from the Regular Army for the militia when assembled on the national military parks is provided for by Act May 15, 1896, c. 182, § 2, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 975.

Subsequent provisions as to the pay and allowances of retired officers above the grade of major, assigned to active duty, contained in Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, are set forth post, under chapter 3 of this Title.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Assignment to active duty as members of board of road commissioners for Alaska.

* * That hereafter the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, assign suitable retired officers of the Army to active duty as members of the board of road commissioners for Alaska, and in the case of any officer so assigned the provisions of so much of the Act of Congress approved April twenty-third, nineteen hundred and four, entitled "An Act making appropriations for the support of the Army for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and five, and for other purposes," as relates to the assignment of retired officers to active duty shall apply.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1052.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for construction, etc., of military and post roads, etc., in Alaska, in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

The provisions of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, mentioned in this provision, are set forth above.

Provisions for the detail of retired officers to educational institutions are contained in Rev. St. § 1260, and other acts set forth or referred to under that section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 890, and in amendments of Rev. St. § 1225, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 863-866, and ante. under chapter 1 of this Title.

Sec. 1260.

ACT FEB. 14, 1885, c. 67.

[Superseded. Act March 2, 1907, c. 2515.]

This act and the provision of Act March 16, 1896, c. 59, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 890, 891, relating to retirement of enlisted men, are superseded by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2515, set forth below.

In computing length of service of enlisted men for retirement, service as commissioned officers of United States Volunteers, or as such in the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment or in the Philippine Scouts, is to be counted, by provisions of Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, and Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth below; and credit for double the actual time of service in China is to be given, by a provision of Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, set forth below; and by a provision of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, also set forth below, credit is thereafter to be given for double the time of actual service in China, Cuba, the Philippine Islands, the Island of Guam, Alaska, and Panama, but double credit is not to be given for service thereafter rendered in Porto Rico or the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT MARCH 16, 1896, c. 59.

[Superseded. Act March 2, 1907, c. 2515.]

The provision of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 891, for a monthly allowance to retired enlisted men, is superseded by a similar provision contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2515, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 30, 1902, c. 1328.

Length of service to entitle men to continuous service pay and to retirement.

* * That all enlisted men of the Regular Army who served as commissioned officers of United States Volunteers organized in eighteen hundred and ninety-eight and eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, or who have served or may be now serving as such in the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment or in the Philippine Scouts, who, upon their muster out, have returned or may return to the ranks of the Regular Army, shall have such period of service counted as if it had been rendered as enlisted men, and that they be entitled to all continuous-service pay and to count, in computing the time necessary to enable them to retire, as enlisted men.

Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, 32 Stat. 512. Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 934.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of Philippine Scouts in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, repeated in the similar act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

A similar provision relating to men appointed commissioned officers of Philippine Scouts subsequent to March 2, 1903, contained in Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, is set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1903, c. 975.

Length of service for retirement; credit for double time of service in China.

* * That hereafter, in computing the length of service for retirement, credit shall be given soldiers for double the time of their actual service in China, the same as is now given in Porto Rico, Cuba, and the Philippine Islands.

Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 933.

This is a proviso, annexed to an appropriation for pay of the enlisted men on the retired list, in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above. Similar credit for service in Porto Rico, Cuba, or in the Philippine Islands, referred to in this provision, is to be given by a provision of Act May 26, 1900, c. 586, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 891.

Different provisions for computing the length of service for retirement, as to giving credit for double the time for services thereafter rendered, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, are set forth below.

ACT APRIL 23, 1904, c. 1485. [H. R. 10670.]

Length of service for retirement; credit for double time of service in China, Cuba, the Philippine Islands, the Island of Guam, Alaska, and Panama.

* * That hereafter in computing the length of service for retirement, credit shall be given [illegible] for double the time of their actual service in China, Cuba, the Philippine Islands, the Island of Guam, Alaska, and Panama; but double credit shall not be given for service hereafter rendered in Porto Rico or the Territory of Hawaii.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 264.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of the enlisted men on the retired list in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. Previous provisions for similar credit contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, are set forth or referred to above.

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Length of service to entitle men to continuous service pay and to retirement; credit for service in Philippine Scouts.

* * That all enlisted men of the Regular Army who have been appointed commissioned officers of Philippine Scouts subsequent to March second, nineteen hundred and three, or who may hereafter be so appointed, and who, upon their muster out, have returned or may return to the ranks of the Regular Army, shall have such period of service counted as if it had been rendered as enlisted men, and that they be entitled to all continuous service pay and to count, in computing the time necessary to enable them to retire, as enlisted men.

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 248.

This is a proviso annexed to appropriations for pay of Philippine Scouts in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. A previous similar provision contained in Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, is set forth above.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2515. [S. 3638.]

An Act Providing for the Retirement of Noncommissioned Officers, Petty Officers and Enlisted Men of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps of the United States. (34 Stat. 1217.)

Retirement of enlisted men of Army, Navy, or Marine Corps; pay and allowances.

Be it enacted, &c., That when an enlisted man shall have served thirty years either in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or in all, he shall, upon making application to the President, be placed upon the retired list, with seventy-five per centum of the pay and allowances he may then be in receipt of, and that said allowances shall be as follows: Nine dollars and fifty cents per month in lieu of rations and clothing and six dollars and twenty-five cents per month in lieu of quarters, fuel and light: Provided, That in computing the necessary thirty years' time all service in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps shall be credited.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2515, § 1, 34 Stat. 1217.

This act may be regarded as superseding the previous less comprehensive provisions for retirement of enlisted men of the Army or the Marine Corps, contained in Act Feb. 14, 1885, c. 67, and Act March 16, 1896, c. 59, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 890, 891.

Payment to retired enlisted men in the employment of the Isthmian Canal Commission of salaries and wages in addition to their retired pay is authorized by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 298, § 1, set forth post, under chapter 3 of this Title.

Repeal.

Sec. 2. That all Acts and parts of Acts, so far as they conflict with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2515, § 2, 34 Stat. 1218.

CHAPTER THREE.

Pay and Allowances.

Sec. 1261.

Rates of pay.

The rates of pay of certain grades of officers of the Army, fixed by this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 893, are changed by provisions of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth below.

The official salary of army officers appointed or employed under the Isthmian Canal act, Act June 28, 1902, c. 1302, set forth post, under Title LXIII, "Rivers and Harbors," subchapter "Isthmian Canal," is required to be deducted from the salary or compensation authorized by said act, by section 7 thereof.

The rates of pay and allowances of the superintendent and members of the Female Nurse Corps are fixed by provisions of Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth below.

The pay and allowances of paymasters' clerks are regulated by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 26, 1898, c. 191, § 7.

Increase of pay of officer exercising, in time of war, command higher than his grade.

Provisions relating to readjustment of disallowances or stoppages on account of payments for exercise of higher command between April 26, 1898, and March 18, 1907, are contained in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1039.

ACT MARCH 2, 1901, c. 803.

Increase of pay of officers and enlisted men serving beyond the limits of the States of the Union and the contiguous Territories.

The provisions of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 896, are repeated, without the last two provisos there set forth, in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, as set forth below.

ACT JUNE 30, 1902, c. 1328.

Increase of pay of officers and enlisted men serving beyond the limits of the States of the Union and the contiguous Territories.

* * That hereafter the pay proper of all commissioned officers and enlisted men serving beyond the limits of the States comprising the Union and the Territories of the United States contiguous thereto shall be increased ten per centum for officers and twenty per centum for enlisted men over and above the rates of pay proper as fixed by law for time of peace, and the time of such service shall be counted from the date of departure from said States to the date of return thereto.

Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, 32 Stat. 512.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for increase on pay of commissioned officers serving at foreign stations in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. A similar provision contained in the Army appropriation for the preceding year, Act March 2, 1901, c. 803, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 896. Appropriations for such increase on pay are made in the similar acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1043.

Increase of pay for such service "as now provided by law," is continued by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth below.

The same rate of pay for officers and enlisted men serving on Army transports in the Philippine Archipelago as for those serving at shore stations beyond the limits of the United States is authorized by a further provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth below.

ACT MAY 11, 1908, c. 163. [H. R. 17288.] [As amended 1909.]

Rates of pay of certain grades of officers; mounts, and allowances therefor; officers of Navy not affected.

That hereafter the annual pay of officers of the Army of the several grades herein mentioned shall be as follows: Major-general, eight thousand dollars; brigadier-general, six thousand dollars; colonel, four thousand dollars; lieutenant-colonel, three thousand five hundred dollars; major, three thousand dollars; captain, two thousand four hundred dollars; first lieutenant, two thousand dollars; second lieutenant, one thousand seven hundred dollars. And the pay of cadets at the Military Academy shall hereafter be six hundred dollars a year. That hereafter the United States shall furnish mounts and horse equipments for all officers of the Army below the grade of major required to be mounted, but in case any officer below the grade of major required to be mounted provides himself with suitable mounts at his own expense, he shall receive an addition to his pay of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum if he provides one mount, and two hundred dollars per annum if he provides two mounts. Section twelve hundred and sixty-seven of the Revised Statutes of the United States is hereby amended to read as follows: "In no case shall the pay of a colonel exceed five thousand dollars a year; the pay of a lieutenant-colonel exceed four thousand five hundred dollars a year, or the pay of a major exceed four thousand dollars a year:" Provided, That nothing in this section is intended to increase or change or shall be construed as increasing or changing the present pay or allowances of any officer in the United States Navy; and section thirteen of an Act entitled "An Act to reorganize and increase the efficiency of the personnel of the Navy and Marine Corps of the United States," approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, shall not be construed as changing the pay of any naval officer by reason of the provisions of this Act.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 108.

There are provisions of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. Previous provisions fixing rates of pay of such officers are contained in Rev. St. § 1261, Comp. St. 1901, p. 893. Rev. St. § 1267, amended by this paragraph, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 898. Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, mentioned in the proviso at the end of this paragraph, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1072.

These provisions are not to be construed so as to reduce the pay or allowances previously authorized for any officer or enlisted man, by a further provision of the act, set forth post, following Rev. St. § 1280.

Allowances on death of officer or enlisted man on active list; designation of and payment to beneficiary.

That hereafter immediately upon official notification of the death from wounds or disease not the result of his own misconduct of any officer or enlisted man on the active list of the Army, the Paymaster-General of the Army shall cause to be paid to the widow of such officer or enlisted man, or to any other person previously designated by him, an amount equal to six months' pay at the rate received by such officer or enlisted man at the date of his death, less seventy-five dollars in the case of an officer and thirty-five dollars in the case of an enlisted man. From the amount thus reserved the Quartermaster's Department shall be reimbursed for expenses of interment, and the residue, if any, of the amount reserved shall be paid subsequently to the designated person. The Secretary of War shall establish regulations requiring each officer and enlisted man to designate the proper person to whom this amount shall be paid in case of his death, and said amount shall be paid to that person from funds appropriated for the pay of the Army.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 108. Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 735.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, amended by a provision of the similar act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. The amendment consists in striking out, after the words "death from wounds or disease," the words "contracted in line of duty," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "not the result of his own misconduct," as set forth here.

Increase of pay for service beyond the limits of the states of the Union and the contiguous territories.

That increase of pay for service beyond the limits of the States comprising the Union, and the territories of the United States contiguous thereto, shall be as now provided by law.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 110.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. Previous provisions for increase of pay, referred to in this provision, contained in Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, are set forth above.

Increase of pay of officers and enlisted men serving on army transports in Philippine Archipelago.

* * That officers and enlisted men who have served on army transports in the Philippine Archipelago at any time since May twenty-sixth, nineteen hundred, under the control and orders of the commanding general, Philippines Division, or who may hereafter so serve, shall be entitled to receive the same rate of pay as is provided by law for officers and enlisted men serving at shore stations beyond the limits of the United States.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 114.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for increase of pay to enlisted men in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. Provisions for increase of pay for service beyond the limits of the United States, contained in Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, are set forth above.

ACT MARCH 23, 1910, c. 115. [H. R. 15384.]

Rates of pay and allowances of Superintendent and members of Female Nurse Corps.

* * and the Superintendent and members of the Female Nurse Corps shall hereafter be paid at the following rates: Superintendent Nurse Corps, one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; female nurses, fifty dollars per month for the first period of three years' service; fifty-five dollars per month for the second period of three years' service; sixty dollars per month for the third period of three years' service; and sixty-five dollars per month after nine years' service in said Nurse Corps; and all female nurses shall hereafter be entitled, in addition to the rates of pay as herein provided, to ten dollars per month when serving beyond the limits of the States comprising the Union and the Territories of the United States contiguous thereto (excepting Porto Rico and Hawaii), and to cumulative leave of absence with pay at the rate of thirty days for each calendar year of service in said corps; and when serving as chief nurses their pay may be increased by authority of the Secretary of War, such increase not to exceed thirty dollars per month; and the Superintendent shall be entitled to the same allowances, when on duty, as the members of the Nurse Corps.

Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 249.

These are provisions accompanying appropriations for pay of the Superintendent and nurses in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Pay and allowances of paymasters' clerks; retirement and retired pay.

Hereafter the pay and allowances of Army paymasters' clerks shall be the same as provided by law for Navy paymasters' clerks on shore duty, and they shall also be entitled to the same right of retirement with the same retired pay as is now allowed Navy paymasters' clerks: Provided, That Army paymasters' clerks shall be subject to the rules and articles of war.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1044.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Navy paymasters' clerks receive the same pay and allowances and have the same rights of retirement as warrant officers of like length of service in the Navy, by a provision of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, as amended by Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, set forth post, under Title XV, "The Navy," c. 8, following Rev. St. § 1556.

Sec. 1262.

Service pay.

No further increase of longevity pay is to be allowed to retired officers, except officers retired on account of wounds received in battle, by a provision of Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, set forth below.

Sec. 1265.

ACT JULY 29, 1876, c. 239.

Leave of absence without deduction of pay.

Provisions relating to leave credits for volunteer service to officers appointed to the Regular Army from the volunteer service are contained in a proviso of Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, set forth below.

A provision relating to the times of taking effect and terminating of leaves to be absent from the Philippine Islands, contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, is set forth below.

The provisions of Rev. St. § 1330, authorizing leaves of absence to officers of the Military Academy, are extended to officers on duty as instructors at the service schools, by a provision of Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 30, 1902, c. 1328.

Leaves of absence, credits for volunteer service.

* * That officers appointed to the Regular Army from the volunteer service, whose service has been continuous, shall, in the computation of leaves of absence after their appointment in the Regular Army, be entitled to the leave credits which accrued to them as volunteer officers where such leave credits were not availed of during their volunteer service.

Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, 32 Stat. 508.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of officers for length of service in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Leaves of absence from Philippine Islands, times of taking effect and terminating.

* * That leaves to be absent from the Philippine Islands, other than to return to the United States, which may be granted officers of the Army serving in said islands and sailing from Manila, shall be regarded as taking effect on the dates such officers reach Manila, and as terminating on the dates of their departure from Manila, in returning to their stations.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1171.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for transportation of the Army in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

ACT MARCH 23, 1910, c. 115. [H. R. 15384.]

Leaves of absence to officers on duty as instructors at service schools.

United States service schools: * * That the provisions of section thirteen hundred and thirty, Revised Statutes, authorizing leaves of absence to certain officers of the Military Academy, during the period of the suspension of the ordinary academic studies, without deduction from pay and allowances, be, and are hereby, extended to include officers on duty exclusively as instructors at the service schools on approval of the officer in charge of said schools.

Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 244.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for the "United States service schools" in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year 1911, cited above.

Rev. St. § 1330, the provisions of which are extended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 935.

Sec. 1267.

[Amended. Act May 11, 1908, c. 163.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 898, is amended by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth ante, following Rev. St. § 1261, to read as follows:

"In no case shall the pay of a colonel exceed five thousand dollars a year; the pay of a lieutenant-colonel exceed four thousand five hundred dollars a year, or the pay of a major exceed four thousand dollars a year."

Sec. 1268.

To be paid monthly.

Further provisions relating to monthly payments to be made under the provisions of Army appropriation acts are contained in a paragraph of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth below.

Provisions relating to disbursements by and accounts of paymasters, in regard to the pay of the Army, contained in Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, are set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title.

ACT APRIL 23, 1904, c. 1485. [H. R. 10670.]

Assignment of pay by contract surgeons and contract dental surgeons.

* * That hereafter contract surgeons and contract dental surgeons on duty in Alaska, Hawaii, the Philippine Islands, and Porto Rico may transfer or assign their pay accounts, when due and payable, in the methods now provided by regulations for commissioned officers of the Army: * *

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 266.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of contract surgeons in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. A similar provision, without the word "hereafter," was contained in the Army appropriation act for the preceding year, Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 933.

A provision for assignment of pay by commissioned officers of the Army, contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, is set forth below.

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Annual or monthly compensation; rules for division of time and computation of pay.

Hereafter, where the compensation of any person in the military service of the United States is annual or monthly the following rules for division of time and computation of pay for services rendered are hereby established: Annual compensation shall be divided into twelve equal installments, one of which shall be the pay for each calendar month; and in making payments for a fractional part of a month one-thirtieth of one of such installments, or of a monthly compensation, shall be the daily rate of pay. For the purpose of computing such compensation and for computing time for services rendered during a fractional part of a month in connection with annual or monthly compensation, each and every month shall be held to consist of thirty days, without regard to the actual number of days in any calendar month, thus excluding the thirty-first of any calendar month from the computation and treating February as if it actually had thirty days. Any person entering the service of the United States during a thirty-one day month and serving until the end thereof shall be entitled to pay for that month from the date of entry to the thirtieth day of said month, both days inclusive; and any person entering said service during the month of February and serving until the end thereof shall be entitled to one month's pay, less as many thirtieths thereof as there were days elapsed prior to date of entry: Provided, That for one day's unauthorized absence on the thirty-first day of any calendar month one day's pay shall be forfeited.

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 248.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

A previous similar but less specific provision relating to the same subject contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 934, may be regarded as superseded by this provision.

Similar rules for computation of the compensation of any person in the service of the United States are prescribed by Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 6, set forth post, under Title XIX, "Provisions Applicable to Several Classes of Officers."

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Assignment of pay by commissioned officers.

* * That hereafter all commissioned officers of the Army may transfer or assign their pay accounts, when due and payable, under such regulations and restrictions as the Secretary of War may prescribe.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of officers in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above. A similar provision, without the word "hereafter," was contained in the Army appropriation act for the preceding year, Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 241.

Sec. 1270. [As amended 1877.]

Allowance of fuel, quarters, and forage.

Nothing in any other act is to be construed so as to deprive officers of the Army of forage, bedding, shoeing, or shelter for their authorized number of horses, or of any means of transportation or maintenance therefor for which provision is made by the Army appropriation act, Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, by a provision of that act set forth below.

The authorized number of owned horses of an officer are not to be deprived, because he is separated from them by the nature of his military service, of forage, etc., by a provision of Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 18, 1878, c. 263, § 8.

Fuel to be sold, and forage in kind to be furnished, to officers.

A provision similar to that of section 8 of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 899, for furnishing fuel to officers, contained in Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, is set forth below.

A subsequent provision that heat and light for quarters for officers and enlisted men shall be furnished at the expense of the United States, contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, is also set forth below.

ACT JUNE 18, 1878, c. 263, § 9.

[Amended. Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511.]

Section 9 of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 899, relating to quarters for officers and commutation thereof, is amended by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Fuel to officers.

* * That hereafter fuel may be furnished to commissioned officers on the active list by the Quartermaster's Department, for the actual use of such officers only, at the rate of three dollars per cord for standard oak wood, or at an equivalent rate for other kinds of fuel, the amount so furnished to each to be limited to the officer's actual personal necessities as certified to by him: * *

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 250.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for regular supplies of the Quartermaster's Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

A subsequent provision that heat and light for quarters for officers and enlisted men shall be furnished at the expense of the United States, contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, is set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Heat and light for quarters.

* * That hereafter the heat and light actually necessary for the authorized allowance of quarters for officers and enlisted men shall be furnished at the expense of the United States under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe: * *

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1167.

This is a proviso annexed to the same appropriation and following the provision set forth above in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

By a proviso annexed to the appropriation for barracks and quarters in the recent Army appropriation acts, no part of the moneys so appropriated is to be paid for commutation of fuel or for quarters to officers or enlisted men. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1049.

Amendment of Act June 17, 1878, c. 263, § 9; quarters in kind, and commutation.

* * That section nine of an Act approved June seventeenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight (Twentieth Statutes at Large, page one hundred and fifty-one), be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows: "That at all posts and stations where there are public quarters belonging to the United States officers may be furnished with quarters in kind in such public quarters, and not elsewhere, by the Quartermaster's Department, assigning to the officers of each grade, respectively, such number of rooms as is stated in the following table, namely: Second lieutenants, two rooms; first lieutenants, three rooms; captains, four rooms; majors, five rooms; lieutenant-colonels, six rooms; colonels, seven rooms; brigadier-generals, eight rooms; major-generals, nine rooms; lieutenant-general, ten rooms: Provided further, That at places where there are no public quarters commutation therefor may be paid by the Pay Department to the officer entitled to the same at a rate not exceeding twelve dollars per month per room:" * *

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1168.

These are provisos annexed to the appropriation for barracks and quarters in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Act June 17, 1878, c. 263, § 9, amended by these provisions, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 899.

Provisions limiting expenditures for construction of quarters at military posts for officers of various grades, contained in Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, are set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title, subchapter "General Provisions of Organization."

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 252. [H. R. 26915.]

Other acts not to be construed to deprive officers of forage, bedding, shoeing, or shelter for horses authorized, or of means of transportation or maintenance therefor.

* * And nothing in the Act making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the Government for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and eight, or any other Act shall hereafter be held or construed so as to deprive officers of the Army, wherever on duty in the military service of the United States, of forage, bedding, shoeing, or shelter for their authorized number of horses, or of any means of transportation or maintenance therefor for which provision is made by the terms of this Act; * *

Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 742.

This is a provision accompanying an appropriation for regular supplies of the Quartermaster's Department, among them "forage in kind * * for the authorized number of officers' horses, including bedding for the animals." in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. A similar provision is contained in the Army appropriation acts for preceding years.

The portions of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts which appear to be contemplated in these provisions of the Army appropriation acts, are the sections restricting the use of any money appropriated by those or any other acts for expenses of horses, carriages, and drivers, or for purchasing, maintaining, etc., carriages or vehicles, for the use of officers; Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 3, and Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 4, set forth post, under Title XIX, "Provisions Applicable to Several Classes of Officers."

ACT MARCH 23, 1910, c. 115. [H. R. 15384.]

Officer's horses not to be deprived of forage, bedding, shelter, shoeing, or medicines, because of his separation from them through military service.

* * and hereafter, when an officer is separated from his authorized number of owned horses through the nature of the military service upon which employed, they shall not be deprived of forage, bedding, shelter, shoeing, or medicines therefor, because of such separation; * *

Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 252.

This is a provision accompanying an appropriation for regular supplies of the Quartermaster's Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Sec. 1273.

ACT JULY 24, 1876, c. 226, § 2.

Mileage.

Provisions subsequent to those of this and other acts relating to mileage, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 902–905, and different therefrom to some extent, contained in Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, are set forth below.

ACT SEPT. 19, 1890, c. 907, § 15.

Mileage to engineer officers.

An appropriation for travel expenses of officers on journeys approved by the Chief of Engineers and made for the purpose of instruction, with a proviso that such traveling expenses shall be in lieu of mileage and other allowances, is made by the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 749.

ACT FEB. 27, 1893, c. 168.

Mileage to paymasters' clerks and accountant of Inspector-General's Department.

Instead of mileage, etc., as prescribed by the provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 903, actual expenses only are to be paid to paymasters' clerks and the expert accountant of the Inspector-General's Department, for sea travel, by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1901, c. 803.

[Superseded. Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078.]

The provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 903, relating to mileage, travel allowances, etc., to officers, are superseded by the provisions relating to the same subject contained in Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Mileage; rate; computation, deductions, etc.; change of station while on leave; expenses of sea travel.

For mileage to officers and contract surgeons when authorized by law, * * dollars: Provided, That hereafter officers, active and retired, when traveling under competent orders without troops, and retired officers who have so traveled since March third, nineteen hundred and five, shall be paid seven cents per mile and no more; distances to be computed and mileage to be paid over the shortest usually traveled routes, with deduction as hereinafter provided; and payment and settlement of mileage accounts of officers shall be made according to distances and deductions computed over routes established and by mileage tables prepared by the Paymaster-General of the Army under the direction of the Secretary of War. The Secretary of War may determine what shall constitute travel and duty without troops within the meaning of the laws governing the payment of mileage and commutation of quarters to officers of the Army: Provided further, That officers who so desire may, upon application to the Quartermaster's Department, be furnished under their orders transportation requests for the entire journey by land, exclusive of sleeping and parlor car accommodations, or by water; and the transportation so furnished shall, if travel was performed under a mileage status, be a charge against the officer's mileage account, to be deducted at the rate of three cents per mile by the paymaster paying the account, and of the amount so deducted there shall be turned over to an authorized officer of the Quartermaster's Department three cents per mile for transportation furnished, except over any railroad which is a free or fifty per centum land-grant railroad, for the credit of the appropriation for the transportation of the Army and its supplies: And provided further, That when the established route of travel shall, in whole or in part, be over the line of any railroad on which the troops and supplies of the United States are entitled to be transported free of charge, or over any fifty per centum land-grant railroad, officers traveling as herein provided for shall, for the travel over such roads, be furnished with transportation requests, exclusive of sleeping and parlor car accommodations, by the Quartermaster's Department: And provided further, That when transportation is furnished by the Quartermaster's Department, or, when the established route of travel is over any of the railroads above specified, there shall be deducted from the officer's mileage account by the paymaster paying the same three cents per mile for the distance for which transportation has been or should have been furnished: And provided further, That when the station of an officer is changed while he is on leave of absence he will on joining the new station be entitled to mileage for the distance to the new station from the place where he received the order directing the change, provided the distance be no greater than from the old to the new station; but if the distance be greater he will be entitled to mileage for a distance equal to that from the old to the new station only: And provided further, That for all sea travel actual expenses only shall be paid to officers, contract surgeons, contract dental surgeons, and veterinarians, to pay masters' clerks, and to the expert accountant of the Inspector-General's Department, when traveling on duty under competent orders, with or without troops, and the amount so paid shall not include any shore expenses at port of embarkation or debarkation; but for the purpose of determining allowances for all travel under orders, or for officers and enlisted men on discharge, travel in the Philippine Archipelago, the Hawaiian Archipelago, the home waters of the United States, and between the United States and Alaska shall not be regarded as sea travel and shall be paid for at the rates established by law for land travel within the boundaries of the United States.

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 246.

These are provisions of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. Previous provisions relating to the same subject, and similar to some extent, contained in Act March 2, 1901, c. 803, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 903, may be regarded as superseded by these provisions. And a provision that actual expenses only be paid to paymasters' clerks and the expert accountant of the Inspector-General's Department for sea travel, contained in Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, 32 Stat. 511, is also superseded by the more comprehensive provisions of the last proviso of this paragraph.

Actual expenses only, not exceeding a prescribed limit, are to be paid to officers, contract surgeons, and dental surgeons, traveling on duty without troops, within the Territory of Alaska, by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth below.

ACT MAY 11, 1908, c. 163. [H. R. 17288.]

Expenses of travel within Territory of Alaska.

* * That hereafter actual expenses only, not to exceed four dollars and fifty cents per day and cost of transportation when not furnished by the Quartermaster's Department, shall be paid to the officers of the Army, contract surgeons, and dental surgeons, when traveling on duty without troops, under competent orders, within the geographical limits of the Territory of Alaska.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 114.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for mileage to officers, etc., in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Sec. 1274.

Officers retired from active service.

Provisions relating to increase of pay to retired officers for length of service, and when assigned to active duty, contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, and Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, are set forth post, following Rev. St. § 1275.

Sec. 1275.

ACT MARCH 2, 1903, c. 975.

Limitation of increase of pay for length of service to retired officers.

* * That hereafter, except in case of officers retired on account of wounds received in battle, no officer now on the retired list shall be allowed or paid any further increase of longevity pay, and officers hereafter retired, except as herein provided, shall not be allowed or paid any further increase of longevity pay above that which had accrued at date of their retirement.

Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 932.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for additional pay to retired officers for length of service in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above. A similar proviso was annexed to the appropriation for the preceding year, but was applicable only to that appropriation.

ACT MARCH 2, 1905, c. 1307. [H. R. 17473.]

Retired officers assigned to active duty.

* * That retired officers of the Army above the grade of major, heretofore or hereafter assigned to active duty, shall hereafter receive their full retired pay and shall receive no further pay or allowances from the United States: Provided further, That a colonel or lieutenant-colonel so assigned shall receive the full pay and allowances of a major on the active list.

Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 831.

These are provisos annexed to an appropriation for pay of officers on the retired list in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

Before this act, retired officers detailed or assigned to active duty were entitled, while so employed or assigned, to receive the full pay and allowances of their respective grades, by provisions of the acts authorizing such detail or assignment, Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, and Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth ante, under chapter 2 of this Title.

The pay and allowances of a colonel or lieutenant-colonel, under the last proviso of this paragraph, are changed by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth below.

Payment to retired officers and enlisted men in the employment of the Isthmian Canal Commission of salaries and wages, in addition to their retired pay, is authorized by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 298, § 1, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Retired colonel or lieutenant colonel assigned to active duty.

* * That a colonel or lieutenant-colonel heretofore or hereafter assigned to active duty shall hereafter receive the same pay and allowances as a retired major would receive under a like assignment: * *

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 245.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of officers on the retired list in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. It supersedes the previous provision relating to the same subject contained in Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, set forth above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1909, c. 298, § 1. [H. R. 28376.]

Retired officers and enlisted men in employ of Isthmian Canal Commission.

Authority is hereby granted for the payment of salaries and wages accrued or hereafter earned of retired army and navy officers and enlisted men now in the employment of the Isthmian Canal Commission, in addition to their retired pay, where their compensation under such employment does not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars per annum.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 298, § 1, 35 Stat. 931.

This is a provision accompanying appropriations for the Isthmian Canal in the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Sec. 1280. [As amended 1877.]

[Repealed. Act May 11, 1908, c. 163.]

This section, set forth as amended by Act Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 907, relating to pay of enlisted men, is expressly repealed by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth below, accompanying provisions of that act for increased rates of pay.

ACT MAY 11, 1908, c. 163. [H. R. 17288.]

Pay of enlisted men.

That hereafter the monthly pay of enlisted men of the Army during their first enlistment shall be as follows, namely: Master electricians, master signal electricians, seventy-five dollars; engineers, sixty-five dollars; sergeants first class Hospital Corps, fifty dollars; regimental sergeants-major, regimental quartermaster-sergeants, regimental commissary-sergeants, sergeants-major senior grade coast artillery, battalion sergeants-major of engineers, post quartermaster-sergeants, post commissary-sergeants, post ordnance-sergeants, battalion quartermaster-sergeants of engineers, electrician-sergeants first class, sergeants first class Signal Corps, and first sergeants, forty-five dollars; battalion sergeants-major of infantry and field artillery, squadron sergeants-major, sergeants-major junior grade coast artillery, battalion quartermaster-sergeants, field artillery, and master gunners, forty dollars; electrician-sergeants second class, sergeants of engineers, ordnance, and Signal Corps, quartermaster-sergeants of engineers, and color-sergeants, thirty-six dollars; sergeants and quartermaster-sergeants of cavalry, artillery, and infantry, stable-sergeants, sergeants, and acting cooks of the Hospital Corps, firemen, and cooks, thirty dollars: Provided, That mess sergeants shall receive six dollars per month in addition to their pay; corporals of engineers, ordnance, Signal Corps, and Hospital Corps, chief mechanics, and mechanics, coast artillery, twenty-four dollars; corporals of cavalry, artillery, and infantry, mechanics of field artillery, blacksmiths and farriers, saddlers, wagoners, and artificers, twenty-one dollars: Provided, That not to exceed one blacksmith and farrier in each troop of cavalry and one mechanic in each battery of field artillery shall receive nine dollars per month additional for performing the duty of horseshoer; privates first class of engineers, ordnance, Signal Corps, and Hospital Corps, eighteen dollars; privates, Hospital Corps, sixteen dollars; trumpeters, musicians of infantry, artillery, and engineers, privates of cavalry, artillery, infantry, Signal Corps, and privates second class, engineers and ordnance, fifteen dollars.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 109.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Before this act, the rates of pay of enlisted men were fixed by Rev. St. §§ 1280, 1281, 1284, and other provisions set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 907–913. Said sections are expressly repealed by a further provision of this act, set forth below. Other provisions relating to such pay, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 910–912, and previous provisions as to the pay of various non-commissioned officers and enlisted men, set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title, are superseded by the provisions of this act.

So much of the proviso at the end of this paragraph as relates to additional pay for performing the duty of horseshoer, was superseded in part by Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 735, and is wholly superseded by the provision of Act March 23, 1910, c. 115, set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title, following Rev. St. § 1094.

Re-enlistment and continuous service pay.

That hereafter any soldier honorably discharged at the termination of an enlistment period who reenlists within three months thereafter shall be entitled to continuous-service pay as herein provided, which shall be in addition to the initial pay provided for in this Act and shall be as follows, namely: For those whose initial pay as provided herein is thirty-six dollars or more an increase of four dollars monthly pay for and during the second enlistment, and a further increase of four dollars for and during each subsequent enlistment up to and including the seventh, after which the pay shall remain as in the seventh enlistment. For those whose initial pay as provided for herein is eighteen, twenty-one, twenty-four, or thirty dollars, an increase of three dollars monthly pay for and during the second enlistment, and a further increase of three dollars for and during each subsequent enlistment up to and including the seventh, after which the pay shall remain as in the seventh enlistment. For those whose initial pay as provided for herein is fifteen and sixteen dollars, an increase of three dollars monthly pay for and during the second and third enlistments each, and a further increase of one dollar for and during each subsequent enlistment up to and including the seventh, after which the pay shall remain as in the seventh enlistment: Provided, That hereafter any soldier honorably discharged at the termination of his first or any succeeding enlistment period who reenlists after the expiration of three months shall be regarded as in his second enlistment; that an enlistment shall not be regarded as complete until the soldier shall have made good any time lost during an enlistment period by unauthorized absences exceeding one day, but any soldier who receives an honorable discharge for the convenience of the Government after having served more than half of his enlistment shall be considered as having served an enlistment period within the meaning of this Act; that the present enlistment period of men now in service shall be determined by the number of years continuous service they have had at the date of approval of this Act, under existing laws, counting three years to an enlistment, and the former service entitling an enlisted man to reenlisted pay under existing laws shall be counted as one enlistment period: And provided further, That hereafter any private soldier, musician or trumpeter honorably discharged at the termination of his first enlistment period who reenlists within three months of the date of said discharge shall, upon such reenlistment, receive an amount equal to three months' pay at the rate he was receiving at the time of his discharge.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 109.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Before this act, pay on re-enlistment and continuous service pay were provided for by Rev. St. §§ 1282–1284, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 912, 913. Rev. St. § 1284, is expressly repealed by a further provision of this act, set forth below, and other previous provisions relating to the subject are superseded by those of this act.

Enlisted men who served as commissioned officers of United States Volunteers, or as such in the Porto Rico Provisional Regiment or in the Philippine Scouts, are to have such period of service counted, and to be entitled to all continuous-service pay, by provisions of Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, and Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth ante, under chapter 2 of this Title.

Additional pay.

That hereafter enlisted men now qualified or hereafter qualifying as marksmen shall receive two dollars per month; as sharpshooters, three dollars per month; as expert riflemen, five dollars per month;

as second-class gunners, two dollars per month; as first-class gunners, three dollars per month; as gun pointers, gun commanders, observers second class, chief planters and chief loaders, seven dollars per month; as plotters, observers first class, and casemate electricians, nine dollars per month, all in addition to their pay, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, but no enlisted man shall receive at the same time additional pay for more than one of the classifications named in this section: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to increase the total number of gun pointers, gun commanders, observers, chief planters, chief loaders, plotters, and casemate electricians now authorized by law.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 110.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Previous similar provisions for additions to pay of men qualifying as marksmen, sharpshooters, or expert riflemen, contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 929, and June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 241, are superseded by the provisions of this act.

A further provision of this act, that increase of pay for service beyond the limits of the States comprising the Union, and the territories of the United States contiguous thereto, shall be as now provided by law, is set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1261.

Pay of enlisted men of bands; army bands or members thereof not to compete with civilian musicians.

That hereafter the monthly pay during the first enlistment of enlisted men of bands, exclusive of the band of the United States Military Academy, shall be as follows:

Chief musicians, seventy-five dollars; principal musicians and chief trumpeters, forty dollars; sergeants and drum-majors, thirty-six dollars; corporals, thirty dollars; and privates, twenty-four dollars; and the continuous-service pay of all grades shall be as provided in this Act: Provided, That army bands or members thereof shall not receive remuneration for furnishing music outside the limits of military posts when the furnishing of such music places them in competition with local civilian musicians.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 110.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Previous provisions for pay of musicians were contained in Rev. St. § 1280, Comp. St. 1901, p. 907, which is repealed by a further provision of this act, set forth below.

The pay of enlisted men of the band and field musicians of the Military Academy is fixed by a provision of Act May 28, 1908, c. 211, set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title.

Repeal of Rev. St. §§ 1280, 1281, 1284, and part of Rev. St. § 4819.

That sections twelve hundred and eighty, twelve hundred and eighty-one, and twelve hundred and eighty-four of the Revised Statutes be, and are hereby, repealed, and so much of section forty-eight hundred and nineteen as pertains to the deduction of twelve and one-half cents per month from the pay of every soldier of the Regular Army for the benefit of the Soldiers' Home be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 110.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. Rev. St. §§ 1280, 1281, 1284, repealed by this provision, and Rev. St. § 4819, repealed in part thereby, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 907, 912, 913, 3331.

Amendment of Act April 26, 1898, c. 191, § 6.

That section six of the Act entitled "An Act for the better organization of the line of the Army of the United States," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, be amended so as to read as follows:

Penalties for desertion; forfeiture of right to pension.

"Sec. 6. That any soldier who deserts shall, besides incurring the penalties now attaching to the crime of desertion, forfeit all right to pension which he might otherwise have acquired."

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 110.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. Act April 26, 1898, c. 191, § 6, amended thereby, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 910.

Act not to be construed to reduce pay or allowances of officers or enlisted men; repeal.

That nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to reduce the pay or allowances now authorized by law for any officer or enlisted man of the Army; and all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 110.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

The [illegible] appropriations made in this act for officers and enlisted men, having been based upon former rates of pay, were increased to the amounts necessary for payment of the increased rates established by the act, by a further provision thereof, 35 Stat. 115.

Sec. 1281.

[Repealed. Act May 11, 1908, c. 163.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 912, relating to additional pay of enlisted men, is expressly repealed by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1280, accompanying provisions of that act for increased pay.

Secs. 1282, 1283.

[Superseded. Act March 16, 1896, c. 59. Act May 11, 1908, c. 163.]

The provisions of these sections, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 912, 913, relating to pay on re-enlistment and according to length of service, are superseded by those of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, relating to re-enlistment and continuous service pay, and repealing Rev. St. §§ 1280, 1281, 1284, set forth ante, following Rev. St. § 1280. And the proviso annexed to Rev. St. § 1282, providing for retaining part of the pay of enlisted men, was superseded by a provision of Act March 16, 1896, c. 59, that no pay be retained, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 913, and by the provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, repealing so much of Rev. St. § 4819, as pertained to the deduction from the pay of every soldier for the benefit of the Soldiers' Home, also set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1280.

Sec. 1284.

[Repealed. Act May 11, 1908, c. 163.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 913, relating to re-enlistment and continuous service pay, is expressly repealed by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1280, accompanying provisions of that act for continuous service pay.

Sec. 1290.

ACT MAY 26, 1900, c. 586.

Transportation of remains of deceased civilian employés dying abroad, and soldiers dying on Government transports.

Appropriations for purposes similar to those made by the provisions of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 917, and also for transportation of remains of officers and soldiers dying abroad, are made in the subsequent sundry civil appropriation acts. Such provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 265, § 1, are set forth ante in chapter 1 of this Title, following Rev. St. § 1137.

Sec. 1292.

ACT FEB. 24, 1897, c. 311.

Pay of officers of volunteers during rebellion.

Decisions of the War Department as to rights under this act are to be conclusive, and no claims are to be allowed under the act, after Jan. 1, 1911, by a provision of Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 19, 1910, c. 174. [H. R. 20579.]

Decisions of War Department as to right under act conclusive; limitation of time for allowance of claims.

Hereafter in administering the Act of Congress approved February twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled "An Act to provide for the relief of certain officers and enlisted men of the volunteer forces," the decision of the War Department as to the right of any person to be held and considered to have been mustered into the service of the United States under the provisions of said Act shall be conclusive, and no claims shall be allowed or considered under said Act after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and eleven.

Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 324.

This is a provision of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Act Feb. 24, 1897, c. 311, mentioned in this provision, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 919.

Sec. 1293.

Rations of enlisted men.

The emergency ration, when issued, is to be in addition to the regular ration, by a provision contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Emergency ration in addition to regular ration.

* * That hereafter the emergency ration prescribed for use on emergent occasions shall, when issued, be furnished in addition to the regular ration under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War; * *

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1165.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for purchase of subsistence supplies in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above. A previous provision that no enlisted man shall be entitled to more than one ration daily, contained in Act July 16, 1892, c. 195, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 921.

Sec. 1305.

[Amended. Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078.]

This section and section 1308 of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 925, are amended by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, to read as set forth below.

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Amendment of Rev. St. §§ 1305, 1308.

That sections thirteen hundred and five and thirteen hundred and eight of the Revised Statutes of the United States are hereby amended, to take effect July first, nineteen hundred and six, and to read as follows:

Deposits of soldiers' savings.

"Sec. 1305. Any enlisted man of the Army may deposit his savings, in sums not less than five dollars, with any army paymaster, who shall furnish him a deposit book, in which shall be entered the name of the paymaster and of the soldier, and the amount, date, and place of such deposit. The amount so deposited shall be accounted for in the same manner as other public funds, and shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States and kept as a separate fund, known as pay of the Army deposit fund, repayment of which to the enlisted man on discharge from the service shall be made out of the fund created by said deposits, and shall not be subject to forfeiture by sentence of court-martial, but shall be forfeited by desertion, and shall not be permitted to be paid until final payment on discharge, or to the heirs or representatives of a deceased soldier, and that such deposits be exempt from liability for such soldier's debts: Provided, That the Government shall be liable for the amount deposited to the person so depositing the same.

Clothing balances, how payable.

"Sec. 1308. Clothing balances accumulating to the soldier's credit under section thirteen hundred and two shall, when payable to him upon his discharge, be paid out of the appropriation for pay of the Army for the then current fiscal year."

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 246.

This is a provision accompanying an appropriation for interest on and repayment of soldiers' deposits in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

Rev. St. §§ 1305, 1308, amended by this provision, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 925. The amendment of Rev. St. § 1305, consists in the change of a provision of the section as originally enacted, that the money deposited should "pass to the credit of the appropriation for the pay of the Army," to the provision that it shall "be deposited in the Treasury of the United States and kept as a separate fund, known as pay of the Army deposit fund, repayment of which to the enlisted man on discharge from the service shall be made out of the fund created by said deposits," as set forth here.

The amendment of Rev. St. § 1308, consists in the omission of the words at the beginning of the section as originally enacted, "The amounts of deposits and," and the omission of mention of section 1315 as well as section 1302, thus making the section applicable to payment of clothing balances only, the repayment of deposits being provided for by the amendment of Rev. St. § 1305.

Sec. 1308.

[Amended. Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078.]

This section and section 1305 of the Revised Statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 925, are amended by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, to read as set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1305.

CHAPTER FOUR.

The Military Academy.

Sec. 1309.

Officers, professors, and instructors.

The appointment of a professor of English and history is authorized by a provision of Act April 10, 1910, c. 174, set forth below.

Professors have the actual rank in the Army assigned to them by assimilation in the regulations of the Academy, by a provision of Act June 28, 1902, set forth below.

The detail of an officer of the Army as professor of ordnance and science of gunnery is authorized by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2508, set forth below.

A provision that any officer detailed from the Medical Corps as senior medical officer of the post shall be the professor of military hygiene, contained in Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, is set forth below.

The detail of an officer of the Army as associate professor of mathematics is authorized by provisions of Act March 1, 1893, c. 186, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 928, and of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, set forth below; and a similar detail as associate professor of modern languages is authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 995, set forth below.

Two assistant professors for English and history and for ordnance and gunnery, one for each department, are authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, set forth below.

Appropriations for pay of civilian instructors in French, in Spanish, in fencing, etc., and in gymnastics, etc., are made in the annual Military Academy appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, is set forth below.

A dental surgeon is to be detailed to the Academy by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title.

The master of the sword has the relative rank and the pay, allowances, and emoluments of a captain mounted, by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, set forth below, following Rev. St. § 1338.

Appropriations for pay of officers, professors, etc., included in the permanent establishment, are made, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1015.

ACT MARCH 1, 1893, c. 186.

Associate professor of mathematics.

The associate professor of mathematics has the pay and allowances of a major, and the position is to be filled by the detail of an officer from the Army, by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 28, 1902, c. 1300.

Rank of professors and associate professor.

* * That the professors and the associate professor of the United States Military Academy shall have the actual rank in the United States Army now assigned to them by assimilation in the regulations of the Military Academy prescribed by the President of the United States, and that they shall exercise command only in the academic department of the United States Military Academy.

Act June 28, 1902, c. 1300, 32 Stat. 409.

This is a proviso annexed to appropriations for pay of professors, etc., in the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

A previous provision that the academic staff as such shall not be entitled to any command in the Army separate from the Academy is contained in Rev. St. § 1314, Comp. St. 1901, p. 930.

The "associate professor" mentioned in this provision was the associate professor of mathematics, authorized by Act March 1, 1893, c. 186, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 928. Subsequent provisions for the detail of officers of the Army as associate professors of modern languages and of mathematics, each to receive the pay and allowances of a major, contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 995, and Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 995.

Associate professor of modern languages.

* * That the Secretary of War shall assign an officer of the Army to the Military Academy as associate professor of modern languages, and that such officer, while so serving, shall receive the pay and allowances of a major.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 995, 32 Stat. 1012.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of such associate professor, "in addition to pay as captain," $500, in the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1404. [H. R. 17984.]

Associate professor of mathematics.

* * That hereafter the associate professor of mathematics shall have pay and allowances of a major, and the position shall be filled by the detail of an officer from the Army at large; * *

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, 33 Stat. 850.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of such associate professor in the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2508. [H. R. 24537.]

Professor of ordnance and science of gunnery.

For pay of one professor of ordnance and science of gunnery (lieutenant-colonel), in addition to pay as major: Provided, That the position shall be filled by the detail of an officer of the Army, who, while so serving, shall have the title and status of other professors: Provided further, That the appropriation shall be immediately available, five hundred dollars:

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2508, 34 Stat. 1063.

This is a provision of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above. The appropriation is repeated in the similar acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1016.

ACT APRIL 19, 1910, c. 174. [H. R. 20579.]

Professor of English and history.

* * That the head of the department of English and history shall hereafter have the same status as the professors at the head of the other departments of instruction at the Military Academy, and the President of the United States is hereby authorized, by and with the consent of the Senate, to appoint a civilian in the department of English and history, United States Military Academy, a professor at the Military Academy, with the rank, pay, allowances, title, and status of the other professors: Provided further, That the provisions of law relating to retirement for disability in line of duty shall not apply in the case of this professor until after he shall have served fifteen years at the Military Academy.

Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 312.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of eight professors in the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

The similar act for the preceding year, Act March 4, 1909, c. 300, 35 Stat. 1032, contained an appropriation for pay of one instructor of English and history, to be selected and appointed from civil life by the Secretary of War.

Professor of military hygiene.

Hereafter any officer detailed from the Medical Corps of the army as senior medical officer of the post at the Military Academy, whose rank shall not be below that of lieutenant-colonel, shall be the professor of military hygiene.

Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 312.

This is a further provision of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

A previous provision, Act June 28, 1906, c. 3561, 34 Stat. 522, for the detail of an officer of the Medical Corps as professor of military hygiene, is superseded by this act.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 207. [H. R. 32436.]

Assistant professors of English and history and of ordnance and gunnery.

For pay of nine assistant professors (captains), two of whom are hereby authorized hereafter for the department of English and history and the department of ordnance and gunnery, one for each department, respectively, in addition to pay as first lieutenants, three thousand six hundred dollars;

Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1016.

This is a provision of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Civilian instructors in French, Spanish, fencing, etc., and gymnastics, etc.

For pay of two civilian instructors in French, to be employed under rules prescribed by the Secretary of War, two thousand dollars per year each, four thousand dollars;

For pay of two civilian instructors in Spanish, at two thousand dollars per year each, to be employed under rules prescribed by the Secretary of War, four thousand dollars;

For pay of two expert civilian instructors in fencing, broadsword exercises, and other military gymnastics as may be required to perfect this part of the training of cadets, three thousand dollars;

For pay of one professional civilian instructor in gymnastics, athletics, and swimming, one thousand five hundred dollars;

Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1019.

These are further provisions of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. Similar provisions were contained in the appropriation acts for preceding years.

Custodian of gymnasium, to act as trainer for cadet athletic teams.

For pay of one custodian of gymnasium, who shall hereafter be selected and appointed by the Superintendent of the Military Academy under Schedule A, classified positions excepted from examination under rule two, clause three, civil-service rules, who shall be qualified to act as trainer for the various cadet athletic teams, one thousand two hundred dollars;

Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1019.

This is a further provision of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

A similar provision, without the word "hereafter," was contained in the similar appropriation act for the preceding year, Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 316.

Sec. 1313.

Appointment of officers and professors.

Provisions for the detail of officers of the Army as associate professors of modern languages and of mathematics, contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 995, and Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, are set forth ante, following Rev. St. § 1309.

Sec. 1315.

ACT JUNE 6, 1900, c. 792, § 4.

Cadets, number and appointment of.

The number of cadets to be appointed from the United States at large is not at any one time to exceed forty, by a provision of Act June 28, 1902, c. 1300, set forth below.

An additional appointment of one cadet from Porto Rico is authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 995, set forth below.

The designation of four Filipinos, one for each class, to receive instruction at the Academy, is authorized by a provision of Act May 28, 1908, c. 214, set forth below.

Cadets appointed for admission after the year 1907 may be admitted on March 1 instead of June 1, by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2508, set forth below.

Whenever any cadet shall have finished three years of his course, his successor may be admitted, by a provision of Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, set forth below.

Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 323.

This is a provision of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Sec. 1321.

Engagement for service.

The provisions of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 932, requiring each cadet to sign articles engaging to serve eight years unless sooner discharged, are modified, in the case of Filipinos receiving instruction at the Academy, by a provision of Act May 28, 1908, c. 214, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1315.

Sec. 1325.

ACT MARCH 2, 1901, c. 804, § 1.

[Amended. Act April 19, 1901, c. 174.]

The portion of this section set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 933, is amended by Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, to read as set forth below.

ACT APRIL 19, 1910, c. 174. [H. R. 20579.]

Amendment of Act March 2, 1901, c. 804, § 1.

The portion of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act making appropriations for the support of the Military Academy for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and two, and for other purposes," approved March second, nineteen hundred and one, prescribing penalty for hazing, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Hazing; regulations to prescribe penalty; trial by court-martial of charge involving dismissal; effect of dismissal; repeal of inconsistent laws.

"That the superintendent of the United States Military Academy, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, shall make appropriate regulations for putting a stop to the practice of hazing, such regulations to prescribe dismissal, suspension, or other adequate punishments for infractions of the same, and to embody a clear definition of hazing.

"That any cadet who shall be charged with offenses under such regulations which would involve his dismissal from the academy shall be granted, upon his written request, a trial by a general court-martial, and any cadet dismissed from the academy for hazing shall not thereafter be reappointed to the corps of cadets nor be eligible for appointment as a commissioned officer in the Army or Navy or Marine Corps until two years after the graduation of the class of which he was a member.

"That all Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed."

Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 323.

These are provisions of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

The provision of Act March 2, 1901, c. 804, § 1, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 933.

Disposition of pending cases of hazing under regulations as modified.

The regulations of the United States Military Academy upon the subject of hazing having been modified, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to dispose of any cases which are now pending, and in which final action has not yet been taken, under the provisions of the said regulations as modified.

Act April 19, 1910, c. 174, 36 Stat. 324.

This is a further provision of the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Secs. 1327–1329.

[Repealed in part. Act March 4, 1909, c. 300.]

So much of these sections, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 934, 935, relating to the Board of Visitors to the Academy, as is inconsistent with the provisions of Act March 4, 1909, c. 300, is repealed by said provisions, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 11, 1875, c. 181, § 1.

[Superseded. Act March 4, 1909, c. 300.]

The provision of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 935, relating to the expenses of the Board of Visitors, is superseded by the different provisions relating to the Board contained in Act March 4, 1909, c. 300, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 4, 1909, c. 300. [H. R. 28059.]

Board of Visitors; appointment from members of committees on Military Affairs of Senate and of House of Representatives; visit to Academy; expenses; repeal in part of Rev. St. §§ 1327–1329.

* * That hereafter the Board of Visitors to the Military Academy shall consist of five members of the Committee on Military Affairs of the Senate and seven members of the Committee on Military Affairs of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the respective chairmen thereof, who shall annually visit the Military Academy on such date or dates as may be fixed by the chairmen of the said committees; and the superintendent of the academy and the members of the Board of Visitors shall be notified of such date by the chairmen of the said committees, acting jointly, at least fifteen days before the meeting. The expenses of the members of the board shall be their actual expenses while engaged upon their duties as members of said board, and their actual expenses for travel by the shortest mail routes: Provided further, That so much of sections thirteen hundred and twenty-seven, thirteen hundred and twenty-eight, and thirteen hundred and twenty-nine, Revised Statutes of the United States, as is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, is hereby repealed.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 300, 35 Stat. 1033.

These are provisos annexed to the appropriation for expenses of the members of the Board of Visitors in the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Rev. St. §§ 1327–1329, repealed in part by the last proviso, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 934, 935. The provision of Act June 11, 1878, c. 181, § 1, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 935, relating to the expenses of members of the Board, is superseded by the provisions of this act.

Provisions similar to those of this act were contained in the similar act for the preceding year, Act May 28, 1908, c. 214, 35 Stat. 436.

Sec. 1335.

Adjutant; pay of.

The recent Military Academy appropriation acts provide "for pay of one adjutant who shall not be above the rank of captain," $600. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1016.

Appropriations are also made annually "for pay of one quartermaster and commissary of cadets and treasurer," who was authorized by Act Aug. 7, 1876, c. 255, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 928, "in addition to pay as captain," $600. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1016.

Sec. 1336.

Pay of professors.

Recent provisions for the assignment or detail of officers of the Army to the Academy as professors or associate professors, prescribing their pay and allowances while so serving, are set forth ante, following Rev. St. § 1309.

Appropriations for additional pay to officers detailed as professors or associate professors are made in the annual Military Academy appropriation acts. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1016.

Sec. 1337. [As amended 1877.]

Assistant professors and instructors.

Appropriations for additional pay to officers detailed as assistant professors, senior assistant instructors, and instructors, are made in the annual Military Academy appropriation acts. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1016.

Sec. 1338. [As amended 1901.]

Master of the sword.

The master of the sword is to have the relative rank and the pay, allowances, and emoluments of a captain mounted, by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1404. [H. R. 17984.]

Master of the sword; rank and pay, etc.

* * That the master of the sword shall have the relative rank and shall be entitled to the pay, allowances, and emoluments of a captain mounted; * *

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, 33 Stat. 850.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of the master of the sword in the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

Sec. 1339.

Cadets.

The pay of cadets was fixed at $500 per annum and one ration per day, or commutation therefor, by a provision of Act June 28, 1902, c. 1300, set forth below. The pay is increased to $600 per annum by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth ante, under chapter 3 of this Title.

ACT JUNE 30, 1882, c. 255.

[Superseded. Act June 28, 1902, c. 1300. Act May 11, 1908, c. 163. Act May 28, 1908, c. 214.]

The provision of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 938, limiting pay of cadets to $540 a year, was superseded by the provisions as to such pay of Act June 28, 1902, c. 1300, set forth below, Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth ante, under chapter 3 of this Title, and Act May 28, 1908, c. 214, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 28, 1902, c. 1300.

Pay of cadets; traveling expenses of candidates.

* * That hereafter the pay of cadets shall be fixed at five hundred dollars per annum and one ration per day, or commutation therefor, such commutation to be thirty cents per day, to be paid from the appropriation for the subsistence of the Army.

Provided further, That hereafter the actual and necessary traveling expenses of candidates while proceeding from their homes to the Military Academy for qualification as cadets shall, if admitted, be credited to their accounts and paid after admission from the appropriation for the transportation of the Army and its supplies: * *

Act June 28, 1902, c. 1300, 32 Stat. 409.

These are provisos annexed to an appropriation for pay of cadets in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

The pay of cadets is increased to $600 per annum by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth ante, under chapter 3 of this Title; and they are to be entitled to rations or commutation therefor as allowed under this act, by a provision of Act May 28, 1908, c. 214, set forth below.

ACT MAY 28, 1908, c. 214. [H. R. 21875.]

* * That hereafter cadets shall be entitled to rations, or commutation therefor, as hitherto allowed under the Act approved June twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred and two, entitled "An Act making appropriations for the support of the Military Academy for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and three, and for other purposes."

Act May 28, 1908, c. 214, 35 Stat. 430.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for pay of cadets in the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

The provision of Act June 28, 1902, c. 1300, mentioned in this provision, is set forth above.

Sec. 1341.

Noncommissioned officers, etc.

Rev. St. § 1111, as amended 1901, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 810, prescribing the composition of the Military Academy Band, is further amended by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1404, set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title, to read as there set forth.

The rates of pay of enlisted men of the band and field musicians of the Academy are fixed by provisions of Act May 28, 1908, c. 214, set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title.

ACT FEB. 10, 1897, c. 214.

Number of enlisted men in detachments.

The usual annual appropriations for extra pay of the members of the general Army-service, mentioned in the note under this act in Comp. St. 1901, p. 941, are repeated, with the proviso, also mentioned therein, that such extra pay shall not be paid to any enlisted man who receives extra-duty pay under existing laws or Army regulations, in the subsequent Military Academy appropriation acts. The appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1016–1019.

No part of the moneys appropriated for use of the Quartermaster's Department is to be used in payment of extra duty pay for the Army service men in the Quartermaster's Department at West Point, by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below.

A provision that "all the money hereinbefore appropriated for pay of the Military Academy shall be disbursed and accounted for by officers of the Pay Department as pay of the Military Academy, and for that purpose shall constitute one fund," is contained in the Military Academy appropriation acts for recent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1019.

ACT MARCH 2, 1901, c. 804.

Overseer of waterworks; extra pay.

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 941, is repeated in the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, Act June 28, 1902, c. 1300, 32 Stat. 418, but is omitted from subsequent similar acts, and in each of them an appropriation is made for an overseer of waterworks. See Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1020.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Appropriations for Quartermaster's Department not to be used in payment of extra-duty pay for Army service men at West Point.

* * That hereafter no part of the moneys appropriated for use of the Quartermaster's Department shall be used in payment of extra duty pay for the Army service men in the Quartermaster's Department at West Point; * *

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1167.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for incidental expenses of the Quartermaster's Department in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Appropriations for extra pay of enlisted men of the Army service [illegible] rtermaster's Department, on extra duty at West Point, are made in the annual Military Academy appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1017.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 207. [H. R. 32436.]

Acting first sergeant of detachment of engineers; pay and allowances.

* * That hereafter the pay and allowances of the acting first sergeant of the United States Military Academy detachment of engineers shall be the same as the pay and allowances of a first sergeant of a company of engineers: And provided further, That when an acting first sergeant of the detachment of engineers may hereafter be retired, his retired pay and allowances shall be the same as the pay and allowances of a retired first sergeant of a company of engineers.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1019.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for extra pay to such sergeant, in the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, 36 Stat. 1019.

An appropriation, to remain available until expended, to increase the efficiency of the Military Academy, and to provide for the enlargement of buildings and for other necessary works of improvement in connection therewith, and to provide for an increased water supply, was made by the Military Academy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, Act June 28, 1902, 32 Stat. 419; and provisions relating to the expenditure of such appropriation and the construction of such buildings and other works, and further appropriations, are made by that act and the subsequent similar appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 207, 36 Stat. 1027.

CHAPTER FIVE.

Articles of War.

Sec. 1342.

Articles of war.

Articles 122 and 124, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 972, are modified, and article 123 is repealed, by Act March 8, 1910, c. 88, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 8, 1910, c. 88. [H. R. 13410.]

An Act to Modify the One hundred and twenty-second and One hundred and twenty-fourth Articles of War, and to Repeal the One hundred and twenty-third Article of War. (36 Stat. 234.)

Amendment of Rev. St. § 1342, arts. 122, 124.

Be it enacted, &c., That the one hundred and twenty-second and one hundred and twenty-fourth articles of war be, and hereby are, modified to read as follows:

Command, when different corps happen to join; position of organized militia.

"Art. 122. If, upon marches, guards, or in quarters, different corps of the army happen to join or do duty together, the officer highest in rank of the line of the Army, Marine Corps, organized militia, or volunteers, by commission, there on duty or in quarters, shall command the whole, and give orders for what is needful in the service, unless otherwise specially directed by the President, according to the nature of the case."

Rank of organized militia officers on duty with other forces.

"Art. 124. Officers of the organized militia of the several States when called into the service of the United States, shall on all detachments, courts-martial, and other duty, wherein they may be employed in conjunction with the regular or volunteer forces of the United States, take rank next after all officers of the like grade in said regular forces, and shall take precedence of all officers of volunteers of equal or inferior rank, notwithstanding the commissions of such militia officers may be older than the commissions of the said officers of the regular forces of the United States."

Act March 8, 1910, c. 88, 36 Stat. 234.

Articles of war 122, 124, modified by this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 972.

Repeal of Rev. St. § 1342, art. 123.

Sec. 2. That the one hundred and twenty-third article of war be, and hereby is, repealed.

Act March 8, 1910, c. 88, § 2, 36 Stat. 235.

Article of war 123, repealed by this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 972.

CHAPTER SIX.

Military Prison.

This chapter, containing sections 1344–1361 of the Revised Statutes, was omitted from the Compiled Statutes, 1901, as having become inoperative by the transfer of all the buildings, grounds, and other property connected with the military prison at Fort Leavenworth to the Department of Justice for a United States Penitentiary, by Act March 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 3728. But these provisions have become operative again by the re-establishment of the military prison at Fort Leavenworth, and are expressly recognized as applicable to said prison and to any military prison that the Secretary of War may designate, by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth below, and they and subsequent provisions relating to the subject are therefore inserted here.

Sec. 1344.

Military prison.

There shall be established at Rock Island, in the State of Illinois, a prison for the confinement and reformation of offenders against the rules, regulations, and laws for the government of the Army of the United States, in which shall be securely confined, and employed at labor, and governed in the manner hereinafter directed, all offenders convicted before any court-martial or military commission in the United States, and sentenced according to law to imprisonment therein.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 1, 17 Stat. 582.

This section and all the other sections of this chapter are amended, by the amendment of Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, cited above, so that all acts and things therein required to be done at Rock Island, Ill., should be done on the military reservation at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., by Act May 21, 1874, c. 186, set forth post, at the end of this chapter. Said amendatory act, though passed before the enactment of the Revised Statutes, took effect as a subsequent statute by virtue of Rev. St. § 5601, Comp. St. 1901, p. 3751.

Sec. 1345.

[Superseded. Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1.]

This section, which provided for the organization, by the Secretary of War, of a board of five members, to consist of five officers of the Army and two persons from civil life, who should adopt a plan for the building of the prison and frame regulations for the government of the prisoners, is superseded by the provision vesting the government and control of the prison in the Board of Commissioners of the Soldiers' Home, contained in Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1. [H. R. 28245.]

Government and control vested in Board of Commissioners of Soldiers' Home; annual report of president of Board.

* * That hereafter the government and control of the United States Military Prison shall, under the Secretary of War, be vested in the Board of Commissioners of the United States Soldiers' Home, which board shall consist as at present of the Surgeon-General, the Commissary-General, the Adjutant-General, the Quartermaster-General, the Chief of Engineers, the Judge-Advocate-General, and the Governor of the Home, and the president of said board, who shall be the senior in rank of the members thereof, shall submit annually to the Secretary of War, for transmission to Congress, a full statement of the financial and other affairs of both the home and the prison for the preceding fiscal year.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 1004.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for continuing the reconstruction of the military prison at Fort Leavenworth, in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. It supersedes Rev. St. § 1345, which provided for the organization of a board of government for the prison.

Sec. 1346. [As amended 1891.]

Visitation of prison.

The Secretary of War shall, with said commissioners, annually, and as much oftener as may be deemed expedient, visit said prison for the purposes of examination, inspection, and correction; and they shall inquire into all abuses or neglects of duty on the part of the officers or other persons in charge of the same, and make such changes in the general discipline of the prison as they may hold to be essential.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 3, 17 Stat. 583. Act Jan. 19, 1891, c. 80, 26 Stat. 722.

This section is amended by Act Jan. 19, 1891, c. 80, cited above, by changing the word "semi-annually," contained therein as originally enacted, to "annually," as set forth here.

Sec. 1347.

Officers and attendants.

The officers of the prison shall consist of a commandant and such subordinate officers as may be necessary, a chaplain, a surgeon, and a clerk, who shall be detailed by the Secretary of War from the commissioned officers of the Army; and a sufficient number of enlisted men shall be detailed by the Secretary of War to act as turnkeys, guards, and assistants in the prison.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 4, 17 Stat. 583.

Sec. 1348. [As amended 1891.]

Examination of accounts and government of prison.

One of the inspectors-general of the Army shall, at least once each year, visit the prison for the purpose of examining into the books and all the affairs thereof, and ascertaining whether the laws, rules, and regulations relating thereto are complied with, the officers are competent and faithful, and the convicts properly governed and employed, and at the same time treated with humanity and kindness. And it shall be the duty of the inspector, at once, to make full report thereof to the Secretary of War.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 5, 17 Stat. 583. Act Jan. 19, 1891, c. 80, 26 Stat. 722.

This section is amended by Act Jan. 19, 1891, cited above, by changing the word "inspectors," contained therein as originally enacted, to "inspectors-general," and the words "once in three months," also contained therein, to "once each year," as set forth here.

Sec. 1349.

Bond of commandant.

Before the commandant enters upon the duties of his office he shall give bond, with sufficient sureties, in a sum to be fixed by the Secretary of War, to be approved by him, conditioned that he shall faithfully account for all money placed in his hands for the use of the prison and for the faithful discharge of all his duties as commandant.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 6, 17 Stat. 583.

Sec. 1350.

Powers and duties of commandant.

The commandant shall have command of the prison; shall have the charge and employment of the prisoners, and the custody of all the property of the Government connected with the prison. He shall receive and pay out all money used for the prison, and shall cause to be kept, in suitable books, complete accounts of all the property, expenses, income, business, and concerns of the prison; and shall make full and regular reports thereof to the Secretary of War.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 6, 17 Stat. 583.

Sec. 1351.

Employment of convicts, proceeds of work.

The commandant shall, under the direction and with the approval of the Secretary of War, employ, for the benefit of the United States, the convicts at such labor and in such trades as may be deemed best for their health and reformation. He shall have power to sell and dispose of any articles manufactured by the convicts, and shall regularly account for the proceeds thereof, and shall give bond and security for the faithful keeping and accounting of all moneys and property coming to his hands as such commandant.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 6, 17 Stat. 583.

Sec. 1352.

Conduct of prisoners, remissions.

The commandant shall take note and make record of the good conduct of the convicts, and shall shorten the daily time of hard labor for those who, by their obedience, honesty, industry, or general good conduct, earn such favors; and the Secretary of War is authorized and directed to remit, in part, the sentences of such convicts, and to give them an honorable restoration to duty in case the same is merited.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 6, 17 Stat. 583.

Sec. 1353.

Misconduct of prisoners.

In case any convict shall disobey the lawful orders of the officers of the prison, or refuse to comply with the rules and regulations thereof, he may be placed in solitary confinement, and the commandant shall at once report the case to the Secretary of War, who shall direct the inspector to make full examination and report of the matter at the next inspection.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 6, 17 Stat. 583.

Sec. 1354.

Forbidden punishments.

In no case shall any prisoner be subjected to whipping, branding, or the carrying of weights for the purpose of discipline, or for producing penitence.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 6, 17 Stat. 583.

Sec. 1355.

Clothing at discharge.

Every prisoner, upon being discharged from prison, shall be furnished with decent clothing.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 6, 17 Stat. 583.

Sec. 1356.

Privileges of prisoners.

The use of newspapers and books shall not be denied the convicts at times when not employed; and unofficial visitors shall be admitted to the prison under such restrictions as the board of commissioners may impose. The prisoners shall not be denied the privilege of communicating with their friends by letter, and from receiving like communications from them, all of which shall be subject to the inspection of the commandant, or such officer as he may assign to that duty.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 7, 17 Stat. 584.

Sec. 1357.

Provisions for prisoners, what.

The prisoners shall be supplied with ample and clean bedding, and with wholesome and sufficient food, but when in hospital or under discipline their diet shall be prescribed by the proper authority. The prison shall be suitably ventilated, and each prisoner shall have a weekly bath of cold or tepid water, which shall be applied to the whole surface of the body, unless the surgeon shall direct otherwise for the health of the prisoner.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 8, 17 Stat. 584.

Sec. 1358.

Officers, etc., not to be interested in contracts.

No officer of the prison, or other person connected therewith, shall be concerned or interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract, purchase, or sale made on account of the prison.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 9, 17 Stat. 584.

Sec. 1359.

Officers suffering prisoner to escape.

Any officer who shall suffer a convict to escape, or shall in any way consent to his escape, or shall aid him to escape, or in an attempt to escape, shall be dismissed from the service, and suffer such other punishment as a court-martial may inflict.

Act March 3, 1873, c. 249, § 10, 17 Stat. 584.

Sec. 1360.

Soldiers suffering prisoner to escape.

Any soldier or other person employed in the prison who shall suffer a convict to escape, or shall in any way consent to his escape, or shall aid him to escape, or in an attempt to escape, shall, upon conviction by a court-martial, be confined therein not less than one year.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, cited above.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Military prison designated by Secretary of War to be regarded as branch of military prison at Fort Leavenworth, and subject with it to laws relating thereto.

* * That hereafter any military prison that the Secretary of War may designate for the confinement of general prisoners for whom there is no room at the United States Military Prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, or whom it is impracticable to send there, shall be regarded as a branch of the said United States Military Prison and equally with it shall be subject to the laws relating thereto, including chapter six, title fourteen, of the Revised Statutes; * *

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1169.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for transportation of the Army and its supplies in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

TITLE XV.

THE NAVY.

CHAPTER ONE.

Organization.

Secs. 1363, 1364.

ACT MARCH 3, 1899, c. 413, § 7.

Number on the active list of the line; rank, pay, etc.

The numbers in various grades of the active list of the Navy are increased, and the rank, pay, etc., of the officers added, and promotions to fill vacancies on such increase are regulated by provisions of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth below. Thereby the number of lieutenant commanders is increased from 170 to 200; of lieutenants from 300 to 350; and the numbers of officers on the active list of the Medical Corps and the Pay Corps, and of naval constructors and civil engineers, are also increased beyond the limits prescribed by previous provisions.

The number of civil engineers on the active list, limited by this section to 21, was increased by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, set forth below, and a further increase is authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, also set forth below.

A further increase in the number of naval constructors, beyond the number limited by Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 10, Comp. St. p. 998, is also authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth below.

Officers on the active list performing engineering duty on shore only are made additional to the numbers in the grades in which they were serving, by a provision of Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, set forth below.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1368.

Additional civil engineers.

That the appointment of six additional civil engineers is hereby authorized, three to be appointed during the present calendar year, and the other three in the calendar year of nineteen hundred and three.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 671.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. One additional civil engineer and twelve assistant civil engineers are authorized by a provision of the similar act for the year next following, set forth below.

Additional assistant naval constructors.

That, in addition to the number of naval constructors and assistant naval constructors now authorized, the appointment of six assistant naval constructors is hereby authorized, two to be appointed during the present calendar year and the remaining four in the calendar year of nineteen hundred and three.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 683.

This is a further provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. Additional naval constructors and assistant naval constructors are authorized by a provision of the similar act for the year next following, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1010.

Increase in numbers in grades of active list; rank, promotion, pay, etc.

The grades of the active list of the Navy hereinafter designated shall be so increased that there shall be thirty additional lieutenant-commanders, in all two hundred; fifty additional lieutenants, in all three hundred and fifty; such total numbers of lieutenants (junior grade) and ensigns as may qualify for said grades under existing law and the provisions of this Act; thirty additional surgeons with the rank of lieutenant-commander, in all eighty-five; one hundred and twenty additional passed assistant and assistant surgeons, with the rank, respectively, of lieutenant and lieutenant (junior grade), in all two hundred and thirty; two additional pay inspectors, in all fifteen; thirty-six additional paymasters, in all seventy-six; twenty-six additional passed assistant and assistant paymasters, in all ninety-six; twenty-nine additional naval constructors and assistant naval constructors, in all seventy-five; one additional civil engineer, in all twenty-eight; and twelve assistant civil engineers, of whom six shall have the rank of lieutenant (junior grade) and six the rank of ensign: Provided, That assistant civil engineers, during the first five years after date of appointment, shall receive, per annum, when on duty, one thousand five hundred dollars, when on leave or waiting orders, one thousand dollars; during the second five years after such date, when on duty, one thousand eight hundred dollars, when on leave or waiting orders, one thousand two hundred dollars; and after ten years from such date, when on duty, two thousand one hundred dollars, and when on leave or waiting orders, one thousand four hundred dollars: And provided further, That promotions in the corps of civil engineers shall be after such examination as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe.

The increase in the grades of lieutenant-commander and lieutenant provided for in this Act shall be filled by promotion each year of not exceeding twenty-five per centum of the total number of the increase in each of said grades; and not more than twenty-five assistant surgeons, not more than twenty assistant paymasters, nor more than five assistant naval constructors, nor more than three assistant civil engineers, in addition to those necessary to fill vacancies in said grades, shall be appointed in any one calendar year.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1197.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above. The previous provisions fixing the numbers of various grades in the active list of the line of the Navy are contained in Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 7, Comp. St. 1901, p. 983; and the provisions fixing the numbers in the various staff corps of the Navy are also set forth under Title XV, "The Navy," c. 1, Comp. St. 1901. pp. 988–999.

Officers advanced in rank as extra numbers, and commissions of officers now in the service, not affected by act.

Nothing contained in this Act shall affect the officers of the Navy who may have been or may hereafter be advanced in rank under existing provisions of law by which they become extra numbers in their respective grades, or operate to vacate the commission of any officer now in the service.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198.

This is a further provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 239. [H. R. 32212.]

Officers performing engineering duty on shore only to be additional numbers in their grades.

That officers on the active list of the line of the United States Navy who, under authority of law, now perform engineering duty on shore only are hereby made additional to the numbers in the grades in which they are now serving, and shall be carried as additional to the numbers of each grade to which they may hereafter be promoted: Provided, That said officers shall be entitled to all the benefits of retirement under existing or future laws equally with other officers of like rank and service.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1267.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Sec. 1367.

ACT JUNE 26, 1884, c. 122, § 1.

Graduates of Naval Academy to be commissioned ensigns.

Provisions relating to commissions to certain midshipmen graduated in 1906 and 1907, contained in Act May 30, 1908, c. 277, § 1, are set forth below.

ACT MAY 30, 1908, c. 227, § 1. [H. R. 21946.]

Commissions to certain graduates of Academy after two years' sea service.

The members of the class of midshipmen graduated from the Naval Academy on September twelfth, nineteen hundred and six, and February eleventh, nineteen hundred and seven, shall, subject to the usual examinations, be commissioned as ensigns after two years' sea service from the dates, respectively, of such graduation, and as in the case of other graduates from the Naval Academy.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 227, § 1, 35 Stat. 503.

This is a provision of the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1901, c. 852.

Appointment of warrant officers to vacancies in grade of ensign.

The appointment, from the warrant officers mentioned in the provisions of Act March 3, 1901, c. 852, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 987, of twelve ensigns in each calendar year, instead of the six appointed for by that act, is authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth below; and the time of service as warrant officers required to make them eligible for such appointment, fixed at six years by said Act March 3, 1901, c. 852, is made four years by a provision of Act April 27, 1904, c. 1622, also set forth below.

Chief boatswains, chief gunners, and chief machinists are eligible for appointment to the grade of ensign, under the restrictions imposed on the appointment of boatswains, gunners, and warrant machinists, by a provision of Act March 3, 1908, c. 255, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1406.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1010.

Appointment of warrant officers as ensigns annually.

Hereafter in each calendar year there may, under the restrictions imposed by existing law, be appointed from the boatswains, gunners, and warrant machinists of the Navy twelve ensigns.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1197.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

The previously existing law authorizing such appointments, mentioned

In this provision, contained in Act March 3, 1901, c. 852, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 987. It provided for appointments, "not exceeding six in any one calendar year."

ACT APRIL 27, 1904, c. 1622. [H. R. 12220.]

Time of service as warrant officers requisite to eligibility for appointment as ensigns; appointment as chief warrant officers.

That subject to the restrictions imposed by existing law, boatswains, gunners, and warrant machinists shall be eligible for appointment to the grade of ensign after four years' service as warrant officers, and boatswains, gunners, carpenters, and sailmakers shall be eligible for appointment as chief boatswains, chief gunners, chief carpenters, and chief sailmakers after six years from date of warrant.

Act April 27, 1904, c. 1622, 33 Stat. 346.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

The previously existing law authorizing appointments to the grade of ensign from the warrant officers mentioned in this provision, contained in Act March 3, 1901, c. 852, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 987. It provided that no person should be so appointed who had served less than six years as a warrant officer.

Sec. 1368.

ACT AUG. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 1.

Number on the active list of Medical Corps, Pay Corps, and Engineer Corps.

The numbers of surgeons and of passed assistant and assistant surgeons, as fixed by this act and increased by Act June 7, 1900, c. 859, are further increased by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth above.

The numbers of pay inspectors and of paymasters and passed assistant and assistant paymasters, as fixed by this act and increased by Act March 3, 1899, c. 421, are also further increased by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1899, c. 421.

Number on the active list of passed assistant and assistant paymasters.

The number of paymasters is increased to 76, and of passed assistant and assistant paymasters to 96, by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth above.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1266.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

The title "warrant machinist" was changed to "machinist" by a provision of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1406.

Sec. 1420.

Persons not to be enlisted.

Appropriations for expenses of recruiting for the naval service, in recent Navy appropriation acts, are accompanied by a proviso requiring in case of minors written evidence of the age of the applicant to be presented with the application for enlistment. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1268, is as follows:

"That no part of this appropriation shall be expended in recruiting seamen. ordinary seamen, or apprentice seamen, unless in case of minors a certificate of birth or a verified written statement by the parents, or either of them, or in case of their death a verified written statement by the legal guardian, be first furnished to the recruiting officer, showing applicant to be of age, required by naval regulations, which shall be presented with the application for enlistment; except in cases where such certificate is unobtainable, enlistment may be made when the recruiting officer is convinced that oath of applicant as to age is credible; but when it is afterwards found upon evidence satisfactory to the Navy Department that recruit has sworn falsely as to age, and is under eighteen years of age at the time of enlistment, he shall, upon request of either parent, be released from service in the Navy, upon payment of full cost of first outfit, unless, in any given case, the Secretary, in his discretion, shall relieve said recruit of such payment."

Provisions requiring refunding of bounty and of cost of outfits allowed on enlistment, where men are discharged in certain cases during the first year or the first six months of enlistment, contained in Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, are set forth below.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3590. [H. R. 18750.]

Refund of bounty on discharge during first year of enlistment.

* * That the Secretary of the Navy may, in his discretion, require the whole or a part of the bounty allowed upon enlistment to be refunded in cases where men are discharged during the first year of enlistment, by request, for inaptitude, as undesirable, or for disability not incurred in line of duty.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 553.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of the Navy in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. It is repeated in the same language in the similar appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, Act March 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1176.

Refund of cost of outfits on discharge during first six months of enlistment.

* * That hereafter the Secretary of the Navy may, in his discretion, require the whole or a part of the cost of outfits allowed upon enlistment to be refunded in cases where men are discharged during the first six months of enlistment for any cause other than disability incurred in line of duty.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 556.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for outfits on first enlistment in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

Sec. 1422.

Disposition of men at expiration of term.

A provision for allowance of mileage to enlisted men, discharged on account of expiration of enlistment, in lieu of transportation and subsistence, is contained in Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth post, under chapter 8 of this Title.

CHAPTER TWO.

General Provisions Relating to Officers.

Sec. 1434.

ACT JUNE 24, 1910, c. 378. [H. R. 23311.]

Detail of line officers for duty under staff officers in navy-yards and naval stations.

* * That line officers may be detailed for duty under staff officers in the manufacturing and repair departments of the navy-yards and naval stations, and all laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 614.

This is a proviso, annexed to provisions for distribution of the duties of the Bureau of Equipment among the other bureaus and offices of the Navy Department, in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

CHAPTER THREE.

Retired Officers [and Men] of the Navy.

Sec. 1443.

[Superseded. Act May 13, 1908, c. 166.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1020, providing for retirement of any officer of the Navy on his own application after 40 years' service, is superseded by a provision for such retirement after 30 years' service, contained in Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth post, under chapter 8 of this Title.

Sec. 1447.

Officers rejected from promotion.

A provision as to the rank of officers retired on failure in physical examination for promotion, contained in act March 4, 1911, c. 239, is set forth post, following Rev. St. § 1457.

Sec. 1457.

ACT MARCH 3, 1899, c. 413, § 11.

Retired rank and pay of officers who served during the civil war.

Further provisions relating to the rank and pay on retirement of officers who served during the civil war, contained in Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, are set forth below.

Provisions relating to pay of retired officers and enlisted men, contained in Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, are set forth post, under chapter 8 of this Title.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3590. [H. R. 18750.]

Retired rank and pay of officers who served during the civil war.

That any officer of the Navy not above the grade of captain who served with credit as an officer or as an enlisted man in the regular or volunteer forces during the civil war prior to April ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, otherwise than as a cadet, and whose name is borne on the official register of the Navy, and who has heretofore been, or may hereafter be, retired on account of wounds or disability incident to the service or on account of age or after forty years' service, may, in the discretion of the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, be placed on the retired list of the Navy with the rank and retired pay of one grade above that actually held by him at the time of retirement: Provided, That this Act shall not apply to any officer who received an advance of grade at or since the date of his retirement or who has been restored to the Navy and placed on the retired list by virtue of the provisions of a special Act of Congress.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 554.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. A previous provision relating to the same subject, contained in Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 11, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1025.

The provisions of this act are not to operate to deprive any officer retired since its passage of increased rank and pay to which, but for its passage, he would have been entitled, by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 255. [H. R. 26394.]

Retirement at higher grade for civil war service not to deprive officer of increased rank and pay.

The provisions of the Act approved June twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred and six, entitled "An act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and seven, and for other purposes," providing for the retirement in the next higher grade of officers of the navy who served during the Civil War, shall not operate to deprive any officer of the navy who has been, or may be, retired, since the passage of that Act, of the right to increased rank and pay to which, but for the passage of said Act, he would have been entitled.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 753.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

The provisions of Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, mentioned in this provision, are set forth above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 239. [H. R. 32212.]

Retired rank of officer failing in physical examination.

Hereafter, if any officer of the United States Navy shall fail in his physical examination for promotion and be found incapacitated for service by reason of physical disability contracted in the line of duty, he shall be retired with the rank to which his seniority entitled him to be promoted.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1267.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

Sec. 1465.

ACT MARCH 3, 1899, c. 413, § 17.

Retirement of enlisted men and appointed petty officers.

In computing the time for retirement of petty officers and enlisted men, all service in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps is to be credited, by Act June 22, 1906, c. 3518, set forth below.

General provisions for retirement of enlisted men who have served thirty years either in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or in all, prescribing the pay and allowances thereupon, are contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 2.

Provisions relating to pay of enlisted men on the retired list, contained in Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, are set forth post, under chapter 8 of this Title.

ACT JUNE 22, 1906, c. 3518. [S. 1649.]

An Act Providing for the Retirement of Petty Officers and Enlisted Men of the Navy. (34 Stat. 451.)

Length of service for retirement of petty officers and enlisted men.

Be it enacted, &c., That in computing the necessary thirty years' time for the retirement of petty officers and enlisted men of the Navy, all service in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps shall be credited.

Act June 22, 1906, c. 3518, 34 Stat. 451.

Provisions for retirement of enlisted men and appointed petty officers, after thirty years' service, were contained in Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 17, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1028.

More comprehensive provisions for retirement of enlisted men who have served thirty years either in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or in all, are contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 2.

CHAPTER FOUR.

Rank and Precedence, Promotion and Advancement.

Sec. 1479.

Chaplains.

The rank of chaplains to be appointed thereafter is prescribed and their promotion regulated, and the pay and allowances of chaplains are fixed by provisions of Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth post, under chapter 8 of this Title.

Sec. 1506.

Advancement in number.

Officers advanced in rank, as provided by this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1040, and thereafter promoted, are to be carried as additional numbers of each grade in which they serve, by Act June 16, 1906, c. 3338, set forth below, under Rev. St. § 1507.

Sec. 1507.

Promotion when grade is full.

Further provisions, similar to those of Act March 3, 1901, c. 852, set forth under this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1040, that officers advanced in rank, as provided by Rev. St. § 1506, and afterwards promoted, shall be carried as additional numbers of each grade in which they serve, are contained in Act June 16, 1906, c. 3338, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 16, 1906, c. 3338. [H. R. 17663.]

An Act to Extend the Provisions of the Act of March Third, Nineteen hundred and one, to Officers of the Navy and Marine Corps Advanced at any Time under the Provisions of Sections Fifteen hundred and six and Sixteen hundred and five for Eminent and Conspicuous Conduct in Battle. (34 Stat. 296.)

Officers advanced in rank, when promoted, to be carried as additional numbers of each grade.

Be it enacted, &c., That officers of the Navy and Marine Corps advanced in rank for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle or extraordinary heroism, and who since such advancement have been or may hereafter be promoted, shall from the date of the passage of this Act be carried as additional numbers of each grade in which they serve.

Act June 16, 1907, c. 3338, 34 Stat. 296.

The provisions of Act March 3, 1901, c. 852, mentioned in the title of this act as extended thereby, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1040. And Rev. St. §§ 1506 and 1605, also mentioned in the title of this act, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1040, 1094.

CHAPTER FIVE.

The Naval Academy.

Sec. 1512.

ACT AUG. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 1.

Title and appointment of naval cadets.

The title "naval cadet" is changed to "midshipman," by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, set forth below.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1368.

Title "naval cadet" changed to "midshipman."

The title "naval cadet" is hereby changed to "midshipman."

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 686.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

Sec. 1513.

Number of midshipmen.

Additional appointments of midshipmen for a limited period are authorized by provisions of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, and Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth below.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1368.

Additional midshipmen until year 1914; appointment.

That until the year nineteen hundred and fourteen, in addition to the naval cadets now authorized by law (the title having been changed by this Act to midshipmen), the President shall appoint five midshipmen, and there shall be appointed from the States at large, upon the recommendation of Senators, two midshipmen for each State.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 686.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. Further provisions for the appointment of additional midshipmen for a limited period, contained in the similar act for the year next following, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1010.

Additional midshipmen until June 30, 1913; appointment.

There shall be allowed at the Naval Academy two midshipmen for each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress, two for the District of Columbia, and five each year at large: Provided, That the additional Congressional appointments authorized by this Act shall be made at such times as may be determined by the Secretary of the Navy, who shall equitably distribute the increase among the several States, Districts, and Territories, so that ultimately, if practicable, each Senator, Representative, and Delegate may recommend for appointment during each Congress one midshipman. Provided further, That members of the Fifty-seventh Congress who will not be members of the Fifty-eighth Congress, and in whose Districts or States appointments have not been made or vacancies filled in the Fifty-seventh Congress, may immediately upon the passage of this Act make the additional appointments herein provided for.

* * * * * * * * * * * * *

That the provisions of this Act for the increase of appointments of midshipmen to the Naval Academy shall continue in force until the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and thirteen; and thereafter one midshipman, as now provided by law, shall be appointed for each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1197, 1198.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

Previous provisions as to the number of naval cadets, now designated midshipmen, were contained in Rev. St. § 1513, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1043, and in Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, set forth above.

Midshipman from Porto Rico; appointment.

That hereafter there shall be at the Naval Academy one midshipman from Porto Rico, who shall be a native of said island, and whose appointment shall be made by the President on the recommendation of the governor of Porto Rico.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198.

This is a further provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

Sec. 1514. [As amended 1894.]

Nomination of candidates.

Provisions similar to those of Rev. St. § 1514, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1043, but authorizing the nomination of candidates by Senators as well as Representatives and Delegates in Congress, to fill vacancies in the Academy, and prescribing different times for notification of and recommendation to fill vacancies, are contained in Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth below, and may be regarded as superseding, to a great extent, the provisions of Rev. St. § 1514.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3590. [H. R. 18750.]

Nomination of candidates.

Hereafter the Secretary of the Navy shall, as soon as possible after the first day of June of each year preceding the graduation of midshipmen in the succeeding year, notify in writing each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress of any vacancy that will exist at the Naval Academy because of such graduation, or that may occur for other reasons and which he shall be entitled to fill by nomination of a candidate and one or more alternates therefor. The nomination of a candidate and alternate or alternates to fill said vacancy shall be made upon the recommendation of the Senator, Representative, or Delegate, if such recommendation is made by the fourth day of March of the year following that in which said notice in writing is given, but if it is not made by that time the Secretary of the Navy shall fill the vacancy by appointment of an actual resident of the State, Congressional district, or Territory, as the case may be, in which the vacancy will exist, who shall have been for at least two years immediately preceding the date of his appointment an actual and bona fide resident of the State, Congressional district, or Territory in which the vacancy will exist and of the legal qualification under the law as now provided. In cases where by reason of a vacancy in the membership of the Senate or House of Representatives, or by the death or declination of a candidate for admission to the academy there occurs or is about to occur at the academy a vacancy from any State, district, or Territory that can not be filled by nomination as herein provided, the same may be filled as soon thereafter and before the final entrance examination for the year as the Secretary of the Navy may determine. The candidates allowed for the District of Columbia and all the candidates appointed at large, together with alternates therefor, shall be selected by the President within the period herein prescribed for nomination of other candidates: Provided, That the President may select a candidate for the District of Columbia for the year nineteen hundred and eight.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 578.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

Previous provisions for the nomination of candidates to fill vacancies in the Academy, similar to some extent to those of this act, were contained in Rev. St. § 1514, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1043, and in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1197, but may be regarded as superseded by this act.

Sec. 1517.

Qualifications.

Candidates for admission to the Academy are required to be, at the time of examination, between the ages of 16 and 20 years, by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth below.

The admission to the Academy for instruction of persons from foreign countries is restricted by a provision of Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1889, c. 396, § 2.

[Superseded. Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010.]

The provision of this act fixing the minimum and maximum age of admission of cadets to the Academy, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1044, is superseded by the requirement that candidates for admission, after January 1, 1904, shall be between the ages of 16 and 20 years, contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1010.

Age of candidates.

That after January first, nineteen hundred and four, all candidates for admission to the Naval Academy at the time of their examination must be between the ages of sixteen and twenty years.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

Previous provisions as to the ages of candidates for admission, and other qualifications required, are contained in Rev. St. § 1517, and Act March 2, 1889, c. 396, § 2, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1044.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3590. [H. R. 18750.]

Admissions of persons from foreign countries for instruction.

No person shall be admitted for instruction at the Naval Academy at Annapolis from any foreign country except upon authority of law hereafter enacted.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 577.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

Sec. 1518.

Appropriations, how applied.

The pay of midshipmen is $600 per annum while at the Academy, and $1,400 per annum after graduation therefrom, by a provision of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth post, under chapter 8 of this Title.

Sec. 1519.

Midshipmen found deficient.

Provisions authorizing the dismissal of midshipmen from the Academy and prescribing the procedure for that purpose, and regulating the procedure and punishment in trials for hazing, are contained in Act April 9, 1906, c. 1370, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 23, 1874, c. 453.

Hazing.

The making of rules to prevent hazing at the Academy, and the expulsion of any cadet found guilty of participating, etc., therein, are required by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth below.

So much of this act and of said Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, as requires the convening of a court-martial in all cases of hazing, and declares the finding of such a court-martial, when approved by the superintendent, final, and directs that a midshipman found guilty by such court-martial be summarily dismissed from the Academy, is repealed by Act April 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 3, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1010.

Rules to prevent hazing; punishment.

* * That the Superintendent of the Naval Academy shall make such rules, to be approved by the Secretary of the Navy, as will effectually prevent the practice of hazing; and any cadet found guilty of participating in or encouraging or countenancing such practice shall be summarily expelled from the Academy, and shall not thereafter be reappointed to the Corps of Cadets or be eligible for appointment as a commissioned officer in the Army or Navy or Marine Corps until two years after the graduation of the class of which he was a member.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above. It is repealed, in part, in connection with provisions of Act June 23, 1874, c. 453, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1045, by Act April 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 3, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 9, 1906, c. 1370. [S. 3899.]

An Act Granting Authority to the Secretary of the Navy, in his Discretion, to Dismiss Midshipmen from the United States Naval Academy and Regulating the Procedure and Punishment in Trials for Hazing at the said Academy. (34 Stat. 104.)

Dismissal of midshipmen; procedure.

Be it enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of the Superintendent of the United States Naval Academy, whenever he shall believe the continued presence of any midshipman at the said academy to be contrary to the best interests of the service, to report in writing such fact, with a full statement of the facts upon which are based his reasons for such belief, to the Secretary of the Navy, who, if after due consideration of the said report he shall deem the superintendent's said belief reasonable and well founded, shall cause a copy of the said report to be served upon the said midshipman and require the said midshipman to show cause, in writing and within such time as the said Secretary shall deem reasonable, why he should not be dismissed from the said academy; and after due consideration of any cause so shown the said Secretary may, in his discretion, but with the written approval of the President, dismiss such midshipman from the said academy. And the truth of any issue of fact so raised, except upon the record of demerit, shall be determined by a board of inquiry convened by the Secretary of the Navy under the rules and regulations for the government of the Navy.

Act April 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 1, 34 Stat. 104.

Repeal in part of Act June 23, 1874, c. 453, and Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010; hazing to be proceeded against and punished as other offenses.

Sec. 2. That so much of the Acts approved June twenty-third, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and March third, nineteen hundred and three, as requires the Superintendent of the United States Naval Academy to convene a court-martial in all cases when it shall come to the knowledge of the said superintendent that any midshipman has been guilty of the offense commonly known as "hazing," and declares the finding of a court-martial so convened, when approved by the said superintendent, final, and directs that any midshipman found guilty by such court-martial shall be summarily dismissed from the said academy, and also all other Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the present Act are hereby repealed, and that the offense known as "hazing" may hereafter be proceeded against, dealt with, and punished as offenses against good order and discipline and for violation and breaches of the rules of said academy. But no midshipman shall be dismissed for a single act of hazing except under the provisions of section three of this Act.

Act April 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 2, 34 Stat. 104.

Act June 23, 1874, c. 453, mentioned in and in part repealed by this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1045, and the provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, also mentioned therein and repealed in part thereby, is set forth above.

Trial by court-martial for hazing; punishment.

Sec. 3. That the Superintendent of the United States Naval Academy may, in his discretion and with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, cause any midshipman in the said academy to be tried by court-martial for the offense of hazing, as provided by the Act approved June twenty-third, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and such court-martial, upon conviction, may sentence such midshipman to any punishment authorized by the said Act or by the Act approved March third, nineteen hundred and three, or authorized for any violation or breach of the rules of the said academy by the said rules, or, in cases of brutal or cruel hazing may, in addition to dismissal, sentence such midshipman to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year: Provided, That such midshipman shall not be confined in a military or naval prison or elsewhere with men who have been convicted of crimes or misdemeanors; and such finding and sentence shall be subject to review by the convening authority and by the Secretary of the Navy, as in the cases of other courts-martial.

Act April 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 3, 34 Stat. 104.
See note under preceding section of this act.

Offense of hazing defined.

Sec. 4. That the offense of "hazing," as mentioned in this Act, shall consist of any unauthorized assumption of authority by one midshipman over another midshipman whereby the last-mentioned midshipman shall or may suffer or be exposed to suffer any cruelty, indignity, humiliation, hardship, or oppression, or the deprivation or abridgment of any right, privilege, or advantage to which he shall be legally entitled.

Act April 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 4, 34 Stat. 105.

Violations of regulations to be reported by professors, officers, etc.; punishment for failure to report.

Sec. 5. That it shall be the duty of every professor, assistant professor, academic officer, or any cadet officer or cadet petty officer, or instructor, as well as every other officer stationed at the United States Naval Academy, to promptly report to the superintendent thereof any fact which comes to his attention tending to indicate any violation by a midshipman or midshipmen of any of the provisions of this Act or any violation of the regulations of the said academy. Any naval officer attached to the academy who shall fail to make such report as provided in this section shall be tried by court-martial for neglect of duty and if convicted he shall be dismissed from the service. Any civilian instructor attached to the academy who shall fail to make such report as provided in this section shall be dismissed by the superintendent of the academy upon the approval of the Secretary of the Navy.

Act April 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 5, 34 Stat. 105.

Time of taking effect of act; punishment of prior offenses.

Sec. 6. That this Act shall take effect from the date of its approval, but no midshipman now connected with the United States Naval Academy shall, by reason of its enactment, be punished for any offense heretofore committed otherwise than in pursuance of the sentence of a court-martial (if, by existing law, such sentence would be now necessary for such punishment) or punished more severely than is now by law allowed for any offense heretofore committed: Provided, That any midshipman now in said Naval Academy may waive his right to trial by court-martial under existing law for any offense of hazing heretofore committed and may accept punishment under the provisions of section two of this Act.

Act April 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 6, 34 Stat. 105.

Sec. 1521.

ACT MARCH 2, 1889, c. 396, § 1.

Appointments to vacancies in Navy.

Provisions for commissions as ensigns to graduates of the Academy, on the completion of their course of study, are contained in Act June 26, 1884, c. 122, Comp. St. 1901, p. 987, and in Act May 30, 1908, c. 227, § 1, set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title.

Sec. 1527.

Storekeeper at the Academy.

Provisions relating to returns of property by and accounts of the storekeeper at the Academy, authorized by this section, contained in Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, are set forth below.

ACT MAY 13, 1908, c. 166. [H. R. 20471.]

Returns of property by and accounts of storekeeper at Academy.

The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to close and balance as expended the sum of twenty-four thousand five hundred dollars now standing on the books of the Treasury under the appropriation "Pay of the Navy," which was advanced by direction of the Secretary of the Navy in eighteen hundred and sixty-seven and eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and has heretofore been used as a midshipmen's store fund at the Naval Academy: Provided, That hereafter the storekeeper at the Naval Academy, authorized by section fifteen hundred and twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes, shall render quarterly returns of property to the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. A full report shall be made annually of receipts and expenditures by the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts to the Secretary of the Navy: And provided further, That an inspection of the storekeeper's accounts shall be made quarterly by the general inspector of the Pay Corps, with such recommendation as he may deem necessary, to the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts.

Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 153.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Rev. St. § 1527, mentioned in the first proviso of this paragraph, authorizing the storekeeper at the Academy, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1050.

Sec. 1528.

Professors of ethics, Spanish, and drawing.

The appointment of professors of mathematics, mentioned in Rev. St. § 1528, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1050, is authorized, and their duties in the instruction of midshipmen are prescribed, by Rev. St. §§ 1399–1401, and Act Jan. 20, 1881, c. 24, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 997, 998.

Appropriations for pay of professors and others at the Naval Academy for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are made by the Navy appropriation act for that year, Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1265.

ACT FEB. 14, 1879, c. 68.

Board of Visitors; duties; compensation.

Appropriations for expenses of the Board of Visitors are made each year in the Navy appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1283.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 255. [H. R. 26394.]

Use of crypt and window spaces of Academy chapel.

The crypt and window spaces of the United States Naval Academy chapel are to be used only for memorials to United States naval officers who have successfully commanded a fleet or squadron in battle, or who have received or may receive the thanks of the Congress of the United States for conspicuously distinguished services in time of war, and no memorial shall be accepted for or installed in said crypt or window spaces until at least five years after the death of the officer in question: Provided, That nothing in this provision shall be considered as invalidating any agreement made by the present or any former superintendent of the Naval Academy, authorizing a memorial window in the old Naval Academy chapel to be transferred to the new Naval Academy chapel.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 773.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

ACT APRIL 12, 1910, c. 157. [H. R. 89.]

An Act to Reorganize and Enlist the Members of the United States Naval Academy Band. (36 Stat. 297.)

Naval Academy Band; composition; pay, etc.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Naval Academy Band shall consist of one leader, who shall have the pay and allowance of a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps; one second leader, with pay at the rate of fifty dollars per month; twenty-nine musicians, first class, and eleven musicians, second class; and shall be paid from "Pay of the navy."

Act April 12, 1910, c. 157, § 1, 36 Stat. 297.

Enlistment of members of Band; credit for prior service; pay, etc.; retirement.

Sec. 2. That the members of the Naval Academy Band as now organized shall be enlisted in the navy and credited with all prior service of whatever nature as members of said band, as shown by the records of the naval academy and the pay rolls of the ships and academy; and the said leader and the enlisted musicians of the band shall be entitled to the same benefits in respect to pay, emoluments, and retirement arising from longevity, reenlistment, and length of service as are, or may hereafter become, applicable to other enlisted men of the navy: Provided, That no back pay shall be allowed to the leader or to any member of the said band by reason of the passage of this act.

CHAPTER SIX.

Vessels and Navy-Yards [and Naval Stations].

Sec. 1531.

ACT MAY 4, 1898, c. 234.

[Repealed in part. Act May 13, 1908, c. 166.]

So much of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1053, as provides that monitors shall be named for the states, is repealed by a provision of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth below.

ACT MAY 13, 1908, c. 166. [H. R. 20471.]

Repeal in part of Act May 4, 1898, c. 234; names of monitors.

So much of the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, and for other purposes," approved May fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, as provides that monitors owned by the United States shall be named for the States, and shall not be named for any city, place, or person until the names of the States shall have been exhausted, is hereby repealed, and monitors now owned by the United States or hereafter built may be named as the President may direct.

Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 159.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

The provision of Act June 30, 1898, c. 234, repealed in part by this provision is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1053.

Sec. 1536.

Cruising to assist distressed navigators.

Besides the provisions for the employment of vessels of the Navy contained in Rev. St. § 1536, and other acts set forth following that section in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1054, 1055, the detail of vessels to remove or destroy derelicts is authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 20, 1874, c. 339.

[Superseded. Act March 4, 1911, c. 265.]

This act and Act March 3, 1881, c. 141, amendatory thereof, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1054, which provided for furnishing vessels of the Navy for the use of nautical schools at certain ports named, are superseded by the similar provisions of Act March 4, 1911, c. 265, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1881, c. 141.

[Superseded. Act March 4, 1911, c. 265.]

See note under Act June 20, 1874, c. 339, above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1901, c. 863.

[Amended. Act June 29, 1906, c. 3612.]

This act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1055, providing for furnishing naval equipment to military schools, is amended by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3612, and by Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1. [H. R. 18969.]

Detail of vessels to remove or destroy derelicts.

The President in his discretion may temporarily detail any vessel or vessels of the Navy to remove or destroy derelicts in the course of vessels at sea. The regulations to govern the detail and service of said vessels shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy and approved by the President.

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1164.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3612. [H. R. 14975.]

An Act Amending Chapter Eight hundred and sixty-three, Volume Thirty-one, of the Statutes at Large. (34 Stat. 620.)

Amendment of Act March 3, 1901, c. 863.

Be it enacted, &c., That chapter eight hundred and sixty-three, volume thirty-one, of the Statutes at Large, approved March third, nineteen hundred and one, to authorize the Secretary of the Navy to loan naval equipment to certain military schools, and now the law in force, be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Naval equipment for military schools.

"That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized, upon the application of the governor of any State having seacoast line or bordering on one or more of the Great Lakes, to direct the Secretary of the Navy to furnish to one well-established military school in that State, desiring to afford its cadets instruction in elementary seamanship, one fully equipped man-of-war's cutter for every twenty-five cadets in actual attendance, and such other equipment as may be spared and be deemed adequate for instruction in elementary seamanship: Provided, That the said school shall have adequate facilities for cutter drill, and shall have in actual attendance at least one hundred and forty cadets in uniform receiving military instruction and quartered in barracks under military regulation, and shall have the capacity to quarter and educate at the same time one hundred and fifty cadets: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Navy shall require a bond in each case, in double the value of the property, for the care and safe-keeping thereof and for the return of the same when required."

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3612, 34 Stat. 620.

Act March 3, 1901, c. 863, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1055. The amendment consists in the change in the number of the cadets in actual attendance for whom one man-of-war's cutter should be furnished, from fifty, required by the original act, to twenty-five, as set forth here.

Said Act March 3, 1901, c. 863, is again amended by a provision of Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 30, 1906, c. 3937. [H. R. 19755.]

An Act to Authorize the Secretary of the Navy to Loan Temporarily to the Philippine Government a Vessel of the United States Navy for Use in Connection with Nautical Schools of the Philippine Islands. (34 Stat. 817.)

Vessel for nautical schools maintained by government of Philippine Islands.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Navy be, and he is hereby, authorized and empowered to loan temporarily to the government of the Philippine Islands, upon the written application of the Secretary of War, a vessel of the United States Navy, to be selected from such vessels as are not suitable or required for general service, together with such of her apparel, charts, books, and instruments of navigation as he may deem proper, said vessel to be used only by such nautical schools as are or may hereafter be maintained by said government of the Philippine Islands: Provided, That when such schools shall be abandoned, or when the interests of the naval service shall so require, such vessel, together with her apparel, charts, books, and instruments of navigation, shall be immediately restored to the custody of the Secretary of the Navy: And provided further, That when such loan is made to the government of the Philippine Islands, the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to detail from the enlisted force of the Navy a sufficient number of men, not exceeding six for any vessel, as ship keepers, the men so detailed to be additional to the number of enlisted men allowed by law for the naval establishment, and in making details for this service preference shall be given to those men who have served twenty years or more in the Navy.

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3937, 34 Stat. 817.

ACT JUNE 24, 1910, c. 378. [H. R. 23311.]

Amendment of Act March 3, 1901, c. 863; naval equipment for military schools.

That the Act entitled "An Act to authorize the Secretary of the Navy to loan naval equipment to certain military schools," approved March third, nineteen hundred and one, be amended by striking out the words "one hundred and forty cadets" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "seventy-five cadets over fifteen years of age."

Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 613.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Act March 3, 1901, c. 863, amended by this provision, is set forth, as originally enacted, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1055, and as previously amended by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3612, is set forth above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 265. [H. R. 24145.]

An Act for the Establishment of Marine Schools, and for Other Purposes. (36 Stat. 1353.)

Vessels for nautical schools at certain ports.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Navy, to promote nautical education, is hereby authorized and empowered to furnish, upon the application in writing of the governor of a State, a suitable vessel of the navy, with all her apparel, charts, books, and instruments of navigation, provided the same can be spared without detriment to the naval service, to be used for the benefit of any nautical school, or school or college having a nautical branch, established at each of the following ports of the United States: Boston, Philadelphia, New York, Seattle, San Francisco, Baltimore, Detroit, Saginaw, Michigan, Norfolk, and Corpus Christi, upon the condition that there shall be maintained at such port a school or branch of a school for the instruction of youths in navigation, steamship-marine engineering, and all matters pertaining to the proper construction, equipment, and sailing of vessels or any particular branch thereof.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 265, § 1, 36 Stat. 1353.

Previous provisions similar to those of sections 1 and 3 of this act, contained in Act June 20, 1874, c. 339, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1054, applicable to certain ports named therein, and extended to certain other ports named by Act March 3, 1881, c. 141, also set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1054, are superseded by this act.

Appropriations for aiding in maintenance of nautical schools.

Sec. 2. That a sum not exceeding the amount annually appropriated by any State or municipality for the purpose of maintaining such a marine school or schools or the nautical branch thereof is hereby authorized to be appropriated for the purpose of aiding in the maintenance and support of such school or schools: Provided, however, That appropriations shall be made for one school in any port heretofore named in section one and that the appropriation for any one year shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars for any one school.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 265, § 2, 36 Stat. 1353.

Detail of officers of Navy as superintendents or instructors in nautical schools; restoration of vessel and recall of officers; no person to be sentenced to school as punishment for crime.

Sec. 3. That the President of the United States is hereby authorized, when in his opinion the same can be done without detriment to the public service, to detail proper officers of the navy as superintendents of or instructors in such schools: Provided, That if any such school shall be discontinued, or the good of the naval service shall require, such vessel shall be immediately restored to the Secretary of the Navy and the officers so detailed recalled: And provided further, That no person shall be sentenced to or received at such schools as a punishment or commutation of punishment for crime.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 265, § 3, 36 Stat. 1353.
See note under section 1 of this act, above.

Repeal.

Sec. 4. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 265, § 4, 36 Stat. 1354.
See note under section 1 of this act, above.

Sec. 1537.

ACT MAY 20, 1908, c. 182. [S. 5617.]

An Act Authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to Accept and Care for Gifts Presented to Vessels of the Navy of the United States. (35 Stat. 171.)

Care of gifts presented to vessels of the Navy.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to accept and care for such gifts in the form of silver, colors, books, or other articles of equipment or furniture as, in accordance with custom, may be presented to vessels of the Navy by States, municipalities, or otherwise. The necessary expense incident to the care and preservation of gifts of this character which have been or may hereafter be accepted shall be defrayed from the appropriation "equipment of vessels."

Act May 20, 1908, c. 182, 35 Stat. 171.

Sec. 1538.

Repairs on hull and spars.

The provision of the recent appropriation acts, mentioned in the note under this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1057, limiting the amount to be applied to repairs of any wooden ship to ten per cent. of the estimated cost of a new ship, is repeated in the Navy appropriation acts for subsequent fiscal years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1280. And further provisos of that act limit in like manner the amount to be applied to the repair of any other ship to twenty per cent. of the estimated cost of a new ship, but allows repairs of ships damaged in foreign waters or on the high seas, so far as may be necessary to bring them home.

A provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1195, requiring the Secretary of the Navy to report to Congress proposed repairs or changes which in any case amount to more than $200,000, and that expenditures therefor shall be made only after appropriations are provided, is set forth below.

A further provision, requiring in addition to the report directed by said Act March 2, 1907, c. 2512, a statement of the expenditures for repairs where such repairs exceed for any one ship the sum of $200,000 in any one year, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, is also set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2512. [H. R. 24925.]

Report by Secretary of the Navy to Congress of proposed repairs or changes amounting to more than $200,000; expenditures therefor to be made only after appropriations.

* * That the Secretary of the Navy shall hereafter report to Congress, at the commencement of each regular session, the number of vessels and their names upon which any repairs or changes are proposed which in any case shall amount to more than two hundred thousand dollars, the extent of such proposed repairs or changes, and the amounts estimated to be needed for the same in each vessel; and expenditures for such repairs or changes so limited shall be made only after appropriations in detail are provided for by Congress.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1195.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for construction and repair of vessels in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

A provision requiring, in addition to the report directed by this act, a statement of expenditures for such repairs, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, is set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 255. [H. R. 26394.]

Report by Secretary of the Navy to Congress of expenditures for repairs amounting to more than $200,000 on one vessel in one year.

* * That hereafter it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof, in addition to the report directed to be made in the Act of March second, nineteen hundred and seven, making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eight, and for other purposes, a detailed statement showing the amount expended from each of the appropriations for the repair of every ship where such repairs exceed for any one ship the sum of two hundred thousand dollars in any one fiscal year: * *

Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 769.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for construction and repair of vessels in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

The provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2512, mentioned in this provision, is set forth above.

ACT JUNE 24, 1910, c. 378. [H. R. 23311.]

Damages by collisions with naval vessels; adjustment of claims less than $500.

The Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust and determine the amounts due on all claims for damages, where the amount of the claim does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, hereafter occasioned by collision, for which collisions vessels of the navy shall be found to be responsible, and report the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due the claimants to Congress at each session thereof through the Treasury Department for payment as legal claims out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor.

Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 607.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Sec. 1545.

[Repealed. Act March 3, 1909, c. 255.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1061, relating to salaries and per diem compensation of employés at Navy yards, is expressly repealed by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, set forth below.

Payments to civilian employés appointed by the Navy Department at naval stations in the island possessions, until specific appropriation is made for their pay, are authorized by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, set forth below, and by subsequent provisions referred to in the note under that act.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1368.

Civilian employés at naval stations in island possessions.

* * That the accounting officers of the Treasury are hereby authorized and directed to allow, in the settlement of the accounts of disbursing officers involved, payments made under the appropriation "Emergency fund" to civilian employees appointed by the Navy Department for duty in and serving at naval stations maintained in the island possessions during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and two, and until such time as Congress shall make specific appropriation for the pay of such employees.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 663.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation, under the heading "Emergency Fund," in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

A further provision of the same act, relating to travel pay of such civilian employés, is set forth below.

Further provisions for the allowance of similar payments under the appropriation "Contingent, Navy," to such civilian employés, during subsequent fiscal years, applicable only during the year for which the appropriation is made, are contained in the annual Navy appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1267.

Travel pay of civilian employés appointed for duty in islands.

The Secretary of the Navy, in his discretion, is authorized to pay all civilian employees appointed for duty in the Philippine, Hawaiian, and Samoan islands, the island of Guam, and the island of Porto Rico, from the date of their sailing from the United States until they report for duty to the officer under whom they are to serve, and while returning to the United States by the most direct route and with due expedition, a per diem compensation corresponding to their pay while actually employed; and in cases where the appointee is not to fill an existing vacancy his pay while traveling may be charged to the annual appropriation of the bureau concerned.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 663.

This is a further provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 255. [H. R. 26394.]

Pay of employés at navy-yards and naval stations, etc.; number of employés; leaves of absence; report of number, etc., of employés; schedule of permanent rates of compensation; preference for re-employment; repeal of Rev. St. § 1545, and of part of Rev. St. § 1556.

* * That hereafter the rates of pay of the clerical, drafting, inspection, and messenger force at navy-yards and naval stations and other stations and offices under the Navy Department shall be paid from lump appropriations and shall be fixed by the Secretary of the

Navy on a per annum or per diem basis as he may elect; that the number may be increased or decreased at his option and shall be distributed at the various navy-yards and naval stations by the Secretary of the Navy to meet the needs of the naval service, and that such per diem employees may hereafter, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, be granted leave of absence not to exceed fifteen days in any one year, which leave may, in exceptional and meritorious cases, where such an employee is ill, be extended, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, not to exceed fifteen days additional in any one year; that the total amount expended annually for pay for such clerical, drafting, inspection, and messenger force shall not exceed the amounts specifically allowed by Congress under the several lump appropriations, and that the Secretary of the Navy shall each year, in the annual estimates, report to Congress the number of persons so employed, their duties, and the amount paid to each: Provided further, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to submit to Congress at its next session, and for its consideration, a schedule of rates of compensation, annual or per diem, that should, in his judgment, be permanently fixed by law for clerical, inspection, and messenger service in navy-yards, naval stations, and purchasing pay offices, superintending construction offices, and inspection of engineering material; and in fixing such rates of compensation he shall have due regard for the rates usually paid for like services in the respective localities by employers other than the United States, and he shall not recommend any rate exceeding that being paid by the United States at any such yards, stations, or offices prior to January first, nineteen hundred and nine: Provided further, That persons employed in the clerical, drafting, and inspection force at navy-yards and stations discharged for lack of work or insufficiency of funds shall for one year thereafter be preferred for employment in such navy-yards and stations in the clerical, drafting, inspection, and messenger forces; that section fifteen hundred and forty-five, Revised Statutes, and so much of section fifteen hundred and fifty-six of the Revised Statutes as relates to pay of clerks to commandants of navy-yards and naval stations, are hereby repealed; * *

Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 754.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30. 1910, cited above.

Rev. St. § 1545, repealed by the last clause of these provisions, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1061, and Rev. § 1556, repealed in part thereby, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1067.

The provisions of this act relating to leaves of absence for employés supersede the previous provisions on the subject of Act Feb. 1, 1901, c. 190, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1063.

A provision for sales of such stores as the Secretary of the Navy may designate to civilian employés at naval stations beyond the continental limits of the United States and in Alaska, as well as to officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, is set forth post, under chapter 7 of this Title.

Sec. 1546.

ACT AUG. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1.

Naval training station; establishment.

Provisions for the selection of a site on the Great Lakes for an additional naval training station are contained in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 665.

Provisions for the establishment of a naval station at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, are contained in Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 141.

ACT FEB. 1, 1901, c. 190.

[Superseded. Act March 3, 1909, c. 255.]

The provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1063, for leaves of absence to employés at navy yards, etc., are superseded by those relating to the same subject contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1545.

ACT APRIL 27, 1904, c. 1622. [H. R. 12220.]

Consolidation of power plants at each navy-yard and station under Bureau of Yards and Docks.

The Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to consolidate the several power plants in any or all of the several navy-yards and stations at each navy-yard and station under the Bureau of Yards and Docks for the generation and distribution of light, heat, and power for all the purposes of the Navy. To the above end all such plants may be transferred from other bureaus to the Bureau of Yards and Docks, and all appropriations heretofore made for power houses and power plants for bureaus other than Yards and Docks are hereby reappropriated and made available under the Bureau of Yards and Docks for the consolidations herein provided for; and to further carry out the purposes of this provision there is hereby appropriated the sum of three hundred thousand dollars.

Act April 27, 1904, c. 1622, 33 Stat. 337.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 239. [H. R. 32212.]

Heat and light for Young Men's Christian Association buildings in navy yards and stations.

* * That the Secretary of the Navy is authorized, in his discretion, to furnish hereafter, without charge, heat and light for the Young Men's Christian Association buildings in navy yards and stations.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1274.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for maintenance of yards and docks in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

CHAPTER SEVEN.

General Provisions Relating to the Navy.

Sec. 1549.

Regulations of supplies.

A provision for sales of supplies to officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps and to civilian employés at certain naval stations, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, is set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 255. [H. R. 26394.]

Sales of stores to officers and enlisted men and to civilian employés at certain naval stations.

* * That hereafter such stores as the Secretary of the Navy may designate may be procured and sold to officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps, also to civilian employees at naval stations beyond the continental limits of the United States and in Alaska, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe: * *

Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 768.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for provisions in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. A similar provision, without the word "hereafter," was contained in the similar act for the preceding year, Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 146.

This provision supersedes previous provisions for the sale of pay department stores to civilian employés at such naval stations, contained in Act April 27, 1904, c. 1622, 33 Stat. 340, and subsequent Navy appropriation acts, down to the fiscal year 1908.

A provision that a profit may be charged on sales of ship's stores, to be expended for the benefit of the enlisted force, contained in Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, is set forth below.

ACT JUNE 24, 1910, c. 378. [H. R. 23311.]

Profit on sales of supplies.

* * That hereafter a profit not to exceed fifteen per centum may be charged on sales from ships' stores, such profit to be expended in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, under such regulations as he may prescribe, for the amusement, comfort, and contentment of the enlisted force, and to be accounted for to the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Navy Department: * *

Act June 24, 1910, c. 378. 36 Stat. 619.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for provisions, etc., in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Sec. 1552.

Coal-depots.

An appropriation to enable the Secretary of the Navy to execute the provisions of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1065, is made in the Navy appropriation act for each year. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1273.

Sec. 1553.

[Repealed. Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, § 341.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1065, is incorporated in the act to codify, etc., the penal laws, Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, in chapter 4, § 42, thereof, and is expressly repealed by chapter 15, § 341, of said act, taking effect January 1, 1910. Said act is set forth post, under Title LXIX A, "Crimes."

CHAPTER EIGHT.

Pay, Emoluments, and Allowances.

Sec. 1556.

General rule.

So much of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1067–1069, as relates to pay of clerks to commandants of navy yards and naval stations, is expressly repealed by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, set forth ante, under chapter 7 of this Title.

Other provisions of Rev. St. § 1556, and subsequent acts set forth under that section, in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1067–1073, fixing rates of pay of various officers and enlisted men, are superseded by provisions set forth below, particularly those of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, relating to such pay.

Provisions as to the pay of assistant civil engineers, in connection with a provision for their appointment, are contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title.

Provisions as to allowances of professors of mathematics and of civil engineers and assistant civil engineers are contained in Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth below.

Provisions relating to rates of pay of employés at navy yards and naval stations, etc., contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, are set forth ante, under chapter 6 of this Title.

The official salary of naval officers appointed or employed under the Isthmian Canal Act, Act June 28, 1902, c. 1302, set forth post, under Title LXIII, "Rivers and Harbors," subchapter "Isthmian Canal," is required to be deducted from the salary or compensation authorized by said act by section 7 thereof.

ACT MARCH 3, 1877, c. 111. ACT AUG. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 1.

[Superseded. Act May 13, 1908, c. 166.]

The provisions of these acts, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1071, relating to pay of naval cadets, are superseded by the provision fixing the pay of midshipmen, in Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1883, c. 97, § 1. ACT JUNE 10, 1896, c. 399, § 1.

[Superseded. Act May 13, 1908, c. 166.]

The provisions of these acts, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1071, 1072, relating to computation of service for the purpose of increase of pay, are superseded by the provisions for increase of pay for length of service contained in Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13.

Officers of line and of Medical and Pay Corps; chaplains.

The first proviso contained in this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1072, relating to pay of officers when on shore duty, is repealed by a provision of Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth below.

Part of the third proviso contained in this section also set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1072, relating to rank of chaplains, is superseded by further provisions of said Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth below.

Other provisions of this section, relating to pay of officers, are superseded by the provisions as to such pay of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth below.

The pay or allowances of any officer in the Navy was not to be increased or changed by anything contained in the provisions relating to the pay of officers of the Army of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, nor was this section to be construed as changing the pay of any naval officer by reason of the provisions of that act, by a proviso annexed to those provisions, set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 3.

ACT MARCH 3, 1899, c. 421.

[Superseded. Act May 13, 1908, c. 166.]

The provision of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1073, relating to the pay of the Admiral, is superseded by the provision fixing the annual pay of the Admiral at $13,500, contained in Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3590. [H. R. 18750.]

Repeal of provision of Act March 3, 1899; pay of officers when on shore duty.

That the provision contained in section thirteen of an Act approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, entitled "An Act to reorganize and increase the efficiency of the personnel of the Navy and Marine Corps of the United States," reading as follows: "Provided, That such officers when on shore shall receive the allowances, but fifteen per centum less pay than when on sea duty; but this provision shall not apply to warrant officers commissioned under section twelve of this Act," be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 554.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. The proviso of Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, mentioned therein and repealed thereby, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1072.

Chaplains; rank, pay, and allowances.

That all chaplains now in the Navy above the grade of lieutenant shall receive the pay and allowances of lieutenant-commander in the Navy according to length of service under the provisions of law for that rank, and all chaplains now in the Navy in the grade of lieutenant shall receive their present sea pay when on shore duty: Provided, That naval chaplains hereafter appointed shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of lieutenant (junior grade) in the Navy until they shall have completed seven years of service, when they shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of lieutenant in the Navy; and lieutenants shall be promoted, whenever vacancies occur, to the grade of lieutenant-commander, which shall consist of five numbers, and when so promoted shall receive the rank, pay, and allowances of lieutenant-commander in the Navy: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to increase the number of chaplains as now authorized by law or to reduce the rank or pay of any now serving.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 554.

These are further provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. Previous provisions relating to the number, rank, pay, and allowances of chaplains are contained in Rev. St. §§ 1395, 1479, 1556, and Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 997, 1033, 1068, 1072.

The pay and allowances of chaplains are in no case to exceed that provided for lieutenant commanders, by a provision of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth below.

Civil engineers and assistant civil engineers; professors of mathematics.

That from and after the passage of this Act the allowances of civil engineers and professors of mathematics in the Navy shall be the same as are or may be provided by or in pursuance of law for naval constructors, and the allowances of assistant civil engineers the same as for assistant naval constructors.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 555.

This is a further provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. Provisions as to the pay of professors of mathematics and civil engineers are contained in Rev. St. § 1556, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1068, and as to the pay of assistant civil engineers, in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, set forth ante, under chapter 1 of this Title.

ACT MAY 13, 1908, c. 166. [H. R. 20471.] [As amended 1910. H. R. 23311.]

Rates of pay of commissioned officers and of midshipmen; increase of pay of warrant officers and mates, and pay, etc., of paymasters' clerks; increase of pay of enlisted men; pay, etc., of chiefs of bureaus in Navy Department, of chaplains, and of aids to rear-admirals; retirement of officers, and pay, etc., thereon; pay as basis of pay of retired officers and enlisted men; existing pay, etc., not reduced; repeal.

Hereafter all commissioned officers of the active list of the Navy shall receive the same pay and allowances according to rank and length of service, and the annual pay of each grade shall be as follows: For Admiral, thirteen thousand five hundred dollars; rear-admiral, first nine, eight thousand dollars; rear-admiral, second nine, or commodore, six thousand dollars; captain, four thousand dollars; commander, three thousand five hundred dollars; lieutenant-commander, three thousand dollars; lieutenant, two thousand four hundred dollars; lieutenant, junior grade, two thousand dollars; ensign, one thousand seven hundred dollars. There shall be allowed and paid to each commissioned officer below the rank of rear-admiral ten per centum of his current yearly pay for each term of five years service in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps. The total amount of such increase for length of service shall in no case exceed forty per centum on the yearly pay of the grade as provided by law: Provided, That the annual pay of captain shall not exceed five thousand dollars per annum; of commander, four thousand five hundred dollars per annum; and of lieutenant-commander, four thousand dollars per annum. All officers on sea duty and all officers on shore duty beyond the continental limits of the United States shall while so serving receive ten per centum additional of their salaries and increase as above provided, and such increase shall commence from the date of reporting for duty on board ship or the date of sailing from the United States for shore duty beyond the seas or to join a ship in foreign waters. The pay of midshipmen shall hereafter be six hundred dollars per annum while at the Naval Academy, and one thousand four hundred dollars per annum after graduation from the Naval Academy. The pay of all warrant officers and mates is hereby increased twenty-five per centum, and all paymasters' clerks shall, while holding appointment in accordance with law, receive the same pay and allowances and have the same rights of retirement as warrant officers of like length of service in the Navy. The pay of all active and retired enlisted men of the Navy is hereby increased ten per centum: Provided further, That the pay and allowances of chiefs of bureaus in the Navy Department shall be the highest pay of the grade to which they belong, and not below that of rear-admiral of the lower nine, and that the pay and allowances of chaplains in the Navy shall in no case exceed that provided for lieutenant-commanders. Aids to rear-admirals embraced in the nine lower numbers of that grade shall each receive one hundred and fifty dollars additional per annum, and aids to all other rear-admirals, two hundred dollars additional per annum each. When an officer of the Navy has been thirty years in the service, he may, upon his own application, in the discretion of the President, be retired from active service and placed upon the retired list with three-fourths of the highest pay of his grade: And provided further, That any officer of the Navy who is now serving or shall hereafter serve as chief of a bureau in the Navy Department, and shall subsequently be retired, shall be retired with the rank, pay and allowances authorized by law for the retirement of such bureau chief. The pay of all commissioned, warrant and appointed officers and enlisted men of the Navy now on the retired list shall be based on the pay, as herein provided for, of commissioned, warrant and appointed officers and enlisted men of corresponding rank and service on the active list; and all pay herein provided shall remain in force until changed by Act of Congress. Nothing herein shall be construed so as to reduce the pay or allowances now authorized by law for any commissioned, warrant or appointed officer or any enlisted man of the active or retired lists of the Navy, and all laws inconsistent with this provision are hereby repealed.

Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 127. Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 606.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above. Previous provisions relating to rates of pay of officers of the Navy, contained in Rev. St. § 1556, and subsequent acts, particularly Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1067–1073. A previous provision for retirement of any officer after 40 years' service, contained in Rev. St. § 1443, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1020, is superseded by the provision of this act for such retirement. Previous provisions as to pay, etc., of petty officers and enlisted men were contained in Rev. St. § 1569, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1078.

The provision relating to the pay of paymaster's clerks is amended to read as set forth here, by a provision of Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, cited above.

The provision of this act relating to pay and allowances of chiefs of bureaus of the Navy Department is superseded by subsequent provisions contained in Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, set forth below.

A provision relating to computation of pay of retired officers, contained in Act May 30, 1908, c. 227, is set forth below.

Payment to retired army and navy officers and enlisted men in the employment of the Isthmian Canal Commission of salaries and wages, in addition to their retired pay, is authorized by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 298, § 1, set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 3.

A provision of this act directing the Secretary of the Navy to send to Congress at its next regular session a schedule showing the amount of all pay under the act and for all allowances under it for officers and enlisted men included in it, is repeated in the similar acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, is set forth post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations," following Rev. St. § 3666.

A further provision of this act prescribing the requirements of the estimates for the support of the Navy, is also set forth post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations," following Rev. St. § 3666.

Allowances on death of officer or enlisted man on active list; designation of and payment to beneficiary.

That hereafter immediately upon official notification of the death from wounds or disease contracted in line of duty of any officer or enlisted man on the active list of the Navy and Marine Corps the Paymaster-General of the Navy shall cause to be paid to the widow of such officer or enlisted man, or any person previously designated by him, an amount equal to six months' pay at the rate received by such officer or enlisted man at the date of his death, less seventy-five dollars in the case of an officer and thirty-five dollars in the case of an enlisted man, to defray expenses of interment, and the residue, if any, of the amount reserved shall be paid subsequently to the designated person. The Secretary of the Navy shall establish regulations requiring each officer and enlisted man to designate the proper person to whom this amount shall be paid in case of death, and said amount shall be paid to that person from funds appropriated for the pay of the Navy and Marine Corps.

Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 128.

This is a further provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Navy bands or members thereof not to compete with civilian musicians.

Navy bands or members thereof, other than the United States Naval Academy band at Annapolis, Maryland, shall not receive remuneration for furnishing music outside the limits of military posts, when the furnishing of such music places them in competition with local civilian musicians.

Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 153.

This is a further provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

ACT MAY 30, 1908, c. 227, § 1. [H. R. 21946.]

Computation of pay of retired officers not to include additional pay for sea duty, etc.; pay of commodore.

In computing the pay of retired officers of the Navy, the ten per cent additional pay allowed for sea duty or for shore duty beyond the continental limits of the United States shall not be included, and the pay of commodore shall be the same in all respects as that of rear-admiral, second nine.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 227, § 1, 35 Stat. 501.

This is a provision of the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

ACT JUNE 24, 1910, c. 378. [H. R. 23311.]

Rates of pay and allowances of chiefs of bureaus of Navy Department; rank, title, and emoluments of chiefs of bureaus, and commissions after 30 years' service.

The pay and allowances of chiefs of bureaus of the Navy Department shall be the highest shore-duty pay and allowances of the rear-admiral of the lower nine; and all officers of the navy who are now serving or shall hereafter serve as chief of bureau in the Navy Department and are eligible for retirement after thirty years' service, shall have, while on the active list, the rank, title, and emoluments of a chief of bureau, in the same manner as is already provided by statute law for such officers upon retirement by reason of age or length of service, and such officers, after thirty years' service, shall be entitled to and shall receive new commissions in accordance with the rank and title hereby conferred.

Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 607.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

A previous provision relating to the pay and allowances of chiefs of bureaus in the Navy Department, contained in Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth above, is superseded by this act.

Sec. 1557.

Furlough pay.

Payments to officers while on temporary leaves of absence are to be allowed, in certain cases, by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 255. [H. R. 26394.]

The accounting officers of the Treasury are hereby authorized and directed to allow, in the settlement of accounts of disbursing officers involved, payments made to officers of the navy while on temporary leaves of absence since March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, not involving detachment from duty, and not in excess of leaves of absence allowed by law to officers of the army without reduction in pay.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 754.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Sec. 1566.

ACT MARCH 3, 1901, c. 852.

Expenses for travel repeated between two or more places.

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1078, is repeated in the similar appropriation act for the year next following, with the addition of the word "hereafter," as set forth below.

The purchase by the Navy Department of mileage books, commutation tickets, etc., to be furnished to officers and others ordered to perform travel on official business, is authorized by a provision of Act April 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1, set forth below.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1368.

Expenses for travel repeated between two or more places.

* * That hereafter in cases where orders are given to officers of the Navy or Marine Corps for travel to be performed repeatedly between two or more places in such vicinity as in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy is appropriate, he may direct that actual and necessary expenses only be allowed.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 663.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for pay, miscellaneous, in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. It is repeated from the similar appropriation act of the preceding year, the word "hereafter" being inserted, and the provision thereby made permanent.

ACT APRIL 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1. [H. R. 15054.]

Mileage books, commutation tickets, etc., for officers and others traveling on official business.

The accounting officers of the Treasury are hereby authorized and directed to allow, in the settlement of the accounts of disbursing officers of the Navy, all vouchers covering payments for mileage books, commutation tickets, and other similar transportation tickets heretofore purchased by the Navy Department and furnished to officers and civilian inspectors traveling under orders from the Department. And the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to continue to purchase such mileage books, commutation tickets, and other similar transportation tickets as may in his discretion seem necessary, and to furnish same to officers and others ordered to perform travel on official business; and payment for such transportation tickets upon their receipt, in accordance with commercial usage, or prior to the actual performance of the travel involved, shall not be regarded as an advance of public money within the meaning of section thirty-six hundred and forty-eight of the Revised Statutes. * *

Act April 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1, 33 Stat. 403.

This is a provision of the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above.

Sec. 1568.

Civilians, storekeepers on foreign stations.

Provisions relating to rates of pay of civilian employés at naval stations and other stations and offices under the Navy Department, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, are set forth ante, under chapter 6 of this Title.

Sec. 1569.

Enlisted men.

The pay of enlisted men, which by this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1078, was to be fixed by the President, is increased, and the pay so provided is to remain in force until changed by act of Congress, by provisions of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1556.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3590. [H. R. 18750.]

Enlisted men; allowance on discharge in lieu of transportation and subsistence.

* * That hereafter enlisted men, discharged on account of expiration of enlistment, shall receive in lieu of transportation and subsistence, travel allowance of four cents per mile from the place of discharge to the place of enlistment, for travel in the United States.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 555.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for transportation of enlisted men, etc., in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

Transportation to their homes or places of enlistment of discharged naval prisoners is authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, set forth post, under chapter 10 of this Title.

Sec. 1578.

[Superseded. Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1083, providing for rations for officers while at sea, etc., is superseded by the provisions relating to pay and allowances of Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1072.

bread, and such quantities of yeast and flavoring extracts as may be necessary.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 570.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. The amendment of Rev. St. § 1580, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1083, by this act, supersedes a previous amendment of that section by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 679.

Substitutions for the components of the ration are authorized by the provisions of Rev. St. § 1581, also amended by this act and by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2512, as set forth below.

Substitutions in ration; extra allowance to men of engineer and dynamo force standing night watches.

"Sec. 1581. The following substitution for the components of the ration may be made when deemed necessary by the senior officer present in command: 'For one and one-quarter pounds of salt or smoked meat or one pound of preserved meat, one and three-quarter pounds of fresh meat or fresh fish, or eight eggs; in lieu of the articles usually issued with salt, smoked or preserved meat, one and three-quarter pounds of fresh vegetables; for one pound of biscuit, one and one-quarter pounds of soft bread or eighteen ounces of flour; for three gills of beans or pease, twelve ounces of flour or eight ounces of rice or other starch food, or twelve ounces of canned vegetables; for one pound of condensed milk or evaporated cream, one quart of fresh milk; for three ounces of dried or six ounces of canned or preserved fruit, nine ounces of fresh fruit; and for twelve ounces of flour or eight ounces of rice or other starch food, or twelve ounces of canned vegetables, three gills of beans or pease; in lieu of the weekly allowance of one-quarter pound of macaroni, four ounces of cheese, one-half pint of vinegar or sauce, one-quarter pint of pickles, one-quarter pint of molasses, and one-eighth ounce of spices, three pounds of sugar, or one and a half pounds of condensed milk, or one pound of coffee, or one and a half pounds of canned fruit, or four pounds of fresh vegetables, or four pounds of flour.

"'An extra allowance of one ounce of coffee or cocoa, two ounces of sugar, four ounces of hard bread or its equivalent, and four ounces of preserved meat or its equivalent shall be allowed to enlisted men of the engineer and dynamo force who stand night watches between eight o'clock postmeridian and eight o'clock antemeridian, under steam.'"

"Any article comprised in the Navy ration may be issued in excess of the authorized quantity, provided there be an under issue of the same value in some other article or articles: * * *"

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 571. Act March 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1193.

Rev. St. § 1581, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1084, as amended by the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, first cited above, is further amended by a provision of the similar act for the year next following, also cited above. The amendment by the act last mentioned consists in the addition of the last paragraph of the section as set forth here. These amendments supersede a previous amendment of that section by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 680. A further provision of said Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, repealing Rev. St. § 1584, and a provision of Act May 3, 1880, c. 73, relating to substitutions in the ration, is set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1584.

ACT MAY 3, 1880, c. 73.

[Repealed. Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368.]

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1084, is repealed by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1584.

Sec. 1584.

[Repealed. Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368.]

This section is repealed by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, set forth below.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1368.

Repeal of Rev. St. § 1584, and provision of Act May 3, 1880, c. 73.

That section fifteen hundred and eighty-four of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and so much of the Act of May third, eighteen hundred and eighty, "making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-one, and for other purposes," as authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to substitute desiccated tomatoes for desiccated potatoes, are hereby repealed.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 680.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. Rev. St. § 1584, and the provision of Act May 3, 1880, c. 73, mentioned in and repealed by this provision, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1084, 1085.

Sec. 1585.

Commutation price of ration.

The payment of money accruing from commutation of rations of enlisted men for the benefit of any mess is authorized by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, set forth below.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1368.

Payment of commutation of rations for benefit of mess.

That money accruing from the rations of enlisted men commuted for the benefit of any mess may be paid on public bills to the commissary officer by the pay officer having their accounts.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 680.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

The annual Navy appropriation acts contain, accompanying the appropriation for provisions for the Navy, various provisions relating to commuted rations. The appropriation for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is as follows: "Provisions, Navy: For provisions and commuted rations for the seamen and marines, which commuted rations may be paid to caterers of messes, in case of death or desertion, upon orders of the commanding officers, commuted rations for officers on sea duty (other than commissioned officers of the line, Medical and Pay Corps, chaplains, chief boatswains, chief gunners, chief machinists, and chief sailmakers) and midshipmen, and commuted rations stopped on account of sick in hospital and credited to the naval hospital fund; subsistence of officers and men unavoidably detained or absent from vessels to which attached under orders (during which subsistence rations to be stopped on board ship and no credit for commutation therefor to be given); and for subsistence of female nurses and navy and marine corps general courts-martial prisoners undergoing imprisonment with sentences of dishonorable discharge from the service at the expiration of such confinement: Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to commute rations for such general courts-martial prisoners in such amounts as seem to him proper, which may vary in accordance with the location of the naval prison, but which shall in no case exceed thirty cents per diem for each ration so commuted." Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1278.

Sec. 1587.

Funeral expenses.

A deduction, to defray expenses of interment, is to be made from the allowance of six months' pay on the death of an officer or enlisted man, by the provision for such allowance contained in Act May 13, 1909, c. 166, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1556.

Provisions for settlement of accounts of deceased officers and enlisted men in certain cases, and payment of the amount due when less than $500, and for payment therefrom of funeral expenses, contained in Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, are set forth below.

An appropriation for transportation to their homes of the remains of officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps who die or are killed in action, and of civilian employés who die outside the continental limits of the United States, is made in the recent Navy appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1278.

ACT MAY 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1. [H. R. 21260.]

Settlement of accounts of deceased officers and enlisted men and payment of amount due to widow or heirs; payment of funeral expenses.

Hereafter, in the settlement of the accounts of deceased officers or enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps, where the amount due the decedent's estate is less than five hundred dollars and no demand is presented by a duly appointed legal representative of the estate, the accounting officers may allow the amount found due to the decedent's widow or legal heirs in the following order of precedence: First, to the widow; second, if the decedent left no widow, or widow be dead at time of settlement, then to the children or their issue, per stirpes; third, if no widow or descendants, then to the father and mother in equal parts, provided father has not abandoned the support of his family, in which case to the mother alone; fourth, if either the father or mother be dead, then to the one surviving; fifth, if there be no widow, child, father, or mother at the date of settlement, then to the brothers and sisters and children of deceased brothers and sisters, per stirpes: Provided, That this Act shall not be so construed as to prevent payment from the amount due the decedent's estate of funeral expenses, provided a claim therefor is presented by the person or persons who actually paid the same before settlement by the accounting officers.

Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 373.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Sec. 1588.

Pay of retired officers.

The pay of all officers and enlisted men on the retired list at the time of the passage of the act is to be based on the pay provided for officers and enlisted men of corresponding rank and service on the active list by Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, by a provision of that act set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1556.

CHAPTER NINE.

The Marine Corps.

Secs. 1596, 1597.

ACT MARCH 3, 1899, c. 413, §§ 18, 23.

Composition of active list of line; filling vacancies created.

Additions to the numbers of officers authorized by Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 18, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1090, and to the enlisted force of the Marine Corps are authorized by provisions of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, Act March 3, 1905, c. 1481, and Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth below.

Enlisted force.

Additions to the enlisted force of the Marine Corps, prescribed by Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 23, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1092, are authorized by provisions of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, Act March 3, 1905, c. 1481, and Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth below. And by a proviso of the act last mentioned the number of enlisted men in the corps shall be such as Congress may from time to time authorize.

ACT MARCH 3, 1899, c. 421.

Number of enlisted men exclusive of men imprisoned under sentence of dishonorable discharge.

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1092, is repeated in the same language in the similar appropriation acts for the subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1284.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1368.

Additional enlisted force.

In addition to the enlisted force of the Marine Corps now authorized by law there may be enlisted ten gunnery-sergeants, forty sergeants, sixty corporals, ten drummers, ten trumpeters, and six hundred and twenty privates.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 687.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. Further additions are authorized by provisions of the similar appropriation acts for subsequent years, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1010.

Additional officers and enlisted force; filling vacancies.

That from and after the passage of this Act, and in order to further increase the efficiency of the Marine Corps, the following additional officers, noncommissioned officers, drummers, trumpeters, and privates to those now provided by law for said corps, are hereby authorized and directed, namely: One colonel, one lieutenant-colonel, five majors, twelve captains, twenty-five first lieutenants, twelve second lieutenants, one assistant adjutant and inspector with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, two assistant adjutants and inspectors with the rank of major, one assistant quartermaster with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, five assistant quartermasters with the rank of captain, one assistant paymaster with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, one assistant paymaster with the rank of captain, one sergeant-major, forty quartermaster-sergeants, twelve first sergeants, sixty-five sergeants, fifty-five corporals, ten drummers, ten trumpeters, and five hundred and twenty-seven privates: Provided, That the vacancies now existing in the line and the staff departments of the Marine Corps and those created by this Act below the grade of brigadier-general shall be filled, respectively, first by promotion by seniority and then by selection and appointment as now provided by law, excepting that vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant shall be filled first, as far as practicable, from graduates of the Naval Academy each year on completing the prescribed course at the Naval Academy, exclusive of the probationary tour of sea service before final graduation, then from meritorious noncommissioned officers and from civil life between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-seven years: Provided, That the commissions of officers now in the Marine Corps shall not be vacated by this Act: And provided further, That officers selected for appointment to fill vacancies in the grade of field officers in any of the staff departments shall be taken from officers on the active list not below the grade of captain and who have seen not less than seven years' service as commissioned officers in the Marine Corps. And that appointments to the grade of captain in any of the staff departments shall be made from officers on the active list of the Marine Corps not below the grade of first lieutenant.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, cited above. Further additions are authorized by provisions of the similar appropriation acts for subsequent years, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1481. [H. R. 18467.]

Additional enlisted force.

Pay of noncommissioned officers, musicians, and privates, as prescribed by law; * * and the following additional enlisted men, namely, ten first sergeants, sixty-seven sergeants, one hundred and forty-two corporals, ten drummers, ten trumpeters, and one thousand privates, * *

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1481, 33 Stat. 1113.

This is a provision of an appropriation for "Pay, Marine Corps," in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above. Further additions are authorized by provisions of Act May 11, 1908, c. 166, set forth below.

ACT MAY 13, 1908, c. 166. [H. R. 20471.]

Additional officers and enlisted men; number of enlisted men to be as authorized from time to time.

That from and after the passage of this Act, and in order to further increase the efficiency of the United States Marine Corps, the following additional officers, noncommissioned officers, drummers, trumpeters, and privates to those now provided by law for said corps are hereby authorized and directed, namely: One major-general commandant, in lieu of the present brigadier-general commandant; one colonel; one lieutenant-colonel; two majors; eighteen captains; seven first lieutenants; fourteen second lieutenants; one assistant adjutant and inspector, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel; one assistant quartermaster, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel; one assistant quartermaster, with the rank of major; and three assistant quartermasters, with the rank of captain; one assistant paymaster, with the rank of major; one assistant paymaster, with the rank of captain; two sergeant-majors; fifteen quartermaster-sergeants, five of whom are to serve in the pay department; twenty first sergeants; fifty sergeants; one hundred and twenty-five corporals; ten drummers; ten trumpeters; and five hundred and eighteen privates: Provided, That hereafter the number of enlisted men in the United States Marine Corps shall be such as the Congress may from time to time authorize.

Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 155.

These are provisions of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

A previous provision that the commandant of the corps should have the rank, pay, etc., of a major-general in the army, until a vacancy should occur in the office, contained in Act July 1, 1902, c. 1368, is superseded by the provision herein for a major-general commandant.

Filling vacancies created by act.

That the vacancies now existing in the line and staff departments of the United States Marine Corps and those created by this Act shall be filled in the manner provided by law.

Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 155.

This is a further provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

ACT JUNE 24, 1910, c. 378. [H. R. 23311.]

Assistant paymasters' clerks; pay, allowances, etc.

For each assistant paymaster, one clerk who shall hereafter be available where his services are required and who shall receive the same pay, allowances, and other benefits as are now or may hereafter be provided for paymasters' clerks of corresponding length of service in the United States Army (five clerks in all), seven thousand dollars.

Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 625.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

The pay and allowances of Army paymasters' clerks are the same as provided by law for Navy paymasters' clerks on shore duty, by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 3; and Navy paymasters' clerks receive the same pay and allowances as warrant officers, by a provision of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, as amended by a provision of Act June 24, 1910, c. 378, cited above, set forth ante, under chapter 8 of this Title.

Sec. 1612.

Pay of Marine Corps.

Provisions fixing the rates of pay of officers and enlisted men of the Army, to which the officers and enlisted men of the Marine Corps are entitled, under this section, contained in Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, are set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 3.

Various provisions relating to pay and allowances, etc., of officers and enlisted men of the Navy and the Marine Corps are set forth ante, under chapter 8 of this Title.

The Navy appropriation acts for recent fiscal years provide for additional compensation for enlisted men of the Marine Corps regularly detailed for certain specified duties, or holding good conduct medals, etc., and for prizes for excellence in gunnery practice and target practice. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1284.

The Navy appropriation acts for the fiscal years 1909 to 1912, provide that "the money herein specifically appropriated for pay of the Marine Corps shall be disbursed and accounted for in accordance with existing law as pay of the Marine Corps, and for that purpose shall constitute one fund." The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1285.

Additional pay to privates detailed and serving as cooks is authorized by a further provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2512, set forth below.

The deposit by enlisted men of their savings, in the same manner as is provided for the enlisted men of the Navy, is authorized by a provision of Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth below.

A restriction on allowance of extra-duty pay, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, is set forth below.

ACT JUNE 10, 1896, c. 399, § 1.

Mileage.

Rules for the settlement of traveling expense claims are to be prescribed, by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3590. [H. R. 18750.]

Deposits of savings by enlisted men.

* * That hereafter enlisted men of the Marine Corps shall be entitled to deposit their savings with the United States, through any paymaster, in the same manner and under the same conditions as is now or may hereafter be provided for the enlisted men of the Navy: Provided, however, That the sums so deposited shall pass to the credit of the appropriation for pay of the Marine Corps.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 579.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for interest on and for refunding such deposits in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. Provisions relating to such deposits by the enlisted men of the Navy are contained in Act Feb. 9, 1889, c. 119, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1088.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2512. [H. R. 24925.]

Pay of privates detailed and serving as cooks.

* * That hereafter privates regularly detailed and serving as cooks, shall receive, in addition to the pay otherwise allowed by law, the following: First-class cooks, ten dollars per month; second-class cooks, eight dollars; third-class cooks, seven dollars; and fourth-class cooks, five dollars.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1200.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for pay of the Marine Corps in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 255. [H. R. 26394.]

Settlement of traveling expense claims; rules to be prescribed.

* * That hereafter the settlement of all traveling expense claims, where the payment of such is authorized by existing law, and the determination of distances and of what constitutes the shortest usually traveled route in the meaning of laws relating to traveling allowances, shall accord to such rules as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 774.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for mileage to officers in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Extra-duty pay; restriction.

* * That hereafter extra-duty pay will not be allowed to enlisted men of the Marine Corps except when they are regularly detailed thereon by a written order of the commandant of the corps.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 776.

This is a further provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Sec. 1615.

ACT MARCH 3, 1901, c. 852.

Rations of marines on shore duty.

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1098, is repeated in the same language in the similar appropriation acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1285.

Appropriations for commutation of quarters for officers serving with troops under certain circumstances, and for enlisted men employed in certain offices specified, are contained in the recent Navy appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1286.

Sec. 1622.

Retirement.

The retirement of officers of the Marine Corps with creditable records, who served during the civil war, is regulated by a provision of Act April 27, 1904, c. 1622, and a further provision of Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 27, 1904, c. 1622. [H. R. 12220.]

Retirement of officers who served during the civil war.

That officers of the Marine Corps with creditable records who served during the civil war shall, when retired, be retired in like manner and under the same conditions as provided for officers of the Navy who served during the civil war.

Act April 27, 1904, c. 1622, 33 Stat. 349.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above. A provision for retirement of officers of the Navy who served during the civil war is contained in Act March 3, 1899, c. 413, § 11, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1025.

Provisions for retirement of enlisted men who have served thirty years either in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or in all, are contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2515, set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 2.

Further provisions relating to retirement of officers of the Marine Corps who served during the Civil War are contained in Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, set forth below.

The retirement of officers of the Marine Corps generally is regulated by Rev. St. §§ 1622, 1623, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1100.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3590. [H. R. 18750.]

Retirement of officers below grade of brigadier-general who served during the civil war.

That any officer of the Marine Corps below the grade of brigadier-general who served with credit as an officer or as an enlisted man in the regular or volunteer forces during the civil war prior to April ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, otherwise than as a cadet, and whose name is borne on the official register of the Marine Corps, and who has heretofore been, or may hereafter be, retired on account of wounds or disability incident to the service, or on account of age or after forty years' service, may, in the discretion of the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, be placed on the retired list of the Marine Corps with the rank and retired pay of one grade above that actually held by him at the time of retirement: Provided, That this Act shall not apply to any officer who received an advance of grade since the date of his retirement or who has been restored to the Marine Corps and placed on the retired list by virtue of the provisions of a special Act of Congress.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 554.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. A previous provision relating to the same subject, contained in Act April 27, 1904, c. 1622, is set forth above.

CHAPTER TEN.

Articles for the Government of the Navy.

Sec. 1624.

[Amended. Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131.]

Article 34 of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1115, is amended by Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 14, set forth below.

Article 38 of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1116, prescribing the authorities by whom general courts martial may be convened, is superseded by the provisions as to the same subject contained in Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 10, set forth below.

Provisions for ordering "deck courts," for the trial of enlisted men in the Navy and Marine Corps for minor offenses now triable by summary court-martial, and provisions relating to the proceedings of such courts and of courts-martial and courts of inquiry, punishments for offenses, and approval and carrying into effect of sentences of deck courts and courts martial, are contained in other sections of said Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, set forth below.

The use of irons as a form of punishment in the Navy, authorized to be inflicted by order of the commander of a vessel or sentence of a summary court-martial, by article 24, subd. 2, and article 30, subds. 2, 3, of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1112, 1114, is abolished, except for purposes of safe custody or when part of the sentence imposed by a general court-martial, by a provision of Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, set forth below, repeated in Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 8, also set forth below.

ACT MAY 13, 1908, c. 166. [H. R. 20471.]

Use of irons as punishment restricted.

That the use of irons, single or double, as a form of punishment in the Navy of the United States is hereby abolished, except for the purposes of safe custody or when part of the sentence imposed by a general court-martial.

Act May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 132.

This is a provision of the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

ACT FEB. 16, 1909, c. 131. [H. R. 6252.]

An Act to Promote the Administration of Justice in the Navy. (35 Stat. 621.)

Establishment of courts for trial of enlisted men for minor offenses.

Be it enacted, &c., That courts for the trial of enlisted men in the Navy and Marine Corps for minor offenses now triable by summary court-martial may be ordered by the commanding officer of a naval vessel, by the commandant of a navy-yard or station, by a commanding officer of marines, or by higher naval authority.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 1, 35 Stat. 621.

Deck courts; composition and powers.

Sec. 2. That such courts shall be known as "deck courts," and shall consist of one commissioned officer only, who, while serving in such capacity shall have power to administer oaths, to hear and determine cases, and to impose, in whole or in part, the punishments prescribed by article thirty of the Articles for the Government of the Navy: Provided, That in no case shall such courts adjudge discharge from the service or adjudge confinement of forfeiture of pay for a longer period than twenty days.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 2, 35 Stat. 621.

Article 30 of the Articles for the Government of the Navy, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1114.

Recorder of deck court.

Sec. 3. That any person in the Navy under command of the officer by whose order a deck court is convened may be detailed to act as recorder thereof.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 3, 35 Stat. 621.

Review, etc., of sentence of deck court.

Sec. 4. That the officer within whose command a deck court is sitting shall have full power as reviewing authority to remit or mitigate, but not to commute, any sentence imposed by such court; but no sentence of a deck court shall be carried into effect until it shall have been so approved or mitigated, and such officer shall have power to pardon any punishment such court may adjudge.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 4, 35 Stat. 621.

Rules governing deck courts to be prescribed.

Sec. 5. That the courts hereby authorized shall be governed in all details of their constitution, powers, and procedure, except as herein provided, by such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 5, 35 Stat. 621.

Records of proceedings of deck courts; filing and review.

Sec. 6. That the records of the proceedings of the courts hereby authorized shall contain such matters only as are necessary to enable the reviewing authorities to act intelligently thereon, except that if the party accused demands it within thirty days after the decision of the deck court shall become known to him, the entire record or so much as he desires shall be sent to the reviewing authority. Such records, after action thereon by the convening authority, shall be forwarded directly to, and shall be filed in, the Office of the Judge-Advocate-General of the Navy, where they shall be reviewed, and, when necessary, submitted to the Secretary of the Navy for his action.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 6, 35 Stat. 621.

Right to object to trial by deck court.

Sec. 7. That no person who objects thereto shall be brought to trial before a deck court. Where such objection is made by the person accused, trial shall be ordered by summary or by general court-martial, as may be appropriate.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 31, § 7, 35 Stat. 621.

Courts may adjudge part or whole of any punishment authorized; use of irons as punishment restricted.

Sec. 8. That the courts authorized to impose the punishments prescribed by article thirty of the Articles for the Government of the Navy may adjudge either a part or the whole, as may be appropriate, of any one of the punishments therein enumerated: Provided, That the use of irons, single or double, is hereby abolished, except for the purpose of safe custody or when part of a sentence imposed by a general court-martial.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 8, 35 Stat. 621.

Article 30 of the Articles for the Government of the Navy, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1114.

The proviso annexed to this section, relating to the use of irons as punishment, repeats in the same language a previous provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 166, set forth above.

Setting aside proceedings or remitting or mitigating sentence of court-martial.

Sec. 9. That the Secretary of the Navy may set aside the proceedings or remit or mitigate, in whole or in part, the sentence imposed by any naval court-martial convened by his order or by that of any officer of the Navy or Marine Corps.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 9, 35 Stat. 621.

General courts-martial; by whom convened.

Sec. 10. That general courts-martial may be convened by the President, by the Secretary of the Navy, by the commander in chief of a fleet or squadron, and by the commanding officer of any naval station beyond the continental limits of the United States.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 10, 35 Stat. 621.

This section supersedes the previous provisions relating to the same subject contained in article 38 of the Articles for the Government of the Navy, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1116.

Process for witnesses in courts-martial or courts of inquiry.

Sec. 11. That a naval court-martial or court of inquiry shall have power to issue like process to compel witnesses to appear and testify which United States courts of criminal jurisdiction within the State, Territory, or District where such naval court shall be ordered to sit may lawfully issue.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 11, 35 Stat. 621.

Failure of witness to appear or testify, etc., before general court-martial or court of inquiry, a misdemeanor; prosecution and punishment; witness not to be compelled to incriminate, etc., himself.

Sec. 12. That any person duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness before a general court-martial or court of inquiry of the Navy, who willfully neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to qualify as a witness or to testify or produce documentary evidence, which such person may have been legally subpoenaed to produce, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, for which such person shall be punished on information in the district court of the United States; and it shall be the duty of the United States District Attorney, on the certification of the facts to him by such naval court to file an information against and prosecute the persons so offending, and the punishment of such person, on conviction, shall be a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, That this shall not apply to persons residing beyond the State, Territory, or District in which such naval court is held, and that the fees of such witnesses and his mileage at the rates provided for witnesses in the United States district court for said State, Territory, or District shall be duly paid or tendered said witness, such amounts to be paid by the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts out of the appropriation for compensation of witnesses: Provided further, That no witness shall be compelled to incriminate himself or to answer any question which may tend to incriminate or degrade him.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 12, 35 Stat. 622.

Allowances to prisoners during confinement, and on discharge; restrictions.

Sec. 13. That persons confined in prisons in pursuance of the sentence of a naval court-martial shall, during such confinement, be allowed a reasonable sum, not to exceed three dollars per month, for necessary prison expenses, and shall upon discharge be furnished with suitable civilian clothing and paid a gratuity, not to exceed twenty-five dollars: Provided, That such allowances shall be made in amounts to be fixed by, and in the discretion of, the Secretary of the Navy and only in cases where the prisoners so discharged would otherwise be unprovided with suitable clothing or without funds to meet their immediate needs.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 13, 35 Stat. 622.

Subsequent provisions for furnishing transportation and clothing to discharged naval prisoners, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, are set forth below.

Amendment of Rev. St. § 1624, art. 34; proceedings of summary courts-martial; records; filing; destruction after two years.

Sec. 14. That section sixteen hundred and twenty-four, article thirty-four, Revised Statutes of the United States, is hereby amended as follows: "The proceedings of summary courts-martial shall be conducted with as much conciseness and precision as may be consistent with the ends of justice, and under such forms and rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, with the approval of the President, and all such proceedings shall be transmitted in the usual mode to the Navy Department, where they shall be kept on file for a period of two years from date of trial, after which time they may be destroyed in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy."

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 14, 35 Stat. 622.

Rev. St. § 1624, art. 34, amended by this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1115. The amendment consists in the addition, at the end of the article, of the provisions for keeping the records on file and for their destruction after two years.

Arrest of deserters; authority of civil officers.

Sec. 15. That it shall be lawful for any civil officer having authority under the laws of the United States or of any State, Territory, or District to arrest offenders, to summarily arrest a deserter from the Navy or Marine Corps of the United States and deliver him into the custody of the naval authorities.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 15, 35 Stat. 622.

Depositions in naval courts.

Sec. 16. That the depositions of witnesses may be taken on reasonable notice to the opposite party, and when duly authenticated, may be put in evidence before naval courts, except in capital cases and cases where the punishment may be imprisonment or confinement for more than one year as follows: First, depositions of civilian witnesses residing outside the State, Territory, or District in which a naval court is ordered to sit; second, depositions of persons in the naval or military service stationed or residing outside the State, Territory, or District in which a naval court is ordered to sit, or who are under orders to go outside of such State, Territory, or District; third, where such naval court is convened on board a vessel of the United States, or at a naval station not within any State, Territory, or District of the United States, the depositions of witnesses may be taken and used as herein provided whenever such witnesses reside or are stationed at such a distance from the place where said naval court is ordered to sit, or are about to go to such a distance as, in the judgment of the convening authority, would render it impracticable to secure their personal attendance.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 16, 35 Stat. 622.

Sentences of summary courts-martial and deck courts; approval and carrying into effect.

Sec. 17. That all sentences of summary courts-martial may be carried into effect upon the approval of the senior officer present, and all sentences of deck courts may be carried into effect upon approval of the convening authority or his successor in office.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 17, 35 Stat. 623.

Repeal.

Sec. 18. That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 18, 35 Stat. 623.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 255. [H. R. 26394.]

Discharged naval prisoners; transportation and clothing.

* * That the Secretary of the Navy is hereafter authorized to transport to their homes or places of enlistment, as he may designate, all discharged naval prisoners; the expense of such transportation shall be paid out of any money that may be to the credit of prisoners when discharged; where there is no such money, the expense shall be paid out of money received from fines and forfeitures imposed by naval courts-martial: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to furnish naval prisoners upon discharge suitable civilian clothing in case, and only where, said discharged prisoners would otherwise be unprovided with suitable clothing to meet their immediate needs.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 756.

These are provisos annexed to the appropriation for transportation in the Navy appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Previous provisions for allowances of money to prisoners during confinement and on discharge, and of clothing on discharge, are contained in Act Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, set forth above.

TITLE XVI.

THE MILITIA.

Secs. 1625–1660.

[Repealed. Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 25.]

These sections, comprising the whole of this Title of the Revised Statutes except section 1661, which makes a permanent annual appropriation for arms and equipments for the militia, are repealed by Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 25, set forth below. Other sections of that act provide for the composition, organization, equipment, regulation, and service of the militia.

ACT JAN. 21, 1903, c. 196. [As amended 1908, 1910.]

An Act to Promote the Efficiency of the Militia, and for Other Purposes. (32 Stat. 775.)

Composition of militia, and classification as organized militia and reserve militia.

Section 1. That the militia shall consist of every able-bodied male citizen of the respective States and Territories and the District of Columbia, and every able-bodied male of foreign birth who has declared his intention to become a citizen, who is more than eighteen and less than forty-five years of age, and shall be divided into two classes: The organized militia, to be known as the National Guard of the State, Territory, or District of Columbia, or by such other designations as may be given them by the laws of the respective States or Territories; the remainder to be known as the Reserve Militia: Provided, That the provisions of this Act and of section sixteen hundred and sixty-one, Revised Statutes, as amended, shall apply only to the militia organized as a land force.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 1, 32 Stat. 775. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 1, 35 Stat. 399.

This section, and sections 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 11, 13, 15, 16, and 20, of Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, cited above, are amended by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, also cited above, to read as set forth here. The amendment of this section consists chiefly in the addition of the proviso at the end of the section.

Whenever the words "State or Territory" are used in this act, as amended, they are to apply to and include the District of Columbia, by section 74 of Act March 1, 1899, c. 328, added to said act by amendment by a provision of Act Feb. 18, 1909, c. 146, set forth below.

Persons exempt.

Sec. 2. That the Vice-President of the United States, the officers, judicial and executive, of the Government of the United States, the members and officers of each House of Congress, persons in the military or naval service of the United States, all custom-house officers, with their clerks, postmasters and persons employed by the United States in the transmission of the mail, ferrymen employed at any ferry on a post road, artificers and workmen employed in the armories and arsenals of the United States, pilots, mariners actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States, and all persons who are exempted by the laws of the respective States or Territories shall be exempted from militia duty, without regard to age: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to require or compel any member of any well-recognized religious sect or organization at present organized and existing whose creed forbids its members to participate in war in any form, and whose religious convictions are against war or participation therein, in accordance with the creed of said religious organization, to serve in the militia or any other armed or volunteer force under the jurisdiction and authority of the United States.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 2. 32 Stat. 775.

Organized militia; organization, armament, and discipline; minimum number of enlisted men in organizations; privileges of existing corps.

Sec. 3. That the regularly enlisted, organized, and uniformed active militia in the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia who have heretofore participated or shall hereafter participate in the apportionment of the annual appropriation provided by section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes of the United States, as amended, whether known and designated as National Guard, militia, or otherwise, shall constitute the organized militia. On and after January twenty-first, nineteen hundred and ten, the organization, armament, and discipline of the organized militia in the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia shall be the same as that which is now or may hereafter be prescribed for the Regular Army of the United States, subject in time of peace to such general exceptions as may be authorized by the Secretary of War: Provided, That in peace and war each organized division of militia may have one inspector of small-arms practice with the rank of lieutenant-colonel; each organized brigade of militia one inspector of small-arms practice with the rank of major; each regiment of infantry or cavalry of organized militia one assistant inspector of small-arms practice with the rank of captain, and each separate or unassigned battalion of infantry or engineers or squadron of cavalry of organized militia one assistant inspector of small-arms practice with the rank of first lieutenant: Provided also, That the President of the United States in time of peace may, by order, fix the minimum number of enlisted men in each company, troop, battery, signal corps, engineer corps, and hospital corps: And provided further, That any corps of artillery, cavalry, and infantry existing in any of the States at the passage of the Act of May eighth, seventeen hundred and ninety-two, which, by the laws, customs, or usages of the said States, have been in continuous existence since the passage of said Act, under its provisions and under the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-two and sections sixteen hundred and twenty-five to sixteen hundred and sixty, both inclusive, of title sixteen of the Revised Statutes of the United States, relating to the militia, shall be allowed to retain their accustomed privileges, subject, nevertheless, to all other duties required by law, in like manner as the other militia.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 3, 32 Stat. 775. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 2, 35 Stat. 399.

The amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 2, cited above, consists chiefly in an extension of the time within which the organized militia was required to conform to the provisions of the section, from five years from the date of approval of Act Jan. 21, 1903, to January 21, 1910, as here set forth, with other changes in that provision, and the insertion of the proviso first in order in the section as set forth here.

A joint resolution, passed before this act, Res. Jan. 16, 1908, No. 4, 35 Stat. 566, which likewise extended the time for the organized militia to conform to the provisions of this section to the same date, January 21, 1910, may be regarded as superseded by the amendment to the same effect by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 2.

Rev. St. § 232, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 121. It is repealed by section 25 of this act, section 12 of which contains more comprehensive provisions of the same nature.

Rev. St. § 1661, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1131. It is amended by Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 1, set forth below.

Act May 8, 1792, c. 33, also mentioned in this section, was incorporated in various sections of this Title of the Revised Statutes, which are repealed by section 25 of this act.

Provisions to promote the efficiency of the Reserve Militia, and to encourage rifle practice among the members thereof, are contained in Act March 3, 1905, c. 1416, and Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, set forth below.

Call of President in case of invasion, rebellion, etc.

Sec. 4. That whenever the United States is invaded, or in danger of invasion from any foreign nation, or of rebellion against the authority of the Government of the United States, or the President is unable with the regular forces at his command to execute the laws of the Union, it shall be lawful for the President to call forth such number of the militia of the State or of the States or Territories or of the District of Columbia as he may deem necessary to repel such invasion, suppress such rebellion, or to enable him to execute such laws, and to issue his orders for that purpose, through the governor of the respective State or Territory, or through the commanding general of the militia of the District of Columbia, from which State, Territory, or District such troops may be called, to such officers of the militia as he may think proper.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 4, 32 Stat. 776. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 3, 35 Stat. 400.

The amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 3, cited above, consists chiefly in the omission of a limitation of the time for which the militia should be called forth, to "a period not exceeding nine months," and in providing that the orders for the purpose shall be issued through the Governor of the state or territory or the commanding general of the District of Columbia.

Term of service to be specified in call; restriction on time of service; organized militia to be called into service before volunteer force.

Sec. 5. That whenever the President calls forth the organized militia of any State, Territory, or of the District of Columbia, to be employed in the service of the United States, he may specify in his call the period for which such service is required, and the militia so called shall continue to serve during the term so specified, either within or without the territory of the United States, unless sooner relieved by order of the President: Provided, That no commissioned officer or enlisted man of the organized militia shall be held to service beyond the term of his existing commission or enlistment: Provided further, That when the military needs of the Federal Government arising from the necessity to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrection, or repel invasion, can not be met by the regular forces, the organized militia shall be called into the service of the United States in advance of any volunteer force which it may be determined to raise.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 5, 32 Stat. 776. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 4, 35 Stat. 400.

The amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 4, cited above, consists chiefly in the omission of a limitation of the time of service to "not exceeding nine months," and in the addition of the two provisos at the end of the section.

Apportionment of number called into service among States, etc.

Sec. 6. That when the militia of more than one State is called into the actual service of the United States by the President he may, in his discretion, apportion them among such States or Territories or to the District of Columbia according to representative population.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 6, 32 Stat. 776.

Muster into service without further enlistment; refusal to answer call; punishment.

Sec. 7. That every officer and enlisted man of the militia who shall be called forth in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, shall be mustered for service without further enlistment, and without further medical examination previous to such muster, except for those States and Territories which have not adopted the standard of medical examination prescribed for the Regular Army: Provided, however, That any officer or enlisted man of the militia who shall refuse or neglect to present himself for such muster, upon being called forth as herein prescribed, shall be subject to trial by court-martial and shall be punished as such court-martial may direct.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 7, 32 Stat. 776. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 5, 35 Stat. 401.

The amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 5, cited above, consists chiefly in the addition of the provisions for muster into service without further enlistment and without further medical examination.

Courts-martial, composition.

Sec. 8. That the majority membership of courts-martial for the trial of officers or men of the militia when in the service of the United States shall be composed of militia officers.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 8, 32 Stat. 776. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 6, 35 Stat. 401.

The amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 6, cited above, consists in requiring a majority of the members of a court-martial to be composed of militia officers, instead of requiring such court to be composed of militia officers only.

Courts-martial, summary courts, and courts of inquiry are provided for by the Articles of War, arts. 72–121, and subsequent statutes, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 959–971.

Militia in actual service subject to Rules and Articles of War.

Sec. 9. That the militia, when called into the actual service of the United States, shall be subject to the same Rules and Articles of War as the regular troops of the United States.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 9, 32 Stat. 776.

The Articles of War are set forth in Title XIV, "The Army," c. 5, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 942–974.

Pay and allowances of militia in actual service.

Sec. 10. That the militia, when called into the actual service of the United States, shall, during their time of service, be entitled to the same pay and allowances as are or may be provided by law for the Regular Army.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 10, 32 Stat. 776.

Payment for actual field or camp service for instruction, from the allotment of the state out of the annual appropriation, under Rev. St. § 1661, is provided for by section 14 of this act, set forth below.

Payment for service while participating in encampments, maneuvers, etc., of the Regular Army, is also provided for by section 15 of this act, set forth below.

Time of commencement of pay; previous expenditures.

Sec. 11. That when the militia is called into the actual service of the United States, or any portion of the militia is called forth under the provisions of this Act, their pay shall commence from the day of their appearing at the place of company rendezvous, but this provision shall not be construed to authorize any species of expenditure previous to arriving at such places of rendezvous which is not provided by existing laws to be paid after their arrival at such places of rendezvous.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 11, 32 Stat. 776. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 7, 35 Stat. 401.

The amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 7, cited above, consists in providing for pay of the militia when "called forth" under the provisions of the act, instead of when "accepted" thereunder.

Provisions relating to the pay, etc., of the organized militia participating in encampments, maneuver, etc., of the Regular Army are contained in section 15 of this act, set forth below.

Adjutant-General in each State, etc.; duties, and returns and reports to Secretary of War; report to Congress.

Sec. 12. That there shall be appointed in each State, Territory and District of Columbia, an Adjutant-General, who shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the laws of such State, Territory, and District, respectively, and make returns to the Secretary of War, at such times and in such form as he shall from time to time prescribe, of the strength of the organized militia, and also make such reports as may from time to time be required by the Secretary of War. That the Secretary of War shall, with his annual report of each year, transmit to Congress an abstract of the returns and reports of the adjutants-general of the States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, with such observations thereon as he may deem necessary for the information of Congress.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 12, 32 Stat. 776.

Previous provisions, that the Secretary of War should lay before Congress in each year an abstract of the returns of the adjutant-generals of the several States of the militia thereof, were contained in Rev. St. § 232, Comp. St. 1901, p. 121.

Issue of arms, etc., uniforms, etc., and military stores; exchange of ammunition; accounting for property; clothing allowance; issue of ammunition; appropriation; report of expenditures.

Sec. 13. That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to procure, by purchase or manufacture, and issue from time to time to the organized militia, under such regulations as he may prescribe, such number of the United States service arms, together with all accessories and such other accouterments, equipments, uniforms, clothing, equipage, and military stores of all kinds required for the Army of the United States, as are necessary to arm, uniform, and equip all of the organized militia in the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, in accordance with the requirements of this Act, without charging the cost or value thereof, or any expense connected therewith, against the allotment of said State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, out of the annual appropriation provided by section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes as amended, or requiring payment therefor, and to exchange, without receiving any money credit therefor, ammunition or parts thereof suitable to the new arms, round for round, for corresponding ammunition suitable to the old arms heretofore issued to said State, Territory, or the District of Columbia by the United States: Provided, That said property shall remain the property of the United States, except as hereinafter provided, and be annually accounted for by the governors of the States and Territories as required by law, and that each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia shall, on receipt of new arms or equipments, turn in to the War Department, or otherwise dispose of in accordance with the directions of the Secretary of War, without receiving any money credit therefor and without expense for transportation, all United States property so replaced or condemned. When the organized militia is uniformed as above required, the Secretary of War is authorized to fix an annual clothing allowance to each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia for each enlisted man of the organized militia thereof, and thereafter issues of clothing to such States, Territories, and the District of Columbia shall be in accordance with such allowance, and the governors of the States and Territories and the commanding general of the militia of the District of Columbia shall be authorized to drop from their returns each year as expended clothing corresponding in value to such allowance. The Secretary of War is hereby further authorized to issue from time to time to the organized militia, under such regulations as he may prescribe, small arms and artillery ammunition upon the requisition of the governor, in the proportion of fifty per centum of the corresponding Regular Army allowance, without charge to the State's allotment from the appropriation under section sixteen hundred and sixty-one, Revised Statutes, as amended. To provide means to carry into effect the provisions of this section, the necessary money to cover the cost of procuring, exchanging, or issuing of arms, accouterments, equipments, uniforms, clothing, equipage, ammunition, and military stores to be exchanged or issued hereunder is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That the sum expended in the execution of the purchases and issues provided for in this section shall not exceed the sum of two million dollars in any fiscal year: Provided also, That the Secretary of War shall annually submit to Congress a report of expenditures made by him in the execution of the requirements of this section.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 13, 32 Stat. 777. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 8, 35 Stat. 401.

The amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 8, cited above, consists chiefly in omitting a provision that the issue of arms, etc., authorized should be on requisition of the Governors of the several states, etc., in including among the supplies to be issued, "uniforms, clothing, equipage, and military stores of all kinds," and in adding the provisions for an annual clothing allowance and for issue of ammunition, and the last two provisos following the appropriation at the end of the section.

Rev. St. § 1661, mentioned in this section, making an annual appropriation for arms, etc., for the militia, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1161. It is amended by Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 1, set forth below.

Previous provisions for the issue of arms, equipments, etc., for the militia of the States and Territories, are collected under Rev. St. § 1661, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1131–1134.

Other provisions, similar to those of this section, for furnishing arms, equipments, etc., to the organized militia, contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 941, Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 275, and Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1174, previous to such amendment of this section, are superseded by the re-enactment thereof as so amended, including the provisions on that subject, as set forth here.

Provisions for the sale of magazine rifles and ammunition, ordnance stores, and equipments, for the use of rifle clubs, formed for the promotion of rifle practice, are contained in Act March 3, 1905, c. 1416, set forth below.

Material, equipment, etc., purchased for state coast artillery organizations, may be withdrawn, in time of war, and used in fortifications, by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, set forth below.

Payment from allotment out of annual appropriation for actual field or camp service for instruction; disbursing officer; accounts.

Sec. 14. That whenever it shall appear by the report of inspections, which it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to cause to be made at least once in each year by officers detailed by him for that purpose, that the organized militia of a state or territory or of the District of Columbia is sufficiently armed, uniformed, and equipped for active duty in the field, the Secretary of War is authorized, on the requisition of the governor of such State or Territory, to pay to the quartermaster-general thereof, or to such other officer of the militia of said State as the said governor may designate and appoint for the purpose, so much of its allotment out of the said annual appropriation under section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes as amended as shall be necessary for the payment, subsistence, and transportation of such portion of said organized militia as shall engage in actual field or camp service for instruction, and the officers and enlisted men of such militia while so engaged shall be entitled to the same pay, subsistence, and transportation or travel allowances as officers and enlisted men of corresponding grades of the Regular Army are or may hereafter be entitled by law, and the officer so designated and appointed shall be regarded as a disbursing officer of the United States, and shall render his accounts through the War Department to the proper accounting officers of the Treasury for settlement, and he shall be required to give good and sufficient bonds to the United States, in such sums as the Secretary of War may direct, faithfully to account for the safe-keeping and payment of the public moneys so intrusted to him for disbursement.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 14, 32 Stat. 777.

Rev. St. § 1661, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1131. It is amended by Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 1, set forth below.

Participation in encampments, maneuvers, etc., of Regular Army; pay, subsistence, and transportation during joint encampments, maneuvers, etc., appropriations therefor, and disbursement thereof; right to command during joint encampments, maneuvers, etc.

Sec. 15. That the Secretary of War is authorized to provide for participation by any part of the organized militia of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, on the request of the governor of a State or Territory, or the commanding-general of the militia of the District of Columbia, in the encampments, maneuvers, and field instruction of any part of the Regular Army, at or near any military post or camp or lake or sea-coast defenses of the United States. In such case the organized militia so participating shall receive the same pay, subsistence, and transportation as is provided by law for the officers and men of the Regular Army, and no part of the sums appropriated for the support of the Regular Army shall be used to pay any part of the expenses of the organized militia of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, while engaged in joint encampments, maneuvers, and field instruction of the Regular Army and militia: Provided, That the Secretary of War is authorized, under requisition of the governor of a State or Territory or the commanding-general of the militia of the District of Columbia, to pay to the quartermaster-general, or such other officer of the militia as may be duly designated and appointed for the purpose, so much of its allotment, under the annual appropriation authorized by section sixteen hundred and sixty-one, Revised Statutes, as amended, as shall be necessary for the payment, subsistence, transportation, and other expenses of such portion of the organized militia as may engage in encampments, maneuvers, and field instruction with any part of the Regular Army at or near any military post or camp or lake or sea-coast defenses of the United States, and the Secretary of War shall forward to Congress, at each session next after said encampments, a detailed statement of the expense of such encampments and maneuvers: Provided, That the command of such military post or camp and the officers and troops of the United States there stationed shall remain with the regular commander of the post without regard to the rank of the commanding or other officers of the militia temporarily so encamped within its limits or in its vicinity: Provided further, That except as herein specified the right to command during such joint encampments, maneuvers, and field instruction shall be governed by the rules set out in Articles One hundred and twenty-two and One hundred and twenty-four of the rules and articles for the government of the armies of the United States.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 15, 32 Stat. 777. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 9, 35 Stat. 402. Act April 21, 1910, c. 185, 36 Stat. 329.

The amendments of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 9, and by Act April 21, 1910, c. 185, cited above, consist chiefly in different provisions for the payment of the pay and expenses of the organized militia, and in the addition to the section of the last proviso, relating to the right to command during joint encampments, etc.

Articles 122 and 124 of the Articles of War, mentioned in said last proviso to this section, were amended by Act March 8, 1910, c. 88, previous to the amendment of this section by Act April 21, 1910, c. 185, and are set forth, as so amended, ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 5.

Other provisions, similar to those of this section, relating to the appropriations out of which the pay, etc., of the organized militia engaged in joint encampments, etc., with the Regular Army is to be paid, and the disbursement thereof, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 265, 267, and Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 837, previous to the amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 9, are superseded by the re-enactment of section as so amended, and as amended by Act April 21, 1910, c. 185, including the provisions on those subjects, as set forth here.

Any portion of the organized militia participating in the encampment, etc., of any part of the Regular Army, under the provisions of this section, may be paid at any time after being duly mustered by an officer of the Regular Army, by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth below.

Officers of the organized militia furnished with funds for purchase of travel rations for their commands are not to be required to give bond therefor, by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth below.

Appropriations for the expenses of the organized militia participating in encampments for field instruction of troops of the Regular Army, as provided by this section and section 21 of this act, are made in the annual Army appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1044.

Allowances to officers and enlisted men of militia attending military schools.

Sec. 16. That whenever any officer or enlisted man of the organized militia shall upon the recommendation of the governor of any State, Territory, or the commanding general of the District of Columbia militia, and when authorized by the President, attend and pursue a regular course of study at any military school or college of the United States, such officer or enlisted man shall receive from the annual appropriation for the support of the Army, the same travel allowances and quarters or commutation of quarters to which an officer or enlisted man of the Regular Army would be entitled for attending such school or college under orders from proper military authority; such officer shall also receive commutation and subsistence at the rate of one dollar per day and each enlisted man such subsistence as is furnished to an enlisted man of the Regular Army while in actual attendance upon a course of instruction.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 16, 32 Stat. 778. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 10, 35 Stat. 402.

The amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 10, cited above, consists in including in its provisions enlisted men as well as officers of the militia.

Issue of Army stores, etc.; purchase of additional stores, etc., from War Department.

Sec. 17. That the annual appropriation made by section sixteen hundred and sixty-one, Revised Statutes, as amended, shall be available for the purpose of providing for issue to the organized militia any stores and supplies or publications which are supplied to the Army by any department. Any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, purchase for cash from the War Department, for the use of its militia, stores, supplies, material of war, or military publications, such as are furnished to the Army, in addition to those issued under the provisions of this Act, at the price at which they are listed for issue to the Army, with the cost of transportation added, and funds received from such sales shall be credited to the appropriations to which they belong and shall not be covered into the Treasury, but shall be available until expended to replace therewith the supplies sold to the States and Territories and to the District of Columbia in the manner herein provided.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 17, 32 Stat. 778.

Rev. St. § 1661, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1131. It is amended by Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 1, set forth below.

Annual practice marches or camps of instruction, drill or target practice, and inspection, required before annual allotment of funds.

Sec. 18. That each State or Territory furnished with material of war under the provisions of this or former Acts of Congress shall, during the year next preceding each annual allotment of funds, in accordance with section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes as amended, have required every company, troop, and battery in its organized militia not excused by the governor of such State or Territory to participate in practice marches or go into camp of instruction at least five consecutive days, and to assemble for drill and instruction at company, battalion, or regimental armories or rendezvous or for target practice not less than twenty-four times, and shall also have required during such year an inspection of each such company, troop, and battery to be made by an officer of such militia or an officer of the Regular Army.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 18, 32 Stat. 778.

Rev. St. § 1661, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1131. It is amended by Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 1, set forth below.

Detail of officers of Army to attend encampments of militia; reports.

Sec. 19. That upon the application of the governor of any State or Territory furnished with material of war under the provisions of this Act or former laws of Congress, the Secretary of War may detail one or more officers of the Army to attend any encampment of the organized militia, and to give such instruction and information to the officers and men assembled in such camp as may be requested by the governor. Such officer or officers shall immediately make a report of such encampment to the Secretary of War, who shall furnish a copy thereof to the governor of the State or Territory.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 19, 32 Stat. 778.

Detail of officers or enlisted men of Army for duty in connection with organized militia; board of officers of militia for consultation with Secretary of War respecting condition, etc., of whole body of organized militia.

Sec. 20. That upon the application of the governor of any State or Territory furnished with material of war under the provisions of this Act, or former laws of Congress, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, detail one or more officers or enlisted men of the Army to report to the governor of such State or Territory for duty in connection with the organized militia. All such assignments may be revoked at the request of the governor of such State or Territory or at the pleasure of the Secretary of War. The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to appoint a board of five officers on the active list of the organized militia so selected as to secure, as far as practicable, equitable representation to all sections of the United States, and which shall, from time to time, as the Secretary of War may direct, proceed to Washington, District of Columbia, for consultation with the Secretary of War respecting the condition, status, and needs of the whole body of the organized militia. Such officers shall be appointed for the term of four years unless sooner relieved by the Secretary of War.

The actual and necessary traveling expenses of the members of the board, together with a per diem to be established by the Secretary of War, shall be paid to the members of the board. The expenses herein authorized, together with the necessary clerical and office expenses of the division of militia affairs in the office of the Secretary of War, shall constitute a charge against the whole sum annually appropriated under section sixteen hundred and sixty-one, Revised Statutes, as amended, and shall be paid therefrom, and not from the allotment duly apportioned to any particular State, Territory, or the District of Columbia; and a list of such expenses shall be submitted to Congress annually by the Secretary of War in connection with his annual report.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 20, 32 Stat. 779. Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 11, 35 Stat. 403.

The amendment of this section by Act May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 11, cited above, consists in including enlisted men as well as officers of the militia in its provisions for details for duty in connection with the organized militia, and in the addition of the provisions relating to a board of militia officers for consultation with the Secretary of War respecting the condition, etc., of the organized militia.

The detail or assignment of retired officers of the Army for service with the organized militia in the States or Territories is authorized, and their compensation while so employed is regulated, by provisions of Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, and Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," cc. 2, 3.

Ammunition for instruction in firing and target practice.

Sec. 21. That the troops of the militia encamped at any military post or camp of the United States may be furnished such amounts of ammunition for instruction in firing and target practice as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, and such instruction in firing shall be carried on under the direction of an officer selected for that purpose by the proper military commander.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 21, 32 Stat. 779.

Pensions for disabilities incurred or in case of death in service of the United States.

Sec. 22. That when any officer, noncommissioned officer, or private of the militia is disabled by reason of wounds or disabilities received or incurred in the service of the United States he shall be entitled to all the benefits of the pension laws existing at the time of his service, and in case such officer, noncommissioned officer, or private dies in the service of the United States or in returning to his place of residence after being mustered out of such service, or at any time, in consequence of wounds or disabilities received in such service, his widow and children, if any, shall be entitled to all the benefits of such pension laws.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 22, 32 Stat. 779.

The pension laws are contained in Title LVII, "Pensions," Comp. St. 1901, pp. 3224-3304.

Examinations as to qualifications for commissions in volunteer forces; certificates; eligibility for commissions and for instruction at military schools; limits of age; apportionment of appointments; restriction of appointments.

Sec. 23. That for the purpose of securing a list of persons specially qualified to hold commissions in any volunteer force which may hereafter be called for and organized under the authority of Congress, other than a force composed of organized militia, the Secretary of War is authorized from time to time to convene boards of officers at suitable and convenient army posts in different parts of the United States, who shall examine as to their qualifications for the command of troops or for the performance of staff duties all applicants who shall have served in the Regular Army of the United States, in any of the volunteer forces of the United States, or in the organized militia of any State or Territory or District of Columbia, or who, being a citizen of the United States, shall have attended or pursued a regular course of instruction in any military school or college of the United States Army, or shall have graduated from any educational institution to which an officer of the Army or Navy has been detailed as superintendent or professor pursuant to law after having creditably pursued the course of military instruction therein provided. Such examinations shall be under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, and shall be especially directed to ascertain the practical capacity of the applicant. The record of previous service of the applicant shall be considered as a part of the examination. Upon the conclusion of each examination the board shall certify to the War Department its judgment as to the fitness of the applicant, stating the office, if any, which it deems him qualified to fill, and, upon approval by the President, the names of the persons certified to be qualified shall be inscribed in a register to be kept in the War Department for that purpose. The persons so certified and registered shall, subject to a physical examination at the time, constitute an eligible class for commissions pursuant to such certificates in any volunteer force hereafter called for and organized under the authority of Congress, other than a force composed of organized militia, and the President may authorize persons from this class to attend and pursue a regular course of study at any military school or college of the United States other than the Military Academy at West Point and to receive from the annual appropriation for the support of the Army the same allowances and commutations as provided in this Act for officers of the organized militia: Provided, That no person shall be entitled to receive a commission as a second lieutenant after he shall have passed the age of thirty; as first lieutenant after he shall have passed the age of thirty-five; as captain after he shall have passed the age of forty; as major after he shall have passed the age of forty-five; as lieutenant-colonel after he shall have passed the age of fifty. or as colonel after he shall have passed the age of fifty-five: And provided further, That such appointments shall be distributed proportionately, as near as may be, among the various States contributing such volunteer force: And provided, That the appointments in this section provided for shall not be deemed to include appointments to any office in any company, troop, battery, battalion, or regiment of the organized militia which volunteers as a body or the officers of which are appointed by the governor of a State or Territory.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 23, 32 Stat. 779.

Provisions for the organization of a Volunteer Army in time of war are contained in Act April 22, 1898, c. 187, and subsequent acts, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 876–883.

Organization of volunteer forces.

Sec. 24. That all the volunteer forces of the United States called for by authority of Congress shall, except as hereinbefore provided, be organized in the manner provided by the Act entitled "An Act to provide for temporarily increasing the military establishment of the United States in time of war, and for other purposes," approved April twenty-second, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 24, 32 Stat. 780.

Act April 22, 1898, c. 187, mentioned in this section, providing for the organization of a Volunteer Army, and subsequent provisions relating to the same subject, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 876–883.

Repeal.

Sec. 25. That sections sixteen hundred and twenty-five to sixteen hundred and sixty, both included, of title sixteen of the Revised Statutes, and section two hundred and thirty-two thereof, relating to the militia, are hereby repealed.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 25, 32 Stat. 780.

Rev. St. §§ 1625–1660, repealed by this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1121–1130, and Rev. St. § 232, also repealed thereby, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 121.

Time of taking effect of act.

Sec. 26. That this Act shall take effect upon the date of its approval.

Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 26, 32 Stat. 780.

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Payment of militia, for service in encampment, etc., at any time after muster.

* * That hereafter when any portion of the organized militia of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia participates in the encampment, maneuvers, and field instruction of any part of the Regular Army, under the provisions of section fifteen of the Act of January twenty-first, nineteen hundred and three, they may, after being duly mustered by an officer of the Regular Army, be paid at any time after such muster for the period from the date of leaving the home rendezvous to date of return thereto as determined in advance, both dates inclusive, and such payment, if otherwise correct, shall pass to the credit of the paymaster making the same.

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 249.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for the expenses of the militia participating in such encampments, etc., in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

ACT MAY 11, 1908, c. 163. [H. R. 17288.]

Officers of organized militia not required to give bonds for funds for purchase of travel rations.

* * That officers of the organized militia who may hereafter be furnished, under proper authority, with funds for the purchase of coffee, or other components of the travel ration for the use of their respective commands, shall not be required to furnish bonds for the safekeeping and disbursement of the same.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 117.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation for purchase of subsistence supplies in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

ACT FEB. 18, 1909, c. 146. [H. R. 21926.]

Construction of Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 126; words "State or Territory" to include District of Columbia.

That whenever the words "State or Territory" are used in the "Act to promote the efficiency of the militia, and for other purposes," approved January twenty-first, nineteen hundred and three, as amended, they shall be held to apply to and include the District of Columbia.

Act Feb. 18, 1909, c. 146, 35 Stat. 636.

This is a provision of "An act for the organization of the militia in the District of Columbia," cited above, which makes numerous amendments of the previous act on that subject, Act March 1, 1889, c. 328, 25 Stat. 772, the last of which strikes out section 58 of that act and inserts in lieu thereof several sections, among them this provision, numbered as section 74 of that act.

Sec. 1661. [As amended 1887, 1900.]

[Amended. Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 1.]

This section, set forth, as amended by Act Feb. 12, 1887, c. 129, § 1, and Act June 6, 1900, c. 805, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1131, is further amended by Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, set forth below.

ACT MAY 19, 1882, c. 172, § 2.

[Repealed. Act March 2, 1907, c. 2507.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1131, is repealed by a provision of Act March 2, 1907, c. 2507, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 12, 1887, c. 129, §§ 2-4.

[Amended. Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515.]

Sections 2, 3, and 4 of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1131, 1132, are amended by Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, §§ 2-4, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 24, 1897, c. 310, § 1.

[Superseded. Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 13.]

The provisions of this section for issuing Springfield breech-loading rifles for arming all the regularly organized armed and equipped militia, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1133, are superseded by the provisions for issuing for the same purpose the United States service arms, etc., contained in Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 13, set forth above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1416. [S. 5094.]

An Act to Promote the Efficiency of the Reserve Militia and to Encourage Rifle Practice among the Members thereof. (33 Stat. 986.)

Sales of magazine rifles for use of rifle clubs.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to sell, at the prices at which they are listed for the Army, upon the request of the governors of the several States and Territories, such magazine rifles belonging to the United States as are not necessary for the equipment of the Army and the organized militia, for the use of rifle clubs formed under regulations prepared by the national board for the promotion of rifle practice and approved by the Secretary of War.

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1416, § 1, 33 Stat. 986.

Sales of ammunition, ordnance stores, and equipments for use of rifle clubs.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized in his discretion to sell to the several States and Territories, as prescribed in section seventeen of the Act approved January twenty-first, nineteen hundred and three, for the use of said clubs, ammunition, ordnance stores, and equipments of the Government standard at the prices at which they are listed for the Army. The practice of the rifle clubs herein provided shall be carried on in conformity to regulations prescribed by the national board for the promotion of rifle practice, approved by the Secretary of War, and the results thereof shall be filed in the office of the Military Secretary of the Army.

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1416, § 2, 33 Stat. 987.

ACT JUNE 22, 1906, c. 3515. [S. 1442.]

An Act to Increase the Efficiency of the Militia and Promote Rifle Practice. (34 Stat. 449.)

Amendment of Rev. St. § 1661.

Be it enacted, &c., That section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes, as amended by the Acts of February twelfth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and June sixth, nineteen hundred, is hereby amended and reenacted so as to read as follows:

Appropriation for arms and equipments.

"Section 1. That the sum of two million dollars is hereby annually appropriated, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of providing arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster stores, and camp equipage for issue to the militia, such appropriation to remain available until expended."

Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 1, 34 Stat. 449.

Rev. St. § 1661, amended by this section, is set forth, as previously amended by Act Feb. 12, 1887, c. 129, § 1, and Act June 6, 1900, c. 805, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1131. The amendment consists in the increase of the annual appropriation from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000, and the addition, at the end of the section, of the words "such appropriation to remain available until expended," as set forth here.

Further provisions relating to the apportionment among the States, etc., and the application of the appropriation made by this section, are contained in the provisions of Act Feb. 12, 1887, c. 129, §§ 2–4, as amended by the corresponding sections of this act, set forth below.

The regularly enlisted, organized, and uniformed active militia who participate in the apportionment of the annual appropriation provided by this section constitute the organized militia, as distinguished from the reserve militia, by Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 3, set forth above.

Arms, equipments, etc., may be issued for arming all the organized militia, without charging the cost thereof against the allotment out of the annual appropriation under this section, by Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 13, set forth above.

The annual appropriation made by this section is available for the purpose of providing for issue to the organized militia any stores and supplies or publications which are supplied to the Army by any department, by Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 17, set forth above.

Amendment of Act Feb. 12, 1887, c. 129, § 2.

Sec. 2. That section two of the Act of February twelfth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, is hereby amended and reenacted, so as to read as follows:

Apportionment of appropriation among States and Territories; purposes for which appropriation available.

"Sec. 2. That said appropriation shall be apportioned among the several States and Territories, under the direction of the Secretary of War, according to the number of Senators and Representatives to which each State respectively is entitled in the Congress of the United States, and to the Territories and District of Columbia such proportion and under such regulations as the President may prescribe: Provided, however, That no State shall be entitled to the benefits of the appropriation apportioned to it unless the number of its regularly enlisted, organized, and uniformed active militia shall be at least one hundred men for each Senator and Representative to which such State is entitled in the Congress of the United States. And the amount of said appropriation which is thus determined not to be available shall be covered back into the Treasury: Provided also, That the sums so apportioned among the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia shall be available for the purposes named in section fourteen of the Act of January twenty-first, nineteen hundred and three, for the actual excess of expenses of travel in making the inspections therein provided for over the allowances made for same by law; for the promotion of rifle practice, including the acquisition, construction, maintenance, and equipment of shooting galleries and suitable target ranges; for the hiring of horses and draft animals for the use of mounted troops, batteries, and wagons; for forage for the same and for such other incidental expenses in connection with encampments, maneuvers, and field instruction provided for in sections fourteen and fifteen of the said Act of January twenty-first, nineteen hundred and three, as the Secretary of War may deem necessary."

Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 2, 34 Stat. 449.

Act Feb. 12, 1887, c. 129, § 2, amended by this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1131. The amendment consists in the addition, at the end of the section as originally enacted, of the last proviso set forth here specifying various purposes for which the appropriation shall be available.

Amendment of Act Feb. 12, 1887, c. 129, § 3.

Sec. 3. That section three of the Act of February twelfth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, is hereby amended and reenacted as follows:

Purchase of arms, etc., and accountability therefor.

"Sec. 3. That the purchase or manufacture of arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster stores, and camp equipage for the militia under the provisions of this Act shall be made under the direction of the Secretary of War, as such arms, ordnance and quartermaster stores, and camp equipage are now manufactured or otherwise provided for the use of the Regular Army, and they shall be receipted for and shall remain the property of the United States, and be annually accounted for by the governors of the States and Territories and by the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, for which purpose the Secretary of War shall prescribe and supply the necessary blanks and make such regulations as he may deem necessary to protect the interests of the United States."

Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 3, 34 Stat. 450.

Act Feb. 12, 1887, c. 129, § 3, amended by this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1132. The amendment consists in the insertion, after the words "by the governors of the States and Territories," of the words "and by the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia," as set forth here.

Amendment of Act Feb. 12, 1887, c. 129, § 4.

Sec. 4. That section four of the Act of February twelfth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Property lost or destroyed, or becoming unserviceable or unsuitable; examination and determination as to accountability; disposition of articles.

"Sec. 4. That whenever any property furnished to any State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, as hereinbefore provided, has been lost or destroyed, or has become unserviceable or unsuitable from use in service, or from any other cause, it shall be examined by a disinterested surveying officer of the organized militia, to be appointed by the governor of the State or Territory, or the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, to whom the property has been issued, and his report shall be forwarded by said governor or commanding general direct to the Secretary of War, and if it shall appear to the Secretary of War from the record of survey that the property has been lost or destroyed through unavoidable causes, he is hereby authorized to relieve the State from further accountability therefor; if it shall appear that the loss or destruction of property was due to carelessness or neglect or that its loss could have been avoided by the exercise of reasonable care, the money value thereof shall be charged against the allotment to the States under section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes as amended. If the articles so surveyed are found to be unserviceable or unsuitable, the Secretary of War shall direct what disposition, by sale or otherwise, shall be made of them, except unserviceable clothing which shall be destroyed, and if sold the proceeds of such sale shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States."

Act June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 4. 34 Stat. 450.

Act Feb. 12, 1887, c. 129, § 4, amended by this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1132.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2507. [H. R. 23821.]

Repeal of Act May 19, 1882, c. 172, § 2.

Section two of the Act approved May nineteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, authorizing the Secretary of War to issue, on the requisition of the governor of a State bordering on the sea or Gulf coast, and having a permanent camping ground for the encampment of the militia not less than six days annually, two heavy guns and four mortars, with carriages and platforms, for their instruction, and for the construction of a suitable battery for the cannon so issued, and appropriating five thousand dollars for each State to carry out the above-mentioned objects, is hereby repealed: Provided, That this repeal shall not affect the existing law regarding the disposition of the cannon and other stores already issued.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2507, 34 Stat. 1060.

This is a provision of the fortifications appropriation act of March 2, 1907, cited above. Act May 19, 1882, c. 172, § 2, repealed by this provision, is set forth in Comp St. 1901, p. 1131.

ACT MARCH 23, 1910, c. 115. [H. R. 15384.]

Material, equipment, etc., for State coast artillery organizations; withdrawal in time of war.

For the purchase of material, equipment, books of instruction, range finders, and fire-control equipment for the instruction and use of State coast artillery organizations, twenty-five thousand dollars: Provided, That in time of war, or threatened war, such equipment may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be withdrawn from armories or other places where it is in use by the State coast artillery organizations, and may be used in the fortifications of the United States.

Act March 23, 1910, c. 115. 36 Stat. 261.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above. A similar appropriation, with the same proviso annexed, was made in the Army appropriation acts for the two preceding fiscal years. It is not repeated in the similar act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, but an appropriation is made thereby for equipments of coast artillery armories of the organized militia. Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1045.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911, c. 209. [H. R. 31237.]

Automatic pistols, etc., to be issued; ammunition therefor to be exchanged; receipt and accounting for pistols, etc.; old United States revolvers, etc., to be turned in.

* * That whenever in his opinion a sufficient number of automatic pistols of the standard service type, holsters, and pistol-cartridge boxes therefor, shall have been procured and be available for the purpose, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to issue, on the requisition of the governors of the several States and Territories, or of the commanding general of the Militia of the District of Columbia, such number of standard pistols, holsters, and pistol-cartridge boxes therefor as are required for arming all of the Organized Militia in said States, Territories, and District of Columbia, without charging the cost or value thereof, or any expense connected therewith, against the allotment to said State, Territory, or District of Columbia, out of the annual appropriation provided by section sixteen hundred and sixty-one of the Revised Statutes, as amended, or requiring payment therefor, and to exchange, without receiving any money credit therefor, ammunition, or parts thereof, suitable to the new standard pistol, round for round, for corresponding ammunition suitable to the old revolver theretofore issued to said States, Territory, or District by the United States: Provided, That the said standard pistols, holsters, and pistol-cartridge boxes therefor shall be receipted for and shall remain the property of the United States and be annually accounted for by the governors of the States and Territories and the commanding general of the Militia of the District of Columbia as now required by law, and that each State, Territory, and District shall, on receipt of the new pistols, holsters, and pistol-cartridge boxes, and ammunition, turn in to the Ordnance Department of the United States Army, without receiving any money credit therefor and without expense for transportation, all United States revolvers and ammunition therefor, holsters, and revolver-cartridge boxes now in its possession.

To provide means to carry into effect the foregoing provisions, the necessary money, not to exceed three hundred thousand dollars, to recover the cost of exchanging or issuing the new pistols, ammunition therefor, holsters, and pistol-cartridge boxes to be exchanged or issued hereunder, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Act March 3, 1910, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1057.

These are provisos annexed to an appropriation for the manufacture of arms in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

Field artillery material to be issued; accounting therefor.

* * For the purpose of procuring Field Artillery material for the Organized Militia of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, without cost to the said States, Territories, or the District of Columbia, but to remain the property of the United States and to be accounted for in the manner now prescribed by law, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized, under such regulations as he may prescribe, on the requisitions of the governors of the several States and Territories or the commanding general of the Militia of the District of Columbia, to issue said artillery material to the Organized Militia; and the sum of seven hundred and seventy thousand dollars is hereby appropriated and made immediately available and to remain available until the end of the fiscal year nineteen hundred and thirteen, for the procurement and issue of the articles constituting the same, seven hundred and seventy thousand dollars.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1058.

This is a further provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

An appropriation for arming and equipping naval militia is made by each of the Navy appropriation acts for recent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1272.

TITLE XVII.

ARMS, ARMORIES, AND ARSENALS [AND ORDNANCE AND FORTIFICATIONS.]

Sec. 1663.

Pay of officers, clerks, etc., at armories.

All employés of the Ordnance Department whose rate of compensation is annual are to be paid monthly, by a provision of Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 23, 1904, c. 1485. [H. R. 10670.]

Payments to be made monthly; computation of amount.

Hereafter all employees of the Ordnance Department whose rate of compensation is annual shall be paid monthly at the rate of one-twelfth of the annual rate, and of such monthly rate and of all other monthly rates of compensation one-thirtieth shall be the daily rate for computation of pay for fractional parts of a month; and for the purposes of this provision each and every month shall be held to consist of thirty days, whether the actual number of days be greater or less.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 276.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

A similar provision relating to all payments under provisions of Army appropriation acts, when the rate of compensation is annual, was contained in Act March 2, 1903, c. 975, 32 Stat. 934.

Subsequent more specific provisions for computation of pay of any person in the military service where the compensation is annual or monthly, contained in Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, are also set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 3.

Similar rules for computation of the compensation of any person in the service of the United States are prescribed by Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 6, set forth post, under Title XIX, "Provisions Applicable to Several Classes of Officers."

Sec. 1667.

Distribution of arms to States, etc.

The issue of arms and equipments for the organized militia, to remain the property of the United States, is provided for by Act Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 13, and subsequent provisions set forth ante, under Title XVI, "The Militia."

stitutions is authorized by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 251, also set forth below.

Sales of surplus obsolete small arms, etc., to patriotic organizations for military purposes are authorized by Act May 28, 1908, c. 215, § 14, set forth below.

Sales of surplus obsolete cannon, etc., for public parks, public buildings, and soldiers' monuments are authorized by Act March 4, 1909, c. 319, § 47, set forth below.

Provisions for sales of ordnance stores, etc., by the Chief of Ordnance to civilian employés in the Army and others, and to officers of the Navy and Marine Corps, contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, are set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

ACT JUNE 30, 1906, c. 3938. [H. R. 19814.]

An Act Authorizing the Issue of Obsolete Ordnance and Ordnance Stores for Use of State and Territorial Educational Institutions and to State Soldiers and Sailors Orphans' Homes. (34 Stat. 817.)

Obsolete ordnance and ordnance stores to be issued to State, etc., educational institutions and soldiers and sailors orphans' homes.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to issue, at his discretion and under proper regulations to be prescribed by him, without cost of transportation to the United States, such obsolete ordnance and ordnance stores as may be available to State and Territorial educational institutions and to State soldiers and sailors orphans' homes, for purposes of drill and instruction.

And the Secretary of War shall require from such institutions or homes a bond in each case in double the value of the property issued, for the care and safe-keeping thereof and for the return of the same to the United States when required: Provided, That the issues herein provided for shall be made only to institutions upon recommendation of the governors of States and Territories and shall not be made in any case to any educational institution to which issues of such stores are allowed to be made under provisions of existing law.

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3938, 34 Stat. 817.

Sales of articles of ordnance property for maintaining the ordnance, etc., issued under this act are authorized by a provision of Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, set forth below; and the issue of ammunition of old model for target practice of students at institutions to which the issue of artillery is authorized, is permitted by a provision of Act March 3, 1909, c. 251, also set forth below.

ACT MAY 11, 1908, c. 163. [H. R. 17288.]

Sales of articles of ordnance property to educational institutions and soldiers' and sailors' orphans' homes.

Sales of articles of ordnance property are authorized to educational institutions and State soldiers' and sailors' orphans' homes for maintaining the ordnance and ordnance stores issued to them.

Act May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 125.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

The issue of obsolete ordnance and ordnance stores to educational, and other institutions is authorized by Act June 30, 1906, c. 3938, set forth above.

ACT MAY 28, 1908, c. 215, § 14. [H. R. 21410.]

Sales of obsolete small arms, etc., to patriotic organizations.

That the Chief of Ordnance is hereby authorized to sell without advertisement to patriotic organizations for military purposes surplus obsolete small arms and their equipments and ammunition at such prices as he may deem reasonable and just: Provided, That hereafter obsolete small arms and their equipment and ammunition shall not be disposed of to such organizations except as provided for in this Act.

Act May 28, 1908, c. 215, § 14, 35 Stat. 443.
This is the final section of an act granting condemned ordnance to certain institutions cited above.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 251. [H. R. 27054.]

Ammunition of old model to be issued to institutions to which issue of artillery is authorized.

Hereafter ammunition of older model than current may be issued for the instruction in target practice of students at the institutions to which the issue of artillery is authorized to the value of not more than five thousand dollars of original cost in any one year.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 251, 35 Stat. 730.
This is a provision of the fortifications appropriation act, cited above. A similar provision, without the word "hereafter," was contained in the similar act of the preceding year, Act May 27, 1908, c. 202, 35 Stat. 395.

ACT MARCH 4, 1909, c. 319, § 47. [H. R. 28304.]

Sales of obsolete ordnance for public parks, public buildings, and soldiers' monuments.

That the Chief of Ordnance is hereby authorized to sell without advertisement for public parks, public buildings, and soldiers' monuments purposes surplus obsolete brass or bronze cannon, carriages, and cannon balls at such prices as he may deem reasonable and just: Provided, That hereafter obsolete brass or bronze cannon and their accessories shall not be disposed of for such purposes except as provided for in this Act.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 319, § 47, 35 Stat. 1075.
This is the final section of an act granting certain obsolete ordnance for ornamental purposes, cited above.

Sec. 1668.

[Repealed. Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, § 341.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1140, is incorporated in the act to codify, etc., the penal laws. Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, in chapter 4, § 43, thereof, and is expressly repealed by chapter 15, § 341, of said act, taking effect January 1, 1910. Said act is set forth post, under Title LXIX, "The Criminal Code."

Sec. 1673.

ACT MARCH 3, 1885, c. 360, § 1.

Machine for testing iron and steel.

A provision contained in Act May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 354, transferring the testing machines at the Watertown Arsenal to the Department of Commerce and Labor, was repealed by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, 35 Stat. 905.

[BOARD OF ORDNANCE AND FORTIFICATION.]

ACT SEPT. 22, 1888, c. 1028, §§ 1, 6.

Board of Ordnance and Fortification; composition; powers and duties.

Duties prescribed by statute for the Commanding General of the Army as a member of the Board of Ordnance and Fortification are to be performed by the Chief of Staff or other officer designated by the President, by a provision of Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 553, § 4, set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

Investigations and tests by Board; limit of expenditures; guns and materials to be of American production.

The annual fortifications appropriation acts require all materials purchased under their provisions to be of American manufacture, except in cases where, in the judgment of the Secretary of War, it will be to the manifest interest of the United States to purchase such materials in limited quantities abroad. Such provision is contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 242, 36 Stat. 1343.

[ORDNANCE MATERIALS, STORES, AND SUPPLIES.]

ACT JUNE 22, 1874, c. 413.

Sale of unserviceable ordnance stores.

Special provisions for the sale of serviceable ordnance and ordnance stores, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, and Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1875, c. 130, § 1.

Sale of useless ordnance materials.

Further provisions relating to moneys arising from the disposition of ordnance and ordnance stores, contained in Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 1, 1901, c. 677.

Maximum contract price of steel for guns and mortars.

The provision of this act, limiting the price of steel for guns and mortars, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1147, is repeated in the same language in the similar appropriation act for the year next following, Act June 6, 1902, c. 1033, 32 Stat. 307. It is again repeated, with a clause excepting nickel steel, in the fortifications appropriation act for the next year, Act March 3, 1903, c. 1000, 32 Stat. 1025; but it does not appear in the subsequent similar acts.

Right to use invention involved in construction of guns, etc., to be determined before constructing or testing same.

The further provision of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1147, 1148, is also repeated in the same language in the similar appropriation acts of subsequent years. Such provision is contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 242, 36 Stat. 1344.

ACT APRIL 23, 1904, c. 1485. [H. R. 10670.]

Application of moneys arising from disposition of serviceable ordnance and ordnance stores; sale to American designers for development of designs.

Hereafter all moneys arising from disposition authorized by law and regulation of serviceable ordnance and ordnance stores shall constitute one fund on the books of the Treasury Department, which shall be available to replace ordnance and ordnance stores throughout the fiscal year in which the disposition was effected and throughout the following year. The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to sell to American designers such serviceable ordnance and ordnance stores as may be necessary in the development of designs which may be used in the military service: Provided, That such ordnance and ordnance stores can be spared for the purpose, and funds arising from such sales shall be available to replace like ordnance and ordnance stores.

Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 276.

These are provisions of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

ACT MARCH 2, 1905, c. 1307. [H. R. 17473.]

Sale of individual pieces of armament.

* * And individual pieces of United States armament which are not needed on account of historical value, and can be advantageously replaced, may be sold at a price not less than their cost price, when there exist for such sale sentimental reasons adequate in the judgment of the Secretary of War or Secretary of the Navy.

Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 841.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

A provision of the same act, immediately preceding this, relating to moneys arising from deductions made from carriers on account of loss of or damage to military stores, is set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 1.

ACT MARCH 2, 1901, c. 803.

[Superseded. Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328.]

The provision of this act that appropriations for the Ordnance Department should not be used in payment of freight charges on ordnance, etc., set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1148, is repeated, with the insertion of the word "hereafter," in the similar appropriation act for the year next following, Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, as set forth below, which supersedes all previous provisions.

ACT JUNE 30, 1902, c. 1328.

* * That hereafter no part of the appropriations made for the Ordnance Department shall be used in payment of freight charges on ordnance or ordnance stores issued by said Department.

Act June 30, 1902, c. 1328, 32 Stat. 520.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriation, under the heading "Ordnance Department," for manufacture, etc., of arms, in the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above. It re-enacts similar provisos in previous appropriation acts, with the word "hereafter" inserted, making the provision permanent in its operation.

ACT JUNE 12, 1906, c. 3078. [H. R. 14397.]

Expenses of Ordnance Department in procuring stores for other departments or bureaus to be defrayed from its appropriations, subject to reimbursement.

Whenever the Ordnance Department, under existing regulations, procures stores for other Executive Departments or bureaus, including the Philippine government, its appropriations shall be applicable to defray the necessary expenses in connection with the procurement, subject to reimbursement from time to time, or on completion of the work, from the department or bureau for which the stores were procured.

Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 258.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2511. [H. R. 23551.]

Appropriations for ordnance-stores ammunition, etc., available for two years.

Hereafter the appropriations "Ordnance-stores ammunition," "Small-arms target practice," and "Ordnance stores and supplies" shall be available for two years to procure the stores authorized by them.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1175.

This is a provision of the Army appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, 36 Stat. 1027.

The sums thus appropriated are, as in previous acts, "severally appropriated, in full compensation for the diplomatic and consular service for the fiscal year," and these provisions cannot be deemed permanent.

A provision for the employment of clerks at embassies and legations, more permanent in its nature so far as it refers to such clerks "whenever hereafter appointed," contained in the diplomatic and consular appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, Act June 16, 1906, c. 3337, and repeated in the similar acts for the following years, cited above, is set forth below.

ACT MARCH 1, 1893, c. 182, § 1.

[Repealed. Act March 2, 1909, c. 235.]

The provision of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1152, is expressly repealed by a provision of Act March 2, 1909, c. 235, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 16, 1906, c. 3337. [H. R. 19264.]

Clerks at embassies and legations.

For the employment of necessary clerks at the embassies and legations, who, whenever hereafter appointed, shall be citizens of the United States, sixty-five thousand dollars.

Act June 16, 1906, c. 3337, 34 Stat. 288.

This is a provision of the diplomatic and consular appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above. It is repeated in the same language in the similar acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, 36 Stat. 1029.

ACT MARCH 2, 1909, c. 235. [H. R. 27523.]

Repeal of provision of Act March 1, 1893, c. 182, § 1.

The following provision of an Act making appropriations for the diplomatic and consular service of the United States for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, be, and is hereby, repealed, namely:

"Whenever the President shall be advised that any foreign government is represented, or is about to be represented, in the United States by an ambassador, envoy extraordinary, minister plenipotentiary, minister resident, special envoy, or chargé d'affaires, he is authorized, in his discretion, to direct that the representative of the United States to such government shall bear the same designation. This provision shall in nowise affect the duties, powers, or salary of such representative."

Act March 2, 1909, c. 235, 35 Stat. 672.

This is a provision of the diplomatic and consular appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

The provision of Act March 1, 1893, c. 182, § 1, repealed by this provision, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1152.

No new ambassadorship to be created unless provided for by act of Congress.

And hereafter no new ambassadorship shall be created unless the same shall be provided for by Act of Congress.

Act March 2, 1909, c. 235, 35 Stat. 672.

This is a further provision of the diplomatic and consular appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Sec. 1676. [As amended 1875.]

Agent and consul-general at Cairo.

The salary of the agent and consul-general at Cairo, which by Rev. St. § 1676, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1153, was $3,500 per annum, is $6,500 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, by a provision of Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, set forth ante, in note under Rev. St. § 1675.

Sec. 1677.

Secretary of legation to Turkey.

The provision of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1153, that the consul-general at Constantinople should be the secretary of the legation to Turkey, without compensation therefor, is superseded by the annual appropriations for salary of such secretary as for a distinct office. The appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are for a secretary of embassy, $3,000, and a second secretary of embassy, $2,000, by provisions of Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, set forth ante, in note under Rev. St. § 1675.

Sec. 1678.

Interpreter of legation to Turkey.

An interpreter to the embassy to Turkey, at $3,000, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is provided for by Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, set forth ante, in note under Rev. St. § 1675. Provisions for student interpreters, also, at the embassy, are contained in said act.

Sec. 1679.

Interpreter of legation to Japan.

A Japanese secretary and an assistant Japanese secretary of embassy to Japan, at $3,600 and $2,000, respectively, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are provided for by Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1675. Further appropriations and provisions for other interpreters to embassies and legations, and provisions for student interpreters at the legation to China and the embassies to Japan and Turkey, are also contained in said act.

Sec. 1682.

Minister to Guatemala, Costa Rica, Honduras, Salvador, and Nicaraugua.

Envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary to Costa Rica, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, and Salvador, at $10,000 each, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are provided for by Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, set forth ante, in note under Rev. St. § 1675.

Sec. 1683.

Representatives to Haiti, Liberia, etc.

So much of the former provision for an envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Haiti as required him to be accredited also as chargé d'affaires to Santo Domingo was repealed by Act April 27, 1904, c. 1630, 33 Stat. 394, and a minister resident and consul-general to the Dominican Republic was also provided for by that act and subsequent diplomatic and consular appropriation acts. An envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the Dominican Republic is provided for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, by Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, set forth ante, in note under Rev. St. § 1675.

A minister resident and consul-general to Liberia, at $5,000, is provided for also by said Act March 3, 1911, c. 208.

Sec. 1685.

[Amended. Act March 2, 1909, c. 235.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1156, is expressly amended by a provision of Act March 2, 1909, c. 235, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1909, c. 235. [H. R. 27523.]

Amendment of Rev. St. § 1685; compensation of secretary of embassy or legation acting as chargé d'affaires.

Section sixteen hundred and eighty-five of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended to read as follows: "For such time as any secretary of embassy or legation shall be lawfully authorized to act as chargé d'affaires ad interim at the post to which he shall have been appointed, he shall be entitled to receive, in addition to his salary as secretary of embassy or legation, compensation equal to the difference between such salary and fifty per centum of the salary provided by law for the ambassador or minister at such post."

Act March 2, 1909, c. 235, 35 Stat. 673.

This is a provision of the diplomatic and consular appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Rev. St. § 1685, amended by this provision, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1156.

Sec. 1687.

ACT MARCH 3, 1875, c. 130, § 1.

Rent of buildings for legation at Pekin.

The appropriation for rent mentioned in the note under this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1157, was repeated in subsequent similar appropriation acts, but was not continued after the provision of Act March 3, 1905, c. 1407, 33 Stat. 918.

CHAPTER TWO.

Consular Officers.

The amendments of this section by Act May 11, 1908, c. 161, and Act

Feb. 3, 1909, c. 60, cited above, consist in changes in the classification of consuls-general and consuls by the section as originally enacted.

The appointment of vice-consular officers is provided for by section 3 of this act, set forth below.

The appointment of inspectors of consulates, to be designated consuls-general at large, is provided for by section 4 of this act, set forth below.

Vice-consular officers; consular agents; grade of commercial agent abolished.

Sec. 3. That the offices of vice-consuls-general, deputy consuls-general, vice-consuls, and deputy consuls shall be filled by appointment, as heretofore, except that whenever, in his judgment, the good of the service requires it, consuls may be designated by the President without thereby changing their classification to act for a period not to exceed one year as vice-consuls-general, deputy consuls-general, vice-consuls, and deputy consuls; and when so acting they shall not be deemed to have vacated their offices as consuls. Consular agents may be appointed, when necessary, as heretofore. The grade of commercial agent is abolished.

Act April 5, 1906. c. 1366, § 3, 34 Stat. 100.

Previous provisions for appointment of vice-consular officers and consular agents were contained in Rev. St. § 1695, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1174.

Additional compensation to vice-consular officers, out of the salaries of the consuls-general or consuls for whom they act, is authorized by section 8 of this act, set forth below.

Inspectors of consulates; designation as consuls-general at large; appointment; duties; powers; bonds; misconduct and neglect of duty.

Sec. 4. That there shall be five inspectors of consulates, to be designated and commissioned as consuls-general at large, who shall receive an annual salary of five thousand dollars each, and shall be paid their actual and necessary traveling and subsistence expenses while traveling and inspecting under instructions from the Secretary of State. They shall be appointed by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, from the members of the consular force possessing the requisite qualifications of experience and ability. They shall make such inspections of consular offices as the Secretary of State shall direct, and shall report to him. Each consular office shall be inspected at least once in every two years. Whenever the President has reason to believe that the business of a consulate or a consulate-general is not being properly conducted and that it is necessary for the public interest, he may authorize any consul-general at large to suspend the consul or consul-general, and administer the office in his stead for a period not exceeding ninety days. In such case the consul-general at large so authorized shall have power to suspend any vice or deputy consular officer or clerk in said office during the period aforesaid. The provisions of law relating to the official bonds of consuls-general, and the provisions of sections seventeen hundred and thirty-four, seventeen hundred and thirty-five, and seventeen hundred and thirty-six, Revised Statutes of the United States, shall apply to consuls-general at large.

Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 4, 34 Stat. 100.

Provisions relating to official bonds of consuls-general, mentioned in this section, are contained in Rev. St. § 1697, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1174. And the provisions of Rev. St. §§ 1734, 1735, 1736, also mentioned in this section, relating to embezzlement, neglect of duty, etc., by consular officers, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1188, 1189.

Consular clerks at salary of $1,000 a year or more to be American citizens.

Sec. 5. No person who is not an American citizen shall be appointed hereafter in any consulate-general or consulate to any clerical position the salary of which is one thousand dollars a year or more.

Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 5, 34 Stat. 101.

The appointment of consular clerks is authorized by Rev. St. § 1704, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1178. Their salaries are fixed by a provision of Act Feb. 22, 1907, c. 1184, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1704.

Sec. 6. [Amends Rev. St. §§ 1699, 1700.]

This section, amending Rev. St. §§ 1699, 1700, is set forth post, under those sections.

Consular officers required to perform notarial acts; fees therefor.

Sec. 7. That every consular officer of the United States is hereby required, whenever application is made to him therefor, within the limits of his consulate, to administer to or take from any person any oath, affirmation, affidavit, or deposition, and to perform any other notarial act which any notary public is required or authorized by law to do within the United States; and for every such notarial act performed he shall charge in each instance the appropriate fee prescribed by the President under section seventeen hundred and forty-five, Revised Statutes.

Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 7, 34 Stat. 101.

Previous provisions authorizing every secretary of legation or consular officer, whenever he is required or deems it necessary or proper to do so, to perform notarial acts such as described in this section, are contained in Rev. St. § 1750, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1196.

Rev. St. § 1745, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1194.

Consular officers to account for fees; compensation to be by salary only; consular agents to be paid by one half of fees received; additional compensation to vice-consular officers.

Sec. 8. That all fees, official or unofficial, received by any officer in the consular service for services rendered in connection with the duties of his office or as a consular officer, including fees for notarial services, and fees for taking depositions, executing commissions or letters rogatory, settling estates, receiving or paying out moneys, caring for or disposing of property, shall be accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States, and the sole and only compensation of such officers shall be by salaries fixed by law; but this shall not apply to consular agents, who shall be paid by one half of the fees received in their offices, up to a maximum sum of one thousand dollars in any one year, the other half being accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States. And vice-consuls-general, deputy consuls-general, vice-consuls, and deputy consuls, in addition to such compensation as they may be entitled to receive as consuls or clerks, may receive such portion of the salaries of the consul-general or consuls for whom they act as shall be provided by regulation.

Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8, 34 Stat. 101.

Previous provisions requiring consular officers to account for fees are contained in Rev. St. § 1747, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1195. And previous provisions relating to compensation of various consular officers, contained in Rev. St. §§ 1702, 1703, may be regarded as superseded by the provisions of this section relating thereto.

Fees for consular certification of invoices to be prescribed by President; repeal of Rev. St. §§ 1721, 2851.

Sec. 9. That fees for the consular certification of invoices shall be, and they hereby are, included with the fees for official services for which the President is authorized by section seventeen hundred and forty-five of the Revised Statutes to prescribe rates or tariffs; and sections twenty-eight hundred and fifty-one and seventeen hundred and twenty-one of the Revised Statutes are hereby repealed.

Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 9, 34 Stat. 101.

Rev. St. § 1745, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1194. Rev. St. §§ 1721, 2851, repealed by this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1184, 1901.

Stamps for amount of fee for consular or notarial act to be affixed to document and canceled; effect of failure to affix and cancel stamp.

Sec. 10. That every consular officer shall be provided and kept supplied with adhesive official stamps, on which shall be printed the equivalent money value of denominations and to amounts to be determined by the Department of State, and shall account quarterly to the Department of State for the use of such stamps and for such of them as shall remain in his hands.

Whenever a consular officer is required or finds it necessary to perform any consular or notarial act he shall prepare and deliver to the party or parties at whose instance such act is performed a suitable and appropriate document as prescribed in the consular regulations and affix thereto and duly cancel an adhesive stamp or stamps of the denomination or denominations equivalent to the fee prescribed for such consular or notarial act, and no such act shall be legally valid within the jurisdiction of the Government of the United States unless such stamp or stamps is or are affixed and canceled.

Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 10, 34 Stat. 102.

Time of taking effect of act.

Sec. 11. That this Act shall take effect on the thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and six.

Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 11, 34 Stat. 102.

Repeal.

Sec. 12. That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 12, 34 Stat. 102.

Sec. 1692.

ACT JUNE 11, 1874, c. 275, § 3.

Interpreters to consulates in China and Japan.

Annual appropriations for interpreters to be employed at consulates in China, Korea, and Japan, and at other places, are made in the recent diplomatic and consular appropriation acts. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are by Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, 36 Stat. 1035.

Sec. 1694.

[Superseded. Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1174, is superseded by the provisions for the reorganization of the consular service contained in Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690.

Sec. 1697. [As amended 1898.]

Bonds of consular officers to be furnished and deposited with Secretary of the Treasury; [suits on bonds.]

Consular officers are forbidden to accept appointments from foreign states as administrator, guardian, etc., without giving bond, by Act June 30, 1902, c. 1331, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1709.

The provisions of law relating to official bonds of consuls-general apply to the inspectors of consulates, designated as consuls-general at large, by a provision of Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 4, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690.

Secs. 1699, 1700.

[Amended. Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366.]

These sections, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1176, are amended by Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 6, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 6. [S. 1345.]

Amendment of Rev. St. §§ 1699, 1700.

Sec. 6. Sections sixteen hundred and ninety-nine and seventeen hundred of the Revised Statutes of the United States are hereby amended to read as follows:

Consular officers not to transact business.

"Sec. 1699. No consul-general, consul, or consular agent receiving a salary of more than one thousand dollars a year shall, while he holds his office, be interested in or transact any business as a merchant, factor, broker, or other trader, or as a clerk or other agent for any such person to, from, or within the port, place, or limits of his jurisdiction, directly or indirectly, either in his own name or in the name or through the agency of any other person; nor shall he practice as a lawyer for compensation or be interested in the fees or compensation of any lawyer; and he shall in his official bond stipulate as a condition thereof not to violate this prohibition.

Extension of prohibition upon transacting business.

"Sec. 1700. All consular officers whose respective salaries exceed one thousand dollars a year shall be subject to the prohibition against transacting business, practicing as a lawyer, or being interested in the fees or compensation of any lawyer contained in the preceding section. And the President may extend the prohibition to any consul-general, consul, or consular agent whose salary does not exceed one thousand dollars a year or who may be compensated by fees, and to any vice or deputy consular officer or consular agent, and may require such officer to give a bond not to violate the prohibition."

Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 6, 34 Stat. 101.

This section is a part of Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, providing for reorganizing the consular service, other sections of which are set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690. Rev. St. §§ 1699, 1700, amended by this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1176. The amendments consist in changes in the description of the consular officers forbidden to engage in business, etc., so as to conform to the changes made by other provisions of the amending act, and in including in the prohibition practicing as a lawyer for compensation or being interested in the fees or compensation of any lawyer.

Secs. 1702, 1703.

[Superseded. Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8.]

These sections, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1177, relating to the compensation of various consular officers, are superseded by the provisions relating to the same subject contained in Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690.

Sec. 1704.

Appointment of consular clerks.

The provisions of this section and of Act June 11, 1874, c. 275, § 5, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1178, relating to the compensation of the consular clerks whose appointment is authorized by this section, are amended by a provision of Act Feb. 22, 1907, c. 1184, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 11, 1874, c. 275, § 5.

Salary of consular clerks after five years' service.

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1178, is amended by a provision of Act Feb. 22, 1907, c. 1184, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 22, 1907, c. 1184. [H. R. 24538.]

Salaries of consular clerks; amendment of Rev. St. § 1704, and Act June 11, 1874, c. 275, § 5.

From and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and seven, the salaries of consular clerks shall be at the rate of one thousand dollars a year for the first three years of continuous service as such, and shall be increased two hundred dollars a year for each succeeding year of continuous service until a maximum compensation of one thousand eight hundred dollars a year shall be reached, and section seventeen hundred and four, Revised Statutes, and its amendatory Act of June eleventh, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, are hereby so amended: Provided, That the salary of no consular clerk herein provided for, and now in the service, shall be reduced by this Act.

Act Feb. 22, 1907, c. 1184, 34 Stat. 923.

This is a provision of the diplomatic and consular appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above. Rev. St. § 1704, and Act June 11, 1874, c. 275, § 5, amended thereby, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1178.

Sec. 1706.

Actual expenses may be allowed to consuls-general, etc., who are not allowed to trade.

A subsequent provision that "the sole and only compensation" of consular officers shall be by salaries fixed by law, is contained in Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690.

Sec. 1709.

[Amended. Act March 3, 1911, c. 223.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1179, relating to the powers and duties of consuls, etc., in regard to estates of decedents, is amended, by the addition of a paragraph thereto, by Act March 3, 1911, c. 223, set forth below.

Consular officers are forbidden to accept an appointment from any foreign state as administrator, guardian, etc., without executing a bond, with security; and accepting any such appointment without giving bond, or failing to account, etc., for any money, property, etc., is made punishable, by Act June 30, 1902, c. 1331, set forth below.

Provisions for the administration of estates of decedents in China, under the supervisory control of the United States court for China, are contained in the act establishing that court, Act June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 2, set forth post, under Title XLVII, "Foreign Relations."

ACT JUNE 30, 1902, c. 1331.

An Act to Prevent any Consular Officer of the United States from Accepting any Appointment from any Foreign State as Administrator, Guardian, or to any Other Office of Trust, without First Executing a Bond, with Security, to be Approved by the Secretary of State. (32 Stat. 546.)

Bonds of consular officers accepting appointments from foreign states as administrators, guardians, etc.

Be it enacted, &c., That no consular officer of the United States shall accept an appointment from any foreign state as administrator, guardian, or to any other office of trust for the settlement or conservation of estates of deceased persons or of their heirs or of persons under legal disabilities, without executing a bond, with security, to be approved by the Secretary of State, and in a penal sum to be fixed by him and in such form as he may prescribe, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of all his duties according to law and for the true and faithful accounting for, delivering, and paying over to the persons thereto entitled of all moneys, goods, effects, and other property which shall come to his hands or to the hands of any other person to his use as such administrator, guardian, or in other fiduciary capacity. Said bond shall be deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury. In case of a breach of any such bond, any person injured by the failure of such officer faithfully to discharge the duties of his said trust according to law, may institute, in his own name and for his sole use, a suit upon said bond and thereupon recover such damages as shall be legally assessed, with costs of suit, for which execution may issue in due form; but if such party fails to recover in the suit, judgment shall be rendered and execution may issue against him for costs in favor of the defendant; and the United States shall in no case be liable for the same. The said bond shall remain, after any judgment rendered thereon, as a security for the benefit of any person injured by a breach of the condition of the same until the whole penalty has been recovered.

Act June 30, 1902, c. 1331, § 1, 32 Stat. 546.

General provisions relating to bonds of consular officers are contained in Rev. St. §§ 1697, 1698, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1174–1176.

Acceptance of appointment without giving bond, or failure to account, etc., punishable as embezzlement.

Sec. 2. That every consular officer who accepts any appointment to any office of trust mentioned in the preceding section without first having complied with the provisions thereof by due execution of a bond as therein required, or who shall willfully fail or neglect to account for, pay over, and deliver any money, property, or effects so received to any person lawfully entitled thereto, after having been requested by the latter, his representative or agent so to do, shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement and shall be punishable by imprisonment for not more than five years and by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars.

Act June 30, 1902, c. 1331, § 2, 32 Stat. 547.

Previous provisions making punishable embezzlement by consular officers are contained in Rev. St. § 1734, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1188.

ACT MARCH 3, 1911; c. 223. [H. R. 17433.]

An Act Amending Section Seventeen hundred and nine of the Revised Statutes of the United States. (36 Stat. 1083.)

Amendment of Rev. St. § 1709.

Be it enacted, &c., That section seventeen hundred and nine of the Revised Statutes of the United States is hereby amended by the addition of the following paragraph:

Estates of decedents; duties of Auditor for State and other Departments, as conservator, etc.

"Sixth. The Auditor for the State and other Departments shall act as conservator of such part of these estates as may be received at the Treasury, and for their protection the Secretary of the Treasury may order such effects to be sold as may consist of jewelry or other articles which have heretofore or may hereafter be received at the Treasury, and pay the expenses of such sale out of the proceeds, provided application for these effects shall not have been made by the legal claimant within two years after their receipt. The Auditor is authorized to indorse all bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other evidences of indebtedness due to such estates, and to take such steps as may be necessary for their collection. The proceeds of such sales, together with such other moneys as may be collected by him, shall be deposited into the Treasury in trust for the legal claimant, and be reported to the Secretary of State."

Act March 3, 1911, c. 223, 36 Stat. 1083.

Rev. St. § 1709, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1179.

Sec. 1712. [As amended 1888.]

Commercial [and agricultural] reports.

Further provisions for obtaining information and statistics for the Department of Commerce and Labor are contained in the act establishing that department. Section 5 of that act requires all consular officers of the United States, including consuls-general, consuls, and commercial agents, to gather and compile information and statistics in respect to the subjects, jurisdiction and control of which is vested in the Department of Commerce and Labor, and to send, under direction of the Secretary of State, as often as required by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, reports of the information and statistics thus gathered and compiled. Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 5, ante, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor." And section 11 of that act provides for the designation by the Secretary of State of a person to formulate, under his direction, for the instruction of consular officers, the requests of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, and to prepare from the dispatches of consular officers, for transmission to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, such information as pertains to the work of the Department of Commerce and Labor. Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 11, ante, under Title V, "The Department of State."

Sec. 1716.

Exacting excessive fees for verifying invoices.

Fees for certification of invoices are included with the fees for which the President is authorized, by Rev. St. § 1745, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1194, to prescribe rates or tariffs, by Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 9, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690.

Sec. 1721.

[Repealed. Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 9.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1184, relating to fees for certifying invoices in British North America, is expressly repealed by Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 9, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690.

Sec. 1730.

Compensation of officers not embraced in Schedules B and C.

A subsequent provision that "the sole and only compensation" of consular officers shall be by salaries fixed by law, but not to apply to consular agents, is contained in Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690.

Secs. 1732, 1733.

[Superseded. Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8.]

Rev. St. §§ 1732, 1733, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1188, relating to the disposition of fees collected or received by consular officers in excess of certain specified amounts, are superseded by the provisions relating to such fees contained in Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690.

Sec. 1734. [As amended 1898.]

Embezzlement.

The provisions of this section and of Rev. St. §§ 1735, 1736, apply to the inspectors of consulates, designated as consuls-general at large, by a provision of Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 4, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1690.

Further provisions, declaring guilty of embezzlement and making punishable every consular officer who accepts any appointment from a foreign state as administrator, guardian, etc., without giving bond, or who fails to account for, etc., any money, property, etc., received in such capacity, are contained in Act June 30, 1902, c. 1331, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 1709.

Sec. 1735.

Neglect of duty, etc.

See note under preceding section.

Sec. 1736.

Neglect of duty to seamen; corrupt conduct.

See note under Rev. St. § 1734.

CHAPTER THREE.

Provisions Common to Diplomatic and Consular Officers.

Sec. 1740.

Term during which salary is payable.

The usual appropriation for payment of salaries under the provisions of this section is made by the diplomatic and consular appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, 36 Stat. 1027.

Sec. 1743.

Extra compensation prohibited.

Provisions relating to the compensation of officers in the consular service are contained in Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8, set forth ante, under chapter 2 of this Title.

Sec. 1744.

ACT MARCH 2, 1901, c. 802.

Payment of salaries of consular officers not citizens.

The provision of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1194, is repeated in the same language in the diplomatic and consular appropriation acts for the fiscal years 1903, 1904, and 1905, Act March 22, 1902, c. 272, 32 Stat. 86, Act Feb. 9, 1903, c. 530, 32 Stat. 818, and Act March 12, 1904, c. 543, 33 Stat. 78, but is omitted from the similar acts for subsequent years.

Sec. 1745.

President to regulate fees.

Fees for consular certification of invoices are included with the fees for which the President is authorized to prescribe rates or tariffs by Rev. St. § 1745, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1194, by a provision of Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 9, set forth ante, under chapter 2 of this Title.

Sec. 1747.

[Superseded. Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1195, requiring all fees collected by certain consular officers to be accounted for, is superseded by the provisions relating to the same subject contained in Act April 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8, set forth ante, under chapter 2 of this Title.

Sec. 1748.

Expenses of legations, consulates, etc.

Appropriations for contingent expenses of the several embassies and legations, and of the several consulates and consular agencies, are made by the diplomatic and consular appropriation acts for each year. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are by Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, 36 Stat. 1030, 1036.

Besides the provisions made, in said appropriations for contingent expenses, for "traveling and miscellaneous expenses of embassies and legations," and for "traveling expenses of consular officers and consular clerks," further appropriations are made "To pay the cost of the transportation of diplomatic and consular officers in going to and returning from their posts, or when traveling under the orders of the Secretary of State, at the rate of five cents per mile, but not including any expense incurred in connection with leaves of absence." This provision for the fiscal year 1912 is contained in Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, 36 Stat. 1030.

Sec. 1749.

Allowance to widow of consular officer deceased in a foreign country.

Appropriations for payments, under the provisions of this section, to widows or heirs at law of diplomatic or consular officers dying in foreign countries, are made by the diplomatic and consular appropriation acts for each year. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, 36 Stat. 1031.

Appropriations are also made by those acts for "defraying the expenses of transporting the remains of diplomatic and consular officers of the United States, including consular assistants, who have died or may die abroad or in transit, while in the discharge of their official duties, to their former homes in this country for interment, and for the ordinary and necessary expenses of such interment, at their post or at home." Act March 3, 1911, c. 208, 36 Stat. 1031.

ACT FEB. 17, 1911, c. 105. [H. R. 30888.]

An Act Providing for the Purchase or Erection, within Certain Limits of Cost, of Embassy, Legation, and Consular Buildings abroad. (36 Stat. 917.)

Buildings for use of diplomatic and consular establishments; limitations of expenditure and of cost.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of State be, and he is hereby, authorized to acquire in foreign countries such sites and buildings as may be appropriated for by Congress for the use of the diplomatic and consular establishments of the United States, and to alter, repair, and furnish the said buildings; suitable buildings for this purpose to be either purchased or erected, as to the Secretary of State may seem best, and all buildings so acquired for the diplomatic service shall be used both as the residences of diplomatic officials and for the offices of the diplomatic establishment: Provided, however, That not more than the sum of five hundred thousand dollars shall be expended in any fiscal year under the authorization herein made: And provided further, That in submitting estimates of appropriation to the Secretary of the Treasury for transmission to the House of Representatives, the Secretary of State shall set forth a limit of cost for the acquisition of sites and buildings and for the construction, alteration, repair, and furnishing of buildings at each place in which the expenditure is proposed (which limit of cost shall not exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars at any one place) and which limit shall not thereafter be exceeded in any case, except by new and express authorization of Congress.

Act Feb. 17, 1911, c. 105, 36 Stat. 917.

TITLE XIX.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO SEVERAL CLASSES OF OFFICERS.

Sec. 1759.

ACT MARCH 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5.

Examination and renewal of bonds.

A provision relating to premiums on bonds of surety, etc., companies for officers or employés of the United States, contained in Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 7, is set forth below.

ACT AUG. 5, 1909, c. 7. [H. R. 11570.]

Limitation of rate of premium on bond of surety or bonding company; such premiums not to be paid by the United States.

Until otherwise provided by law no bond shall be accepted from any surety or bonding company for any officer or employee of the United States which shall cost more than thirty-five per centum in excess of the rate of premium charged for a like bond during the calendar year nineteen hundred and eight: Provided, That hereafter the United States shall not pay any part of the premium or other cost of furnishing a bond required by law or otherwise of any officer or employee of the United States.

Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 7, 36 Stat. 125.

This is a provision, under the head "Department of Commerce and Labor," in the urgent deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year 1909, cited above.

Sec. 1760.

ACT JUNE 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 6. [H. R. 19844.]

Annual or monthly compensation; rules for division of time and computation of pay.

Hereafter, where the compensation of any person in the service of the United States is annual or monthly the following rules for division of time and computation of pay for services rendered are hereby established: Annual compensation shall be divided into twelve equal installments, one of which shall be the pay for each calendar month; and in making payments for a fractional part of a month one-thirtieth of one of such installments, or of a monthly compensation, shall be the daily rate of pay. For the purpose of computing such compensation and for computing time for services rendered during a fractional part of a month in connection with annual or monthly compensation, each and every month shall be held to consist of thirty days, without regard to the actual number of days in any calendar month, thus excluding the thirty-first of any calendar month from the computation and treating February as if it actually had thirty days. Any person entering the service of the United States during a thirty-one day month and serving until the end thereof shall be entitled to pay for that month from the date of entry to the thirtieth day of said month, both days inclusive; and any person entering said service during the month of February and serving until the end thereof shall be entitled to one month's pay, less as many thirtieths thereof as there were days elapsed prior to date of entry: Provided, That for one day's unauthorized absence on the thirty-first day of any calendar month one day's pay shall be forfeited.

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 6, 34 Stat. 763.

This section is part of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

A previous similar but less specific provision relating to the same subject contained in Act April 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 4, 33 Stat. 513, may be regarded as superseded by this section.

Similar rules for computation of the compensation of any person in the military service of the United States are prescribed by a provision of Act June 12, 1906, c. 3078, set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 3.

Rules similar to some extent for computation of the salary or compensation of persons in the postal service are prescribed by Act March 4, 1911, c. 241, § 4, set forth post, under Title XLVI, "The Postal Service," c. 1, under Rev. St. § 3860.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 237. [H. R. 29360.]

Pay of telephone switch-board operators, assistant messengers, etc., laborers, and charwomen.

The pay of telephone switch-board operators, assistant messengers, firemen, watchmen, laborers, and charwomen provided for in this Act, except those employed in mints and assay offices, unless otherwise specially stated, shall be as follows: For telephone switch-board operators, assistant messengers, firemen, and watchmen, at the rate of seven hundred and twenty dollars per annum each; for laborers, at the rate of six hundred and sixty dollars per annum each, assistant telephone-switchboard operators at the rate of six hundred dollars each, and for charwomen, at the rate of two hundred and forty dollars per annum each.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 2, 36 Stat. 1235.

This section is part of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above. Similar provisions were contained in the similar appropriation acts for the preceding years.

Sec. 1763.

Double salaries.

Each annual sundry civil appropriation act contains a provision "that all sums appropriated by this act for salaries of officers and employees of the Government shall be in full for such salaries for the fiscal year." The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, 36 Stat. 1452.

Sec. 1765.

Extra allowances.

Restrictions on the use of money, appropriated by any act, for paying expenses of horses and carriages or drivers therefor, for the personal use of officers, or for purchasing, maintaining, driving, or operating carriages or vehicles, for the personal or official use of any officer or employé of any of the Executive Departments or other Government establishments at Washington, D. C., contained in Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 3, and Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 4, are set forth below.

Reports for each fiscal year of expenses of officers or employés of each

Executive Department or other government establishment at Washington traveling on official business to points outside the District of Columbia, are required by Act May 22, 1908, c. 166, § 4, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 18, 1904, c. 716, § 3. [H. R. 9480.]

Restrictions on payment from appropriations of expenses of horses, carriages, etc., for personal use of officers.

No part of any money appropriated by this or any other Act shall be available for paying expenses of horses and carriages or drivers therefor for the personal use of any officer provided for by this or any other Act other than the President of the United States, the heads of Executive Departments, and the Secretary to the President: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to officials outside of the District of Columbia in the performance of their public duties. This paragraph shall not take effect until July first, nineteen hundred and four.

Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 3, 33 Stat. 142.

This is the concluding portion of section 3 of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

A further similar provision, applicable only to officers or employés of the Executive Departments or other Government establishments at Washington, D. C., contained in the similar act for the fiscal year next following, Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 4, is set forth below.

Nothing in this act is to be construed so as to deprive officers of the Army of forage, bedding, shoeing, or shelter for their authorized number of horses, or of any means of transportation or maintenance therefor for which provision is made by the Army appropriation act for the same fiscal year, Act April 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 268, by a provision of that act, repeated in each subsequent Army appropriation act. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, by Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, is set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 3.

ACT FEB. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 4. [H. R. 15895.]

Restrictions on payment from appropriations of expenses of carriages or vehicles for personal or official use; carriages and vehicles for official purposes to have thereon name of Department, etc.

No part of any money appropriated by this or any other Act shall be used for purchasing, maintaining, driving, or operating any carriage or vehicle (other than those for the use of the President of the United States, the heads of the Executive Departments, and the Secretary to the President, and other than those used for transportation of property belonging to or in the custody of the United States), for the personal or official use of any officer or employee of any of the Executive Departments or other Government establishments at Washington, District of Columbia, unless the same shall be specifically authorized by law or provided for in terms by appropriation of money, and all such carriages and vehicles so procured and used for official purposes shall have conspicuously painted thereon at all times the full name of the Executive Department or other branch of the public service to which the same belong and in the service of which the same are used.

Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 4, 33 Stat. 687.

This section is part of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

A previous similar provision contained in the similar act for the preceding year, Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 3, is set forth above.

Nothing in this act or any other act is to be construed so as to deprive officers of the Army of forage, bedding, shoeing, or shelter for their authorized number of horses, or of any means of transportation or maintenance therefor for which provision is made by the Army appropriation act for the same fiscal year, Act March 2, 1905, c. 1307, by a provision of that act, repeated in each subsequent Army appropriation act. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, by Act March 3, 1909, c. 252, is set forth ante, under Title XIV, "The Army," c. 3.

ACT MAY 22, 1908, c. 186, § 4. [H. R. 16882.]

Reports of traveling expenses of officers and employés at Washington.

It shall be the duty of the head of each Executive Department and other Government establishment at Washington to submit to Congress at the beginning of each regular session a statement showing in detail what officers or employees (other than special agents, inspectors, or employees, who in the discharge of their regular duties are required to constantly travel) of such Executive Department or other Government establishment have traveled on official business from Washington to points outside of the District of Columbia during the preceding fiscal year, giving in each case the full title of the official or employee, the destination or destinations of such travel, the business or work on account of which the same was made, and the total expense to the United States charged in each case.

Act May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 4. 35 Stat. 244.

This is the last section of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, cited above.

Sec. 1773.

Commissions.

The commissions of officers who are under the Secretaries or other heads of the several Executive Departments are to be made out and recorded in the respective Departments under which they are to serve, and the Department seal affixed thereto, by provisions of Act March 28, 1896, c. 73, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 91, and other acts referred to in the note under that act, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 92, and by Act March 3, 1905, c. 1422, set forth ante, under Title IV, "Provisions Applicable to All the Executive Departments."

Provisions requiring commissions of all officers employed in levying or collecting the public revenue to be made out and recorded in the Treasury Department, and the seal of the Department to be affixed thereto, are contained in Rev. St. § 238, Comp. St. 1901, p. 130.

Sec. 1778.

Taking oaths, acknowledgments, etc.

Provisions for acknowledgment of deeds, etc., in the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico, and in Guam, Samoa, and the Canal Zone, affecting land in the District of Columbia or any Territory, are contained in Act March 22, 1902, c. 273, and Act June 28, 1906, c. 3585, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 22, 1902, c. 273.

An Act for the Acknowledgment of Deeds and Other Instruments in the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico Affecting Land Situate in the District of Columbia or Any Territory of the United States. (32 Stat. 88.)

Acknowledgments in Philippine Islands and Porto Rico of deeds, etc., affecting land in District of Columbia or any Territory.

Be it enacted, &c., That deeds and other instruments affecting land situate in the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States may be acknowledged in the Philippine Islands and Porto Rico before any notary public appointed therein by proper authority or any officer therein who has ex officio the powers of a notary public: Provided, That the certificate by such notary in the Philippine Islands or in Porto Rico, as the case may be, shall be accompanied by the certificate of the attorney-general of Porto Rico or the governor or attorney-general of the Philippine Islands to the effect that the notary taking said acknowledgment was in fact the officer he purported to be.

Act March 22, 1902, c. 273, 32 Stat. 88.

Similar provisions for acknowledgment of deeds, etc., in Guam, Samoa, and the Canal Zone, are contained in Act June 28, 1906, c. 3585, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 28, 1906, c. 3585. [H. R. 19607.]

An Act for the Acknowledgment of Deeds and Other Instruments in Guam, Samoa, and the Canal Zone to Affect Lands in the District of Columbia and Other Territories. (34 Stat. 552.)

Acknowledgments in islands of Guam and Samoa or in Canal Zone, of deeds, etc., affecting land in District of Columbia or any Territory.

Be it enacted, &c., That deeds and other instruments affecting land situate in the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States may be acknowledged in the islands of Guam and Samoa or in the Canal Zone before any notary public or judge, appointed therein by proper authority, or by any officer therein who has ex officio the powers of a notary public: Provided, That the certificate by such notary in Guam, Samoa, or the Canal Zone, as the case may be, shall be accompanied by the certificate of the governor or acting governor of such place to the effect that the notary taking said acknowledgment was in fact the officer he purported to be; and any deeds or other instruments affecting lands so situate, so acknowledged since the first day of January, nineteen hundred and five, and accompanied by such certificate shall have the same effect as such deeds or other instruments hereafter so acknowledged and certified.

Act June 28, 1906, c. 3585, 34 Stat. 552.

Sec. 1790.

ACT FEB. 24, 1899, c. 187, § 4.

Officers, clerks, etc., permanently incapacitated; prohibition of civil pension roll, etc.

The first sentence of this section, as set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1217, providing that the appropriations made should not be available for the compensation of persons permanently incapacitated, is repeated in the subsequent legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts; but, in the later acts, instead of the words "permanently incapacitated," the words "incapacitated, otherwise than temporarily" are substituted, and at the end of the sentence, the words "and the heads of Departments shall cause this provision to be enforced," are added, making the provision read as in Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 3, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 237, § 3. [H. R. 29360.]

Officers, clerks, etc., incapacitated, otherwise than temporarily.

That the appropriations herein made for the officers, clerks, and persons employed in the public service shall not be available for the compensation of any persons incapacitated otherwise than temporarily for performing such service, and the heads of Departments shall cause this provision to be enforced.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 3, 36 Stat. 1235.

This section is part of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, set forth above.

A similar provision was contained in Act Feb. 24, 1889, c. 187, § 4, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1217, and was repeated, with some changes, in the subsequent legislative, executive and judicial appropriation acts.

ACT MAY 30, 1908, c. 236. [H. R. 21844.]

An Act Granting to Certain Employees of the United States the Right to Receive from It Compensation for Injuries Sustained in the Course of their Employment. (35 Stat. 556.)

Compensation to persons employed in certain work, injured in course of such employment.

Be it enacted, &c., That when, on or after August first, nineteen hundred and eight, any person employed by the United States as an artisan or laborer in any of its manufacturing establishments, arsenals, or navy-yards, or in the construction of river and harbor or fortification work or in hazardous employment on construction work in the reclamation of arid lands or the management and control of the same, or in hazardous employment under the Isthmian Canal Commission, is injured in the course of such employment, such employee shall be entitled to receive for one year thereafter, unless such employee, in the opinion of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, be sooner able to resume work, the same pay as if he continued to be employed, such payment to be made under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may prescribe: Provided, That no compensation shall be paid under this Act where the injury is due to the negligence or misconduct of the employee injured, nor unless said injury shall continue for more than fifteen days. All questions of negligence or misconduct shall be determined by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 236, § 1, 35 Stat. 556.

Nothing in this act is to prevent the Isthmian Canal Commission from granting to its injured employés leave of absence with pay for time lost from injuries received in the course of employment, by Act Feb. 24, 1909, c. 179, set forth below.

Compensation to widow, etc., of employé dying from injury in course of employment.

Sec. 2. That if any artisan or laborer so employed shall die during the said year by reason of such injury received in the course of such employment, leaving a widow, or a child or children under sixteen years of age, or a dependent parent, such widow and child or children and dependent parent shall be entitled to receive, in such portions and under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may prescribe, the same amount, for the remainder of the said year, that said artisan or laborer would be entitled to receive as pay if such employee were alive and continued to be employed: Provided, That if the widow shall die at any time during the said year her portion of said amount shall be added to the amount to be paid to the remaining beneficiaries under the provisions of this section, if there be any.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 236, § 2, 35 Stat. 556.

Reports of accidents to employés within act, and of injury therefrom.

Sec. 3. That whenever an accident occurs to any employee embraced within the terms of the first section of this Act, and which results in death or a probable incapacity for work, it shall be the duty of the official superior of such employee to at once report such accident and the injury resulting therefrom to the head of his Bureau or independent office, and his report shall be immediately communicated through regular official channels to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor. Such report shall state, first, the time, cause, and nature of the accident and injury and the probable duration of the injury resulting therefrom; second, whether the accident arose out of or in the course of the injured person's employment; third, whether the accident was due to negligence or misconduct on the part of the employee injured; fourth, any other matters required by such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may prescribe. The head of each Department or independent office shall have power, however, to charge a special official with the duty of making such reports.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 236, § 3, 35 Stat. 557.

Affidavit and certificate of physician in case of accident resulting in death or in incapacity to work; determination of compensation to be paid.

Sec. 4. That in the case of any accident which shall result in death, the persons entitled to compensation under this Act or their legal representatives shall, within ninety days after such death, file with the Secretary of Commerce and Labor an affidavit setting forth their relationship to the deceased and the ground of their claim for compensation under the provisions of this Act. This shall be accompanied by the certificate of the attending physician setting forth the fact and cause of death, or the nonproduction of the certificate shall be satisfactorily accounted for. In the case of incapacity for work lasting more than fifteen days, the injured party desiring to take the benefit of this Act shall, within a reasonable period after the expiration of such time, file with his official superior, to be forwarded through regular official channels to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, an affidavit setting forth the grounds of his claim for compensation, to be accompanied by a certificate of the attending physician as to the cause and nature of the injury and probable duration of the incapacity, or the nonproduction of the certificate shall be satisfactorily accounted for. If the Secretary of Commerce and Labor shall find from the report and affidavit or other evidence produced by the claimant or his or her legal representatives, or from such additional investigation as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may direct, that a claim for compensation is established under this Act, the compensation to be paid shall be determined as provided under this Act and approved for payment by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 236, § 4, 35 Stat. 557.

Medical examination of employé.

Sec. 5. That the employee shall, whenever and as often as required by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, at least once in six months, submit to medical examination, to be provided and paid for under the direction of the Secretary, and if such employee refuses to submit to or obstructs such examination his or her right to compensation shall be lost for the period covered by the continuance of such refusal or obstruction.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 236, § 5, 35 Stat. 557.

An appropriation for the medical examination directed by this section is made each year in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, 36 Stat. 1228.

Payments to beneficiaries.

Sec. 6. That payments under this Act are only to be made to the beneficiaries or their legal representatives other than assignees, and shall not be subject to the claims of creditors.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 236, § 6, 35 Stat. 557.

No exemption from liability under act by contract, rule, etc.

Sec. 7. That the United States shall not exempt itself from liability under this Act by any contract, agreement, rule, or regulation, and any such contract, agreement, rule, or regulation shall be pro tanto void.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 236, § 7, 35 Stat. 558.

Repeal.

Sec. 8. That all Acts or parts of Acts in conflict herewith or providing a different scale of compensation or otherwise regulating its payment are hereby repealed.

Act May 30, 1908, c. 236, § 8, 35 Stat. 558.

ACT FEB. 24, 1909, c. 179. [H. R. 22340.]

An Act Relating to Injured Employees on the Isthmian Canal. (35 Stat. 645.)

Leaves of absence with pay to injured employés of Isthmian Canal Commission.

Be it enacted, &c., That nothing contained in the Act approved May thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eight, entitled "An Act granting to certain employees of the United States the right to receive from it compensation for injuries sustained in the course of their employment," shall prevent the Isthmian Canal Commission, under rules to be fixed by the commission, from granting to its injured employees, whether engaged in a hazardous employment or otherwise, leave of absence with pay for time necessarily lost as a result of injuries received in the course of employment, not exceeding in the aggregate thirty days per annum: Provided, however, That compensation paid to such injured employees under such regulations shall be deducted from any compensation which such employees may be entitled to receive under the terms of the said Act.

Act Feb. 24, 1909, c. 179, 35 Stat. 645.

[CIVIL SERVICE.]

ACT JAN. 16, 1883, c. 27, §§ 2, 3, 7.

Duties of Commissioners.

Members of the Civil Service Commission, whose duties are defined by Act Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 2, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1218, are authorized to administer oaths to witnesses in any matter depending before the Commission, by a provision of Act June 17, 1910, c. 297, § 1, set forth below.

Chief examiner; secretary; stenographer; messenger; boards of examiners; examinations.

Annual appropriations, under the head "Civil Service Commission," for the officers, etc., authorized by Act Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 3, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1220, and additional examiners, clerks, and other employés, and for expenses of the Commission, are made by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, 36 Stat. 1185.

The recent appropriations for the Commission are accompanied by a proviso against the detail of clerks or other employés from the Executive Departments or other Government establishments in Washington, D. C., to the Commission, for the performance of duty in the District of Columbia, for or during the fiscal year; but the Commission has power, in case of emergency, to transfer or detail its employés to or from its office force, field force, etc. The provisions for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, are set forth below.

Appointments and promotions to be made upon examinations.

Immigrant inspectors and other immigration officers, clerks, and employés are to be appointed, and their compensation fixed and raised or decreased from time to time, in accordance with the provisions of this act, by a provision of Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 24, post, under

Title XXIX, "Immigration," subtitle "Regulation and Restriction of Immigration in General."

Employés of the Census Office who are appointed to the permanent Census Office established by Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, post, under Title XXXI, "The Census," are placed, without further examination, under the provisions of this act and the amendments thereto and the rules established thereunder, and all new appointments to the permanent clerical force in the Census Office are to be made in accordance with the requirements of this act, by provisions of section 5 of said act.

The act to provide for the Thirteenth and subsequent decennial censuses, in connection with provisions for additional clerks and employés during the decennial census period, contains a proviso that "all examinations of applicants for positions in the government service, from any State or Territory, shall be had in the State or Territory in which such applicant resides, and no person shall be eligible for such examination or appointment unless he or she shall have been actually domiciled in such State or Territory for at least one year previous to such examination," which, not being in terms restricted to examinations under that act, may be considered, as expressed, applicable to all examinations of applicants for positions in the government service. See Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 7, set forth post, under Title XXXI, "The Census."

The classified laborers in the Department of Agriculture whose positions are transferred from the lump funds to the statutory rolls in the appropriations for the Department by Act March 3, 1905, c. 1405, are placed in the classified service by a provision of that act set forth ante, under Title XII, "The Department of Agriculture," c. A.

ACT JAN. 16, 1883, c. 27, §§ 11-15.

[Repealed. Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, § 341.]

Sections 11–15 of Act Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1223, 1224, are incorporated in the act to codify, etc., the penal laws, Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, in chapter 5, §§ 118–122, thereof, and are expressly repealed by chapter 15, § 341, of said act, taking effect January 1, 1910. Said act is set forth post, under Title LXIX A, "The Criminal Code."

ACT JUNE 17, 1910, c. 297, § 1. [H. R. 22643.]

Commissioners authorized to administer oaths to witnesses in matters before Commission.

Members of the Civil Service Commission are hereafter authorized to administer oaths to witnesses in any matter depending before the Civil Service Commission.

Act June 17, 1910, c. 297, § 1, 36 Stat. 483.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, cited above.

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1. [H. R. 29360.]

Detail of clerks or other employés from Departments, etc., to Civil Service Commission for duty in District of Columbia; transfer of employés of Commission.

* * That no detail of clerks or other employees from the Executive Departments or other Government establishments in Washington, District of Columbia, to the Civil Service Commission, for the performance of duty in the District of Columbia, shall be made for or during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and twelve. The Civil Service Commission shall, however, have power in case of emergency to transfer or detail any of its employees herein provided for to or from its office force, field force, or rural carrier examining board.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1185.

This is a proviso annexed to the appropriations for the Civil Service Commission in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, cited above.

A similar proviso was annexed to the appropriations for several preceding years.

TITLE XX.

FLAG AND SEAL.

Sec. 1793.

Seal of the United States.

An appropriation to enable the Secretary of State to have the Great Seal of the United States recut was made by the deficiency appropriation acts for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1902, and June 30, 1903, Act July 1, 1902, c. 1351, 32 Stat. 552, and Act March 3, 1903, c. 1006, 32 Stat. 1032.

Sec. 1794.

Secretary of State to keep and use the seal.

Commissions of all officers under the direction and control of the Postmaster-General and the Secretary of Commerce and Labor are to be made out and recorded in the Post-Office Department and the Department of Commerce and Labor, respectively, and the Department seal affixed thereto, by Act March 3, 1905, c. 1422, set forth ante, under Title IV, "Provisions Applicable to All the Executive Departments."

Similar provisions relating to commissions of officers under the direction and control of the Secretaries or other heads of other Departments are contained in Act March 28, 1896, c. 73, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 91, and other acts referred to in the note under that act, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 92.

TITLE XXI.

SEAT OF GOVERNMENT, INCLUDING THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS [AND GROUNDS, PARKS, AND RESERVATIONS.]

Sec. 1797.

[Amended. Act April 28, 1902, c. 594.]

This section is amended by Act April 28, 1902, c. 594, to read as set forth below.

ACT APRIL 28, 1902, c. 594.
Amendment of Rev. St. § 1797.

Section seventeen hundred and ninety-seven of the Revised Statutes of the United States is hereby amended to read as follows:

Chief of Engineers to have charge of public buildings and grounds.

"Sec. 1797. That the Chief of Engineers shall have charge of the public buildings and grounds in the District of Columbia, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the President, through the War Department, except those buildings and grounds which are otherwise provided for by law; and when it shall be made to appear to the said Chief of Engineers, or to the officer under his direction having immediate charge of said public buildings and grounds, that any person or persons is in unlawful occupation of any portion of said public lands in the District of Columbia, it shall be the duty of said officer in charge thereof to notify the marshal of the District of Columbia in writing of such unlawful occupation, and the said marshal shall thereupon cause the said trespasser or trespassers to be ejected from said lands, and shall restore possession of the same to the officer charged by law with the custody thereof."

Act April 28, 1902, c. 594, 32 Stat. 152.

This is a provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

The use of public buildings, other than the Capitol and the White House, for public ceremonies is forbidden by a further provision of the same act, set forth below.

The temporary use of certain grounds and reservations for playgrounds may be authorized, by a provision of Act Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, re-enacted by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1007, set forth below.

The officer in charge of public buildings and grounds is authorized to assume control of the fish ponds in the Monument grounds, the ground around them and the buildings upon the same, when they are abandoned by the Bureau of Fisheries, by a provision of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3912, § 1, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1835.

The application of the rules prescribed by the Chief of Engineers, under Act July 1, 1898, c. 543, § 6, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1253, to the public grounds placed by that act under his charge, is extended to the sidewalks around and to carriageways between such grounds, by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1835.

A Commission of Fine Arts, whose duty it shall be to advise upon the location of statutes, fountains, and monuments in the public squares, streets, and parks in the District of Columbia, and upon the selection of models for such works and of artists for the execution of the same is established by Act May 17, 1910, c. 243, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1831.

Use of public buildings for ceremonies of inauguration of President or other public function forbidden.

That hereafter no public building, or the approaches thereto, other than the Capitol building and the White House, in the District of Columbia, shall be used or occupied in any manner whatever in connection with ceremonies attending the inauguration of President of the United States, or other public function, except as may hereafter be expressly authorized by law.

Act April 28, 1902, c. 594, 32 Stat. 152.

This is a further provision of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, cited above.

Sec. 1798.

Estimates and appropriations.

Restrictions on expenditure of appropriations for construction or equipment of executive or municipal buildings for production of electricity for light or power are contained in Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 9, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 9. [H. R. 25745.]

Restriction of expenditures for production of electricity, from appropriations for buildings.

No appropriation heretofore or hereafter made for the construction or equipment of any executive or municipal building in the District of Columbia shall be expended for the production of electricity for light or power, unless, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury, such necessary electric current for light and power can not be obtained at a less cost.

Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 9, 34 Stat. 1371.

This section is part of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

Sec. 1815.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 34.

Intoxicating liquors not to be sold in Capitol.

Sec. 34. That no intoxicating liquors of any character shall be sold within the limits of the Capitol building of the United States.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 34, 32 Stat. 1221.

This section is a part of an act to regulate immigration, cited above, other sections of which are repealed, and new provisions enacted instead thereof, by Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, set forth post, under Title XXIX, "Immigration."

Sec. 1816.

Repairs, etc., of Capitol.

The office of Architect of the Capitol is designated Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds by the provision of Act Feb. 14, 1902, c. 17, set forth below.

Further provisions relating to furniture for the House of Representatives, contained in Act April 28, 1902, c. 594, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1883, c. 143.

Estimates for improvements in Capitol Grounds.

Provisions for the enlargement of the Capitol Grounds by the acquisition of certain squares in the city of Washington, are made by the sundry civil appropriation acts for the fiscal years 1911 and 1912, Act June 25, 1910, c. 384, 36 Stat. 738, and Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, 36 Stat. 1414.

ACT FEB. 14, 1902, c. 17.

Superintendent of Capitol Building and Grounds; powers; appointment.

Hereafter the office of Architect of the Capitol shall be designated as Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds, and the Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds shall hereafter exercise all the power and authority heretofore exercised by the Architect of the Capitol, and he shall be appointed by the President: Provided, That no change in the architectural features of the Capitol building or in the landscape features of the Capitol grounds shall be made except on plans to be approved by Congress.

Act Feb. 14, 1902, c. 17, 32 Stat. 20.

This is a provision of the urgent deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1902, cited above.

The power and authority previously exercised by the Architect of the Capitol, which by this provision are to be exercised by the Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds, were conferred by Rev. St. § 1816, and subsequent provisions set forth under that section and Rev. St. § 1817, in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1236–1239.

Further powers in regard to furniture for the House of Representatives are conferred by the provision of Act April 28, 1902, c. 594, set forth below.

Power to transfer apparatus, appliances, etc., discontinued or permanently out of service, to other branches of the service of the United States or the District, is given by a provision of Act March 2, 1911, c. 192, § 9, set forth below.

Powers in regard to the construction and maintenance and operation of a heating, lighting, and power plant for the Capitol and other buildings, etc., are conferred by provisions of Act April 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1, and Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 1817.

Appropriations for various employés under the Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds are made by the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts each year. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1174.

ACT APRIL 28, 1902, c. 594.

Furniture for House of Representatives.

Hereafter the Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds shall supervise and direct the care and repair of all furniture in the Hall, cloakrooms, lobby, committee rooms, and offices of the House, and all furniture hereafter required for the House of Representatives or for any of its committee rooms or offices shall be procured on designs and specifications made or approved by the said Superintendent.

Joint Resolution to Enable the States of Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, and Michigan to Determine the Jurisdiction of Crimes Committed on Lake Michigan. (36 Stat. 882.)

Consent to agreement by States of Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, and Michigan, or any two or more of them, determining jurisdiction of offenses on Lake Michigan.

Resolved, &c., That the consent of the Congress of the United States is hereby given to the States of Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, and Michigan, or any two or more of them, by such agreement or compact as they may deem desirable or necessary or otherwise, not in conflict with the Constitution of the United States or any law thereof, to determine and settle the jurisdiction to be exercised by said States, respectively, over offenses arising out of the violation of the laws of any of said States upon the waters of Lake Michigan.

RES. FEB. 16, 1911, No. 6. [S. J. Res. 124.]

Joint Resolution Reaffirming the Boundary Line between Texas and the Territory of New Mexico. (36 Stat. 1454.)

Preamble.

Whereas the constitutional convention recently held in the Territory of New Mexico submitted for acceptance or rejection the draft of a proposed constitution for the State of New Mexico, to be voted upon by the voters of said proposed new State on the twenty-first day of January, nineteen hundred and eleven, which proposed constitution contains a clause attempting to annul and set aside the boundary lines heretofore legally run, marked, established, and ratified by the United States and the State of Texas, said lines between the Territory of New Mexico and the State of Texas having been run by John H. Clark, the boundary commissioner acting for the United States in eighteen hundred and fifty-nine and eighteen hundred and sixty, the said lines being now known and recognized as the Clark lines; and

Whereas the United States and the State of Texas have patented land based upon the Clark lines as the boundary between Texas and the Territory of New Mexico: Therefore be it

Boundary lines between Texas and New Mexico not affected by provision of proposed constitution for State of New Mexico.

Resolved, &c., That any provision of said proposed constitution that in any way tends to annul or change the boundary lines between the State of Texas and the Territory or State of New Mexcio shall be of no force or effect, but shall be construed so as not in any way to change, affect, or alter the said boundary lines known as the Clark lines and heretofore run and marked by him as a commissioner on the part of the United States and concurred in by the State of Texas, and the former ratification of said Clark lines by the United States by the Act approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and the State of Texas by the joint resolution passed March twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, shall be held and deemed a conclusive location and settlement of said boundary lines.

Res. Feb. 16, 1911, No. 6, § 1, 36 Stat. 1454.

Reestablishment of boundary lines established by Clark.

Sec. 2. That the President of the United States is hereby authorized, in conjunction with the State of Texas, to reestablish and remark the boundary lines heretofore established and marked by John H. Clark between New Mexico and the State of Texas, and for such purpose he is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint a commissioner, who, in conjunction with such commissioner as may be appointed by and on behalf of the State of Texas for the same purpose, shall re-mark the boundary between the Territory of New Mexico and the State of Texas as follows: Beginning at the point where the one hundred and third degree of longitude west from Greenwich intersects the parallel of thirty-six degrees and thirty minutes north latitude, as determined and fixed by John H. Clark, the commissioner on the part of the United States in the years eighteen hundred and fifty-nine and eighteen hundred and sixty; thence south with the line run by said Clark for the said one hundred and third degree of longitude to the thirty-second parallel of north latitude to the point marked by said Clark as the southeast corner of New Mexico; and thence west with the thirty-second degree of north latitude as determined by said Clark to the Rio Grande.

Res. Feb. 16, 1911, No. 6, § 2, 36 Stat. 1455.

Lines known as Clark lines declared true boundary; monuments, etc., to be re-marked, etc.

Sec. 3. That the part of the line run and marked by monuments along the thirty-second parallel of north latitude and that part of the line marked by monuments along the one hundred and third degree of longitude west from Greenwich, the same being the east and west and north and south lines between Texas and New Mexico, and run by authority of the Act of Congress approved June fifth, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, and known as the Clark lines, which said lines as run by said Clark have been confirmed, as aforesaid, by the Act of Congress approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and the joint resolution of the Legislature of Texas passed March twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, shall remain the true boundary lines of Texas and New Mexico: Provided, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners appointed under this Act to re-mark said old Clark monuments and line where they can be found and identified by the original monuments now on the ground, or where monuments are now missing or the lines can not be found but their original position can be shown by competent parol evidence or by the topographic maps or field notes made by said Clark, the monuments so found or their position so identified shall determine the true position and course of the boundary lines as marked by said Clark to the full extent of the survey made by him, and where no survey was actually originally made on said lines it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to run a straight line between the nearest points determined by the Clark map, field notes, and survey, and when said straight lines have been so run, marked, and agreed upon by the commissioners they shall thereafter form the true boundary lines.

Res. Feb. 16, 1911, § 3, 36 Stat. 1455.

Payment of expenses of carrying out purposes of act.

Sec. 4. That the sum of twenty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to carry out the purposes of this Act: Provided, That the person or persons appointed and employed on the part of the State of Texas shall be paid by the said State.

Res. Feb. 16, 1911, No. 6, § 4, 36 Stat. 1455.

Consent of Congress is given to each of the States to enter into an agreement or compact with any other State or States for the purpose of conserving the forests and the water supply, by Act March 1, 1911, c. 186, § 1, set forth post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 11, subc. "National Forest."

Provisions to enable the people of Oklahoma and of the Indian Territory to form a constitution and State government and be admitted into the Union as the State of Oklahoma, are contained in Act June 16, 1906, c. 3335, 34 Stat. 267.

Provisions for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona into the Union are contained in Act June 20, 1910, c. 310, 36 Stat. 557, and Res. Aug. 21, 1911, No. 8, 37 Stat. 39.

TITLE XXV.

CITIZENSHIP.

Sec. 1993.

Citizenship of children of citizens born abroad.

Further provisions relating to the protection of children born outside the limits of the United States who are citizens in accordance with the provisions of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1268, are contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 6, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 2000.

Sec. 1994.

Citizenship of married women.

Further provisions relating to the retention of the American citizenship of a foreign woman acquired by marriage to a citizen, as provided by this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1268, are contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 4, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 2000.

Sec. 1999.

Right of expatriation declared.

Provisions relating to expatriation of American citizens are contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 2, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 2000.

Sec. 2000.

Protection to naturalized citizens in foreign states.

Besides the provisions of this section and of Rev. St. § 2001, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1270, for protection of naturalized citizens in foreign countries, provisions for the issue of passports to and protection of persons who have made declaration of intention to become citizens, and as to when naturalized citizens residing abroad shall be presumed to have ceased to be American citizens, are contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2534. [H. R. 24122.]

An Act in Reference to the Expatriation of Citizens and Their Protection Abroad. (34 Stat. 1228.)

Issue of passports to and protection of persons having made declaration of intention to become citizens.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of State shall be authorized, in his discretion, to issue passports to persons not citizens of the United States as follows: Where any person has made a declaration of intention to become such a citizen as provided by law and has resided in the United States for three years a passport may be issued to him entitling him to the protection of the Government in any foreign country: Provided, That such passport shall not be valid for more than six months and shall not be renewed, and that such passport shall not entitle the holder to the protection of this Government in the country of which he was a citizen prior to making such declaration of intention.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 1, 34 Stat. 1228.

Previous provisions relating to issuance of passports are contained in Rev. St. §§ 4075–4078, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 2764, 2765.

Expatriation of citizens; presumption as to naturalized citizens residing in foreign state.

Sec. 2. That any American citizen shall be deemed to have expatriated himself when he has been naturalized in any foreign state in conformity with its laws, or when he has taken an oath of allegiance to any foreign state.

When any naturalized citizen shall have resided for two years in the foreign state from which he came, or for five years in any other foreign state it shall be presumed that he has ceased to be an American citizen, and the place of his general abode shall be deemed his place of residence during said years: Provided, however, That such presumption may be overcome on the presentation of satisfactory evidence to a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, under such rules and regulations as the Department of State may prescribe: And provided also, That no American citizen shall be allowed to expatriate himself when this country is at war.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 2, 34 Stat. 1228.

The right of expatriation is declared by Rev. St. § 1999, Comp. St 1901, p. 1269.

The cancellation of the certificate of citizenship of a naturalized citizen taking permanent residence in a foreign country is authorized by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 15, set forth post, under Title XXX, "Naturalization."

Citizenship of American women marrying foreigners.

Sec. 3. That any American woman who marries a foreigner shall take the nationality of her husband. At the termination of the marital relation she may resume her American citizenship, if abroad, by registering as an American citizen within one year with a consul of the United States, or by returning to reside in the United States, or, if residing in the United States at the termination of the marital relation, by continuing to reside therein.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 3, 34 Stat. 1228.

Citizenship of foreign women marrying citizens.

Sec. 4. That any foreign woman who acquires American citizenship by marriage to an American shall be assumed to retain the same after the termination of the marital relation if she continue to reside in the United States, unless she makes formal renunciation thereof before a court having jurisdiction to naturalize aliens, or if she resides abroad she may retain her citizenship by registering as such before a United States consul within one year after the termination of such marital relation.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 4, 34 Stat. 1229.

A woman married to a citizen, who might herself be lawfully naturalized, is to be deemed a citizen, by Rev. St. § 1994, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1268.

Citizenship of children, born abroad, of alien parents, by naturalization, etc., of parent during minority of child.

Sec. 5. That a child born without the United States of alien parents shall be deemed a citizen of the United States by virtue of the naturalization of or resumption of American citizenship by the parent: Provided, That such naturalization or resumption takes place during the minority of such child: And provided further, That the citizenship of such minor child shall begin at the time such minor child begins to reside permanently in the United States.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 5, 34 Stat. 1229.

Citizenship of children of citizens, born abroad, and continuing to reside abroad.

Sec. 6. That all children born outside the limits of the United States who are citizens thereof in accordance with the provisions of section nineteen hundred and ninety-three of the Revised Statutes of the United States and who continue to reside outside the United States shall, in order to receive the protection of this Government, be required upon reaching the age of eighteen years to record at an American consulate their intention to become residents and remain citizens of the United States and shall be further required to take the oath of allegiance to the United States upon attaining their majority.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 6, 34 Stat. 1229.

Rev. St. § 1993, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1268.

Duplicates of evidence, registration, etc., required by act, to be filed with Department of State.

Sec. 7. That duplicates of any evidence, registration, or other acts required by this Act shall be filed with the Department of State for record.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 7, 34 Stat. 1229.

TITLE XXVII.

THE FREEDMEN.

Sec. 2035.

[Repealed. Act July 1, 1902, c. 1351.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1276, is repealed by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1351, set forth below.

ACT JULY 1, 1902, c. 1351.

Repeal of Rev. St. § 2035; disposition of retained bounty fund.

Retained bounty fund: That section two thousand and thirty-five of the Revised Statutes is hereby repealed, and the unexpended balance of the fund formerly in the custody of the Freedmen's Bureau and referred to in said section is hereby covered into the Treasury as "Miscellaneous receipts": Provided, That upon application by parties entitled to any portion of the moneys so covered in, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay the amount found due in the same manner and from the same appropriation as claims for bounty to volunteer soldiers are now paid.

Act July 1, 1902, c. 1351, 32 Stat. 556.

This is a provision of the deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1902, cited above. Rev. St. § 2035, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1276, repealed by this provision, constituted the Secretary of War trustee of a retained bounty fund of certain colored soldiers. Further provisions relating to the fund are contained in Rev. St. §§ 2036, 2037, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1276, 1277.

Sec. 2038.

For the construction of the new Freedmen's Hospital building, as provided in the sundry civil appropriation acts approved March third, nineteen hundred and three, and April twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred and four, respectively, two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to enter into contract with the Board of Charities of the District of Columbia for the care and treatment of persons from the District of Columbia admitted to the Freedmen's Hospital; and any money that may be received, from this source, on and after July first, nineteen hundred and five, shall be paid to the Secretary of the Interior, to be applied to the uses and purposes of the hospital.

Hereafter estimates for expenses and maintenance of the Freedmen's Hospital and Asylum shall be submitted by the Secretary of the Interior.

That the sum of fifty thousand dollars, appropriated by the sundry civil appropriation Act approved March third, nineteen hundred and three, and sums hereafter appropriated under authority conveyed in said Act, for the construction of a new Freedmen's Hospital building and accessories shall be paid wholly from the Treasury of the United States, and any part of said sum or sums already expended from the revenues of the District of Columbia shall be reimbursed and credited to said revenues, and said appropriation shall be available during the fiscal year nineteen hundred and six.

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1190.

These are provisions of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above. The provisions of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, and of Act April 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1, referred to in this act, are set forth above.

Further appropriations for completion of the building, furniture, etc., are made by the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, Act March 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1331.

TITLE XXIX.

IMMIGRATION.

[REGULATION AND RESTRICTION OF IMMIGRATION IN GENERAL.]

The provisions of various acts relating to immigration, set forth under this subtitle in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1286–1305, were superseded almost entirely by the more comprehensive provisions of the same nature contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, 32 Stat. 1213. But that act, except section 34 thereof which relates to a different subject, is expressly repealed and the provisions of the repealed sections relating to immigration, with some changes and additions, are re-enacted in sections designated by the same numbers, respectively, by Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, set forth below.

Before said Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, the provisions for the execution of said previous acts by the Secretary of the Treasury, and for regulations, etc., to be prescribed by him, had been superseded by the transfer of the immigration service, and of jurisdiction and powers over immigration, from the Treasury Department to the Department of Commerce and Labor, by the act establishing that department, Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, §§ 4, 7, 10, set forth ante, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor." And the words "Secretary of the Treasury" wherever used in said Act March 3, 1903, or in amendments thereto, or in prior acts in relation to alien immigration, were stricken out, and the words "Secretary of Commerce and Labor" inserted in lieu thereof, by Res. April 28, 1904, No. 34, 33 Stat. 591.

The Commissioner-General of Immigration, the commissioners of immigration, the Bureau of Immigration, and the immigration service at large, are transferred from the Department of the Treasury to the Department of Commerce and Labor, and the jurisdiction, supervision, and control possessed and exercised by the Department of the Treasury over the immigration of aliens are also transferred and vested in the Department of Commerce and Labor, and all duties performed and all power and authority possessed or exercised by the head of any executive department in and over any bureau, office, etc., so transferred, or any business arising therefrom, etc., is to be vested in and exercised by the head of said Department of Commerce and Labor, by the act establishing that department, Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, §§ 4, 7, 10, ante, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

An appropriation similar to that in the paragraph of this act set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1304, is made in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for each subsequent fiscal year. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1230.

ACT APRIL 29, 1902, c. 641, § 3. [As amended 1904.]

Foreign exhibitors, etc., at fair or exposition authorized by Congress, not prevented from bringing into United States, under contract, employés for preparation for installing or conducting exhibits or business under concession or privilege.

That nothing in the provisions of this Act or any other Act shall be construed to prevent, hinder, or restrict any foreign exhibitor, representative, or citizen of any foreign nation, or the holder, who is a citizen of any foreign nation, of any concession or privilege from any fair or exposition authorized by Act of Congress from bringing into the United States, under contract, such mechanics, artisans, agents, or other employees, natives of their respective foreign countries, as they or any of them may deem necessary for the purpose of making preparation for installing or conducting their exhibits or of preparing for installing or conducting any business authorized or permitted under or by virtue of or pertaining to any concession or privilege which may have been or may be granted by any said fair or exposition in connection with such exposition, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may prescribe, both as to the admission and return of such person or persons.

Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 3, 32 Stat. 177, Res. April 28, 1904, No. 34, 33 Stat. 591.

This section is part of an act re-enacting, extending, and continuing all laws in force prohibiting and regulating the coming of Chinese persons and persons of Chinese descent into the United States, and the residence of such persons therein, cited above. Other sections of the act are set forth below, under the subtitle "Exclusion of Chinese."

This section as originally enacted is amended by Res. April 28, 1904, No. 34, cited above, by striking out the words "Secretary of the Treasury," used therein, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Secretary of Commerce and Labor," as set forth here.

ACT FEB. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1. [H. R. 15985.]

Refunding head tax erroneously collected.

* * That the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, shall have power to refund head tax heretofore and hereafter collected under section one of the immigration Act approved March third, nineteen hundred and three, upon presentation of evidence showing conclusively that such collection was erroneously made.

Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1, 33 Stat. 684.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for the Bureau of Immigration in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1906, cited above.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 1, mentioned in this section, authorizing the collection of head tax on alien passengers from foreign ports, is repealed, and similar provisions re-enacted by Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, §§ 1, 43, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 20, 1907, c. 1134. [S. 4403.]

An Act to Regulate the Immigration of Aliens into the United States. (34 Stat. 898.)

Tax on aliens entering United States; immigrant fund; lien on vessels; prevention of use of foreign passports to detriment of labor conditions in continental territory of United States.

Be it enacted, &c., That there shall be levied, collected, and paid a tax of four dollars for every alien entering the United States. The said tax shall be paid to the collector of customs of the port or customs district to which said alien shall come, or, if there be no collector at such port or district, then to the collector nearest thereto, by the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel, transportation line, or other conveyance or vehicle bringing such alien to the United States. The money thus collected, together with all fines and rentals collected under the laws regulating the immigration of aliens into the United States, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, and shall constitute a permanent appropriation to be called the "immigrant fund," to be used under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to defray the expense of regulating the immigration of aliens into the United States under said laws, including the contract labor laws, the cost of reports of decisions of the Federal courts, and digest thereof, for the use of the Commissioner-General of Immigration, and the salaries and expenses of all officers, clerks, and employees appointed to enforce said laws. The tax imposed by this section shall be a lien upon the vessel, or other vehicle of carriage or transportation bringing such aliens to the United States, and shall be a debt in favor of the United States against the owner or owners of such vessel, or other vehicle, and the payment of such tax may be enforced by any legal or equitable remedy. That the said tax shall not be levied upon aliens who shall enter the United States after an uninterrupted residence of at least one year, immediately preceding such entrance, in the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, the Republic of Cuba, or the Republic of Mexico, nor upon otherwise admissible residents of any possession of the United States, nor upon aliens in transit through the United States, nor upon aliens who have been lawfully admitted to the United States and who later shall go in transit from one part of the United States to another through foreign contiguous territory: Provided, That the Commissioner-General of Immigration, under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, by agreement with transportation lines, as provided in section thirty-two of this Act, may arrange in some other manner for the payment of the tax imposed by this section upon any or all aliens seeking admission from foreign contiguous territory: Provided further, That if in any fiscal year the amount of money collected under the provisions of this section shall exceed two million five hundred thousand dollars, the excess above that amount shall not be added to the "immigrant fund:" Provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to aliens arriving in Guam, Porto Rico, or Hawaii; but if any such alien, not having become a citizen of the United States, shall later arrive at any port or place of the United States on the North American Continent the provisions of this section shall apply: Provided further, That whenever the President shall be satisfied that passports issued by any foreign government to its citizens to go to any country other than the United States or to any insular possession of the United States or to the Canal Zone are being used for the purpose of enabling the holders to come to the continental territory of the United States to the detriment of labor conditions therein, the President may refuse to permit such citizens of the country issuing such passports to enter the continental territory of the United States from such other country or from such insular possessions or from the Canal Zone.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 1, 34 Stat. 898.

The last proviso of this section takes effect on the passage of the act, by section 44 of this act, set forth below.

Nothing in this act is to be construed as permitting an alien leaving the Isthmian Canal Zone to enter any other place under the jurisdiction of the United States under any other conditions than those applicable to all aliens, by a provision of section 33 of this act, set forth below.

All laws affecting entry of persons into the United States from foreign countries are to apply to persons coming from the Canal Zone, Isthmus of Panama, by Act March 2, 1905, c. 1311, set forth post, under Title XXXIII, "Duties upon Imports."

Previous provisions requiring payment of head-money for each alien passenger, similar to some extent to those of this section, were contained in Act Aug. 3, 1882, c. 376, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1288, Act June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 22, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1290, and Act Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1303, but were superseded by the provisions of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 1, 32 Stat. 1213, which are re-enacted substantially in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

The refunding of head tax erroneously collected under said Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 1, was authorized by a provision of Act Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1, set forth above.

The head tax collected under this section, together with all moneys received under the laws regulating the immigration of aliens, are to be covered into the Treasury to the credit of "miscellaneous receipts," instead of constituting the "immigrant fund," established by this section, by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, set forth below.

Classes of aliens excluded.

Sec. 2. That the following classes of aliens shall be excluded from admission into the United States: All idiots, imbeciles, feeble-minded persons, epileptics, insane persons, and persons who have been insane within five years previous; persons who have had two or more attacks of insanity at any time previously; paupers; persons likely to become a public charge; professional beggars; persons afflicted with tuberculosis or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease; persons not comprehended within any of the foregoing excluded classes who are found to be and are certified by the examining surgeon as being mentally or physically defective, such mental or physical defect being of a nature which may affect the ability of such alien to earn a living; persons who have been convicted of or admit having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; polygamists, or persons who admit their belief in the practice of polygamy; anarchists, or persons who believe in or advocate the overthrow by force or violence of the Government of the United States, or of all government, or of all forms of law, or the assassination of public officials; prostitutes, or women or girls coming into the United States for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose; persons who are supported by or receive in whole or in part the proceeds of prostitution; persons who procure or attempt to bring in prostitutes or women or girls for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose; persons hereinafter called contract laborers, who have been induced or solicited to migrate to this country by offers or promises of employment or in consequence of agreements, oral, written or printed, express or implied, to perform labor in this country of any kind, skilled or unskilled; those who have been, within one year from the date of application for admission to the United States, deported as having been induced or solicited to migrate as above described; any person whose ticket or passage is paid for with the money of another, or who is assisted by others to come, unless it is affirmatively and satisfactorily shown that such person does not belong to one of the foregoing excluded classes, and that said ticket or passage was not paid for by any corporation, association, society, municipality, or foreign government, either directly or indirectly; all children under sixteen years of age, unaccompanied by one or both of their parents, at the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor or under such regulations as he may from time to time prescribe: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall exclude, if otherwise admissible, persons convicted of an offense purely political, not involving moral turpitude: Provided further, That the provisions of this section relating to the payments for tickets or passage by any corporation, association, society, municipality, or foreign government shall not apply to the tickets or passage of aliens in immediate and continuous transit through the United States to foreign contiguous territory: And provided further, That skilled labor may be imported if labor of like kind unemployed can not be found in this country: And provided further, That the provisions of this law applicable to contract labor shall not be held to exclude professional actors, artists, lecturers, singers, ministers of any religious denomination, professors for colleges or seminaries, persons belonging to any recognized learned profession, or persons employed strictly as personal or domestic servants.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 2, 34 Stat. 898. Act March 26, 1910, c. 128, § 1, 36 Stat. 263.

The amendment of this section by Act March 26, 1910, c. 128, § 1, cited above, consists in the insertion of the words "persons who are supported by or receive in whole or in part the proceeds of prostitution."

Previous provisions defining the classes of aliens, other than Chinese, excluded from admission to the United States, were contained in Act March 3, 1875, c. 141, §§ 3, 5, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1286, 1287, Act Aug. 3, 1882, c. 376, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1289, Act Feb. 26, 1885, c. 164, §§ 1, 5, 6, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1290, 1292, and Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1294, but were superseded by the provisions of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 2, 32 Stat. 1214, which are re-enacted substantially in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

To prepay the transportation or to assist or encourage the importation or migration into the United States of any contract laborer not exempted under the last two provisos of this section, is a misdemeanor, by section 4 of this act, set forth below, and a penalty therefor is prescribed by section 5 of this act, also set forth below.

Any alien coming to this country in consequence of an advertisement of a promise of employment printed and published in a foreign country is to be treated as coming under a promise or agreement as contemplated in this section, by section 6 of this act, set forth below.

No person who disbelieves in or who is opposed to all organized government, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief or opposition, or who advocates, etc., the unlawful assaulting or killing of officers of government, is to be permitted to enter the United States or any Territory or place subject to the jurisdiction thereof, by section 38 of this act, set forth below.

Importation of aliens for prostitution or other immoral purpose forbidden; punishment; jurisdiction; deportation; punishment for attempt to return; deportation after expiration of sentence; testimony of husband or wife admissible.

Sec. 3. That the importation into the United States of any alien for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose is hereby forbidden; and whoever shall, directly or indirectly, import, or attempt to import, into the United States, any alien for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose, or whoever shall hold or attempt to hold any alien for any such purpose in pursuance of such illegal importation, or whoever shall keep, maintain, control, support, employ, or harbor in any house or other place, for the purpose of prostitution or for any other immoral purpose, in pursuance of such illegal importation, any alien, shall, in every such case be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof be imprisoned not more than ten years and pay a fine of not more than five thousand dollars. Jurisdiction for the trial and punishment of the felonies hereinbefore set forth shall be in any district to or into which said alien is brought in pursuance of said importation by the person or persons accused, or in any district in which a violation of any of the foregoing provisions of this section occur. Any alien who shall be found an inmate of or connected with the management of a house of prostitution or practicing prostitution after such alien shall have entered the United States, or who shall receive, share in, or derive benefit from any part of the earnings of any prostitute; or who is employed by, in, or in connection with any house of prostitution or music or dance hall or other place of amusement or resort habitually frequented by prostitutes, or where prostitutes gather, or who in any way assists, protects, or promises to protect from arrest any prostitute, shall be deemed to be unlawfully within the United States and shall be deported in the manner provided by sections twenty and twenty-one of this Act. That any alien who shall, after he has been debarred or deported in pursuance of the provisions of this section, attempt thereafter to return to or to enter the United States shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be imprisoned for not more than two years. Any alien who shall be convicted under any of the provisions of this section shall, at the expiration of his sentence, be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came, or of which he is a subject or a citizen in the manner provided in sections twenty and twenty-one of this Act. In all prosecutions under this section the testimony of a husband or wife shall be admissible and competent evidence against a wife or husband.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 3, 34 Stat. 899. Act March 26, 1910, c. 128, § 2, 36 Stat. 264.

Previous provisions similar, to some extent, to those of this section, were contained in Act March 3, 1875, c. 141, § 3, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1286, but were superseded by the provisions of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 3, 32 Stat. 1214, which are re-enacted, with some additions, in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Prepaying transportation or assisting, etc., importation or migration of contract laborers a misdemeanor.

Sec. 4. That it shall be a misdemeanor for any person, company, partnership, or corporation, in any manner whatsoever, to prepay the transportation or in any way to assist or encourage the importation or migration of any contract laborer or contract laborers into the United States, unless such contract laborer or contract laborers are exempted under the terms of the last two provisos contained in section two of this Act.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 4, 34 Stat. 900.

A previous provision similar to that of this section was contained in Act Feb. 26, 1885, c. 164, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1290, but was superseded by the provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 4, 32 Stat. 1214, which is re-enacted, with some change, in this section, and is repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

A penalty for the violation of the provisions of this section is imposed by section 5 of this act, set forth below.

Assisting or encouraging the importation or migration of any alien by a promise of employment through advertisement printed and published in any foreign country is to be deemed a violation of this section, and the penalties imposed by section 5 are applicable to such a case, by section 6 of this act, set forth below. And the soliciting of immigration by transportation companies, owners of vessels, etc., except as permitted, is also subjected to the same penalties, by section 7 of this act, also set forth below.

Penalty for violations of provisions.

Sec. 5. That for every violation of any of the provisions of section four of this Act the persons, partnership, company, or corporation violating the same, by knowingly assisting, encouraging, or soliciting the migration or importation of any contract laborer into the United States shall forfeit and pay for every such offense the sum of one thousand dollars, which may be sued for and recovered by the United States, or by any person who shall first bring his action therefor in his own name and for his own benefit, including any such alien thus promised labor or service of any kind as aforesaid, as debts of like amount are now recovered in the courts of the United States; and separate suits may be brought for each alien thus promised labor or service of any kind as aforesaid. And it shall be the duty of the district attorney of the proper district to prosecute every such suit when brought by the United States.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 5, 34 Stat. 900.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act Feb. 26, 1885, c. 164, § 3, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1291, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 5, 32 Stat. 1214, which are re-enacted, substantially, in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

The penalties imposed by this section are made applicable to assisting or encouraging the importation or migration of any alien by promise of employment through advertisements in any foreign country, by section 6 of this act, set forth below.

Advertisements, etc., promising employment to aliens; penalties.

Sec. 6. That it shall be unlawful and be deemed a violation of section four of this Act to assist or encourage the importation or migration of any alien by promise of employment through advertisements printed and published in any foreign country; and any alien coming to this country in consequence of such an advertisement shall be treated as coming under promise or agreement as contemplated in section two of this Act, and the penalties imposed by section five of this Act shall be applicable to such a case: Provided, That this section shall not apply to States or Territories, the District of Columbia, or places subject to the jurisdiction of the United States advertising the inducements they offer for immigration thereto, respectively.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 6, 34 Stat. 900.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 3, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1295, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 6, 32 Stat. 1215, which are re-enacted in this section, and are repealed in section 43 of this act, set forth below.

The soliciting of immigration by transportation companies, owners of vessels, etc., except as permitted, is subjected to the penalties imposed by this section, by section 7 of this act, set forth below.

Solicitation of immigration by transportation companies, owners of vessels, etc.; penalties.

Sec. 7. That no transportation company or owner or owners of vessels, or others engaged in transporting aliens into the United States, shall, directly or indirectly, either by writing, printing, or oral representation, solicit, invite, or encourage the immigration of any aliens into the United States, but this shall not be held to prevent transportation companies from issuing letters, circulars, or advertisements, stating the sailings of their vessels and terms and facilities of transportation therein; and for a violation of this provision, any such transportation company, and any such owner or owners of vessels, and all others engaged in transporting aliens into the United States, and the agents by them employed, shall be severally subjected to the penalties imposed by section five of this Act.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 7, 34 Stat. 900.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 4, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1296, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 7, 32 Stat. 1215, which are re-enacted substantially in this section, and are repealed in section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Bringing into or landing in United States aliens not duly admitted or not entitled to enter, punishable.

Sec. 8. That any person, including the master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel, who shall bring into or land in the United States, by vessel or otherwise, or who shall attempt, by himself or through another, to bring into or land in the United States, by vessel or otherwise, any alien not duly admitted by an immigrant inspector or not lawfully entitled to enter the United States shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment for each and every alien so landed or brought in or attempted to be landed or brought in.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 8, 34 Stat. 900.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 6, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1296, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 8, which are re-enacted substantially in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Bringing into United States aliens subject to disability or afflicted with tuberculosis or loathsome or dangerous contagious disease.

Sec. 9. That it shall be unlawful for any person, including any transportation company other than railway lines entering the United States from foreign contiguous territory, or the owner, master, agent, or consignee of any vessel to bring to the United States any alien subject to any of the following disabilities: Idiots, imbeciles, epileptics, or persons afflicted with tuberculosis or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor that any alien so brought to the United States was afflicted with any of the said diseases or disabilities at the time of foreign embarkation and that the existence of such disease or disability might have been detected by means of a competent medical examination at such time, such person or transportation company, or the master, agent, owner, or consignee of any such vessel shall pay to the collector of customs of the customs district in which the port of arrival is located the sum of one hundred dollars for each and every violation of the provisions of this section; and no vessel shall be granted clearance papers pending the determination of the question of the liability to the payment of such fine, and in the event such fine is imposed, while it remains unpaid, nor shall such fine be remitted or refunded: Provided, That clearance may be granted prior to the determination of such questions upon the deposit of a sum sufficient to cover such fine and costs, such sum to be named by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 9, 34 Stat. 901.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 9, 32 Stat. 1215, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

The decision of the board of special inquiry provided for by section 25 of this act, set forth below, is made final as to the rejection of aliens under this section, by section 10 of this act, also set forth below.

Decision of board of special inquiry final as to aliens affected with tuberculosis, or with loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or with mental or physical disability.

Sec. 10. That the decision of the board of special inquiry, hereinafter provided for, based upon the certificate of the examining medical officer, shall be final as to the rejection of aliens affected with tuberculosis or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or with any mental or physical disability which would bring such aliens within any of the classes excluded from admission to the United States under section two of this Act.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 10, 34 Stat. 901.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 10, 32 Stat. 1216, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

The appointment or designation of the board of special inquiry mentioned in this section, their authority and proceedings, and the review of their decisions, are provided for and prescribed by section 25 of this act, but nothing contained therein is to be construed to admit of any appeal in the case of an alien rejected as provided for in this section, by a proviso to said section, set forth below.

Exclusion of alien accompanying rejected helpless alien requiring protection.

Sec. 11. That upon the certificate of a medical officer of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service to the effect that a rejected alien is helpless from sickness, mental or physical disability, or infancy, if such alien is accompanied by another alien, whose protection or guardianship is required by such rejected alien, such accompanying alien may also be excluded, and the master, agent, owner, or consignee of the vessel in which such alien and accompanying alien are brought shall be required to return said alien and accompanying alien in the same manner as vessels are required to return other rejected aliens.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 11, 34 Stat. 901.

Provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 11, 32 Stat. 1216, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Lists of alien passengers arriving or departing to be delivered by masters of vessels; description and statements in lists; disposition of lists.

Sec. 12. That upon the arrival of any alien by water at any port within the United States it shall be the duty of the master or commanding officer of the steamer, sailing or other vessel having said alien on board to deliver to the immigration officers at the port of arrival lists or manifests made at the time and place of embarkation of such alien on board such steamer or vessel, which shall, in answer to questions at the top of said list, state as to each alien the full name, age, and sex; whether married or single; the calling or occupation; whether able to read or write; the nationality; the race; the last residence; the name and address of the nearest relative in the country from which the alien came; the seaport for landing in the United States; the final destination, if any, beyond the port of landing; whether having a ticket through to such final destination; whether the alien has paid his own passage, or whether it has been paid by any other person or by any corporation, society, municipality, or government, and if so, by whom; whether in possession of fifty dollars, and if less, how much; whether going to join a relative or friend, and if so, what relative or friend, and his or her name and complete address; whether ever before in the United States, and if so, when and where; whether ever in prison or almshouse or an institution or hospital for the care and treatment of the insane or supported by charity; whether a polygamist; whether an anarchist; whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, and what is the alien's condition of health, mental and physical, and whether deformed or crippled, and if so, for how long and from what cause; that it shall further be the duty of the master or commanding officer of every vessel taking alien passengers out of the United States, from any port thereof, to file before departure therefrom with the collector of customs of such port a complete list of all such alien passengers taken on board. Such list shall contain the name, age, sex, nationality, residence in the United States, occupation, and the time of last arrival of every such alien in the United States, and no master of any such vessel shall be granted clearance papers for his vessel until he has deposited such list or lists with the collector of customs at the port of departure and made oath that they are full and complete as to the name and other information herein required concerning each alien taken on board his vessel; and any neglect or omission to comply with the requirements of this section shall be punishable as provided in section fifteen of this Act. That the collector of customs with whom any such list has been deposited in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall promptly notify the Commissioner-General of Immigration that such list has been deposited with him as provided, and shall make such further disposition thereof as may be required by regulations to be issued by the Commissioner-General of Immigration with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor: Provided, That in the case of vessels making regular trips to ports of the United States the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, may, when expedient, arrange for the delivery of such lists of outgoing aliens at a later date: Provided further, That it shall be the duty of the master or commanding officer of any vessel sailing from ports in the Philippine Islands, Guam, Porto Rico, or Hawaii to any port of the United States on the North American Continent to deliver to the immigration officers at the port of arrival lists or manifests made at the time and place of embarkation, giving the names of all aliens on board said vessel.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 12, 34 Stat. 901.

Previous provisions similar to those of the first part of this section relating to lists of passengers arriving by water were contained in Act March 3, 1893, c. 206, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1300, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 12, 32 Stat. 1216, which are reenacted, with additions, in this section, and are repealed in section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Further provisions relating to the lists or manifests required by this section are contained in sections 13 and 14 of this act, set forth below; and a penalty for failure to deliver such lists or manifests is prescribed by section 15 of this act, mentioned in this section, also set forth below.

Until the provisions of this section are made applicable to passengers going to Canada by land carriage, they are not to apply to passengers going by vessels employed exclusively in trade between the United States and Canada and Mexico, by Act March 4, 1909, c. 305, set forth below.

Grouping of alien passengers in lists; identification tickets; verification of lists and certificate of medical examination by officer of vessel.

Sec. 13. That all aliens arriving by water at the ports of the United States shall be listed in convenient groups, and no one list or manifest shall contain more than thirty names. To each alien or head of a family shall be given a ticket on which shall be written his name, a number or letter designating the list in which his name, and so forth, is contained, and his number on said list, for convenience of identification on arrival. Each list or manifest shall be verified by the signature and the oath or affirmation of the master or commanding officer, or the first or second below him in command, taken before an immigration officer at the port of arrival, to the effect that he has caused the surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith to make a physical and oral examination of each of said aliens, and that from the report of said surgeon and from his own investigation he believes that no one of said aliens is an idiot, or imbecile, or a feeble-minded person, or insane person, or a pauper, or is likely to become a public charge, or is afflicted with tuberculosis or with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or is a person who has been convicted of, or who admits having committed a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or is a polygamist or one admitting belief in the practice of polygamy, or an anarchist, or under promise or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, or a prostitute, or a woman or girl coming to the United States for the purpose of prostitution, or for any other immoral purpose, and that also, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, the information in said lists or manifests concerning each of said aliens named therein is correct and true in every respect.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 13, 34 Stat. 902.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 206, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1301, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 13, which are re-enacted, with additions, in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Verification of the lists or manifests by the surgeon of the vessel is also required by section 14 of this act, set forth below.

Verification of lists by surgeon of vessel.

Sec. 14. That the surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith shall also sign each of said lists or manifests and make oath or affirmation in like manner before an immigration officer at the port of arrival, stating his professional experience and qualifications as a physician and surgeon, and that he has made a personal examination of each of the said aliens named therein, and that the said list or manifest, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, is full, correct, and true in all particulars relative to the mental and physical condition of said aliens. If no surgeon sails with any vessel bringing aliens the mental and physical examinations and the verifications of the lists or manifests shall be made by some competent surgeon employed by the owners of the said vessel.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 14, 34 Stat. 903.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1893, c. 206, § 3, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1301, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 14, 32 Stat. 1217, which are re-enacted in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Failure to furnish lists of alien passengers; penalty.

Sec. 15. That in the case of the failure of the master or commanding officer of any vessel to deliver to the said immigration officers lists or manifests of all aliens on board thereof as required in sections twelve, thirteen, and fourteen of this Act, he shall pay to the collector of customs at the port of arrival the sum of ten dollars for each alien concerning whom the above information is not contained in any list as aforesaid: Provided, That in the case of failure without good cause to deliver the list of passengers required by section twelve of this Act from the master or commanding officer of every vessel taking alien passengers out of the United States, the penalty shall be paid to the collector of customs at the port of departure and shall be a fine of ten dollars for each alien not included in said list; but in no case shall the aggregate fine exceed one hundred dollars.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 15, 34 Stat. 903.

Previous provisions similar in part to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1893, c. 206, § 4, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1301, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 15, 32 Stat. 1217, which are re-enacted in this section with the addition of the proviso at the end of the section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Inspection of alien passengers upon arrival.

Sec. 16. That upon the receipt by the immigration officers at any port of arrival of the lists or manifests of incoming aliens provided for in sections twelve, thirteen, and fourteen of this Act it shall be the duty of said officers to go or send competent assistants to the vessel to which said lists or manifests refer, and there inspect all such aliens, or said immigration officers may order a temporary removal of such aliens for examination at a designated time and place, but such temporary removal shall not be considered a landing, nor shall it relieve the transportation lines, masters, agents, owners, or consignees of the vessel upon which such aliens are brought to any port of the United States from any of the obligations which, in case such aliens remain on board, would, under the provisions of this Act, bind the said transportation lines, masters, agents, owners, or consignees: Provided, That where a suitable building is used for the detention and examination of aliens the immigration officials shall there take charge of such aliens, and the transportation companies, masters, agents, owners, and consignees of the vessels bringing such aliens shall be relieved of the responsibility for their detention thereafter until the return of such aliens to their care.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 16, 34 Stat. 903.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section and the two sections of this act next following were contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1298, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, §§ 16–18, 32 Stat. 1217, which are reenacted substantially in sections 16–18 of this act, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Medical examination of alien passengers.

Sec. 17. That the physical and mental examination of all arriving aliens shall be made by medical officers of the United States Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service, who shall have had at least two years' experience in the practice of their profession since receiving the degree of doctor of medicine and who shall certify for the information of the immigration officers and the boards of special inquiry hereinafter provided for, any and all physical and mental defects or diseases observed by said medical officers in any such alien, or, should medical officers of the United States Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service be not available, civil surgeons of not less than four years' professional experience may be employed in such emergency for such service, upon such terms as may be prescribed by the Commissioner-General of Immigration under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor. The United States Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service shall be reimbursed by the immigration service for all expenditures incurred in carrying out the medical inspection of aliens under regulations of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 17, 34 Stat. 903.

See note under preceding section of this act.

The detail of surgeons, in accordance with the provisions of this section, for service in foreign countries, is authorized by section 22 of this act, set forth below.

The provision of this section requiring reimbursement by the immigration fund for expenses of medical inspection of aliens is repealed by a provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, set forth below.

Owners, officers, etc., of vessel or transportation line bringing alien to prevent landing at time or place other than as designated; negligent failure to comply with requirements punishable; alien unlawfully landed to be deported.

Sec. 18. That it shall be the duty of the owners, officers, or agents of any vessel or transportation line, other than those railway lines which may enter into a contract as provided in section thirty-two of this Act, bringing an alien to the United States to prevent the landing of such alien in the United States at any time or place other than as designated by the immigration officers, and the negligent failure of any such owner, officer, or agent to comply with the foregoing requirements shall be deemed a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine in each case of not less than one hundrd nor more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and every such alien so landed shall be deemed to be uniawfully in the United States and shall be deported as provided in sections twenty and twenty-one of this Act.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 18, 34 Stat. 904.

See note under section 16 of this act.

Aliens who enter the United States except at seaports or places which the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may designate are to be adjudged to have entered the country unlawfully, and to be deported, by provisions of section 36 of this act, set forth below.

Immediate deportation of alien unlawfully brought to this country; cost of maintenance and return; refusal to receive back on vessel or to pay cost, punishable; suspension of deportation of alien whose testimony is necessary in prosecution; aliens excluded as diseased not to be landed for medical treatment.

Sec. 19. That all aliens brought to this country in violation of law shall, if practicable, be immediately sent back to the country whence they respectively came on the vessels bringing them. The cost of their maintenance while on land, as well as the expense of the return of such aliens, shall be borne by the owner or owners of the vessels on which they respectively came; and if any master, person in charge, agent, owner, or consignee of any such vessel shall refuse to receive back on board thereof, or on board of any other vessel owned or operated by the same interests, such aliens, or shall fail to detain them thereon, or shall refuse or fail to return them to the foreign port from which they came, or to pay the cost of their maintenance while on land, or shall make any charge for the return of any such alien, or shall take any security from him for the payment of such charge, such master, person in charge, agent, owner, or consignee shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than three hundred dollars for each and every such offense; and no vessel shall have clearance from any port of the United States while any such fine is unpaid: Provided, That the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, may suspend, upon conditions to be prescribed by the Commissioner-General of Immigration, the deportation of any alien found to have come in violation of any provision of this Act, if, in his judgment, the testimony of such alien is necessary on behalf of the United States Government in the prosecution of offenders against any provision of this Act: Provided, That the cost of maintenance of any person so detained resulting from such suspension of deportation shall be paid from the "immigrant fund" but no alien certified, as provided in section seventeen of this Act, to be suffering from tuberculosis or from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease other than one of quarantinable nature shall be permitted to land for medical treatment thereof in any hospital in the United States, unless with the express permission of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor: Provided, That upon the certificate of a medical officer of the United States Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service to the effect that the health or safety of an insane alien would be unduly imperiled by immediate deportation, such alien may, at the expense of the "immigrant fund," be held for treatment until such time as such alien may, in the opinion of such medical officer, be safely deported.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 19, 34 Stat. 904.

Provisions similar to those of this section preceding the three provisos annexed thereto were contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 10, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1299, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 19, 32 Stat. 1218, which are re-enacted, with additions, in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

A previous provision for payment of expenses incident to the detention of aliens ordered deported, whose attendance as witnesses for the United States in prosecutions under the immigration laws is required, contained in Act March 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1, 33 Stat. 1244, may be regarded as superseded by the second proviso of this section.

Deportation of aliens entering United States in violation of law or becoming public charges; payment of expense of deportation; bond for release of alien pending disposal of case.

Sec. 20. That any alien who shall enter the United States in violation of law, and such as become public charges from causes existing prior to landing, shall, upon the warrant of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, be taken into custody and deported to the country whence he came at any time within three years after the date of his entry into the United States. Such deportation, including one-half of the entire cost of removal to the port of deportation, shall be at the expense of the contractor, procurer, or other person by whom the alien was unlawfully induced to enter the United States, or, if that can not be done, then the cost of removal to the port of deportation shall be at the expense of the "immigrant fund" provided for in section one of this Act, and the deportation from such port shall be at the expense of the owner or owners of such vessel or transportation line by which such aliens respectively came: Provided, That pending the final disposal of the case of any alien so taken into custody he may be released under a bond in the penalty of not less than five hundred dollars with security approved by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, conditioned that such alien shall be produced when required for a hearing or hearings in regard to the charge upon which he has been taken into custody, and for deportation if he shall be found to be unlawfully within the United States.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 20, 34 Stat. 904.

Previous provisions similar to some extent to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 11, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1299, but were superseded by those of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 20, 32 Stat. 1218, which are re-enacted, with alterations and additions, in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Further provisions for deportation, as provided in this section, of an alien found in the United States in violation of law, within three years after arrival, are contained in the next following section of this act.

Deportation of alien found in United States in violation of law, etc.; failure or refusal of masters, agents, owners, or consignees of vessels to comply with order for deportation punishable; aliens requiring personal care and attendance.

Sec. 21. That in case the Secretary of Commerce and Labor shall be satisfied that an alien has been found in the United States in violation of this Act, or that an alien is subject to deportation under the provisions of this Act or of any law of the United States, he shall cause such alien within the period of three years after landing or entry therein to be taken into custody and returned to the country whence he came, as provided by section twenty of this Act, and a failure or refusal on the part of the masters, agents, owners, or consignees of vessels to comply with the order of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to take on board, guard safely, and return to the country whence he came any alien ordered to be deported under the provisions of this Act shall be punished by the imposition of the penalties prescribed in section nineteen of this Act: Provided, That when in the opinion of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor the mental or physical condition of such alien is such as to require personal care and attendance, he may employ a suitable person for that purpose, who shall accompany such alien to his or her final destination, and the expense incident to such service shall be defrayed in like manner.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 21, 34 Stat. 905.

Provisions similar to some extent to those of this section which precede the proviso at the end thereof were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 21, 32 Stat. 1218, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Provisions for deportation of any alien found an inmate, etc., of a house of prostitution, or practicing prostitution, after entering the United States, or receiving, etc., any part of the earnings of any prostitute, or employed by or in, etc., any house of prostitution, or music or dance hall, etc., frequented by prostitutes, are contained in section 3 of this act, as amended by Act March 26, 1910, c. 128, § 2, set forth above.

Provisions for deportation of any alien landed at any time or place other than as designated by the immigration officers are contained in section 18 of this act, set forth above.

Further provisions for deportation of aliens entering the United States except at seaports or places which the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may designate are contained in section 36 of this act, set forth below.

The ports to which aliens arrested within the United States after entry, and found to be illegally therein, may be deported, are prescribed by section 35 of this act, set forth below.

Commissioner-General of Immigration; duties and powers.

Sec. 22. That the Commissioner-General of Immigration, in addition to such other duties as may by law be assigned to him, shall, under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, have charge of the administration of all laws relating to the immigration of aliens into the United States, and shall have the control, direction, and supervision of all officers, clerks, and employees appointed thereunder. He shall establish such rules and regulations, prescribe such forms of bond, reports, entries, and other papers, and shall issue from time to time such instructions, not inconsistent with law, as he shall deem best calculated for carrying out the provisions of this Act and for protecting the United States and aliens migrating thereto from fraud and loss, and shall have authority to enter into contract for the support and relief of such aliens as may fall into distress or need public aid; all under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor. And it shall be the duty of the Commissioner-General of Immigration to detail officers of the immigration service from time to time as may be necessary, in his judgment, to secure information as to the number of aliens detained in the penal, reformatory, and charitable institutions (public and private) of the several States and Territories, the District of Columbia, and other territory of the United States and to inform the officers of such institutions of the provisions of law in relation to the deportation of aliens who have become public charges: Provided, That the Commissioner-General of Immigration may, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, whenever in his judgment such action may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Act, detail immigration officers, and also surgeons, in accordance with the provisions of section seventeen, for service in foreign countries.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 22, 34 Stat. 905.

Provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 22, 32 Stat. 1219, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

The office of Superintendent of Immigration was created and provided for and its duties defined by Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 7, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1297, and the designation was changed to Commissioner-General of Immigration, and additional duties prescribed and other provisions relating to the office made by provisions of Act March 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, and of Act June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1304, 1305.

Provisions for the printing of the annual reports of the Bureau of Immigration are contained in Res. March 3, 1905, No. 33, set forth post, under Title XLV, "Public Printing, Advertisements, and Public Documents."

The Commissioner-General of Immigration is designated as the authority of the United States to receive and centralize information concerning the procuration of alien women and girls with a view to their debauchery, and his duties in that regard are prescribed, in pursuance of the international agreement for the suppression of the white slave traffic, by provisions of the "White Slave Traffic Act," Act June 25, 1910, c. 395, § 6, set forth post, under Title LVI A, "Regulation of Interstate and Foreign Commerce," c. 2, "Regulation of Means of Transportation."

Commissioners of immigration; duties.

Sec. 23. That the duties of the commissioners of immigration shall be of an administrative character, to be prescribed in detail by regulations prepared, under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 23, 34 Stat. 906.

A provision in the same language as that of this section was contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 23, 32 Stat. 1219, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

The mode of appointment of commissioners of immigration is prescribed by a provision of Act Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1304, and is not altered by anything contained in this act, by a provision of the next following section.

Immigrant inspectors and other officers, etc.; appointment, compensation, etc.; duties and powers of immigration officers; decisions.

Sec. 24. That immigrant inspectors and other immigration officers, clerks, and employees shall hereafter be appointed, and their compensation fixed and raised or decreased from time to time by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner-General of Immigration and in accordance with the provisions of the civil-service Act of January sixteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three: Provided, That said Secretary, in the enforcement of that portion of this Act which excludes contract laborers, may employ, without reference to the provisions of the said civil service Act, or to the various Acts relative to the compilation of the official register, such persons as he may deem advisable and from time to time fix, raise, or decrease their compensation. He may draw from the "immigrant fund" annually fifty thousand dollars or as much thereof as may be necessary, to be expended for the salaries and expenses of persons so employed and for expenses incident to such employment; and the accounting officers of the Treasury shall pass to the credit of the proper disbursing officer expenditures from said sum without itemized account whenever the Secretary of Commerce and Labor certifies that an itemized account would not be for the best interests of the Government: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter the mode of appointing commissioners of immigration at the several ports of the United States as provided by the sundry civil appropriation Act approved August eighteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, or the official status of such commissioners heretofore appointed. Immigration officers shall have power to administer oaths and to take and consider evidence touching the right of any alien to enter the United States, and, where such action may be necessary, to make a written record of such evidence; and any person to whom such an oath has been administered under the provisions of this Act who shall knowingly or willfully give false evidence or swear to any false statement in any way affecting or in relation to the right of an alien to admission to the United States shall be deemed guilty of perjury and be punished as provided by section fifty-three hundred and ninety-two, United States Revised Statutes. The decision of any such officer, if favorable to the admission of any alien, shall be subject to challenge by any other immigration officer, and such challenge shall operate to take the alien whose right to land is so challenged before a board of special inquiry for its investigation. Every alien who may not appear to the examining immigrant inspector at the port of arrival to be clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to land shall be detained for examination in relation thereto by a board of special inquiry.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 24, 33 Stat. 906.

The provisions of the civil service act of Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, mentioned in this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1217–1224.

The provision of the sundry civil appropriation act of Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, as to the mode of appointing commissioners of immigration, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1304.

The provisions of Rev. St. § 5392, mentioned in this section, defining and punishing perjury, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 3653, are in great part re-enacted in Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, § 125, and the section is expressly repealed by section 341 of that act, which is set forth post, under Title LXIX A, "The Criminal Code."

Previous provisions for inspection of immigrants by inspecting officers were contained in Act March 3, 1875, c. 141, § 5, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1287, Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1298, Act March 3, 1893, c. 206, §§ 1–5, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1300–1302, and Act Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1303.

Previous provisions relating to decisions of inspection officers and other immigration officers, and review thereof, were contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1298, and Act Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1303.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section, except the first proviso thereto, were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 24, 32 Stat. 1219, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Appropriations for expenses of regulating immigration, including the enforcement of the provisions of this act, are made in the annual sundry civil appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1442.

Boards of special inquiry; appointment or designation; authority; hearings; records, decisions, and appeals.

Sec. 25. That such boards of special inquiry shall be appointed by the commissioner of immigration at the various ports of arrival as may be necessary for the prompt determination of all cases of immigrants detained at such ports under the provisions of law. Each board shall consist of three members, who shall be selected from such of the immigrant officials in the service as the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, shall from time to time designate as qualified to serve on such boards: Provided, That at ports where there are fewer than three immigrant inspectors, the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner-General of Immigration, may designate other United States officials for service on such boards of special inquiry. Such boards shall have authority to determine whether an alien who has been duly held shall be allowed to land or shall be deported. All hearings before boards shall be separate and apart from the public, but the said board shall keep a complete permanent record of their proceedings and of all such testimony as may be produced before them; and the decision of any two members of a board shall prevail, but either the alien or any dissenting member of the said board may appeal through the commissioner of immigration at the port of arrival and the Commissioner-General of Immigration to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, and the taking of such appeal shall operate to stay any action in regard to the final disposal of any alien whose case is so appealed until the receipt by the commissioner of immigration at the port of arrival of such decision which shall be rendered solely upon the evidence adduced before the board of special inquiry: Provided, That in every case where an alien is excluded from admission into the United States, under any law or treaty now existing or hereafter made, the decision of the appropriate immigration officers, if adverse to the admission of such alien, shall be final, unless reversed on appeal to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor; but nothing in this section shall be construed to admit of any appeal in the case of an alien rejected as provided for in section ten of this Act.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 25, 34 Stat. 906.

Previous provisions for review of decisions of immigration officers were contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1298, and Act Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1303.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section, except those contained in the proviso thereto, were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 25, 32 Stat. 1220, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Admission of aliens liable to be excluded, on giving bond of indemnity against becoming public charge; suits on bonds.

Sec. 26. That any alien liable to be excluded because likely to become a public charge or because of physical disability other than tuberculosis or a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease may, if otherwise admissible, nevertheless be admitted in the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor upon the giving of a suitable and proper bond or undertaking, approved by said Secretary in such amount and containing such conditions as he may prescribe, to the people of the United States, holding the United States or any State, Territory, county, municipality, or district thereof harmless against such alien becoming a public charge. The admission of such alien shall be a consideration for the giving of such bond or undertaking. Suit may be brought thereon in the name and by the proper law officers either of the United States Government or of any State, Territory, district, county, or municipality in which such alien becomes a public charge.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 26, 34 Stat. 906.

A previous provision relating to bonds of indemnity against aliens becoming public charges was contained in Act March 3, 1893, c. 206, § 7, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1302, but was superseded by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 26, which is repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Compromise of suits for violations of act.

Sec. 27. That no suit or proceeding for a violation of the provisions of this Act shall be settled, compromised, or discontinued without the consent of the court in which it is pending, entered of record, with the reasons therefor.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 27, 34 Stat. 907.

A previous similar provision, relating to violations of Act Feb. 26, 1885, c. 164, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1290–1294, was contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1295, but was superseded by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 27, 32 Stat. 1220, which is re-enacted in the same language in this section, and is repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Pending prosecutions or other proceedings, etc., under previous acts, not affected by act.

Sec. 28. That nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to affect any prosecution, suit, action, or proceedings brought, or any act, thing, or matter, civil or criminal, done or existing at the time of the taking effect of this Act; but as to all such prosecutions, suits, actions, proceedings, acts, things, or matters the laws or parts of laws repealed or amended by this Act are hereby continued in force and effect.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 28, 34 Stat. 907.

A similar provision relating to Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, was contained in section 28 of that act, 32 Stat. 1220, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Jurisdiction of courts.

Sec. 29. That the circuit and district courts of the United States are hereby invested with full and concurrent jurisdiction of all causes, civil and criminal, arising under any of the provisions of this Act.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 29, 34 Stat. 907.

A similar provision relating to causes arising under Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, was contained in section 13 of that act, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1300, but was superseded by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 29, 32 Stat. 1220, relating to causes arising under that act, which is repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Jurisdiction of all suits and proceedings arising under any law regulating the immigration of aliens or under the contract labor laws is conferred on the district courts, on the abolition of the circuit courts, by the Judicial Code, § 24, subd. 22, set forth ante, under Title XII B, "The Judicial Code."

Disposal of privileges at immigrant stations; sale of intoxicating liquors forbidden.

Sec. 30. That all exclusive privileges of exchanging money, transporting passengers or baggage, or keeping eating houses, and all other like privileges in connection with any United States immigrant station, shall be disposed of after public competition, subject to such conditions and limitations as the Commissioner-General of Immigration, under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, may prescribe: Provided, That no intoxicating liquors shall be sold in any such immigrant station; that all receipts accruing from the disposal of such exclusive privileges as herein provided shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the "immigrant fund" provided for in section one of this Act.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 30, 34 Stat. 907.

A similar provision relating to the Ellis Island immigrant station was contained in Act March 3, 1893, c. 206, § 9, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1903, but was superseded by the more general provisions of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 30, 32 Stat. 1220, which are re-enacted in this section, and are repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Jurisdiction of state and local officers and courts over immigrant stations.

Sec. 31. That for the preservation of the peace and in order that arrests may be made for crimes under the laws of the States and Territories of the United States where the various immigrant stations are located, the officers in charge of such stations, as occasion may require, shall admit therein the proper State and municipal officers charged with the enforcement of such laws, and for the purpose of this section the jurisdiction of such officers and of the local courts shall extend over such stations.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 31, 34 Stat. 908.

A previous similar provision was contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 9, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1299, but was superseded by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 31, 32 Stat. 1220, which is re-enacted in this section, and is repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Rules for entry and inspection of aliens along the borders of Canada and Mexico; contracts with foreign transportation lines.

Sec. 32. That the Commissioner-General of Immigration, under the direction or with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, shall prescribe rules for the entry and inspection of aliens along the borders of Canada and Mexico, so as not to unnecessarily delay, impede, or annoy passengers in ordinary travel between the United States and said countries, and shall have power to enter into contracts with transportation lines for the said purpose.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 32, 34 Stat. 908.

A previous provision similar to that of this section was contained in Act March 3, 1891, c. 551, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1298, but was superseded by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 32, 32 Stat. 1221, which is re-enacted in this section, and repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Agreements with transportation lines, as provided in this section, for the payment of the head-money duty on aliens seeking admission overland, are authorized by a proviso annexed to section 1 of this act, set forth above.

Construction of term "United States" for purpose of act; aliens coming from Isthmian Canal Zone.

Sec. 33. That for the purpose of this Act the term "United States" as used in the title as well as in the various sections of this Act shall be construed to mean the United States and any waters, territory, or other place subject to the jurisdiction thereof, except the Isthmian Canal Zone: Provided, That if any alien shall leave the canal zone and attempt to enter any other place under the jurisdiction of the United States, nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as permitting him to enter under any other conditions than those applicable to all aliens.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 33, 34 Stat. 908.

A previous provision, similar to that part of this section preceding the words "or shall arrive in the Panamian Canal Zone," was contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 33, 32 Stat. 1221, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

The provisions of section 1 of this act, which imposes a tax on every alien entering the United States, do not apply to aliens arriving in Guam, Porto Rico, or Hawaii, by a proviso annexed to that section, set forth above.

Appointment of commissioner of immigration at New Orleans, La.

Sec. 34. That the Commissioner-General of Immigration, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, may appoint a commissioner of immigration to discharge at New Orleans, Louisiana, the duties now required of other commissioners of immigration at their respective posts.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 34, 34 Stat. 908.

Ports to which aliens to be deported.

Sec. 35. That the deportation of aliens arrested within the United States after entry and found to be illegally therein, provided for in this Act, shall be to the trans-Atlantic or trans-Pacific ports from which said aliens embarked for the United States; or, if such embarkation was for foreign contiguous territory, to the foreign port at which said aliens embarked for such territory.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 35, 34 Stat. 908.

A previous provision, identical in language with this section, was contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 35, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Deportation of aliens entering United States except at seaports or places designated by Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

Sec. 36. That all aliens who shall enter the United States except at the seaports thereof, or at such place or places as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may from time to time designate, shall be adjudged to have entered the country unlawfully and shall be deported as provided by sections twenty and twenty-one of this Act: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall affect the power conferred by section thirty-two of this Act upon the Commissioner-General of Immigration to prescribe rules for the entry and inspection of aliens along the borders of Canada and Mexico.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 36, 34 Stat. 908.

Aliens landed at any time or place other than as designated by the immigration officers are to be deemed to be unlawfully in the United States and to be deported, by provisions of section 18 of this act, set forth above.

Temporary detention and admission or deportation, in case of contagious disorder, of wife or minor child of alien resident who has filed declaration of intention to become citizen.

Sec. 37. That whenever an alien shall have taken up his permanent residence in this country, and shall have filed his declaration of intention to become a citizen, and thereafter shall send for his wife, or minor children to join him, if said wife or any of said children shall be found to be affected with any contagious disorder, such wife or children shall be held, under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor shall prescribe, until it shall be determined whether the disorder will be easily curable, or whether they can be permitted to land without danger to other persons; and they shall not be either admitted or deported until such facts have been ascertained; and if it shall be determined that the disorder is easily curable or that they can be permitted to land without danger to other persons, they shall, if otherwise admissible, thereupon be admitted.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 37, 34 Stat. 908.

Previous provisions similar to a great extent to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 37, 32 Stat. 1221, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Persons afflicted with a dangerous contagious disease are among the classes of aliens excluded from admission by sections 2 and 9 of this act, set forth above.

Persons disbelieving in or opposed to all organized government, or advocating the unlawful assaulting or killing of officers of government, not to be permitted to enter; aiding, etc., entry of such person, punishable.

Sec. 38. That no person who disbelieves in or who is opposed to all organized government, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to all organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, shall be permitted to enter the United States or any Territory or place subject to the jurisdiction thereof. This section shall be enforced by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe. That any person who knowingly aids or assists any such person to enter the United States or any Territory or place subject to the jurisdiction thereof, or who connives or conspires with any person or persons to allow, procure, or permit any such person to enter therein, except pursuant to such rules and regulations made by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 38, 34 Stat. 908.

Previous provisions nearly identical in language with those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 38, 32 Stat. 1221, repealed by section 43 of this act, set forth below.

Sec. 39. [Temporary.]

This section provided for the creation of a commission to inquire into the subject of immigration and report to Congress its conclusions, etc. The commission was required to complete its work and make its final report and cease on the first Monday of December, 1910. Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 982. Act Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 215.

Division of Information in Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization; distribution of aliens admitted among States and Territories; agents of States or Territories at immigrant stations.

Sec. 40. Authority is hereby given the Commissioner-General of Immigration to establish, under the direction and control of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, a division of information in the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization; and the Secretary of Commerce and Labor shall provide such clerical assistance as may be necessary. It shall be the duty of said division to promote a beneficial distribution of aliens admitted into the United States among the several States and Territories desiring immigration. Correspondence shall be had with the proper officials of the States and Territories, and said division shall gather from all available sources useful information regarding the resources, products, and physical characteristics of each State and Territory, and shall publish such information in different languages and distribute the publications among all admitted aliens who may ask for such information at the immigrant stations of the United States and to such other persons as may desire the same. When any State or Territory appoints and maintains an agent or agents to represent it at any of the immigrant stations of the United States, such agents shall, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner-General of Immigration, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, have access to aliens who have been admitted to the United States for the purpose of presenting, either orally or in writing, the special inducements offered by such State or Territory to aliens to settle therein. While on duty at any immigrant station such agents shall be subject to all the regulations prescribed by the Commissioner-General of Immigration, who, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, may, for violation of any such regulations, deny to the agent guilty of such violation any of the privileges herein granted.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 40, 34 Stat. 909.

Act not to apply to foreign government officials, etc.

Sec. 41. That nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to accredited officials of foreign governments nor to their suites, families, or guests.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 41, 34 Stat. 910.

Sec. 42. [Repealed. Act Dec. 19, 1908, c. 6, § 2.]

This section prescribed regulations, to take effect Jan. 1, 1909, for the carriage of immigrant passengers on steamships or other vessels, similar to and superseding those contained in Act Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 2931; but, by section 43 of this act, said section 1 of Act Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, was not repealed thereby prior to January 1, 1909. But this section, and so much of sections 43 and 44 of this act as provide for the repeal of said section 1 of Act Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, are themselves expressly repealed by Act Dec. 19, 1908, c. 6, §§ 1, 2, taking effect January 1, 1909, set forth post, under Title XLVIII, "Regulation of Commerce and Navigation," c. 6.

Repeal.

Sec. 43. That the Act of March third, nineteen hundred and three, being an Act to regulate the immigration of aliens into the United States, except section thirty-four thereof, and the Act of March twenty-second, nineteen hundred and four, being an Act to extend the exemption from head tax to citizens of Newfoundland entering the United States, and all Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed: Provided, That this Act shall not be construed to repeal, alter, or amend existing laws relating to the immigration or exclusion of Chinese persons or persons of Chinese descent, nor to repeal, alter, or amend section six, chapter four hundred and fifty-three, third session Fifty-eighth Congress, approved February sixth, nineteen hundred and five, or, prior to January first, nineteen hundred and nine, section one of the Act approved August second, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, entitled "An Act to regulate the carriage of passengers by sea."

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 43, 34 Stat. 911.

The provisions of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, §§ 1–33, 35–38, 32 Stat. 1213–1221, amended by Act March 22, 1904, c. 749, 33 Stat. 144, repealed by this section, are almost entirely re-enacted, with some changes and additions, in the sections of this act designated by the same numbers, respectively, as said repealed sections, and set forth above.

Section 34 of said Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, which forbids the sale of intoxicating liquors within the limits of the Capitol building, and is excepted from the repeal of that act by this section, is set forth ante, under Title XXI. "Seat of Government, Including the Public Buildings and Grounds, Parks, and Reservations."

The laws relating to the immigration or exclusion of Chinese, excepted from the general repealing provision of this section, by the proviso annexed thereto, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1305–1328, and are re-enacted, extended, and continued by Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, post, under subtitle "Exclusion of Chinese."

So much of this section and of section 44 of this act as provides for the repeal of Act Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 2931, is expressly repealed, with section 42 of this act, by Act Dec. 19, 1908, c. 6, §§ 2, 3, set forth post, under Title XLVIII, "Regulation of Commerce and Navigation," c. 6. See note under section 42 of this act.

Time of taking effect of act.

Sec. 44. That this Act shall take effect and be enforced from and after July first, nineteen hundred and seven: Provided, however, That section thirty-nine of this Act and the last proviso of section one shall take effect upon the passage of this Act and section forty-two on January first, nineteen hundred and nine.

Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service: Expenses of Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service, * *

In all, * * dollars, which shall include the amount necessary for the medical inspection of aliens, as required by section seventeen of the Act of Congress approved February twentieth, nineteen hundred and seven, and the provision of said section of said Act requiring the reimbursement by the immigration fund for said expenses is hereby repealed.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 969.

This is a provision accompanying an appropriation for expenses of the Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service, in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above. Appropriations for the same purpose are made in the similar acts for subsequent years. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1394.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 17, repealed in part by this provision, is set forth above.

Head tax on aliens and other moneys received under immigration laws to be covered into Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

* * That on and after July first, nineteen hundred and nine, all head tax collected pursuant to the provisions of section one of the said Act of February twentieth, nineteen hundred and seven, together with all fines, rentals collected, and moneys received from other sources under the laws regulating the immigration of aliens into the United States, shall be covered into the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 982.

This is a proviso annexed to an appropriation for expenses of regulating immigration in the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, cited above.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 1, mentioned in this provision, is set forth above.

An Act Relative to Outward Alien Manifests on Certain Vessels. (35 Stat. 1060.)

Requirement of outward alien manifests not to apply to passengers by vessels in trade between United States and Canada or Mexico.

Be it enacted, &c., That until the provisions of section twelve of the immigration Act of February twentieth, nineteen hundred and seven, relating to outward alien manifests, shall be made applicable to passengers going out of the United States to Canada by land carriage, said provisions shall not apply to passengers going by vessels employed exclusively in the trade between the ports of the United States and the Dominion of Canada and the Republic of Mexico.

Act March 4, 1909, c. 305, 35 Stat. 1060.

Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 12, mentioned in this act, is set forth above.

[EXCLUSION OF CHINESE.]

ACT MAY 6, 1882, c. 126.

The provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1305–1311, which were continued in force for a period of ten years by Act May 5, 1892, c. 60, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1319, and all laws prohibiting and regulating the coming of Chinese into the United States and their residence therein, in force at the time, are re-enacted, extended, and continued, and are also made applicable to the island territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, by Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, set forth below.

On the establishment of the Department of Commerce and Labor and the transfer thereto from the Treasury Department of the immigration service, by Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, ante, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor," the authority, power, and jurisdiction possessed and exercised by the Secretary of the Treasury by virtue of any law in relation to the exclusion from and the residence within the United States, its territories, and the District of Columbia, of Chinese and persons of Chinese descent, are transferred to and conferred upon the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, and the authority, power, and jurisdiction in relation thereto vested by law or treaty in the collectors of customs and collectors of internal revenue, are conferred upon and vested in such officers under the control of the Commissioner-General of Immigration, as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may designate therefor, by provisions of section 7 of that act.

ACT SEPT. 13, 1888, c. 1015.

All laws in force prohibiting and regulating the coming of Chinese into the United States and their residence therein, including sections 5–11, 13, 14, of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1314–1317, which were continued in force for a period of ten years by Act May 5, 1892, c. 60, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1319, are re-enacted, extended, and continued, and are also made applicable to the island territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, by Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, set forth below.

See, also, note under Act May 6, 1882, c. 126, above, as to transfer of the authority, etc., possessed and exercised by the Secretary of the Treasury by virtue of this act, to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, and of the authority, etc., of the collectors of customs and the collectors of internal revenue, to officers under control of the Commissioner-General of Immigration.

ACT OCT. 1, 1888, c. 1064.

The provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1318, 1319, like those of Act May 6, 1882, c. 126, to which it is a supplement, which were continued in force for a period of ten years by Act May 5, 1892, c. 60, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1319, and all laws prohibiting and regulating the coming of Chinese into the United States and their residence therein, in force at the time, are re-enacted, extended, and continued, and are also made applicable to the island territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, by Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, set forth below.

ACT MAY 5, 1892, c. 60.

The provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1319–1322, and all laws prohibiting and regulating the coming of Chinese into the United States and their residence therein, in force at the time, are re-enacted, extended, and continued, and are also made applicable to the island territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, by Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, set forth below.

See, also, note under Act May 6, 1882, c. 126, above, as to transfer of the authority, etc., of the Secretary of the Treasury by virtue of this act, to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, and of the authority, etc., of the collectors of customs and the collectors of internal revenue, to officers under control of the Commissioner-General of Immigration.

ACT NOV. 3, 1893, c. 14.

The provisions of this Act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1322, 1323, like those of Act May 5, 1892, c. 60, which it amends, and all laws prohibiting and regulating the coming of Chinese into the United States and their residence therein, in force at the time, are re-enacted, extended, and continued, and are also made applicable to the island territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, by Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, set forth below.

RES. DEC. 7, 1893, No. 1.

This resolution, relating to the registration and issuance of certificates of residence to Chinese laborers by collectors of internal revenue and their deputies, and the fees therefor, is superseded by the transfer of the authority in relation thereto vested in the collectors of internal revenue to officers under the control of the Commissioner-General of Immigration, by provisions of Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, ante, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

CONVENTION DEC. 8, 1894.

The Secretary of the Treasury was authorized to make rules and regulations to execute the provisions of this treaty, by Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 2, set forth below. But the authority possessed and exercised by the Secretary of the Treasury by virtue of any law in relation to the exclusion from and residence within the United States, its territories, and the District of Columbia, of Chinese and persons of Chinese descent, is transferred to and conferred upon the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, by a provision of the act establishing the Department of Commerce and Labor, Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, ante, Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

ACT MARCH 3, 1901, c. 845.

The provisions of this act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1327, 1328, like those of Act May 5, 1892, c. 60, to which it is supplementary, and all laws prohibiting and regulating the coming of Chinese into the United States and their residence therein, in force at the time, are re-enacted, extended, and continued, and are also made applicable to the island territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, by Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 29, 1902, c. 641. [As amended 1904.]

An Act to Prohibit the Coming into and to Regulate the Residence within the United States, its Territories, and all Territory under its Jurisdiction, and the District of Columbia, of Chinese and Persons of Chinese Descent. (32 Stat. 176.)

Laws prohibiting and regulating coming and residence of Chinese, re-enacted, extended, and continued, and made applicable to island territory.

All laws in force on the twenty-ninth day of April, nineteen hundred and two, regulating, suspending, or prohibiting the coming of Chinese persons or persons of Chinese descent into the United States, and the residence of such persons therein, including sections five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, thirteen, and fourteen of the Act entitled "An Act to prohibit the coming of Chinese laborers into the United States," approved September thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, be, and the same are hereby, re-enacted, extended, and continued, without modification, limitation, or condition; and said laws shall also apply to the island territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, and prohibit the immigration of Chinese laborers, not citizens of the United States, from such island territory to the mainland territory of the United States, whether in such island territory at the time of cession or not, and from one portion of the island territory of the United States to another portion of said island territory: Provided, however, That said laws shall not apply to the transit of Chinese laborers from one island to another island of the same group; and any islands within the jurisdiction of any State or the District of Alaska shall be considered a part of the mainland under this section.

Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, 32 Stat. 176. Act April 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, 33 Stat. 428.

This section as originally enacted in Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 1, cited above, was as follows:

"Be it enacted, &c., That all laws now in force prohibiting and regulating the coming of Chinese persons, and persons of Chinese descent, into the United States, and the residence of such persons therein, including sections five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, thirteen, and fourteen of the Act entitled 'An Act to prohibit the coming of Chinese laborers into the United States' approved September thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, be, and the same are hereby, re-enacted, extended, and continued so far as the same are not inconsistent with treaty obligations, until otherwise provided by law, and said laws shall also apply to the island territory under the jurisdiction of the United States, and prohibit the immigration of Chinese laborers, not citizens of the United States, from such island territory to the mainland territory of the United States, whether in such island territory at the time of cession or not, and from one portion of the island territory of the United States to another portion of said island territory: Provided, however, That said laws shall not apply to the transit of Chinese laborers from one island to another island of the same group; and any islands within the jurisdiction of any State or the District of Alaska shall be considered a part of the mainland under this section."

It is amended by Act April 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 5, also cited above, to read as set forth here. The amendment consists, principally, in the insertion, after the words "re-enacted, extended, and continued," instead of the words of the original section, "so far as the same are not inconsistent with treaty obligations, until otherwise provided by law," of the words, "without modification, limitation, or condition."

The laws previously in force, which are re-enacted, extended, and continued by this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1305–1328.

The treaty obligations mentioned in this section as it was originally enacted are those imposed by the provisions of the Convention of December 8, 1894, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1324–1327.

Further provisions for the enforcement in the insular territory of the laws made applicable thereto by this section, contained in section 4 of this act, and in Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, and Act Feb. 6, 1905, c. 453, § 6, are set forth below.

The authority, power, and jurisdiction, possessed and exercised by the Secretary of the Treasury by virtue of any law in relation to the exclusion from and residence within the United States, its territories, and the District of Columbia, of Chinese and persons of Chinese descent, are transferred to and conferred upon the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, and the authority, power, and jurisdiction in relation thereto vested by law or treaty in the collectors of customs and the collectors of internal revenue are conferred upon and vested in such officers under the control of the Commissioner-General of Immigration as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may designate therefor, by provisions of the act establishing the Department of Commerce and Labor, and transferring the immigration service to that department from the Treasury Department, Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, ante, Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

No Mongolian laborer is to be employed in the construction of irrigation works by contract under Act June 17, 1902, c. 1093, by a proviso annexed to section 4 of that act, post, under Title XXXII, "The Public Lands," c. 11, subchapter "Irrigation in Arid Regions; Grants of Desert Lands to States for Reclamation."

Regulations for execution of provisions of acts and of treaty.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of Commerce and Labor is hereby authorized and empowered to make and prescribe, and from time to time to change, such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of the land as he may deem necessary and proper to execute the provisions of this Act and of the Acts hereby extended and continued and of the treaty of December eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, between the United States and China, and with the approval of the President to appoint such agents as he may deem necessary for the efficient execution of said treaty and said Acts.

Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 2, 32 Stat. 176. Res. April 28, 1904, No. 34, 33 Stat. 591.

This section as originally enacted is amended by Res. April 28, 1904, No. 34, cited above, by striking out the words "Secretary of the Treasury" used therein, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "Secretary of Commerce and Labor," as set forth here.

See, also, note under section 1 of this act, as to transfer of the authority of the Secretary of the Treasury to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

The acts hereby extended and continued and the treaty of December 8, 1894, mentioned in this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1305–1328.

Appropriations for the enforcement of this act are made available for the establishment and maintenance of the Bertillon system of identification at the various ports of entry, by a provision of Act April 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1, set forth below.

The Philippine Commission is authorized and required to make regulations for the enforcement of section 4 of this act in the Philippine Islands by a provision of that section, set forth below. And the administration of the immigration laws of the United States in force in the Philippine Islands by the officers of the government thereof is authorized by provisions of Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, and Act Feb. 6, 1905, c. 453, § 6, set forth below.

Sec. 3. [Relates to admission of natives of foreign countries, under contract, for preparation for exhibits, etc., at fairs and expositions.]

This section provides that nothing in the provisions of this act or any other act shall be construed to prevent any foreign exhibitor, etc., at any fair or exposition authorized by act of Congress, from bringing into the United States, under contract, mechanics, etc., natives of their respective foreign countries, for the purpose of making preparations for installing or conducting their exhibits or any business under any concession or privilege granted by the fair or exposition. The section, not being restricted to Chinese, but being, in terms, applicable to "any foreign exhibitor, representative, or citizen of any foreign nation," for the admission of their employés, "natives of their respective foreign countries," is set forth, ante, under this title, subtitle "Regulation and Restriction of Immigration in General."

Certificates of residence in insular territory; regulations for enforcement of section in Philippine Islands.

Sec. 4. That it shall be the duty of every Chinese laborer, other than a citizen, rightfully in, and entitled to remain in any of the insular territory of the United States (Hawaii excepted) at the time of the passage of this Act, to obtain within one year thereafter a certificate of residence in the insular territory wherein he resides, which certificate shall entitle him to residence therein, and upon failure to obtain such certificate as herein provided he shall be deported from such insular territory; and the Philippine Commission is authorized and required to make all regulations and provisions necessary for the enforcement of this section in the Philippine Islands, including the form and substance of the certificate of residence so that the same shall clearly and sufficiently identify the holder thereof and enable officials to prevent fraud in the transfer of the same: Provided, however, That if said Philippine Commission shall find that it is impossible to complete the registration herein provided for within one year from the passage of this Act, said Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to extend the time for such registration for a further period not exceeding one year.

Act April 29, 1902, c. 641, § 4, 32 Stat. 177.

The laws made applicable to the island territory by section 1 of this act, set forth above, by a proviso to that section are not to apply to the transit of Chinese laborers from one island to another island of the same group.

Provisions for the administration of the immigration laws of the United States in force in the Philippine Islands by the officers of the government thereof, contained in Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, and Act Feb. 6, 1905, c. 453, § 6, are set forth below.

ACT MARCH 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1. [H. R. 9480.]

Administration of immigration laws in force in Philippine Islands.

The immigration laws of the United States in force in the Philippine Islands shall continue to be administered by the officers of the Philippine government.

Act March 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, 33 Stat. 139.

This is a provision following an appropriation for the Bureau of Immigration in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

A subsequent provision relating to the same subject is contained in Act Feb. 6, 1905, c. 453, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1. [H. R. 14416.]

Use of Bertillon system of identification to prevent unlawful entry of Chinese into United States.

Enforcement of the Chinese-exclusion Act: To prevent unlawful entry of Chinese into the United States, by the appointment of suitable officers to enforce the laws in relation thereto, and for expenses of returning to China all Chinese persons found to be unlawfully in the United States, including the cost of imprisonment and actual expense of conveyance of Chinese persons to the frontier or seaboard for deportation, six hundred thousand dollars, of which sum one thousand dollars per annum shall be paid to the Commissioner-General of Immigration as additional compensation: Provided, That so much of the amount hereby appropriated, or hereafter appropriated for similar purposes, as may be necessary shall be available for the establishment and maintenance of the Bertillon system of identification at the various ports of entry; but this proviso shall not apply to persons embraced in Article Three of the treaty with China of eighteen hundred and ninety-four.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1, 33 Stat. 478.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1905, cited above.

Article 3 of the treaty with China of 1894, mentioned in this provision, Convention Dec. 8, 1894, art. III, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1326.

An appropriation for enforcement of the Chinese Exclusion Act, in language similar to the provision of this paragraph preceding the proviso, is made in the sundry civil appropriation act for each subsequent year, included, in recent years, in the appropriation for expenses of regulating immigration. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1442.

ACT FEB. 6, 1905, c. 453, § 6. [H. R. 14623.]

Administration of immigration laws in force in Philippine Islands.

That the immigration laws of the United States in force in the Philippine Islands shall be administered by the officers of the general government thereof designated by appropriate legislation of said government, and all moneys collected under said laws as duty or head tax on alien immigrants coming into said islands shall not be covered into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States, but shall be paid into the treasury of said islands to be used and expended for the government and benefit of said islands.

Act Feb. 6, 1905, c. 453, § 6, 33 Stat. 692.

TITLE XXX.

NATURALIZATION.

Sec. 2165.

[Repealed. Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26.]

This section is expressly repealed by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26, set forth below, and different provisions relating to the same subject are made by other sections of that act, also set forth below.

ACT FEB. 1, 1876, c. 5.

[Superseded. Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592.]

This act, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1331, has become inoperative by the repeal of Rev. St. § 2165, mentioned therein, by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26, set forth below.

Secs. 2167, 2168.

[Repealed. Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26.]

These sections are expressly repealed by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26, set forth below, and different provisions relating to the same subjects are made by other sections of that act, also set forth below.

Sec. 2173.

[Repealed. Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26.]

This section is expressly repealed by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26, set forth below. The courts on which jurisdiction to naturalize aliens is conferred are specified in section 3 of that act, also set forth below.

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3592. [H. R. 15442.] [As amended 1910. H. R. 16871.]

An Act to Establish a Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, and to Provide for a Uniform Rule for the Naturalization of Aliens throughout the United States. (34 Stat. 596.)

Be it enacted, etc. [Section 1 changes the designation of the Bureau of Immigration in the Department of Commerce and Labor, to "Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization," and gives it charge of all matters concerning naturalization of aliens, and provides for registry of alien immigrants.]

This section and section 2 of this act, relating to the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization in the Department of Commerce and Labor, and its duties in regard to naturalization and means and facilities for the performance thereof, are set forth ante, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

Sec. 2. [Provides for furnishing offices, etc., and for additional assistants, clerks and other employés, for the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, for the discharge of the duties imposed upon it by this act.]

See note under preceding section of this act.

Exclusive jurisdiction to naturalize aliens conferred on courts specified; jurisdiction restricted to residents within judicial district; blank forms to be furnished; numbering and printing of certificates of naturalization.

Sec. 3. That exclusive jurisdiction to naturalize aliens as citizens of the United States is hereby conferred upon the following specified courts:

United States circuit and district courts now existing, or which may hereafter be established by Congress in any State, United States district courts for the Territories of Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Hawaii, and Alaska, the supreme court of the District of Columbia, and the United States courts for the Indian Territory; also all courts of record in any State or Territory now existing, or which may hereafter be created, having a seal, a clerk, and jurisdiction in actions at law or equity, or law and equity, in which the amount in controversy is unlimited.

That the naturalization jurisdiction of all courts herein specified, State, Territorial, and Federal, shall extend only to aliens resident within the respective judicial districts of such courts.

The courts herein specified shall, upon the requisition of the clerks of such courts, be furnished from time to time by the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization with such blank forms as may be required in the naturalization of aliens, and all certificates of naturalization shall be consecutively numbered and printed on safety paper furnished by said Bureau.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 3, 34 Stat. 596.

Proceedings for naturalization.

Sec. 4. That an alien may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States in the following manner and not otherwise:

Declaration of intention; requisites and contents; prior declarations.

First. He shall declare on oath before the clerk of any court authorized by this Act to naturalize aliens, or his authorized deputy, in the district in which such alien resides, two years at least prior to his admission, and after he has reached the age of eighteen years, that it is bona fide his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to renounce forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly, by name, to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which the alien may be at the time a citizen or subject. And such declaration shall set forth the name, age, occupation, personal description, place of birth, last foreign residence and allegiance, the date of arrival, the name of the vessel, if any, in which he came to the United States, and the present place of residence in the United States of said alien: Provided, however, That no alien who, in conformity with the law in force at the date of his declaration, has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States shall be required to renew such declaration.

Petition for admission to citizenship; requisites and contents; verification by witnesses; filing certificate of arrival in United States and declaration of intention.

Second. Not less than two years nor more than seven years after he has made such declaration of intention he shall make and file, in duplicate, a petition in writing, signed by the applicant in his own handwriting and duly verified, in which petition such applicant shall state his full name, his place of residence (by street and number, if possible), his occupation, and, if possible, the date and place of his birth; the place from which he emigrated, and the date and place of his arrival in the United States, and, if he entered through a port, the name of the vessel on which he arrived; the time when and the place and name of the court where he declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States; if he is married he shall state the name of his wife and, if possible, the country of her nativity and her place of residence at the time of filing his petition; and if he has children, the name, date, and place of birth and place of residence of each child living at the time of the filing of his petition: Provided, That if he has filed his declaration before the passage of this Act he shall not be required to sign the petition in his own handwriting.

Provided further, That any person belonging to the class of persons authorized and qualified under existing law to become a citizen of the United States who has resided constantly in the United States during a period of five years next preceding May first, nineteen hundred and ten, who, because of misinformation in regard to his citizenship or the requirements of the law governing the naturalization of citizens has labored and acted under the impression that he was or could become a citizen of the United States and has in good faith exercised the rights or duties of a citizen or intended citizen of the United States because of such wrongful information and belief may, upon making a showing of such facts satisfactory to a court having jurisdiction to issue papers of naturalization to an alien, and the court in its judgment believes that such person has been for a period of more than five years entitled upon proper proceedings to be naturalized as a citizen of the United States, receive from the said court a final certificate of naturalization, and said court may issue such certificate without requiring proof of former declaration by or on the part of such person of their intention to become a citizen of the United States, but such applicant for naturalization shall comply in all other respects with the law relative to the issuance of final papers of naturalization to aliens.

The petition shall set forth that he is not a disbeliever in or opposed to organized government, or a member of or affiliated with any organization or body of persons teaching disbelief in or opposed to organized government, a polygamist or believer in the practice of polygamy, and that it is his intention to become a citizen of the United States and to renounce absolutely and forever all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly by name to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which he at the time of filing of his petition may be a citizen or subject, and that it is his intention to reside permanently within the United States, and whether or not he has been denied admission as a citizen of the United States, and, if denied, the ground or grounds of such denial, the court or courts in which such decision was rendered, and that the cause for such denial has since been cured or removed, and every fact material to his naturalization and required to be proved upon the final hearing of his application.

The petition shall also be verified by the affidavits of at least two credible witnesses, who are citizens of the United States, and who shall state in their affidavits that they have personally known the applicant to be a resident of the United States for a period of at least five years continuously, and of the State, Territory, or district in which the application is made for a period of at least one year immediately preceding the date of the filing of his petition, and that they each have personal knowledge that the petitioner is a person of good moral character, and that he is in every way qualified, in their opinion, to be admitted as a citizen of the United States.

At the time of filing his petition there shall be filed with the clerk of the court a certificate from the Department of Commerce and Labor, if the petitioner arrives in the United States after the passage of this Act, stating the date, place, and manner of his arrival in the United States, and the declaration of intention of such petitioner, which certificate and declaration shall be attached to and made a part of said petition.

Declaration on oath in open court to support constitution and laws of United States, and renunciation of other allegiance.

Third. He shall, before he is admitted to citizenship, declare on oath in open court that he will support the Constitution of the United States, and that he absolutely and entirely renounces and abjures all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, and particularly by name to the prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty of which he was before a citizen or subject; that he will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and bear true faith and allegiance to the same.

Evidence of residence, character, etc.; witnesses.

Fourth. It shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court admitting any alien to citizenship that immediately preceding the date of his application he has resided continuously within the United States five years at least, and within the State or Territory where such court is at the time held one year at least, and that during that time he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same. In addition to the oath of the applicant, the testimony of at least two witnesses, citizens of the United States, as to the facts of residence, moral character, and attachment to the principles of the Constitution shall be required, and the name, place of residence, and occupation of each witness shall be set forth in the record.

Renunciation of hereditary title, order of nobility, etc.

Fifth. In case the alien applying to be admitted to citizenship has borne any hereditary title, or has been of any of the orders of nobility in the kingdom or state from which he came, he shall, in addition to the above requisites, make an express renunciation of his title or order of nobility in the court to which his application is made, and his renunciation shall be recorded in the court.

Naturalization of widows and minor children of aliens dying after declaration of intention before being actually naturalized.

Sixth. When any alien who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States dies before he is actually naturalized the widow and minor children of such alien may, by complying with the other provisions of this Act, be naturalized without making any declaration of intention.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 4, 34 Stat. 596. Act Feb. 24, 1911, c. 151, § 3, 36 Stat. 830.

The amendment of this section by Act Feb. 24, 1911, c. 151, § 3, cited above, consists in the addition to subdivision second thereof, after the proviso "That if he has filed his declaration before the passage of this act he shall not be required to sign the petition in his own handwriting," of the further proviso inserted in said subdivision second as set forth here.

Previous provisions relating to the same subject as those of this section were contained in Rev. St. §§ 2165, 2167, 2168, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1329, 1332, repealed by section 26 of this act, set forth below.

Forms of declaration of intention, of petition for naturalization, and of affidavit of witnesses, required by this section, and of the certificate of citizenship to be issued thereon and the stub of such certificate, are prescribed by section 27 of this act, set forth below.

The mode of proof of residence required, in the petition and at the hearing thereon, is prescribed by section 10 of this act, set forth below.

When an alien, after declaration of intention, becomes insane before he is actually naturalized, and his wife thereafter makes a homestead entry under the land laws, she and their minor children may be naturalized without making declaration of intention, by Act Feb. 24, 1911, c. 151, set forth below.

The issue of passports to persons who have made declaration of intention to become citizens, and who have resided in the United States three years, is authorized by Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 1, set forth ante, under Title XXV, "Citizenship."

Notice of filing of petition, hearing thereon, etc.; subpœnas for witnesses.

Sec. 5. That the clerk of the court shall, immediately after filing the petition, give notice thereof by posting in a public and conspicuous place in his office, or in the building in which his office is situated, under an appropriate heading, the name, nativity, and residence of the alien, the date and place of his arrival in the United States, and the date, as nearly as may be, for the final hearing of his petition, and the names of the witnesses whom the applicant expects to summon in his behalf; and the clerk shall, if the applicant requests it, issue a subpœna for the witnesses so named by the said applicant to appear upon the day set for the final hearing, but in case such witnesses can not be produced upon the final hearing other witnesses may be summoned.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 5, 34 Stat. 598.

Time for filing petition and for final action thereon; change of name of alien on his naturalization.

Sec. 6. That petitions for naturalization may be made and filed during term time or vacation of the court and shall be docketed the same day as filed, but final action thereon shall be had only on stated days, to be fixed by rule of the court, and in no case shall final action be had upon a petition until at least ninety days have elapsed after filing and posting the notice of such petition: Provided, That no person shall be naturalized nor shall any certificate of naturalization be issued by any court within thirty days preceding the holding of any general election within its territorial jurisdiction. It shall be lawful, at the time and as a part of the naturalization of any alien, for the court, in its discretion, upon the petition of such alien, to make a decree changing the name of said alien, and his certificate of naturalization shall be issued to him in accordance therewith.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 6, 34 Stat. 598.

Persons disbelieving or opposed to organized government, etc., or advocating, etc., the unlawful assaulting or killing of officers of government, or polygamists, not to be naturalized.

Sec. 7. That no person who disbelieves in or who is opposed to organized government, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States, or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who is a polygamist, shall be naturalized or be made a citizen of the United States.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 7, 34 Stat. 598.

Previous provisions similar to those of this section were contained in Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 39, 32 Stat. 1222, repealed by section 26 of this act, set forth below.

Persons such as those described in and excluded from naturalization by this section, other than polygamists, are not to be permitted to enter the United States, and aiding or assisting any such person unlawfully to do so is punishable by Act Feb. 20, 1907, c. 1134, § 38, set forth ante, under Title XXIX, "Immigration," subtitle "Regulation and Restriction of Immigration in General."

Persons who cannot speak English language not to be naturalized; physical inability; prior declarations of intention; aliens making homestead entries on public lands.

Sec. 8. That no alien shall hereafter be naturalized or admitted as a citizen of the United States who can not speak the English language: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply to aliens who are physically unable to comply therewith, if they are otherwise qualified to become citizens of the United States: And provided further, That the requirements of this section shall not apply to any alien who has prior to the passage of this Act declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States in conformity with the law in force at the date of making such declaration: Provided further, That the requirements of section eight shall not apply to aliens who shall hereafter declare their intention to become citizens and who shall make homestead entries upon the public lands of the United States and comply in all respects with the laws providing for homestead entries on such lands.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 8, 34 Stat. 599.

Final hearing on petition in open court; record of final order; examination of applicant and witnesses.

Sec. 9. That every final hearing upon such petition shall be had in open court before a judge or judges thereof, and every final order which may be made upon such petition shall be under the hand of the court and entered in full upon a record kept for that purpose, and upon such final hearing of such petition the applicant and witnesses shall be examined under oath before the court and in the presence of the court.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 9, 34 Stat. 599.

Evidence of residence in petition and at hearing.

Sec. 10. That in case the petitioner has not resided in the State, Territory, or district for a period of five years continuously and immediately preceding the filing of his petition he may establish by two witnesses, both in his petition and at the hearing, the time of his residence within the State, provided that it has been for more than one year, and the remaining portion of his five years' residence within the United States required by law to be established may be proved by the depositions of two or more witnesses who are citizens of the United States, upon notice to the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization and the United States attorney for the district in which said witnesses may reside.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 10, 34 Stat. 599.

Appearance by United States and proceedings in opposition to granting of petition.

Sec. 11. That the United States shall have the right to appear before any court or courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings for the purpose of cross-examining the petitioner and the witnesses produced in support of his petition concerning any matter touching or in any way affecting his right to admission to citizenship, and shall have the right to call witnesses, produce evidence, and be heard in opposition to the granting of any petition in naturalization proceedings.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 11, 34 Stat. 599.

Duties of clerks of courts; duplicates, etc., of declarations, certificates, petitions, etc.; penalty for failure to comply with provisions; responsibility for blank certificates of citizenship.

Sec. 12. That it is hereby made the duty of the clerk of each and every court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization matters under the provisions of this Act to keep and file a duplicate of each declaration of intention made before him and to send to the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization at Washington, within thirty days after the issuance of a certificate of citizenship, a duplicate of such certificate, and to make and keep on file in his office a stub for each certificate so issued by him, whereon shall be entered a memorandum of all the essential facts set forth in such certificate. It shall also be the duty of the clerk of each of said courts to report to the said Bureau, within thirty days after the final hearing and decision of the court, the name of each and every alien who shall be denied naturalization, and to furnish to said Bureau duplicates of all petitions within thirty days after the filing of the same, and certified copies of such other proceedings and orders instituted in or issued out of said court affecting or relating to the naturalization of aliens as may be required from time to time by the said Bureau.

In case any such clerk or officer acting under his direction shall refuse or neglect to comply with any of the foregoing provisions he shall forfeit and pay to the United States the sum of twenty-five dollars in each and every case in which such violation or omission occurs, and the amount of such forfeiture may be recovered by the United States in an action of debt against such clerk.

Clerks of courts having and exercising jurisdiction in naturalization matters shall be responsible for all blank certificates of citizenship received by them from time to time from the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, and shall account for the same to the said Bureau whenever required so to do by such Bureau. No certificate of citizenship received by any such clerk which may be defaced or injured in such manner as to prevent its use as herein provided shall in any case be destroyed, but such certificate shall be returned to the said Bureau; and in case any such clerk shall fail to return or properly account for any certificate furnished by the said Bureau, as herein provided, he shall be liable to the United States in the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered in an action of debt, for each and every certificate not properly accounted for or returned.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 12, 34 Stat. 599.

Possession of blank certificates of citizenship with intent unlawfully to use the same is punishable, under section 19 of this act, set forth below.

Fees of clerks of courts; disposition of fees collected; deposit by petitioner for expenses and fees of witnesses; compensation from fees for additional clerical force required.

Sec. 13. That the clerk of each and every court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization cases shall charge, collect, and account for the following fees in each proceeding:

For receiving and filing a declaration of intention and issuing a duplicate thereof, one dollar.

For making, filing, and docketing the petition of an alien for admission as a citizen of the United States and for the final hearing thereon, two dollars; and for entering the final order and the issuance of the certificate of citizenship thereunder, if granted, two dollars.

The clerk of any court collecting such fees is hereby authorized to retain one-half of the fees collected by him in such naturalization proceeding; the remaining one-half of the naturalization fees in each case collected by such clerks, respectively, shall be accounted for in their quarterly accounts, which they are hereby required to render the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, and paid over to such Bureau within thirty days from the close of each quarter in each and every fiscal year, and the moneys so received shall be paid over to the disbursing clerk of the Department of Commerce and Labor, who shall thereupon deposit them in the Treasury of the United States, rendering an account therefor quarterly to the Auditor for the State and other Departments, and the said disbursing clerk shall be held responsible under his bond for said fees so received.

In addition to the fees herein required, the petitioner shall, upon the filing of his petition to become a citizen of the United States, deposit with and pay to the clerk of the court a sum of money sufficient to cover the expenses of subpœnaing and paying the legal fees of any witnesses for whom he may request a subpœna, and upon the final discharge of such witnesses they shall receive, if they demand the same from the clerk, the customary and usual witness fees from the moneys which the petitioner shall have paid to such clerk for such purpose, and the residue, if any, shall be returned by the clerk to the petitioner: Provided, That the clerks of courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings shall be permitted to retain one-half of the fees in any fiscal year up to the sum of three thousand dollars, and that all fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings in excess of such amount shall be accounted for and paid over to said Bureau as in case of other fees to which the United States may be entitled under the provisions of this Act. The clerks of the various courts exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings shall pay all additional clerical force that may be required in performing the duties imposed by this Act upon the clerks of courts from fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings. And in case the clerk of any court exercising naturalization jurisdiction collects fees in excess of the sum of six thousand dollars in any fiscal year the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may allow salaries, for naturalization purposes only, to pay for clerical assistance, to be selected and employed by that clerk, additional to the clerical force, for which clerks of courts are required by this section to pay from fees received by such clerks in naturalization proceedings, if in the opinion of said Secretary the naturalization business of such clerk warrants further additional assistance: Provided, That in no event shall the whole amount allowed the clerk of a court and his assistants exceed the one-half of the gross receipts of the office of said clerk from naturalization fees during such fiscal year: Provided further, That when, at the close of any fiscal year, the business of such clerk of court indicates in the opinion of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor that the naturalization fees for the succeeding fiscal year will exceed six thousand dollars the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may authorize the continuance of the allowance of salaries for the additional clerical assistance herein provided for and employed or the last day of the fiscal year until such time as the [illegible] in the opinion of said Secretary that the fees for the then current fiscal year will not be sufficient to allow the additional clerical assistance authorized by this Act.

That payment for the additional clerical assistance herein authorized shall be in the manner and under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may prescribe.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 13, 34 Stat. 600. Act June 25, 1910, c. 401, § 1, 36 Stat. 829.

The amendment of this section by Act June 25, 1910, c. 401, § 1, cited above, consists in striking out the last sentence of the section as originally enacted, which read as follows: "And in case the clerk of any court collects fees in excess of the sum of six thousand dollars in any one year, the Secretary of Commerce and Labor may allow to such clerk from the money which the United States shall receive additional compensation for the employment of additional clerical assistance, but for no other purpose, if in the opinion of the said Secretary the business of such clerk warrants such allowance," and inserting in lieu thereof the provision beginning "And in case the clerk of any court exercising naturalization jurisdiction," etc., to and including the two provisos following, to the end of the section as set forth here.

A provision of Act March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 983, limiting the compensation for additional clerical assistance and providing for regulation of expenditures therefor, is superseded by said amendment of this section.

Provisions for payment for such additional clerical assistance employed during the period from Sept. 27, 1906, to June 30, 1907, were contained in section 2 of said amendatory act, Act June 25, 1910, c. 401, § 2, 36 Stat. 830.

Any clerk or other officer willfully neglecting to account for moneys received by him for naturalization proceedings, or to pay over any balance thereof due, is to be deemed guilty of embezzlement, and punishable therefor, by section 20 of this act, set forth below.

The demand, etc., or receipt by a clerk, etc., of other or additional fees or moneys in naturalization proceedings save those specified herein is a misdemeanor and punishable under section 21 of this act, set forth below.

Binding declaration of intention and petitions for naturalization as records of court; reference in certificate of naturalization to record of petition and stub of certificate.

Sec. 14. That the declarations of intention and the petitions for naturalization shall be bound in chronological order in separate volumes, indexed, consecutively numbered, and made part of the records of the court. Each certificate of naturalization issued shall bear upon its face, in a place prepared therefor, the volume number and page number of the petition whereon such certificate was issued, and the volume number and page number of the stub of such certificate.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 14, 34 Stat. 601.

Cancellation of certificates fraudulently or illegally procured, or of certificates of persons taking permanent residence in foreign country; proceedings, order and judgment, records, etc.; certificates issued under prior laws.

Sec. 15. That it shall be the duty of the United States district attorneys for the respective districts, upon affidavit showing good cause therefor, to institute proceedings in any court having jurisdiction to naturalize aliens in the judicial district in which the naturalized citizen may reside at the time of bringing the suit, for the purpose of setting aside and canceling the certificate of citizenship on the ground of fraud or on the ground that such certificate of citizenship was illegally procured. In any such proceedings the party holding the certificate of citizenship alleged to have been fraudulently or illegally procured shall have sixty days personal notice in which to make answer to the petition of the United States; and if the holder of such certificate be absent from the United States or from the district in which he last had his residence, such notice shall be given by publication in the manner provided for the service of summons by publication or upon absentees by the laws of the State or the place where such suit is brought.

If any alien who shall have secured a certificate of citizenship under the provisions of this Act shall, within five years after the issuance of such certificate, return to the country of his nativity, or go to any other foreign country, and take permanent residence therein, it shall be considered prima facie evidence of a lack of intention on the part of such alien to become a permanent citizen of the United States at the time of filing his application for citizenship, and, in the absence of countervailing evidence, it shall be sufficient in the proper proceeding to authorize the cancellation of his certificate of citizenship as fraudulent, and the diplomatic and consular officers of the United States in foreign countries shall from time to time, through the Department of State, furnish the Department of Justice with the names of those within their respective jurisdictions who have such certificates of citizenship and who have taken permanent residence in the country of their nativity, or in any other foreign country, and such statements, duly certified, shall be admissible in evidence in all courts in proceedings to cancel certificates of citizenship.

Whenever any certificate of citizenship shall be set aside or canceled, as herein provided, the court in which such judgment or decree is rendered shall make an order canceling such certificate of citizenship and shall send a certified copy of such order to the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization; and in case such certificate was not originally issued by the court making such order it shall direct the clerk of the court to transmit a copy of such order and judgment to the court out of which such certificate of citizenship shall have been originally issued. And it shall thereupon be the duty of the clerk of the court receiving such certified copy of the order and judgment of the court to enter the same of record and to cancel such original certificate of citizenship upon the records and to notify the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization of such cancellation.

The provisions of this section shall apply not only to certificates of citizenship issued under the provisions of this Act, but to all certificates of citizenship which may have been issued heretofore by any court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings under prior laws.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 15, 34 Stat. 601.

On conviction of any person of knowingly procuring naturalization in violation of the provisions of this act, the order admitting such person to citizenship is to be adjudged void, by section 23 of this act, set forth below.

A naturalized citizen who resides for two years in the foreign state from which he came, or for five years in any other foreign state, is to be presumed to have ceased to be an American citizen, by Act March 2, 1907, c. 2534, § 2, set forth ante, under Title XXV, "Citizenship."

Secs. 16, 17. [Repealed. Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, § 341.]

These sections, which made punishable forging, etc., certificates of citizenship, and engraving, etc., plates for counterfeiting such certificates, and other offenses in connection therewith, are incorporated in the act to codify, etc., the penal laws, Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, in chapter 4, §§ 74, 75, thereof, and are expressly repealed by chapter 15, § 341, of said act, taking effect January 1, 1910. Said act is set forth post, under Title LXIX A, "The Criminal Code."

Issuance of certificate of citizenship contrary to provisions of act, a felony; punishment.

Sec. 18. That it is hereby made a felony for any clerk or other person to issue or be a party to the issuance of a certificate of citizenship contrary to the provisions of this Act, except upon a final order under the hand of a court having jurisdiction to make such order, and upon conviction thereof such clerk or other person shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than five years and by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 18, 34 Stat. 602.

Sec. 19. [Repealed. Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, § 341.]

This section, which made punishable the having possession of any blank certificate of citizenship with intent unlawfully to use the same, is incorporated in the act to codify, etc., the penal laws, Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, in chapter 4, § 77, thereof, and is expressly repealed by chapter 15, § 341, of said act, taking effect January 1, 1910. Said act is set forth post, under Title LXIX A, "The Criminal Code."

Neglect of clerk or other officer to account for or pay over balance of moneys received for naturalization proceedings, embezzlement; punishment.

Sec. 20. That any clerk or other officer of a court having power under this Act to naturalize aliens, who willfully neglects to render true accounts of moneys received by him for naturalization proceedings or who willfully neglects to pay over any balance of such moneys due to the United States within thirty days after said payment shall become due and demand therefor has been made and refused, shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement of the public moneys, and shall be punishable by imprisonment for not more than five years, or by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or both.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 20, 34 Stat. 602.

Demand, etc., or receipt by clerk, etc., of fees or moneys other than those specified in act, a misdemeanor; punishment.

Sec. 21. That it shall be unlawful for any clerk of any court or his authorized deputy or assistant exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings, or to demand, charge, collect, or receive any other or additional fees or moneys in naturalization proceedings save the fees and moneys herein specified; and a violation of any of the provisions of this section or any part thereof is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than two years, or by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 21, 34 Stat. 602.

False certification by clerk, etc., of appearance, oath, acknowledgment, etc., punishable.

Sec. 22. That the clerk of any court exercising jurisdiction in naturalization proceedings, or any person acting under authority of this Act, who shall knowingly certify that a petitioner, affiant, or witness named in an affidavit, petition, or certificate of citizenship, or other paper or writing required to be executed under the provisions of this Act, personally appeared before him and was sworn thereto, or acknowledged the execution thereof or signed the same, when in fact such petitioner, affiant, or witness did not personally appear before him, or was not sworn thereto, or did not execute the same, or did not acknowledge the execution thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not to exceed five years.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 22, 34 Stat. 603.

Procuring naturalization illegally punishable, and on conviction thereof, order admitting to citizenship to be adjudged void; aiding, etc., unauthorized proceedings for naturalization, or procuring or giving false testimony, etc., therein, punishable.

Sec. 23. That any person who knowingly procures naturalization in violation of the provisions of this Act shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned not more than five years, or both, and upon conviction the court in which such conviction is had shall thereupon adjudge and declare the final order admitting such person to citizenship void. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the courts having jurisdiction of the trial of such offense to make such adjudication. Any person who knowingly aids, advises, or encourages any person not entitled thereto to apply for or to secure naturalization, or to file the preliminary papers declaring an intent to become a citizen of the United States, or who in any naturalization proceeding knowingly procures or gives false testimony as to any material fact, or who knowingly makes an affidavit false as to any material fact required to be proved in such proceeding, shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 23, 34 Stat. 603.

Limitation of prosecutions for crimes arising under provisions of act.

Sec. 24. That no person shall be prosecuted, tried, or punished for any crime arising under the provisions of this Act unless the indictment is found or the information is filed within five years next after the commission of such crime.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 24, 34 Stat. 603.

Prosecution of prior offenses under previously existing naturalization laws.

Sec. 25. That for the purpose of the prosecution of all crimes and offenses against the naturalization laws of the United States which may have been committed prior to the date when this Act shall go into effect, the existing naturalization laws shall remain in full force and effect.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 25, 34 Stat. 603.

Repeal.

Sec. 26. That sections twenty-one hundred and sixty-five, twenty-one hundred and sixty-seven, twenty-one hundred and sixty-eight, twenty-one hundred and seventy-three, of the Revised Statutes of the United States of America, and section thirty-nine of chapter one thousand and twelve of the Statutes at Large of the United States of America for the year nineteen hundred and three, and all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with or repugnant to the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26, 34 Stat. 603.

Rev. St. §§ 2165, 2167, 2168, and 2173, repealed by this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1329–1331, 1332, 1334. Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 39, 32 Stat. 1222, also repealed by this section, contained provisions similar to those of sections 7 and 23 of this act, set forth above.

The existing naturalization laws remain in full force and effect for the purpose of the prosecution of offenses committed prior to the going into effect of this act, by section 25 of this act, set forth above.

Forms; declaration of intention; petition for naturalization; affidavit of witnesses; certificate of naturalization; stub of certificate.

Sec. 27. That substantially the following forms shall be used in the proceedings to which they relate:

ACT JUNE 29, 1906, c. 3624. [H. R. 18713.]

An Act to Validate Certain Certificates of Naturalization. (34 Stat. 630.)

Naturalization certificates failing to show compliance with requirements of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 39, to be valid upon compliance therewith.

Be it enacted, &c., That naturalization certificates issued after the Act approved March third, nineteen hundred and three, entitled "An Act to regulate the immigration of aliens into the United States," went into effect, which fail to show that the courts issuing said certificates complied with the requirements of section thirty-nine of said Act, but which were otherwise lawfully issued, are hereby declared to be as valid as though said certificates complied with said section: Provided, That in all such cases applications shall be made for new naturalization certificates, and when the same are granted, upon compliance with the provisions of said Act of nineteen hundred and three, they shall relate back to the defective certificates, and citizenship shall be deemed to have been perfected at the date of the defective certificate.

Act June 29, 1906, c. 3624. § 1, 34 Stat. 630.

Act March 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 39, mentioned in this section, was not to be enforced, by a provision contained therein, until 90 days after the approval of the act. It is repealed by Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 26, set forth above. It was as follows:

"Sec. 39. That no person who disbelieves in or who is opposed to all organized government, or who is a member of or affiliated with any organization entertaining and teaching such disbelief in or opposition to all organized government, or who advocates or teaches the duty, necessity, or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or of officers generally, of the Government of the United States or of any other organized government, because of his or their official character, or who has violated any of the provisions of this Act, shall be naturalized or be made a citizen of the United States. All courts and tribunals and all judges and officers thereof having jurisdiction of naturalization proceedings or duties to perform in regard thereto shall, on the final application for naturalization, make careful inquiry into such matters, and before issuing the final order or certificate of naturalization cause to be entered of record the affidavit of the applicant and of his witnesses so far as applicable, reciting and affirming the truth of every material fact requisite for naturalization. All final orders and certificates of naturalization hereafter made shall show on their face specifically that said affidavits were duly made and recorded, and all orders and certificates that fail to show such facts shall be null and void.

"That any person who purposely procures naturalization in violation of the provisions of this section shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned not less than one nor more than ten years, or both, and the court in which such conviction is had shall thereupon adjudge and declare the order or decree and all certificates admitting such person to citizenship null and void. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the courts having jurisdiction of the trial of such offense to make such adjudication.

"That any person who knowingly aids, advises, or encourages any such person to apply for or to secure naturalization or to file the preliminary papers declaring an intent to become a citizen of the United States, or who in any naturalization proceeding knowingly procures or gives false testimony as to any material fact, or who knowingly makes an affidavit false as to any material fact required to be proved in such proceeding, shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars or imprisoned not less than one nor more than ten years, or both.

"The foregoing provisions concerning naturalization shall not be enforced until ninety days after the approval hereof."

Prior naturalization proceedings, etc., in criminal court of Cook County, Ill., to be deemed those of court with jurisdiction.

Sec. 2. That all the records relating to naturalization, all declarations of intention to become citizens of the United States, and all certificates of naturalization filed, recorded, or issued prior to the time when this Act takes effect in or from the criminal court of Cook County, Illinois, shall for all purposes be deemed to be and to have been made, filed, recorded, or issued by a court with jurisdiction to naturalize aliens, but shall not be by this Act further validated or legalized.

ACT MARCH 6, 1902, c. 139. [As amended 1902, 1904, 1906.]

An Act to Provide for a Permanent Census Office. (32 Stat. 51.)

Census Office made permanent.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Census Office temporarily established in the Department of the Interior in accordance with an Act entitled "An Act to provide for taking the Twelfth and subsequent censuses," approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, is hereby made a permanent office.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 1, 32 Stat. 51.

Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1336–1349.

All provisions of said Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, inconsistent with this act, and various supplemental acts amendatory thereof, are repealed by section 12 of this act, set forth below.

The Census Office is transferred from the Department of the Interior to the Department of Commerce and Labor by the act establishing the latter department, Act Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 4, ante, under Title XII A, "The Department of Commerce and Labor."

This act, establishing the permanent Census Office, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, except as amended in the act to provide for the Thirteenth and subsequent decennial censuses, Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, 36 Stat. 10, set forth below, remain in full force, by section 33 of said act.

Continuance of work pertaining to Twelfth Census; time of organization of permanent Census Office.

Sec. 2. That the work pertaining to the Twelfth Census shall be carried on by the Census Office under the existing organization until the first day of July, nineteen hundred and two, when the permanent Census Office herein provided for shall be organized by the Director of the Census.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 2, 32 Stat. 51.

Director of Census; salary; duties.

Sec. 3. That the permanent Census Office shall be in charge of a Director of the Census, appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall receive an annual salary of six thousand dollars. It shall be his duty to superintend and direct the taking of the Thirteenth and subsequent censuses of the United States and to perform such other duties as may be imposed upon him by law.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 3, 32 Stat. 51.

Officers, clerks, and employés of Census Office; bond of disbursing clerk.

Sec. 4. That there shall be in the Census Office, to be appointed by the Director thereof, with the approval of the head of the Department to which the said Census Office is attached, four chief statisticians, who shall be persons of known and tried experience in statistical work, at an annual salary of two thousand five hundred dollars each; a chief clerk, at an annual salary of two thousand five hundred dollars, who, in the absence of the Director, shall serve as acting director; a disbursing clerk, who shall also act as appointment clerk, at an annual salary of two thousand five hundred dollars; one stenographer, at an annual salary of one thousand five hundred dollars; four expert chiefs of division, at an annual salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars each; six clerks of class three; ten clerks of class two; and such number of clerks of class one, and of clerks, copyists, computers, and skilled laborers, with salaries at the rate of not less than six hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars per annum, messengers, assistant messengers, watchmen, unskilled laborers, and charwomen as may be necessary for the proper and prompt performance of the duties required by law. The disbursing clerk herein provided for shall, before entering upon his duties, give bond to the Secretary of the Treasury in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, which bond shall be conditioned that the said officer shall render a true and faithful account to the proper accounting officers of the Treasury quarter yearly of all moneys and properties which shall be received by him by virtue of his office, with surety, to be approved by the Solicitor of the Treasury. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury, to be by him put in suit upon any breach of the conditions thereof.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 4, 32 Stat. 51. Act June 30, 1902, c. 1325, 32 Stat. 506.

The amendment of this section by Act June 30, 1902, c. 1325, cited above, consists in the insertion after the word "watchmen," and before the words "and charwomen," of the words "unskilled laborers."

The appointment of employés of the Office is provided for by the next following section of this act.

All employés of the Census Office must be citizens of the United States, by a provision of section 17 of Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, as amended by section 10 of this act, set forth below.

Estimates in detail for the expenses of the permanent Census Office are to be submitted annually in the regular Book of Estimates, by a provision of Act June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, post, under Title XLI, "Appropriations."

Annual appropriations for the Census Office are made in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, including expenses for taking, compiling, and publishing the Thirteenth Census, etc., is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1228.

During the decennial census period, the annual compensation of the officials of the Census Office is increased. by Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 5, set forth below.

During the decennial census period, in addition to the force in the Census Office provided for by this act, the appointment of an Assistant Director and other officers, and the employment of additional clerks and other employés are authorized by Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, §§ 3, 4, 6, 7, set forth below.

An additional bond is required of the disbursing clerk of the Census Office during the decennial census period, by a provision of Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 4, set forth below.

Appointment of employés of Census Office; preference of honorably discharged soldiers and their widows.

Sec. 5. That all employees of the Census Office, at the date of the passage of this Act, except unskilled laborers, may be appointed by the Director of the Census with the approval of the head of the Department to which said Census Office is attached, and when so appointed shall be and they are hereby placed, without further examination, under the provisions of the civil service Act approved January sixteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and the amendments thereto and the rules established thereunder; and persons who have served as soldiers in any war in which the United States may have been engaged, who have been honorably discharged from the service of the United States, and the widows of such soldiers, shall have preference in the matter of employment; and all new appointments to the permanent clerical force in the Census Office hereby created shall be made in accordance with the requirements of the civil service Act above referred to.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 5, 32 Stat. 51.

The provisions of Act Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, mentioned in this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1217–1224.

Payment to employés not reappointed for leave of absence, in addition to the salary due them for services, was authorized by a provision of Act July 1, 1902, c. 1351, set forth below.

Sec. 6. [Superseded. Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 33.]

This section provided that the provisions of Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, relating to the Twelfth Census, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1338–1349, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, should remain in force for the taking of the Thirteenth and subsequent censuses. It is superseded by the repeal of said Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, by Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 33, set forth below.

Collection of special statistics decennially; special agents to secure statistics; preparation and publication of Official Register; repeal.

Sec. 7. That after the completion and return of the enumeration and of the work upon the schedules relating to the products of agriculture and to manufacturing and mechanical establishments provided for in section seven of the Act of March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, entitled "An Act to provide for taking the Twelfth and subsequent censuses," the Director of the Census is hereby authorized decennially to collect statistics relating to the defective, dependent, and delinquent classes; to crime, including judicial statistics pertaining thereto, provided that such statistics shall include information upon the following questions, namely: Age, sex, color, race, nativity, parentage, literacy by race, color, nativity, and parentage, and such other questions relating to these subjects as the Director in his discretion may deem proper; to social statistics of cities; to public indebtedness, valuation, taxation, and expenditures; to religious bodies; to transportation by water, and express business; to mines, mining, quarries, and minerals, and the production and value thereof, including gold in divisions of placer and vein, and silver mines, and the number of men employed, the average daily wage, average working time, and aggregate earnings in the various branches and aforesaid divisions of the mining and quarrying industries; to savings banks and other savings institutions, mortgage, loan, and investment companies, and similar institutions; to the fishing industry in cooperation with the Bureau of Fisheries; and every five years to collect statistics relating to street railways, electric light and power, telephone, and telegraph business. And the Director of the Census shall prepare schedules containing such interrogatories as shall in his judgment be best adapted to elicit the information required under the subjects, with such specifications, divisions, and particulars under each head as he shall deem necessary to that end; and all reports prepared under the provisions of this section shall be designated as "Special Reports of the Census Office." For the purpose of securing the statistics required by this section the Director of the Census may appoint special agents when necessary, and such special agents shall receive compensation as hereinafter provided. And the Director of the Census shall edit, index, and publish the Official Register of the United States, and the provisions of existing law imposing that duty upon the Department of the Interior are hereby repealed, and the data to be included in the Official Register, which is now required to be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior, shall hereafter be transmitted to the Director of the Census.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 7, 32 Stat. 52. Act June 7, 1906, c. 3048, 34 Stat. 218.

This section of Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, cited above, amended Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, § 8, Comp. St. 1901, but is itself amended by Act June 7, 1906, c. 3048, also cited above, to read as set forth here.

Said act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 7, as originally enacted, was as follows:

Sec. 7. That section eight of the Act of March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: That after the completion and return of the enumeration and of the work upon the schedules relating to the products of agriculture and to manufacturing and mechanical establishments provided for in section seven of this Act, the Director of the Census is hereby authorized decennially to collect statistics relating to special classes, including the insane, feeble-minded, deaf, dumb, and blind; to crime, pauperism, and benevolence, including prisoners, paupers, juvenile delinquents, and inmates of benevolent and reformatory institutions; to social statistics of cities; to public indebtedness, valuation, taxation, and expenditures; to religious bodies; to electric light and power, telephone, and telegraph business; to transportation by water, express business, and street railways; to mines, mining, quarries and minerals and the production and value thereof, including gold in divisions of placer and vein, and silver mines, and the number of men employed, the average daily wage, average working time, and aggregate earnings in the various branches and aforesaid divisions of the mining and quarrying industries until July first, nineteen hundred and four. And the Director of the Census shall prepare schedules containing such interrogatories as shall in his judgment be best adapted to elicit the information required under these subjects, with such specifications, divisions, and particulars under each head as he shall deem necessary to that end; and all reports prepared under the provisions of this section shall be designated as "Special reports of the Census Office." For the purpose of securing the statistics required by this section, the Director of the Census may appoint special agents when necessary, and such special agents shall receive compensation as hereinafter provided: Provided, That the statistics of special classes, and of crime, pauperism, and benevolence specified in this section, shall be restricted to institutions containing such classes and the Director of the Census is authorized and directed to collect statistics relating to all of the deaf, dumb, and blind, notwithstanding the restrictions and limitations contained in section eight of said Act entitled "An Act to provide for taking the Twelfth and subsequent censuses": Provided, That in taking the census of said classes the inquiries shall be confined to the following four questions, namely: Name, age, sex, and post-office address.

The clerical force of the Census Office may be employed for such field work as may be required to carry out the provisions of this section, in lieu of employing special agents for the purpose, by a proviso annexed to section 17 of Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, as amended by section 10 of this act, set forth below.

Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, mentioned in this section, section 8 of which was amended by this section as originally enacted, is repealed by Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 33, set forth below.

The Thirteenth Census is restricted to inquiries relating to population, agriculture, manufactures, and mines and quarries, prescribed by Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 8, set forth below.

Subsequent provisions relating to special agents to carry out the provisions of this act and the act to provide for the Thirteenth and subsequent censuses are contained in section 18 of the latter act, Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 18, set forth below.

Collection of vital statistics annually.

Sec. 8. That there shall be a collection of the statistics of the births and deaths in registration areas for the year nineteen hundred and two, and annually thereafter, the date for which shall be obtained only from and restricted to such registration records of such States and municipalities as in the discretion of the Director possess records affording satisfactory data in necessary detail, the compensation for the transcription of which shall not exceed four cents for each birth or death reported; or a minimum compensation of twenty-five dollars may be allowed, in the discretion of the Director, in States or cities registering less than five hundred deaths or five hundred births during the preceding year.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 8, 32 Stat. 52. Act April 27, 1904, c. 1626, 33 Stat. 362.

In this section as originally enacted the concluding clause relating to the compensation for transcription of registration records was, "the compensation for the transcription of which shall not exceed two cents for each birth or death reported." It is amended by Act April 27, 1904, cited above, to read as set forth here. In the section as so amended, the word "date" in the third line thereof is substituted, apparently by error, for the word "data" in the section originally enacted.

Provisions for collection of statistics of deaths and births in registration areas were contained in Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, § 7, and in § 8, before the amendment of the latter section by section 7 of this act.

Co-operation of state authorities in securing a uniform system of registration of births and deaths is requested by Res. Feb. 11, 1903, No. 7, set forth below.

The collection of statistics of marriage and divorce is provided for by Res. Feb. 9, 1905, No. 16, set forth below.

Collection of statistics of manufactures under factory system in year 1905 and every ten years thereafter; collection of statistics of cotton production annually; additional special collections of statistics as required by Congress.

Sec. 9. That in the year nineteen hundred and five, and every ten years thereafter, there shall be a collection of the statistics of manufactures, confined to manufacturing establishments conducted under what is known as the factory system, exclusive of the so-called neighborhood and mechanical industries; and the Director is hereby authorized to prepare such schedules as in his judgment may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section; and that in addition to the statistics now provided for by law the Director of the Census shall annually collect the statistics of the cotton production of the country as returned by the ginners and bulletins giving the results of the same shall be issued weekly beginning September first of each year and continued till February first following; and that the Director of the Census shall make, from time to time, any additional special collections of statistics relating to any branch of agriculture, manufacture, mining, transportation, fisheries, or any other branch of industry that may be required of him by Congress.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 9, 32 Stat. 52.

Co-operation with state officials in the collection of statistics of manufactures is authorized by Act March 1, 1904, c. 388, set forth below.

The collection of additional statistics of the consumption, etc., of cotton, and the semimonthly publication of the amount of cotton ginned, are authorized and directed by Res. Feb. 9, 1905, No. 16, set forth below.

The collection of additional statistics of stocks of baled cotton is authorized and directed by Res. March 2, 1909, No. 21, set forth below.

Amendment of Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, § 17.

Sec. 10. That section seventeen of the act of March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Special agents; authority; compensation; employment of clerical force for field work; employés of Census Office to be citizens.

"Sec. 17. That the special agents appointed under the provisions of this Act have like authority with the enumerators in respect to the subjects committed to them under this Act and shall receive compensation at rates to be fixed by the Director of the Census: Provided, That the same shall in no case exceed six dollars per day and actual necessary traveling expenses and an allowance in lieu of subsistence not exceeding three dollars per day during their necessary absence from their usual place of residence: And provided further, That no pay or allowance in lieu of subsistence shall be allowed special agents when employed in the Census Office on other than the special work committed to them, and no appointments of special agents shall be made for clerical work: And provided further, That the Director of the Census is hereby authorized in his discretion to employ the clerical force of the Census Office for such field work as may be required to carry out the provisions of sections seven, eight, and nine, in lieu of employing special agents for that purpose; and such employees when so employed shall be allowed, in addition to their regular compensation, actual necessary traveling expenses and an allowance in lieu of subsistence not exceeding three dollars per day during their necessary absence from the Census Office. All employees of the Census Office shall be citizens of the United States."

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 10, 32 Stat. 53.

Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, § 17, amended by this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1345.

Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, section 17 of which is amended by this section, is repealed by Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 33, set forth below. The provisions of said original section are re-enacted, and those of the amended section set forth here are to a great extent superseded, by those of section 18 of said Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, also set forth below.

Census printing office abolished; bulletins and reports to be printed, etc., by Public Printer.

Sec. 11. That the printing office established in the Census Office is hereby abolished to take effect July first, nineteen hundred and two, and the outfit and equipment therein shall be turned over to the Public Printer; and the Director of the Census is hereby authorized and directed to have printed, published, and distributed, from time to time, bulletins and reports of the preliminary and other results of the various investigations authorized by law; and all of said printing and binding shall be done by the Public Printer at the Government Printing Office.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 11, 32 Stat. 53.

The Director of the Census was authorized to print and bind in the Census Office blanks, circulars, etc., and to print, publish, and distribute bulletins and reports, and the printing office outfit used in the Eleventh Census was transferred to the Census Office, by provisions of Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, §§ 25, 29, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1347, 1348; and the appointment and employment of a Superintendent of Printing and of skilled mechanics and other persons in the census printing office were authorized by Act May 10, 1900, c. 389, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1351, which is repealed by the next following section of this act.

Provisions for the printing necessary to carry out the act to provide for the Thirteenth and subsequent decennial censuses are contained in section 28 of that act, Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 28, set forth below.

Provisions relating to the Public Printer and the Government Printing Office are contained in Title XLV, "Public Printing, Advertisements, and Public Documents," Comp. St. 1901, pp. 2532–2606.

Repeal.

Sec. 12. That the supplemental acts amendatory of the Act of March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, approved February first, nineteen hundred, May tenth, nineteen hundred, June second, nineteen hundred, February twenty-third, nineteen hundred and one, are hereby repealed; and all provisions of the Act of March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 12, 32 Stat. 53.

Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, provisions of which inconsistent with this act are repealed by this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1336–

1349; and the supplemental acts amendatory thereof, also mentioned in and repealed by this section, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1349–1353. Said Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, is wholly repealed by Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 33, set forth below.

ACT JAN. 12, 1903, c. 90.

An Act Providing for the Transfer of Census Records and Volumes to the Census Office, and for Other Purposes. (32 Stat. 767.)

Transfer to Census Office of schedules, records, and reports of preceding censuses; copies to be furnished to governors of States or Territories, or chief officers of municipal governments.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to transfer to the Census Office all of the schedules, records, and volumes of reports of the eleven decennial enumerations from seventeen hundred and ninety to eighteen hundred and ninety, inclusive, that may be in the possession of the Department of the Interior, which transfer shall not change the allotment of such reports heretofore made to Senators and Representatives; and the Director of the Census is hereby authorized, upon the request of a governor of any State or Territory, or the chief officer of any municipal government, to furnish such governor or municipal officer with copies of so much of said files or records as may be requested, at the discretion of the Director of the Census, upon payment of the actual cost of making such copies; and the amounts so received shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States, to be placed to the credit of and in addition to the appropriation made for the taking of the census.

Act Jan. 12, 1903, c. 90, 32 Stat. 767.

Previous provisions for the transfer to the Census Office of records, books, and files relating to preceding censuses necessary in conducting the work of the Census Office, were contained in Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, § 29, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1348.

RES. FEB. 11, 1903, No. 7.

Joint Resolution Requesting State Authorities to Cooperate with Census Office in Securing a Uniform System of Birth and Death Registration. (32 Stat. 1231.)

Preamble.

Whereas the registration of deaths at the time of their occurrence furnishes official record information of much value to individuals; and

Whereas the registration of births and deaths, with information upon certain points, is essential to the progress of medical and sanitary science in preventing and restricting disease and in devising and applying remedial agencies; and

Whereas all of the principal countries of the civilized world recognize the necessity for such registration and enforce the same by general laws; and

Whereas registration in the United States is now confined to a few States, as a whole, and the larger cities, under local laws and ordinances which differ widely in their requirements; and

Whereas it is most important that registration should be conducted under laws that will insure a practical uniformity in the character and amount of information available from the records; and

Whereas the American Public Health Association and the United States Census Office are now co-operating in an effort to extend the benefits of registration and to promote its efficiency by indicating the essential requirements of legislative enactments designed to secure the proper registration of all deaths and births and the collection of accurate vital statistics, to be presented to the attention of the legislative authorities in nonregistration States, with the suggestion that such legislation be adopted; Now, therefore,

Co-operation of state authorities in securing uniform system of registration of births and deaths requested.

Resolved, &c., That the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States hereby expresses approval of this movement and requests the favorable consideration and action of the State authorities, to the end that the United States may attain a complete and uniform system of registration.

Res. Feb. 11, 1903, No. 7, 32 Stat. 1231.

Provisions for collection of statistics of births and deaths in registration areas, restricted to records of states and municipalities affording satisfactory data in necessary detail, are contained in Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 8, set forth above, as amended by Act April 27, 1904, c. 1626.

Provisions for co-operation with state officials in the collection of statistics of manufactures are contained in Act March 1, 1904, c. 388, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 1, 1904, c. 388. [H. R. 11823.]

An Act to Authorize the Director of the Census to Co-operate with the Secretary of State of the State of Michigan and with Officials of Other States in Taking the Census of Manufactures. (33 Stat. 58.)

Co-operation with state officials in collection of statistics of manufactures.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Director of the Census is hereby authorized and empowered to co-operate with the secretary of state of the State of Michigan in taking the census of manufactures and shall equitably share the expenses thereof, the results of which may be accepted by the United States as its census of manufactures for that State for the year nineteen hundred and five: Provided, That the expenditures incident to this co-operation shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars, such expenditures to be paid from the fund appropriated for the expenses of the field work of the census for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and five. And the Director of the Census may, in his discretion, co-operate with the officials of other States which take a like census in so far as it may aid in the collection of statistics of manufactures required by existing law.

Act March 1, 1904, c. 388, 33 Stat. 58.

Previous provisions for collection of statistics of manufactures are contained in Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 9, set forth above.

RES. FEB. 9, 1905, No. 16. [H. J. R. 185.]

Joint Resolution Authorizing and Directing the Director of the Census to Collect and Publish Additional Statistics. (33 Stat. 1282.)

Collection of additional statistics of cotton consumption, surplus, and export; semimonthly reports of cotton ginned; collection and publication of statistics of marriage and divorce.

Resolved, &c., That the Director of the Census be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to collect and publish in connection with the ginners' reports of cotton production provided for in section nine of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for a permanent Census Office, approved March sixth, nineteen hundred and two," statistics of the consumption of cotton, the surplus of cotton held by the manufacturers, and the quantity of cotton exported, the statistics to be summarized as of September first each year so as to show the cotton production and consumption of the preceding year.

And the Director of the Census shall make semimonthly publication of the amount of cotton ginned in lieu of the monthly reports which he now makes.

That the Director of the Census be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to collect and publish the statistics of and relating to marriage and divorce in the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia since January first, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven: Provided, That such statistics as now required by law to be collected be used so far as it is practicable to do so.

Res. Feb. 9, 1905, No. 16, 33 Stat. 1282.

Previous provisions for collection of statistics of cotton production are contained in Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 9, set forth above.

The collection of additional statistics of stocks of baled cotton is authorized and directed by Res. March 2, 1909, No. 21, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1. [H. R. 19844.]

Publication of names of heads of families returned in First Census; sale of publications; report.

Census Office: The Director of the Census is hereby authorized and directed to publish, in a permanent form, by counties and minor civil divisions, the names of the heads of families returned at the First Census of the United States in seventeen hundred and ninety; and the Director of the Census is authorized, in his discretion, to sell said publications, the proceeds thereof to be covered into the Treasury of the United States, to be deposited to the credit of miscellaneous receipts on account of "Proceeds of sales of Government property:" Provided, That no expense shall be incurred hereunder additional to appropriations for the Census Office for printing therefor made for the fiscal year nineteen hundred and seven; and the Director of the Census is hereby directed to report to Congress at its next session the cost incurred hereunder and the price fixed for said publication and the total received therefor.

Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 722.

This is a provision of the sundry civil appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907, cited above.

A further provision for the expense of continuing and completing the publication of names authorized by this act, contained in Act Feb. 15, 1908, c. 27, § 1, is set forth below.

ACT FEB. 15, 1908, c. 27, § 1. [H. R. 14766.]

Continuance and completion of publication of names of heads of families returned in First Census.

That the Director of the Census is hereby authorized and directed to expend so much of the appropriation for printing for the Department of Commerce and Labor allotted by law to the Census Office for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and eight, as may be necessary to continue and complete the publication of the names of the heads of families returned at the First Census of the United States, as authorized by the sundry civil appropriation Act approved June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six.

Act Feb. 15, 1908, c. 27, § 1, 35 Stat. 19.

This is a provision of the urgent deficiency appropriation act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1908, cited above.

The provision of Act June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, mentioned in this provision, is set forth above.

RES. MARCH 2, 1909, No. 21. [H. J. Res. 231.]

Joint Resolution Authorizing the Director of the Census to Collect and Publish Additional Statistics. (35 Stat. 1168.)

Collection and publication of additional statistics of stocks of baled cotton.

Resolved, &c., That the Director of the Census be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to collect and publish, in addition to the cotton reports now being made by him, statistics of stocks of baled cotton in the United States, to be summarized as of November first, January first, and March first.

Res. March 2, 1909, No. 21, 35 Stat. 1168.

Previous provisions for collection of statistics of cotton production are contained in Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 9, and Res. Feb. 9, 1905, No. 16, set forth above.

ACT JULY 2, 1909, c. 2. [H. R. 1033.] [As amended 1910. H. R. 18364. S. J. Res. 66.]

An Act to Provide for the Thirteenth and Subsequent Decennial Censuses. (36 Stat. 1.)

Census to be taken in the year 1910 and every 10 years thereafter.

Be it enacted, &c., That a census of the population, agriculture, manufactures, and mines and quarries of the United States shall be taken by the Director of the Census in the year nineteen hundred and ten and every ten years thereafter. The census herein provided for shall include each State and Territory on the mainland of the United States, the District of Columbia, and Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 1, 36 Stat. 1.

Decennial census period.

Sec. 2. That the period of three years beginning the first day of July next preceding the census provided for in section one of this Act shall be known as the decennial census period, and the reports upon the inquiries provided for in said section shall be completed and published within such period.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 2, 36 Stat. 2.

Additional officers in Census Office during decennial census period.

Sec. 3. That after June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and nine, and during the decennial census period only, there may be employed in the Census Office, in addition to the force provided for by the Act of March sixth, nineteen hundred and two, entitled "An Act to provide for a permanent Census Office," an Assistant Director, who shall be an experienced practical statistician; a geographer, a chief statistician, who shall be a person of known and tried experience in statistical work, an appointment clerk, a private secretary to the Director, two stenographers, and eight expert chiefs of division. These officers, with the exception of the Assistant Director, shall be appointed without examination by the Secretary of Commerce and Labor upon the recommendation of the Director of the Census. The Assistant Director shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 3, 36 Stat. 2.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, mentioned in this section, is set forth above. Officers, etc., in the Census Office are provided for by section 4 of said act.

Duties of Assistant Director; appointment clerk; additional bond of disbursing clerk during decennial census period.

Sec. 4. That the Assistant Director shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Director of the Census. In the absence of the Director the Assistant Director shall serve as Director, and in the absence of the Director and Assistant Director the chief clerk shall serve as Director.

The appointment clerk shall perform the appointment duties assigned to the disbursing clerk in section four of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for a permanent Census Office," approved March sixth, nineteen hundred and two. The disbursing clerk of the Census Office shall, at the beginning of the decennial census period, give additional bond to the Secretary of the Treasury in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, surety to be approved by the Solicitor of the Treasury, which bond shall be conditioned that the said officer shall render, quarter yearly, a true and faithful account to the proper accounting officers of the Treasury of all moneys and properties which shall be received by him by virtue of his office during the said decennial census period. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury, to be by him put in suit upon any breach of the conditions thereof.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 4, 36 Stat. 2.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, § 4, mentioned in this section, is set forth above.

Compensation of officials of Census Office during decennial census period.

Sec. 5. That during the decennial census period the annual compensation of the officials of the Census Office shall be as follows: The Director of the Census, seven thousand dollars; the private secretary to the Director, two thousand two hundred and fifty dollars; the Assistant Director, five thousand dollars; the chief statisticians, three thousand dollars each; the chief clerk, two thousand five hundred dollars; the disbursing clerk, two thousand eight hundred and seventy-five dollars; the appointment clerk, two thousand five hundred dollars; the geographer, two thousand five hundred dollars; the chiefs of division, two thousand dollars each; and the stenographers provided for in section three of this Act, one thousand eight hundred dollars each.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 5, 36 Stat. 2.

The compensation of the Director of the Census and officers in the Census Office is prescribed by Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, §§ 3, 4, set forth above.

Additional clerks and employés in Census Office during decennial census period.

Sec. 6. That in addition to the force hereinbefore provided for and to that already authorized by law there may be employed in the Census Office during the decennial census period, and no longer, as many clerks of classes four, three, two, and one; as many clerks, copyists, computers, and skilled laborers, with salaries at the rate of not less than six hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars per annum, and as many messengers, assistant messengers, messenger boys, watchmen, unskilled laborers, and charwomen, as may be found necessary for the proper and prompt performance of the duties herein required, these additional clerks and employees to be appointed by the Director of the Census: Provided, That the total number of such additional clerks of classes two, three, and four shall at no time exceed one hundred: And provided further, That employees engaged in the compilation or tabulation of statistics by the use of mechanical devices may be compensated on a piece-price basis to be fixed by the Director.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 6, 36 Stat. 2.

Examinations for appointment of additional clerks and employés; selection; qualifications; temporary appointments; transfers of employés; term of service of transferred employés and of temporary officers and employés.

Sec. 7. That the additional clerks and other employees provided for in section six shall be subject to such special test examination as the Director of the Census may prescribe, the said examination to be conducted by the United States Civil Service Commission, the examination to be open to all applicants without regard to political party affiliations, and such examination shall be held at such places in each State as may be designated by the Civil Service Commission. Copies of the eligible registers so established and the examination papers of all eligibles shall be furnished the Director of the Census by the Civil Service Commission, and selections therefrom shall be made by the Director of the Census, in conformity with the law of apportionment as now provided for the classified service, in the order of rating: Provided, That hereafter all examinations of applicants for positions in the government service, from any State or Territory, shall be had in the State or Territory in which such applicant resides, and no person shall be eligible for such examination or appointment unless he or she shall have been actually domiciled in such State or Territory for at least one year previous to such examination: Provided, however, That no person afflicted with tuberculosis shall be appointed and that each applicant for appointment shall accompany his or her application with a certificate of health from some reputable physician: Provided, however, That in no instance shall more than one person be appointed from the same family: Provided, however, That when the exigencies of the service require, the Director may appoint for temporary employment not exceeding sixty days' duration from the aforesaid list of eligibles those who, by reason of residence or other conditions, are immediately available; and may also appoint for not exceeding sixty days' duration, persons having had previous experience in operating mechanical appliances in census work whose efficiency records in operating such appliances are satisfactory to him, and may accept such records in lieu of the civil service examination: And provided further, That employees in other branches of the departmental classified service who have had previous experience in census work may be transferred without examination to the Census Office to serve during the whole or a part of the decennial census period, and at the end of such service the employees so transferred, shall be eligible to appointment to positions in any Department held by them at date of transfer to the Census Office, without examination: And provided further, That during the decennial census period and no longer the Director of the Census may fill vacancies in the permanent force of the Census Office by the promotion or transfer of clerks or other employees employed on the temporary force authorized by section six of this Act: And provided further, That at the expiration of the decennial census period the term of service of all employees so transferred and of all other temporary officers and employees appointed under the provisions of this Act shall terminate, and such officers and employees shall not be eligible to appointment or transfer into the classified service of the Government by virtue of their examination or appointment under this Act.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 7, 36 Stat. 3.

The first proviso in this section, relating to the place of examinations, is not restricted to examinations under this act, but in terms applies to all examinations of applicants for positions in the government service.

Scope of Thirteenth Census; schedules, and contents thereof; collection of statistics by special agents or detailed employés; form and subdivision of inquiries.

Sec. 8. That the Thirteenth Census shall be restricted to inquiries relating to population, to agriculture, to manufactures, and to mines and quarries. The schedules relating to population shall include for each inhabitant the name, relationship to head of family, color, sex, age, conjugal condition, place of birth, place of birth of parents, number of years in the United States, citizenship, occupation, whether or not employer or employee, and, if employee, whether or not employed at the date of enumeration and the number of months unemployed during the preceding calendar year, whether or not engaged in agriculture, school attendance, literacy, and tenure of home and whether or not a survivor of the Union or Confederate Army or Navy; and the name and address of each blind or deaf and dumb person; and for the enumeration of institutions, shall include paupers, prisoners, juvenile delinquents, insane, feeble-minded, blind, deaf and dumb, and inmates of benevolent institutions.

The schedules relating to agriculture shall include name, color and country of birth of occupant of each farm, tenure, acreage of farm, acreage of land under irrigation, acreage of woodland and character of timber thereon, value of farm and improvements, value of farm implements, number and value of live stock on farms and ranges, number and value of domestic animals not on farms and ranges, and the acreage of crops planted and to be planted during the year of enumeration, and the acreage of crops and the quantity and value of crops and other farm products for the year ending December thirty-first next preceding the enumeration.

The schedules of inquiries relating to manufactures and to mines and quarries shall include the name and location of each establishment; character of organization, whether individual, cooperative, or other form; character of business or kind of goods manufactured; amount of capital actually invested; number of proprietors, firm members, copartners, stockholders, and officers and the amount of their salaries; number of employees and the amount of their wages; quantity and cost of materials used in manufactures; amount of miscellaneous expenses; quantity and value of products; time in operation during the census year; character and quantity of power used, and character and number of machines employed. Inquiries shall also be made as to the location and character of irrigation enterprises; quantity of land irrigated in the arid region of the United States and in each State and county in that section under state and federal laws; the price at which these lands, including water right, are obtainable; the character and value of crops produced on irrigated lands, the amount of water used per acre for said irrigation and whether it was obtainable from national, state, or private works; the location of the various projects and method of construction with facts as to their physical condition; the amount of capital invested in such irrigation works.

The census of manufactures and of mines and quarries shall relate to the year ending December thirty-first next preceding the enumeration of population and shall be confined to mines and quarries and manufacturing establishments which were in active operation during all or a portion of that year. The census of manufactures shall furthermore be confined to manufacturing establishments conducted under what is known as the factory system, exclusive of the so-called neighborhood household and hand industries: Provided, That the census shall also include an enumeration of the number of cattle, calves, sheep, lambs, hogs, goats, and kids slaughtered for food purposes, and all hides produced, whether taken from animals slaughtered for food purposes or otherwise, during the year next preceding the year of the enumeration of population, irrespective of the character of the establishment in which slaughtered or produced.

The inquiry concerning manufactures shall cover the production of turpentine and rosin, and the report concerning this industry shall show, in addition to the other facts covered by the regular schedule of manufactures, the quantity and quality of turpentine and rosin manufactured and marketed, the sources, methods, and extent of the industry.

Whenever he shall deem it expedient, the Director of the Census may charge the collection of these statistics upon special agents or upon detailed employees, to be employed without respect to locality.

The form and subdivision of inquiries necessary to secure the information under the foregoing topics shall be determined by the Director of the Census.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 8, 36 Stat. 3. Act. Feb. 25, 1910, c. 63, 36 Stat. 227.

The amendment of this section by Act Feb. 25, 1910, c. 63, cited above, consists chiefly in additions to the matters to be included in the schedules relating to agriculture and to manufactures and mines.

The schedules relating to population are to provide inquiries respecting the nationality or mother tongue of persons born in foreign countries and of parents of foreign birth of persons enumerated, by Res. March 24, 1910. No. 17, set forth below.

Appointment of supervisors of census.

Sec. 9. That the Director of the Census shall, at least six months prior to the date fixed for commencing the enumeration at the Thirteenth and each succeeding decennial census, designate the number, whether one or more, of supervisors of census for each State and Territory, the District of Columbia, Alaska, and Porto Rico, and shall define the districts within which they are to act; except that the Director of the Census, in his discretion, need not designate supervisors for Alaska and the Territory of Hawaii, but in lieu thereof may employ special agents as hereinafter provided. The supervisors shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate: Provided, That the whole number of supervisors shall not exceed three hundred and thirty: And provided further, That so far as practicable and desirable the boundaries of the supervisors' districts shall conform to the boundaries of the congressional districts: And provided further, That if in any supervisor's district the supervisor has not been appointed and qualified ninety days preceding the date fixed for the commencement of the enumeration, or if any vacancy shall occur thereafter, either through death, removal, or resignation of the supervisor, or from any other cause, the Director of the Census may appoint a temporary supervisor or detail an employee of the Census Office to act as supervisor for that district.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 9, 36 Stat. 4.

Duties of supervisors.

Sec. 10. That each supervisor of census shall be charged with the performance, within his own district, of the following duties: To consult with the Director of the Census in regard to the division of his district into subdivisions most convenient for the purpose of the enumeration, which subdivisions or enumeration districts shall be defined and the boundaries thereof fixed by the Director of the Census; to designate to the Director suitable persons, and, with his consent, to employ such persons as enumerators, one or more for each subdivision; to communicate to enumerators the necessary instructions and directions relating to their duties; to examine and scrutinize the returns of the enumerators, and in the event of discrepancies or deficiencies appearing in any of the said returns to use all diligence in causing the same to be corrected or supplied; to forward the completed returns of the enumerators to the Director at such time and in such manner as shall be prescribed, and to make up and forward to the Director the accounts of each enumerator in his district for service rendered, which accounts shall be duly certified to by the enumerator, and the same shall be certified as true and correct, if so found, by the supervisor, and said accounts so certified shall be accepted and paid by the Director. The duties imposed upon the supervisor by this Act shall be performed in any and all particulars in accordance with the orders and instructions of the Director of the Census.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 10, 36 Stat. 5.

Compensation of supervisors.

Sec. 11. That each supervisor of the census shall, upon the completion of his duties to the satisfaction of the Director of the Census, receive the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars and, in addition thereto, one dollar for each thousand or majority fraction of a thousand of population enumerated in his district, such sums to be in full compensation for all services rendered and expenses incurred by him: Provided, That of the above-named compensation a sum not to exceed six hundred dollars, in the discretion of the Director of the Census, may be paid to any supervisor prior to the completion of his duties in one or more payments, as the Director of the Census may determine: Provided further, That in emergencies arising in connection with the work of preparation for, or during the progress of, the enumeration in his district, or in connection with the reenumeration of any subdivision, a supervisor may, in the discretion of the Director of the Census, be allowed actual and necessary traveling expenses and an allowance in lieu of subsistence not exceeding four dollars per day during his necessary absence from his usual place of residence: And provided further, That an appropriate allowance to supervisors for clerk hire may be made when deemed necessary by the Director of the Census.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 11, 36 Stat. 5.

Duties of enumerators.

Sec. 12. That each enumerator shall be charged with the collection in his subdivision of the facts and statistics required by the population and agricultural schedules and such other schedules as the Director of the Census may determine shall be used by him in connection with the census, as provided in section eight of this Act. It shall be the duty of each enumerator to visit personally each dwelling house in his subdivision, and each family therein, and each individual living out of a family in any place of abode, and by inquiry made of the head of each family, or of the member thereof deemed most competent and trustworthy, or of such individual living out of a family, to obtain each and every item of information and all particulars required by this Act as of date April fifteenth of the year in which the enumeration shall be made; and in case no person shall be found at the usual place of abode of such family, or individual living out of a family, competent to answer the inquiries made in compliance with the requirements of this Act, then it shall be lawful for the enumerator to obtain the required information as nearly as may be practicable from families or persons living in the neighborhood of such place of abode. It shall be the duty also of each enumerator to forward the original schedules, properly filled out and duly certified, to the supervisor of his district as his returns under the provisions of this Act; and in the event of discrepancies or deficiencies being discovered in these schedules he shall use all diligence in correcting or supplying the same. In case an enumeration district embraces all or any part of any incorporated borough, village, town, or city, and also other territory not included within the limits of such incorporated borough, village, town, or city, it shall be the duty of the enumerator to clearly and plainly distinguish and separate, upon the population schedules, the inhabitants of such borough, village, town, or city from the inhabitants of the territory not included therein. No enumerator shall be deemed qualified to enter upon his duties until he has received from the supervisor of the district to which he belongs a commission, signed by the supervisor, authorizing him to perform the duties of an enumerator, and setting forth the boundaries of the subdivision within which such duties are to be performed.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 12, 36 Stat. 5.

Enumeration districts; assignments of enumerators to two or more districts, and to institutions.

Sec. 13. That the territory assigned to each supervisor shall be divided into as many enumeration districts as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, and, in the discretion of the Director of the Census, two or more enumeration districts may be given to one enumerator, and the boundaries of all the enumeration districts shall be clearly described by civil divisions, rivers, roads, public surveys, or other easily distinguishable lines: Provided, That enumerators may be assigned for the special enumeration of institutions, when desirable, without reference to the number of inmates.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 13, 36 Stat. 6.

Removal of enumerators; filling vacancies; incomplete or erroneous enumeration.

Sec. 14. That any supervisor of census may, with the approval of the Director of the Census, remove any enumerator in his district and fill the vacancy thus caused or otherwise occurring. Whenever it shall appear that any portion of the census provided for in this Act has been negligently or improperly taken, and is by reason thereof incomplete or erroneous, the Director of the Census may cause such incomplete and unsatisfactory enumeration and census to be amended or made anew.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 14, 36 Stat. 6.

Interpreters to assist enumerators; employment; compensation.

Sec. 15. That the Director of the Census may authorize and direct supervisors of census to employ interpreters to assist the enumerators of their respective districts in the enumeration of persons not speaking the English language, but no authorization shall be given for such employment in any district until due and proper effort has been made to secure an enumerator who can speak the language or languages for which the services of an interpreter would otherwise be required. The compensation of such interpreters shall be fixed by the Director of the Census in advance, and shall not exceed five dollars per day for each day actually and necessarily employed.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 15, 36 Stat. 6.

Compensation of enumerators.

Sec. 16. That the compensation of enumerators shall be determined by the Director of the Census as follows: In subdivisions where he shall deem such remuneration sufficient, an allowance of not less than two nor more than four cents for each inhabitant; not less than twenty nor more than thirty cents for each farm reported; ten cents for each barn and inclosure containing live stock not on farms, and not less than twenty nor more than thirty cents for each establishment of productive industry reported. In other subdivisions the Director of the Census may fix a mixed rate of not less than one nor more than two dollars per day and, in addition, an allowance of not less than one nor more than three cents for each inhabitant enumerated, and not less than fifteen nor more than twenty cents for each farm and each establishment of productive industry reported. In other subdivisions per diem rates shall be fixed by the Director according to the difficulty of enumeration, having special reference to the regions to be canvassed and the sparsity of settlement or other considerations pertinent thereto. The compensation allowed to an enumerator in any such district shall be not less than three nor more than six dollars per day of eight hours actual field work, and no payment shall be made for time in excess of eight hours for any one day. The subdivisions or enumeration districts to which the several rates of compensation shall apply shall be designated by the Director of the Census at least two weeks in advance of the enumeration. No claim for mileage or traveling expenses shall be allowed any enumerator in either class of subdivisions, except in extreme cases, and then only when authority has been previously granted by the Director of the Census; and the decision of the Director as to the amount due any enumerator shall be final.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 16, 36 Stat. 6.

Death of supervisor or enumerator; compensation for services rendered.

Sec. 17. That in the event of the death of any supervisor or enumerator after his appointment and entrance on his duties, the Director of the Census is authorized to pay to his widow or his legal representative such sum as he may deem just and fair for the services rendered by such supervisor or enumerator.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 17, 36 Stat. 7.

Special agents; appointment; authority; compensation.

Sec. 18. That special agents may be appointed by the Director of the Census to carry out the provisions of this Act and of the Act to provide for a permanent Census Office approved March sixth, nineteen hundred and two, and Acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. The special agents thus appointed shall have like authority with the enumerators in respect to the duties committed to them under this Act, and shall receive compensation at rates to be fixed by the Director of the Census: Provided, That the same shall in no case exceed six dollars per day and actual necessary traveling expenses, and an allowance in lieu of subsistence not exceeding three dollars per day during necessary absence from their usual place of residence: Provided further, That no pay or allowance in lieu of subsistence shall be allowed special agents when employed in the Census Office on other than the special work committed to them, and no appointments of special agents shall be made for clerical work: And provided further, That the Director of the Census shall have power, and is hereby authorized, to appoint special agents to assist the supervisors whenever he may deem it proper, in connection with the work of preparation for, or during the progress of, the enumeration or in connection with the reenumeration of any district or a part thereof; or he may, in his discretion, employ for this purpose any of the permanent or temporary employees of the Census Office: And provided further, That the Director of the Census may, in his discretion, fix the compensation of special agents on a piece-price basis which may include a minimum and maximum rate of per diem compensation to be fixed by him, the maximum rate in such cases not to exceed an average of six dollars per diem for the period of employment, and actual necessary traveling expenses and an allowance in lieu of subsistence not exceeding three dollars per diem during necessary absence from their usual place of residence.

Act July 2, 1900, c. 2, § 18, 36 Stat. 7. Res. Feb. 15, 1910, No. 9, 36 Stat. 874.

The amendment of this section by Res. Feb. 15, 1910, No. 9, cited above, consists in the addition, in the last proviso thereof, of the words beginning "which may include a minimum and maximum rate," etc., to the end of the section as set forth here.

Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, mentioned in this section, is set forth above. The provisions of section 10 of that act, amending Act March 3, 1899,

c. 419, § 17, are to a great extent superseded by those of this section, and said Act March 3, 1899, c. 419, is wholly repealed by section 33 of this act, set forth below.

The compensation of not to exceed 20 of the special agents provided for in this section may be fixed at not to exceed $8 per day, by a provision of Act Aug. 5, 1909, c. 7, set forth below.

Oath of supervisors, enumerators, special agents, etc., and other employés; appointment or employment where examination required to be solely with reference to fitness.

Sec. 19. That every supervisor, supervisor's clerk, enumerator, interpreter, special agent, or other employee shall take and subscribe to an oath or affirmation, to be prescribed by the Director of the Census. All appointees and employees provided for in this Act shall be appointed or employed, and examined, if examination is required by this Act, solely with reference to their fitness to perform the duties required of them by the provisions of this Act, and without reference to their political party affiliations.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 19, 36 Stat. 7.

Date as to which enumeration to be taken; time of commencement and completion thereof.

Sec. 20. That the enumeration of the population required by section one of this Act shall be taken as of the fifteenth day of April; and it shall be the duty of each enumerator to commence the enumeration of his district on that day, unless the Director of the Census in his discretion shall defer the enumeration in said district by reason of climatic or other conditions which would materially interfere with the proper conduct of the work; but in any event it shall be the duty of each enumerator to prepare the returns hereinbefore required to be made, except those relating to paupers, prisoners, juvenile delinquents, insane, feeble-minded, blind, deaf and dumb, and inmates of benevolent institutions, and to forward the same to the supervisor of his district, within thirty days from the commencement of the enumeration of his district: Provided, That in any city having five thousand inhabitants or more under the preceding census the enumeration of the population shall be commenced on the fifteenth day of April aforesaid and shall be completed within two weeks thereafter.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 20, 36 Stat. 7.

Receiving compensation for appointment or employment of supervisor, enumerator, clerk, or other employé, etc., punishable; penalty.

Sec. 21. That if any person shall receive or secure to himself any fee, reward, or compensation as a consideration for the appointment or employment of any person as supervisor, enumerator or clerk or other employee, or shall in any way receive or secure to himself any part of the compensation paid to any supervisor, enumerator or clerk or other employee, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than three thousand dollars and be imprisoned not more than five years.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 21, 36 Stat. 8.

Neglect or refusal to perform duties by officers or employés, publishing or communicating information, false swearing, making false certificate or fictitious return, furnishing false statement or false information, punishable; penalties.

Sec. 22. That any supervisor, supervisor's clerk, enumerator, interpreter, special agent, or other employee, who, having taken and subscribed the oath of office required by this Act, shall, without justifiable cause, neglect or refuse to perform the duties enjoined on him by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars; or if he shall, without the authority of the Director of the Census, publish or communicate any information coming into his possession by reason of his employment under the provisions of this Act, or the Act to provide for a permanent Census Office, or Acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not to exceed two years, or both so fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court; or if he shall willfully and knowingly swear to or affirm falsely, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned not exceeding five years and be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars; or if he shall willfully and knowingly make a false certificate or a fictitious return, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction of either of the last-named offenses he shall be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding five years; or if any person who is or has been an enumerator shall knowingly or willfully furnish, or cause to be furnished, directly or indirectly, to the Director of the Census, or to any supervisor of the census, any false statement or false information with reference to any inquiry for which he was authorized and required to collect information, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding five years.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 22, 36 Stat. 8.

Persons required to answer questions; refusal punishable; penalty.

Sec. 23. That it shall be the duty of all persons over twenty-one years of age when requested by the Director of the Census, or by any supervisor, enumerator, or special agent, or other employee of the Census Office, acting under the instructions of the said Director, to answer correctly, to the best of their knowledge, all questions on the census schedules applying to themselves and to the family to which they belong or are related, and to the farm or farms of which they or their families are the occupants; and any person over twenty-one years of age who, under the conditions hereinbefore stated, shall refuse or willfully neglect to answer any of these questions, or shall willfully give answers that are false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars.

And it shall be the duty of every owner, proprietor, manager, superintendent, or agent of a hotel, apartment house, boarding or lodging house, tenement, or other building, when requested by the Director of the Census, or by any supervisor, enumerator, special agent, or other employee of the Census Office, acting under the instructions of the said Director, to furnish the names of the occupants of said hotel, apartment house, boarding or lodging house, tenement, or other building, and to give thereto free ingress and egress to any duly accredited representative of the Census Office, so as to permit of the collection of statistics for census purposes including the proper and correct enumeration of all persons having their usual place of abode in said hotel, apartment house, boarding or lodging house, tenement, or other building; and any owner, proprietor, manager, superintendent, or agent of a hotel, apartment house, boarding or lodging house, tenement, or other building who shall refuse or willfully neglect to give such information or assistance under the conditions hereinbefore stated shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 23, 36 Stat. 8.

Duty of owner or officer, etc., of manufacturing establishment, etc., to answer questions; refusal punishable.

Sec. 24. And it shall be the duty of every owner, president, treasurer, secretary, director, or other officer or agent of any manufacturing establishment, mine, quarry, or other establishment of productive industry, whether conducted as a corporation, firm, limited liability company, or by private individuals, when requested by the Director of the Census or by any supervisor, enumerator, special agent, or other employee of the Census Office acting under the instructions of the said Director, to answer completely and correctly to the best of his knowledge all questions on any census schedule applying to such establishment; and any owner, president, secretary, director, or other officer or agent of any manufacturing establishment, mine, quarry, or other establishment of productive industry, who under the conditions hereinbefore stated shall refuse or willfully neglect to answer any of these questions, or shall willfully give answers that are false, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or imprisoned for a period not exceeding one year, or both so fined and imprisoned, at the discretion of the court. The provisions of this section shall also apply to the collection of the information required and authorized by the Act entitled "An Act to provide for a permanent Census Office," and by Acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 24, 36 Stat. 9.

The act to provide for a permanent Census Office, Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, and the acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, mentioned in this section, are set forth above.

Information furnished under preceding section to be used only for statistical purposes.

Sec. 25. That the information furnished under the provisions of the next preceding section shall be used only for the statistical purposes for which it is supplied. No publication shall be made by the Census Office whereby the data furnished by any particular establishment can be identified, nor shall the Director of the Census permit anyone other than the sworn employees of the Census Office to examine the individual reports.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 25, 36 Stat. 9.

Enforcement of fines and penalties imposed by act.

Sec. 26. That all fines and penalties imposed by this Act may be enforced by indictment or information in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 26, 36 Stat. 9.

Expenditures to be authorized by Director of Census.

Sec. 27. That the Director of the Census may authorize the expenditure of necessary sums for the actual and necessary traveling expenses of the officers and employees of the Census Office, including an allowance in lieu of subsistence not exceeding four dollars per day during their necessary absence from the Census Office, or, instead of such an allowance, their actual subsistence expenses, not exceeding five dollars per day; and he may authorize the incidental, miscellaneous, and contingent expenses necessary for the carrying out of this Act, as herein provided, and not otherwise, including advertising in newspapers, the purchase of manuscripts, books of reference and periodicals, the rental of sufficient quarters in the District of Columbia or elsewhere and the furnishing thereof, and expenditures necessary for the compiling, printing, publishing, and distributing the results of the census, and purchase of necessary paper and other supplies, the purchase, rental, construction, and repair of mechanical appliances, the compensation of such permanent and temporary clerks as may be employed under the provisions of this Act and the Act establishing the permanent Census Office and Acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, and all other expenses incurred under authority conveyed in this Act.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 27, 36 Stat. 9.
See note under section 24 of this act.

Printing of blanks, schedules, etc. and other miscellaneous printing, and printing of bulletins and reports and publishing and distributing thereof, by Public Printer.

Sec. 28. That the Director of the Census is hereby authorized to make requisition upon the Public Printer for such printing as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act, to wit: Blanks, schedules, circulars, pamphlets, envelopes, work sheets, and other items of miscellaneous printing; that he is further authorized to have printed by the Public Printer, in such editions as the Director may deem necessary, preliminary and other Census bulletins, and final reports of the results of the several investigations authorized by this Act, or by the Act to establish a permanent Census Office and Acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, and to publish and distribute said bulletins and reports.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 28, 36 Stat. 10.
See note under section 24 of this act.

Free transmission of official mail matter; use of official indorsement to avoid payment of postage, etc., punishable; penalty.

Sec. 29. That all mail matter, of whatever class, relating to the census and addressed to the Census Office, or to any official thereof, and indorsed "Official business, Census Office," shall be transmitted free of postage, and by registered mail if necessary, and so marked: Provided, That if any person shall make use of such indorsement to avoid the payment of postage or registry fee on his or her private letter, package, or other matter in the mail, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of three hundred dollars, to be prosecuted in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 29, 36 Stat. 10.
A general provision making punishable the use of any official envelope, label, or indorsement to avoid payment of postage or registry fee is contained in the act to codify, etc., the penal laws, Act March 4, 1909, c. 321, in c. 8, § 227 thereof, set forth post, under Title LXIX A, "The Criminal Code."

Information from other Departments or offices.

Sec. 30. That the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, whenever he may deem it advisable, or on request of the Director of the Census, is hereby authorized to call upon any other department or office of the Government for information pertinent to the work herein provided for.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 30, 36 Stat. 10.

Census of agriculture and live stock in year 1915 and every 10 years thereafter.

Sec. 31. That there shall be in the year nineteen hundred and fifteen, and once every ten years thereafter, a census of agriculture and live stock, which shall show the acreage of farm land, the acreage of the principal crops, and the number and value of domestic animals on the farms and ranges of the country. The schedule employed in this census shall be prepared by the Director of the Census. Such census shall be taken as of October first, and shall relate to the current year. The Director of the Census may appoint enumerators or special agents for the purpose of this census, in accordance with the provisions of the permanent Census Act.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 31, 36 Stat. 10.

The permanent Census Act, mentioned in this section, Act March 6, 1902, c. 139, is set forth above.

Certified copies from population or agricultural returns to be furnished to Governor of state or territory or to court of record; data for genealogical, etc., purposes to be furnished to individuals.

Sec. 32. That the Director of the Census is hereby authorized, at his discretion, upon the written request of the governor of any State or Territory, or of a court of record, to furnish such governor or court of record with certified copies of so much of the population or agricultural returns as may be requested, upon the payment of the actual cost of making such copies, and one dollar additional for certification; and that the Director of the Census is further authorized, in his discretion, to furnish to individuals such data from the population schedules as may be desired for genealogical or other proper purposes, upon payment of the actual cost of searching the records and one dollar for supplying a certificate; and the amounts so received shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States, to be placed to the credit of, and in addition to, the appropriations made for taking the census.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 32, 36 Stat. 10.

Repeal.

Sec. 33. That the Act establishing the permanent Census Office, approved March sixth, nineteen hundred and two, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, except as are herein amended, shall remain in full force. That the Act entitled "An Act to provide for taking the Twelfth and subsequent censuses," approved March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, and all other laws and parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 33, 36 Stat. 10.

RES. MARCH 24, 1910, No. 17. [H. J. Res. 172.]

Joint Resolution Enlarging the Scope of Inquiry of the Schedules Relating to Population for the Thirteenth Decennial Census. (36 Stat. 877.)

Scope of Thirteenth Census; schedules relating to population; nationality or mother tongue of persons of foreign birth.

Resolved, &c., That the schedules relating to population for the Thirteenth Decennial Census, in addition to the inquiries required by the Act entitled "An Act to amend section eight of an Act to provide for the Thirteenth and subsequent decennial censuses, approved July second, nineteen hundred and nine," approved February twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and ten, shall provide inquiries respecting the nationality or mother tongue of all persons born in foreign countries, and of the nationality or mother tongue of parents of foreign birth of persons enumerated.

Res. March 24, 1910, No. 17, 36 Stat. 877.

Act July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 8, mentioned in this resolution, prescribing the scope of the Thirteenth Census and of the schedules relating to population and other subjects, as amended by Act Feb. 25, 1910, c. 63, also mentioned in this resolution, is set forth above.

TITLE XXXII.

THE PUBLIC LANDS.

CHAPTER ONE.

Surveyors and Deputy Surveyors.

Sec. 2207.

Surveyors-general, how and where appointed.

Besides the States mentioned in the notes under this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1355, in which the office of surveyor-general had been discontinued, in pursuance of Rev. St. §§ 2218–2221, etc., the office has ceased in the States of Louisiana, Florida, Minnesota, and North Dakota.

Appropriations for surveyors-general, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are made only for the districts of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming. Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1219.

Sec. 2208.

Salary of surveyors-general.

The appropriations for the salaries of the respective surveyors-general for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are by Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1219.

Sec. 2218.

Completion of surveys, delivery of field-notes, etc.

A survey, pursuant to this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1360, of unsurveyed lands in Louisiana, is provided for by Act May 25, 1906, c. 2554, set forth below.

Resurveys or retracements of surveys, to mark the boundaries of the public lands remaining undisposed of, are authorized by Act March 3, 1909, c. 271, set forth post, under chapter 9 of this Title.

ACT MAY 25, 1906, c. 2554. [H. R. 16307.]

An Act Authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to Have a Survey Made of Unsurveyed Public Lands in the State of Louisiana. (34 Stat. 199.)

Survey of unsurveyed lands in Louisiana.

Be it enacted, &c., That pursuant to section twenty-two hundred and eighteen of the Revised Statutes of the United States the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and instructed to cause a survey to be made of all of the unsurveyed public lands in the State of Louisiana lying north of the Louisiana base line and thirty-first degree of north latitude, together with such resurveys and retracements as may be found necessary in order to complete the original surveys herein provided for.

Act May 25, 1906, c. 2554, 34 Stat. 199.

Sec. 2226.

Clerk-hire, allowance of, to surveyors-general.

The appropriations for clerk-hire in the offices of the surveyors-general for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1219.

Sec. 2227.

Office-rent, allowance of, to surveyors-general.

The appropriations for office-rent, etc., for the surveyors-general for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, are contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1219.

CHAPTER TWO.

Registers and Receivers.

Sec. 2238.

[Amended. Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 14.]

Subdivision 10 of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1368, prescribing the fees and commissions of registers and receivers, is expressly amended by Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 14, set forth below.

The usual commissions are allowed on all moneys paid for lands entered under Act June 17, 1902, c. 1093, which provides for the construction of irrigation works for the reclamation of arid lands, by the provision of section 5 of that act, set forth post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subchapter "Irrigation in Arid Regions; Grants of Desert Lands to States for Reclamation."

Additional fees to registers and receivers for making transcripts of the records in their offices for individuals are authorized, and such transcripts, when duly certified, are made admissible as evidence, by Act March 22, 1904, c. 748, set forth below.

Provisions relating to fees of registers for issuing notices of cancellation of entries are contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 261, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 22, 1904, c. 748. [H. R. 5511.]

An Act to Authorize Registers and Receivers of United States Land Offices to Furnish Transcripts of their Records to Individuals. (33 Stat. 144.)

Fees for transcripts of records; transcripts as evidence.

Be it enacted, &c., That registers and receivers of United States land offices shall, in addition to the fees now allowed by law, be entitled to charge and receive for making transcripts of the records in their offices for individuals, the sum of ten cents per hundred words for each transcript so furnished; and the transcripts thus furnished, when duly certified to by them, shall be admitted as evidence in all courts of the United States and the Territories thereof, and before all officials authorized to receive evidence, with the same force and effect as the original records.

Act March 22, 1904, c. 748, 33 Stat. 144.

Provisions for certifying copies of records, books, and papers in the General Land Office, and for transmission of original papers on file in the office, for use as evidence, are contained in Rev. St. §§ 891, 2469, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 672, 1557, in Act April 19, 1904, c. 1396, set forth ante, under Title XIII, "The Judiciary," c. 17, and in Act April 19, 1904, c. 1398, set forth ante, under Title XI, "The Department of the Interior," c. 3.

ACT MAY 29, 1908, c. 220, § 14. [S. 6190.]

Amendment of Rev. St. § 2238, subd. 10.

Sec. 14. That subdivision ten of section twenty-two hundred and thirty-eight of the Revised Statutes of the United States be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

Fees for testimony reduced to writing.

"Tenth. Registers and receivers are allowed jointly at the rate of fifteen cents per hundred words for testimony reduced by them to writing for claimants in establishing pre-emption, desert-land, and homestead rights."

Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 14, 35 Stat. 468.

Rev. St. § 2238, subd. 10, amended by this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1368. The amendment consists in the insertion of the term "desert-land."

ACT MARCH 4, 1911, c. 261. [H. R. 6043.]

An Act for the Relief of Registers and Former Registers of the United States Land Offices. (36 Stat. 1351.)

Fees for notices of cancellation of entries, erroneously deposited by registers in Treasury, to be refunded to them.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to refund, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to registers and former registers of United States land offices money earned by them for issuing notices of the cancellation of entries subsequent to July twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, which money, under the instructions of the Secretary of the Interior, they were erroneously required to deposit in the United States Treasury, contrary to the provisions of the Act approved July twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two: Provided, That such refund shall be made only of money deposited subsequent to the approval of the Act of July twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and shall be made upon accounts stated and certified by the Secretary of the Interior: And provided further, That said refund shall be made of only such fees which have not entered into the compensation paid to such registers out of the appropriation for salaries and commissions of registers and receivers for any fiscal year.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 261, § 1, 36 Stat. 1351.

Act July 26, 1892, c. 251, mentioned in this section, amending Act May 14, 1880, c. 89, § 2, is incorporated in that section as set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1392.

Fees for notices of cancellation of entries hereafter received to be accounted for.

Sec. 2. That hereafter all money or fees received or collected by registers of United States land offices for issuing notices of cancellation of entries shall be reported and accounted for by such registers in the same manner as other fees or moneys received or collected.

Act March 4, 1911, c. 261, § 2, 36 Stat. 1352.

Sec. 2243.

ACT JUNE 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1.

Expenses of land-offices.

The provision of this and later acts, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1371, is repeated in the subsequent deficiency appropriation acts and sundry civil appropriation acts. The provision for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912, is by Act March 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1414.

The payment of sums disbursed by receivers of public moneys, acting as special disbursing agents at land offices, before the receipt of Government funds, is authorized by Act March 2, 1907, c. 2563, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2563. [H. R. 11044.]

An Act Authorizing and Directing the Secretary of the Treasury, in Certain Contingencies, to Refund to Receivers of Public Moneys Acting as Special Disbursing Agents Amounts Paid by them out of their Private Funds. (34 Stat. 1245.)

Reimbursement of sums disbursed by receivers as special disbursing agents.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to pay, out of any unexpended balances of appropriations for contingent expenses of land offices, for the expenses of hearings in land entries and the expenses of depositing public moneys, such sums as may have been or may hereafter be disbursed by receivers of public moneys, acting as special disbursing agents at United States land offices, before the receipt of Government funds: Provided, That no payment shall be made under this Act in excess of the amount appropriated by the Congress for the particular purpose in each instance and for the fiscal year in which such disbursements were made: Provided, That all such disbursements shall have been or shall hereafter be made in pursuance of law in carrying out departmental regulations or to meet authorizations by the Commissioner of the General Land Office: Provided further, That the accounts containing such items shall have been duly approved by the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2563, 34 Stat. 1245.

Sec. 2245.

Monthly and quarterly returns of receivers.

Receivers are authorized to deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States unearned fees and unofficial moneys carried on the books of their offices for five years or more, and moneys deposited by unknown parties, and repayment of such moneys is provided for, by Act March 2, 1907, c. 2562, set forth below.

The repayment of purchase moneys, etc., paid under the land laws on applications afterward rejected, and of excess payments under the land laws, is provided for by Act March 26, 1908, c. 102, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2562. [H. R. 11040.]

An Act to Authorize the Receivers of Public Moneys for Land Districts to Deposit with the Treasurer of the United States Certain Sums Embraced in their Accounts of Unearned Fees and Unofficial Moneys. (34 Stat. 1245.)

Deposit in Treasury by receivers of unearned fees and unofficial moneys carried on their books for five years or more.

Be it enacted, &c., That the receivers of public moneys for land districts are hereby authorized, under the direction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, to deposit to the credit of the

Treasurer of the United States all unearned fees and unofficial moneys that have been carried upon the books of their respective offices for a period of five years or more, which sums shall be covered into the Treasury by warrant and carried to the credit of the parties from whom such fees or moneys were received, and into an appropriation account to be denominated "Outstanding liabilities."

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2562, § 1, 34 Stat. 1245.

Lists to be furnished with deposits.

Sec. 2. That at the time of making such deposit the receiver shall furnish a list showing the date when the money was paid to him or to his predecessor; the names and residences of the parties; the purposes of the payments and the amounts thereof, which list shall bear the certificate of the register and receiver that the same is correct; that the amounts are due and payable; that diligence has been exercised to return the same, and that the sums specified have remained unclaimed for a period of five years or more.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2562, § 2, 34 Stat. 1245.

Deposit of moneys deposited by unknown parties.

Sec. 3. That amounts that appear in a receiver's accounts as "Moneys deposited by unknown parties" shall also be deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, accompanied by a list showing the amount and, if possible, the date of the receipt of each item; which list shall bear the certificate of the register and receiver that, after careful investigation, the ownership of said moneys could not be determined, and that they have been reported in the unearned fees and unofficial moneys accounts for five years or more.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2562, § 3, 34 Stat. 1245.

Repayment of moneys deposited in Treasury; limitation; payment by homestead entryman on making cash entry.

Sec. 4. That any person or persons who shall have made payment to a receiver, or to his predecessor, and the money shall have been covered into the Treasury pursuant to section one or section three hereof, shall, on presenting satisfactory evidence of such payment to the proper officer of the Treasury Department, be entitled to have the same returned by the settlement of an account and the issuing of a warrant in his favor according to the practice in other cases of authorized and liquidated claims against the United States: Provided, That when such moneys shall remain unclaimed in the Treasury for more than five years the right to recover the same shall be barred: Provided, That no homestead entryman shall be required to make payment of the purchase money on any application to make a cash entry until the same shall have been approved by the register and receiver, but such payment shall be made within ten days after notice of such approval.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2562, § 4, 34 Stat. 1245.

ACT MARCH 26, 1908, c. 102. [H. R. 15660.]

An Act to Provide for the Repayment of Certain Commissions, Excess Payments, and Purchase Moneys Paid under the Public Laws. (35 Stat. 48.)

Repayment of purchase moneys, etc., paid under applications, etc., afterward rejected.

Be it enacted, &c., That where purchase moneys and commissions paid under any public land law have been or shall hereafter be covered into the Treasury of the United States under any application to make any filing, location, selection, entry, or proof, such purchase moneys and commissions shall be repaid to the person who made such application, entry, or proof, or to his legal representatives, in all cases where such application, entry, or proof has been or shall hereafter be rejected, and neither such applicant nor his legal representatives shall have been guilty of any fraud or attempted fraud in connection with such application.

Act March 26, 1908, c. 102, § 1, 35 Stat. 48.

Repayment of excess payments.

Sec. 2. That in all cases where it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that any person has heretofore or shall hereafter make any payments to the United States under the public land laws in excess of the amount he was lawfully required to pay under such laws, such excess shall be repaid to such person or to his legal representatives.

Act March 26, 1908, c. 102, § 2, 35 Stat. 48.

A provision for repayment to homestead entrymen of excess payments is contained in Act March 2, 1907, c. 2568, set forth post, under chapter 5 of this Title.

Certification of amount of excess moneys, purchase moneys, etc., and repayment.

Sec. 3. That when the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall ascertain the amount of any excess moneys, purchase moneys, or commissions in any case where repayment is authorized by this statute, the Secretary of the Interior shall at once certify such amounts to the Secretary of the Treasury, who is hereby authorized and directed to make repayment of all amounts so certified out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated and issue his warrant in settlement thereof.

Act March 26, 1908, c. 102, § 3, 35 Stat. 48.

Sec. 2246.

Oaths administered by registers and receivers.

The compulsory attendance of witnesses before registers and receivers in all matters requiring a hearing before them, and the taking of testimony and of depositions for such hearings, are provided for by Act Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, set forth below.

ACT JAN. 31, 1903, c. 344.

An Act Providing for the Compulsory Attendance of Witnesses before Registers and Receivers of the Land Office. (32 Stat. 790.)

Subpœnas for attendance of witnesses before registers and receivers.

Be it enacted, &c., That registers and receivers of the land office, or either of them, in all matters requiring a hearing before them, are authorized and empowered to issue subpœnas directing the attendance of witnesses, which subpœnas may be served by any person by delivering a true copy thereof to such witness, and when served, witnesses shall be required to attend in obedience thereto: Provided, That if any subpœna be served under the provisions of this Act by any person other than an officer authorized by the laws of the United States, or of the State or Territory in which the depositions are taken, the service thereof shall be proved by the affidavit of the person serving the same: Provided further, That said subpœnas shall be served within the county in which attendance is required, and at least five days before attendance is required.

Act Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 1, 32 Stat. 790.

Subpœnas for taking depositions of witnesses residing outside the county are provided for by section 4 of this act, set forth below.

Witnesses' fees.

Sec. 2. That witnesses shall have the right to receive their fee for one day's attendance and mileage in advance. The fees and mileage of witnesses shall be the same as that provided by law in the district courts of the United States in the district in which such land offices are situated; and the witness shall be entitled to receive his fee for attendance in advance from day to day during the hearing.

Act Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 2, 32 Stat. 790.

Witnesses' fees in the courts of the United States are prescribed by Rev. St. § 848, and Act Aug. 3, 1892, c. 361, Comp. St. 1901, pp. 654, 655.

Disobedience to subpœna, punishable.

Sec. 3. That any person willfully neglecting or refusing obedience to such subpœna, or neglecting or refusing to appear and testify when subpœnaed, his fees having been paid if demanded, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, for which he shall be punished by indictment in the district court of the United States or in the district courts of the Territories exercising the jurisdiction of circuit or district courts of the United States. The punishment for such offense, upon conviction, shall be a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed ninety days, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, That if such witness has been prevented from obeying such subpœna without fault upon his part he shall not be punished under the provisions of this Act.

Act Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 3, 32 Stat. 790.

Witnesses under subpœnas for taking depositions are subject to the same penalties, by the provisions of the next following section of this act.

Depositions of witnesses residing outside the county.

Sec. 4. That whenever the witness resides outside the county in which the hearing occurs any party to the proceeding may take the testimony of such witness in the county of such witness's residence in the form of depositions by giving ten days' written notice of the time and place of taking such depositions to the opposite party or parties. The depositions may be taken before any United States commissioner, notary public, judge or clerk of a court of record. Subpœnas for witnesses before the officer taking depositions may issue from the office of the register or receiver, or may be issued by the officer taking the depositions, and disobedience thereof, as defined in this Act, shall also be punished; and the witness shall receive the same fees and mileage and be subject to the same penalties in all respects as in case of violation of a subpœna to appear before the register or receiver, and subject to the same limitations. The fees of the officer taking the depositions shall be the same as those allowed in the State or Territorial courts, and shall be paid by the party taking the deposition, and an itemized account of the fees shall be made by the officer taking the depositions and attached to the depositions.

Act Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 4, 32 Stat. 790.

Penalties in case of violation of a subpœna to appear before the register or receiver, mentioned in this section, are imposed by the preceding section of this act.

Continuing taking of depositions in behalf of opposite party.

Sec. 5. That whenever the taking of any depositions taken in pursuance of the foregoing provisions of this Act is concluded the opposite party may proceed at once at his own expense to take depositions in his own behalf, at the same time and place and before the same officer: Provided, That he shall, before taking of the depositions in the first instance is entered upon, give notice to the opposing party, or any agent or attorney representing him in the taking of said depositions, of his intention to do so.

Act Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 5, 32 Stat. 791.

St. 1901, p. 1382, are made applicable to the State of Utah, and to the grant of school lands to that State, including sections 2 and 32 as well as 16 and 36 in each township or other lands equivalent thereto, as stated in the note under this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1383, by Act May 3, 1902, c. 683, set forth below.

The provisions of said Act Feb. 28, 1891, c. 384, are made applicable also to the Territory of New Mexico, by Act March 16, 1908, c. 88, set forth below.

Lands selected and appropriated in lieu of lands granted for school purposes to the Territory and State of Washington, under the several acts relating thereto, as stated in the notes under this section in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1383, when approved by the Secretary of the Interior, are to be deemed to have been granted to the State by Act Feb. 22, 1889, c. 180, and the title of the State thereto is confirmed by Act Dec. 18, 1902, c. 5, set forth below.

Title to certain tracts of land previously selected by the State of Nebraska as indemnity for granted school lands, and certified to the State, but the certification of which was declared void, is confirmed to the State, by Act April 15, 1902, c. 506, 32 Stat. 105.

Selections by States in lieu of school sections in abandoned military reservations are confirmed, and provisions for the disposal of the lands in such school sections are made, by Act Feb. 11, 1903, c. 543, post, under chapter 11 of this title, subc. "Abandoned Military and Naval Reservations."

The act providing for the admission into the Union of the Territory of Oklahoma and the Indian Territory as the State of Oklahoma grants sections 16 and 36 in every township in Oklahoma Territory and indemnity lands selected in lieu thereof, and the sum of $5,000,000 in lieu of sections 16 and 36 and other lands in the Indian Territory, to the State for the use and benefit of common schools, and grants other lands for the use and benefit of the University of Oklahoma and other educational institutions, with special provisions as to the disposal of said lands and the proceeds thereof. Act June 16, 1906, c. 3335, §§ 7–10, 12, 34 Stat. 272–274.

An amount equal to five per cent. of the proceeds of the sales of public lands within said State of Oklahoma, is to be paid to the State, to be used as a permanent fund, the interest to be expended for the support of common schools by Act June 16, 1906, c. 3335, § 11, 34 Stat. 274.

The act providing for the admission into the Union of the States of New Mexico and Arizona, grants to each State, in addition to sections 16 and 36 previously granted or reserved, sections 2 and 32 in every township not otherwise appropriated, for the support of common schools; and when those sections, or any parts thereof, are mineral, or have been sold, etc., or otherwise appropriated, the provisions of Rev. St. §§ 2275, 2276, are made applicable thereto and to the selection of lands in lieu thereof. Act June 20, 1910, c. 310, §§ 6, 24, 36 Stat. 561, 572.

The State of Wyoming is permitted to reconvey to the United States certain lands selected by and certified to said State under the provisions of the act admitting the State into the Union, and to select other lands in lieu thereof, by Act March 31, 1906, c. 1354, 34 Stat. 92, and Act April 12, 1910, c. 154, 36 Stat. 295.

The State of Montana is permitted to reconvey to the United States certain lands selected as indemnity school land under the provisions of the act admitting the State into the Union, and to select other lands in lieu thereof, by Act April 28, 1906, c. 2068, 34 Stat. 150.

ACT MAY 3, 1902, c. 683.

An Act to Make the Provisions of an Act of Congress Approved February Twenty-Eighth, Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-One (Twenty-Sixth Statutes, Seven Hundred and Ninety-Six), Applicable to the State of Utah. (32 Stat. 188.)

Provisions for selections to supply deficiencies of school lands, made applicable to grant of school lands to State of Utah.

Be it enacted, &c., That all the provisions of an Act of Congress approved February twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, which provides for the selection of lands for educational purposes in lieu of those appropriated for other purposes, be, and the same are hereby, made applicable to the State of Utah, and the grant of school lands to said State, including sections two and thirty-two in each township, and indemnity therefor, shall be administered and adjusted in accordance with the provisions of said Act, anything in the Act approved July sixteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, providing for the admission of said State into the Union, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act May 3, 1902, c. 683, § 1, 32 Stat. 188.

Act Feb. 28, 1891, c. 384, mentioned in this section, amends Rev. St. §§ 2275, 2276, and is incorporated in those sections as set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1381, 1382.

Additional school sections included in provisions as applicable to State of Utah.

Sec. 2. That wherever the words "sections sixteen and thirty-six" occur in said Act, the same as applicable to the State of Utah shall read: "sections two, sixteen, thirty-two, and thirty-six," and wherever the words "sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections" occur the same shall read: "second, sixteenth, thirty-second, and thirty-sixth sections," and wherever the words "sections sixteen or thirty-six" occur the same shall read: "sections two, sixteen, thirty-two, or thirty-six," and wherever the words "two sections" occur the same shall read "four sections."

Act May 3, 1902, c. 683, § 2, 32 Stat. 189.

Sections numbered 2, 16, 32, and 36, or other lands equivalent thereto, are granted to the State of Utah for school purposes, by Act July 16, 1894, c. 138, § 6, 28 Stat. 109, as stated in note under Rev. St. § 2276, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1383.

ACT DEC. 18, 1902, c. 5.

An Act Relating to Grants of Land to the Territory and State of Washington for School Purposes. (32 Stat. 756.)

Preamble.

Whereas by the Act of Congress of February twenty-second, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, providing that the inhabitants of the Territory of Washington might, upon certain conditions prescribed in said Act, become the State of Washington, certain lands were granted to the said State for school purposes; and

Whereas a doubt has arisen as to what lands were granted by section ten of said Act; and

Whereas by section twenty of the Act of Congress of March second, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, entitled "An Act to establish the Territorial government of Washington," the county commissioners of counties in said Territory were authorized to locate and select certain lands in lieu of sections sixteen and thirty-six occupied by actual settlers; and

Whereas by the Act of Congress of February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, entitled "An Act to authorize settlers upon sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections, who settled before the surveys of public lands, to preempt their settlements," certain lands were appropriated for school purposes in lieu of such as might be patented by preemptors, and to compensate deficiencies for school purposes where said sections sixteen and thirty-six were fractional in quantity, or where one or both were wanting by reason of the township being fractional, or from any natural cause whatever, and providing for their selection; and

Whereas certain lieu lands have been selected by the Territory of Washington under said Acts of Congress: Therefore,

Title to lands selected in lieu of school lands in State of Washington, confirmed.

Be it enacted, &c., That in all cases where sections sixteen and thirty-six, or either or any of them, or any portion thereof, have been occupied by actual settlers prior to survey thereof, and the county commissioners of the counties in which said sections so occupied as aforesaid are situated, have, under said Act of Congress of March second, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, located or selected other lands in sections or fractional sections, as the case may be, within their respective counties, in lieu of said section so occupied as aforesaid, the lands so located or selected, when the same shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, shall be deemed and taken to have been granted to said State by said Act of February twenty-second, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and the title of said State thereto is hereby confirmed.

Act Dec. 18, 1902, c. 5, § 1, 32 Stat. 757.

Act March 2, 1853, c. 90, § 20, mentioned in the preamble to this act and in this section, was incorporated into Rev. St. § 1947; and Act Feb. 26, 1859, c. 58, also mentioned in the preamble, was incorporated into Rev. St. § 2276. The provisions of Act Feb. 22, 1889, c. 180, granting lands to the State of Washington for school purposes, also mentioned in the preamble and in this section, are stated in the note under Rev. St. § 2276, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1383.

Title to lands selected in lieu of lands appropriated to supply deficiencies of school lands in State of Washington, confirmed.

Sec. 2. That where any lands appropriated by Congress to said Territory to compensate deficiencies for school purposes, where sections sixteen or thirty-six were fractional in quantity, or where one or both were wanting by reason of the township being fractional, or from any natural cause whatever, or where section sixteen or thirty-six were patented by preemptors, have been selected and appropriated as provided in said Act of Congress of February twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, the lands so selected and appropriated, when the same shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, shall be deemed and taken to have been granted to said State of Washington by the said Act of February twenty-second, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and the title thereto confirmed.

Act Dec. 18, 1902, c. 5, § 2, 32 Stat. 757.

See note under preceding section of this act.

ACT MARCH 16, 1908, c. 88. [H. R. 9205.]

An Act to Make the Provisions of an Act of Congress Approved February Twenty-Eighth, Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-One (Twenty-Sixth Statutes, Page Seven Hundred and Ninety-Six), Applicable to the Territory of New Mexico. (35 Stat. 44.)

Provisions for selections to supply deficiencies of school lands made applicable to grant of school lands to Territory of New Mexico.

Be it enacted, &c., That all the provisions of an Act of Congress approved February twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, entitled "An Act to amend sections twenty-two hundred and seventy-five and twenty-two hundred and seventy-six of the Revised Statutes of the United States providing for the selection of lands for educational purposes in lieu of those appropriated for other purposes," be, and the same are hereby, made applicable to the Territory of New Mexico, and the grant of school lands to said Territory, and indemnity therefor, shall be administered and adjusted in accordance with the provisions of said Act, anything in the Act of Congress approved June twenty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, making certain grants of land to the Territory of New Mexico, and for other purposes, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act March 16, 1908, c. 88, 35 Stat. 44.

Act Feb. 28, 1891, c. 384, mentioned in this act, amends Rev. St. §§ 2275, 2276, and is incorporated in those sections as set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1381, 1382.

Sec. 2288. [As amended 1891.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1385, as amended by Act March 3, 1891, c. 561, § 3, is further amended by Act March 3, 1905, c. 1424, to read as set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1905, c. 1424. [S. 6757.]

An Act to Amend Section Twenty-two hundred and eighty-eight of the Revised Statutes of the United States. (33 Stat. 991.)

Amendment of Rev. St. § 2288.

Be it enacted, &c., That section twenty-two hundred and eighty-eight of the Revised Statutes be amended so as to read as follows:

Right of transfer of settlers under homestead or pre-emption laws for certain public purposes.

"Sec. 2288. Any bona fide settler under the preemption, homestead, or other settlement law shall have the right to transfer, by warranty against his own acts, any portion of his claim for church, cemetery, or school purposes, or for the right of way of railroads, telegraph, telephones, canals, reservoirs, or ditches for irrigation or drainage across it; and the transfer for such public purposes shall in no way vitiate the right to complete and perfect the title to his claim."

Act March 3, 1905, c. 1424, 33 Stat. 991.

Rev. St. § 2288, amended by this act, is set forth, as previously amended by Act March 3, 1891, c. 561, § 3, in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1385. The amendment by this act consists in the insertion, after the words "or for the right of way of railroads," of the words "telegraph, telephones," making the section read as set forth here.

The right of any homestead settler in Alaska to transfer any portion of the land settled upon, as provided by this section, is restricted by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1002, post, under chapter 5 of this Title.

CHAPTER FIVE.

Homesteads.

Sec. 2289. [As amended 1891.]

Who may enter certain unappropriated public lands.

The provisions of the homestead laws are extended to Alaska, by Act May 14, 1898, c. 299, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1412, which is amended by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1002, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 2303.

Lands may be withdrawn from settlement, location, sale, or entry, and reserved for water-power sites, irrigation, classification, or other public purposes, by the President, by Act June 25, 1910, c. 421, set forth below.

Provisions somewhat similar, for reservation from location, etc., of lands within any Indian reservation, by the Secretary of the Interior, are contained in Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 13, also set forth below.

Lands required for irrigation works, and lands believed to be susceptible of irrigation from such works are to be withdrawn from public entry, by provisions of Act June 17, 1902, c. 1093, §§ 3-5 set forth post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subc. "Irrigation in Arid Regions; Grants of Desert Lands to States for Reclamation."

Provisions for opening to homestead entry agricultural lands within forest reserves are contained in Act June 11, 1906, c. 3074, set forth post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subchapter, "National Forests."

Provisions for the reclassification of lands in Alabama to determine which are agricultural lands and which mineral lands, those designated as agricultural to be subject to homestead entry, are contained in Act March 27, 1907, c. 1347, set forth post, under chapter 6 of this Title.

The right to make homestead entries under the provisions of this section is not affected by Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, providing for enlarged homestead entries of lands, in certain states and territories named, designated as not irrigable, but no person making entry under that act is entitled to make homestead entry under this section, by section 5 of that act, set forth post, under chapter 5 of this Title.

The provision of Act June 29, 1906, c. 3592, § 8, that no alien shall be naturalized or admitted to citizenship who can not speak the English language, does not apply to aliens who declare their intention to become citizens and make homestead entries on the public lands, by a proviso annexed to said section 8, set forth ante, under Title XXX, "Naturalization."

Where an alien, after declaration of intention to become a citizen becomes insane before he is actually naturalized, and his wife thereafter makes a homestead entry under the land laws, she and their minor children may be naturalized without making declaration of intention, by Act Feb. 24, 1911, c. 151, set forth ante, under Title XXX, "Naturalization."

ACT JUNE 25, 1910, c. 421. [H. R. 24070.]

An Act to Authorize the President of the United States to Make Withdrawals of Public Lands in Certain Cases. (36 Stat. 847.)

Withdrawal by President from settlement, location, etc., and reservation of lands for water-power sites, irrigation, etc.

Be it enacted, &c., That the President may, at any time in his discretion, temporarily withdraw from settlement, location, sale, or entry any of the public lands of the United States including the District of Alaska and reserve the same for water-power sites, irrigation, classification of lands, or other public purposes to be specified in the orders of withdrawals, and such withdrawals or reservations shall remain in force until revoked by him or by an Act of Congress.

Act June 25, 1910. c. 421, § 1, 36 Stat. 847.

Provisions somewhat similar to those of this section, for reservation from location, etc., of lands within any Indian reservation, by the Secretary of the Interior, are contained in Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 13, set forth below.

Provisions for withdrawal from entry of lands required for irrigation works and lands believed to be susceptible of irrigation from such works, and provisions for entry of lands to be irrigated, are contained in Act June 17, 1902, c. 1093, §§ 3–5, set forth post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subc. "Irrigation in Arid Regions; Grants of Desert Lands to States for Reclamation."

Lands withdrawn open to exploration, discovery, etc., under mining laws; rights of occupants or claimants of oil or gas bearing lands; previous homestead, etc., entries, etc., excepted; no forest reserves to be created, etc., within certain States, except by act of Congress.

Sec. 2. That all lands withdrawn under the provisions of this Act shall at all times be open to exploration, discovery, occupation, and purchase, under the mining laws of the United States, so far as the same apply to minerals other than coal, oil, gas, and phosphates: Provided, That the rights of any person who, at the date of any order of withdrawal heretofore or hereafter made, is a bona fide occupant or claimant of oil or gas bearing lands, and who, at such date, is in diligent prosecution of work leading to discovery of oil or gas, shall not be affected or impaired by such order, so long as such occupant or claimant shall continue in diligent prosecution of said work: And provided further, That this Act shall not be construed as a recognition, abridgment, or enlargement of any asserted rights or claims initiated upon any oil or gas bearing lands after any withdrawal of such lands made prior to the passage of this Act: And provided further, That there shall be excepted from the force and effect of any withdrawal made under the provisions of this Act all lands which are, on the date of such withdrawal, embraced in any lawful homestead or desert-land entry theretofore made, or upon which any valid settlement has been made and is at said date being maintained and perfected pursuant to law; but the terms of this proviso shall not continue to apply to any particular tract of land unless the entryman or settler shall continue to comply with the law under which the entry or settlement was made: And provided further, That hereafter no forest reserve shall be created, nor shall any additions be made to one heretofore created within the limits of the States of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, or Wyoming, except by Act of Congress.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 421, § 2, 36 Stat. 847.

Reports of withdrawals to Congress.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of the Interior shall report all such withdrawals to Congress at the beginning of its next regular session after the date of the withdrawals.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 421, § 3, 36 Stat. 848.

ACT JUNE 25, 1910, c. 431, § 13. [H. R. 24992.]

Withdrawal from location, entry, etc., and reservation of lands within Indian reservations, for power or reservoir sites, irrigation, etc.; reports of reservations to Congress.

Sec. 13. That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized, in his discretion, to reserve from location, entry, sale, allotment, or other appropriation any lands within any Indian reservation, valuable for power or reservoir sites, or which may be necessary for use in connection with any irrigation project heretofore or hereafter to be authorized by Congress: Provided, That if no irrigation project shall be authorized prior to the opening of any Indian reservation containing such power or reservoir sites the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, reserve such sites pending future legislation by Congress for their disposition, and he shall report to Congress all reservations made in conformity with this Act.

Act June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 13, 36 Stat. 858.

This section is part of an act for determining the heirs of deceased Indians, for the disposition and sale of allotments of deceased Indians, etc., cited above.

Sec. 2291.

Certificate and patent, when given and issued.

Where more than the lawful purchase money is required to be paid by homestead settlers on final proof or commutation, the excess is to be repaid, by Act March 2, 1907, c. 2568, set forth below.

ACT MAY 14, 1880, c. 89, § 2. [As amended 1892.]

Cancellation of claims; notice to contestant; death of contestant.

Where contests were initiated under this act prior to withdrawal of the land for national forest purposes, qualified successful contestants are allowed to exercise their preference right to enter the land, for a limited time, by Act March 3, 1911, c. 225, § 2, set forth post, in chapter 11 of this Title, subc. "National Forests."

Provisions relating to fees of registers for issuing notices of cancellation of entries are contained in Act March 4, 1911, c. 261, set forth ante, in chapter 2 of this Title, "Registers and Receivers," under Rev. St. § 2238.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2568. [H. R. 22588.]

An Act for the Relief of Homestead Entrymen Who Have Paid More than the Lawful Purchase Money. (34 Stat. 1248.)

Repayment of excess required to be paid on final proof or commutation.

Be it enacted, &c., That in all cases in which homestead entrymen upon final proof or commutation shall have been required to pay more than the lawful purchase money for their lands, the Secretary of the Interior shall cause the excess to be repaid to the entryman or to his heirs or assigns.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2568, 34 Stat. 1248.

Subsequent provisions for repayment of excess moneys paid under the public land laws, and of purchase moneys, etc., paid under applications, etc., afterwards rejected, are contained in Act March 26, 1908, c. 102, set forth ante, under chapter 2 of this Title.

Sec. 2294. [As amended 1890.]

[Amended. Act March 11, 1902, c. 182. Act March 4, 1904, c. 394.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1396, as amended by Act May 26, 1890, c. 355, is further amended by Act March 11, 1902, c. 182, and that act is itself amended by Act March 4, 1904, c. 394, so as to read as set forth below.

ACT MARCH 11, 1902, c. 182. [As amended 1904.]

An Act to Amend Section Twenty-Two Hundred and Ninety-Four of the Revised Statutes of the United States. (32 Stat. 63.)

Amendment of Rev. St. § 2294.

Be it enacted, &c., That section twenty-two hundred and ninety-four of the Revised Statutes of the United States be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

Officers before whom affidavits, proofs, etc., may be made; false swearing deemed perjury and punishable; fees.

"Sec. 2294. That hereafter all proofs, affidavits, and oaths of any kind whatsoever required to be made by applicants and entrymen under the homestead, preemption, timber-culture, desert-land, and timber and stone Acts, may, in addition to those now authorized to take such affidavits, proofs, and oaths, be made before any United States commissioner or commissioner of the court exercising Federal jurisdiction in the Territory or before the judge or clerk of any court of record in the county, parish, or land district in which the lands are situated: Provided, That in case the affidavits, proofs, and oaths hereinbefore mentioned be taken out of the county in which the land is located the applicant must show by affidavit, satisfactory to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, that it was taken before the nearest or most accessible officer qualified to take said affidavits, proofs, and oaths in the land districts in which the lands applied for are located;

but such showing by affidavit need not be made in making final proof if the proof be taken in the town or city where the newspaper is published in which the final proof notice is printed. The proof, affidavit, and oath, when so made and duly subscribed, or which may have heretofore been so made and duly subscribed, shall have the same force and effect as if made before the register and receiver, when transmitted to them with the fees and commissions allowed and required by law. That if any witness making such proof, or any applicant making such affidavit or oath, shall knowingly, willfully, or corruptly swear falsely to any material matter contained in said proofs, affidavits, or oaths he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to the same pains and penalties as if he had sworn falsely before the register. That the fees for entries and for final proofs, when made before any other officer than the register and receiver, shall be as follows:

"For each affidavit, twenty-five cents.

"For each deposition of claimant or witness, when not prepared by the officer, twenty-five cents.

"For each deposition of claimant or witness, prepared by the officer, one dollar.

"Any officer demanding or receiving a greater sum for such service shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars."

Act March 11, 1902, c. 182, 32 Stat. 63. Act March 4, 1904, c. 394, 33 Stat. 59.

Rev. St. § 2294, amended by these acts, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1396, as previously amended by Act May 26, 1890, c. 355. The further amendatory Act March 11, 1902, c. 182, cited above, is itself amended by Act March 4, 1904, c. 394, so as to make the section read as set forth here.

Provisions for the confirmation of entries or final proofs, not made within the land district in which the lands are situated, by error of the officers of any local land office, are contained in Act March 9, 1904, c. 503, set forth post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subchapter "Disposition of Suspended Entries and Claims; Invalid and Defective Claims and Patents therefor."

Sec. 2298.

Limitation of amount entered for homestead.

Besides the provisions set forth under Rev. St. § 2298, in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1401–1405, for homestead entries after a former entry not perfected for various reasons, or additional to a former entry of less than one quarter section, other provisions of various acts for such entries, or for enlarged homesteads, or for second entries, are set forth below.

Special limitations of the amount to be entered for homestead in Alaska are prescribed by the amendment of Act May 14, 1898, c. 299, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1412, by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1002, set forth below.

Provisions for additional entries or second entries on ceded Indian lands or lands in Indian reservations opened to settlement, contained in various acts, are set forth or referred to post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subc. "Ceded Indian Reservations and Lands."

ACT MARCH 2, 1889, c. 381, §§ 2, 5.

Homestead entry after former unperfected entry.

Besides the provisions of Act March 2, 1889, c. 381, § 2, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1403, for homestead entries by persons who had not perfected title under a former entry, further provisions, that persons having failed to perfect, or having lost, abandoned, or forfeited, former entries, may make second entries, are contained in Act April 28, 1904, c. 1776, § 1, Act Feb. 8, 1908, c. 19, and Act Feb. 3, 1911, c. 34, set forth below.

Additional entry of land contiguous to former entry of less than one quarter section.

The provisions of Act March 2, 1889, c. 381, § 5, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1403, allowing any homestead settler who had theretofore entered less than one quarter section of land to enter additional land contiguous to the original entry, are re-enacted, with additions including entries subsequently made, by Act April 28, 1904, c. 1776, § 2, set forth below.

ACT AUG. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1.

Limitation of aggregate amount entered under any land laws.

Homestead entries of 320 acres or less of nonmineral, nonirrigable, etc., lands, not containing merchantable timber, in certain states and territories named, are permitted, by Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, and Act June 17, 1910, c. 298, set forth below.

Homestead entries of not exceeding in area 640 acres of lands within certain designated boundaries in the State of Nebraska are allowed, and former homestead entries are not to be a bar thereto, by provisions of Act April 28, 1904, c. 1801, amended by Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 7, set forth below.

Special limitations of the amount to be entered in Alaska are prescribed by Act May 14, 1898, c. 299, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1412, amended by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1002, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 5, 1900, c. 716, § 2.

Additional entry after commutation of former entry.

Provisions restricting cancellation of homestead entries made under this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1405, on the ground that the former entry was commuted under Act June 15, 1880, c. 227, § 2, are contained in Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 10, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 28, 1904, c. 1776. [S. 3165.]

An Act Providing for Second and Additional Homestead Entries, and for Other Purposes. (33 Stat. 527.)

Homestead entry after former unperfected entry.

Be it enacted, &c., That any person who has heretofore made entry under the homestead laws, but who shall show to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office that he was unable to perfect the entry on account of some unavoidable complication of his personal or business affairs, or on account of an honest mistake as to the character of the land; that he made a bona-fide effort to comply with the homestead law and that he did not relinquish his entry or abandon his claim for a consideration, shall be entitled to the benefit of the homestead laws as though such former entry had not been made.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1776, § 1, 33 Stat. 527.

Previous provisions for homestead entries after a former entry under which title had not been perfected are contained in several acts set forth under Rev. St. § 2298, in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1401–1405.

Subsequent provisions for second homestead entries by persons having lost, abandoned, or forfeited former entries, are contained in Act Feb. 8, 1908, c. 19, and Act Feb. 3, 1911, c. 34, set forth below.

Additional entry of land contiguous to former entry of less than one quarter section.

Sec. 2. That any homestead settler who has heretofore entered, or may hereafter enter, less than one-quarter section of land may enter other and additional land lying contiguous to the original entry which shall not, with the land first entered and occupied, exceed in the aggregate one hundred and sixty acres, without proof of residence upon and cultivation of the additional entry; and if final proof of settlement and cultivation has been made for the original entry when the additional entry is made, then the patent shall issue without further proof: Provided, That this section shall not apply to or for the benefit of any person who does not own and occupy the lands covered by the original entry: And provided, That if the original entry should fail for any reason prior to patent, or should appear to be illegal or fraudulent, the additional entry shall not be permitted, or, if having been initiated, shall be canceled.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1776, § 2, 33 Stat. 527.

This section re-enacts the provisions of Act March 2, 1889, c. 381, § 5, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1403, in the same language, with the addition, after the words at the beginning, "That any homestead settler who has heretofore entered," of the words, "or may hereafter enter," and the omission, after the words of the first proviso, "That this section shall not apply to or for the benefit of any person who," of the words, "at the date of making application for entry hereunder," which were in said former section.

Commutation of entries under this act not allowed.

Sec. 3. That commutation under the provisions of section twenty-three hundred and one of the Revised Statutes shall not be allowed of an entry made under this Act.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1776, § 3, 33 Stat. 527.

Rev. St. § 2301, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1406.

ACT APRIL 28, 1904, c. 1801. [H. R. 14826.] [As amended 1908, S. 6190.]

An Act to Amend the Homestead Laws as to Certain Unappropriated and Unreserved Lands in Nebraska. (33 Stat. 547.)

Limitation of entries within certain boundaries in Nebraska extended; exclusion of irrigable lands from provisions of act.

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after sixty days after the approval of this Act entries made under the homestead laws in the State of Nebraska west and north of the following line, to wit: Beginning at a point on the boundary line between the States of South Dakota and Nebraska where the first guide meridian west of the sixth principal meridian strikes said boundary; thence running south along said guide meridian to its intersection with the fourth standard parallel north of the base line between the States of Nebraska and Kansas; thence west along said fourth standard parallel to its intersection with the second guide meridian west of the sixth principal meridian; thence south along said second guide meridian to its intersection with the third standard parallel north of the said base line; thence west along said third standard parallel to its intersection with the range line between ranges twenty-five and twenty-six west of the sixth principal meridian; thence south along said line to its intersection with the second standard parallel north of the said base line; thence west on said standard parallel to its intersection with the range line between ranges thirty and thirty-one west; thence south along said line to its intersection with the boundary line between the States of Nebraska and Kansas, shall not exceed in area six hundred and forty acres, and shall be as nearly compact in form as possible, and in no event over two miles in extreme length: Provided, That there shall be excluded from the provisions of this Act such lands within the territory herein described as in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior it may be reasonably practicable to irrigate under the national irrigation law, or by private enterprise; and that said Secretary shall, prior to the date above mentioned, designate and exclude from entry under this Act the lands, particularly along the North Platte River, which in his opinion it may be possible to irrigate as aforesaid; and shall thereafter, from time to time, open to entry under this Act any of the lands so excluded, which, upon further investigation, he may conclude can not be practically irrigated in the manner aforesaid.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1801, § 1, 33 Stat. 547.

Additional entry of land contiguous to former entry, not to exceed in the aggregate the limitation as extended.

Sec. 2. That entrymen under the homestead laws of the United States within the territory above described who own and occupy the lands heretofore entered by them, may, under the provisions of this Act and subject to its conditions, enter other lands contiguous to their said homestead entry, which shall not, with the land so already entered, owned, and occupied, exceed in the aggregate six hundred and forty acres; and residence continued and improvements made upon the original homestead, subsequent to the making of the additional entry, shall be accepted as equivalent to actual residence and improvements made upon the additional land so entered, but final entry shall not be allowed of such additional land until five years after first entering the same, except in favor of entrymen entitled to credit for military service.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1801, § 2, 33 Stat. 548. Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 7, 35 Stat. 466.

The amendment of this section by Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 7, cited above, consists in the change of the last provision of the section to read as set forth here, instead of the provision originally enacted, which was as follows: "And residence upon the original homestead shall be accepted as equivalent to residence upon the additional land so entered, but final entry shall not be allowed of such additional land until five years after first entering the same."

Similar provisions as to entries additional to previous entry of less than one quarter section are contained in Act April 28, 1904, c. 1776, § 2, set forth above.

Further provisions for additional entries by former homestead entrymen are contained in section 3 of this act, set forth below.

Fees and commissions on entries; commutation of entries not allowed; improvements to be shown on final proof; entries under this act by former homestead entrymen.

Sec. 3. That the fees and commissions on all entries under this Act shall be uniformly the same as those charged under the present law for a maximum entry at the minimum price. That the commutation provisions of the homestead law shall not apply to entries under this Act, and at the time of making final proof the entryman must prove affirmatively that he has placed upon the lands entered permanent improvements of the value of not less than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre for each acre included in his entry: Provided, That a former homestead entry shall not be a bar to the entry under the provisions of this Act of a tract which, together with the former entry, shall not exceed six hundred and forty acres: Provided, That any former homestead entryman who shall be entitled to an additional entry under section two of this Act shall have for ninety days after the passage of this Act the preferential right to make additional entry as provided in said section.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1801, § 3, 33 Stat. 548.

Fees and commissions of registers and receivers are prescribed by Rev. St. § 2238, and subsequent provisions set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1367–1370.

Provisions for commutation of homestead entries, mentioned in this section, are contained in Rev. St. § 2301, and subsequent acts, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1406–1410.

Under section 2 of this act, mentioned in this section, and set forth above, a former homestead entryman is entitled to an additional entry of lands contiguous to his former entry.

ACT FEB. 8, 1908, c. 19. [H. R. 300.]

An Act Providing for Second Homestead Entries. (35 Stat. 6.)

Homestead entry after former entry lost, forfeited, or abandoned.

Be it enacted, &c., That any person who, prior to the passage of this Act, has made entry under the homestead laws, but from any cause has lost forfeited or abandoned the same, shall be entitled to the benefits of the homestead law as though such former entry had not been made, and any person applying for a second homestead under this Act shall furnish the description and date of his former entry: Provided, That the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any person whose former entry was canceled for fraud, or who relinquished the former entry for a valuable consideration.

Act Feb. 8, 1908, c. 19, 35 Stat. 6.

A previous provision for homestead entries after a former unperfected entry is contained in Act April 28, 1904, c. 1776, § 1, set forth above.

Subsequent provisions, similar to those of this act, for second homestead and desert-land entries, are contained in Act Feb. 3, 1911, c. 34, set forth below.

ACT MAY 29, 1908, c. 220, § 10. [S. 6190.]

Ground for cancellation of entry made after commutation of former entry; reinstatement of canceled entries.

That no homestead entry heretofore made under the provisions of section two of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act for the relief of the Colorado Cooperative Colony, to permit homestead entries in certain cases, and for other purposes," approved June fifth, nineteen hundred, shall be canceled for the reason that the former entry made by the entryman was commuted under the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act relating to the public lands of the United States," approved June fifteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty (Twenty-first Statutes, page two hundred and thirty-seven). And all entries heretofore canceled on the ground that an entryman who commuted under the provisions of said Act of June fifteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty, is not entitled to the benefits of the Act of June fifth, nineteen hundred, shall be reinstated upon a showing by the entryman or his heirs, within one year from the approval of this Act, that there were no valid grounds for the cancellation of such entries except that a former entry was perfected under the Act of June fifteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty, in all cases where valid adverse rights have not attached to the lands covered by such second entries since the date of their cancellation.

Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 10, 35 Stat. 467.

Act June 5, 1900, c. 716, § 2, mentioned in this section, permitting an additional homestead entry after commutation of a former entry, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1405. And Act June 15, 1880, c. 227, § 2, also mentioned in this section, which provided for commutation of homestead entries theretofore made by paying the government price for the lands, is set forth post, under Rev. St. § 2301.

ACT FEB. 19, 1909, c. 160. [S. 6155.]

An Act to Provide for an Enlarged Homestead. (35 Stat. 639.)

Enlarged homestead entries of nonmineral, nonirrigable lands not containing merchantable timber in certain states and territories; lands to be designated as not irrigable.

Be it enacted, &c., That any person who is a qualified entryman under the homestead laws of the United States may enter, by legal subdivisions, under the provisions of this Act, in the States of Colorado, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming, and the Territories of Arizona and New Mexico, three hundred and twenty acres, or less, of nonmineral, nonirrigable, unreserved and unappropriated surveyed public lands which do not contain merchantable timber, located in a reasonably compact body, and not over one and one-half miles in extreme length: Provided, That no lands shall be subject to entry under the provisions of this Act until such lands shall have been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as not being, in his opinion, susceptible of successful irrigation at a reasonable cost from any known source of water supply.

Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, § 1, 35 Stat. 639.

Provisions similar to those of this act for entries of enlarged homesteads in the State of Idaho, are contained in Act June 17, 1910, c. 398, set forth below.

Applications for entry; affidavits; fees.

Sec. 2. That any person applying to enter land under the provisions of this Act shall make and subscribe before the proper officer an affidavit as required by section twenty-two hundred and ninety of the Revised Statutes, and in addition thereto shall make affidavit that the land sought to be entered is of the character described in section one of this Act, and shall pay the fees now required to be paid under the homestead laws.

Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, § 2, 35 Stat. 639.

Additional entry of land contiguous to former entry, not to exceed limitation.

Sec. 3. That any homestead entryman of lands of the character herein described, upon which final proof has not been made, shall have the right to enter public lands, subject to the provisions of this Act, contiguous to his former entry which shall not, together with the original entry, exceed three hundred and twenty acres, and residence upon and cultivation of the original entry shall be deemed as residence upon and cultivation of the additional entry.

Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, § 3, 35 Stat. 639.

Proof of cultivation on making final proofs.

Sec. 4. That at the time of making final proofs as provided in section twenty-two hundred and ninety-one of the Revised Statutes the entry-man under this Act shall, in addition to the proofs and affidavits required under the said section, proved by two credible witnesses that at least one-eighth of the area embraced in his entry was continuously cultivated to agricultural crops other than native grasses beginning with the second year of the entry, and that at least one-fourth of the area embraced in the entry was so continuously cultivated beginning with the third year of the entry.

Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, § 4, 35 Stat. 639.

Right to make homestead entries under Rev. St. § 2289, not affected by act; entries under act not to be commuted.

Sec. 5. That nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the right of a qualified entryman to make homestead entry in the States named in section one of this Act under the provisions of section twenty-two hundred and eighty-nine of the Revised Statutes, but no person who has made entry under this Act shall be entitled to make homestead entry under the provisions of said section, and no entry made under this Act shall be commuted.

Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, § 5, 35 Stat. 639.

Rev. St. § 2289, mentioned in this section, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1388.

Lands in Utah without supply of water for domestic use to be designated; requirements of residence and cultivation as to such lands.

Sec. 6. That whenever the Secretary of the Interior shall find that any tracts of land, in the State of Utah, subject to entry under this Act, do not have upon them such a sufficient supply of water suitable for domestic purposes as would make continuous residence upon the lands possible, he may, in his discretion, designate such tracts of land, not to exceed in the aggregate two million acres, and thereafter they shall be subject to entry under this Act without the necessity of residence: Provided, That in such event the entryman on any such entry shall in good faith cultivate not less than one-eighth of the entire area of the entry during the second year, one-fourth during the third year, and one-half during the fourth and fifth years after the date of such entry, and that after entry and until final proof the entryman shall reside within such distance of said land as will enable him successfully to farm the same as required by this section.

Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, § 6, 35 Stat. 640.

ACT JUNE 17, 1910, c. 298. [S. 5167.]

An Act to Provide for an Enlarged Homestead. (36 Stat. 531.)

Enlarged homestead entries of non-mineral non-irrigable lands not containing merchantable timber in Idaho; lands to be designated as not irrigable.

Be it enacted, &c., That any person who is a qualified entryman under the homestead laws of the United States may enter, by legal subdivision, under the provisions of this Act, in the State of Idaho, three hundred and twenty acres or less of arid nonmineral, nonirrigable, unreserved, and unappropriated surveyed public lands which do not contain merchantable timber, located in a reasonably compact body and not over one and one-half miles in extreme length: Provided, That no lands shall be subject to entry under the provisions of this Act until the lands shall have been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as not being, in his opinion, susceptible of successful irrigation, at a reasonable cost, from any known source of water supply.

Act June 17, 1910, c. 298, § 1, 36 Stat. 531.

Previous provisions similar to those of this act for entries of enlarged homesteads in certain other States and Territories are contained in Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, set forth above.

Applications for entry; affidavits; fees.

Sec. 2. That any person applying to enter land under the provisions of this Act shall make and subscribe before the proper officer an affidavit as required by section twenty-two hundred and ninety of the Revised Statutes, and in addition thereto shall make affidavit that the land sought to be entered is of the character described in section one of this Act, and shall pay the fees now required to be paid under the homestead laws.

Act June 17, 1910, c. 298, § 2, 36 Stat. 532.

Additional entry of land contiguous to former entry, not to exceed limitation.

Sec. 3. That any homestead entryman of lands of the character herein described, upon which final proof has not been made, shall have the right to enter public lands, subject to the provisions of this Act, contiguous to his former entry, which shall not, together with the original entry, exceed three hundred and twenty acres, and residence upon and cultivation of the original entry shall be deemed as residence upon and cultivation of the additional entry.

Act June 17, 1910, c. 298, § 3, 36 Stat. 532.

Proof of cultivation on making final proofs.

Sec. 4. That at the time of making final proofs as provided in section twenty-two hundred and ninety-one of the Revised Statutes, the entryman under this Act shall, in addition to the proofs and affidavits required under said section, prove by two credible witnesses that at least one-eighth of the area embraced in his entry was continuously cultivated to agricultural crops other than native grasses beginning with the second year of the entry, and that at least one-fourth of the area embraced in the entry was so continuously cultivated beginning with the third year of the entry.

Act June 17, 1910, c. 298, § 4, 36 Stat. 532.

Right to make homestead entries under Rev. St. § 2289, not affected by act; entries under act not to be commuted.

Sec. 5. That nothing herein contained shall be held to affect the right of a qualified entryman to make homestead entry in the State of Idaho under the provisions of section twenty-two hundred and eighty-nine of the Revised Statutes, but no person who has made entry under this Act shall be entitled to make homestead entry under the provisions of said section, and no entry made under this Act shall be commuted.

Act June 17, 1910, c. 298, § 5, 36 Stat. 532.

Lands without supply of water for domestic use to be designated; requirements of residence and cultivation as to such lands; leaves of absence.

Sec. 6. That whenever the Secretary of the Interior shall find that any tracts of land in the State of Idaho subject to entry under this Act do not have upon them such a sufficient supply of water suitable fo domestic purposes as would make continuous residence upon the lands possible, he may, in his discretion, designate such tracts of land, not to exceed in the aggregate three hundred and twenty thousand acres, and thereafter they shall be subject to entry under this Act without the necessity of residence upon the land entered: Provided, That the entryman shall in good faith cultivate not less than one-eighth of the entire area of the entry during the second year, one-fourth during the third year, and one-half during the fourth and fifth years after the date of said entry, and that after six months from date of entry and until final proof the entryman shall reside not more than twenty miles from said land and be engaged personally in preparing the soil for seed, seeding, cultivating, and harvesting crops upon the land during the usual seasons for such work unless prevented by sickness or other unavoidable cause. Leave of absence from a residence established under this section may, however, be granted upon the same terms and conditions as are required of other homestead entrymen.

Act June 17, 1910, c. 298, § 6, 36 Stat. 532.

ACT FEB. 3, 1911, c. 34. [H. R. 15660.]

An Act Providing for Second Homestead and Desert-land Entries. (36 Stat. 896.)

Homestead entry or desert-land entry after former entry lost, forfeited, or abandoned.

Be it enacted, &c., That any person who, prior to the approval of this Act, has made entry under the homestead or desert-land laws, but who, subsequently to such entry, from any cause shall have lost, forfeited, or abandoned the same, shall be entitled to the benefits of the homestead or desert-land laws as though such former entry had not been made, and any person applying for a second homestead or desert-land entry under this Act shall furnish a description and the date of his former entry: Provided, That the provisions of this Act shall not apply to any person whose former entry was canceled for fraud, or who relinquished his former entry for a valuable consideration in excess of the filing fees paid by him on his original entry.

Act Feb. 3, 1911, c. 34, 36 Stat. 896.

Previous provisions, similar to those of this act, for second homestead entries, were contained in Act Feb. 8, 1908, c. 19, set forth above; and similar provisions for second desert-land entries, contained in Act March 26, 1898, c. 103, are set forth post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subc. "Desert Lands."

Sec. 2301. [As amended 1891.]

Payment before expiration of five years; rights of applicant.

The commutation provisions of the homestead law, Rev. St. § 2301, and subsequent provisions set forth in Comp. St. 1901, pp. 1406-1410, are not to apply to entries under Act April 28, 1904, c. 1801, which provides for entries of not to exceed 640 acres within certain boundaries in Nebraska, by section 3 of that act, set forth above.

Commutation under the provisions of Rev. St. § 2301, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1406, is not allowed of an entry under Act April 28, 1904, c. 1776, which allows a homestead entry after a former unperfected entry, and an additional entry of lands contiguous to a former entry of less than one quarter section, by section 3 of that act, set forth above.

No enlarged homestead entry of lands designated as not irrigable, made under Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, or under Act June 17, 1910, c.

298, shall be commuted, by section 5 of each of said acts, set forth above.

The commutation provisions of the homestead laws are not to apply to entries under Act June 17, 1902, c. 1093, which provides for the construction of irrigation works for the reclamation of arid lands, by a proviso annexed to section 3 of that act, post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subc. "Irrigation in Arid Regions; Grants of Desert Lands to States for Reclamation."

Commutation for town-site purposes, of homestead entries of certain ceded Indian lands in Oklahoma, is authorized by Act March 11, 1902, c. 180, and commutation of homestead entries of certain ceded Indian lands in South Dakota, by Act May 22, 1902, c. 821, § 1, post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subc. "Ceded Indian Reservations and Lands."

Various acts of Congress and proclamations of the President acquiring or opening to entry particular tracts of Indian lands or Indian reservations or portions thereof contain provisions relating to commutation of homestead entries permitted of such lands.

Provisions restricting cancellation, on the ground of insufficient residence, of final certificates issued upon proof under the commutation provisions of the homestead laws, are contained in Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 9, set forth below.

Repayment of excess moneys paid on final proof or commutation is provided for by Act March 2, 1907, c. 2568, set forth ante, under Rev St. § 2291, and Act March 26, 1908, c. 102, set forth ante, under chapter 2 of this Title.

ACT JUNE 15, 1880, c. 227, § 2.

Commutation of homestead entries previously made, on payment of government price of lands.

That persons who have heretofore under any of the homestead laws entered lands properly subject to such entry, or persons to whom the right of those having so entered for homesteads, may have been attempted to be transferred by bona fide instrument in writing, may entitle themselves to said lands by paying the government price therefor, and in no case less than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, and the amount heretofore paid the government upon said lands shall be taken as part payment of said price: Provided, This shall in no wise interfere with the rights or claims of others who may have subsequently entered such lands under the homestead laws.

Act June 15, 1880, c. 227, § 2, 21 Stat. 237.

A homestead entry made under Act June 5, 1900, c. 716, § 2, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1405, after commutation under this act of a former entry, is not to be canceled on the ground that the entryman, by reason of such commutation, was not entitled to the benefits of said Act June 5, 1900, c. 716, by the provisions of Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 10, set forth ante, under Rev. St. § 2298.

ACT MAY 29, 1908, c. 220, § 9. [S. 6190.]

Insufficient residence as ground for cancellation of final certificates issued under commutation provisions; reinstatement of cancelled certificates.

That no final certificate issued upon proof offered under the commutation provisions of the homestead laws prior to the passage of this Act shall be canceled solely upon the ground of insufficient residence in any case where such proof shows that the entryman had in good faith resided upon and improved the lands covered by his entry for at least eight months within the year immediately preceding the submission of such proof, and in all such cases where the final certificate has been canceled because of insufficient residence such certificate shall, upon application made therefor by the entryman, his heirs or assigns, within one year from the passage of this Act, be reinstated and confirmed if no fraud was practiced by the entryman and no valid adverse rights have attached to the land affected thereby at the date of the filing of such application.

Act May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 9, 35 Stat. 467.

Sec. 2303.

ACT JULY 4, 1876, c. 165.

Repeal of section 2303.

Provisions for withdrawal from entry of lands required for irrigation works, and provisions for entries under the homestead laws of lands susceptible of irrigation from such works, are contained in Act June 17, 1902, c. 1093, §§ 3–5, post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subc. "Irrigation in Arid Regions; Grants of Desert Lands to States for Reclamation;" but, by a proviso annexed to section 3, the commutation provisions of the homestead laws are not to apply to entries made under that act.

Provisions for exclusion from entry of irrigable lands within certain boundaries in Nebraska are contained in Act April 28, 1904, c. 1801, § 1, set forth above.

ACT MAY 14, 1898, c. 299, § 1.

[Amended. Act March 3, 1903, c. 1002.]

This section is amended by Act March 3, 1903, c. 1002, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1903, c. 1002.

An Act to Amend Section One of the Act of Congress Approved May Fourteenth, Eighteen Hundred and Ninety-Eight, Entitled "An Act Extending the Homestead Laws and Providing for a Right of Way for Railroads in the District of Alaska." (32 Stat. 1028.)

Homestead laws extended to Alaska; limitation of amount to be entered; locations on unsurveyed lands; restriction of transfers.

Be it enacted, &c., That all the provisions of the homestead laws of the United States not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, and all rights incident thereto, are hereby extended to the district of Alaska, subject to such regulations as may be made by the Secretary of the Interior; and no indemnity, deficiency, or lieu land selections pertaining to any land grant outside of the district of Alaska shall be made, and no land scrip or land warrant of any kind whatsoever shall be located within or exercised upon any lands in said district except as now provided by law; and provided further that no more than one hundred and sixty acres shall be entered in any single body by such scrip, lieu selection, or soldier's additional homestead right; and provided further that no location of scrip, selection, or right along any navigable or other waters shall be made within the distance of eighty rods of any lands, along such waters, theretofore located by means of any such scrip or otherwise; and provided further that no commutation privileges shall be allowed in excess of one hundred and sixty acres included in any homestead entry under the provisions hereof: Provided, That no entry shall be allowed extending more than one hundred and sixty rods along the shore of any navigable water, and along such shore a space of at least eighty rods shall be reserved from entry between all such claims; and that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize entries to be made or title to be acquired to the shore of any navigable waters within said district; and no patent shall issue hereunder until all the requirements of sections twenty-two hundred and ninety-one, twenty-two hundred and ninety-two, and twenty-three hundred and five of the Revised Statutes of the United States have been fully complied with as to residence, improvements, cultivation, and proof except as to commuted lands as herein provided: And it is further provided, That every person who is qualified under existing laws to make homestead entry of the public lands of the United States who has settled upon or who shall hereafter settle upon any of the public lands of the United States situated in the district of Alaska, whether surveyed or unsurveyed, with the intention of claiming the same under the homestead laws, shall, subject to the provisions and limitations hereof, be entitled to enter three hundred and twenty acres or a less quantity of unappropriated public land in said district of Alaska. If any of the land so settled upon, or to be settled upon, is unsurveyed, then the land settled upon, or to be settled upon, must be located in a rectangular form, not more than one mile in length, and located by north and south lines run according to the true meridian; that the location so made shall be marked upon the ground by permanent monuments at each of the four corners of the said location, so that the boundaries of the same may be readily and easily traced; that the record of said location shall, within ninety days from the date of settlement, be filed for record in the recording district in which the land is situated. Said record shall contain the name of the settler, the date of the settlement, and such a description of the land settled upon, by reference to some natural object or permanent monument, as will identify the same; and, if after the expiration of the said period of five years or at such date as the settler may desire to commute the public surveys of the United States have not been extended over the land located, a patent shall nevertheless issue for the land included within the boundaries of said location as thus recorded, upon proof to be submitted to the register and receiver of the proper land office, upon proof that he is a citizen of the United States, and upon the further proof required by section twenty-two hundred and ninety-one of the Revised Statutes of the United States as heretofore and herein amended, and under the procedure in the obtaining of patents to the unsurveyed lands of the United States, as provided for by section ten of the Act hereby amended, and under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior as hereinbefore provided, without the payment of any purchase price or other charges, except the ordinary office fees and commissions of the register and receiver except one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre on land commuted: And provided always, That no title shall be obtained hereunder to any of the mineral or coal lands of the district of Alaska: And it is further provided, That the right of any homestead settler to transfer any portion of the land so settled upon, as provided by section twenty-two hundred and eighty-eight of the Revised Statutes of the United States, shall be restricted and limited within the district of Alaska as follows: For church, cemetery, or school purposes to five acres, and for the right of railroads across such homestead to one hundred feet in width on either side of the center line of said railroad; and all contracts by the settler made before his receipt of patent from the Government, for the conveyance of the land homesteaded by him or her, except as herein provided, shall be held null and void.

CHAPTER SIX.

Mineral Lands and Mining Resources.

Sec. 2318.

Mineral lands reserved.

Provisions, similar to those of this chapter, for the reservation from sale of public lands in the Philippine Islands valuable for minerals, and the purchase of mineral deposits and the location of mining claims thereon, are contained in the act temporarily to provide for the administration of the affairs of civil government in the Philippine Islands, and for other purposes, Act July 1, 1902, c. 1369, §§ 20–62, 32 Stat. 697–706.

The reclassification of the public lands of Alabama, to determine which of said lands are in fact agricultural lands and which mineral lands, is authorized by Act March 27, 1906, c. 1347, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 2345.

Sec. 2319.

Mineral lands open to purchase by citizens.

Lands withdrawn from settlement, location, sale, etc., and reserved for water-power sites, irrigation, classification, etc., under Act June 25, 1910, c. 421, are open to exploration, discovery, occupation, and purchase, under the mining laws, as to minerals other than coal, oil, gas, and phosphates, by section 2 of said act, set forth ante, in chapter 5 of this Title, "Homesteads," under Rev. St. § 2289.

Sec. 2324. [As amended 1880.]

Regulations made by miners.

The provisions of this section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1426, relating to the labor or improvements required on mining claims, are modified as to mining claims in Alaska by Act March 2, 1907, c. 2559, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 2, 1907, c. 2559. [H. R. 8984.]

An Act to Amend the Laws Governing Labor or Improvements upon Mining Claims in Alaska. (34 Stat. 1243.)

Annual labor or improvements on mining claims in Alaska; affidavits, and making and filing thereof; forfeiture of claim for failure to comply with provisions of act.

Be it enacted, &c., That during each year and until patent has been issued therefor, at least one hundred dollars' worth of labor shall be performed or improvements made on, or for the benefit or development of, in accordance with existing law, each mining claim in the district of Alaska heretofore or hereafter located. And the locator or owner of such claim or some other person having knowledge of the facts may also make and file with the said recorder of the district in which the claims shall be situate an affidavit showing the performance of labor or making of improvements to the amount of one hundred dollars as aforesaid and specifying the character and extent of such work. Such affidavit shall set forth the following: First, the name or number of the mining claims and where situated; second, the number of days work done and the character and value of the improvements placed thereon; third, the date of the performance of such labor and of making improvements; fourth, at whose instance the work was done or the improvements made; fifth, the actual amount paid for work and improvement, and by whom paid when the same was not done by the owner. Such affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of the performance of such work or making of such improvements, but if such affidavits be not filed within the time fixed by this Act the burden of proof shall be upon the claimant to establish the performance of such annual work and improvements. And upon failure of the locator or owner of any such claim to comply with the provisions of this Act, as to performance of work and improvements, such claim shall become forfeited and open to location by others as if no location of the same had ever been made. The affidavits required hereby may be made before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and the provisions of sections fifty-three hundred and ninety-two and fifty-three hundred and ninety-three of the Revised Statutes are hereby extended to such affidavits. Said affidavits shall be filed not later than ninety days after the close of the year in which such work is performed.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2559, § 1, 34 Stat. 1243.

Fees for filing, etc., proofs of work and improvements.

Sec. 2. That the recorders for the several divisions or districts of Alaska shall collect the sum of one dollar and fifty cents as a fee for the filing, recording, and indexing said annual proofs of work and improvements for each claim so recorded.

Act March 2, 1907, c. 2559, § 2, 34 Stat. 1243.

Sec. 2326.

Adverse claim, proceedings on.

The times allowed for filing adverse claims and for instituting adverse suits thereon, under Rev. St. §§ 2325, 2326, are extended, in the district of Alaska, by Act June 7, 1910, c. 265, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 7, 1910, c. 265. [S. 621.]

An Act Extending the Time in which to File Adverse Claims and Institute Adverse Suits against Mineral Entries in the District of Alaska. (36 Stat. 459.)

Time for filing adverse claims, and for instituting adverse suits, in Alaska.

Be it enacted, &c., That in the district of Alaska adverse claims authorized and provided for in sections twenty-three hundred and twenty-five and twenty-three hundred and twenty-six, United States Revised Statutes, may be filed at any time during the sixty days period of publication or within eight months thereafter, and the adverse suits authorized and provided for in section twenty-three hundred and twenty-six, United States Revised Statutes, may be instituted at any time within sixty days after the filing of said claims in the local land office.

Act June 7, 1910, c. 265, 36 Stat. 459.

Rev. St. §§ 2325, 2326, mentioned in this act, are set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1429.

Previous provisions prescribing the times for filing adverse claims to coal lands in Alaska and for bringing actions thereon, are contained in Act April 28, 1904, c. 1772, § 3, set forth post, under Rev. St. § 2352.

Sec. 2327.

[Amended. Act April 28, 1904, c. 1796.]

This section is amended by Act April 28, 1904, c. 1796, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 28, 1904, c. 1796. [H. R. 13298.]

An Act to Amend Section Twenty-three hundred and twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes of the United States, Relating to Lands. (33 Stat. 545.)

Amendment of Rev. St. § 2327.

Be it enacted, &c., That section twenty-three hundred and twenty-seven of the Revised Statutes of the United States be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Description of vein claims on surveyed and unsurveyed lands.

"Sec. 2327. The description of vein or lode claims upon surveyed lands shall designate the location of the claims with reference to the lines of the public survey, but need not conform therewith; but where patents have been or shall be issued for claims upon unsurveyed lands, the surveyors-general, in extending the public survey, shall adjust the same to the boundaries of said patented claims so as in no case to interfere with or change the true location of such claims as they are officially established upon the ground. Where patents have issued for mineral lands, those lands only shall be segregated and shall be deemed to be patented which are bounded by the lines actually marked, defined, and established upon the ground by the monuments of the official survey upon which the patent grant is based, and surveyors-general in executing subsequent patent surveys, whether upon surveyed or unsurveyed lands, shall be governed accordingly. The said monuments shall at all times constitute the highest authority as to what land is patented, and in case of any conflict between the said monuments of such patented claims and the descriptions of said claims in the patents issued therefor the monuments on the ground shall govern, and erroneous or inconsistent descriptions or calls in the patent descriptions shall give way thereto."

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1796, 33 Stat. 545.

Rev. St. § 2327, amended by this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1431.

Sec. 2333.

ACT FEB. 11, 1897, c. 216.

Entry of petroleum or other mineral oil lands under placer mining laws.

Provisions relating to the annual assessment labor upon oil lands located as placer mining claims are contained in Act Feb. 12, 1903, c. 548, set forth below.

Patents for lands located, etc., under the mining laws, containing petroleum, mineral oil, or gas, are not to be denied solely because of transfer, etc., thereof, before discovery of oil or gas thereon, by Act March 2, 1911, c. 201, set forth below.

ACT FEB. 12, 1903, c. 548.

An Act Defining What Shall Constitute and Providing for Assessments on Oil Mining Claims. (32 Stat. 825.)

Assessment work on contiguous oil lands, located as placer mining claims, of same owner.

Be it enacted, &c., That where oil lands are located under the provisions of title thirty-two, chapter six, Revised Statutes of the United States, as placer mining claims, the annual assessment labor upon such claims may be done upon any one of a group of claims lying contiguous and owned by the same person or corporation, not exceeding five claims in all: Provided, That said labor will tend to the development or to determine the oil-bearing character of such contiguous claims.

Act Feb. 12, 1903, c. 548, 32 Stat. 825.

The entry of lands containing petroleum or other mineral oils, under the laws relating to placer mineral claims, is authorized by Act Feb. 11, 1897, c. 216, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1434.

ACT MARCH 2, 1911, c. 201. [H. R. 32344.]

An Act to Protect the Locators in Good Faith of Oil and Gas Lands who shall have Effected an Actual Discovery of Oil or Gas on the Public Lands of the United States, or their Successors in Interest. (36 Stat. 1015.)

Patents for oil or gas lands, located or claimed under mining laws, not to be denied because of transfer before discovery thereon of oil or gas.

Be it enacted, &c., That in no case shall patent be denied to or for any lands heretofore located or claimed under the mining laws of the United States containing petroleum, mineral oil, or gas solely because of any transfer or assignment thereof or of any interest or interests therein by the original locator or locators, or any of them, to any qualified persons or person, or corporation, prior to discovery of oil or gas therein, but if such claim is in all other respects valid and regular, patent therefor not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres in any one claim shall issue to the holder or holders thereof, as in other cases: Provided, however, That such lands were not at the time of inception of development on or under such claim withdrawn from mineral entry.

Act March 2, 1911, c. 201, 36 Stat. 1015.

Sec. 2335.

Verification of affidavits, etc.

In addition to the provisions of Rev. St. § 2335, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1435, relating to affidavits required by this chapter, applicants for mineral patents, residing beyond the limits of the district wherein the claim is situated, may make any oath or affidavit for proof of citizenship, as required by Rev. St. § 2321, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1425, before the clerk of any court of record or before any notary public of any State or Territory, by Act April 26, 1882, c. 106, § 2, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1425.

Sec. 2345.

ACT MARCH 3, 1883, c. 118.

Mineral lands in Alabama; disposal as agricultural lands.

The reclassification of the public lands of Alabama, to determine which of said lands are in fact agricultural lands and which mineral lands, is authorized by Act March 27, 1906, c. 1347, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 27, 1906, c. 1347. [H. R. 16381.]

An Act to Authorize the Secretary of the Interior to Reclassify the Public Lands of Alabama. (34 Stat. 88.)

Reclassification of lands in Alabama, as agricultural or mineral lands.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized to reclassify the public lands of Alabama, so as to determine which of said lands are in fact agricultural lands and which mineral lands, and to decide which of said lands should be subject to homestead entry, and to that end he is hereby authorized and empowered to employ such expert mineralogist, assayists, and civil engineers as may be necessary to designate and survey said mineral and agricultural lands.

Act March 27, 1906, c. 1347, § 1, 34 Stat. 88.

Lands designated as agricultural to be subject to homestead entry.

Sec. 2. That upon receipt of the report of the parties designated to make such classification, all lands designated thereby as agricultural shall be subject to homestead entry as such.

Act March 27, 1906, c. 1347, § 2, 34 Stat. 88.

Appropriation to carry out provisions of act.

Sec. 3. That for the purpose of carrying out this Act there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise expended, the sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Act March 27, 1906, c. 1347, § 3, 34 Stat. 88.

Sec. 2347.

Entry of coal lands.

Provisions for the protection of the surface rights of entrymen, under the nonmineral land laws, of lands subsequently classified, claimed, or reported as coal lands, are contained in Act March 3, 1909, c. 270, set forth below.

Agricultural entries on lands withdrawn or classified as coal lands, or valuable for coal, are provided for by Act June 22, 1910, c. 318, set forth below.

ACT MARCH 3, 1909, c. 270. [H. R. 24834.]

An Act for the Protection of the Surface Rights of Entrymen. (35 Stat. 844.)

Rights of entrymen under nonmineral land laws of lands subsequently classified as coal lands; disposal of coal deposits under coal-land laws.

Be it enacted, &c., That any person who has in good faith located, selected, or entered under the nonmineral land laws of the United States any lands which subsequently are classified, claimed, or reported as being valuable for coal, may, if he shall so elect, and upon making satisfactory proof of compliance with the laws under which such lands are claimed, receive a patent therefor, which shall contain a reservation to the United States of all coal in said lands, and the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. The coal deposits in such lands shall be subject to disposal by the United States in accordance with the provisions of the coal-land laws in force at the time of such disposal, but no person shall enter upon said lands to prospect for, or mine and remove coal therefrom, without previous consent of the owner under such patent, except upon such conditions as to security for and payment of all damages to such owner caused thereby as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction: Provided, That the owner under such patent shall have the right to mine coal for use on the land for domestic purposes prior to the disposal by the United States of the coal deposit: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be held to affect or abridge the right of any locator, selector, or entryman to a hearing for the purpose of determining the character of the land located, selected, or entered by him. Such locator, selector or entryman who has heretofore made or shall hereafter make final proof showing good faith and satisfactory compliance with the law under which his land is claimed shall be entitled to a patent without reservation unless at the time of such final proof and entry it shall be shown that the land is chiefly valuable for coal.

Act March 3, 1909, c. 270, 35 Stat. 844.

ACT JUNE 22, 1910, c. 318. [H. R. 13907.]

An Act to Provide for Agricultural Entries on Coal Lands. (36 Stat. 583.)

Coal lands subject to homestead or desert-land entry, to selection under Carey Act, and to withdrawal under Reclamation Act, with reservation of coal, etc.; limitation and conditions of entries; application of act to prior non-mineral entries.

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passage of this Act unreserved public lands of the United States exclusive of Alaska which have been withdrawn or classified as coal lands, or are valuable for coal, shall be subject to appropriate entry under the homestead laws by actual settlers only, the desert-land law, to selection under section four of the Act approved August eighteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, known as the Carey Act, and to withdrawal under the Act approved June seventeenth, nineteen hundred and two, known as the Reclamation Act, whenever such entry, selection, or withdrawal shall be made with a view of obtaining or passing title, with a reservation to the United States of the coal in such lands and of the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. But no desert entry made under the provisions of this Act shall contain more than one hundred and sixty acres, and all homestead entries made hereunder shall be subject to the conditions, as to residence and cultivation, of entries under the Act approved February nineteenth, nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An Act to provide for an enlarged homestead:" Provided, That those who have initiated non-mineral entries, selections, or locations in good faith, prior to the passage of this Act, on lands withdrawn or classified as coal lands may perfect the same under the provisions of the laws under which said entries were made, but shall receive the limited patent provided for in this Act.

Act June 22, 1910, c. 318, § 1, 36 Stat. 583.

Act March 3, 1877, c. 107, the desert-land law, mentioned in this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1548.

Act Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 4, the Carey Act, also mentioned in this act, is set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1554.

Act June 17, 1902, c. 1093, the Reclamation Act, also mentioned in this act, is set forth post, under chapter 11 of this Title, subc. "Irrigation in Arid Regions; Grants of Desert Lands to States for Reclamation."

Act Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, providing for an enlarged homestead, also mentioned in this act, is set forth ante, in chapter 5 of this Title, under Rev. St. § 2298.

Applications for entry, etc., under act.

Sec. 2. That any person desiring to make entry under the homestead laws or the desert-land law, any State desiring to make selection under section four of the Act of August eighteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, known as the Carey Act, and the Secretary of the Interior in withdrawing under the Reclamation Act lands classified as coal lands, or valuable for coal, with a view of securing or passing title to the same in accordance with the provisions of said Acts, shall state in the application for entry, selection, or notice of withdrawal that the same is made in accordance with and subject to the provisions and reservations of this Act.

Act June 22, 1910, c. 318, § 2, 36 Stat. 584.

Patents for lands, with reservation of coal, etc.; disposal of coal deposits; prospecting for coal; damages from mining to surface owners; mining by owners for domestic use; right to disprove classification as coal lands.

Sec. 3. That upon satisfactory proof of full compliance with the provisions of the laws under which entry is made, and of this Act, the entryman shall be entitled to a patent to the land entered by him, which patent shall contain a reservation to the United States of all the coal in the lands so patented, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. The coal deposits in such lands shall be subject to disposal by the United States in accordance with the provisions of the coal-land laws in force at the time of such disposal. Any person qualified to acquire coal deposits or the right to mine and remove the coal under the laws of the United States shall have the right, at all times, to enter upon the lands selected, entered, or patented, as provided by this Act, for the purpose of prospecting for coal thereon upon the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of a bond or undertaking to be filed with him as security for the payment of all damages to the crops and improvements on such lands by reason of such prospecting. Any person who has acquired from the United States the coal deposits in any such land, or the right to mine or remove the same, may reenter and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining and removal of the coal therefrom, and mine and remove the coal, upon payment of the damages caused thereby to the owner thereof, or upon giving a good and sufficient bond or undertaking in an action instituted in any competent court to ascertain and fix said damages: Provided, That the owner under such limited patent shall have the right to mine coal for use upon the land for domestic purposes at any time prior to the disposal by the United States of the coal deposits: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be held to deny or abridge the right to present and have prompt consideration of applications to locate, enter, or select, under the land laws of the United States, lands which have been classified as coal lands with a view of disproving such classification and securing a patent without reservation.

Act June 22, 1910, c. 318, § 3, 36 Stat. 584.

Sec. 2352.

ACT JUNE 6, 1900, c. 796.

Coal-land laws extended to Alaska.

This act is amended by further provisions relating to coal lands in Alaska, and all provisions of the coal land laws not in conflict therewith are continued in force, by Act April 28, 1904, c. 1772, set forth below.

No title to any mineral or coal lands in Alaska can be obtained under the amendment of Act May 14, 1898, c. 299, § 1, Comp. St. 1901, p. 1412, which extends the homestead laws to Alaska, by a provision of Act March 3, 1903, c. 1002, ante, under chapter 5 of this Title.

Provisions permitting consolidation of claims or locations of coal land in Alaska, and [illegible] of associations or corporations to perfect entry of and acquire title to such lands, under conditions and restrictions prescribed, are contained in Act May 28, 1908, c. 211, set forth below.

ACT APRIL 28, 1904, c. 1772. [S. 2814.]

An Act to Amend an Act Entitled "An Act to Extend the Coal Land Laws to the District of Alaska," Approved June sixth, Nineteen hundred. (33 Stat. 525.)

Location of lands on which coal mine has been opened or improved; filing notice of location.

Be it enacted, &c., That any person or association of persons qualified to make entry under the coal-land laws of the United States, who shall have opened or improved a coal mine or coal mines on any of the unsurveyed public lands of the United States in the district of Alaska, may locate the lands upon which such mine or mines are situated, in rectangular tracts containing forty, eighty, or one hundred and sixty acres, with north and south boundary lines run according to the true meridian, by marking the four corners thereof with permanent monuments, so that the boundaries thereof may be readily and easily traced. And all such locators shall, within one year from the passage of this Act, or within one year from making such location, file for record in the recording district, and with the register and receiver of the land district in which the lands are located or situated, a notice containing the name or names of the locator or locators, the date of the location, the description of the lands located, and a reference to such natural objects or permanent monuments as will readily identify the same.

Act April 28, 1904, c. 1772, § 1, 33 Stat. 525.

Patents for coal lands, how obtained; notice of application therefor; title to shore of navigable waters not to be acquired.

Sec. 2. That such locator or locators, or their assigns, who are citizens of the United States, shall receive a patent to the lands located by presenting, at any time within three years from the date of such notice, to the register and receiver of the land district in which the lands so located are situated an application therefor, accompanied by a certified copy of a plat of survey and field notes thereof, made by a United States deputy surveyor or a United States mineral surveyor duly approved by the surveyor-general for the district of Alaska, and a payment of the sum of ten dollars per acre for the lands applied for; but no such application shall be allowed until after the applicant has caused a notice of the presentation thereof, embracing a description of the lands, to have been published in a newspaper in the district of Alaska published nearest the location of the premises for a period of sixty days, and shall have caused copies of such notice, together with a certified copy of the official plat or survey, to have been kept posted in a conspicuous place upon the land applied for and in the land office for the district in which the lands are located for a like period, and until after he shall have furnished proof of such publication and posting, and such other proof as is required by the coal-land laws: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize entries to be made or title to be acquired to the shore of any navigable waters within said district.

Act April 28, 1904. c. 1772, § 2, 33 Stat. 525.

Subsequent provisions extending the times for filing adverse claims, as authorized in Rev. St. §§ 2325, 2326, and for instituting suits thereon, are contained in Act June 7, 1910, c. 265, ante, under Rev. St. § 2326.

Adverse claims, and proceedings thereon.

Sec. 3. That during such period of posting and publication, or within six months thereafter, any person or association of persons having or asserting any adverse interest or claim to the tract of land or any part thereof sought to be purchased shall file in the land office where such application is pending, under oath. an adverse claim, setting forth the nature and extent thereof, and such adverse claimant shall, within sixty days after the filing of such adverse claim, begin an action to quiet title in a court of competent jurisdiction within the district of Alaska, and thereafter no patent shall issue for such claim until the final adjudication of the rights of the parties, and such patent shall then be issued in conformity with the final decree of such court therein.

CHAPTER SEVEN.

Sale and Disposal of the Public Lands.

Sec. 2357.

Price of lands, $1.25 per acre.

Provisions for the subdivision, into lots of ten acres or less or into town lots, of certain lands in the State of Washington, and the appraisal and sale thereof at public sale for not less than the appraised value, are contained in Act June 9, 1906, c. 3067, set forth below.

The sale to associations or corporations for cemetery purposes of not to exceed 80 acres of public lands is authorized by Act March 1, 1907, c. 2286, set forth below.

ACT JUNE 9, 1906, c. 3067. [H. R. 17127.]

An Act to Provide for the Subdivision and Sale of Certain Lands in the State of Washington. (34 Stat. 229.)

Subdivision, appraisal, and sale of certain lands in Washington.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Interior may, if in his opinion the public interests so require, cause lots one, two, and three, and the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section four; and lots two, three, and four, and the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter, and all of the northeast quarter of section five; and the east half of the northeast quarter and the east half of the southeast quarter of section seven; and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter, and the south half of the southwest quarter of section eight, in township twenty-one north, and lot four of section thirty-three, in township twenty-two north, all in range two east of the Willamette meridian, in the State of Washington, or any part thereof, to be regularly surveyed or subdivided into tracts or lots of ten acres each, or less, and into town lots, or either, or both. He shall cause said lands to be so surveyed and subdivided and each tract thereof to be appraised by three competent disinterested men, to be appointed by him, and who shall, after having each been first duly sworn to impartially and faithfully execute the trust reposed in him, appraise said lands, subdivisions, and tracts, and each of them, and report their proceedings to the Secretary of the Interior for his action thereon. If such appraisement be disapproved, the Secretary of the Interior shall again cause the said lands to be appraised as before provided; and when the appraisement has been approved he shall cause the said lands, subdivisions, and lots to be sold at public sale to the highest bidder for cash, at not less than the appraised value thereof and not less than two dollars and fifty cents per acre, first having given not less than sixty days' public notice of the time, place, and terms of sale, immediately prior to such sale, by publication in at least two newspapers having general circulation in the county or the section of the county where the lands to be sold are situated; and any lands, subdivisions, or lots remaining unsold may be reoffered for sale at any subsequent time in the same manner, at the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior; and if unsold at such second offering for want of bidders then the Secretary of the Interior may sell the same at private sale for cash at not less than the appraised value nor less than two dollars and fifty cents per acre: Provided, That no date shall be fixed for the sale of any of said lands until at least ninety days after the Secretary of the Interior has approved said appraisement: Provided further, That any settler who is in actual occupation of any portion of such lands at the date of the passage of this Act who has settled thereon in good faith for the purpose of securing a home, and is by law entitled to make a homestead entry, shall be entitled to enter the land so occupied, not exceeding twenty acres in a body, according to the Government surveys and subdivisions thereof, upon payment to the Government of the sum of two dollars and fifty cents per acre for each acre entered by him, and upon showing residence and cultivation of such lands in the manner and for the length of time required by the homestead laws of the United States.

Act June 9, 1906, c. 3067, 34 Stat. 229.

ACT MARCH 1, 1907, c. 2286. [S. 6220.]

An Act to Authorize the Sale of Public Lands for Cemetery Purposes. (34 Stat. 1052.)

Sale of lands for cemetery purposes.

Be it enacted, &c., That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized to sell and convey to any religious or fraternal association, or private corporation, empowered by the laws under which such corporation or association is organized or incorporated to hold real estate for cemetery purposes, not to exceed eighty acres of any unappropriated nonmineral public lands of the United States for cemetery purposes, upon the payment therefor by such corporation or association of the sum of not less than one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre: Provided, That title to any land disposed of under the provisions of this Act shall revert to the United States, should the land or any part thereof be sold or cease to be used for the purpose herein provided.

Act March 1, 1907, c. 2286, 34 Stat. 1052.

Sec. 2372.

[Amended. Act Feb. 24, 1909, c. 181.]

This section, set forth in Comp. St. 1901, p. 1451, is expressly amended by Act Feb. 24, 1909, c. 181, set forth below.
